REPORT OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE GENERAL SOCIETY

The seventeenth annual convention of the Woman’s Home and Foreign Mission Society was held August 18, 1914, at Alton Bay, N. H., in the tabernacle as usual.

The opening hymn, “Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us” was earnestly sung as a prayer from the heart. The first devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Minnie R. Brown, Mark 10:45 being the subject. Ministering to others should surely be the first thought of a Mission Society.

The committees on Credentials, New Business, and Resolutions were at once appointed. Then as is our custom, new members at the Convention were presented, and Miss Charlotte Whitman of Maine, Miss L. Grace Prior of Vermont, and Prof. Dewing from Aurora College were introduced to the Convention.

Reports of the Clerks, Treasurer, and Eastern and Western Field Secretary were read and accepted. The annual survey of the field given by our business manager, Mrs. Maude M. Chadsey, was most interesting and encouraging. Miss Mary E. Rowe, our efficient superintendent of Y. W. A., Junior and Cradle Roll work gave splendid reports of these branches of our work. These reports showed a good increase of members and societies during the year and the Convention requests each local society to do special active work among the young people this coming year.

The reports from the Foreign Field, the Guindy Work, by Jess M. Saunders; the Vilacheri work, by C. H. Hudson, and the Zenana work by Bertha E. Keeney, were all very inspiring and most hopeful.

Very appropriate at this time, that beautiful song “He Knows,” was sweetly rendered by Miss Ruby Sweetser.

The noontide thought was presented by Mrs. Helen Keeney. I wish all might have heard this unique and most encouraging “Report” as she called it. The noontide prayer was voiced by Mrs. Annie P. Smith.

The afternoon session was opened by singing “Coronation.” A sad, yet welcome letter from one of our Executive Board Members, Eva I. McKenna was read by Mrs. Chadsey. Our

Dear sister did not feel that she could leave home at this time, as her eldest son, who is a captain of one of the military companies, was expecting daily to be called into service. With one accord our hearts went up to God for His blessing to rest upon our dear sister and her family. Mrs. E. A. Brundage of Virginia offered prayer.

Reports from Maine, New Hampshire, Northern Vermont and Quebec, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Northern California, Southern California, Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, and New Brunswick were read.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Maude M. Chadsey, president; Mrs. Annie P. Smith, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Bertha S. Bemis, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Nellie E. Fellows, clerk of Maine Corporation; Mrs. Annie P. Smith, clerk of Massachusetts Corporation; Mrs. Eva I. McKenna, Director. Voted, to ratify the choice of our sisters in the West and Middle West for their vice-presidents.

For a part of our Home Mission work, we decided to help furnish the rooms in the Annex of the Boston Bible School Home; also to continue raising money to pay on the Bible School Home Debt. The first week in November was selected to secure a "Thanksgiving Offering" through self-denial, for this purposes. It is selected to secure a "Thanksgiving Offering" through self-denial, for this purposes. It is hoped that a substantial sum may be realized for this most worthy cause.

We much desire to increase our list of subscribers for the All Nations, therefore, each local society is asked to appoint a committee to attend to that part of the work.

The Resolution Committee presented the following resolutions:

Whereas, God has heard our petitions and a noble Christian woman has heeded the call for foreign service, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we render thanks to our Heavenly Father for this answer to prayer and pledge ourselves to support Miss Cummins both financially and at the Throne of Grace.

Whereas, the present war crisis hampers our Mission Boards and has closed communication with our missionaries, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we urge our members to pray that our missionaries may be protected, that a way may be opened for help to be sent soon, and that we continue our gifts, that means may be forwarded when opportunity is afforded.

Whereas, the work under God's hand has prospered the past year, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we express our gratitude to all who have helped spread the Gospel of the Kingdom at home and abroad.

Whereas, we miss Sister Eva I. McKenna from this Convention, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we express our sympathy in this time of anxiety and pray that God may keep her and hers.

Committee.

Mrs. Chadsey was instructed to carry greetings from this convention to our sisters in the Middle West.

At seven o'clock p.m. a good audience assembled for the last session of this annual meeting. As usual, inspiring music was rendered by a splendid chorus, with Bro. F. A. Blackmer as leader. The Scripture was read by Mrs. Annie P. Smith and prayer offered by Mrs. Bertha S. Bemis. The address of the evening by Mrs. Emma G. Hall, was most helpful and encouraging.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE VELACHERI MISSION STATION FOR THE YEAR 1913-14

While submitting our Fourth Annual Report of work done for the year 1913-14 we desire to acknowledge our indebtedness to the friends, who by the giving of their means have made it possible, and most of all to our Heavenly Father who has blessed us with health and strength and called us unto His service.

