*The Board of Foreign Missions
respectfully presents to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America its One Hundred and Eighteenth Annual Report, the Ninety-third of its Separate and Independent Action and the Fourth of the Reorganized Board, continuing the former Woman's Board

The Board of Foreign Missions presents herewith its one hundred and eighteenth annual report to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. It is well to be reminded year by year of this long history during which the world has seen many changes but the Church has gone steadily on carrying out the commission of her Lord and widening the circle of her influence round the world.

The year under review has witnessed new changes. India has become an independent republic; China has fallen into the hands of Communists. Perhaps no changes in the years that are past have possessed deeper significance. Even now we are too close to these revolutionary happenings to know what they may bode for the future but it becomes at least increasingly clear that the East will be an ever more vital factor in the years which lie ahead. That the Church will have its share in shaping that future is equally clear. The Lord's blessing upon the work which has been done, the high courage and faith of missionaries who have remained at their posts in the midst of danger, and our own reliance upon an omnipotent God all challenge us to such high optimism.

The Report as presented to the General Synod does not contain all financial statements because of the early date of the annual meeting. They will be added to a later final report. It is expected that the fiscal year will soon be changed to the calendar year which will cause some confusion at first but thereafter will mean more orderly preparation of the report for the General Synod.

Once again we express for the Board grateful appreciation of the loyal support of the Church which has made it possible in spite of increased costs to maintain an expanding work overseas.

CHAPTER ONE

*"... for a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries."
(1 Cor. 16:9)*

The report for last year foreshadowed the revolutionary change of government which took place in Amoy in the early fall. The first half of the year under review was thus spent in anticipation of this event. It is impossible for us here to realize the tension of those months. The missionaries had taken their resolution to remain, but none could predict the course of events. How and when would the turnover take place? Would there be violent fighting and mass disturbances? How would the conquerors treat the missionaries and their Chinese colleagues?

We have every reason to be thankful to God that in spite of the large movement of troops in retreat and the advance of the armies of the new government, and in spite of the bombs which fell and the danger from flying shrapnel, broken glass and falling plaster, all the missionaries came through unscathed. After the change over, there was some difficulty at first with communications and the sending of funds, but at the present time these have largely been overcome and letters come through frequently. The stations sent their full reports directly to us this year instead of to a member of the Mission for condensation and most of these have reached us.

What is the situation today and what can be expected in the future? A summary of some statements in the reports will help us to an answer to these questions:

Reports from China vary so much that it must be difficult for anyone living outside of the country to formulate any definite opinion. From one center come reports of friendly negotiations, from another arbitrary restrictions and outright persecution. It is still the military phase in South Fukien, since the island of Formosa, 100 miles to the east, and the island of Quemoy, lying only seven sea miles from Amoy, are still in the hands of the Nationalist government. When the civil government takes over, the situation will undoubtedly be different.

But it is well to remember China's history. Her people are not philosophers but practical farmers and business men. In the past "pragmatic adjustment of life to life won out over principle and ideology, good and bad." If any country should be able to reshape Communism to serve its own practical good, that country should be China. Although apparently ruled by monarchs, the people's inherent freedom of thought and action has been axiomatic. Rulers held sway as long as they respected this inherent right of the people.

Today the Utopia promised by the Communists finds warm sympathy in the hearts of the masses, disheartened by the long years of war and disillusioned by unfulfilled promises of the past impotent regime. Communists proclaim certain freedoms and the right of private property. Actually, however, freedom is guaranteed only to those who in blind obedience follow the path of Communism. Never has there been such rigid regimentation and absolute control. This irks the Chinese, and the disregard of the middle-aged and the aged and the catering to youth also runs counter to basic Chinese thought patterns.

As Christians we are primarily concerned with the Christian community and its strength under the new order. In Fukien and Kwantung provinces, the Church is more united and more self-governing than in any other section of China. The Communists recognize this strength. If any Christian community be able to continue in its own way of life, that community should be the Church of South Fukien, where the ideals of Christianity have permeated the entire social structure. The history of the Christian Church in China has proved that she can survive opposition and that adversity has brought to the surface the Divine power within her.

As for the actual situation since the "liberation," the new regime in the interior stations has left the missionaries strictly alone. There have been no interviews and no registrations. Activity, however, has been confined strictly to the residence area. No one in Leng-na, for example, has gone farther than a ten-minute walk outside the city. One exception may be Tong-an, where Dr. Hill has held a weekly clinic in a village seven miles outside the city, but no movement between the stations has been possible.

The churches continue their services as usual. A new pastor was recently installed in one of the churches in Kulangsu and regular classes and church committee meetings have been held. In fact, churches are crowded and a new sense of consecration is present in the services. The Christmas season was observed in all the churches with the usual special music and crowded churches, except that the carol singing was curtailed. The Theological Seminary has been undisturbed and so far there has been no interference with the work of the hospitals. The Christian group on the campus of Amoy University has grown from thirty to sixty since the change in government, and as we write a series of revival meetings is being held on the Island of Kulangsu, with thousands in attendance.

