THE REPORT
1936 - 1937
OF THE
RELIGIOUS TRACT SOCIETY
IN CHINA
Joy and Rejoicing through the Word

Head Office and Press:
Religious Tract Society Building, Hankow
A Tract Committee associated with the Religious Tract Society of London was formed in Shanghai in 1844. The Central China Religious Tract Society was founded in 1876, and in 1915 united with the North China Tract Society, which had been founded in 1883, to form the Religious Tract Society of North and Central China. The Chinese Religious Tract Society was founded in 1878, and in 1895, united with the East China Tract Society, which had been founded in 1885, to form the Chinese Tract Society. In 1920 the Religious Tract Society of North and Central China united with the Chinese Tract Society to form the Religious Tract Society for China, with headquarters and printing works in Hankow, and a depot in Shanghai. The former Manchuria Tract Society ceased to function. The united Society has a Board of Directors meeting in Central China (Hankow), with Committees in North China (Tientsin), East China (Shanghai) and Manchuria (Moukden). It has worked in association with the West China Religious Tract Society, which has its headquarters at Chungking.

On the 30th. September, 1931, the work of the united Society was amalgamated with that of the Parent Society in London and all reports since describe the work of the Parent Society in China instead of that of an independent Society. In 1935 the Religious Tract Society of London united with the Christian Literature Society for India and Africa to form the United Society for Christian Literature. Their work in China, however, is carried on under the former name, which is a subtitle of the new Society.

Foundation Principles

as for the newer Churches overseas, the means of setting forth the Christian faith in all its variety of application to the needs and problems of mankind. These needs and problems call most urgently for help to-day, in view, on the one hand, of the increasing opportunities for the positive proclamation of the truth which God is opening to His Church in different parts of the world, and, on the other hand, of the intensified opposition to the faith from rationalistic literature and from the world-wide programme of a militant, missionary atheism."

This Declaration epitomises the "Foundation Principles" as set forth in previous Reports of the Society.

The Aim

"The aim and object of the Society in all its work is to proclaim to all people by means of the printed page the unsearchable riches of the Lord Jesus Christ."

A Thanksgiving for Christian Literature.

O God our Saviour, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, we give Thee thanks for the fulfilment at many times and in many places of Thy promise, that the entrance of Thy word giveth light. For the multitudes who have found, through the printed message, the peace of pardon, the secret of power and the joy of service, we praise Thy name. For all that has been good and useful in the sixty-two years' work of the Religious Tract Society in China, we glorify Thee.

Grant the increase of Thy grace to the colporteurs, biblewomen, printers, publishers and translators of the Scriptures and other Christian writings, that more and more through their ministry Thy Kingdom may come in many hearts. And to Thy name shall be all the praise, now and for evermore.——Amen.
CONSTITUTION of the Committee in China.

The following scheme as a whole was accepted on Sept. 23, 1931 by the Board of Directors of the R.T.S. for China.

1. The work formerly carried on by the Religious Tract Society for China shall be known as the Religious Tract Society in China and shall be controlled by a General Committee meeting at the Head Office in China and by Sectional Committees meeting in other important centres.

2. The membership of the General and Sectional Committees shall be composed of persons who accept the Foundation Principles of the Society and are anxious to promote its work.

3. At present the Head Office is located in Hankow and membership of the General Committee shall be limited to persons residing in the Wuhan cities and neighbourhood. Sectional Committees consisting of from six to twelve members shall be appointed for the present in North China (Peiping or Tientsin) East China (Shanghai) and Manchuria (Moukden).

4. Vacancies in the General Committee shall be filled by the remaining members of that Committee and shall be subject to review by the Committee of the Parent Society. Vacancies in any Sectional Committee shall be filled by the General Committee on the advice of the remaining members of that Sectional Committee.

5. The General Committee shall consist of twenty members, of whom eight shall rank as Permanent Members and twelve as Elected Members.

6. Permanent Members of the General Committee were chosen in the first place by the Committee of the Parent Society through its representative from the 1931 Board of Directors of the R. T. S. C. and shall remain in office till they resign or cease to reside in the Wuhan area. Absence of a Permanent Member on regular furlough shall not be regarded as a cessation of residence if he or she expects to return to the Wuhan area after furlough, but a substitute may be appointed by the General Committee to serve during the furlough.
Constitution

period. After the first selection in September 1931, all vacancies in the list of Permanent Members shall be filled by the vote of the remaining members of the General Committee from among those who are serving or have served as Elected Members.

7. Elected Members of the General Committee shall be elected for three years and be grouped in three sections of four each, the members of one group retiring each year. Retiring members shall be eligible for re-election. Absence on furlough or cessation of residence in the Wuhan area shall involve resignation. The election shall be held in September of each year.

8. Members of Sectional Committees shall be elected for an indefinite time but furlough or removal from the centre concerned shall involve resignation.

9. The Secretary or Secretaries appointed by the General Committee shall be ex-officio members of the General and all Sectional Committees, and if the Committee of the Parent Society appoints a Representative in China who is not a Secretary of the General Committee he also shall be, ex-officio, a member of the General and all Sectional Committees.

10. The General Committee shall elect such officers and sub-committees as it deems necessary and shall assign their duties. Persons who are not members of the General Committee may be elected to serve on sub-committees, and in particular as Readers of manuscripts.