Press Work

As this branch of the work has taken up the most of my time and attention it is given first place in the report. We have during the past year printed 8,725 books, 141,834 pamphlets, large numbers of tracts, making in all 1,920,615 pages. The bulk of this work, ninety-five per cent. has been religious literature. There is considerable job work obtainable here, which with an enlarged plant we could do with profit, but we do not feel called to enter this field. Our presses are kept busy all the time printing matter of greater import, and we find that any surplus time we may have aside from our other work can be spent to better advantage by getting out and distributing the same. We have lately added to our plant one 21x28 in. Columbian Press, one Crown Folio Treadle Press, one 21 in. Cutting Machine, considerable new English and Tamil type and one new eight h.p. engine, one-half cost of which is promised by the Government. This puts us in a position for doing better work and more of it than we have done before. We have made no special appeal for the cost of these machines but God, who knows our needs, has enabled us to meet our obligations as they have come due. We are praying now for one more Treadle Press to take the place of the I. C. Wellcome Press, which has seen good service and deserves a place of honor in the office as one of the many memorials that exist in India to those responsible for the work it has done here. This type of press is a very useful and inexpensive one to use and easy for the boys to handle. Besides this we need a Stitcher. We have an old-fashioned Stapling machine but it is out of date and we have difficulty in getting staples for it. The last were obtained in London. Work in hand at present is a 20,000 Pictorial edition of the Gospel of Matthew for the British and Foreign Bible Society, and a new Tamil Song-book of over three hundred hymns. My appeal in last year's report for short articles treating on the fundamentals of our faith brought one response, Bro. Hatch's article, "Is There a God?" It was first printed in English and an Indian Christian, realizing its worth, offered to translate it, now it has been printed in Tamil. A series of tracts was received from Ekl. A. E. Bloom of Minnesota, one of which was reprinted. Seventy-one dollars and eighty-eight cents has been received for job work, $28 from the sale of books and tracts. We have sent out a large quantity of literature for cost of postage, this is not accounted for here. These book sales are made up of items from 1 pie (1-6 of a cent) up to about four annas (eight cents), so you will see that it represents a large number of sales which have all had to be accounted for.

Carpenter's Shop

The boys here during the past year have made good progress. A considerable quantity of school furniture, type cases, etc., has been made and other profitable work done. Ninety-three dollars and sixteen cents has been received from sales. A teaching Grant from the Government of $116.60 and a free gift of tools costing $200 have also been received.

School

There is here a slight increase in attendance over last year. While old pupils pass out others come in to take their places. The teachers have worked well and progress has been good. Total Grants received were $301 including a special Grant of $83.33 for apparatus. Our total Grants received this year have been much in excess of previous years. Government has been very generous, that it may continue as liberal we can hardly dare to hope as the King's special Grant to education has given them more to spend than usual. But, year by year, as the prosperity of the country increases education, irrigation, sanitation, hospitals and roads are receiving more attention.

Orphanage

This feature of the work has been most encouraging. Our numbers are not as large as formerly. Some of the older lads having gone forth are now earning their own living, but the conduct of the boys we have has been exemplary. Among the big boys nothing has been done that has merited more than a rebuke. Realizing that the discipline in force, and that which is being done is for their good, they have all without exception co-operated to make things pleasant. We are proud of our boys and if it were not for their color one could almost imagine them a lot of good, healthy American lads. Emphasizing the doctrine of self-help, we have persuaded many of their friends to pay a little toward their support. One hundred and five dollars and seventy cents has been received in this way.

Medical

From August 1st, 1913 to May 1st, 1914, 1,582 patients have been treated during the regular hospital hours, i.e., 7-8:30 a.m., but many cases have been treated outside of those hours of which no account has been kept. Cases treated have been for ordinary diseases such as itch, boils, abscesses, scrofula, fevers, colds, wounds and sores of all kinds. Two-thirds of the cases have been women and children, who heretofore held a very great fear of "mission medicine." Nearly all who have received treatment have expressed their thanks and gratitude. Many tracts have been given to those who could read, and many times the story of the Great Physician has been told, sometimes to dull and stupid ears but more often to attentive listeners.

Sewing-school

The Sewing Class of Velacheri village girls was started in August, 1913. From a beginning of one the class rapidly increased to twenty-eight and remained at that number for six months, at which time the girls were called into the fields to help reap the ripened "paddy" (rice). The sewing has been mostly embroidered handkerchiefs. This work has enabled the girls to earn two or three annas per day (four or six cents) now that they have acquired some practice and speed. At first the amount was much smaller. The quickest girl can do three handkerchiefs a week but the majority of them cannot do two. Altogether they have made up-to-date six hundred and ninety-eight handkerchiefs. Their sewing is improving and we hope to send to America much nicer work during the coming year. The main part of this branch of the work goes on very quietly but very steadily, and that is their daily Bible lesson, Christian songs, prayer, and conversation about "Yesu Christu." Martha loves her girls and takes great interest in their welfare as well as their work. We have not as large a class now, owing to many of them still being in the fields, but we hope that the ten or twelve who are coming from daylight till dark may have the light of Christ's Gospel shining some day in their own hearts.

Church

The past year has been one of growth, not in numbers, but in grace, we hope. Five have been baptized and their names have been added to the Roll. Four couples have been married and four laid to rest. We have for some time been agitating self-government and self-support for the church. At the beginning of the year our efforts resulted in Bro. Moses Sigamoni being set aside entirely for that work. The church has assumed the whole responsibility of his salary. This is a step that we trust will result in many being brought into the fold of Christ, and be a means of strength to those already in.

