NOTICE IN REFERENCE TO BEQUESTS.

As the kind intentions of some of the deceased friends of the Society have been rendered abortive for want of correct knowledge of the law, the Committee call special attention to the following directions:—

REQUISITES FOR VALIDITY OF WILL.—It should be remembered in the first place that, (a) A will must be in writing, and signed at the foot or end thereof by the Testator or by some other person in his presence and by his direction; (b) Such signature must be made or acknowledged by the Testator in the presence of two Witnesses, who must be present at the same time, and (c) Such Witnesses must attest and subscribe the will in the presence of the Testator.

GIFTS BY WILL TO CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.—Gifts by will to the Baptist Missionary Society and other Charitable Institutions were formerly subject to restrictions stated in the "Notice in Reference to Bequests" contained in previous reports. But the effect of the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 73), Secs. 3 and 5 and 9, is that no gift in favour of a Charitable Institution, made by the will of a Testator dying after August 5th, 1891, can be void by reason of the subject matter of the gift being land or an interest in land. The distinction formerly drawn between personal property which is an interest in land (that is, in any way secured upon or payable out of land) and pure personalty is abolished, and even land may now be lawfully given by will to a Charitable Institution. But lands so given must be sold within one year from the Testator's death, or such extended period as may be determined by the Court or the Charity Commissioners, and if not sold within such period it will vest in the official Trustee of Charity Lands, and the Charity Commissioners will order it to be sold, and the net proceeds of sale to be paid to the official Trustees of Charity Funds in trust for the Charity in favour of which the land has been given (Sec. 6).

1.—BEQUEST OF AN ORDINARY PECUNIARY LEGACY TO THE SOCIETY.—In this case there is no need for the provision formerly inserted in wills directing the legacy to be paid exclusively out of such parts of the Testator's estate as might lawfully be disposed of for charitable purposes. The bequest may be in the following form:—

"I give to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society the sum of £ _____, free of duty, for the general purposes of the said Society" (or, if so desired, "for the Translation Fund of the said Society," or "for the School Fund of the said Society").

2.—BEQUEST TO THE SOCIETY OF A PECUNIARY LEGACY MADE PAYABLE OUT OF THE PROCEEDS OF SALE AND THE CONVERSION OF THE TESTATOR'S REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE, OR OF A SHARE OF SUCH PROCEEDS.—Very frequently a Testator gives his real and personal estate or his residuary estate to Trustees on trust to sell, and out of the proceeds of sale to pay the legacies previously bequeathed, which may include a legacy to the Society. And a Testator may now bequeath a share of such proceeds to the Society. In these cases, although perhaps not essential, it is considered prudent, at all events until the interpretation of the above-mentioned Act has been settled by judicial decision, to add to the gift of the pecuniary legacy or share to the Society the following direction:—

"And I direct that in case all the real and leasehold estate comprised in the devise and bequest in trust for sale herein contained shall not be sold within one year from my death, then the said legacy (or share) herein bequeathed to the said Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society, and the duty thereon shall be paid out of the proceeds of sale and conversion of my personal estate and the proceeds of sale of such of my real and leasehold estate as shall be sold within one year after my death in priority to all other legacies (or shares) payable thereout."

3.—GIFT BY WILL OF LAND TO THE SOCIETY.—If land or a house of any tenure or a freehold or leasehold ground-rent is intended to be given to the Society, it should be given to a Trustee or Trustees on trust to sell within one year after the Testator's death if practicable, and to receive the net purchase money and pay it to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Society. The Testator will probably desire that the Succession Duty on the gift and also the cost of any application which may be necessary to extend the period of one year within which the sale must be made under the above-mentioned Act shall be paid out of his general estate. A gift by will of freehold land or a freehold house or a freehold ground-rent for the benefit of the Society may be made in the following form :—

“I give unto and to the use of (names of Trustees), their heirs and assigns, my freehold (description of land or house or ground-rent) upon trust to sell the same if practicable within one year from my death, and to receive the proceeds of sale thereof and thereout, and out of the rents and profits until sale to pay the expenses of such sale and all necessary outgoings, and to pay the residue of such proceeds and rents and profits to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society for the general purposes of the said Society. And I direct that the Succession Duty payable in respect of the above gift and also the costs of any application to extend the period for sale under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891, shall be paid out of my general estate.”

A gift by will of leasehold land or a leasehold house or a leasehold ground-rent for the benefit of the Society may be made in the following form :—

“I give to (names of Trustees), their executors, administrators, and assigns, my leasehold (description of land or house or ground-rent) upon trust to sell the same if practicable within one year from my death, and to receive the proceeds of sale thereof and thereout, and out of the rents and profits until sale to pay the expenses of such sale and the rent reserved by the lease under which the same premises are held and all other necessary outgoings, and to pay the residue of such proceeds and rents and profits to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society for the general purposes of the said Society. And I direct that the Succession Duty payable in respect of the above gift, and also the costs of any application to extend the period for sale under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891, shall be paid out of my general estate.”

METHODS FOR FREQUENT AND REGULAR GIVING.

THE following are some of the methods now in operation, with a detailed description :—

THE ENVELOPE SYSTEM.

A Missionary Treasurer and Secretary having been appointed, the chapel is divided into sections, more or less according to size. Each section is placed under the superintendence of a collector, chosen, if possible, from those sitting in the section itself. The collectors are provided with books, in which are entered the numbers of the pews the name and address of each seat-holder and of other attendants, according to their respective divisions. These books also contain columns ruled for each month in the year. The contributions are collected by means of small envelopes. Monthly giving being desired, these envelopes are placed in the pews on a certain Sunday in each month. Should there be any individuals who prefer to give less frequently, their envelopes are supplied at the appropriate intervals. The contributors, having enclosed their subscriptions, deposit their envelopes in the weekly offering boxes (should any be in use) or return them to the collector. Once or twice a month, as may be thought well, the Secretary meets the collectors at the close of a week-evening service, handing over the envelopes unopened for them to enter the sums they contain in their books. The money may be paid in by the collectors monthly or quarterly, their books being initialed whenever payments are made. The Treasurer remits to the Mission House four times in the year. In some instances receipts are given month by month to every subscriber, these being enclosed in the new envelopes; in others receipts are given once a quarter, with a reminder of arrears, should there be any; whilst in other cases receipts are deemed unnecessary.

In adopting this method the distribution of a circular, signed by the pastor and officers, explaining and commending it has been found of great service. With these circulars slips are issued, upon which subscribers may enter the sum they propose to give, and state how frequently—whether monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, or annually—they would prefer to give it.

THE DISTRICT METHOD.

This method divides the congregations not into sections according to the seats occupied in the chapel, but into districts according to residence. One collector or, as may be preferred, two collectors are appointed to each district. After a circular, signed by the pastor and officers, has been distributed, and a statement has been made from the pulpit, a general canvass is made to secure promises of help; the collectors then call for the contributions monthly, or less frequently, as the subscribers may choose. If thought desirable, the small cash envelopes may be also used in working this plan. At least once in three months the collectors should hand over their money to the Secretary, so that as often it may be forwarded to the Mission House. If this scheme, or the one already described, is to prove successful, the smaller sums as well as the larger should be sought. To those who may resolve to attempt this method of securing frequent and regular giving books will be forwarded on application to the Secretaries of the Society.

Another plan to which attention may be called consists in the general circulation of

MISSIONARY BOXES.

The plan adopted by some churches is as follows :—

1. The boxes are definitely family boxes, and not intended to supersede or interfere with any existing annual subscriptions or any public collections at the chapel.

2. The boxes are numbered consecutively, and have on one side a short address to stimulate missionary zeal, and the suggestion that the boxes should be placed on the breakfast-table every Lord's-day morning to receive the family offerings for the work of God among the heathen (in accordance with 1 Cor. xvi. 2). This is a cardinal feature of the plan.

3. The boxes are called for quarterly at the houses of those who have taken them (unless they prefer to bring them to the chapel) by collectors appointed for that purpose, as soon after each quarter as possible, who give receipts for the amounts received.

4. The collectors hand in the total amount received from the boxes in their districts to the Mission-box Secretary, who initials their receipt-book counterfoils, and gives out the names of any new families to be called upon with the view of getting more boxes taken.

Boxes can be forwarded from the Mission House for this use in Christian families.

THE PENNY-A-WEEK SYSTEM.

As the first step in the adoption of this as of every other method, let the church appoint its own Missionary Secretary. Then let this officer select as many collectors as may be required to collect the pennies from an aggregate of eleven—not more than eleven—subscribers, which sum, with the penny of the collector, will amount to a shilling. These pennies might be obtained at the chapel services or at the home. They should be paid in monthly to the secretary, who should remit quarterly to Furnival Street. This method is equally adapted for the gathering in of larger weekly sums than a penny. The apparatus for putting this plan into operation will be readily supplied from the Mission House. This system is commended as being especially suited to Christian Endeavour Societies.

A PRAYER UNION has recently been instituted, of which full particulars may be obtained.

As the circumstances of churches vary, it is necessary to be prepared with a variety of methods. It is hoped that in one or other of the above, every church will find a plan of regular and frequent giving suited to its own particular requirement.

PLAN AND REGULATIONS OF THE SOCIETY.

NAME.

The name by which the Society has been, and is, designated is "THE BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY," including "The Particular Baptist Missionary Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen," which was formed in 1792, and "The General Baptist Missionary Society," which was formed in 1816.

OBJECT.

The great object of this Society is the diffusion of the knowledge of the religion of Jesus Christ throughout the whole world, beyond the British Isles, by the preaching of the Gospel, the translation and publication of the Holy Scriptures, and the establishment of schools.

MEMBERS.

The following persons shall be considered Members—viz., pastors of churches making an annual contribution; ministers who collect annually; and all Christian persons concurring in the objects of the Society, who are donors of ten pounds and upwards, or subscribers of ten shillings and sixpence annually to its funds.

GENERAL MEETING OF MEMBERS.

A General Meeting of Members only shall be held annually, at which the Committee and Officers shall be chosen for the year ensuing, the Auditors of accounts appointed, and any other business pertaining to the Society transacted.

In choosing the Committee and Officers, the Chairman of the Meeting shall receive all names which it may be intended to propose. Out of the list so obtained, forty-two Members of the Committee shall be chosen by ballot, those who have the greater number of votes being the persons elected, and the Members so elected shall be empowered to fill up the number to fifty-four Members, as required by the following rule, from the list of nominations presented at the Annual Meeting. No name shall appear on the Nomination List for Election to the General Committee at the Annual Meeting without the consent of the owner.

COMMITTEE.

That the affairs of the Society shall be conducted by a Committee of fifty-four persons, two-thirds of whom shall be residents beyond twelve miles of St. Paul's; the Committee to meet monthly, or oftener, in London, on a fixed day, for the despatch of business; seven Members to be deemed a quorum; the Committee to be empowered to fill up vacancies.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.

A Public Meeting of the Society shall be held annually, when the list of the Committee shall be read, the accounts presented, and the proceedings of the previous year reported. The Committee shall also be empowered to summon Public Meetings, in London or elsewhere, whenever the interests of the Society may seem to require.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

All Treasurers and Secretaries of Missionary Auxiliaries shall be CORRESPONDING MEMBERS of the Committee, together with such persons as it may be found necessary to add to their number.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

The General Meeting of Members shall also be empowered to appoint as HONORARY MEMBERS of the Committee any who have rendered important services to the Society; provided the nomination of such Honorary Members of Committee shall proceed only from a resolution of the General Committee of the Society, or from six Members of the Society who are combined therein.

HONORARY MEMBERS (EX-OFFICIO).

Presidents or Principals of Denominational Colleges shall be ex-officio Members of the Committee of the Society.

Presidents for the time being of the Baptist Unions of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales shall be ex-officio Members of the Committee of the Society during their respective terms of office.

MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY ENTITLED TO VOTE AT COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

All Honorary and Corresponding Members of the Committee, and all Ministers, who are members of the Society, who may occasionally be in London; and also Ministers residing in London, similarly qualified, together with the Treasurers and Secretaries of London Auxiliaries, shall be entitled to attend and vote at the Meetings of the Committee.

FUNDS.

All moneys received on behalf of the Society shall be lodged in the hands of the Treasurer, or of Trustees to be chosen by the Society. When the amount received shall exceed the sum needed for the current expenses of the month, it shall be invested in the Public Funds until required for the use of the Mission.

ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION.

No alteration in the constitution of the Society shall be made without twelve months' notice having been given at a previous Annual General Meeting.

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING

HELD IN THE MISSION HOUSE, FURNIVAL STREET, HOLBORN, E.C.,
MONDAY, APRIL 22ND, 1901.

1. After singing a hymn and reading the Scriptures, the Rev. J. H. ATKINSON, of Liverpool, offered prayer.

2. On the motion of the GENERAL SECRETARY, JOHN EATON, Esq., J.P., Lord Mayor of Sheffield, was unanimously called to the chair.

3. The Digest of Minutes of the Committee for the past year was brought up and read by the GENERAL SECRETARY.

4. The Officers presented and read the Report of the Committee, together with the Balance-sheet and Abstract of Accounts for the past year as passed by the Auditors.

5. On the motion of the Rev. W. E. BLOMFIELD, B.A., B.D., of Coventry, seconded by W. PAYNE, Esq., of Clapton, it was resolved:—

That, in adopting the report for the year ending the 31st March, 1901, together with the duly audited balance-sheet and statement of accounts, the subscribers in annual meeting assembled place on record their devout thankfulness to Almighty God for the abundant blessings that have followed the labours of His servants, the missionaries, in all parts of the mission-field during the year past.

Specially would they magnify the grace of God given to so many followers of the Saviour, both foreign and native, in the great empire of China who have been faithful unto death, and who have sealed their testimony with their blood; and they would respectfully and affectionately tender to the bereaved families and friends of the brothers and sisters who have suffered martyrdom the assurance of deep and tender sympathy.

With regard to the debt of £4,723 8s. 6d., this meeting pledges itself to heartily co-operate with the Committee in an immediate effort to secure its extinction, and confidently anticipates that such action will commend itself to the practical sympathy and support of all friends of the Society and the Churches of the denomination.

This meeting also will gladly further any special efforts that may be put forth by the Committee to raise the permanent income of the Society.

6. On the nomination of the Committee, moved by the Rev. CHARLES WILLIAMS, of Accrington, seconded by the Rev. JAMES STUART, of Watford, it was unanimously resolved:—

That the Rev. William Brook, of Hampstead, and D. Clarke, Esq., C.A., of High Wycombe, be elected Honorary Members of the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society, having rendered important services to the Mission.

7. On the motion of HENRY ROGERS, Esq., J.P., of Hereford, seconded by the Rev. R. M. JULYAN, of Burnley, it was resolved:—

That the following gentlemen be requested to act as Scrutineers, to report the result of the examination of the balloting papers to the officers of the Society for publication—viz., Messrs. W. D. Howieson, W. W. Parkinson, C. H. Chapman, F. W. Smith, C. E. Smith, H. H. Collier, J. E. Myers, H. W. Pewtress, and T. Denman.

8. The lists of nominations of Members to serve on the Committee having been supplied, the voting papers were collected and referred to the Scrutineers.

9. On the motion of the Rev. J. G. GREENHOUGH, M.A., of Leicester, seconded by W. C. PARKINSON, Esq., of Hornsey, it was resolved :—

That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to William R. Rickett, Esq., J.P., for his valuable services as Treasurer during the past year, and that he be respectfully and earnestly requested to continue them during the year ensuing.

10.—On the motion of the Rev. JAMES OWEN, of Swansea, seconded by G. W. MACALPINE, Esq., J.P., of Accrington, it was resolved :—

That the best thanks of this Meeting be given to Alfred Henry Baynes, Esq., for his efficient services as General Secretary during the past year, and that he be earnestly requested to continue them during the year ensuing.

11. On the motion of the Rev. T. G. TAEN, of Harrogate, seconded by the Rev. J. R. WATSON, M.B., of T'sing Chou Fu, it was resolved :—

That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. J. B. Myers, the Association Secretary of the Society, for his valuable services in connection with the deputation and association work of the Mission during the past year, and that he be requested to continue his services in the ensuing year.

12. On the motion of S. B. BURTON, Esq., of Highworth, seconded by the Rev. JAMES CAVE, of Wokingham, it was resolved :—

That the best thanks of this Meeting be given to the Auditors for their efficient services during the past year, and that the following gentlemen be requested to act as Auditors for the year ensuing—viz., Messrs. W. W. Parkinson, E. H. Keen, Jas. Everett, T. W. Smith, and W. Lepard Smith.

13. On the motion of the GENERAL SECRETARY, in pursuance of notice given at the Annual Members' Meeting, on April 24th, 1900, it was resolved :—

That for the future the Presidents for the time being of the Baptist Unions of England, Scotland, and Ireland and Wales, be ex-officio Members of the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society during their respective terms of office.

14. On the motion of the Rev. T. D. LANDELS, M.A., of Newcastle-on-Tyne, seconded by T. H. ENGALL, Esq., of Acton, it was resolved :—

That a recommendation be sent from this General Meeting of Members to the General Committee to appoint a small Sub-Committee for the purpose of considering (1) whether it be not possible so to alter and improve the Missionary Herald as to make it more interesting to the churches, and more representative of the work of the Society; and (2) whether the present method of distribution of the Herald be the most effectual and economical.

15. On the motion of the TREASURER, seconded by the GENERAL SECRETARY, the following resolution was passed unanimously :—

That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to John Eaton, Esq., J.P., Lord Mayor of Sheffield, for his kind and efficient services in the chair.

16. The foregoing Minutes were read and confirmed.

17. The Meeting was closed with the Benediction.

THE ANNUAL PUBLIC MEETING OF THE

WAS HELD IN

EXETER HALL, STRAND,

ON THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 25TH, 1901.

EDWARD ROBINSON, ESQ., J.P., of Bristol, in the Chair.

1. The Meeting was opened by singing a hymn, and prayer conducted by the Rev. J. T. BRISCOE, of Bristol.

2. The GENERAL SECRETARY (Mr. Alfred Henry Baynes) presented and read extracts from the One Hundred and Ninth Annual Report.

3. The TREASURER (Mr. W. R. Rickett, J.P.) presented the duly audited Statement of Accounts for the year ending 31st March, 1901.

4. The CHAIRMAN addressed the Meeting.

5. The following Resolution, moved by the Rev. C. S. MEDHURST, of Shantung, seconded by the Rev. A. G. SHORROCK, B.A., of Shensi, and supported by the Rev. ARTHUR SOWERBY, of Shansi, was carried unanimously :—

“We, supporters and friends of the Baptist Missionary Society, in annual meeting assembled, desire to praise God for the blessings, rich beyond all our hope, that have rested on the labours of our devoted brethren in China; and for the multitude of converts whom God has beautified with salvation.

“We desire to extend our tenderest sympathy to our beloved brethren the missionaries, their converts, and all those that have been sorely bereaved in consequence of the Fight of Afflictions through which they have been called to pass; the months of agonising suspense; the martyrdom of so many; and the persecutions, often harder than death, that have fallen on so many that have survived.