11. The meetings of the General Committee shall ordinarily be held in the Committee Room at the Office of the Society in Hankow, and may only be held elsewhere with the consent of a clear majority of the members.

12. Seven members personally present shall be a quorum of the General Committee. One-third of its membership shall be a quorum of each Sectional Committee.

13. A Copy of the minutes of each meeting of the General Committee shall be sent to each member of the Sectional Committees, and any matter dealt with in such minutes shall be reconsidered at the next meeting of the General Committee on the request of not less than three members of the Sectional Committee.
CHAPTER I.

The National Background

For the past few years we have given in our report no indication of what is going on in China, for the information of our readers abroad. Formerly this was always a feature, especially during times of political disturbance. Such a period has now begun—and the time of development which went before will do much to explain the present purpose of the people to whom we endeavour to bring the good news of abundant life through the printed page.

The period preceding Christmas 1936 was difficult of interpretation. The provinces of Shansi and Shensi were disturbed and the captivity of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek seemed to prophesy chaos. On Christmas Day—1936 the news of his release brought a worldwide demonstration of sympathetic joy and relief.

What the Generalissimo’s unifying leadership has meant to China—may be seen from the survey of the past three years’ of progress written by the Bishop of Honan, the Rt. Rev. T. Lindel Tsen:—(Quoted from the March 1937 Newsletter).

“During the past three years China has been going through an experience of remaking or new birth. She has accomplished nationwide unification. She is no more a collection of provinces under the different local war lords. The Government in Nanking is now the central dynamic body politic for the whole country. The people, morally and economically, are backing all the reconstruction plans of the Government. The evil forces of destruction and disintegration in the provinces of Kiangsi, Hunan, Kweichow, Yunnan and Szechuan, have been completely dispelled. The present situation in the North West is only a transient affair which will undoubtedly be settled in the very near future. Considering the immense size of the national territory it is really remarkable that peace and order have been so well maintained throughout the whole country, in spite of the abnormal conditions in one part of the north, which is largely, if not entirely, due to the influence of alien forces.

This hopeful and promising condition of the country has been brought about chiefly through the factors of (a) a general and deep awakening on the part of the people to the crisis of the national life and existence, (b) an increasing power of society at large to support

The many virtues of Christ I cannot possibly enumerate. Today, being Good Friday, I merely wish to explain some of the lessons I have derived from the trials of Christ. His utterances from the Cross are our spiritual inheritance. Entreating forgiveness for His enemies, He cried: "Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do." Truly great is the love of Christ! In all my meditations I found these thoughts recurring and providing me with rich spiritual sustenance.

To illustrate, I am going to recount some of my experiences at Sian. Before I went to Shensi on my second trip I was already conscious of perverted thoughts and unusual activities in the army there. I had previously received reports of intrigues and revolutionary rumblings that were threatening to undermine the unity of the state. My immediate associates tried to persuade me to abandon the journey, but I replied: "Now that our country is unified and the foundations of the state established, the commander-in-chief of the armies has responsibilities for direction and enlightenment from which he dare not withdraw. Furthermore, I have dedicated my soul and body to the service of the state, and there can never be any consideration of my personal safety."

According to the record of the New Testament, when Christ entered Jerusalem for the last time, he plainly knew that danger was ahead, but triumphantly, on an ass, he rode into the city without anguish, without fears. What greatness! What courage! In comparison, how unimportant my life must be. So why should I hesitate?

My fondness for my troops has always been as great as the love between brothers and this love drew me into the heart of the rebellion. Such disregard of danger in the face of duty caused deep concern to the government, worried the people and, for this, numerous prayers were offered by Christian friends. In the midst of it all my understanding increased and my love multiplied.

Following my detention my captors presented me with terms and demands, with tempting words of kindness, with threats of violence and torture and with public trial by the "People's Front." On every hand I was beset by danger but I had no thought of yielding to pressure. My faith in Christ increased. In this strange predicament I distinctly recalled the forty days and nights Christ passed in the wilderness withstanding temptation. His prayers the garden of Gethsemane and the indignities heaped upon Him at His trial. The prayers he offered for His enemies upon the Cross were ever in my thoughts. I naturally remembered the prayers offered by Dr. Sun Yat-sen during his imprisonment in London. These scenes passed vividly before me again and again like so many pictures. My strength was redoubled to resist the recalcitrants and with the spirit of Christ on the Cross I was preparing to make the final sacrifice at the trial of the so-called "People's Front." Having determined upon this course of action, I was comforted and at rest.

Following the settlement of the Sian affair, the rebels, knowing their unwise and treasonable actions were naturally afraid. Remembering that Christ enjoined us to forgive those who sin against us until seventy times seven and upon their repentance, I felt that they should be allowed to start life anew! At the same time I was greatly humbled that my own faith had not been of such quality as to influence my followers and to restrain them.