On the other hand, the army has taken over the missionary residence in Sio-khe, the missionaries having already been evacuated to the Port. The church there has been occupied and the hospital, except for a few rooms, has been converted into a military prison. The schools have in some cases had to carry on week day Bible instruction outside of school hours and other troublesome regulations have been made.

It is impossible to give all the interesting facts contained in the reports in hand. It will be well, however, to go through and pick out some of these. The year divides itself into two parts,—the months before “liberation” and the months after, and it will be necessary in reading to keep this in mind. The new administration and chapel extension at Talmage College, made possible by the United Advance Fund, was completed during the year and a second dormitory was nearing completion, built with contributions from Chinese friends of the school. Considerable adjacent land for agricultural projects was also acquired through gifts from Chinese and government loan. The Changchow Union Hospital was able to move to its new building, although it is not entirely finished. One wing of the new Girls’ High School at Leng-na was finished in July. A four-story residence at Hope Hospital for staff members was begun with money contributed by the Chinese, but work has now been discontinued through lack of funds. Additions have also been made to the Leng-na Hospital for the accommodation of patients and staff.

In spite of disturbed conditions the Girls’ School at Leng-na carried on a summer school for 150 girls and a very successful district Youth Fellowship conference was held there. The youth group in the Leng-na Church numbers from fifty to eighty. Toward the end of the year, 120 of the Christian youth leaders in Changchow met for an all-day retreat—a group of serious young folk conscious of the seriousness of the time. In Leng-na forty of the leaders in the station are holding meetings once a month for prayer and mutual encouragement. The Christian students of Talmage College meet regularly for prayer on the top of the hill at the back of the school campus. A new preaching place was opened in a village near Cheng-ping with seventy to eighty in attendance. In November the faithful preacher of the Sio-khe Hospital died at the age of eighty-four and his funeral was attended by a thousand people. Weekly cottage prayer meetings are continuing at Leng-na with forty or fifty in attendance.

This year saw the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Hope Hospital and the completion of twenty years of service of Dr. Holleman as superintendent of the hospital. In January 1950 the hospital was turned over to its first Chinese superintendent, Dr. C. T. Huang, the son of Dr. David Huang, Dr. Otte’s faithful associate for many years. Last year the hospital, with a staff of 135, treated 1526 inpatients and 31,438 outpatients and public health nurses made 644 outside calls. The Nursing School has thirty-seven nurses in training. The Fagg Memorial Hospital at Leng-na treated 926 inpatients and 13,525 outpatients. Twenty or thirty people now attend the local church as the result of the last two years of hospital evangelization.

It will be seen from these few extracts from the reports which have been received that the work of evangelization is not standing still in Amoy. But we must beware of too great optimism. It is to be doubted that this next year will present so hopeful a picture. There is evidence of greater pressure on the schools. Enrollment is down, propaganda pressure is increasing and, as Dr. Poppen writes of Talmage College, "our very existence is threatened." The Acting Principal of Talmage while the Principal, Mr. Lin was in this country, is still missing, having been abducted on his return from Classis meeting. Dr. Holleman reports that the income of Hope Hospital for December was only one-fifth that of July. The situation is still unclear and we can only hope and pray as we confront the future.

The Board has no illusions with regard to Communism and recognizes the difficulty inherent in carrying on missionary work under the new Peoples' Government of China. Nevertheless, it honors the decision of the missionaries to remain in China. Their Chinese colleagues must remain and it is proper for the missionaries to stand with them in this crisis. We have complete confidence in them. We have no fear that they will compromise on essential principles. At this distance it is difficult to pass judgment on detailed decisions which they must make. They must be left free to act as the Spirit leads them and the Board urges the members of the Church to give the missionaries their support in daily thought and prayer. We must not add to the crushing difficulty of their situation by saying or doing anything that would seem to indicate any lack of confidence in them.

The report of one of the upcountry stations ends with the words of the Apostle which head this chapter. The writer says, "In our isolation we thank God for the work our hands still can do and we are grateful for our many blessings. What the future holds only God knows, but we believe that even as He has led the Amoy Mission in the past one hundred years and more, through this great land's turbulent history, so He will guide it in the days to come."

CHAPTER TWO

"I am become all things to all men that I may by all means save some." (I Cor. 9:22)

The words of the great apostle come readily to one's mind in describing the work in India. It is so varied in character, including great institutions such as the Christian Medical College at Vellore supported by some forty different bodies in Great Britain and North America and the liberal arts colleges in Madras for men and women. There are also training schools for teachers, a theological seminary and a farm. The care and cure of leprosy are also a part of the program and from Vellore and Wandiwash, rural clinics which were pioneer experiments twenty years ago now start thousands of patients on the road to recovery. There are also similar clinics at the Scudder Memorial Hospital at Ranipet. We are grateful to the Mission to Lepers of London and to American Leprosy Missions, Inc. for their contributions to the financing of this work which is so reminiscent of our Lord's ministry.