“We rejoice in the grace given to our brethren to be faithful unto death, and in the rich legacy of their triumph and example. We recognise that the glory of such faithfulness to Christ, on the part of so many martyrs, opens a great door and effectual for the preaching of the Gospel, and appeals to us, in our happier circumstances, to make a worthier effort to give the Gospel of Life to the increased multitude of those who will be open to the preaching of the Gospel; and to this we pledge ourselves, God helping us, to respond.”

6. The Meeting closed with the Doxology and Benediction.

MISSIONARY GROUP, TRIENNIAL INDIAN MISSIONARY CONFERENCE, CALCUTTA, DECEMBER, 1900.
(From a Photograph.) See p. 138.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE year brought under review in this Report embraces nine months of the last year of the Nineteenth Century and three months of the first year of the Twentieth Century.

Both these periods will henceforth stand out prominently in history—the first, in connection with the terrible massacres in China and famine and pestilence in India ; the second, in connection with the passing from us of Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, after an unexampled reign of nearly sixty-four years, and the accession of His Gracious Majesty King Edward VII.

The deep personal interest taken by Queen Victoria in all that concerned the well-being of the vast populations of the Empire of India, and especially in all efforts put forth for the improvement and amelioration of the condition of the women of that great continent, must be known to all. In the gracious words of the Queen's own message to the women of India in 1881—" We should wish it generally known that we deeply sympathise with every effort made to relieve the suffering state of the women of India"—we have the expression of that deep, practical solicitude that found its fulfilment in the many beneficent organisations that have been brought into existence as the result of the Queen's initiation and support.

Well might His Majesty King Edward VII. say in his message to the peoples of India : " In all matters connected with India the Queen Empress displayed an unvarying, deep and personal interest. . . . I shall endeavour to follow the great example of the first Queen Empress of India to work for the general well-being of my Indian subjects of all ranks, and to merit, as she did, their unfailing loyalty and affection."

With all our hearts we pray God save the King.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

Notwithstanding much that has been sad and distressing, especially with regard to events in China and India during the past year, yet in the review of work done and blessing received, surely the uppermost feeling should be that of devout thankfulness.

The prompt and generous response made by our supporters and churches in this country to the appeal for Indian famine relief has rarely, if ever, been excelled. Within a very short period a large sum was received at the Mission House, contributions, as they came in, being cabled out to our special committees in India. How urgently needed was the help is evident from the fact that the famine proved vastly more destructive to human life than even the great famine of 1868; while pestilence, it is stated on high authority, carried off by death more than one-third of the entire population of the great city of Bombay.

From this special fund the Committee were able to send the following sums to kindred Missionary Relief Committees at work in parts of India where the horrors of famine were more fiercely felt than in our own districts: The Methodist Episcopal Mission, Guzerat, £500; the Disciples Mission, Central Provinces, £500; the Canadian Presbyterian Mission, Central Provinces, £500; the American Commissioners, Board of Foreign Missions, Rajputana, £750; the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, Bombay District, £200; the United Presbyterian Mission, Rajputana, £500; the Free Church of Scotland Mission, Nizam's Dominions, £500; the Bishop of Calcutta, for Church Missions and S.P.G. Missions, Nagpore, £750; and other Missions.

During the past year, after careful consideration and conference with a delegation from the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Mission Committee, whose missionaries have recently occupied the North Lushai country, making Aigal their centre, the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society have resolved to place at Lungleh (the centre of the South Lushai country) within the next twelve months a European missionary; the South Lushai country, by mutual consent, being clearly within the sphere of our Society's operations from the present base of our work at Chittagong.

The Rev. David Donald, our missionary in Chittagong, writes: "The Lushais of the South hill tracts are a fine, free people, and their women, so far as I have observed, quiet and retiring. It is most earnestly to be hoped that our Society will feel that simple hill people such as the South Lushais ought not to be neglected. There is to-day a great and open door here. What we need in Bengal is a judicious mingling of work among aboriginal tribes and hill peoples with the more difficult caste-bound peoples of the plains, where results are few, and gathered with great toil. It will always be to me a bitter grief if the South Lushai country is lost to our Mission."

In North China, notwithstanding our overwhelmingly sad and terrible experiences in the Shansi Province during the past year, a new and inspiring dawn seems breaking and a brighter day approaching.

We are devoutly thankful for the cheering tidings just received by telegram of the return early last month of many of our missionaries to their interior stations in Shantung Province, the telegram further stating that they had received a most gratifying official welcome from the Chinese authorities, and that the damage to the Mission buildings was much less than had been reported.

This early return of our Shantung missionaries to their work is largely due to the attitude of the Governor of the Province, Yuan Shih Kai, to whose friendly action our missionary, Mr. Forsyth, states, "our Shantung missionaries owe their lives."

It will not be out of place here to insert a translation of a portion of a most remarkable letter from this Governor, published in the Shanghai Mercury of January 29th, bearing, as it does, valuable testimony to the characters of our missionaries and the excellence of their work.

"Translation of letter from Yuan Shih Kai, Governor of Shantung, to representatives of American Baptist, American Presbyterian, and English Baptist Missions:—

"You, Reverend Sirs, have been preaching in China many years, and without exception exhort men concerning righteousness. Your Church customs are strict and correct, and all your converts may well observe them. In establishing your customs you have been careful to see that Chinese law was observed. How then can it be said that there is disloyalty? To meet this sort of calumny I have instructed that proclamations be put out. I purpose hereafter to have lasting peace. Church interests may then prosper, and your idea of preaching righteousness I can promote.

"Enclosed please find copy of proclamation and of orders to my subordinates, for which I ask your forbearing consideration.

"The present overturning is of a most extraordinary character. It forced you, Reverend Sirs, by land and water to go long journeys, and subjected you to alarms and dangers, causing me many qualms of conscience. Everywhere it is now quiet. The missionaries of France, Germany, and other nations have returned to the interior to preach as formerly. If you, Reverend Sirs, wish to return to the interior, I would beg you first give me word, that I may most certainly order the military everywhere to carefully guard and escort you.

"With warm wishes for your happiness, yours in reply, (Signed) "YUAN SHIH KAI.

"Chinanfu, 11th Moon, 21st day, Kwang Hsu, 26th year."

YUAN SHIH KAI, THE GOVERNOR OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE.—(From a Photograph.)

With regard to the Province of Shensi, it appears very difficult to forecast when it may be wise for our missionaries to re-open work there, and the fact that the Emperor and Dowager Empress are at present residing in the capital city of this province still further increases the difficulty.

In the meantime, our missionary brethren are exerting themselves to the utmost of their power to send relief and so mitigate the terrible sufferings of the famine-stricken in that province, consequent upon prolonged drought, their first efforts being devoted to native Christians, most of whom have suffered the loss of all things during the recent crisis.

At the earliest practicable date our brethren will joyfully return to the people and work they love so well.

As to the Shansi Province, there surely can be no hesitation in the minds of our friends and supporters as to our duty and privilege in the near future. Shansi now and in the days to come must be a specially consecrated field of missionary toil; dearer far to Baptists than ever before, demanding redoubled efforts and more complete consecration.

The Committee are glad to know that as soon as the needed consular permission is given the Revs. Arthur Sowerby and J. J. Turner (our former missionary) will re-occupy the province and prepare the way for such large reinforcements as the home churches may supply funds that shall be sufficient to equip, send out, and maintain them.

Surely there are far brighter days in store for China. The analogy of all past history shows us that the throes through which she is now passing will ere long result in a far better state of things.

Let us hold to these old sayings that "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church," "the darkest hour is before the dawn," and, above all, the promises of Scripture, remembering ever that "the things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

The one great supernatural factor in this vast work needs to be more clearly and constantly realised. "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." He who holds the resources of heaven and earth in His hands will have His servants depend entirely upon Him. What are the promises? "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it. Yet, for all this will I be inquired of to do it." To-day the Christian Church is summoned to GO FORWARD, but forward only in Divine strength, her sole reliance being upon the presence and power of the Holy Ghost; for this great missionary enterprise is of Him, and through Him, and to Him.

The record of our Congo Mission during the past year is marvellously full of encouragement and inspiration, notwithstanding the removal by death of several faithful and earnest workers.

During the past year there have been 187 baptisms; 2,964 day scholars, taught by 96 teachers; 1,671 Sunday-school scholars and 93 teachers. Mr. Holman Bentley writes from Wathen Station: "A large proportion of our church members engage in direct, systematic, evangelistic work. It is a joy to mark the evidences of a deepening of spirituality in some, a widening of intelligence in many, and a general awakening to new and higher views of life and emancipation from the bondage of heathen country customs. The Church at Wathen is leavening the whole of the native life."

And again—

"Nine native evangelists were being entirely supported at the close of last year, and a tenth left Wathen the last day of the year, thus bringing up the number of evangelistic and school outposts to 36, beside the station itself. Ten of these are wholly supported by the native church; the 26 remaining either support themselves by work or are locally supported—NOT ONE IS SUPPORTED BY FUNDS FROM THE SOCIETY."

The story of the new station at Kibokolo, in the Zombo country, cannot fail to excite thankfulness, and all the reports from the other stations indicate progress. There surely is no record of modern missionary enterprise more stimulating, heroic, and inspiring than the story of our Congo Mission.

With this Mission will always be associated the name of the late Mr. Robert Arthington, of Leeds.

The particulars relative to the large sum left by Mr. Arthington for special missionary work have been already published in the Missionary Herald for January last, and from a careful perusal of that statement it will be seen that the sums left for missionary purposes are left to two specially constituted committees, in whose hands the funds are to be invested and disbursed under clearly defined instructions.

Mr. Arthington has been well called "a missionary enthusiast"; the following extract, found among his papers, giving a clue to his simple, self-sacrificing life :—

"I would gladly live in one room, make the floor my bed, a box my chair, another my table, rather than the heathen should perish for lack of the knowledge of Christ."

The reports from other parts of the mission fields are also strikingly encouraging, especially from Italy and Brittany; the work in North Italy showing that there is a cheering growth in independence and self-support.

The Committee record their grateful appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the Society by the Rev. Charles Williams, the Rev. George Kerry, and G. W. Macalpine, Esq., J.P., the delegates appointed to represent the Baptist Missionary Society at the great Ecumenical Foreign Missionary Conference held in New York in the spring of last year.

Their cordial thanks are also tendered to the Rev. J. W. Ewing, M.A.

B.D., for his visit to Nablous and his interesting report on the Palestine Mission.

MISSIONARIES ON FURLOUGH.

The missionaries at present in this country on furlough are :—

FROM INDIA.—The Revs. Charles and Mrs. Jordan, from Calcutta ; J. I. and Mrs. Hasler, from Delhi ; T. W. and Mrs. Norledge, from Calcutta ; Gordon S., and Mrs. Wilkins, from Berhampore, Ganjam, Orissa ; R. M. and Mrs. McIntosh, from Muttra ; J. and Mrs. Stubbs, from Patna City ; F. W. and Mrs. Hale, from Palwal ; J. G. and Mrs. Potter, from Kalka ; and D. L. and Mrs. Donald, from Chittagong ; W. and Mrs. Carey, from Dacca, East Bengal.

FROM CEYLON.—Miss Moodie, from Colombo.

FROM CHINA.—The Revs. Arthur and Mrs. Sowerby, from Shansi ; Evan and Mrs. Morgan and A. G. and Mrs. Shorrocks, from Shensi ; J. S. and Mrs. Whitwright, Samuel and Mrs. Couling, C. S. and Mrs. Medhurst, Dr. T. C. and Mrs. Paterson, and Dr. Russell and Mrs. Watson, M.D., all from Shantung ; Mrs. Drake, Rev. A. G. and Mrs. Jones, of Shantung ; and Mrs. Moir B. Duncan, LL.A., from Shensi.

FROM THE CONGO.—The Revs. A. E. Scrivener, from Bolobo, W. Millman, from Yakusu, and S. C. Gordon, from Stanley Pool, Upper Congo ; Miss Brindal, from Wathen, Revs. Lawson and Mrs. Forfeitt, from Matadi, and Thomas and Mrs. Lewis, from Kibokolo, Zombo, from the Lower Congo.

FROM JAMAICA.—Revs. Arthur and Mrs. James, and Leonard and Mrs. Tucker, from Kingston.

MISSIONARIES RETURNED TO THEIR FIELDS OF WORK.

During the past year the following missionaries have returned to their work after furlough at home :—

TO INDIA.—Revs. Benjamin and Mrs. Evans, to Dinapore ; P. E. Heberlet, to Sambulpur, Orissa ; Dr. and Mrs. Rouse, to Calcutta ; C. E. and Mrs. Wilson, to Serampore College ; and J. Herbert Thomas, to Delhi.

TO CONGO.—Miss Lily de Hailes, to Bolobo ; Rev. W. B. Frame, to Wathen ; H. Ross Phillips, to Matadi ; J. L. and Mrs. Roger*, to Stanley Pool ; Geo. and Mrs. Grenfell, to Bolobo ; W. H. and Mrs. Stapleton, to Yakusu.

TO TRINIDAD.—The Rev. R. E. Gammon, to Port of Spain.

TO ITALY.—The Rev. James and Mrs. Wall and Miss Yates, to Rome ; and W. K. and Mrs. Landels, to Turin.

CHANGES OF LOCATION.

The following changes in location have been made during the year :—

The Rev. George Hughes, from Madaripore to Chittagong, occasioned by Mr. Donald taking furlough to England ; the Rev. H. Patterson, from Dinapore to Muttra, with a view to test the benefit to health of Mrs. Patterson and their children ; the Rev. Benjamin Evans, from Monghyr to Dinapore ; the Rev. A. Long, from Sambalpore to Berhampore, the Rev. Gordon Wilkins being now on furlough in England ; the Rev. Sutton Page, B.A., B.D., from Calcutta to Dacca as a tentative arrangement, the Rev. William Carey being compelled by urgent medical orders to seek an immediate change to England ; the Rev. Joseph Thomas retires from the management of the Calcutta Press, and is succeeded by the Rev. C. H. Harvey, of the Cuttack Mission Press, Mr. R. J. Grundy taking charge of the Cuttack Press ; Dr. Vincent Thomas, from Muttra to Palwal ; the Rev. F. W. Hale taking furlough to England.

MISSIONARIES MARRIED.

The following missionaries have married during the past year—viz., the Rev. W. Sutton Page, B.A., B.D., to Miss Mabel Summers, of Serampore ; and the Rev. H. T. Stonelake, of Monsembi Station, Upper Congo River to Miss Anstee, of Bristol.

MISSIONARIES RESIGNED.

The following missionaries, to the great regret of the Committee, have been compelled to resign their connection with the Society in consequence of very decided medical judgment adverse to their return to the tropics—viz., the Rev. W. D. and Mrs. Hankinson, of Colombo, Ceylon ; Mr. John P. Young, of the Calcutta Mission Press ; the Rev. Albert and Mrs. Law, of Agra ; the Rev. A. G. Adams, of Bolobo Station, Upper Congo River ; and the Rev. Leonard and Mrs. Tucker, of Kingston, Jamaica.

* Mr. Roger has since deceased, and Mrs. Roger subsequently returned to England.

REINFORCEMENTS.

During the year just closed the following brethren have been accepted by the Committee for missionary service :—

FOR INDIA.—Revs. D. T. Morgan, of Cardiff College, for Agra, N.W.P. ; W. D. Millar, B.A., of Mansfield College, Oxford, for Barisal, East Bengal ; John and Mrs. Drake, of Regent's Park College, for Agra ; and R. J. Grundy, of Blackpool, for Cuttack Mission Press, Orissa.

FOR CHINA.—The offer of the Rev. J. J. Turner, formerly associated with our work in the Shansi Province, North China, for renewed service in connection with the re-opening of our work in that sorely devastated region has been gladly accepted.

FOR CONGO.—The Rev. S. O. Kempton, from the Pastor's College, for Yakusu, on the Upper Congo ; Mr. C. T. and Mrs. Williams, of Sunderland, for special work in connection with the Mission steamers, Peace and Goodwill ; the Revs. R. L. Jennings, of the Pastor's College, for Matadi Station ; and G. E. Moore, of Bristol College, at present engaged in a course of medical and surgical training.

GONE HOME.*

During the past year the Society has suffered numerous and most distressing losses in the Mission staff in "the regions beyond."

OUR MARTYRED MISSIONARIES IN SHANSI :—

Tai Yuen Fu—

G. B. and MRS. FARTHING, and their three children ;
S. FRANK and MRS. WHITEHOUSE.

Hsin Chow—

HERBERT and MRS. DIXON ;
W. A. and MRS. MCCURRACH ;
T. J. and MRS. UNDERWOOD ;
SIDNEY W. ENNALS ; and MISS RENAUT, of the Zenana Mission.

JAMES BALFOUR, M.A., for many years Classical Tutor of the Calabar College, Kingston, Jamaica ;

* Obituary resolutions relative to all these lamented losses will be found in Appendix No. 1, p. 139.

RICHARD BEEDHAM, of Matadi Station, Lower Congo River ;

JOHN JEFFERY, of Yakusu Station, Upper Congo River ;

JOSEPH L. ROGER, of Stanley Pool, Upper Congo River.

MRS. KIRKLAND, wife of the Rev. R. H. Kirkland, of Bopoto Station, Upper Congo River ;

MRS. GORDON, wife of the Rev. S. C. Gordon, of Stanley Pool, Upper Congo River.

At home, also, the losses by death have been very severe. Friends who have been associated with our work for years, and whose names and labours will be cherished and loved by us as long as life lasts, have passed from us to the nobler service of Heaven, leaving behind blessed memories of rare gifts and high attainments wholly consecrated to the Master's service :

MRS. W. R. RICKETT, wife of our beloved and honoured Treasurer, Mr. W. R. Rickett, J.P. ;

WILLIAM HILL, Missionary and Secretary of the General Baptist Missionary Society, and Bible Translation Society ;

W. A. HOBBS, for a long term of years Missionary of the Society in Bengal ;

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

The following Report of the Young People's Missionary Association is supplied by the Secretary :—

“The Young People's Missionary Association stands to promote federation, education, and consecration in connection with missions generally, and in connection with the work of the Baptist Missionary Society specifically, among the young people of our Baptist churches.

“It numbers 123 personal members, most of whom are workers among the young, and 224 delegates elected by the affiliated schools, classes, and societies.

“The President of the Association has for several years been Mr. F. J. Marnham ; its Treasurer is Dr. Percy J. F. Lush ; its Secretary the Rev. R. Wright Hay ; and its Executive Committee is composed of men who earnestly desire that the Baptist Missionary Society—its object, its history, its long roll of heroes and martyrs, its ministry in Christ's name to the neediest and most neglected of our race, and, above all, its great purpose with regard to the yet unevangelised millions of mankind—should have in the understanding and heart of the children and youth of the denomination the place which rightly belongs to an agency so manifestly ordained of God, and so graciously, in the past and the present, honoured and used by Him.