Ever since training the cadets and launching the expedition, I have repeated to my followers these two principles: (1) On detecting the slightest selfishness on my part, or discovering plans contrary to the interest of the country and the people, any one may accuse me of guilt and put me to death; (2) Should my words and actions betray lack of truth and good faith, or indicate departure from the revolutionary cause and principles, any of my subordinates may take me for an enemy and put me to death. I honestly believe that these two sayings were prompted by sincerity and grew out of my religious faith. They are in line with the spirit of the love of Christ, and the forbearance and magnanimity of Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

The life of Christ reveals a long record of affliction and constant persecution. His spirit of forbearance, His love and His benevolence shine through it all. No more valuable lesson has yet come to me out of my Christian experiences.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen was a Christian, and the greatest thing he received from Christ was love—love for the emancipation of the weaker races, and for the welfare of the oppressed people. This spirit remains with us and reaches to the skies. I am an ardent follower of the revolution, and although my faith in Dr. Sun at the outset did not appear to have any religious significance, it was similar to a religious faith. For this reason I have become a follower of Dr. Sun and his revolution based on San Min Chu I.
The National Background

To-day, I find that I have taken a further step and have become a follower of Jesus Christ. This makes me realise more fully that the success of the revolution depends upon men of faith, and that men of character, because of their faith, cannot sacrifice their principles for personal safety under circumstances of difficulty and crisis. In other words, a man's life may be sacrificed, his person held in bondage, but his faith and spirit can never be restrained. This is due to confidence brought about by faith. On this Good Friday these reflections are ours. For such is the importance of faith in the revolution, and faith in religion.

What I have just said represents my spiritual conceptions of Good Friday, interspersed with a few facts out of my own experience. I offer them as a testimony, and not in any sense to exalt my own worthiness and achievements. I take this opportunity to extend greetings to the Central Conference of Eastern Asia of the Methodist Episcopal Church and to express my thanks to Christians everywhere for their earnest and continued prayers on my behalf.

During the past year Madame Chiang made an equally significant statement to the biennial meeting of the National Christian Council. The address is too long to quote—but its very significant conclusion may be given:

Exhaustive Programme.

"I am pleased to see that on the programme at these meetings there is a main topic of the "Church and its Relations," and that under this heading you have included the New Life Movement. I am offering these few thoughts as my contribution toward the discussion of this important subject.

With reference to the regeneration of the nation, as I have intimated, important changes in the life of the people of China must come within the system given to us by our late leader, Dr. Sun Yat-sen. The Founder of the Chinese Republic was a man of faith and action. He had within his soul a burning passion for the uplift of the people who toil. Beyond the slightest trace of doubt he walked in the steps of the Master. He lived in faith, and died in faith, leaving to us the task of completing the more important stages of the revolution.
The National Background

The most important factor in reconstruction is the spiritual renewal of the people, and the improvement of their character. We cannot create the social life of the people, history has a long start of us in that, but it is within our power to regenerate it, and wholly transform it by breathing into it a new soul.

The beginning of the Christian life is really a "radical and permanent moral change wrought in the spiritual nature," and commonly referred to as the New Birth. "A change in the growing purpose, reformation of habits and life, and continuation by the Holy Spirit of new ways of living," this is New Life from within and the right place to begin the regeneration of a nation. In a very large measure this part of reconstruction is preeminently the work of the Church. Then let us do it together, the New Life Movement and the Church.

The wide publicity given to these messages in the Chinese newspapers and the many reprints made by Christian publishers have all helped to increase the prestige of Christianity and have caused many enquiries to be made regarding the Christian way of life and its secret of producing a new quality of leadership.

Amid these hopes and signs of progress came the "incident" in North China in July—which soon had the effect of closing the northern provinces to our sales. In August similar conditions prevailed in Shanghai and surrounding regions in the East. By September large numbers of wounded soldiers were filling the hospitals of Central China. At this time one of the secretaries of the Central China Red Cross Committee received a significant communication. Dr. J. Heng Liu, Director of the National Health Administration, Nanking, in a letter to Dr. James L. Maxwell of 16th September 1937 after some discussion on the subject of how the Government might help the hospitals, closes his letter with the following paragraph:

"Furthermore, what in your opinion could Christian organizations do to comfort and cheer the wounded soldiers and to help them spiritually in their sufferings?"

The response of the R.T.S. was to send to all Christian hospitals within reach by mail liberal grants of books, booklets, pictures and tracts. In addition, groups of visitors to military hospitals—conveying "comforts" to the wounded were supplied with books and other materials which have brought new hope and comfort and have lifted the minds of many above the contemplation of their wounds and sufferings to a wider horizon.

On September 24th, Hankow received its first air attack and hundreds of civilians were killed and wounded. This brought the need for comfort and Christian morale to the city where we are located and seemed like a sounding of the drums of heaven to advance into new fields of need.

There the story of the year ends—but on a note of courage and endurance and a resolute will to snatch spiritual victory out of defeat for a quarter of the world's population on the march.

Prayer

O God, who by the ministry of the printed page hast made known to the sons of men the riches of Thy grace towards them in Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray for all who are engaged in the publication and distribution of the Message of Life, so that Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Let thy manifold blessing rest upon the Religious Tract Society in its headquarters at home, and in its agencies in other lands. Prosper with good success the literature provided for the National Churches in the Mission Fields of the world, especially in China. Raise up fresh helpers to take the place of those who, having served their own generation by the counsel of God have fallen on sleep; and grant that there may never be wanting men and women with consecrated gifts who, by the use of pen and pencil, shall set forth the way of life and the beauty of holiness, till all come to know Thee from the least to the greatest, through Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.
CHAPTER II.