In most of the larger institutions we cooperate with other denominational bodies and in the Church itself, the Church of South India, we work side by side with colleagues of varying background in order that the witness to the non-Christians may be more convincing. All this requires something of that catholicity of spirit which made it possible for Paul, with all his Jewish prejudices, to become the great missionary to the Gentiles and their staunch defender when some of their practices were questioned by the Church at home.

The process of union continues as local bodies merge with the united councils and committees of the Church. Missionaries, pastors and laymen attend the local councils of the united Church and find new life and inspiration through wider contacts and fellowship. A very interesting movement is also developing to emphasize and dignify the service of the women of the church. An organization called the "Women's Fellowship" has come into existence and there is keen interest in a project to start an "order" of women pledged to lifetime service in the Church. A group of unmarried Indian women who already serve the Church in various capacities greatly desire the security and fellowship which membership in such an order would bring them.

On January 26, 1950, India became a free republic while still enjoying dominion status in the British Commonwealth of Nations. The framing of the new constitution was a time of considerable anxiety for missions, lest there might be some curtailment of our freedom to teach and propagate the Christian religion. The final decision was that any religious body might have that freedom. There are some restrictions as to the teaching of religion during regular school hours and consent of parents to such teaching is required. It was deeply significant that when this question was presented to non-Christian parents of pupils in our Sherman Memorial High School 43 percent expressed the desire that their children should receive such instruction. Living as we do in a country where religion is excluded from our public schools it is highly encouraging to receive such a response from the Hindu community.

One development following upon independence will deeply affect our Mission. Madras Presidency is to be divided into two provinces by the separation of the Telugu districts into a new province. We have always been divided into two language areas, Telugu in the north and Tamil in the south, which has meant the necessary duplication of many of our institutions. Now we shall have two provinces and our work will be divided into two dioceses of the Church.

One important development in the work of the year was the raising of Hope School at Madanapalle to high school grade. This was a restoration to its former status and was made possible by the generous gifts of the students and faculty of Hope College. This is a step urged strongly by the Telugu Christians for many years and it has brought great hope and encouragement to that community.

Only partial reports have been received from India but they indicate again substantial additions to the Christian community. Mrs. Arputham William, who visited America a few years ago, tells the story of some of this work and gives an interesting picture of the special services held on Christmas. The Indian people love a "tamasha," a celebration of any kind and harvest festivals and other special services are a feature of evangelistic work in the villages. So on Christmas Day a Christmas festival flag is hoisted on Zion Hill near the Farm School and Mrs. William gives the following picture of the ceremony:

"It is a very great day for the people. When the sun set we saw groups of people coming with their drums and pipes. At the foot of the hill the men lit their torches, the women and children lit little clay lamps and all climbed the hill singing. The women placed their lamps around the front of the Christian temple, the children placed theirs around the flagstaff and in long rows in the center. A short but inspiring service was held. Mr. De Valois gave a beautiful and meaningful address on what the Christmas flag stands for. Later not less than 800 people saw the moving picture of the 'King of Kings' — and sat spellbound, seeing and hearing the wonderful life of the Savior. We felt that they went home wanting Him to be their King.

"Christmas service was held between 5 and 6 a.m. in our chapel at the Farm. Then, after breakfast, Pastor and I went with Mr. and Mrs. De Valois in their jeep to a village 3½ miles away to join with a group of persecuted Christians who were so happy to worship the Baby Who was born for those who are slighted and downtrodden. From there we went to another village seven miles away where we had a wonderful time. This village of Krishnapuram was an old but lifeless village. The young men and a new teacher have done such good work that sixty men, women and children were baptized on Christmas day, and ate together at a common feast of fellowship afterwards.

"Before Christmas, on the 18th of December, we were called to a village where forty-six people wanted to be baptized before Christmas. Baptism does not end our work among these people, but is the beginning of our responsible work, so that they may grow in the new life."

This is but one example of the way in which the message is being carried to the humble folk in the villages who, as when Jesus was on earth, still "hear Him gladly."

CHAPTER THREE

"I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, thankful for your partnership in the Gospel."

Phil. 1: 3-5

Japan continues to challenge American Christians with a unique Christian opportunity; evangelistic meetings for the unchurched attract large crowds and the demand for Bibles continues unabated. The Christian magazine, The New Age, published in cooperation with one of the large secular newspapers, is sold out as soon as it reaches the newsstands. The exhibition of the history of Protestant Christianity, arranged in a large Tokyo department store by this same newspaper, in commemoration of the ninetieth anniversary of the beginning of Protestant work in Japan, was visited by thousands of people.

This task of evangelization in Japan is so vast and overwhelming that it dwarfs even such significant efforts as have already been made. This program of evangelization must be still more vigorously pressed in the years immediately ahead. As one step basic to all this the work of relief and rehabilitation has been continued through the year. Six distributions of food and clothing were made to 1170 ministers' families in the Church of Christ and four distributions to 3,588 families in related Christian institutions. These supplies have been made available through our relief funds and supplies contributed through Church World Service and have constituted just that extra needed to give our Christian workers the vigor required for the arduous tasks of church and school. No one can meet these friends today without realizing how much this relief has meant to them.