“The year under review has been marked by many tokens of the working in the Association of the power of the Holy Spirit. The monthly meetings at the Mission House have been attended by gatherings of delegates and members representing as many as a hundred affiliations at a time. In these meetings the great root-principles of missions have been constantly recognised, and the central truth kept prominently before the mind—that the believer's effective activity on behalf of missions will be determined by the measure of his love to the Lord Jesus Christ. Testimonies during the year have been numerous to the effect that these meetings have been most helpful to the Christian faith and the spiritual life—and, therefore, also to the missionary service—of delegates and members.

“The necessity for, and the intense interest attaching to, missionary study has been dwelt upon during the year, and the greatly increased use made of the lending library of the Association proves that the addresses and conferences on this subject have given a new direction to the reading of many.

“Addresses by such speakers as Mrs. Isabella Bishop and Miss C. F. Gordon Cumming, dealing with the subject of missions from the point of view of the traveller, have been a great stimulus to the Association, and have made impressions which are certain to abide in, and to reproduce themselves through, the lives of many young Christians, and of those who labour to make and train such; while it is impossible to over-estimate the effect of such spiritual appeals as the Association has listened to during the year from speakers like the Rev. Archibald G. Brown, Mr. Campbell White, and Mr. Stanley Smith.

“Addresses on behalf of the Baptist Missionary Society have been given by Y.P.M.A. speakers to 190 metropolitan Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and young people's societies during the year.

“Over 8,000 missionary booklets and leaflets published by the Association have been distributed through the co-operation of delegates and others.

“The new lantern lectures of the Association have been used at 30 metropolitan centres, and duplicates of them have been supplied by the parent Society for the use of churches in the provinces.

“A comparison of the list of contributions by Y.P.M.A. affiliations to the Baptist Missionary Society in the year ending March 31st, 1900, with the list of the contributions of the same affiliations in the preceding year, shows an increase in the gifts of the young people in these federated schools and societies during last year of over £200, the figures being in 1898-99 £1,734 13s. 2d., and 1899-1900 £1,938 8s. 8d.

“The officers and committee of the Association are more deeply conscious than ever before of the importance of the Saviour's work for the world, and His intention as to His Church's work in the world being brought home to the intelligence and the sympathetic feeling of the children and young people of the denomination. They earnestly request all who are in sympathy with Jesus regarding the salvation of the young—in this land and in all lands—to give thanks for blessing bountifully bestowed on the work of the Association hitherto, and to pray that all needed grace and wisdom may be given for wider and more fruitful service in the days to come."

COLONIAL MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Encouraging progress has been made during the past year by the Colonial Missionary Societies. New ground has been opened up, many baptisms have taken place, and there appears to be a general willingness to listen to the message of the evangelist. The Committee greatly rejoice in the growth of missionary zeal in the Colonial churches, and earnestly hope that they may continue to prosper and largely extend their operations. The following list of Colonial Societies gives the names of the various officers :—

The NEW SOUTH WALES MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the South Tipperah District : Treasurer, Mr. W. Buckingham ; Secretary, Rev. F. Hibberd, Carlingford.

The VICTORIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Mymensing District : Chairman, Rev. A. W. Webb, Geelong ; Treasurer, Mr. W. T. Wallis, Geelong ; Secretary, Rev. J. H. Goble, Foot's Cray.

The SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Furreedpore and Pubna Districts : Treasurer, Mr. A. S. Neill, Dunbarra, North Adelaide ; Secretary, Rev. John Price, Hyde Park.

The QUEENSLAND MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Noakhali District, Eastern Bengal : Treasurer, Mr. W. R. Smith ; Secretary, Mr. Sydney G. Martin, Brisbane.

The NEW ZEALAND MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the North Tipperah District : Treasurer, Mr. Hoby ; Secretary, Mr. H. H. Driver, Dunedin.

OUR WORK IN INDIA.

The Rev. Herbert Anderson, of Calcutta, our Indian Secretary, writes :—

“The closing year of the nineteenth century has brought cheer to the hearts of most of our workers in our mission field in India. There has been no startling progress, no sudden turning of many to the Saviour, and yet in almost every one of our stations God has mercifully vouchsafed some clear indication of His divine approval. He has graciously answered our prayers for one another, as for ourselves, that effective spiritual blessing may follow the preaching of His truth and the spread of His Gospel.

"It is a joy to report that 371 have professed in baptism their faith in Christ during the past twelve months of our work. Let no despondency sadden the hearts of those who seem to have toiled in vain. The dawn of the twentieth century finds the conquest of India for Christ more hopeful—more assured, and if not imminent yet nearer at hand than at any other stage in its past progress. Let us note one or two signs that this is true.

"(1) The non-Christian communities acknowledge it. Many of us can recall the time when the laugh of derision met the preacher's statement that the religion of Christ had come to India to conquer all non-Christian faiths. Derision has passed to an angry denial by the bigoted few, an apathetic indifference, which acquiesces withal, from the many; and a glad acknowledgment by that growing body of men who though not taking upon themselves the name and badge of the Christian faith, see in the conversion of India the true hope of the nation of which their descendants will one day form a part.

"(2) The Indian Church of Christ is under a wise and sympathetic guidance, fostering in ever-growing vigour its spiritual union with its Head. Its own weaknesses are more clearly seen and acknowledged; its powers more clearly understood and used; while its responsibility to evangelise the masses around it is a burden it is boldly bracing itself up to bear. Its direction is right, its ideals satisfactory, its spirituality growing. In ever-growing ratio will it give of its wealth and its members for the benefit of its country and the glory of its Lord.

"(3) Never was the work among the younger generation more widely and persistently carried on. The students at the great University centres, the children, both boys and girls, in jungle and village and town are being sought and captivated by the servants of the Cross. In our own work at Calcutta, Dacca, Bankipore, Cuttack, Barisal, and other smaller stations, the student community, by lectures, Bible-classes, and good Christian literature, has been unconsciously influenced towards the truth, and not a few have passed from death unto life.

"(4) The connection of the British nation with the millions of this empire is a further assurance of its ultimate religious conquest. No one would deny that growth in religious life has been one of the most marked features of the past century's record regarding the Anglo-Saxon race. It has manifested itself in the missionary propaganda throughout the non-Christian world; and what the Church of Christ connected with the most progressive race in the world has put its hand to will not be stayed until its aims have been accomplished. Because India is so noble a portion of the British Empire, India will be won for Christ.

"Among the noticeable features of our past year's work may be mentioned the increasing hopefulness of success in the Chittagong Hill Tracts—a number of baptisms from the Buddhist community being recorded; the re-occupation of Rungpore by Brother Ellison, who sees the opportunity, and hopes to take it, of successful work in that difficult district; Mr. Tregillus' return to the superintendence of Jessore, where some years ago quite a large village community was gathered in from Mohammedanism; and the occupation of Madaripore, to the benefit of the work and the district."

VERNACULAR EVANGELISTIC PREACHING.

“Preaching, from its very nature, and from the testimony of history, must ever be the chief means of leading men to conviction and decision, and every other method of making known the Gospel must be, after all, but an aid.”

The Rev. W. R. James, writing from Calcutta, after an absence of more than twenty years, mainly spent in the Mofusil, calls attention to certain manifest changes of a very hopeful and cheering character :—

“Christian influence,” he says, “is slowly but surely telling more and more on the many thousands of Hindus and Mohammedans that inhabit the great city of Calcutta and its suburbs. Prejudice is dying—dying hard, it is true—still dying. People are readier than ever to hear the Gospel; Christ is far better known; the aim of missions is better understood; the fact that all Europeans are not Christians is more commonly apprehended; the practical sympathy of Christian people with the famine-stricken has struck many non-Christians; the great suffering and martyrdom of many missionaries and native Christians in China has opened the eyes of others to the reality of mission work and the power of the Gospel. Some of the vernacular papers have gone as far as to express regret that China should be so blind as to murder its best friends. It is ever true that ‘the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church.’ Assuredly those who died a martyr’s death in China have, thereby, done more for the Kingdom of Christ than they ever could do if permitted to live on and to labour unpersecuted.

“The Gospel affects all that comes in contact with it. Although it is not the power of God unto salvation except to those who believe it, yet it is always a power for good. Its dynamic is felt in all directions. Even hoary and conservative Hinduism feels its force. Long ago Jesus Christ would have been received into the Hindu pantheon had He been content to sit by the side of Ram, Krishna, Durga, and other gods and goddesses. That is, Jesus Christ would have been received by the Hindus had He been prepared to deny Himself—had He been willing to be Jesus Christ no more. But this He can never do. ‘Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and for ever.’ What concord hath Christ with idols? What communion hath light with darkness? Signs are not wanting that Hinduism may some day absorb Brahmaism, even as it has incorporated many divergent beliefs and different cults in the past, but Christianity must ever be separate from, and antagonistic to, its debasing beliefs and its soul-destroying customs. Latterly an attempt has been made, and is being made, to revive Hinduism, but it is no more of a revival than the galvanising of a dead man. Hinduism is a discredited system even in the eyes of its own adherents. Comparisons with Christianity are always resented. If the mere facts related of the gods be told, without remark or comment, the people will invariably say that the missionary or evangelist reviles their religion.”

Referring to work among Mohammedans, Mr. James writes :—

“Whatever be the cause, it is a fact that the bitterest opposition to the Gospel in this country comes from Mohammedans. And yet a change is slowly coming over them. They are becoming ashamed of their polygamy. The sword, as an instrument of conversion, is disclaimed. Some go as far as to try to make out that the Koran does not enjoin religious compulsion of any kind. These and many other similar things indicate that the Gospel of Christ is pouring new wine into their old bottles. How long it will take before it will burst the old wine-skins no one knows but God, who hath kept the times and the seasons in His own power. One thing, however, is certain, that no man, be he Hindu or Mohammedan, if he listens attentively to the Gospel, though it be but once, will ever be exactly the same after as he was before."

A large amount of regular vernacular evangelistic preaching is carried on in Calcutta by our missionaries, both European and native, the main centres being Wellington Square, College Square, Beadon Square, Cornwallis Square, and in many of the public hospitals.

The Rev. R. H. Tregillus, who during the past year has resumed work in Jessore after a long period of absence in the Khoolna district, reports :—

"Our work in the villages, on the old lines of house to house visitation with informal preaching, has gone on steadily and with considerable encouragement. My old friend and colleague, Dhonai Biswas, popularly known as the 'Doctor,' has during the past six years, I find, considerably increased his efficiency in dealing with all questions of Mohammedan controversy. He has practically silenced all local champions of the false prophet. More than one Mohammedan leader, enjoying considerable repute in their own neighbourhood, when visiting Jessore have thought to make short work of our unassuming and unpretentious village doctor. A few pointed questions from friend Dhonai, who prefers being the 'cornerer' rather than the cornered, shows them that the task undertaken is not so easy as it at first appeared. A pleasing feature is that frequently the majority of the crowd gathered, although nominal Mohammedans, make no secret of the fact that their sympathies are on the side of their friend the doctor. This state of things is an eloquent tribute to the esteem and respect our brother Dhonai has won by his consistent Christian life and persistent Christian work for some sixteen years. There have been quite a few new nominal professors of Christianity from among the Mohammedans during the past few months. In the village of Teygori, where in past years I took part in three public debates, we have now, I trust, the beginning of a small Christian community. In the adjoining village of Dhobakola we hope there is another beginning."

The Rev. T. O. Ransford, who has recently opened up promising work in Naryangunge, a large and busy jute port on the River Lukya, with a population of more than half a million, writes :—

"The hardest, perhaps, yet in some respects the most attractive, part of a missionary's work is that of bazaar preaching. Up and down the road a moving string of people. Behind us a tree casts some amount of welcome shade across the street Here we stand. At first the inevitable group of small boys, who come from nobody knows where and go whence they came. Then a little knot of men going to market. Gradually a crowd stretching half-way across the road, till the bullock-drivers begin to shout for room. Men of all kinds and on the outskirts a woman or two. There may be seen the somewhat hard face of the Mohammedan, the thoughtful Hindu, or the tall, upright, manly form of the Sepoy watchman from the mills. Sometimes a well-dressed portly Babu lingers a few minutes and proudly buys an English Gospel or inquires after the missionary's health in the much desired language of the white man.

"After preaching, we invite whoever may so desire to come with us and talk on religious matters. Often we are followed by a little handful, too many for my tiny room, so we take them away to the little mission hall, and there we try to send home the message individually.

"So men come and go, many we never see again, some join a Bible inquiry class, some few we feel are very near to the Kingdom of God, but great possessions in the shape of prejudice, superstition, and pride keep them back. It is trying work. The spirit of antagonism is never wanting. But it is work that cannot be overlooked. Even if it did no more than prepare the way for closer intercourse, it would be valuable as such a means. But it does do more. The testimony of thoughtful faces, at times of eager anticipation, the single word one hears, 'Sahib, your words are good,' these are signs that the seed has sunk into the soil. We but little know of the silent prayer and secret seeking after deliverance. Narainganj, I have said, is surrounded by villages. Our village work has a great attraction. The people are nearly always warm in their welcome and anxious for another visit.

"A courtyard bounded on either side by low square huts. The largest is the living room. Then there is the store-house, the cook-house, and the inevitable cow-house. In front of us, on mats, sit the people of the village, again a large number of children, and in the place of honour the owner of the house. Round a corner, almost out of sight yet looking and listening intently, a group of women. It is evening. The field work is done, the cows are being driven in.

"A glamour of outward peace steals over us. The men before us are placidly smoking the hukka. Others drop in when they hear the sound of singing and sit or lounge about. They, too, take their turn at the tobacco. As we speak all faces are turned towards us and one longs to be a Paul. This is calmer, more inspiring than the bustle of the bazaar. Here we have a sitting audience, there a moving one. Here a restful atmosphere, there a busy one. So we preach and sing, read and expound the Scriptures till the growing dusk warns us we must get back before night.

"But we have gone further afield than the neighbouring villages. The district is a large one. For about six weeks the missionary's boat could have been seen making its way slowly, perhaps, but surely, along the rivers which abound in this locality. We visited markets, bazaars, and whatever villages came in our route. It is a roving life. We stop a day or half a day in one place and move on at night in the cool starlight. We cannot stay long, as a mile or two away is another great market. It can be only a stay of a few hours, but we come in contact with hundreds of people and leave behind us Gospels and tracts to bring forth fruit in due season. It is impossible not to wish we could leave a Christian worker in each large village, but the day has yet to come in which the Church will fully realise her weight of opportunity and responsibility. We have to leave for twelve months men with whom we have had hopeful converse, leave them to grope alone in their darkness, leave them to drift back into their self-satisfied complacency, leave them amidst all that tends to reproduce that terrible lethargy of soul from which they seemed to be awakening. Our hearts are often sad as we go away, but fresh duties crowd in and we have no time to brood."

The Rev. C. H. Williams, recently settled at Kalka, referring to the varied nature of his bazaar congregation, says :—

“That man with a long beard trained into two equal parts and turned back and knotted behind his ears is a Sikh. He is a native of the Panjab; many of these live at Kalka and in the neighbouring villages.

“That man yonder with a broad strong face is a Beluchi, one of our frontier neighbours, who will never be a man of peace till he serves the Prince of Peace. That other man, whose clothes are not over clean, is a Pathan; he too is no mean foe when roused, and will make a far better neighbour when he has learned the virtues and graces of Christianity. That man with the white muslin garments is a Bengali. He has come up to these parts as a clerk, and would much rather be down in Bengal among his own milder countrymen. That strange-looking man with a peculiar head-dress is from the far interior. He is a Thibetan, and has been on pilgrimage down to Benares. The others in the crowd are Hindus of various castes, Mohammedans, and hill people, whose religion is a blend of all the others, with a dash of Buddhism and an extra dose of superstition thrown in. Various languages, such as Hindi, Urdu, Panjabi, Thibetan, are spoken in the crowd. No wonder, then, that we say Kalka is cosmopolitan, and that we regard preaching in our bazaar as a most valuable part of our work. Crowds are proverbially fickle. At one moment we have a large number round us, and a few minutes later only the interested or curious few are left, but we do not despair, for another Christian hymn, sung to one of their own familiar native tunes, will gather a fresh crowd together. The people love music, but it must be their own weird native style of song.

“One day a young man listened attentively to the Message, and afterwards entered into a conversation with our evangelist, John David, and came to his house. He proved to be a sincere seeker after truth, and the way having been pointed out to him, he ‘was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.’ Throwing off his signs of Hinduism he earnestly drank in Christian truth, and after a period of probation was privileged to follow our Master in baptism. It was a very cheering case. He was of a good family, was well educated, and had been in a Government position. May he prove to be a power for good. We may not see the seed sown in a field, but the harvest will be its proof; so we may not see much to show of the work done by bazaar preaching, but ‘the day will declare it’; and the Lord, ‘whom we are and whom we serve,’ sees every effort made for Him, and apparent failure in the sight of the world may be real success in His sight.”

In the great and populous city of Patna the Rev. John Stubbs has devoted a large portion of his time and strength to bazaar preaching. He reports :—

“Satan, knowing that ‘faith cometh by hearing,’ has done his best to block up that gateway of mercy, lest the King Immanuel should ride through Ear-gate to the citadel of the town of Mansoul, and take possession of the castle of the heart. But, thank God, he has not always succeeded. I have many happy memories of the way in which the wool of prejudice has been taken out of the people’s ears while they have been listening to last year’s preaching in the city bazaars. One morning, amid the hurly-burly of the Mina Bazaar, a Hindu strongly objected, on the ground of Pantheism to the statement that ‘all had sinned.’ He went over the usual arguments of Pantheists, that God had made us, and that we could do nothing except as He worked in us; and, therefore, He and we were identical, and hence sin was an impossibility. As a number of people were listening, evidently in fullest sympathy with him, it was needful for us to depart from our usual custom of—if possible—avoiding discussion, and to argue the matter out. We pointed to the shoe on our foot, and asked the man if that was a shoemaker? Fearing, I suppose, that he was going to be cornered, he did his utmost to avoid answering, but we insisted on an answer to so plain a question. When at last he replied, 'No, it is a shoe,' we said: 'Just so, the shoemaker is distinct from his shoe, the maker from the thing he makes, and the Creator from His creation.' The man, to my regret, rushed off, amid the laughter of the people, who listened well while we sought to clinch the nail thus driven home. This discussion was not in vain. For some years past, while in the evening I have preached, more or less systematically, in different parts of the city, so that all might have the opportunity of hearing, I have invariably in the morning preached in the same place, so that if anyone wished to hear more he would know where to find me. Accordingly, the next morning, on taking our stand under the trees in Mina Bazaar, we were at once surrounded by a large and excited crowd. After a little while, an intelligent-looking Hindu, referring to the discussion of the previous morning, repeated the objection to our testimony that 'all had sinned,' which had then been urged. He did not, however, base his objection on Pantheism, but rather on the ground taken up by self-righteous, nominal Christians, that he had never actually sinned in committing various gross sins which he enumerated. We, of course, pointed out that the statement was made by God as being universally true, and that the opinion of the Judge was of greater weight than the opinion of the prisoner; and, especially, that God's law was spiritual in its scope. This teaching so commended itself to the objector and his friends that they admitted there was no reply to it, and eagerly listened to the Gospel of deliverance from sin which we then preached. When we had finished they eagerly purchased the Scriptures we had with us, a very clear proof that they had heard with both their ears."