The Story of the Year in Brief

Last year, at this time, we celebrated the Diamond Jubilee of the work of the R.T.S. We were really a year behind in the celebrations—for the Report made then was the 61st in the history of the Society.

In presenting some of the main features of the 62nd Report—covering the period October 1936 to September 1937—I would like to ask the friends of the Society to rejoice in the fact that although the first three months of the year were clouded by disturbances in Shensi—and the last three months by the far greater disturbances in North and East China—with consequent interruption of communications to much wider regions—the affairs of the Society have prospered. We praise the Giver of all Good.

Last year we were under the shadow of a deficit of over $3,000. This year that deficit has been wiped out and a small balance remains on the right side.

This happy result is largely due to the successful year of operations of the Press. The volume of business has increased by over $22,000—thus lifting it on to a profit earning basis—and enabling it to make a donation of $10,000.00 to the publishing side of the work.

The labour of supplying tracts and books to the Christian Community is carried on at a loss. Last year the loss was over $3,000. This year, owing to heavier printings, it was over $6,000. Last year the Press was unable to contribute. This year it has lifted us out of our difficulties.

The loss on operation is really much greater than $6,000, for we have received in donations from Societies and individuals the sum of $3,023.86. But for this help we should have been in serious difficulties.

We do not exist merely to keep ourselves out of debt, but to publish and distribute Christian literature, at as cheap a price as possible. That is our contribution to the evangelization of China and the nourishment of the Christian Community. In this work we have surpassed the volume of last year—both in the number of new issues and also in the circulation.
The Story of the Year in Brief

For the year 1935-36 the circulation was 7,198,557 at a value of $42,790.20.

The year 1936-37 shows a slight increase in circulation of 106,477 and an increase of cash value amounting to $618.93. The figures are:

Circulation = 7,305,034—value $43,409.19. The increase of output from the Press was $22,405.15—($50,000 to $72,000.) This brings it on to a profit earning basis once more. We end the year with a credit balance in the Depot of $300.00, and in the Press of $598.49. This is a complete deliverance from the depression of last year, when the Press had a small debit balance, and the Depot a loss of $3,211.77.

Personnel.

For half the year, Mr. C. L. Pickens has been on furlough—but we hope to see him back again soon. Before he left he carried out a much needed reform in the mailing department—so that now invoices and goods go out at the same time. We are very grateful to the American Church Mission for his services, in addition to his work on Literature for Moslems.

Miss F. E. Gooch also has been on furlough, and the Rev. F. C. H. Dreyer is visiting America. Progress in work for women and children—and work on the Mandarin Bible Commentaries is thus held up for a season.

The year has been one of losses. In the early summer we took farewell of the Rev. R. J. Gould on his retirement to England after about 40 years connection with the R.T.S. A little later Dr. Thomas Gillison was taken from us—after a still longer connection. But in spite of losses there have been gains.

In March we were joined by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Jackson—who were loaned to us by the China Inland Mission. This is the largest Protestant Mission in China and they have sent us doubly useful help in the work of distribution and care of the business details of the work. Thanks to the generosity of the C.I.M.—our service to the whole Christian community is now more prompt and efficient than ever before. We trust that this will bring increased blessing and power to the Christian Church wherever Chinese is read.
The Story of the Year in Brief

New Issues.

During the year we have published 44 new books and booklets. The books include the more substantial works such as “What a Christian Believes and Why,” a Commentary on I Corinthians, and the last volume in the Mandarin Bible Commentary on the Gospels by Mr. Dreyer. This completes the only Commentary in Chinese which treats the Gospel material harmonistically. There have been 88 new tracts issued—an unusually large addition to our already long list of more than 1,000. Thirty-seven posters, scrolls and pictures have seen the light—a total of 169. (Last year the figure was 98). This is the highest for ten years and proves to be a record, so far as new books is concerned. In 1927-29 the total number of new issues was surpassed on account of the large number of new tracts, handbills and posters contributed by a special committee.

The activity of the year in this department has included the completion of the Diamond Jubilee Catalogue in bilingual form; also the Diamond Jubilee Report which reviews the history of the Society from the beginning. The Press has also issued a new edition of its “Book of Words” and types and ornaments. This involved the most careful proof reading of all.

The work of editing the more important new publications has been carried forward by our Chinese Editorial Secretary the Rev. C. Y Gwoh. New Books to meet the needs of the new type of scholarly classes are in preparation, as well as books for the simple hearted.

Mr. E. C. Rao—during the absence of Miss F E. Gooch on furlough—has done much in transposing some of the best Wenli books into the National language (Kuo Yü) and in bringing others up to date in revised editions.

Our artist Mr. C. C. Chow brings out new posters and scrolls and brightens the covers of our books.

Our Press Manager Mr. Cheng Chung Ren, besides being a pillar of the Church, is a pillar of the Press. It is due to his efficient management that the Press lays eggs which the Depot continues to devour. We hope that the Press may have a nest egg of its own some day—or rather have an enlarged nest.
The Story of the Year in Brief

Diamond Jubilee Appeal.