Evangelistic

Although this is the most important part of our work its place in my report represents the place it has had to take with me. The only time when touring has been possible has been vacation time. Such trips have always been fruitful and my only regret is that my work will not enable me to make them more frequent.
Zachariah has worked faithfully all the year distributing many tracts. Mr. Sigamoni is doing regular work in this particular line.

This report is written to friends and supporters of the work who, while rejoicing with us at success, desire also to know of the weak side.
To my mind the Evangelistic is the weakest.
You can all understand how that the care of Press and Industrial alone, working six days a week, leaves one very little opportunity for anything else, but still we are making an effort, and although our little white-winged messengers are being sent all over the country, there are millions, not knowing one letter from another, who cannot be reached by them. Our plea is that this side of the work may be strengthened;
that God's man may hear the call and respond.

REPORT OF THE ZENANA WORK
Bertha E. Keeney

I AM but beginning to tell the Gospel, with great effort and much study, in the language of these people, but every month, I believe it will come more and more readily.
Only to-day a lady, who has been a zenana missionary for sixteen years, told me that it takes about two years and a half to really get into the work, and that until then, it is a great struggle with the language. At present I am memorizing the miracles and parables, as recorded in Luke, and the lessons which they teach. This is suggested by the South Indian Missionary Association. They will be useful to tell in the zenanas and will help more in acquiring the language than simply reading would do. Most of us foreigners learn to read sooner than we learn to speak, as we do when studying French or German at home.

The first of January when I began to go out regularly with the Bible women, there were seven of them, two full time ones, and five in the villages who teach in the schools during the day, and for an hour in the zenanas each day.
As I become able to understand and speak more easily, I can visit these outlying districts often and help the women there more, and also those Bible women, who need encouragement.

In one caste house a Bible woman is teaching three girls. I found they were not studying much by themselves, so I spoke to their uncle, who was there, hoping it would interest him a little in the girls and told him what a great benefit it would be if they could read well, how in the afternoon, while they are preparing the evening meal, one could read to the others and thus they would be kept from quarreling, and would learn much that is interesting and good.
In such a house where three or four families of relatives live together, and the women, in mind, are but children, there is room for much unpleasuntiness. The uncle quite agreed with me and I told him how, in America, the mothers, wives, sisters, or daughters sometimes in the evening, read to the gentlemen after they have come home, tired with the day's business. He thought a moment about this, which was entirely new to him, then said, "I wish you would come to teach these girls every week."

If I can, I will go every week, and the Bible woman for that village is going three times a week to teach them, and to talk to all the women of the house.
I thought the uncle had gone when I asked his wife if she had a Bible, but before she could answer he came from an adjoining room and said,
"No, and I don't want her to have one."

However, as soon as the girls can read stories, I hope to give them some Bible stories for lessons. It is better to sing and tell them the Gospel, which the men permit, if they cannot read it for themselves, than to lose all entrance into the home.

In other houses the situation is quite different.
The men admire the Christ of the Bible and His teachings, but the women, through ignorance and superstition, keep them from failing to follow outwardly at least, the forms and ceremonies of their ancient Hinduism. Our desire in such homes is to take the light to these women, that it may be easier for their children to become Christians, even though they themselves do not.

The girls of the Christian Endeavor Society of which I have been president for nearly a year, are earnest and faithful. The head master said one day, "Since you have been having Christian Endeavor meetings, I have seen a decided change in some of the girls in school.
I hope that speaking in meeting for the sake of others will be but the beginning of their active Christian work in the villages to which they will go when they leave us. Some of the Hindu boys and girls of Guindy are coming for the Sunday-school cards which we give them."

Many of the missionaries here are looking for and expecting the soon return of Christ, and the thought often comes to us that perhaps before the end, God will bring forth from among these Christians of India, mighty, spirit-filled evangelists, who, like John the Baptist, will stir this country to repentance, and prepare the way of the Lord, and many sheaves, that are now almost ready for the harvest, will be gathered in.
Since coming here, that great day has become very real to us, and often when we see the glorious sunsets, it seems as though then we might see Him coming in the clouds. What we can do is but little, but if done for Him, He will link it on to the great link of what He has done, and it will be understood and pleasing to Him, and reach out to bring in others. The number of letters from my “associates” has been considerably less this year, but they were earnest and helpful. I wish you could be here too, to help build up the cause of righteousness and pull down these strongholds of sin.

GENERAL REPORT OF THE INDIA FIELD

J. M. Saunders, Superintendent

BEFORE beginning my report of the year’s work, I would call your attention to the important fact that our force of workers was decreased by three at the beginning of the year owing to Miss Jones leaving for America on furlough, and Mrs. Allan and daughter going to Bangalore. This meant a readjustment of the work. The extra that was assigned to me was the Guindy Orphanage, and to this, I have devoted the most of my time. The care of a family of fifty children is about all the work one person should be responsible for.

Our orphanage work has been going on since 1901. The children who entered it those first years are now young women. Each year sees a number of them leaving the parental roof for homes of their own or to take up work of some kind. During the past year, eleven have left us, four were married, four went for teacher’s training, two for Bible women’s training, and one to do ayah’s work. You will be pleased to know that all of them were Christian girls. They have all been baptized and received into the church. Our number is now reduced to forty.

The industrial side of the work has been encouraging and productive of considerable financial help. The vegetables and fruit from the garden has furnished nearly all that was needed.