The Rev. Daniel Jones, of Agra, reports upon special evangelistic work carried on amongst the lepers. He writes:—

"Our brother, John Paul, regularly visits the lepers, and quite recently has baptized six—three were Hindus and three Mohammedans. One poor old man was not able to walk to the river side, but the others carried him a distance of a quarter of a mile. It is really baptizing under difficulties, but 'where there is a will there is a way.' About forty in all have been baptized since the beginning, of whom thirteen are dead and twenty-six are now on our rolls. Some few have wandered away from Agra, and for the time we have lost sight of them. It is quite possible they are dead. During this year we have lost eight by death."

Reporting upon his work in Puri, Orissa, the Rev. R. L. Lacey writes:—

"At the close of the old century Puri is still 'a sort of Indian Ephesus, stocked with priestly Brahmans; a place of pilgrimage to which thousands are coming every year.' Accompanied by a native brother or two, the missionary stands almost in the shadow of Jaganath's temple, a native air is sung, and he addresses the moving crowd, always suspicious, often contemptuous, and sometimes openly hostile. 'There is the clang of the temple bells, the clamour of surrounding spectators; there is the weird chanting of freshly arriving pilgrims; and out of all this dissonance there rises one solitary voice proclaiming a spiritual God, a moral religion and emancipation through Jesus Christ.' And 'it is good for us to be here,' and plainly our duty. 'Day by day the man must brace up his mind, and then fling himself against staring wonder and scornful argument and open opposition,' although this becomes less as the Gospel is better understood.

"If Baptists are a peculiar people they are only peculiar in this—that they are following Christ in baptism. We allow the claim of the New Testament to be the only standard, or rule, and therefore, in all matters of religious belief and practice we take it as our only guide. The only rite of baptism prescribed and practised by our Lord and His Disciples is the immersion of believers as carried out by Baptists to-day. In so vast a country as India—a country, moreover, where the difficulties are still so great in the way of a man openly receiving baptism—it is not always possible to record as they occur many instructive effects which may yet play their part in a great whole.

"It is said that in building Plymouth breakwater hundreds and thousands of tons of stone had to be thrown into the sea before there was the slightest appearance of any change on the surface; and in India the hidden work which cannot be tabulated, and can hardly be observed, is not less important and encouraging, in its promise for the future, than is the actual increase of the Christian community. It is a joy to report six or seven have been baptized in our village communities, and three Hindus have had the courage to declare their faith by going into the water in Puri itself. A man and his wife from up-country, who had come on pilgrimage to Jaganath, made two out of this number; and the third was a Brahman of the cultivator class. The latter had long discarded idolatry and other heathen practices, but until July had always feared to profess his faith and confess his Lord in baptism. But not only has he received this grace unto obedience, but I am pleased to say he returned to his own village and his own people the day after I baptized him, and is now trying to testify in their midst to the Saviour he has found."

NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

Slowly yet none the less surely are the native Christian churches in India growing in independence and self-support.

Reporting on the native churches in the South Villages, the Rev. Khristanga Biswas writes:—

"All the churches have been more and more advancing in independence. The station Radhanagar has been lately opened. It is four miles off towards the north of South Luckhikantapur. I have lately built a chapel there. Moreover, I am glad to report that in April, 1900, I opened another station, Robirampur; here I have built a chapel and nine persons have been baptized by me. This village is close to Bishtopur, and proves to be a good centre to preach in the west. No other mission has touched here yet, and I believe if He blesses, then they will progress. It is a great delight to me to record that in Robirampur I have purchased a piece of land in the name of the B.M.S. The cost of the land where the chapel stands was paid for by the Bishtopur C.E.S., and some space is left for burial. Such a thing is greatly encouraging to me and to the brethren who with so great energy worked for the glory of God. May the God of Abraham enrich the station by His Holy Spirit, that in time they may produce many good results. The present condition of the churches is good and hopeful. Most of the churches have much improved towards complete independence, and I believe that the rest of the churches will adopt such steps without delay. I am glad to report that the people of Khari have become self-supporting; and two other pastors—namely, Babu M. N. Haldar and Babu H. N. Mondol—have taken their pastorship without any allowance either from the Mission or from the churches, and they have been working with great interest and joy. I hope some others will take such steps. The total number of church members is 1,421. Twenty-two were baptized in the year, and forty-one received into membership otherwise."

In the Barisal district there are at present twenty-nine small and large churches, and a Christian community of 2,978 souls, and in the Madaripore district seventeen churches and a Christian community of over 3,000 souls.

The Rev. T. O. Ransford, of Naryangunge, reports the establishment of a native Christian church at this very promising station :—

"The 14th of June, 1900, was a day of great rejoicing among us, and will doubtless be in after years a famous date in Baptist history. On this date we formed our native church. We had a meeting for prayer, and at my suggestion appointed as pastor our brother, B. N. Sircar.

"We enrolled ten members and elected our officers. Then we sat down to the Lord's Table and asked His blessing on our new enterprise. We have, of course, held regular services throughout the year, but it seemed good to be formally united on paper as well as in heart. No church is complete without its Sunday-school, and the children have not been neglected. It was weary work at first watching the numbers grow so slowly. They seemed so shy, so slow to understand the meaning of it. But last Sunday, had you gone, you would have seen 104 little faces. They have an hour in school each Sunday, and then a service which I always conduct. My two years in Dacca did not fail to impress me with the value of that work. In many respects that service has been my model."

The Rev. M. N. Nath, the pastor of the Entally native Christian church, Calcutta, sends a cheering record of work and progress during the past year :—

"I am very thankful to say that the year 1900 has been a time of much blessing to our church. There has been an addition of thirty-one persons to our members' list, and not less than twenty-two of them have been received by baptism. We have at present seven candidates for baptism, and at least two inquirers who have not yet applied for baptism, but are attending our Sunday Bible-class and our services too. Some of them are Hindus. Of those who have been baptized during the year a woman, the wife of one of our members, was a Roman Catholic and was ignorant of the true Gospel of Jesus Christ. Her husband was baptized by Mr. Jordan some years ago, but she never felt concerned about her soul. During the last year she often came to our services with her husband, and the light dawned into her heart. She applied for baptism and I baptized her at the beginning of the present year. Another, a young man whose grandfather was a convert from Hinduism, and a fruit of the labours of the late Rev. W. A. Hobbs, at Magurah, was brought up as a Roman Catholic, as some members of the family became so, being under the influence of a Roman Catholic priest. The young man, after passing the University Entrance Examination, came to Calcutta to work in the railway department. He came into contact with our young men, and attended our C.E. meetings, and has now become a Baptist, and is walking as a true disciple of Jesus Christ. His name is John Baptist, and, like John the Baptist, he is crying unto many people, calling them to repent and come to Christ. Another, a Hindu Uriya, who has been working in the house of our beloved brother, Dr. Biswas, has been led to Christ by the Christian influence of the said brother and his family, and was baptized a few weeks ago.

"Of others who have been baptized during the year many are young men and women belonging to our Bengali and Uriya Christian families. One, Miss Goldsmith, an Assamese girl, a daughter of a Baptist evangelist of Assam, is studying English in the C.M.S. Boarding School. She has now become a member of our church by baptism, and is attending our services once every month, and also subscribing to our church fund. Some time ago, a Moulvie belonging to a very respectable family of Hyderabad, Deccan, came to Calcutta. He has been preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ at different places in the Madras Presidency, and sometimes with the Salvation Army. But he was never baptized before. He has lately been baptized by me, and is preaching the Gospel boldly in this city. I have ample reasons to believe that he is an honest and sincere man, a true disciple of Jesus Christ. Several letters from Madras prove that he has been zealously preaching and was being persecuted for proclaiming the True Faith. In Calcutta, also, the Mohammedans are very angry with him, and have often been intriguing to do personal harm to him. But he has been praying and reading the Scriptures and preaching Christ without fear.

"I am glad to report that our members are learning to give cheerfully according to their power for the famine-stricken poor, and for preaching the Gospel to the benighted people of the land. Our preacher, Babu Gyanendra Nath Pramanick, has been wholly supported by the church, and we have already paid about eighty rupees to the I.B.M.S. Fund, and promise to pay twenty rupees more to it within this year. Most of our people are very poor, but they are trying to give what they can for the sake of Christ. Two young men, members of our church, have commenced to give tithes of their income to the I.B.M.S. Fund. I hope that at the close of the year we shall see that we have been able to pay more than a hundred rupees to the I.B.M. Society's Fund.

"One of our young men has been sent to Serampore Theological Class.

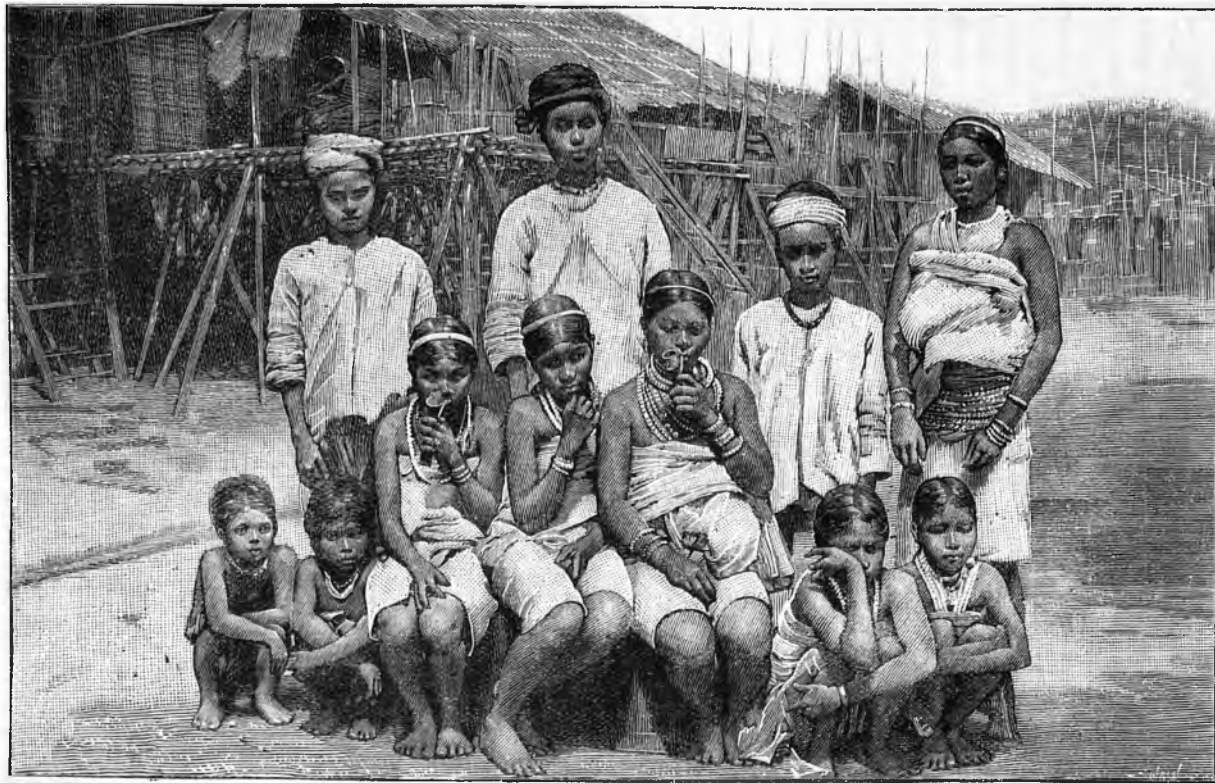

"In addition to twenty-two baptisms in our church, I baptized seven girls of the Elliot Road American Mission Orphanage, where Mr. Jewson and I hold services on Sundays alternately."

The Rev. Daniel Jones, reporting on the Agra Native Christian Church, writes :—

"During the year we have baptized nine. Two of them were converts, one from Hinduism, the other was a Mohammedan. The Hindu, a man of the Thākur caste, was a 'Bāba Ji,' a religious mendicant. He had travelled far and wide. From his first coming to us, his was an interesting case. He was a good and apt scholar. He drank in eagerly the saving truths of Christianity. He could read Hindi, and read and retained a book in Hindi, 'Streaks of Light,' and came and in his own fashion related very clearly what he had read. He came and went as an inquirer for some months. At last he broke with his old friends and threw in his lot with us. His wants are few, and are easily met. He was baptized, and soon after he made a stand in the city and began to tell the people of Jesus. Many who knew him before now reviled him, but he would tell them, 'My Lord endured much more for me, shall I not be willing to endure a little for Him?' We trust that he will long live to be a faithful teller out to his own countrymen of what the Lord has done for his soul. This is one of the things that has given us much comfort this year, and we need all the comfort we can get."

SERAMPORE COLLEGE.

Principal—The Rev. ED. S. SUMMERS, M.A.

Tutors—The Rev. C. E. WILSON, B.A., and the Rev. J. W. GILBERT,

The Principal reports :—

“ We have had our two Theological Classes as usual, the English and the Vernacular so called, because the instruction is given in English and Bengali respectively. This year we have had in addition an Intermediate Class, which may be called—after the usage of the country—Anglo-Vernacular. There are young men who have received a good deal of teaching in school, but have failed to pass the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta University, and are not, therefore, eligible for admission to our English Theological Class. However, they are superior to the great majority of those in the Vernacular Class, and can profit by receiving instruction in English. Two students have been working on these lines during the past year. One from Jessore, named Prosanno Coomar Biswas, has studied entirely in English, and another, Krishna Bandhu Dutt, has studied some subjects in English and some in Bengali. Prosanno has studied Hodge's ‘Theology,’ Isaiah, and the ‘Cambridge Companion to the Bible,’ and Lindsay's ‘Reformation’ with the English Theological Class, and Laidlaw's ‘Fundamental Truths’ with Krishna Bandhu Dutt, and English literature and grammar with the Entrance Class. I am in hopes that this Intermediate Class will flourish in the future, as the knowledge of English is spreading among our Bengali Christians.

“ The following are the subjects taught during the year in the English Theological Class, together with the names of teachers and examiners :—

“ INTRODUCTION.—Cambridge ‘Companion to the Bible.’ *W. S. Page. †W. Goldsack.

“ CHURCH HISTORY.—Lindsay's ‘Reformation.’ *W. S. Page. †G. Howells.

“ POLEMICS.—Lilley's ‘Protestantism.’ *E. S. Summers. †E. S. Summers.

“ RELIGIOUS COMPARATIVE GRAMMAR.—Grant's. *E. S. Summers. †E. S. Summers.

“ REPETITION.—I. Timothy; John (Chaps. XIV.-XVII.). †E. S. Robinson.

“ The Vernacular Class is not in a very good condition just now. Its numbers are low, and the calibre of the students is poor. There have been ten altogether on our list during the year. Three belong to the third year, one to the second, the remainder have entered this year. Of those who entered this year, one left of his own accord and another had to be expelled.

"Owing to the fact that the students were distinctly inferior in ability and requirements, special pains have been taken in their instruction, and I hope that the results of the second examination will show that the labour has not been in vain.

"The subjects taught, the teachers, and examiners in each subject, &c., are to be found in the following table :—

"BOOKS OF THE BIBLE.—Joshua. *B. C. Ghose. †A. Ghose. Judges. *E. S. Summers. †R. H. Tregillus. I. and II. Kings. *B. C. Ghose. †J. W. Gilbert. Jeremiah. *E. S. Summers. †B. Spurgeon. Luke, with Wenger's 'Commentary.' *J. W. Gilbert. †T. R. Edwards. I. Corinthians. *W. S. Page. †W. R. James.

"BIBLE INTRODUCTION.—Joel to Malachi, including Zechariah. *E. S. Summers. †E. S. Summers.

"CHURCH HISTORY.—Bible Geography. *E. S. Summers and J. W. Gilbert. †D. Robinson. Reformation in England. *W. S. Page. †W. S. Page.

"DOGMATICS.—Wenger's 'Catechism' (Chaps. I.-XII.). *E. S. Summers. †S. S. Mukerjee.

"POLEMICS.—Tracts on Baptism. *W. S. Page. †S. S. Mukerjee.

"LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE (BENGALI).—Literature and Grammar.

"REPETITION.—I. Timothy, I. Peter. †B. C. Ghose.

"The number of boys in the BOARDING SCHOOL has been about sixty during the year: some twenty or thirty Hindu lads have been allowed to share their opportunities of obtaining instruction by attending as day scholars. For the special needs of these Hindu scholars, Mr. Page has carried on a Sunday-school during the year at half-past six in the morning. One interesting feature noticed in connection with this class of Hindu lads was the absolute lack of power to sing our simple Christian hymns. Hinduism has provision for singing, of course, in connection with her services—but she knows only of professional singers, not of congregational singing. With great labour these Hindu lads picked up tunes that Christian lads would have learned to sing after one or two practices. We often see Christian converts sit in the service keenly appreciative of the preaching, but utterly indifferent to the singing. But their children will sing.

"The NORMAL CLASS has had rather a chequered time during the past year. It began well. We had at the first five students who had passed the Chatrobritti, and were receiving valuable instruction in general knowledge, and particularly in the art of teaching, from Mr. Gilbert. But a rebellious spirit manifested itself, which was not tactfully dealt with by the superintendent, with the result that severer measures than would have otherwise been taken had to be used in order to re-assert authority. The numbers in the class and the work of the class were seriously affected in consequence. However, three students have secured employment in connection with the mission, and are giving considerable satisfaction. Only one student was presented for the Chatrobritti examination. We are in hopes that through what has taken place the Normal Class arrangements have been placed on a sounder basis, and a similar trouble is not likely to recur.

"The ENGLISH SERVICE on Sunday has been held regularly through the year; the congregations have not been over-flowing, but still they are encouraging, and signs of blessing are not wanting. Mrs. Summers, as usual, has superintended the studies of the three wives of students who have been here during the year. A considerable amount of evangelistic work was done at the end of last year and the beginning of this, but we were not able to go this year to Tarkesshur. In conclusion, I should like to refer with gratitude to the hearty way in which I have been seconded by my colleagues, and more particularly to the very large amount of help rendered by Mr. Page, though still burdened with the labour of preparing for his second examination in Bengali."

ORISSA NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION.

CUTTACK.

Principal—The Rev. THOS. BAILEY.

Tutors—The Rev. GEO. HOWELLS, B.A., B.D., and the Rev. SHEM SAHU.

Assistant Tutor—The Rev. NILADRI NAIK.

Mr. Bailey writes :—

"College opened for the new session, March, 1900, with nine students, who were subsequently joined by another, raising the number to ten. The whole of the young men have studied with me in Edwards's 'Handbook of Christian Baptism,' the first five chapters; in Cambridge Bible on the Epistle to the Romans, Introduction Chapters I. and V., and Commentary to the end of Chapter I.; and in Adeney's Church History 'From Christ to Constantine,' Chapters III. and IV. There have been a few cases of absence on account of sickness; otherwise the attendance has been regular, and, with one or two exceptions, all have worked remarkably well. I have seldom led a class of students with greater satisfaction.

"The assistant tutor, the Rev. Niladri Naik, has exercised the usual supervision and, in addition, has taken classes in Mohammedanism, and in the Epistle of James.