That reminds us of the Diamond Jubilee Appeal launched last year. We have received in cash the sum of $1,800.94 and some promises also; and our London parent Society has promised £250. Building is now impossible but we hope that after the war when building becomes feasible again, we may be able to carry out part of the scheme for the enlargement of the Press, etc. Next year—1938—is the Diamond Jubilee of the Chinese Tract Society founded at Shanghai in 1878. It may be possible to renew the appeal then, for we have received many replies to the present appeal from Chinese friends.

Free Grants.

One feature of our work is the distribution of free grants of tracts to those who apply—and when funds permit—grants are sent out to certain areas, without waiting for a request. We receive repeated testimonies to the value of this method of evangelism. We often receive word that a supply arrived just in time for a special effort, or when stocks at a station were finished. This year the distribution in many cases was just in time, before routes closed.

The curious fact is that the issue of free grants does not kill sales—but rather promotes them. Those sent, commend themselves by their quality and people seek to buy more.

We received a letter from Harbin thanking us for a large grant sent out in July. The letter speaks of widespread distribution and open doors in the north-eastern province. Manchuria is still linked with Hankow in spiritual blessing.

Formerly each Spring the millions of new emigrants uprooted from their homes and temples in Shantung—passed through Harbin and at the railway station received tracts sent from Hankow for the purpose. Now these people are all the more open to receive the Christian message. Large numbers of copies of Bibles, Testaments and Gospel Portions are being sold. The R.T.S. is the forerunner of the Bible Societies and follows up their work by its commentaries and other books.

Current year—a peep into the future.

We now come to the current year which began on October 1st amid the time of national distress. At the end of November our sales are down by $2,700.00 at one of the busiest periods of the year. It is a 32% drop. The Press is up to normal but has only a slender stock of paper.

The door has been opened to us to render a special piece of service. A high government official—in writing to a Central China group asked this question: "What in your opinion could Christian organizations do to comfort and cheer the wounded soldiers AND TO HELP THEM SPIRITUALLY IN THEIR SUFFERINGS." Our reply has been to send free grants of books, pictures and tracts, telling of the Christian hope; and also to send supplies of healthy reading materials. To enable us to do this special piece of work a Chinese friend of the wounded has given us a first gift of $1,000 which is already used up—and another $1,000 has been received. Our editorial staff is busy preparing new books specially suited to the needs of officers and men—and also in printing specially adapted new editions.

Pray that the work of preparation and distribution may be guided and directed by the Spirit of God—so that wounded consciences may be healed.

Phonetics.

New books in this script have been issued and now the stock of types for setting up the remainder of the New Testament in the combined type in parallel columns similar to the Old Testament has been removed from Nanking to our premises in Hankow. We hope not only to set up the Scriptures but also several of our books for which there is a growing demand in this form.

The story of the year has not been half told, but we have given enough evidence of the guiding hand of God to show that amid our many blessings and causes for anxiety we can still say "The best of all is, 'God is with us.'"

The Religious Tract Society Annual Meeting.

Union Church was almost filled when the sixty second Annual Meeting was held on the afternoon of December 8th, 1937. The Chairman, Mr. Y. H. Tang, made a brief but pointed speech before calling upon the General Secretary, the Rev. F. G. Onley, to give the Annual Report.
The Story of the Year in Brief

The year's work has been a successful one, in spite of National Distress, from the point of view of both large circulation, and of finance. Over seven million copies of all kinds of Christian literature have been circulated during the year.

Bishop Roots, in speaking, called to mind the work of the founders, and then gave a high toned inspirational message concerning the adequacy of the Christian Gospel to meet individual, family, and international need. The Bishop believes that there is no national leadership better than that in China today, and that through suffering, heroically borne in the Christian spirit and power, defeat and distress are being turned into moral victory.

Visitors declared that it was a most inspiring and encouraging meeting. The presence of refugees from bombed cities in Anhwei, added urgency to the appeals to distribute the message whilst time remains.

Chapter III.

What Distributors Say

Concerning the use of tracts and some results.

At the end of each financial year, if we find that the funds for free grants of tracts have not been fully drawn upon, we are in the habit of making a distribution of small grants to a large number of Missionaries. In many cases these arrive at a time of special need or are given out to Chinese workers for distribution in connection with normal activities, and thus serve as one missionary described them as "subjects" for preachers, and "home-work" for hearers.

It was with special satisfaction that we were able to get supplies of evangelistic messages to over 300 Missionaries in September, since most of these were located in areas which were almost immediately "occupied" and closed to further supplies for a time, or else were placed in cities where large numbers of wounded or refugees congregated.

Mr. Hans Metzger of Linchwan, Kiangsi writes:

"Yesterday I received your free grant tracts (one parcel) and herewith I thank you very much for it. They came at just the right moment. At present I was out of any tracts. Through shortness of our funds, I could not buy some early enough. Now the tracts came as an answer from GOD.—We shall use the tracts partly in the country. Then we need one part to distribute amongst the many soldiers who are here in the military hospital."