As an inducement for the village girls to attend school we offered a scholarship of two rupees a month if they would come and work in the weaving department before and after school each day. This has met with such good success that we have more applicants than we can put to work. We now have in the school about twenty-five Christian, Roman Catholic, Hindu and Mohammedan day scholars and they are all receiving sound Scripture instruction.

Another new venture is our dhoby kana (laundry). This was only recently started. Thus far it is working well and giving satisfaction.

Of all that has been done, we think that the converting of part of the hospital into a meeting room has been the best. We now have a neat, quiet place for our services. Besides the Sunday services we have every morning at 8.45 a fifteen minute prayer service, which everybody in the compound attends and as all of the teachers and scholars are here by that time, it makes a congregation of about seventy-five.

All of the girls have enjoyed excellent health during the year.

For the spiritual side of the work, we are pleased to report a steady growth. Five of the girls have been baptized during the year. We see a marked change in the lives of everyone who has taken this step. Some of them were among our most troublesome and hard to manage, now they are peacemakers instead of quarrelers and help instead of hinder. This great change in them is having a good influence on others. Under this heading we might mention that the second annual examination of the workers’ Scripture course was held last December. Only six obtained pass certificates. These have entered the third and last year of the course. Those who failed will take the second year again.

The school work: It is impossible for me to say much, except in a general way about this department of the work, because I was not able to give much attention to it, but on the whole, I think most of the schools kept up to their usual standard of work. This was evidenced by an increase of government grant in four of them.

It would be presumptuous for me to say that I was competent to take on the extra work I did, and carry all as successfully as it was done the year previous, so I beg you to judge kindly if the work done does not come up to expectations. I hope the work of the coming year will not be handicapped by lack of workers. This brings us to our great plea and we are encouraged to make it, because our divine Teacher told us to keep on asking until we receive—missionaries is our great need. Our work can be enlarged if we can have them, otherwise it cannot, so please do not forget this plea, but give it a large place in your thought and prayers.

In closing, I would remind you that we are still praying “Thy kingdom come;” can we not all help to answer this petition by taking an active part in preaching the Gospel of the kingdom in all the world in order that we may see that kingdom come before many of us have to taste death?

May I here give you the verses that John R. Mott quoted in his closing address at the great missionary conference in Edinborough:

“Time worketh,
Let me work too;
Time undoeth,
Let me do;
Busy as time my work I ply,
Till I rest in the rest of eternity.

“Sin worketh,
Let me work too;
Sin undoeth,
Let me do;
Busy as sin my work I ply,
Till I rest in the rest of eternity.

“Death worketh,
Let me work too;
Death undoeth,
Let me do;
Busy as death my work I ply,
Till I rest in the rest of eternity.”

ANNUAL SURVEY OF THE FIELD
Maude M. Chadsey, Business Manager

Many times during the year that is past we have heard the words of Fidelia Fiske, "Whatever Providence gives you to do, do it with all your heart," been an inspiration and incentive to do our best. And as we again gather in your heart, been an inspiration and incentive sover Providence gives you to do, do it with all work, which the Master has entrusted to us.

Each year as we look back over the year's work we are able to note our failures as well as our successes. This year will be no exception, but if we thank God for the successes, and ask His help in overcoming our failures, the review will be a benefit to us all. Therefore, with thanks­hundred and thirty-four locals, twenty-two year. With only one local, one Y. W. A. and one Junior Society reported as disbanding, although there are several that are weak and need visiting and encouraging, this leaves us with a net gain of nineteen societies for the year or one hundred and eighty-six in all. We have also added a large Cradle Roll list as will be seen by the Superintendent's report.

There is a great song of thanksgiving in our hearts that we were able to close our fiscal year, in spite of the hard times, with a small balance in the treasury, as will be seen by the treasurer's report. There are, however, some items in the report that we desire to call your special attention to. First, our cash receipts aside from the conditional gift, exceeded those of last year by $232.15; which is an encouraging fact, and as we received not large gifts from individual donors we can assume that the number of those interested in the work is increasing. The gifts for our special home work, the Boston Bible School, also show an increase over those of last year. Last year we paid to the treasurer of the home on the mortgage fund $156.73. This year, $303.77, which was largely the result of our Self-Denial week in November. The gifts for the support of the Home for both years have been small, although this year's exceeds last year's by $27.14.

We have called your attention to the encouraging things, but we must also look at the other side. Our membership dues are $6.00 less than last year, although the number of our societies is increased. This fact can only be accounted for by stating that some of the treasurers are not prompt in sending in the money for dues. Our subscriptions have also dropped $21.86 from last year. Just here is one of our weak points which we shall make further mention of later in this survey. Although our treasurer's report shows a balance of $276.38 at the close of our fiscal year, July 31st, we were never more in need of funds than at the present time, for because of the war, we can send no funds to India at present, but must be prepared with money in our treasury to cable them funds as soon as the way is opened. This means that we need a much larger income than usual during the next few weeks, and as this is the time of year when the mission receipts usually drop off, we need to make special efforts to tell of our need and secure gifts for the work. Last year we stated that an average income of $1,000 a month would enable us to carry on our work nicely and provide for any ordinary exigency that might arise. This statement is still true, but you will notice that our income averaged a little less than $900 a month for the year, aside from the conditional gift, and this has left us with nothing in this emergency.