"The senior students have rendered frequent service in preaching on the Sunday morning in the large mission chapel, also in supplying the pulpit at Macmillan-patna; and all have taken their share in evangelistic work in the bazaar and elsewhere.

"Abraham Prushti, the senior student, has completed his course of study. He has been a diligent and successful worker, and will be cordially recommended to Conference for acceptance as an evangelist on the usual probation. There are eight new applicants seeking admission into the institution, two of whom have been selected for recommendation to Conference. We are most anxious to secure young men of intelligence and capacity as well as of undoubted religious fervour, and to raise up a class of workers who shall be well abreast of the requirements of the times."

Mr. HOWELLS writes :—

"During the past session I have taken the following subjects in classes varying in number from one to ten :—

"I. APOLOGETICS.—(a) Historical Sketch. A class of three. (b) Theism—Flint's 'Theism' (pages 1-130). A class of one.

"II. BIBLICAL THEOLOGY.—The Work of Christ. A class of ten.

"III. OLD TESTAMENT EXEGESIS.—The Book of Deuteronomy (Chaps. I.-VI.; Introduction and Notes). A class of ten.

"IV. HEBREW.—Davidson's 'Hebrew Grammar.' (The whole, with a few omissions.) Deuteronomy (Chaps. I.-XII. Translation into English, parsing, composition, pointing). A class of one,

"V. GREEK.—(a) Huddlestone's 'Essentials of New Testament Greek' (Lessons I.-XXXII., with exercises and corresponding grammatical portions). First Epistle of John (Translation into English, with parsing and grammatical notes). A class of two. (b) Huddlestone's 'Essentials of New Testament Greek.' (The whole.) Book of Acts (Chaps. I.-XII. Translation into English, and parsing, with critical and exegetical notes. Commentary of T. E. Page). A class of two.

"VI. HISTORY.—(a) History of Religions—Hinduism. (Monier Williams' 'Hinduism,' Chaps I.-VI.). A class of one. (b) History of the Reformation—Seeböhm's 'Era of the Protestant Revolution.' (The whole.) A class of one.

"VII. ENGLISH GRAMMAR. SYNTAX. A class of one.

"I took all the students in Biblical Theology and in Old Testament Exegesis. In the former subject we made a Biblical study of the Atonement, dealing in detail with the teaching of the Old Testament as to forgiveness and sacrifices and the prophecies concerning Redemption, and then with the New Testament teaching as to our Lord's work, first the teaching of Christ Himself, and afterwards the teaching of the Apostles in historical order. We read several selected chapters relating to the subject of Bennet's 'Old Testament Theology' and of Adeney's 'New Testament Theology,' consulting the works of Schultz, Stevens, and others for special points.

"In Old Testament Exegesis, the Book of Deuteronomy is one that presents considerable difficulty on account of the problems raised by modern criticism concerning it. Certain anti-Christian Indian newspapers, read by many in Orissa, eagerly lay hold of some of these questions, and, of course, completely misinterpret their significance. If, therefore, our students are to have their own doubts allayed, and be in a position to give a reason for the faith that is in them, some of the more important problems of modern criticism must be fearlessly dealt with, whether we wish it or not. It has been our endeavour to establish on a surer foundation faith in the Bible as the inspired record of God's progressive revelation to men. In preparing lectures on this subject we have consulted throughout Driver in the 'International Critical Commentary,' also Harper in the 'Expositor's Bible' series; while we have derived valuable help from many of the articles in Hastings's new 'Dictionary of the Bible.'"

Mr. Shem Sahu writes :—

"All the students have during the year studied with me as follows :—

"1. The Acts of the Apostles, whole, with special reference to the three missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul. While studying the book, we have prayerfully sought to impress upon the students the importance of missionary work and of preaching to men 'Christ and Him crucified.' The apostolic plan of planting and nourishing Christian churches has also been carefully noted.

"2. The Preacher and His Message, being addresses on preaching delivered to the theological students at Cherrapunjee, Khasia Hills, by Dr. Jones, of Silchar, Assam.

"3. The Sermon Class.—In this class, which has been well maintained throughout the year, an average amount of ability has been shown. The criticisms of senior students have been marked by excellent penetration and wise judgment.

"4. The Discussion Class.—In this class, which has been opened this year, the objections which preachers generally meet with when preaching in towns and bazaars are discussed, and various matters pertaining to church government and the management of village churches are talked over."

III.
NORTH-WEST NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION.

DELHI.

Principal—The Rev. STEPHEN S. THOMAS.
Assistant—The Rev. JOEL WAIZ LALL, M.A.

The Principal, the Rev. Stephen S. Thomas, reports :—

“The work of the past year presents no new features. When studies are evenly pursued, and to-day's duties are as like yesterday's as two peas, one finds but scant matter of the kind of which reports are made. In an institution like this, containing some eighty souls, where I am principal teacher, preacher, house-father, drill-sergeant, arbitrator, general purveyor, sanitary inspector, builder, and many other things more useful than enviable, it will be readily understood that every day brings plenty to engage one's attention, and of an interesting kind, but not reportable.

“This year my class work has considerably suffered through my having accepted in January last the post of honorary secretary to the local branch of the Punjab Famine Charitable Relief Fund. I believe the sacrifice was well worth making, and certainly it has been amply appreciated by rich and poor, official and unofficial. My colleague, the Rev. J. W. Lall, has had extra work in the institute consequent on my public duties, and has worked hard to make the loss to the work here as slight as possible.

“There have been ten students in the Evangelists' Class, two, Gannu Lall and Kukru Singh, having been admitted during the session from Kalka and Kharar respectively.

“Preaching.—This has been carried on with Rev. J. W. Lall and Babu M. J. Pande as leaders of the two bands. Several of the students have also been acceptable Sunday supplies at Bhiwani. At the beginning of the session, Mr. Lall and I took the men on tour in the Barout district, and a vigorous and inspiring time we had. In the spring Mr. Lall took them again for a few days' preaching in the Loni district. During this district work I was especially gratified to see how happily they worked together, their enthusiasm, too, was refreshing. Several of them are quite effective speakers and can hold a crowd.

“Boarding School.—In this there have been forty-seven boys. Their conduct has been good, and Mr. Lall has superintended their studies. Bible-classes have been taken for the big boys by myself, and for the younger ones by Master Abdur Rahim. A Christian Endeavour meeting, conducted by themselves, has been pretty regularly attended by the senior boys.”

CHRISTIAN ELEMENTARY VERNACULAR DAY SCHOOLS.

At the close of last year there were in connection with the 237 Christian Elementary Vernacular Day Schools of the Mission 7,095 boys and 1,158 girls.

The Rev. W. W. Milne, who assumed charge of the Eastern Bengal Schools at the commencement of the year, reports :—

“The work was not altogether new to me as I had made some acquaintance with it last year in company with Mr. Tregillus. My previous training as a teacher has been helpful in the management of a class or in the conduct of the examination of a school, but little more. Actual contact with the work itself is necessary to supply the remainder. We have at present sixty-six schools going.

“During the year there had passed through our schools a total of 2,438 boys and girls. Of these 763 were Christian boys, 377 were Christian girls, and 1,298 were non-Christians.

“Fully half the education given by us goes to non-Christians, nearly all of whom are Hindus. In spite of that, however, it will be seen from the following figures that our own Christian boys and girls do better at the examinations than they. Last year fifty-three Christian boys and girls passed as against only thirty-three non-Christians, making a total of eighty-six. Of these four Christian boys and one non-Christian boy passed in the Chattrob Britti examination; ten Christian boys and four non-Christian boys passed in Upper Primary; thirty Christian boys, nine Christian girls, and twenty-eight non-Christian boys passed in Lower Primary.

“This represents a good deal of work on the part of both teachers and scholars. When compared with the average number in attendance it will be seen that nearly one in every eleven has secured a pass.

“ATTENDANCE.—Daily average attendance 1,695. Of these 621 are Christian boys, 250 are Christian girls, and 988 are non-Christians.

“It will be seen from the figures given above that the average attendance when compared with the number of scholars that have passed through our schools during the year is far from satisfactory, nor do I think that the number of boys and girls who attend represent nearly the number that might and ought to attend. The negligence of the parents and their want of appreciation of the value of education accounts for the latter; while for the former various causes may be assigned. First, there is the carelessness of the parents to see that their children go regularly—the smallest excuse sufficing to persuade the indulgent parent to allow his child to absent himself. Then there are the sowing, ploughing, and reaping seasons, when large numbers cannot go to school because they must remain in constant attendance on their fathers and brothers with the hookah. Then, again, land disputes, in connection with which nearly every month teachers are summoned to give evidence, is another and a very serious source of disorganisation and consequent non-attendance on the part of the scholars. These and other reasons, wise and otherwise, chiefly the latter, all conduce to keep the attendance at a low point.”

Reporting upon the schools in the South Villages District, the Rev. Khristanga Biswas writes :—

“In this district there are fourteen day schools supported by the Society. These are supervised by me and my colleague, Babu R. K. Ray. The present state of the schools is satisfactory and hopeful. Among these the schools of Rashkali, Machkali, Kauradangi, and Kharibaria are the best; and all are in a more prosperous state than before. I take a monthly report from the teachers of each school. They have been taught Scripture regularly as well as other subjects. This year I am glad to add that nine boys from Kharibaria, six from Rashkali, three from Bethbaria, six from Kauradangi, and three from Norsickderchuck have appeared in the Government Primary Examination. Among them, two have passed in the Upper Primary from Kharibaria School and the others have passed in the Lower Primary."

BISHTOPORE BOYS' BOARDING SCHOOL.

The Master of this valuable institution, the Rev. Khristanga Biswas, reports :—

"This year four boys have been transferred from Bishtopore to Serampore College. Fifteen boys have taken admission from different churches. At the beginning of the year I started the school with twenty-five boys ; but after six months one left through illness and I sent a couple of them away as being too dull. The present number on the rolls is twenty-four, there being two new admissions, who are supported by contributions from the 'Birmingham Fund.' The boys are divided into three classes : five in the first, one in the second, and twelve in the third class. They have been learning different subjects. Special care has been taken to impart religious instruction. I, as usual, examined the boys. In the year under report six boys have appeared in the Scripture examination connected with B.C. Conference in the third grade. All of them have creditably passed and gained prizes. On the 14th May last our Secretary, the Rev. H. Anderson, examined the boys and remarked as follows :—

"It is more than five years since I last examined the Bishtopore Boarding School. On this occasion twenty-two boys were present, divided into three classes. After an hour and a half testing, I am glad to report that the books had been read carefully and the subjects treated fairly and well grasped. The standard does not seem quite as high as in the old days. But I was very satisfied. The children looked happy and well cared for and the school still prospers."

THE CUTTACK HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. John Young, the Headmaster, reports :—

"The year closes with 201, the lowest for the year ; the highest was 222, and the average 212. Twelve passed the recent Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University, five in the second division, and seven in the third. The Honourable M. S. Das again gave us Rs.30 for Scripture prizes, the prizes to be decided by a written examination. R. H. Greaves, Esq., who for many years has been a liberal giver to the funds of our Mission, also gave Rs.30 for prizes.

"The Inspector of Schools for Orissa, who has often written favourably of the school, wrote this year :—'I am glad to be able to state that no school in Orissa is better officered and more efficiently managed in every detail than this institution. . . . The records seem well kept. The discipline of the school is, as usual, highly satisfactory.'

"The Director of Public Instruction for Bengal wrote : 'Visited the Mission High English School at Cuttack on this day (December 9th, 1899), and was well satisfied with the result of my inspection. There were 204 boys on the rolls, and of these 186 were present, giving an attendance of 92 per cent., which for India is exceptionally high. The average attendance for the past year is said to be 81 per cent., which is satisfactory. . . . In going through the classes and examining the boys as to their school course, &c., it struck me that in this school there is an unusually large proportion of students who have received their whole education in the school. This of course speaks well for the school. . . . The school is, I think, doing a good work. I was much pleased with all the arrangements for its working which I saw.’”

KHARRAR BOARDING SCHOOL.

The Rev. Geo. Anstie Smith reports :—

“The Boarding School has done a good year’s work, forty-eight names being on the register. Nine students are to take the Middle School Examination in January, and we shall certainly never have sent up a better-prepared class for the Government examination.

“One boy, Prabhu Das, is studying for the Entrance Examination, and hopes to present himself at the end of next year. One other, Piyari Lal, is getting ready for the English Middle School.”

BANKIPORE BOARDING SCHOOL.

The Rev. G. J. Dann writes :—

“The Boys’ Boarding School has now risen to thirty boys, and we regard this as one of the most hopeful and useful departments of our work. Funds for carrying on the work are a ceaseless cause of anxiety, the clothing of the boys and their attendance in their frequent illnesses have given Mrs. Dann many a weary hour, but we are firmly convinced that such an institution is of the highest importance. We want teachers for mission schools, but still more do we want disciplined, devout, and exemplary Christian men and women, and these are no more likely to grow up without training than are wayside weeds likely to turn into garden flowers without cultivation and care.”

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND SOCIETIES OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR.

At the close of the year there were in connection with the work of the Society in India 203 Sunday-schools and 389 Sunday-school teachers, with an average attendance of 5,032 scholars.

The Rev. W. Carey, of Dacca, Sunday-school Secretary for Bengal, writes :—

“As an illustration of what new enthusiasm will do I may mention the institution known as ‘The Children’s Service.’ This has been found to succeed wherever begun, and it accounts for an increase of 110 in the total average of non-Christian scholars reported during the year. It brings its own joy and inspiration, and is one of the cheeriest bits of work done on any station. Among new places, it has thrived best under the genial and uninterrupted leadership of Mr. Ransford at Narayanganj.

“The value of systematic registration and the cultivation of a high sense of honour and responsibility among school teachers and others in the carrying on of this voluntary work, is once more exhibited and emphasised by the returns from the ‘South Village’ district under the care of Mr. Khristanga Biswas and the ladies of the Zenana Mission. The conditions are as difficult as in any other part of the Bengal field, but nowhere else has the work on the whole been so well and continuously done. In the Bishtopor section alone there is a gain of three schools, and the fourteen which make the total have run and been registered for an average of forty-one weeks each during the year. If we add the adjoining section of Canning Town, we get a total of twenty-two schools, running for an average of thirty-five Sundays each, which is an advance of six weeks on the record for last year."

With regard to the work of Sunday-school teaching carried on by the lady missionaries of the Zenana Mission, Mr. Carey writes :—

"No words can do justice to the Sunday-school work among Hindu girls done by the ladies of our Zenana Mission—whether in Calcutta or the Mofussil. If a photograph of any one of their schools could be surreptitiously slipped into the pages of this Report it would kindle a living and loving interest in the heart of the least sympathetic reader. The children themselves are the liveliest, chattiest, prettiest little creatures imaginable, and their songs of the Saviour are sweet enough to make a concert in Heaven. These schools go on, with only holiday interruptions, right through the year, and fresh drafts of little ones are continually passing through them and learning to love the King. In many instances, and in such ways as are open to them, they confess Him. The Christian Endeavour societies recently started amongst them tend to encourage personal faith and fidelity, and to gather up the spiritual fruit of their Biblical work."

The special services for children conducted in Dacca by the Rev. W. Carey have been most encouraging. Mr. Carey writes :—

"THE 'CHILDREN'S SERVICE'

Has been bigger and brighter and better than ever before. Half the seats have to be removed from the church on Saturday nights that the younger urchins may sit in rows on the floor. Even so they brim over into the broad verandah. It is a joyous sight. A lot of them come to practice the hymns on Saturday afternoons.

"We have been through the Story of Daniel, the Life of Joseph, the last days of our Lord's sojourn on earth, and the missionary work of the Apostles Peter and Paul. Three examinations have been held, and a select few appeared and did well. It is too big a crowd to prepare properly for the examination test, especially as a large number can neither read nor write; but you should hear them sing! They have also had a little drill on the books of the New Testament, which they are not likely ever to forget.

"A small branch of this service has been started and carried on successfully throughout the year by Babu Purna Chandra Biswas, a preacher on our evangelist's staff. He has also visited a number of Hindu and Mohammedan Primary Schools in different parts of the city for an hour a week, giving them Christian instruction and teaching the boys to sing. It is work of his own finding, and faithfully done.

"THE 'CHILDREN'S PAPER'

Has been issued regularly, as heretofore, with a growing circulation and increased interest among the little folk who read it. In one month twenty-nine of them sent in essays for a prize competition, many of which were exceedingly good. They came from all parts of the province. I am much indebted to my associate editor, Mr. Bimal Ananda Nag, for original contributions and the reading and correction of both copy and proof. The 'Children's Paper' Famine Fund has also brought in the splendid sum of Rs. 283 (or at par £28 6s.), largely collected by the little ones themselves. We have now an orphan boy in Mrs. Jewson's Home in Calcutta, whose support has been undertaken by the fund. We hope to support a girl in the same way at the B.Z.M. Boarding School in Barisal."

The Rev. W. J. Price, of Monghyr, Sunday-school Secretary for the North-West Provinces, reports for the past year :—

“The most striking feature of this year's report is the pleasing increase of twenty-two, or nearly one-third, in the number of our Sunday-schools. Thirteen of these are accounted for in our new station at Kalka. There has been also an increase of twelve in our staff of teachers.”

The Rev. J. W. Gilbert, of Serampore College, reporting on Sunday-school work, writes :—

“In the College Sunday-school we do not meet with one difficulty which is generally incidental to Sunday-school work, viz.—irregular attendance. Our boys live in the college building ; and every Sunday whilst they are here, unless prevented by sickness, they meet to study the International Lesson. This gives an opportunity for continuous study such as is not often obtained. We have also special advantages in the teaching of the classes, for we receive help from our theological students. Besides these, our special thanks are due to Mrs. Summers, whose gracious influence on a class of elder boys has been very valuable at a critical period in their lives, and to Miss Williamson and Babu Anukul Ch. Ghose for devoted service in the Normal Class.

“In Scripture examinations our boys have been remarkably successful. The Bengali Christian Conference conducts an annual examination in Scripture ; the subjects of examination this year were the books of Ezra and Nehemiah in the Old Testament and the Gospel of John in the New Testament. Seven of our boys appeared ; all of them passed, four of whom were prize-winners, and one boy won the silver medal, being placed first on the list in the middle division.

“The India Sunday School Union also holds an annual examination in July ; the questions are based upon the lessons studied during the previous six months—this year a series of studies in the Life of Christ. In this examination we succeeded in taking the first place in each of the four divisions. In the teachers' examination Babu Amrita Lal Sircar has for three consecutive years taken the first place. In the senior division two of our boys appeared ; both passed in the first class, one obtaining the first and the other the fourth place. In the middle division the first three places were gained by our boys, and out of the first twelve, seven were Serampore boys. Similarly in the junior division a Serampore boy heads the list with 96 marks out of 100. These results give us gratifying evidence that a good foundation of Scripture knowledge is being laid in the school.”

SOCIETIES OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR.

“For Christ and the Church.”