Miss M. E. Akers writes from Shih-yao in Shantung, in a similar vein of gratitude:

"Yesterday I received the packet of free tracts you sent and am very grateful. We had just been bemoaning the fact that we had quite run out of tracts suitable for women's work. While they did not come as an answer to prayer exactly (for we hadn't prayed for them) yet we realized the truth of that verse "My God shall supply all your need."
What Distributors Say

Mr. Faers tells us, from the same province, that the distribution is "steeped in prayer."—

"Please accept my hearty thanks for your kind and generous grant of Tracts which are most acceptable and which I was called on to pass out soon after their arrival as the workers said their stocks were almost run out. We principally use our Tracts for distribution from house to house and go along the High-roads, so that it is difficult to count up any blessing which may follow, but as we always steep our distribution with much prayer we know that blessing must follow, and although we see it not or even know of it, we rejoice that it is certain and one day we shall know of the many definite conversions taking place from the wide distribution of our Tracts."

'My Gracious Master and my God.
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honours of Thy Name."

We have received several letters which breathe the spirit of this hymn.

The Superintendent of the Faith and Love Mission in Kiangsi says:—

"Many, many thanks for this Free Grant, and we are so happy to serve you in this way. It is a wonderful privilege to be feet, hands and lips for our Saviour Jesus who has called us and sent us to do such a work. His cup was to provide salvation for all men, our cup is to preach it to all men. Oh may God give us grace to drink our cup as He did.

There is a great ministry in giving out tracts. In journeying from place to place, in the road. Sometimes I give out hundreds of tracts in the way, and those tracts go to villages and homes in many parts of the country. One day the Lord spoke to me in the road and said. "Some work for me by the year, some by the month, week and day, but the best kind of service is working by the piece. A Gospel sold, a tract given, a word spoken. This is piece work and I want to never fail to give a tract to every man I meet in the road. So we are so glad for these tracts and thank you for them."

The Tinling Fund enabled us to meet this need:—

"We have just received six parcels of tracts from your office, and we wish to thank you and also the people who made it possible for us to receive this liberal grant, for the work of God.

Our hearts have been yearning for some way to reach the unreached forty six villages of our allotted territory, and in April it came to us that it was the Lord’s will for us to send a Gospel band out in a boat to these places. We had no funds, and men were scarce, so we began to pray the Lord of the vineyard and money sufficient for a couple of months is in hand, and we have over 5,000 Gospels, and now these tracts have come, so we do praise God, and again thank you, and ask an interest in your prayers for God’s blessing on the special effort.

A. S. Caswell,
Changteh, Hunan.

_Miss R. M. Olive Joyce of the China Inland Mission, Honan, encourages us, and is encouraged:*—

The tracts were very much appreciated by some of the men who spend a lot of their time going out preaching, some, every day when the farmers are not busy. One man says he constantly uses them as he goes along the road and gets into conversation with fellow-travellers. One man to whom he offered a tract said that he had wanted to become a Christian, but had not had the courage to attend the church in his district, but he promised to read the tract, and to attend service. Mr. Wang later saw him sitting in the congregation of one of the outstations where he happened to be attending service.
What Distributors Say

In a large walled village where the Evangelistic Tent was prepared to pitch recently, some days of rain prevented its being pitched, so the Tent workers decided to preach where they could. There was a lot of prejudice amongst the villagers as well as opposition, but they made good use of the tracts, and in a few days, the men who had refused to let them preach were giving them a ready welcome for the Tent, and after the Mission was over numbers had given in their names as believers. The tracts which they were willing to accept when they did not want the preachers, were the means of preparing the spiritual ground.

In a large fair held in one place, a series of these tracts pasted in order and numbered on a large sheet were again pasted on a wall so that passers by could read them. In the evenings the church was open for preaching, and during the day numbers of tracts were distributed.

Recently, with the influx of military into so many places, the tracts have been extremely useful.

As there are many Christians who are keen to witness when they can, the tracts are in much demand by them, as they say what added weight it gives when speaking to a fellow traveller if they have something in this way to offer them.

The tent work in our district is extremely fruitful in its results, and in nearly all the places in which it has been pitched this spring, over 100 people have given in their names as enquirers. The tent evangelist often has some interested man visiting him in the tent until late at night, and these are the times when he finds a tract or booklet useful. In one of these villages mentioned, some of the old scholar type of Chinese gentlemen believed, also the modern type too, and paid several visits in order to enquire the Way. The evangelist has reason to believe that some of these have been really converted.

The Open Door.

Many letters tell of exceptional opportunities:—

From Haichow, N. Kiangsu:—

"The situation in Haichow, though fraught with danger, is wonderful from the standpoint of the evangelistic opportunity presented. The people seem to be even more willing than ever to hear the Gospel and to heed it too. The opportunity for using tracts in reaching soldiers and the educated and higher classes and the people in all walks of life is greater than ever before."

Laichowfu, Shantung signals:—

"I was especially glad to have these at the time, as we are finding a wonderful opportunity to work among the business men of the city, and also we hand out tracts to the soldiers. They reach out eagerly for them. We trust that some of these younger men who are fighting for their country may find our Saviour through these tracts before it is too late."

A bandit-ridden area in Kiangsi is now open:—

"Many of the tracts have been already distributed in what was a short time ago and for about ten years a bandit-ridden area, and where we may not be able to visit again for a considerable time."

The effect of the war on the minds of people in the capital of Shantung is seen below:—

Permit me to send my hearty thanks for your kind and unexpected free gift of Tract which you posted to me on the 25th Sept. this year.