The program of church building has been continued. About 200 new churches have been built to replace those burned during the war. In addition to the funds made available from our Church and others related to this program, the Japanese themselves contributed the equivalent of $250,000, a truly impressive amount when their situation is considered. While churches reconstructed do not equal quite half those destroyed, the most strategic and necessary units have now been built.

A major piece of reconstruction is the rebuilding of the Sturges Seminary, the high school for girls at Shimonoseki. We share with the Northern Presbyterian Church in the work of this school. Our United Advance Fund made it possible for us to contribute about one quarter of the total cost of rebuilding and the foundation for the new building has now been laid. Mr. Hirotsu, former principal of the school, brought out for inclusion in the cornerstone the small bell which Miss Couch had had on her desk when she was principal of the Umegasaki Girls' School in Nagasaki, a constituent member of the united school at Shimonoseki. The message from the Board of Foreign Missions, inserted in the cornerstone, was the text which heads this chapter.

The rural institute, which is regarded by many as the most significant piece of work undertaken since the war, continues to attract students who are committed to making the work of Christian evangelism in rural areas their life dedication. The school comprises simple dormitory and classroom buildings on a farm of twenty-seven acres where, in addition to classroom work, the students carry on practical farming. There are at present forty-two students from twenty different provinces in a three year course. The head of the school is the Rev. Mr. Murono, who was trained in a pioneer rural church associated with our Mission in pre-war days. In addition to this central school two regional institutes are now in operation and more than one hundred short term rural schools were held last year. The students in these short term schools are brought in from the farming villages for instruction in the Bible and in Christian rural living. Three students went back from one of these schools last year and started a Bible Class in their village, attended by seventy people, seven of whom had already been baptized when the report came to us. The importance of this program in rural evangelism can be appreciated when it is remembered that, of the churches in the Church of Christ, 1203 are in cities and towns and only ninety-nine in villages, and that after making due allowance for the work of other churches, there are at least 8000 rural communities without a Christian Church.

Another development of the year was the establishment of a Protestant Center on an important corner of one of the main streets of Tokyo. Tenants in the nine-story, reinforced concrete building, belonging to the Christian Literature Society, have been relocated and all of the major Protestant agencies have been moved to this building. It is immediately contiguous to the Japan Bible Society building, so that a worthy center for Protestant activities has thus been provided. This will mean much, not only for the prestige of Protestantism—important in the present situation in Japan—but it will also make for greater efficiency in bringing people together in one place for easy consultation on matters affecting the Christian movement.

The project for the establishment of a Christian postgraduate university in Japan continues to develop. The Japanese—mostly non-Christians —have contributed Yen 160,000,000 (nearly half a million dollars) and with this sum have purchased and made a gift to the university of a site of 350 acres, with a large, nearly completed building on it. The campaign for $10,000,000 in the United States is now under way. It is the unanimous purpose of all involved in this project, including the Japanese contributors, that this institution be not just a college where a liberal education is given, but that it be Christian in life and teaching purpose, as a demonstration to Japan of the true meaning of education with a central life purpose. In the organization of the Boards and in the selection of faculty families this Christian purpose is given first consideration.

Our missionaries are giving a good account of themselves. Mr. de Maagd is taking an active part in planning the whole program and in evangelistic preaching. The Christian service center in Yokohama, which he has developed, distributed during one month last year clothes and food to 400 needy families on recommendation of pastors and teachers. In addition to the relief work various group meetings are held and various types of equipment—English books, slide projector and films, a communion set for 200, etc.—are loaned to Christian groups in the vicinity. There is also a sewing machine where women can mend or remake clothing, and woodworking machines on which men and boys can make some of the necessities for the home. Miss Oltman, Miss Zander and Miss Noda have been actively engaged in the work of the Ferris Seminary. The catalogue of their activities at the school or with graduates, government primary school teachers who come for Bible teaching, and countless other groups, is very impressive. Miss Belle Bogard is settled at the Woman's Christian College and in addition to her classwork has Bible classes among the students and in two neighboring churches. Miss Noordhoff is completing her assignment at the Keisen Girls' School, where she has had charge of one of the senior classes as class advisor, and has carried on a variety of Christian activities. If her health permits she will continue in Japan for another year for work in Kyushu in connection with the churches there. The principal of the Meiji Gakuin, Dr. S. Murata, speaks very highly of the work of Mr. Korver and Mr. Flaherty at that school. Mr. Korver is active in the athletic program of the school with its 3600 students. In addition to his work at the school he is active in three different churches during the week and on Sunday. Dr. Murata speaks with amazement of the way Mr. Flaherty has made his adjustment to Japanese life. He is working on one of the faculty committees and is preparing a new textbook for a course in Freshman English. Dr. Murata writes, "He is a missionary in every respect." The Rev. Toru Matsumoto is also a valuable member of the faculty of the Meiji Gakuin. He has just been put in charge of religious activities on the campus. Miss Florence Walvoord has continued her able work at the Sturges Girls' School in Shimonoseki. She will be taking her regular furlough in 1950. The Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Moore have returned to Japan after years of service in the army and will be located at Fukuoka in Kyushu. They are the first missionaries of our Church to return to this island where our work was centered before the war.