The figures relative to the Christian Endeavour movement in connection with our Mission in Bengal are the following :—

SOCIETIES BY DISTRICTS.			Societies.	Members.
Backergunge and Madaripore	37	539
Calcutta and Howrah	9	239
South Villages	7	174
Dacca	6	74
Serampore	3	72
Suri	2	23
Jessore	2	10
			<hr/> 66	<hr/> 1,131

The Rev. W. Carey, of Dacca, writes :—

"The roll shows that we have gained three societies during the year. Our total now is 66, with a membership of 1,131.

"On the whole, we have had a great deal of encouragement. Inspiring details have come in, from time to time, of the work and joy of individual societies, but we cannot set them down in this report. They have appeared in the English and Bengali monthlies, and it is a hopeful sign that these are giving increasing space to C.E. news and notes. Miss Annie Williamson's valuable papers on the movement, written in Bengali, and first read at two local conventions, have now been published in pamphlet form, and will do much to make our principles and practices better known.

"The societies amongst women and girls in Calcutta, Serampore, Barisal, and Pirojpur know how to 'continue in well-doing,' and have gone forward steadily 'rejoicing in hope.'

"The South Village societies have been splendidly active, as heretofore; and Howrah and Suri have made a new and bright beginning.

"Some of the 'Beel Societies' have done much praiseworthy work in the face of innumerable difficulties, and all of them, it is hoped, will gradually be brought into a more favourable condition for organised and Evangelistic Endeavour.

"The event of the year for us, and for Bengal, has been the election of Mr. Gilbert, of Serampore College, to the secretaryship of the Bengal Christian Endeavour Union. Under his leadership we may look for some noble development throughout the province, in which assuredly our Baptist societies will have an important share."

The Rev. Khristanga Biswas, reporting on the Christian Endeavour movement in the South Villages, writes :—

"The members are the following :—Men 16, Women 19, Boys 15, and Girls 2, of whom one has been baptized. Young Men's Meetings are held once every month. This meeting is composed of school teachers, pastors, and young boys of the Boarding School. By this teachers have much improved in Scripture; they have now good practice in preparing addresses and sermons. A collection is raised regularly in this meeting by all members. Boys' meetings are held every Saturday evening. I see these boys have very much benefited by it. They are learning to preach, and are bold enough to speak even before old men. They have a strong zeal for Christ. Every Sunday evening they go out in the Christian Para to collect rice and pice, and whatever they can throughout the year, which they offer at last for some good purpose. Also they go out to call together Christians to hold prayer-meetings with them. In this way they are stirring up the idle Christians. Once my colleague, Babu R. K. Ray, asked all the boys what they wished to do for a wicked boy. Some of them unanimously said that the boy must be sent away. He told them that it was not the proper means to adopt, but asked what was the best means to adopt in the case? After a while all in one voice said that we will pray to God so that He might change his mind."

Connected with the North-West Mission there are at present seven societies, with a membership of one hundred and forty-nine.

"The meetings of the Oriya Young Women's Christian Endeavour Society have been regularly conducted throughout the year, and, we have every reason to believe, have brought much help and encouragement to the members. Since the commencement of the meetings 123 young women have joined, but through removal to a distance, or from other causes, the names of nine have been taken off, leaving a present membership of 105, which is accounted for as follows :—

Branch.	Active.	Associate.	Total.
Cuttack Chandi	11	9	20
Sutabat	9	21	30
Girls' Orphanage	9	9	18
Peyton Sai and Makraba	11	17	28
Honorary members			9
Membership total			105

“ In November, during the Annual Conference, a C.E. Rally was held—the first in the history of our Mission here—in which seven Societies and branches, besides the Children's Band, took part. The chapel was well filled, and all felt the occasion to be one of real stimulus and profit.”

ORPHANAGES.

GIRLS' ORPHANAGE, CUTTACK, ORISSA.

Superintendents : Miss LEIGH and Miss ADA N. THOMPSON, B.Sc.

The Lady Superintendents report :—

“ During the past year six children have been received into the Orphanage. Khati a little child about five years of age, was found begging for food on the high road. She is a Telegoo, bright and intelligent, and soon gained the affection of all around her by her winsome, merry ways. Indumati was found at Puri; her parents were pilgrims, and both died of cholera. The collector sent her to us, but after we received her a claim was made by persons who had no right to her. An appeal to the collector stopped their illegal proceedings. She could not speak Oriya when sent to us, and at first was very shy, and troubled by the strange faces and strange language. She has acquired sufficient Oriya to be at home with her companions, and is making rather slow progress with the primer. Minika is a half-witted child I brought from Berhampur; she is an object of interest to the girls, who help to develop her dull faculties and make her feel she is not useless. Sarala, our youngest, is four months old, an orphan, and is cared for by one of the native Christian widows. Augadi comes from distant Russelkondah. Preyatama, sister to Manorama, came from Piplee; their mother is very poor. Mr. Lacey asked us to receive these sisters. Three of our girls have been married, and one has returned to her relative in Calcutta. Four have been baptized during the year under review. There are seventy-four inmates.

“ The conduct of all has on the whole given us satisfaction. The senior girls in the Orphanage are influenced for good both by example and precept. The dearness of rice and other necessaries of life has made it needful to give help to poor children outside by a small monthly allowance. Sickness has been averted, though very prevalent in the town, and in this as in all things we see the loving care of God our Father for us and the children entrusted to us. For gifts sent to us from kind friends at home we tender our grateful thanks. They are much appreciated and valued.

“ There are 112 children in the Day School, 63 of these being Orphanage children and 49 day scholars. The Government Inspector has remarked that the average attendance is very good. Ten girls passed the Government Examinations in the three vernacular standards, and one passed in English."

THE BOYS' ORPHANAGE, CUTTACK.

The Rev. Thomas Bailey reports :—

"We have had another year of quiet progress, though of varied experience. Last year we reported twenty-seven orphan boys as residing on the premises. Five of these have since left us. They were in each case able to earn their own living. Twenty-three are now residing on the premises, and eleven are receiving help while living with their friends.

"The famine that was happily averted from Cuttack and District last year was very severe in Sambalpur, and has left a large number of orphans to be provided for. We have applied for five of these, and they are expected to join us in a few days. This will again fill up the whole of our available accommodation.

"There have been no cases of serious illness during the year, and the general conduct has been good. A weekly prayer-meeting has been established, in the first instance by the boys themselves, and afterwards superintended by two of the students. The meetings have been held regularly, and the Young People's Association connected with the institution is also healthy and continues its useful course."

THE INDIAN FAMINE AND FAMINE ORPHANAGES.

In the Report published last year the Committee recorded their gratitude for the prompt and generous response made by friends in this country to the appeals from India on behalf of the millions of famine-stricken fellow-subjects in that great empire.

Month by month in the pages of the MISSIONARY HERALD the Committee have given full information as to the beneficent distribution of the funds received, by which it is certain Multitudes have been saved from death, from exhaustion, and starvation, and a large number of famine waifs have been taken into mission orphanages, where they will be carefully trained and maintained until they are able to maintain themselves.

The following accounts of some of these orphanages will doubtless be read with interest.

FAMINE ORPHANAGES.

BOYS' ORPHANAGE, AGRA, N.W.P.

The Rev. Albert Law, who has been in charge of the Agra Orphanage during the past year, writes :—

"The work which lies nearest to my heart and which has taken up the greater portion of my time is our Famine Orphanage of eighty-three boys. Though by the mercy of God the great famine of 1900, which has so devastated the countries near us, left us almost untouched, we received from Rajputana about a dozen boys whose emaciated appearance contrasted painfully for many weeks with the plump, smiling faces of the older children under our care. Careful dieting, however, gradually altered them, and the casual visitor would have some difficulty already in pointing out our most recent acquisitions. I was very much pleased with the brotherly sympathy which the old boys showed for their new comrades. They were never too tired to run about and help them, to bring them food, to teach them the new words they required, for their language differs somewhat from that of this district, and in every way they seemed to wish to show the poor fatherless, motherless waifs that they had come to a home and not to a barracks. A home indeed they have found, and I trust they may learn here the way to that brighter Home, which is prepared for those who love Him who is the Lover of the children.

"During the year two boys have disappeared. They were big boys, and we suspect some covert Mohammedan influence. It is impossible to keep the boys entirely from touching the world outside, and we know that the Mohammedans will do all they can to lure boys away with lying promises and easy and lucrative employment. Our hearts sink at the fate which may await such as listen, but all we can do is to teach them the Way of Life, pray God to keep them from all these snares of the evil one, and keep a watchful eye on their movements. Two promising boys, apparently lost to us, trained for three years in the knowledge of Jesus Christ, knowing enough to save them; lost to us at least for the time, they are not lost to the Good Shepherd. He knows where they are, and we pray that amidst hostile and anti-Christian influences they may never forget the truths they learned here. May God bring them back to us.

"If two have left us, and a dozen fresh faces arrived, there are those here who will soon be bound to us by new and happy ties. It is with intense joy I have to report that eleven boys have intimated their desire to profess Christ in baptism. This is quite spontaneous, therefore the more satisfactory. They are now attending a candidates' class, and, it is hoped, will receive baptism on the ensuing Sunday. These are the first-fruits, and their baptism will no doubt create a new feeling amongst their comrades. While nominally Christian, as inmates of a Christian institution, one always feels uncertain as to what they really consider themselves, and as an answer to the flight of two of the bigger boys, this direct avowal of Christianity on the part of almost all who are old enough fills one with the deepest thanks. If all these eighty-three boys, rescued as they are from heathenism, in this way avow themselves Christ's disciples, who can over-estimate the glory which may accrue to the Saviour's Kingdom in Agra?

"The hope of India's future in regard to the Kingdom of Heaven, as in more temporal matters, lies in her children, and friends at home will do well to remember that as a result of the 1900 famine some fifteen or twenty thousand children are now in Christian orphanages who would otherwise be in heathen villages. The magnitude of the opportunity and responsibility here presented can hardly be exaggerated. May we not hope and pray that in this way the Church of Christ in India may receive that impetus, that influx of new living force, which it so much needs?

"For the sake of friends at home supporting the boys I give the names of those who hope immediately to put on Christ in baptism. Baswa (Mrs. Shepherd, Bacup), Ragu (C. E., Bilston), Robert (Mr. S. Potter), Sukola (Mrs. Price), Kalwa (Mrs. Price), Ishwar Das (Westgate, Bradford), Yunaton (Bethany, S.S., Cardiff), Ibrahim (Honor Oak) Arjun (Mr. W. Potter), Nalyan (Mr. Hookey).

"I cannot close my report without a feeling of deep regret. It is likely to be my last report. Very soon the sea will roll between me and my boys. After watching their development for two years, after trying by personal influence brought to bear upon every boy to make them manly, Christian gentlemen, I must leave the work to other hands. The teacher may change but the Message and the Master remain the same. Unto the loving, tender hands of Him who calls the children to Himself, I commit these whom He committed for a short time to me, rejoicing exceedingly that I have been permitted to see some fruit of my labours.

"Once more I plead with all those who so kindly send money for the support of the orphans to remember them in personal and united prayer, joining me in thanksgiving at the ingathering of the first-fruits."

BOYS' AND GIRLS' FAMINE ORPHANAGE.

BERHAMPORE, GANJAM, ORISSA.

During last year the Committee received earnest appeals from the missionaries at Sambulpur, Orissa, the Revs. John Vaughan and Arthur Long, to make provision for a number of famine-stricken orphans that would otherwise be left destitute and friendless in the outlying districts of Sambulpur. At the same time they received tidings from the missionaries at Berhampore, Ganjam, that the buildings erected some years ago for the reception of famine waifs were in a fair state of repair, and could be again used after a comparatively small outlay. The Committee, therefore, at once resolved to take in 100 famine children and maintain and educate them until such time as they may be in a position to earn their own living. It will be seen from the following letter, written by the Rev. Gordon S. Wilkins, that seventy-eight orphans (50 girls and 28 boys) have already reached Berhampore :—

"The famine orphan children from Sambulpur reached here on November 24th. It was a most pathetic sight to see them detained at the Sambulpur Station. Two of the girls were crippled, and many of the others could not stand. Out of seventy-eight that arrived only twenty could walk from the station to the house, quite a short distance. On the whole the girls were stronger than the boys, but they all seemed to have passed through extreme privation. As soon as they landed, their famine-sharpened eyes quickly detecting grains of bran and horses' food on the platform, they eagerly picked them up and ate them. After a week of careful dietary we found them still eating grass-seeds and anything they could put their hands upon. They have, however, improved already. Their heads have been shaved, and they are hardly recognisable as the waifs of a few weeks ago. There are fifty girls and twenty-eight boys. Mr. and Mrs. Jarry have taken charge of the boys, and my wife and I devote ourselves to the girls. Our two brethren, Vaughan and Long, personally brought the children here, suffering untold miseries on the journey, being shut up in a third-class carriage with their ill-smelling charges from Thursday to Saturday mid-day. They stayed with us a few days, and we have heard of their safe return to Sambulpur."

The Committee have also undertaken to meet the cost of the maintenance and education of a number of Famine orphan girls that are at present in the "Palwal Industrial School," under the charge of the missionaries of the Zenana Society, for a term of five years from the beginning of the year current.

Referring to the sad experiences of the past year the Rev. John Vaughan, of Sambulpur, writes :—

"Gaunt cheeks and skeleton frames told a tale of dire distress. The poor wizened children specially appealed to our sympathies, and we were thankful when the news spread, early in the rains, that a kitchen and a poor-house would be opened in the town for their relief. This was not effected one moment too soon. Cholera and small-pox were severe once and again, but compared with the country districts, fifty or sixty miles distant, we had much to be grateful for. As I write the worst is over, and we are devoutly thankful for God's goodness. He has sent rain in gracious abundance, fertilising the earth after its arid thirst, and renewing the tanks and pools to overflowing. The ripening grain, a splendid crop, will soon be ready for the sickle; already the first-fruits have been gathered. It fills one's heart with gladness to behold the fields almost ripe for harvest. And yet many hearts are sad. How many farmers had eaten up their seed corn and were unable to sow their small patches of land! Within a few miles of Sambulpur there are many such plots, and in Patna where our Loisingha Christians live, much land remains uncultivated. Would that this country possessed ample reservoirs to treasure up the bounteous God-given wealth of water. This matter is now being pressed upon the Government of India; may it not be forgotten when the pressure of famine has ceased. Famines will occur, but by storing water and irrigating the country much may be done to avert the distress which accompanies them. This is a big order, it may be, but what are 'God's Englishmen' here for if not to execute such an order as this? Nay, have we not already partially executed this and similar orders? Meanwhile, let us congratulate our Government servants in this country, English and native alike, who have so nobly worked, in season and out of season, to relieve the wants of the people. When we see the poor-houses and kitchens and public works in full swing to feed the multitude we feel proud of our English Raj. Then, too, have not America, Germany, Australia, Canada, Nova Scotia, and I know not what peoples held out a noble hand to feed the masses of this country? To my certain knowledge America has done splendidly. 'Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift.'"

In view of the increasing frequency of famines in India, consequent upon seasons of drought, there surely can be no question of more pressing importance for the Government authorities in India than that of the storage of water—utilising the vast rivers which God has provided for the wealth of the country by a wise and far-reaching system of water-storage and irrigation works. For in the words of the late Sir Arthur Cotton: "There is every year far more than enough water for all the needs of India wasted which, if stored, would altogether avert these awful famines consequent upon droughts."

WORK AMONGST ENGLISH-SPEAKING NATIVE STUDENTS.

For many years past the Rev. Charles Jordan, of Calcutta, has carried on a very important and promising work amongst the native students in the Government and other Colleges of the capital city. Since the departure of Mr. Jordan on furlough this work has been carried on by Mr. B. A. Nag. He writes :—

“ My work is amongst the students and other educated men and young men in Calcutta. There are 18 colleges and 48 high schools in the city ; and 26,000 students are studying in them—5,500 in the colleges and 20,500 in the schools. Of these, at least 11,000 students can understand an address in English, and all can understand Bengali. Only about 2,500 out of these 26,000 students study in the missionary colleges and schools, and the rest receive no Gospel instruction whatever, unless we reach them. The Western education received in the University is helping these students to drift away from old Hinduism, and their vigorous attempt to found a neo-Hinduism is a proof that they are convinced of the error of the old one. This is, therefore, a most opportune time for us to work with greater zeal and earnestness, for if we do not help them to come to Christ they will soon settle themselves down into some ism of their own.

“ These students mostly live in messes. There are about nine or ten messes within two minutes from my house, and about eighty messes within ten minutes' walk. I have not yet met a student who is not willing and glad to be talked to about his soul. This being so, you can easily see what grand possibilities are before us. Messes have been regularly visited. In some messes Bible-classes have been held. I have always received a hearty welcome from all the messes I have been able to visit. I am only sorry that for want of time and helpers I have not been able to visit all the messes from which I received invitation to do so.

“ I have had students and others come to my house and read the Bible with me. I have not yet been able to get up big classes, and I am not very sorry for it ; but I am glad to say that they have come to read the Bible by ones, by twos, or by threes, and I have always been thankful for very interesting times I have had with them.

“ I think I have been able thus to reach an average of about seventy young men daily. But what a small figure that is when there are 26,000 students to be helped for Christ's sake ! ”

The Rev. W. Carey, of Dacca—the most important educational centre in East Bengal—has carried on for several years past an important work amongst the English-speaking native students that through this populous city. He reports :—

“ Roughly speaking, about twenty students daily, for six or seven months of the year, have spent an hour with me in the several classes that have been held for Bible study. One group has been taken through the four Gospels and Acts, another through the Life of Christ, a third through the Life of Abraham, a fourth through Matthew, and a fifth through John. Indian students have read through Stalker's Lives of Christ and the Apostle Paul. Biblical allusions in the text-books of the entrance and F.A. courses have also been explained, and other subjects dealt with as they arose. The value of this expository teaching is very great, and would be much greater in more competent hands. The relationship thus established between teacher and taught is both affectionate and enduring. The movements of their minds follow the impulse given in the clear light of the Gospel under the constraining influence of the Holy Spirit, they are thus drawn, though imperceptibly to the eye of sense, in ever-increasing numbers nearer and nearer to the Kingdom of God. They pass from a condition of blank ignorance or absurd superstition, and an attitude of mere inquisitiveness, to the feeling that God has gripped their hearts and revealed Himself, as nowhere else, in the life and death of the Lord Jesus Christ. And this is immeasurable gain. They leave the class and are scattered, and the missionary may see them no more, but they do not drift out of range of the truths they have learned, their minds are saturated with Christian thought, and their hearts are bound by imperishable links to the Bible view of God. They cannot help but reflect this view in all their after influence amongst their fellow men.