Our subscription list is one of the departments of our work with which we are much dissatisfied. Although we have added several new names to our list during the year, our list is no larger than it was a year ago, as we have been obliged to drop so many names because of the postal regulations, which demand that all those whose subscriptions are more than one year in arrears be cut off from the list. We believe that this weak point can be strengthened if each local will appoint some active, energetic person to

THE HOME FIELD

Societies

At the beginning of the year we reported one hundred and thirty-four locals, twenty-two Young Woman's Auxiliaries and eleven Junior Mission Societies, making one hundred and sixty-seven societies in all. To these have been added during the year fifteen locals, five Y. W. A's and two Junior Societies, making an addition of twenty-two organizations for the year. With only one local, one Y. Y. A. and one Junior Society reported as disbanding, although there are several that are weak and need visiting and encouraging, this leaves us with a net gain of nineteen societies for the year or one hundred and eighty-six in all. We have also added a large Cradle Roll list as will be seen by the Superintendent's report.

ALL NATIONS MONTHLY.
look after the subscription list in their locality and this person make a business of collecting subscriptions and securing new subscribers. This is no untried plan, as several of our locals are doing so now and are meeting with success. But do not think that merely appointing the committee will bring in subscriptions. The committee will need to do some active work. Lists of subscribers in their locality and sample copies of the paper will be sent to anyone who will take up this work. If each subscriber would gain one new one during the year, it would mean not only doubling our subscription list, but practically doubling the interest in the work, for unless a person knows what is being done and keeps constantly in touch with the work, their interest grows cold and after a little is gone. Six hundred names added to our list would make the paper self-supporting. Shall we not determine to make it so before another annual convention?

Field Work

Our Eastern Field Secretary, Mrs. Annie P. Smith, has been prevented by other duties from going into the field to any extent in the interests of the work, during the year. She did, however, take a trip to Eastern Maine in the early winter and organized four new societies in that section. The Pacific Coast Field Worker, Mrs. Nina L. MacFadyen, has as will be seen by her report, visited twenty-three churches and given sixty-five addresses in the interest of the work, which has resulted in the organization of seven new societies. Miss Jones has also done much to increase the interest in our work in those sections which she has visited. Our State and District presidents have also been busy, and although we have not the exact figures as to the mission talks they have given, we know that they have done good work along this line. Besides this, the general president has had more calls to speak in the interest of the work than she could possibly fill, and already has engagements to keep her busy for the next two months. That it is a wise arrangement to have some one in the field in the different sections, continually keeping the work before the people, has been amply proved by results. More especially is this needed in sections where the locals are scattered and do not often meet with each other. Our aim is to have a mission local in every Adventist Church in our territory and if we all work together to bring it about, we shall be able to.

India Boxes

Two shipments, one in September and the other in April were made from Boston, the value of the two being $415. The one sent in April had not been received when the last letter from the field was written July 9th, but we trust that it was received before war was declared, as the goods went on a German Steamship.

The India Field

The reports from the field will give us the details of the work that has been done there during the past year, but we desire to emphasize a few things in this survey. The number of our native Evangelists and Bible Women remain as last year, namely fifteen. We have opened no new schools during the year, but the twenty (fifteen day and five night) have done good work. The number of teachers employed for the year were forty-three. There have been several opportunities to open new schools which could not be taken advantage of because of lack of funds. The government grants this year amounted to $1,378. This includes what was received for the orphanage schools as well as the village.

The changing of the Guindy hospital into a chapel for the church services has been a great advantage. The money for this was very properly taken from the church fund. This together with the establishing of a laundry at Guindy are decided improvements. The girls have woven 1200 yards of cloth during the year and made a large number of handkerchiefs and lace which have been sent to America. These, with the handkerchiefs, book marks and books sent from Vilacherie have brought $329.34 into our treasury.

At Vilacherie the press department has been greatly improved by the addition of new machinery and type. One million nine hundred and fifteen pages have been issued from the press during the year, 95 per cent. of which was religious literature.

The work at Saidapet has made splendid advancement during the year and promises to become one of the most important departments of our work, as here the workers come in touch with the students who are attending Madras University.

The total amount raised on the field this year was nearly $2,000. This with the amount received for articles sent to America brings the sum total raised on the field, $2,329.

Early in the spring our missionaries received a communication from a Mr. Davey, an evangelist who had been working in Travancore for Pastor Russell. It seems that Mr. Davey had established several "congregations" as he called them, scattered among the missions in that section, and that as Pastor Russell no longer desired to support them, Mr. Davey desired our mission to take charge of them. However, our missionaries have more than they can attend to in our own section and could not for many reasons take up this work 600 miles away.

Needs

Our greatest need on the field is more missionaries. This need will be partially met when Miss Cummins reaches India. She was booked to sail with Miss Jones, September 10th from San Francisco, but because of the war, their passage has been cancelled and they will necessarily remain in America until matters become more settled. The well-equipped man to take charge of the evangelistic work is still needed. However, we are encouraged by the fact that such a man with his wife is considering the India field, and we trust that if he is the man for the place, that he may see his way clear to go.