The Board has been giving special consideration to opportunities in Japan and a definite program for substantial reinforcement is being developed.

CHAPTER FOUR

"Thy Kingdom (O Christ) is an everlasting Kingdom and Thy dominion endureth throughout all generations." (Ps. 145:13)

This quotation from the Psalms with the words "O Christ" interpolated, is found on the walls of a great mosque at Damascus. It stands above the old doorway, now closed, which was used when this, like so many other mosques, was a Christian church. One needs the stimulus to faith of this ringing declaration in a land where so many great civilizations of the past have flourished and died and where today there is still an active, open opposition to the teachings of that Christ whose kingdom endureth.

A reading of all the reports which have come in from our missionaries, too long for inclusion here, is a spiritual experience. They carry on their work in so many ways but always with deep evangelical emphasis. There seems to be not a channel of approach which is not being used to gain contacts with the people and introduce them to the Gospel of our Lord. There are the hospitals at Amarah, Kuwait, Bahrain and Matrah, treating many thousands year by year and transforming enemies into friends. They are responsible for many of our opportunities and they have been influential in opening up the interior to us. But just as impressive as these great institutions are all the quiet channels of personal approach which are revealed in these reports. There are church services, often well attended. There are Bible shops where missionaries and colporteurs talk with individuals. There are little groups of Bible students in the homes, Bible classes even in the schools, and in the homes of both rich and poor there is a hospitable reception for our missionaries who find opportunity there to talk of the things close to their hearts. Patients in the hospitals ask for hymns and Bible reading which they have come to expect as a part of their experience in a Christian hospital.

One may sometimes forget, in our interest in our missionaries, the service of some of the faithful helpers and so we record this year the death of two who for many years have given the witness to their own people—Esa, at Kuwait and Robinson Michel at Amarah, who had been in our service and the Lord's for forty years. One reads too with deep satisfaction of a Ladies' Aid at Bahrain, a circle of Christians with a few Moslem women, sewing and working for the poor of the city, and of a Junior League for Service of eight teen-age girls. Open conversions may be few but there are quiet influences at work all along the line which are directly aimed at the building of that kingdom which endureth.

In October 1949, the Mission assembled at Kuwait in celebration of the sixty years of history of the Mission. Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer, one of the founders, was present and helped greatly to make this a time of reconsecration, leading the devotions and by his experience of the early years bringing home to all the encouraging significance of the great changes which so deeply impressed him. Mr. William T. Hakken, President of the Board and Miss Ruth Ransom, Secretary, were also present and they are already bringing to the Church at home vivid reports of this work in Arabia which has always so deeply stirred the interest and the faith of supporters in America.

In Iraq, while feeling still runs high against America because of her share in the partition of Palestine, there is not so much open disorder. Students in the schools are returning to more serious study, discontinuing the frequent strikes which were the expression of their keen interest in political events. There were 250 boys enrolled in the Basrah Boys' School, founded and so long directed by Dr. Van Ess, whose death just as he was leaving for retirement was reported last year. There were 224 girls enrolled in the Girls' School in Baghdad, under the United Mission in Mesopotamia. This Mission also had an anniversary, having now completed twenty-five years of service. During the war its personnel was greatly reduced but several recruits have recently joined the Mission and Rev. B. D. Hakken sends an encouraging report. The meetings in the small chapel in his home are well attended, sometimes as many as fifty being present, and converts take an important part in these services. The story of their faithful witness in the midst of persecution is a thrilling one.

Along the Persian Gulf oil continues to be a transforming influence upon the life of the people. Long ago it displaced the traffic in pearls as the most important industry and today as the "black gold" pours wealth into the pockets of the rich and brings a higher level of living to thousands who have never before known economic security, it is creating a materialistic spirit which conditions the whole outlook on life. It tends to undermine some of the old sanctions but creates no new interest in any religion. Government hospitals are being built with these new revenues and it will be easy for them to forget, as we have forgotten in America, that the first hospitals were founded as a direct expression of the compassion of the Great Physician.

The development of great oil camps with thousands of American personnel has created a new challenge for our Mission. Friendly contacts have been made and numbers of the personnel of the companies have attended our services. But the great majority have been without ready access to any religious services and so some of our missionaries have given much time to reaching these young Americans far from home. We are happy to report that the Board has just appointed Rev. and Mrs. Allen Cook to go out with the status of short term missionaries but assigned directly to service for American personnel. It is expected that local groups in the camps which have been eager for such service will soon underwrite all expenses involved.