They are proving a boon indeed in our city preaching hall and I like them so much, that I am ordering with this Five dollars' worth. You ask for a report, and I can only say that I make an address each day on one sheet-tract and after delivering my address I present each hearer with a tract. Our meetings are well-attended just now. The war seems to have made our Tsinan people more serious minded, and anxious to enquire of the things of God. I cannot yet report any definite results, but I feel sure that the written word taken after a stirring address, cannot but be of great benefit to those whose hearts seem to be moved by the spoken word. The Hall mentioned above is run by our Mission and the Chinese Church conjointly, and is a real source of strength to the Church, with a regular stream of converts coming from it.

With prayers for your greater blessing in the work.

Yours sincerely,

H. Payne.

Letters tell us that our tracts are welcomed amongst the miners of Hupeh and the Chinese sailors on ships calling at Australian ports.

The scholars of Honan as well as the farmers of that province, together with public servants, welcome the R.T.S. tract and booklet, whilst the teacher in a theological school at Amoy says, "I feel very happy and grateful" for a new book for theological students and lay-preachers.

Our Posters are Positive Preachers.

A woman wooker from Taochow, Hunan, writes:—

"I have intended for a long time to tell you of the conversion of a woman who saw the New Year Visual Evangelism Picture of 1933 "The Two Opinions"—a man with one foot in "the World boat" and one foot in "the Way boat."

Mrs. Chang had heard and been interested in the Gospel for over 20 years but she continued worshipping idols. One evening at family prayers being short sighted she came and stood near the picture and as explanation was made she received instant conviction and decided for Christ.

1937 New Year Evangelism Posters "Christ the Door" are excellent, each picture has its own definite Gospel positive message. The tracts too are the best set of direct Gospel message tracts I have used. We distributed thousands of them during and after New Year Evangelism. It is always a joy to teach and explain a picture that has Christ as its aim and centre."

From Hongkong a seller of Posters says:—

"You see these strangers gazing into our Book Room windows with their eyes glued on to our thrilling coloured Gospel Posters! And one little crowd makes room for another, and so on."

The same story could be told of our Hankow Depot windows.

We hear also from Shensi:—

"It will be of interest perhaps to hear of a "Two Hearts" poster. In an out-station the other day a soldier came in, he was not a Christian, he thought the words so wonderful, he sat down, took pencil and paper and wrote off a number of expressions found on this poster. We pray as he reads his notes he may be convicted and saved. We also had opportunity to speak a few words to him.”

“He comes the prisoners to release”

In addition to several tracts specially written for use in prisons, we are enabled by the Christmas Letter to Prisoners Fund to print and distribute a Christmas Letter to Prisoners in China. “Workers in Prisons write as follows:—

Mr. Arthur S. Kerry of Chengtu, Sze., says:—“We also have our Prison work on Sunday afternoons and we are now visiting three prisons in the city with a warm welcome and response in them all. The difficulty here is not to find possible work but to avail ourselves of all the openings there are. The attention given everywhere to the preaching of the Gospel is almost amazing.”

Mr. Alec Maxwell of the C. M. S. in the same province reports:—

“You will be glad to know how I am using the tracts. Every Monday afternoon a number of us visit the prison here. We have been distributing some of the tracts there. God has blessed our work to the conversion of men. There is one man named Wang who is under deep conviction at present.”

The Church of the Nazarene, Taming, Hopei, tells of a Christmas distribution and its results:—

“We want to thank you for the copies of the Christmas Letter to Prisoners which you sent us last December. These were distributed in the city jails by our evangelistic bands from the local Chinese Church, from the Bresee Memorial Hospital, and from the Bible School. In the two weeks following the distribution of these letters the bands reported a total of thirty six conversions in the jails. At the same time that the letters were given the local Chinese Church distributed presents of peanuts to each prisoner.”

The Tsehchow Faith Mission, S. Shansi, says:—

“Thank you for the posters which arrived in good condition last week. They are fine. I went straight away and asked permission to stick several up in various parts of the prison where we are having some fine meetings with several remarkable conversions,”
What Distributors Say

From Nanchang, Kiangsi, we hear the following testimony:—

At the beginning of January, our brethren received an invitation from the Military Prison Authorities to go weekly to the prison and make known the gospel to the inmates. Other Missions had the same invitation extended to them. We understand that it is owing to the influence of General Chiang Chi-Chung—an outstanding Christian—that this door has been opened for the proclamation of the gospel.

About ten years ago, General Chiang ordered some hundreds of Bibles to be specially bound, with the names of certain officers, and others in high position to whom he was about to present a copy, embossed in gilt lettering. General Chiang is the Dean of the Central Military Academy in Nanking, a position which he has held for many years.

Mr. Chu, one of the chief officials at the prison, appears to be a believer. He is a keen supporter of this movement to make the gospel known amongst the prisoners always being present himself at the preachings. At the close of a service on Wednesday, February 3, the Speaker, noticing the rapt attention of many of the listeners, suggested that those really interested should signify this by removing their caps. There was an immediate response. He than asked those who were willing to trust in the Lord Jesus to stand up while prayer was offered. After a slight hesitation, one man stood determinedly on his feet. Quickly a number of the other men followed his example, until a large majority of the group gathered were standing.

As the workers were leaving they approached Mr. Chu, asking him kindly to investigate, and ascertain the number of men who were real in their profession so that New Testaments could be sent to them.