There are still four schools for whose support nothing is pledged. The cost of maintaining each school is $144 a year. Also the evangelistic and press work need more funds than come in for them.

At home we need, as ever, the hearty co-operation and steady support of our people. At present we are greatly in need of cash in hand as mentioned under finances.

The salary of Miss Cummins has not yet been pledged, nor have we received anywhere near enough for Miss Jones' transit.

Our special home work the Boston Bible School Home, has an extra need this year. The school having outgrown its original home, an annex is being built by the Regents. This means that there will be seven dormitories to furnish. It has been estimated that the average expense of furnishing these will be about $40 each or $280 in all, and as these must be furnished, or at least part of them, our need along this line is an urgent one. If different locals or groups of locals would take a room to furnish, the problem would be easily solved.

We need most of all, the prayers of God's people for the work and workers both at home and abroad. Everything points to the soon coming of our Master, and some may feel that we should not plan for the future of the work, but He has said, "Occupy till I come," and if we would meet Him with our lamps trimmed and burning, we must obey His command and be found occupying.

REPORT OF WESTERN FIELD SECRETARY FROM SEPTEMBER 15, 1913 TO JUNE 15, 1914

Dear Sisters:—Let me preface my report by giving you the text that I believe the Lord gave to me last fall when I started out to visit our churches and societies. A great feeling of loneliness and dread came over me when about to leave home, and in asking the Lord to give me special help I opened to this Scripture: "Seeing we have received this ministry as we have received mercy we faint not." It seemed that I went in the strength of those words for more than "forty days."

My plan as Auxiliary Worker for the Sunday-schools, Loyal Workers' and W. H. & F. M. Societies, was to visit every church, and if possible spend a week in each place. I commenced work September 15th among the Oregon and Washington churches.

I found our societies in greater need of help than I expected, and I wondered that they had given so liberally and faithfully when some of them knew so little of our work. They grasped eagerly everything I told them and I was enabled to make our mission work seem real to them by the use of the maps and diagrams of our compound which were sent me by our missionaries in India and also showing samples of some of the handiwork which our orphans were doing. After nearly two months touring among these churches I spent a short time in Southern California and then returned to Northern California the first of the year. We have a society in every church but one in Northern California so my work here was to strengthen rather than to organize.

The first of April I started north again, this time to visit the churches in the Eastern part of Washington and Oregon. Long stretches of country lay between these churches, sometimes taking a day and night of travel to go from one to another, but the eagerness of the people to hear about our mission work in India made work among them seem very easy. I also went over the Western churches again and was much pleased to note the progress some of the societies had made.

In all my speaking I strongly recommended educational work, mission study classes, reading of mission books, edifying programs and liberal distribution of our papers, because I have come to believe that real and lasting enthusiasm is based on knowledge. In every place I gave a Bible reading on the subject of Prayer. The results have been very gratifying and I know that in some of the societies a new and deeper interest has been thoroughly awakened.

In eight months I visited twenty-eight churches and gave sixty-five addresses in behalf of our work in India. Have organized seven new societies and revived five others, and gained about sixty new members. I have not made any appeal for money so I cannot report any financial result but I am sure that will come later.

Personally, the year has been one of sunshine and shadow. The Lord has been with me, and many a time when conditions seemed so unfavorable for our work and afterwards developed so wonderfully, I have been led to exclaim, "Surely the Lord was in this place and I knew it not." One thing I have learned is that God Has His own dear children who are doing His will, standing for His truth and sacrificing for His cause—real stars that are shining for Him—in the darkest and most out-of-the-way, country places, way off from the railroad where they rarely ever hear a sermon or have any religious advantages or encouragement, yet they are true to God, and I have been thinking, "What a gathering that will be! When they come from the East and the West and the North and the South and sit down in the kingdom of God."

Let me take this opportunity of expressing to my dear sisters in the East my appreciation of the love and sympathy I have received from them since my bereavement last year. Though I have not been able to acknowledge hardly any of the letters that have come to me, I do thank you all for them.

Yours in Christian service,

Mrs. Nina L. MacFadyen.

REPORT OF EASTERN FIELD SECRETARY, 1913-1914

To the Members of the W. H. and F. M. in Convention:

HOME and family cares have been so pressing the past year that but one trip has been made by your field secretary. The society, however, has not been without field workers, having had in our midst a real live missionary from the India field, who has done the kind of field work which is second to none. Our esteemed president has made a fine record in field work the past year. State presidents have also been active with excellent results. Many in the various locals who have the cause at heart have materially helped to “lengthen the ropes and strengthen the stakes” in their localities.

Saturday evening, November 29th I was delighted to find myself in Beals Island, Me., in time to take part in a mission concert in a most attractive little Adventist Church. There was an interesting company of young people present, as well as many of the older people. These young people had been led into the “mission spirit” by Mrs. Alfreda Brewster Wallace, president of the Maine State Organization, and had formed themselves into a “mission band.”