Still another anniversary is reported, the Girls' School at Bahrain having now completed twenty-five years of service. One hundred and twenty-nine girls are enrolled and the average attendance of 120 is an indication of the popularity of this institution.

At its anniversary meeting, the Mission issued a stirring call to the Church at home and we conclude this report with the opening words of their statement:

"The Arabian Mission is now celebrating its Sixtieth Anniversary. With all our hearts we thank God for what has been accomplished in the three score years that are past. We realize that 'there remaineth very much land to be possessed' and we therefore urge upon the Board with all the force at our command our conviction that the time has come to begin a definite advance on all our fronts and in every field of work.

"There can be no better way for the Arabian Mission to celebrate its Sixtieth Anniversary than to bring home to the churches the fact that our foundations have been well and truly laid and that from now on we must begin to build on those foundations. Magnificent opportunities face us today."

CHAPTER FIVE

"Then they that gladly received his word were baptized, and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."

—Acts 2:41.

The great event of the year in Africa was the evidence of the moving of the Spirit in the lives of the people. It began with the testimony of a local British Government official who had come to a new relationship with his Lord. This was followed by a stirring of the hearts of the boys in the school, and then the village people and "last but not least the hearts of the Mission staff itself." Confessions in great numbers were made and lives were changed. There followed a time of testing for many, but in each case God's way and will was done. Out of it all came a new unity among missionaries and people and a new awareness that the Christian community is a fellowship of believers with something unique in the new creation in Christ. Fifty-two were baptized during the year and the number of communicants now numbers ninety. The indigenous Church is coming into being and at the recent meeting of the South Sudan Mission the nature of this organization was brought forward for discussion. This is one of the questions immediately before our Boards.

The second outstanding event is the opening of the new station at Pokwo, about a hundred miles up the Baro River in Ethiopia. Last year's report told of the decision of Emperor Haile Selassie to permit work across the Pibor River in Ethiopia and a survey of the area resulted in the decision to establish the second station among the Anuaks at Pokwo, located in the heart of a territory occupied by some 10,000 people and at the gateway to the outside world for the whole 25,000 tribesmen living in Ethiopia.

Being a pioneer work, the building program in the Akobo Station has been large and has taken much of the time of some of the missionaries. During 1948-49 some thirteen buildings—large and small—were completed, including one missionary dwelling and school buildings. For this 1949-50 dry season, when building is possible, the work on the Chapel of Hope and on the main school building is being continued. Also a women's missionary residence is nearing completion. Plans were made and some work begun on a new hospital building, but this has been postponed in view of the larger development of the work while the medical staff makes a new study of the program with the possibility of locating the central hospital for the Anuaks elsewhere. In the meantime, medical work has been carried on on a limited scale with daily clinics in two rooms in the garage and storeroom building.

The school which has four grades of elementary work, has an enrollment of 102 boys, forty of whom are day pupils. On Fridays the boys and the five native and three missionary teachers go out to the villages to hold services, which is a source of real blessing to them as well as to the villagers. Every evening a Bible class has been held with the teachers and it is hoped to make the school a definite evangelistic force in the station as well as an agency for the basic training of the future Christian leadership of the tribe.

The missionaries are making good progress in the language and the work of translation in which Mr. Hoekstra is engaged is advancing rapidly. It is felt that the policy of setting one person aside for this work has speeded up by years the entire Anuak plan. Mr. Hoekstra has translated two Bible story books, the Gospel of Mark, a hymnal, several school books, two primers for the adult literacy program, a book setting forth the way of salvation and a portion of the Acts. When it is remembered that the Anuak language had never before been reduced to writing, this is no mean achievement.

The program for adult literacy is felt to be one of the most important phases of the work. A medicine man and a leader in the tribe have both come to know Christ through this program and it is felt that it is most important to reach the older and responsible leaders at the same time that the young people are taught in the school.

The whole program of the work among the Anuaks, as in the other and older fields, is directed toward the evangelization of the tribe, and each kind of work makes its contribution. The initial interest which finally led to decisions for Christ may have been aroused in coming for medical aid, or through eagerness to learn to read, through attendance at the daily women's meetings, through the school, the workers' chapel and reading class, or through the direct preaching of the word. In addition to the Sunday services at the station, several village services are conducted in places out from the center. During the week a daily chapel service is held for the workmen, and a reading and communicants' class is held at the end of the work day. Two daily women's meetings are also held, one in the Mission compound and one in a nearby village.

With the arrival on the field of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crandall and the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Arnold the Mission is now well staffed. Including the doctor, A. G. Roode, M. D., and Dr. Don McClure, furnished by the United Presbyterian Board, there are now three ordained missionary families, one medical family, one nurse, one agricultural missionary family, one single woman educationalist and one educational family. It should be a source of great inspiration to our Church that in these few years since we undertook this work, such large progress has been made in the plan to Christianize this African tribe of 40,000 people.