“The Sunday evening sermons deepen the impression made in class, and afford an even better opportunity for presenting effectively the whole round truth of God’s majesty and love. The results do not often or immediately appear, still less do they lend themselves to any process of tabulation for the purpose of the Annual Report. It happens but rarely to some of us that they take the form of striking incidents such as so touchingly and rightly move the hearts of our praying supporters at home. Yet they are real and abiding, and fitted to awaken in thoughtful minds not a little genuine thanksgiving and joy. The fussy and faithless itinerant critic will, of course, see nothing and say the more. So will the great man who comes out to deliver his cold season course of lectures, with just a spice, perhaps, of personal elation at the wideness and wonder of his reception, for which a long period of missionary preparation and special activity in canvassing is, however, mainly responsible. Each in his place, there is a work for even the least of us to do, and it is ‘not in vain.’ Glimpses are given, all the more cheering that they come but seldom, of spiritual fruit. I recall a visit from an old Barisal student in the middle of the year. We had not seen each other since I left that place, but he brought with him some prizes and certificates he had won in the Bible school and treasured up all through the years. And here is a fragment of the story he had to tell—as I wrote it down at the time. One is often deceived, and learns by repeated disappointments not to appraise too highly certain forms of expression. But there was no mistaking the sincerity of his tone and the truth of his words. ‘I can say this,’ he told me, ‘that I am a Christian in heart. Only baptism is left. I have no other God but Jesus Christ. I feel His presence with me always, and it was you who sowed the seed in my heart.’ There are moments when a man tastes on earth the pure joy of Heaven. It was given to me to taste it when I looked into the face of that old pupil, now grown to be a man, and heard him say, ‘It was you who sowed the seed in my heart.’”

The Rev. George Hughes, reporting upon his work at Madaripore during last year, writes:—

“I found awaiting me a constituency of men, who in their student days had paid considerable attention to Christianity and Christ, but whose interest now, as indeed in religion altogether, had subsided. My work amongst them resolved itself into close personal dealing of a most interesting and fascinating nature. The struggles with prejudice and doubt I fear have been keen, and although none has come right out and joined us, yet our efforts have been followed by signs of a very cheering nature. We met these men on an average four times a week, and this constant intercourse exercised in reliance upon the Holy Spirit's help led many to give us their fullest confidence. We rejoiced as we saw their trust in us grow stronger, and were again and again awed at the great responsibility which rested upon us, when men in their serious hours laid bare their souls before us. There was no prying into the past, no 'probing the wounds of sin,' we took up our work where the priest would lay it down, and sympathetically communed with men whose spirits for a time at least longed for God's holiest and best. My diary contains many items of considerable interest to me as noting the birth and growth of the Christian Spirit in their life and conversation. For instance, one who attached saving value to the chanting of mantras and the constant recital of Sanskrit texts, came to regard 'The Lord's Prayer' as a thing of beauty, and marvellous for its simplicity and comprehensiveness. Whenever I visit him he requests me to read a Psalm and engage in prayer, and latterly he allows no day to pass without fellowship with God in this new and living way. The Angels of His presence rejoiced one day as they looked into his shabby little hut and said 'Behold, he prayeth.'

"One who had lost all hope of salvation by his own effort had declared that he could see no ethical value in the Atonement of Christ, as even that was salvation by works, and being by the works of another was all the more impossible. Putting aside the question, 'Is it possible?' we came to the question, 'Is it true?' and taking the Resurrection as the bedrock of our position, he was led to say, 'I am bound to admit the reasonableness of the evidence touching the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and admitting this, I can see nothing in the whole plan of redemption to which I can take exception.' His heart lags wearily behind, unable to overtake the conviction at which his mind has arrived. He is confessedly unhappy, and in this unhappiness and Christ's great love I find a pleasant spot where hope and faith may rest."

The Rev. A. E. Collier, of Bankipur, writes :—

"The Native Students' Reading Room has been well attended during the past year, and the library much appreciated. We have had numerous opportunities for conversation on Divine things, and some young men have expressed a secret faith in Christ which they dare not openly avow. It is impossible for us to appreciate the immense difficulty experienced by any young man of good family who makes any profession of Christianity.

"The terrific wrench it must be to burst the social ties of Hinduism, which are the growth of ages, can only be accomplished in the fulness of Divine power. It is not for us to blame those who are placed in such far more difficult circumstances than we have ever experienced. Let us, rather, in deep humility at our own weakness, pray that they may be strengthened in the faith and not be overwhelmed by the manifold temptations and difficulties which beset them."

MISSION MEDICAL WORK.

Dr. F. Vincent Thomas, reporting on his Medical Mission work in the City of Muttra, writes :—

"Soon after taking over charge I opened a dispensary in the very heart of the city, and in a short time found as much work every morning as I could get through in three or four hours' steady going. For three months I had to see seventy to ninety patients daily, and by the end of July I had run through my stock of the more ordinary medicines. Nothing has surprised me more than to see the readiness with which the caste-people in this bigoted Hindu city have taken our medicines, in some cases paying for them; very rarely have I been asked for 'dry medicine;' the objection being to taking mixtures containing water, spirit, tincture, &c.; or the objection has been stated in this form, 'You give me something to rub on and I will treat myself internally!' The following figures are for ten months only the work being nearly double what I had to do the year before:—

Total number of Visits on Tour (November to January) ...	1,316
In Mathura, at the Dispensary	5,816

of this number 1,248 were cases of minor surgery, and there were 8 major operations. "On all suitable occasions a short Gospel address was given to the assembled patients.

"I spent three months in the Chhata-Kosi District, with a short break at Christmas, when I had a most enjoyable and busy time with Mr. Hale at Palwal. As before, I found a great field open for my special work, and a growing friendliness on the part of the people spoke of the good effect of previous efforts. This year I broke new ground at Shergarh, on the Jumna, at the extreme eastern boundary of the district, and found that I was most cordially welcomed in some of the villages near by where old patients, who had come in to me at Chhata twelve months before, were living, and gratefully remembered the help they had then received. To mention the most interesting instance: about a dozen patients had hailed from a village called Barha. So one Sunday afternoon (being a dies non for Dispensary work) I made tracks for the place, accompanied by Masih Charan, Evangelist, and my dispenser. We had given no notice of our coming, but when it was noticed who was coming down the slope towards the village, the news went round the place that the Chhata Doctor Sahib was coming. Ere I had been seated five minutes in the village Areopagus, I had all my patient-friends salaaming profoundly, expressing their good fortune in the unexpected pleasure of my visit, and so forth. A venerable half-blind Mohammedan gentleman took the lead. He had come to me with his hand swollen out by an abscess, throbbing with pain, making every step of the long rough road to Chhata unutterable agony. A timely incision, with soothing dressings, had in a few days relieved him of all his 'dolor, tumor, rubor, et calor,' and now, though his neighbours had doubtless heard the story before, he must needs relate it afresh, with amplifications, and with many ascriptions of praise to God Most High, and kindly expressions of indebtedness to the Doctor Sahib. When the steam had blown off, and we got a chance to get a word in, we started to speak, and for over an hour we were telling of the needs of the soul and of Christ the Healer, mighty to save. Then came questions—not carping criticisms or inane interruptions, but earnest, thoughtful statements of doubts and difficulties and an appreciative attention to our replies—till it was time to get back to Shergarh. God grant us many a day's work like that and souls for our hire!"

From Palwal the Rev. F. W. Hale, writing relative to his medical work, reports: "That his greatest regret has been that it is necessarily in Palwal of a desultory character. If only the Dispensary could be kept open right through the year a grand work might be done. As it is, with my frequent absence from the station, it is not open more than six months in the year ; and people, coming as they do from outlying villages daily, are as often disappointed as not. Our assistant missionary, Babu E. C. Joshua (hospital assistant) has charge of the medical work in Hodal. The total number of visits to our dispensaries during the year was 9,947."

In Khowlna District, by the Rev. Gogon Chunder Dutt, and in the Delhi and the adjacent district by the Rev. H. E. Crudgington and Dr. Saul David, medical work has been carried on, and the missionaries have been enabled by their skill and treatment to secure a welcome into many houses that otherwise would have been closed against them.

TRANSLATION AND LITERARY WORK. OUR MISSION PRINTING PRESSES.

CALCUTTA.

DR. ROUSE having only returned to Calcutta at the close of last year Mr. M. Nath supplies the following report :—

"The Bible reprint work has been carried on throughout the year slowly but carefully, with the help of Babu Nirupan Kumar Biswas. Besides attending to the small pica and bourgeois editions of our revised Bengali Bible, I have had to supervise the work of bringing out some portions of Scriptures for B.T.S. and C.A.B.S., and from the end of last year I have revised the four Gospels in Musalmani-Bengali, and passed them to press.

"As usual, I have brought out the Monthly Messenger Tracts, and edited some other tracts for the Calcutta Tract Society, and I am still preparing the drafts for the C.A.B.S. Translation Committee.

"Some addresses and tracts have been published by the Baptist Publication Committee and the C.E. Union, and I have had to attend to them as they passed through the press.

"In bringing out the Khristiya Bandhab, our Bengali Baptist Magazine, I have received much help from many Calcutta and Moffusil friends, both European and Bengali, in the shape of articles, correspondence, and news, and I am much indebted to them for their help. Several friends have written to me appreciatingly of the magazine.

"I have just undertaken to prepare the S. S. Leaflets for the Bengal Sunday School Union for 1901. This work will require much thought and reading, and I have already started writing the lessons for the first quarter of the year.

"I am glad and thankful that the Rev. Dr. Rouse has been able to come back to us. He is now planning about the final revision of the Bengali Bible, and we shall soon set to work. An edition of our Bengali revised New Testament, with references in the margin and alternative readings at the bottom, has just been arranged for the C.A.B.S. and B.T.S. Mr. Edmunds is preparing the references from the new references of the English R.V. I am to attend to the alternative readings and the references in proofs."

CUTTACK, ORISSA.

The Rev. Thomas Bailey reports :—

"Last year we reported printing completed to Ezekiel vi. 4, and copy prepared to Ezekiel, end of chapter xii. Printing is now completed to Ezekiel xii. 4, and copy prepared to Daniel, end of chapter ix., so that practically we have been working on Ezekiel nearly the whole of the year. It is said to be the least read of all the books of Scripture, and this is no doubt largely owing to its involved style and the consequent difficulty, in many cases, of ascertaining the exact meaning. The book, however, abounds in passages of striking significance and beauty, and our work upon it, though difficult, has proved both instructive and inspiring. With Ezekiel practically completed substantial progress has been made, and we have the best of help on the remaining books, so that though, since the days of Dr. Sutton, very little has been done upon them in the way of revision, we hope to find the way well prepared for us. Allowance has to be made for very possible interruptions, but if our progress continues to be as good as it has been during the past several years we should by this time next year be nearing the end of our work on the Old Testament.

"My able and experienced colleague, the Rev. Shem Sahu, has worked very steadily during the year. Sridhara Das, our pundit, has also been diligent and painstaking. Mr. Pike has rendered his usual assistance, and the proofs have been submitted, as heretofore, to Mr. Young and two of the native ministers, who have made helpful suggestions.

"The Calcutta Auxiliary Bible Society made us their usual grant of Rs. 600 for the year. We thank them very warmly and apply for a similar grant for the coming year."

SCRIPTURE CIRCULATION.

One special feature of the work in India during the past year has been the widespread circulation of the Scriptures and Scripture portions.

The Rev. Thomas Watson, of Barisal, reports :—

"We have done much in this district to spread the knowledge of Christ by a wide circulation of the Scriptures. These are not distributed free, though the price of a gospel is only a farthing. Our method is to interest the people in the Scripture portion by explaining some part of its contents, after which many who can read will buy the portion. During the year I have sold 1,745 gospels and portions. These are now scattered all over the district, in out-of-the-way hamlets, and in lonely homesteads; the adults, and more often the children read the gospels, &c. May the Holy Spirit follow these little books with His blessing, that by these silent messengers many may be brought to a knowledge of God."

Mr. Imam Masih, of Calcutta, reports the following incident :—

"In a recent railway journey I had, as a fellow-passenger, an old Fakeer, sixty-five years of age. Out of her bag she produced an old well-worn book, which she began to read. Being curious to know what book it was, I approached her and respectfully asked her what she was reading; in lieu of an answer she handed the book to me. On opening it I saw that it was a Hindi translation of the New Testament by Rev. J. Parsons, of Monghyr. Inside was the name 'Rev. T. Evans.'

"I then inquired of her how she came to be possessed of such a valuable book; she told me that many years ago while she was attending the Thirwaini Mela at Allahabad, she saw a very fat, short man with a very long beard chanting hymns and selling gospels. She asked him to give her the book; but he told her to sell the only 'lota' (drinking vessel of brass) she had and to purchase the book.

"She said that she sold it for four annas and came and bought the book, which has now become to her a priceless jewel. I then asked her what objection she had left to confessing Christ openly; she replied that being as she was a Fakeer, she was cordially received by all classes of people, especially by the women; on the other hand, if she confessed herself a Christian openly, she would be rejected and would not then be able to preach the Gospel to the women in Purdahs. I parted with her at Assansol. May the Lord grant that this single seed may be the means of sowing seed for a ripe harvest."

Mr. Masih reports he has sold more than 2,000 Scripture portions while on his Evangelistic itinerations during the past year.

The Rev. Geo. Hughes, of Madaripore, reports :—

A pleasant feature of this work has been the sale of Bibles to Babus and students that they might 'read with pleasure.' Many bought large type copies at Rs. 1-12 each, others would have the Revised Version with maps. The study of the Bible became a daily thing in many homes. Questions were pounced upon me from all parts of it, but mainly from Genesis and the gospels. In one house I had to turn up all the references to Jesus Christ in the Old Testament, and to show in the New what prophecies had been fulfilled. The sales for nine months have been—Bibles : 102; Testaments, 66; Hymn Books, 314; Gospels and other portions, 1,067; 'Pilgrim's Progress,' 20; 'Imitation of Christ,' 6; C.L.S. publications, 693; value, Rs. 269. Compared with last year's sales of Rs. 5, a decided advance has been made. About 3,000 English and about 11,000 Bengali tracts and pamphlets have been put into circulation. We are persuaded to look hopefully upon this branch of our work, for the opening of the Words of God giveth light, and since 'the Word of God is a living and active,' may we not believe that the Word thus circulated, together with the Word spoken in faith, shall not return to him void . . . but shall prosper in the thing whereto He hath sent it."

The Rev. C. H. Williams, of Kalka, writes :—

"Kalka is an excellent centre for Scripture circulation. The ever-changing crowd in the bazaar gives us continual opportunities to carry on our sales. Our colporteur takes up his position daily at a little spot by the roadside in the bazaar. Here, on a low, large table, his wares are laid out. Scriptures, Scripture portions, tracts, &c., in Urdu, Roman-Urdu, Hindi, Panjabi, and English are offered for sale, and who will say where the influence of one Scripture may end? The books are taken into far remote parts, and it may be the printed work may preach where the spoken Word is never heard. During the year we have disposed of more than 2,000 copies of books and tracts at a return of over Rs. 100, and of this large number a large proportion was sold in Kalka. We pray that His Word may bring forth fruit even to a hundred-fold."

The Rev. John Stubbs, of Patna City, referring to the sale of Scriptures during the past year, writes :—

“ I do not remember a better year than last year in this respect : 2,475 Bibles, Testaments, and Scripture portions, 1,280 copies of the Hindi translation of Mr. Spurgeon's sermon on ‘ The Brazen Serpent,’ and 434 Catechisms and other small books have been sold. Most of these have been sold after preaching, and, occasionally, even after opposition, which is an unusual thing in India, where the people sadly lack moral courage. I remember one sultry, humid evening in July, when, at Marufganj, a man who had been listening contemptuously to the preaching said, when we began to offer Scriptures for sale, ‘ Oh, these are Christian books !’ and, by the sneer with which he said it, he evidently wished the people to understand they were not for them. But we immediately replied, ‘ Yes, but the Christians' God has written them for everybody else as well. The Christians' God has made the air, but not only do Christians breathe it, but Hindoos and Mohammedans are thankful to breathe it as well. He has made water, too, not only to quench the thirst of Christians, but also for Hindoos and Mohammedans. This silenced him, and we quickly sold a number of Scriptures. There have been several such incidents during the year. As in former years, we have been able to sell Scriptures to our fellow-passengers on the tram-car. Surely all this scattering of the Word of God has not been in vain.”

CUTTACK PRINTING PRESS.

Superintendent—Rev. C. H. HARVEY.

The Rev. C. H. Harvey, the Superintendent of this Press, reports:—

"The 280-page 'Life of Christ' in Oriya has continued a favourite, and sells readily not only by our own missionaries, but by the workers of the American Mission in Northern Orissa and the German Mission in the Jeypore district; it is published by the Bible Translation Society, and is now in its third year and its 46th thousand. From friends in Australia £13 has been received to pay for the publishing of a book in the vernacular suitable for Christians. It has long been felt that our list of books containing reading specially adapted to our Christian community of 6,000 was very meagre, and yet after the publishing of tracts for itinerant work the balance has never been such as to allow of books of this class being printed to any extent. With an increased demand for tracts for itinerant work, and one of our sources of help shut off, the likelihood of a favourable balance remaining for this purpose has become still less, so that this gift is specially welcome. The donation of sums by friends at home for publishing vernacular books affords an excellent opportunity for them to come into close contact with Mission work, and in this case enables them to supply a very real need. A series of books on Christian life and truth would be a power for good in our Christian community. The book being published with the above-mentioned sum is 'Daily Light on the Daily Path.' Another event worthy of record is the introduction of a 3½-h.p. engine for the press machines, which makes it now possible to more than treble our former output, and which promises to be an exceedingly useful addition. It is, as it should be, that the Christian press—the first-established press in the province—should be the first of the twenty or thirty now existing to advance beyond hand power for its machines. It is cause for encouragement, for the first and main work of the press is the printing of gospels and tracts. During the year Christian books and tracts, as detailed below, have been printed:—

"BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY.—Oriya—Old Testament, from Ezekiel vi. 4 to Ezekiel xlii. 3 (pp. 848 to 896), 2,500; New Testament, from Matthew to John xii., 3,000; Matthew (32mo), 6,000; Mark (32mo), 6,000; Luke (32mo), 6,000.

"BIBLE TRANSLATION SOCIETY.—Oriya—New Testament to John xii., 2,000; Matthew (32mo), 3,000; Mark (32mo), 3,000; Luke (32mo), 3,000; Life of Christ and Way of Salvation, 20,000.

"ORISSA TRACT SOCIETY.—Oriya—Saving Truth, 5,000; Jewel Mine, 10,000; What is Christianity? 5,000; Church Hymn Book, 3,000; Sunday School Hymn Book, 3,000; The Drunkard's Mirror, 2,000; The History of Joseph, 5,000; Current Sayings, 500; Selection of Tracts, 2,000; Jagannath, Tested, 10,000; Prayer, 5,000; Parables, 5,000; Hymns, Pt. II., 3,000; Way of Salvation, 18,000.

"FOR OTHER SOCIETIES AND INDIVIDUALS.—Oriya—The Teachings of Christ (B.M.S.), 500; Religious Truth (German Lutheran Mission), 4,000; Catechism (German Lutheran Mission), 4,000; Bible History (German Lutheran Mission), 1,000; Notes on the Life of Christ (S.S. Union), in press, 500; Lesson Leaflets, 6,839; Children's Leaflets, 59,800; Morning Star (monthly), 6,000 First Lessons in Oriya, 500.

Pastor—The Rev. JOHN DRAKE.