On Sunday evening it was my privilege to conduct a social service and prepare the way for special mission meetings Monday and Tuesday evenings, when the India work, with the lantern was presented to large congregations, and new impetus given to the activity already started. A call came for a preaching service on Wednesday evening, and at the close the young people voted to become auxiliary to the W. H. & F. M. and adopted the constitution. The new society then voted to adopt a girl in India, and declared their intention to take a share in the State work, in the support of the Tiravamur School.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings were spent in another part of the Island, called Alley’s Bay, where branch meetings are held. The people there have a neat little chapel for Sunday-school and weekly prayer-meetings. For two evenings the people filled the chapel. On the third evening (Saturday), a young people’s Auxiliary was organized. Later in the evening the chapel was again well filled and a preaching and social service was held. At the close quite a number of sisters came to the front and a local was organized at ten o’clock. The matter of a Junior Society was talked over, and we left with a good prospect for a Junior Society at Alley’s Bay.

On Sunday we again attended the services at Beals. Twenty-two bright, interesting boys and girls were organized in a Junior Society on Sunday afternoon.

We feel sure that these isolated sisters and children are heartily welcomed by the General Society.

Tuesday we crossed to the mainland and two meetings were held in the Baptist Church at Indian River, where the few Adventists unite in services with other denominations. The weather was severe and the attendance small. There were no visible results, other than making more thoroughly known, the work of Adventists in India. On Friday evening after a cold drive of ten miles the mission work was presented in the Adventist Church at Harrington. There are now very few Adventists in the community, but Baptists and Methodists made up a fair sized congregation. The people were excellent listeners, and it was a pleasure to talk to them of the India work and conduct services the following Sunday. The return trip was made next day.

We conducted fourteen meetings, took part in three other services, organized one local, two Young People's Auxiliaries, and one Junior Society. May the future either in time or eternity show that the blessing of God rested upon that two weeks' effort.

Respectfully submitted,
Annie P. Smith.

REPORT OF Y. W. A. WORK
Mary E. Rowe

To the members of the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Society of the A. C. Denomination:

Greeting: Your superintendent of the Young Woman's branch of our work presents the following report. It is not a report of work that she has done but a summary of what others have done.

Fifteen societies have reported. Two report no work done and one reports reoganization. The twelve giving full reports have a total membership of one hundred and eighty-two.

The amount of money raised for home work is $109.27, for foreign work $329.02 making a total of $438.29. These societies are in Alley's Bay, Beals, and Friendship, Maine; Belmont, N. H., South Vernon, Vt., Boston, Lynn, and Worcester, Mass., Bridgeport and East Norwalk, Conn., Providence, R. I., and West Head, Nova Scotia.

Three societies have disbanded. These were in Crouseville, Me., Danbury, N. H., and St. Mary's, N. B.

Five new societies have been organized: these are in Alley's Bay, Beals, and Mapleton, Maine; Brockton and Newburyport, Mass.; and East Norwalk, Connecticut.

Some of the societies have held mission concerts as a means of raising money and they must also have been a source of instruction to the people. Other lines of work have been those usually done in the past.

Four societies have studied mission books. Material for the page in the All Nations has been provided most of the year. Last fall it was suggested that the societies take for a motto for the year, "Watch and pray." Following this some of the State superintendents furnished articles on the following subjects: "Watching the Lips," "Watching the Company We Keep," and "The Wicked Watcheth the Righteous."

Miss Keeney's salary has been paid and something from her has been printed in the All Nations each month.

Interest in mission work among the young people in other places is reported and the outlook for the coming year is encouraging. The need of the hour is prayer.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT
Mary E. Rowe

To the members of the W. H. & F. M. Society of the A. C. Denomination:

Greeting: The number of Junior societies reporting this year is seven, one more than last year. Two new societies have been organized but they failed to report.

These seven societies have done some hard work. They report $155.94 given to home work and $58.20 given to the foreign work, a total of $214.14. Much credit is due the superintendents of these societies. As cooked food sales, the making of rugs and quilts are mentioned among the ways of raising money it would seem as if the youngsters had enlisted the services of their elders.

Six of these societies have a total membership of eighty-eight, a gain of eight over last year.

As special work sixteen children are being educated in the schools of India. The Christian Orphanage in Iowa has been helped by one society. Gifts have been sent to shut-in children and invalids and much has been done to help their home churches. One society has purchased a bell for its church and another has aided in the repairing of the church building and purchased a chair for furnishing. All these things are helpful to the recipients and to the children. Setting the children to work is one means of educating them on mission lines.

Only one society reports any study of missions. Probably some verbal instruction is given but not reported. Books containing short stories for this purpose may be had at the office in Boston. That the children may have an intelligent understanding of missions it seems necessary that they receive some instruction. To help on this line an imaginary visit to India is being taken with the Juniors on the last page of the All Nations Monthly.

One encouraging feature of this work is the interest taken in our mission work by children who are not organized as Junior societies. The Zion's Hill Mission Band is a live organization and has given $64.97 to the work this year. They educate two children in India and have a mission meeting once a month. Children in Whitman, Mass., are educating a child in India. The people were excellent listeners.

One encouraging feature of this work is the interest taken in our mission work by children who are not organized as Junior societies. The Zion's Hill Mission Band is a live organization and has given $64.97 to the work this year. They educate two children in India and have a mission meeting once a month. Children in Whitman, Mass., are educating a child in India and many of our Sunday-schools are helping along mission lines. Special work is being done with the children in Attleboro, Mass.