CHAPTER SIX

*"That ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the gospel."
(Philippians 1:27)*

On the home front the year has been one of faithfulness to the work of the Church abroad. The post-war opportunities for world evangelization have been of such vast and urgent proportions the churches have responded to the call for Advance in our missionary efforts overseas.

The Advance movement, dramatized by the Foreign Missions Assembly and the interdenominational continent-wide mass meetings of a year or two ago, has helped to quicken missionary interest and deepen the commitment of congregations. In some instances churches made substantial advances and throughout the denomination there has been a steady growth in interest and gifts.

Promotion has been through the usual media—several hundred presentations by missionaries and secretaries, the splendid cooperation of the Church Herald in granting generous space to missionary letters and articles, visual aids, pamphlets, missionary Sundays and some one hundred Mission Fests.

Dr. Shafer, who spent six months in Japan, has brought a new vision to the Church of the responsibility that it has to that great country at this particular time. Miss Ruth Ransom and the President of the Board, Mr. W. T. Hakken, spent six weeks in India and then joined Dr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Zwemer at the celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the Arabian Mission in Kuwait. Mr. Hakken also visited his brother's work in Baghdad and Miss Ransom was present at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the United Mission in Mesopotamia. She was able to visit every station in both the Arcot and Arabian Missions. These members of the deputation not only brought inspiration to the churches through their speaking, but helped develop plans for closer cooperation in getting information from the fields to the churches. It is hoped that the results of the conferences held with missionaries and national leaders will be felt throughout the coming years.

The Board met at the Fourth Reformed Church in Holland in February where official reports of the deputations were given. It was an encouragement to see the evidence of real interest among the students of Hope College and Western Seminary as they attended the meetings of the Board. The gracious spirit of hospitality and friendliness of the members of the Fourth Reformed Church made the routine work of the Board members very much pleasanter.

Two friends from Japan, Rev. Senji Tsuru, D. D., President of Ferris Seminary, and Mr. Jiro Takenaka, teacher of English at Meiji Gakuin, have given of themselves unstintingly to tell the Church of the Christians in their country. Rev. A. E. Inbanathan, pastor of the Church of Tindivanam, in South India, has been especially helpful in youth work in summer conferences and in the local churches.

This year the women of the Church celebrated their seventy-fifth anniversary of the organization of the women of the Church for support of work in foreign fields. They raised a special fund to help give further training to national leaders in this country or in their home lands. The Department of Women's Work has continued its promotional work among the women of the Church in cooperation with the Women's Board of Domestic Missions and through the leadership of Miss Marian Hull shows a decided growth along missionary educational lines.

Words of appreciation and thanks are given to Dr. Tena Holkeboer who carried the responsibilities in the office for Dr. Luman Shafer during his absence; to Miss Martha Andersen who carried on the work for Miss Ruth Ransom; to Rev. B. M. Luben for his untiring creative activities as Field Secretary. It is impossible to name all those who have helped make this year successful. The quiet, dependable work in our offices has made it possible for the secretaries to do their work.

The home-going of Dr. William J. Van Kersen took place on August 7, 1949, in Holland, Michigan. For thirty years he was Western District Secretary of the Board. The Church recalls with gratitude to God his faithful and loving service in the promotion of missionary interest in the Western Synods.

Two missionaries from China have entered into eternal rest during the past year. Miss Geraldine Smies died at her home on November 19, 1949, after a long illness. Her love for China never wavered and although she spent only a few years in China, her influence was greatly felt. Dr. Frank Eckerson died on November 8, 1949, in China. He had not been in America since 1932, refusing to leave the land of his adoption. This utter devotion was characteristic of the spirit which marked his forty-seven years of distinguished service in China. It is a symbol of the faithfulness and high courage of the Mission as its members have remained at their posts in these troubled times.

Our sympathy goes out to Dr. Zwemer because of the recent death of his wife. She was a great helpmate and companion. Her contribution to the meeting of the Arabian Mission cannot be measured in words. Her Christian influence and love of The Kingdom will be felt for many years to come.

CHAPTER SEVEN

"I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving." Ps. 116:17

FINANCES

The figures on the opposite page are a moving evidence of the deep interest of the church in the work overseas. The grand total is $46,830.01 above the corresponding total of the preceding year and the gifts from living donors reveal a substantial increase of $20,784.45. The record is the more convincing when we note the fact that these totals include only $27,097.78 from United Advance and General Synod's Fund, while in the previous year $49,230.19 came from such special sources. The will of the church to sustain and advance the work of the church in foreign lands is unmistakable.

Attention should be given to the very important distinction between the receipts grouped under I and under II. In planning for the maintenance of the whole work the Board must rely upon the "Receipts for the Regular Work of the Board." Special gifts for designated objects are of value, especially when directed toward needs presented by the Board and approved by the General Synod, but the most important gifts are these which can be used for the budget adopted by the Board after receiving estimates from all the Missions as to the amount needed to carry on all departments of the work.