That same evening a letter arrival from Mr. Chu, in which he said:—

"At your request I have investigated and find that there are one hundred and twenty four men who can read and are really desirous to believe in the Lord.

Tracts also were part of the means used.

Many other workers tell of similar work done in prisons but our space is limited.

"and on the eyeballs of the blind"

From Kweilin, Kwangsi, we hear of healing:

Last year a Chinese colleague and I spent a week in a large market town where our Church has a catechist at work. Our days were full of visiting, teaching and preaching, and each night we had an open-air meeting at the door of the compound. On the third morning a man came along with a tract that he had received the night before and asked for teaching about it. This year the catechist told me that two more members of his family are also receiving instruction. Moreover, one day this man made an act of witness somewhat to this effect;

"Since I began studying the Gospel, my own health has improved, my business is doing better, and I can read Chinese characters better."

Among his hearers was a man troubled by sleeplessness and by failing eyesight. He thought he would try this remedy; later, he, too, testified to a heart at rest, peaceful nights and improved eyesight.

"And with the treasures of His grace,
To enrich the humble poor."

"The opportunity for distributing Christian Literature in this section is growing day by day. The free grant which you made at the time we had famine conditions in this section due to the great flood which the waters of the Yellow River brought upon us, has been of tremendous service to our work. There are many new inquirers due to the influence brought to bear on many who were famine sufferers, through famine relief, and the literature you sent helped us in planting the seed of the Gospel in their hearts. This year we haven't exactly famine conditions, but we do have extreme suffering due to the fact that many of the farmers did not get their winter wheat in, due to the long continued drought.

If you have any free grants that are available now, we could make fine use of the literature here in this Haichow District of more than two million people."
What Distributors Say

This full stream of testimony is only a portion of the reports that have reached us. We conclude the story of the year by two more instances of fruitage.

From Mr. Arthur S. Olson, of Suichow, Honan, we hear:—

"The opportunities for preaching and the spreading of the Gospel in this section are really marvellous. During my twenty years in China I have not seen anything like it. There really seems to be an eagerness for listening to the Gospel. People are offering the use of their buildings for meeting places and pleading that regular visits be made. We are trying to fulfill these requests as far as possible.

I must tell you what a tract through the working of the Spirit did on our field. A man of about sixty years, by name Chang, was handed a tract. In reading this tract he became greatly moved, came to the mission station to hear more, was gripped by the Gospel and so eager to help spread it that he built a three "chien" building as a chapel, using his own money, and offered to pay half the salary of a bible woman, no evangelist being available. An evangelist visits the place on Sundays as far as possible. The building, however, proved far too small so most of the services have been held out in the open. This work has now been carried on for 18 months. Old Mr. Chang is as eager as ever to reach the neighboring people with this wonder message of salvation. Can we not say, Praise the Lord!"

Then from Mr. David K. STEYBE of C.I.M., Wukang, Hunan, comes the following testimony of the cumulative result of grants from the Tinling Fund For Free Tract Distribution:—

"The Student Series tracts I distributed mostly myself amongst the many students of the middle School here. I cannot at once speak of definite results, but the Literature from your honorable Society, which was scattered freely during the nearly three years we are working here have helped greatly in the work. You may see this from the progress outwardly seen in baptisms:

CHAPTER IV.

New Publications

The past year has seen a record issue of new books and booklets. Never before in its sixty-two years of history have more than 40 seen the light in one year. The Diamond Jubilee has brought a new lease of life in this department of our work—for since we passed our 60th birthday 84 new books have appeared.

The number of new posters and tracts is larger than in any of the past ten years—reaching a total of 125. The figure has only twice been exceeded when in 1927-29 the Society received a large number of posters and handbills from a Special Committee on Visual Evangelism.

A most careful and yet spiritual treatment of the theme. We have placed this booklet in our Health and the Gospel Series because we believe that spiritual and physical health should go together, and that a larger place should be given to prayer than many Christians allow. At the same time, this book gives due recognition to medical skill, which is one of the gifts of God to man.

CHAPTER V.

Circulation and Finance.

In Chapter II we touched briefly upon the circulation and value of sales during the year, but more should be said.

The circulation of all kinds of books, posters, tracts, etc., reached the total of 7,305,034 copies valued at $43,409.19. In the printed accounts, at the end of this Report, the sales figure is given at $40,472.93 but this is due to the difference between the values of stock despatched to our Shanghai Agency and the cash actually received for these when the accounts were made up. Owing to the war the accounts for sales had not reached us in time to be included.

The circulation is up and the loss on overhead has been met by the generous donations of Societies and individuals—and also by the work of the Press. We face the prospect of loss owing to the war with a balance in hand of $300.12.

The record of the year may be compared with the circulation for the past five years.

In 1932-33 we circulated 7,967,607 publications, valued $48,720.95
1933-34 ,, 8,453,425 ,, 47,809.82
1934-35 ,, 8,223,744 ,, 48,275.76
1935-36 ,, 7,198,557 ,, 42,790.26
1936-37 ,, 7,305,044 ,, 43,409.19

To the end of last year's report the total circulation from the beginning in 1876 had reached the figure of 169,838,877. If to this be added the figures of the present year, the grand total is 177,143,911.