During the year Junior certificates have been provided for children six years of age, and over. Any child of that age not connected with a Junior society may become a member of the mission society by paying twenty cents a year. A membership card and mite box will be given to all such and all Cradle Roll members when they are six years old. Thirty of the latter have been promoted and the names of two children in Oswego, N. Y., and two in Middleboro, Mass., have been received making thirty-four on this list. The new names will be printed in the All Nations each month.

Truly the work with the children is a promising feature of our work and should be cultivated by the local societies. Is it too much to ask that every local give some attention to this matter and wherever practicable have a Cradle Roll and a Junior Mission Society the coming year?

RESOLUTIONS

Passed by Western Washington and British Columbia Advent Christian Conference.

Whereas, We esteem it the highest privilege to have had Miss Ella Jones present at our annual meeting, and

Whereas, Interest in missions has been greatly stimulated by the graphic pictures of the life and conditions there, so ably portrayed, and

Whereas, We have learned to love and respect her for herself, and also for her efficiency in the work to which she has dedicated her life, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to her our thanks and appreciation for services rendered so willingly and in such an interesting manner, and assure her that our love and prayers shall follow her always. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Miss Jones, a copy to the Advocate and one to All Nations.

Adopted August 9, 1914, at Nooksack, Wash.

Attest: J. E. Brown, Sec.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE REPORT

THE annual meeting of the W. H. & F M. Society of New Hampshire was held in the Lowell chapel, Alton Bay, August 19, 1914.

The meeting was opened by singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee." On account of the absence of the President, Mrs. Bertha Little, southern vice-president presided. Prayer by Mrs. Maude Chadsey. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted as were also the secretary-treasurer's and auditors' reports.

The report of the Superintendent of the Y. W. A.'s was read and accepted. Reports from the different locals were read, also letters in regard to the school we are supporting. It was voted to take this school as a permanent work. Ballots were then cast for officers which resulted as follows, President, Mrs. Bertha Little; Southern Vice-President, Mrs. Susie Davis; Northern Vice-President, Mrs. Grace Swain; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Nellie J. Jenness. It was voted that Miss Mary Rowe, Gen. Supt. of the Y. W. A.'s should appoint a superintendent for the State.

Nellie J. Jenness.

INDIA BOXES

We have received mail from India twice since our last issue. One letter informed us that after some difficulties, in which the Lord overruled, the boxes from America arrived safely and everything was in fine condition. Many hearts were made glad by the gifts contained and the missionaries wish to thank all the friends who so kindly remembered them.

Several parcels have come in for our next shipment. We are unable to state just the date of shipping because of the war, but trust that the way may be open for us to send soon.

SMILE WHEN YOU CAN

When things don’t go to suit you,
And the world seems upside down,
Don’t waste your time in fretting,
But drive away that frown;
Since life is oft perplexing,
’Tis much the wisest plan
To bear all trials bravely,
And smile whene’er you can.

Why should you dread to-morrow,
And thus despoil to-day?
For when you borrow trouble,
You always have to pay.
It is a good old maxim,
Which should be often preached,
“Don’t cross the stream before you,
Until the stream is reached.”

You might be spared much sighing
If you would keep in mind
The thought that good and evil
Are always here combined.
There must be something wanting,
And, though you roll in wealth,
You may miss from your casket
That precious jewel—health.
And, though you’re strong and sturdy,
You may have an empty purse,
(And earth has many trials
Which I consider worse,)
But whether joy or sorrow
Fill up your mortal span,
’Twill make your pathway brighter
To smile whene’er you can. —Sel.

REPORT OF THE “KING’S JEWELS”

Mary E. Rowe

NO other branch of my work gives me the pleasure this one does. One reason may be because it increases so rapidly. Membership at last report one hundred and seventy-six, two deaths have been reported, eighteen have been promoted to the Junior list and eighty-eight names have been gained making a present membership of two hundred and forty-four.

The question has been asked, What benefit will the baby receive from being enrolled? A Standard for local Cradle Roll superintendents has been printed which if followed will give many opportunities of Christian service to the child and mother. Some of the items are as follows:

Recognition of birthdays and special days.
Suitable remembrance in case of sickness or death.

Annual promotion day with reception for mothers and babies.
Mothers and babies visited in their homes.
Mothers helped in care of babies by literature.
Mothers instructed in missions by literature.
Mission stories given to children when old enough to hear them.

These show a few of the ways in which the child may be benefitted.

If notice of the death of a little one with address of parents is sent to the General Superintendent, she will have an opportunity to write a note of sympathy to them. One such letter was written the last year.

Some of the names have been kept on the list after they passed their sixth birthday but now that we have Junior certificates they will be promoted when they reach that age.

During the year a birthday card has been sent to each child whose date of birth is known to me, also a tract or paper for the child or mother.

Our Jewels are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Our work is to teach them about missions. This can be done through the Cradle Roll and the Sunday-school. We should not be satisfied with getting moneys for present needs. We must look a little into the future and prepare for it by educating the children. If they are taught to love missions and to give for missions while young, how helpful may they be later in life. We may be educating little missionaries. May it be our aim the coming year to have a Cradle Roll in every society.