The most significant feature of the financial report, therefore, is the total $623,319.83 under I, an increase of $34,573.14 over the preceding year. This made it possible for the Board to meet all maintenance charges of the year and carry out several important capital projects, principally in Japan, where there still remain urgent post-war needs. For these splendid results the Board would express again its deep appreciation of the loyal support of the churches and their various organizations.

It is interesting to note the giving by the Particular Synods, where the general record is again one of advance. Only Iowa shows a slight decrease but that Particular Synod has had an unusual record of large increases in recent years.

	1948-49	1949-50
Particular Synod of Albany .....	$ 37,844.24	$ 42,347.27
" " " Chicago .....	274,470.05	286,393.79

" " " New Jersey .....	74,760.79	80,739.05
" " " New York .....	49,303.32	64,986.38

The above comparative statement covers only gifts credited to the church organizations, not gifts of individuals direct to the Board or amounts received through General Synod's special funds.

HOME EXPENDITURES AND PER CAPITA GIFTS

Because of the early date of General Synod the report of the Certified Public Accountants can be appended only to the final edition of this report published after the meeting of the General Synod. Details of Home Expenditures will be found in the closing pages of the final report which will be printed with the minutes of the General Synod. Expenditures under this heading totalled $104,618.53, a little under 13% of total receipts. This represents very little change from the figures of the preceding year.

The per capita rate of receipts calculated on the basis of total receipts, including the Board's share in General Synod's special funds, is $4.59 as compared with $4.34 in the preceding year. Calculated upon the basis of contributions from the living the per capita rate is $3.86 as against $3.76 in the preceding year.

While emphasis is placed in this report on the gifts from the living as the dependable source of support, it should be noted that very substantial sums were received from legacies. These gifts from those who have passed on are set aside for special use, particularly for property needs, which constantly recur in a work so large and varied as this. It is helpful to keep before the Church the importance of gifts of this character, which have provided so many splendid permanent memorials of those who have given such final expression of their stewardship.

FIELD EXPENDITURES

The totals expended for the regular budgets of the Missions were as follows: Amoy, $112,274.34; Arcot, $142,654.20; Japan, $48,715.83; Arabia, $113,540.72; United Mission in Mesopotamia, $10,424.00; Africa, $18,876.64, a grand total of $446,485.73. This total is $2,591.61 below the corresponding figures of the preceding year. While there were increases at some points, certain savings resulted from the devaluation of currencies elsewhere and these economies made possible some of the special projects to which reference was made on preceding pages.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Auditors' Statement

May 15, 1950.

The Board of Foreign Missions, R. C. A.,
156 Fifth Avenue,
New York 10, N. Y.

Gentlemen:

We have examined financial statements of The Board of Foreign Missions, R. C. A., for the year ended April 30, 1950. These statements accompany this report and are marked Exhibits "A", "B" and "C" and Schedules #1, #2 and #3.

In connection with our examination of the financial statements we obtained confirmations of cash balances on deposit, counted petty cash on hand and examined documents relating to or obtained confirmation of all investments. We received letters of confirmation from the custodian bank as to securities in safekeeping and from servicing agents with respect to certain mortgage investments. We also obtained letters confirming certain investment documents held by others and examined other investment documents on hand in the Board's office.

We examined or tested the accounting records to the extent we deemed appropriate and made a general review of the accounting methods, but we did not make a detailed audit of the accounts. We did not attempt to determine that all items of credits for revenue and charges for expenditures had been entered in all cases in the appropriate accounts, or that there had been compliance with all conditions and restrictions under which funds have been received.

Investments of the Board at April 30, 1950, including deposits in various savings institutions, are listed on Schedule #2. The amounts shown on this schedule for "current value" of certain investments at or near April 30, 1950 have been based on available published information except as noted on Schedule #2. These valuations are not intended to represent the actual amounts realizable upon sale of the securities.

Increases in Trust Funds during the year consisted of the following transfers from other accounts:

Trust Funds held for special purposes:

Scudder Memorial Hospital Fund—transferred from:
Designated Gifts—general .....	$ 3,000.00
Legacies .....	150.00
Children's Home—Vellore—transferred from:
Designated Gifts—"Golden Jubilee" account .....	5,738.05
Mary Taber Schell Hospital Fund—transferred from:
Legacies .....	3,000.00
	$11,888.05

Trust Funds—General:

Transferred from Designated Gifts—general:
Jane A. Scardefield Fund .....	$ 1,000.00
Edward Dimment Fund .....	500.00
	$ 1,500.00

A statement of revenue, charges against revenue and other changes in Fund balances, is set forth on Exhibit "A". This statement does not include receipts and disbursements of funds handled solely as accommodations. Such accommodation transactions are shown only on Exhibit "C".

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph of this letter, when considered in conjunction with the foregoing information, fairly present a summary of the Board's revenue and related charges and other changes in Fund balances as recorded in the accounts for the year ended April 30, 1950 and its financial condition as at that date.

Respectfully yours,

LOOMIS, SUFFERN & FERNALD,
Certified Public Accountants.