The Rev. John Drake, of Regent's Park College, has been appointed pastor of this church, and has already reached Agra and commenced work.

The Revs. Daniel Jones and Albert Law send the following report for the past year :—

“ We have a goodly band of Christian men, who if they cannot preach themselves yet support an evangelist-colporteur, to go and preach and scatter abroad the Divine Word. They are ever ready to help in every good work. We are rejoiced to know that the York and Lancaster Regiment is to remain in Agra one year longer.

“ A weekly Bible-class has been conducted, and the Epistle to the Hebrews has yielded very profitable study.

“ The meetings of the Soldiers' Christian Association have been held weekly, and the Gospel Temperance League is still working its even way.

PASTORATE VACANT.

DINAPORE, N.W.P.

PASTORATE VACANT.

work in Ceylon has fallen upon the Rev. H. A. Lapham, of Matale, and the Committee warmly appreciate the hard work undertaken by Mr. Lapham and the efficiency with which it has been carried through.

Mr. Lapham writes :—

“Throughout the whole of this year I have had charge of the mission in the three districts—Kandy, Colombo, and Sabaragamuwa—though during the later months Mr. Etherington, who passed his first examination in the vernacular in July, has given me much assistance. Between us we have, with the efficient aid of our native colleagues, kept the work going. It has been hard work, though. The mere accounts and correspondence have been equal to one man’s work, and it has only been by allowing myself absolutely no leisure that I have been able to keep things going. Nevertheless I have visited every station of ours in the three districts at least once in the year, and many of them several times. To accomplish this with the smallest expenditure of time I have travelled nearly 1,900 miles on my bicycle alone, besides rail and coach journeys. I have been up and down to Colombo twenty-three times for work in that district, and have visited distant Sabaragamuwa twice. I am glad to know that there is a good prospect that by about the middle of the year 1901 Mr. Etherington will pass his second examination, and will enter on his full work as a missionary in charge of the Kandy district while I go to Colombo; among the advantages occurring from that, besides the personal relief to me, will be the replacement in the 1901 Report of the first personal pronoun singular (which is so disagreeably conspicuous in this) by the less egotistic plural.”

THE COLOMBO DISTRICT.

THE COLOMBO NATIVE CHRISTIAN GIRLS’ BOARDING SCHOOL.

Lady Principal: Miss HELEN MOODIE.

The following is the report of the Lady Principal of the Girls’ Boarding School in Colombo :—

“The school year began with forty-three girls. During the year twenty-three have been admitted, and sixteen left, leaving a total of fifty, with an average attendance of forty-five. The work of the year has gone on steadily, and the results of the Government examination held on 29th and 30th November show a decided improvement. Thirty-six were examined in Sinhalese, and thirty-three in English, all of whom passed. Changes have been made in the staff, and in the time of Sinhalese lessons, which have proved successful. The work of the upper standards is much better this year. The conduct of the girls, with two exceptions, has been very satisfactory.

“This has been an exceptionally trying year, and the first since I came that we have had much illness in the school. In June one of the little girls was taken suddenly from our midst. The cause of death was failure of the heart’s action after an attack of fever. It was a great shock to us all, coming just when the child seemed to be recovering, for this little one, with her sweet disposition, was a general favourite, having, last year, been the youngest in the school. We trust that this sudden call may speak to those who are unconverted, and we believe that it has already done so. Though only eight years old she was quite prepared to go, but we felt deeply for the parents who, at a distance, were unable to get to her in time to see her alive.

"In October we had an epidemic of influenza, when more than half the school and two teachers were ill, but we are thankful there were no bad symptoms, and after about ten days school work was resumed. We are grateful to Dr. Thomas for his care and attention in coming daily to see the sick ones; also to Miss Schmidt, of the Heneratgoda Mission, for her assistance when I broke down in February and Miss D. Lapham in December.

"During the year the Bible-class and prayer-meetings have been conducted by Mr. Aponso. The Saturday night prayer-meeting in the school has been well attended by the girls. Sinhalese Sunday-school has been held, the greater part of the year in the Boarding School, instead of at Cinnamon Gardens. A branch of the International Bible Reading Association is being formed of those who have previously taken up the 'daily readings,' and by means of it we hope to keep more in touch with the girls who have left.

"Five of the girls have confessed Christ in baptism, and we hope to see others follow soon.

"The non-return of Mr. and Mrs. Hankinson to Ceylon is a great loss to the school, and their presence and help have been much missed during the year, but Mr. Lapham and Mr. Etherington have both done much to fill the vacant places."

The health of Miss Moodie having become very broken, owing to faithful devotion to her work, it appeared wise to the Committee to request her to take furlough to England, with a view to the re-establishment of her strength, and in pursuance of this arrangement Miss Moodie will leave Colombo for a season of rest at home during this spring.

DISTRICT EVANGELISTIC WORK.

Evangelists have been working during the past year in the following Colombo districts—viz., Colombo, South; Avisawella, twenty-eight miles inland; Chilaw, fifty miles northwards on the sea coast; Diyagama, twenty-five miles to the south of Colombo; Kanduboda, fifteen miles inland from Colombo; Kandana, ten miles from Colombo; Ranala, sixteen miles inland from Colombo; Rayigam Koale, seventeen miles south and eight inland; Veyangoda, twenty miles from Colombo; and North Colombo and Waragoda, Welipenna, and Agalawatta, thirty-three miles south of Colombo and eight inland; and Wisidagama.

The inhabitants of most of these districts are Buddhists, but in two or three cases there are a few Roman Catholics.

Mr. S. R. Perera, referring to his evangelistic work in the Kandana district, writes:—

"There are many Roman Catholics here who no more believe in many of the pretensions of the so-called 'Only Church,' but who dare not come out of this 'Land of Egypt and house of bondage' for fear of being abandoned by the overwhelming majority who adhere to it, believing that there can be no truth nor any means of salvation outside their 'Church.'

“When I look around me and see the ignorance, superstition, and slavery in which so many thousands of people are involved, and the indifference to truth exhibited by many, being hardened by the teachings of this bastard Christianity, I am almost inclined to despair, comparing what I have done to ‘seeds that have been sown upon stony places,’ and myself to ‘the voice of one that has been crying in the wilderness.’

“Romanism, as it appears in certain books, may be said to contain something good, but as it is in practice in these districts it is nothing but a cunningly-devised machinery to make money and increase political influence under the mask of religion. Although ‘Giant Pope’ is said to have been ‘crazy and stiff in his joints’ in Bunyan’s time, yet he has since been able to apply remedies to these deformities, and grow more and more in worldly wisdom and in strength. It is true that he has no full liberty to raise his fist against the face of Christian; nevertheless, he is wise enough to have set his well-fitted machine a-going in every nook and corner, every part and joint of which noiselessly, but effectually, is doing its intended work, bringing wealth, honour, and political power to its head, while at the same time sapping away everything good in the material on which it works.”

THE KANDY DISTRICT.

The evangelistic districts in the Kandy Division of the Mission are :—Kandy, Gampola, Ukuwela, Matale, and Katugastota.

Mr. A. de Silva reports from Gampola that there are now two converts at Gampola and eight at Korigamma seeking baptism, while there has been a remarkable revival in Sunday-school work.

The accounts from the other districts are encouraging.

SABARAGAMUWA DISTRICT.

The evangelistic districts in the Sabaragamuwa Division are :—Pussella Ratnapura, Madampe, and Balangoda. In nearly all these centres the evangelists regularly visit the hospitals, taking with them suitable tracts and leaflets, and holding evangelistic services with the inmates and patients.

Connected with our Ceylon Mission there are 3,448 scholars in attendance at our elementary Christian day-schools taught by 63 school teachers, and 1,728 children in our Sunday-school taught by 116 Christian teachers.

THE CINNAMON GARDENS BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Committee rejoice at the happy settlement of the Rev. W. R. Peacock (formerly of Hastings) as pastor of the Cinnamon Gardens Baptist Church, Colombo, and at the warm and hearty welcome given to both Mr. and Mrs. Peacock. The following extract is from the Quarterly Messenger of the church :—

“On the evening of October 31st, 1900, a social gathering was held in the China was never so bright as it is to-day. The policy of the 'open door,' now so happily assured by the recent action of the Government of the United States of America, cannot but help on the Reformation changes in China that seem now inevitable." But the year just concluded has been one of the most terrible and tragic in the history of the modern missionary enterprise, if not altogether unparalleled.

Full and detailed intelligence relative to the crisis in China having been given during the past year month by month in the pages of the MISSIONARY HERALD, it does not seem needful to repeat here the sad story of the Shansi massacres, or of the tragic events leading up to the final catastrophe. Who can adequately realise the anguish of fear and suspense, the pain of torture, the desolation of bereavement endured by our missionaries and their relatives ?

Mr. Stanley Smith, B.A., in his recent book, "The Story of the Chinese Crisis," states that, in addition to the large number of European missionaries, there have been, it is computed, 40,000 native Chinese Christians massacred in cold blood.

Looking out into the future, the Rev. F. J. Shipway writes :—

"Nearly two years ago, when my application was before the Society for work in China, I was glad and thankful when I was accepted. To-day I am more glad and more thankful. I can hardly conceive of a life more congenial to one who has any desire at all to extend the knowledge of Jesus Christ to his fellows than the missionary life in China, especially at this time. For two or three months after we left Ching Chou Fu there was no little bewilderment and perplexity as reports and rumours came in wild and rapid succession, leaving a dazed impression upon the mind. That was the first stage, approximately from the end of June to the middle of September. Then the fog began to lift, and little by little we gained some clearer idea of the outstanding facts as to what had taken place and how we stood ; and the mind had time to adjust itself to the new state of things. That was the second stage, from about the middle of September to the end of November. And now, during the last six or seven weeks, the mind has not dwelt so much upon the past (though many things have prevented us entirely forgetting it), but rather upon the future with its possibilities. To a new-comer, such as I am, the present outlook appears to be such that the only adjective I can apply to it is the word wonderful. It is not of the first importance as to the particular month when peace shall be finally proclaimed, or the precise terms in which the conditions of peace are couched. What is of importance to us as missionaries—what is of importance to any thinking man who has any interest in the well-being of the 400 millions who exist in China—is the opening of mind, the awakening of the sleep of ages, which seems to have begun in earnest. The anti-foreign and anti-reform party have tried to blot out the foreigners and stop all reform. They have done the worst they knew. But the waves have spent their fury, and instead of moving the rock by their violence, they have left it more secure than before, while their own strength has been exhausted in the effort. And in the comparative calmness that now reigns—aye, and it does seem calm, too—we behold the beginning of a new China. There is a growing spirit of expectancy. This is partly caused, perhaps, by the re-action after the turmoil of last year, but it is largely caused by the changes and developments brought into being by those turmoils, though they were meant to have an opposite effect. From different parts of the empire messages are coming to Shanghai, to Hankow, to Chefoo, saying 'Come back, come back; no harm shall befall you. We want to listen to your teaching and read your books.' So far it may only be like the cloud as small as a man's hand preceding the storm, but it does not require much insight or foresight to prophesy that before long—before we young ones shall have had time to finish learning the language—there will be opportunities such as never before—a people less suspicious, less revengeful, less opposed, and more trusting, more receptive, and more convinced of their need for something better—a state of things in which we hear the voice of God saying to His children, 'Go up and possess the land which I have given you.'

"It is not in the nature of our Gospel that those who trust in it should at any time be dismayed by affliction or turned back by apparent temporary defeat, but even if it were, the state of things now existing in China would cause us to hope again, giving, as it does, opportunities far more in number than can be taken possession of for preachers, teachers, writers, doctors, organisers, and for the exercise of every talent that is laid at the feet of Jesus Christ in humble consecration."

"More missionaries, more missionaries!" this is the cry of the Apostle of Honan as he writes:—

"To my eye China has never presented so many points of attraction as it does to-day, and the Church in China has never drawn out my heart's deepest and best affections as it does now. Oh, that the Churches of Christendom could rise to the height of their privilege and give us the men and means we need in order to conquer this great empire for Christ! It rests with the Churches to make such an uprising as the one we have just witnessed an impossibility in the future. A strong Christian Church in China would secure the peace of the Christians for all time to come, and would be conducive to the promotion of every true interest in China, whether native or foreign."

OUR WORK IN THE SHANTUNG PROVINCE.

CHING CHOU FU.

Ching Chou Fu City is near the main road from Chefoo to Chi-nan Fu, the Provincial Capital, and is distant from these places 250 miles and 120 miles respectively. Chou-ping City lies on the main road half-way between Ching Chou Fu and Chi-nan Fu.

From Ching Chou Fu are worked the four counties of Lin-k'u, Shou-kuang, Lin-chih, and I-tu.

The Rev. R. C. Forsyth, writing of the experiences of the past year, says:—

"At the beginning of the year I was for some months laid aside with congested lungs, although during that time, and in convalescence, I was still able to carry on the necessary duties of my financial work, and while residing in Shih Tyu, where we stayed for some time in the spring, I was able to put into shape the 'Report on the Yellow River Flood Relief,' which has since been published and widely circulated.

"Just as I had been pronounced well by the doctor we began to be alarmed at the telegrams we received from the coast and from Chi-nan-fu. Since the murder of Mr. Brooks we had been kept in anxiety about the spread of the Boxer movement, which has since developed to so disastrous an extent as to leave the impression that it has been a national rather than a local rising.

"It was only in June, however, that we took any definite action with regard to withdrawal, though for some time the women and children were being gradually sent to the coast so as to be out of harm's way; consequently, in Ching Chou Fu at least, there were no children when the final rush for Chefoo took place. Mr. Jones and I had the honour of bringing up the rear from Ching Chou Fu in our flight for safety. We left for Chefoo on June 28th, and travelled all night and all the next day, slept a night in a small village and got to Muh-Chih-Ku about noon the following day. We got off in a small river-boat about six that night, slept on board the boat, and finally got on to a coasting steamer early the next morning. We found all our Chou-ping Mission that were left till that time safely on the steamer, and finally reached Chefoo on Monday, July 2nd.

"We found that shortly after arrival at this port a considerable number of native Christian refugees also followed us here, especially from the counties of Pin-chin, P'u-t'ai, and Li-chin, which were in charge of Mr. Harmon. These three counties seem to have suffered most in the persecution by Boxers, which raged there for some time, and is even now still smouldering.

'Some time in August last, I think it was, we decided to get some authentic news of our friends of the Shansi Mission, and endeavoured to get messengers sent by the Kalgan route from Tientsin through Dr. Porter, of the American Board, who kindly interested himself in this effort. This route, however, being considered too unsafe, we were led to try and get messengers to go from Ching Chou Fu. This we succeeded in doing by the generous daring of Mr. Dixon's Evangelist, Mr. Chao, who had just escaped with his life from Hsin-chou, and had made his way to his home near Ching Chou Fu. He was asked if he would be willing to go back, and he freely and heartily consented to do so. The result of this journey has been published in a pamphlet entitled 'A Narrative of Massacres in Shansi.'

"As regards Shansi, we decided to send a special messenger to Peking and get the case of these Christians in distress laid, if possible, before the plenipotentiaries there assembled, in order that they might bring pressure to bear on Li Hung Chang to have the Governor and officials in Shansi follow the example of Yuan Shih Kai, the Governor of Shantung, and relieve the Christians themselves, as it is their duty to do. Mr. Stephen, an independent missionary worker in Mongolia, who has been a refugee here for some months, was entrusted with a letter to Dr. Edwards, who is now, we believe, in Peking, to ask him to take this matter up. Mr. Stephen also had a letter of introduction to Dr. Morrison, of the Times, asking him to give his interest and help in this business.

"Successful efforts have also been made to assemble the Christian community in prayer, definitely waiting upon God to guide the nation in this hour of its distress, and that righteousness and peace may characterise the dealings of the foreign Powers with China at this time.

"These meetings have been found very helpful and interesting. As regards Mrs. Forsyth's work nothing definite can be stated, as so much time has been occupied in nursing and household matters. When in Shih Tzu in the spring, classes with women were held twice a week, and in the evenings we held services for the heathen in the open air, which seemed to be at least successful in gathering considerable numbers together in a way we could not hope to do otherwise. Since coming here a small class of women have been collected of the refugees from the interior, and they have had such instruction as was possible to them at the time."

THE NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

On the departure for England on furlough of the Rev. J. S. Whitewright, the Rev. J. P. Bruce, B.A., undertook the duties and responsibilities of the Gotch-Robinson College, and the Rev. A. E. Greening was appointed to assist Mr. Bruce in the oversight of the native Christian Church, so far as this might not interfere with his study of the Chinese vernacular.

The Rev. J. P. Bruce, B.A., reports as follows:—

"When Mr. Whitewright left for England the Local Committee requested me to take his place at the Theological Training Institute, appointing Mr. Greening to give me such assistance as he might be able in the supervision of the native Church. Owing to Mr. Greening's illness he was able to do less than was hoped in this direction, so that I had to carry the double burden.

"In the Institute Mr. Jones finished his course of lectures in Systematic Theology. I continued my own classes in Old Testament History and Exegesis, taking the Book of Joshua with the junior class, and selected psalms with the seniors. In New Testament I conducted a class with the senior men in the Epistle to the Romans, while the Chinese tutor, Mr. Shao, took the Epistle to the Corinthians, and the Gospel of Mark with the third and second year's men respectively. All the other classes in mathematics and other sciences, as well as in Church history, apologetics, comparative religions, homiletics, &c., were carried on as usual with the help of native tutors.

"In the native Church the half-year was peculiarly peaceful. There was one persecution case in May, which I was thankful to see settled before I left for the coast. At the end of the month (May 31st) I left Ching Chou Fu to spend the summer in Japan in the hope that my wife's health might be restored. On the morning of our departure I said to Mr. Jones (who had kindly promised to have some sort of oversight in my absence), 'It is years since affairs in the Church here have been so peaceful as they are just now; there is not a single case of persecution that I have to leave in your hands.' It was the lull before the storm. In less than a month the tornado came upon the Church bereft of all human help.

"All the various branches of Church work were continued as in previous years, and seemed more than usually encouraging. A new feature was a special class of youths and young men held in April for ten days. These youths were all the children of Christian parents—a fact which made the classes specially interesting. There seemed a good impression made, most of those present had already made a profession of faith, and of these many, I believe, went home with the desire and resolve to do some work for the Lord who had redeemed them.

"There seemed also to be more than usual encouragement in the village schools. Among the thirty school teachers were not less than half who had received some training, little or much; and among them were three who had completed their course of education in Mr. Couling's High School. The first term of work of these three young men as teachers gave great promise for the future. Their position was a difficult one, for their youth was a heavy handicap among a people who reverence age as do the Chinese. They had to win their spurs ; but my own observation and the reports I received from the Christians in their villages gave every reason to hope that they would do good service.

"But all one's hopes, in whatever direction they were aroused, were dashed to the ground, at any rate for a time, by the events of June. As soon as I was able I returned to Chefoo and sent for the pastors to visit me here, when we talked over together, and in all its bearings, their own action at the time of crisis and extreme danger. Since the return to Ching Chou Fu of the pastors I have continued to keep in touch with them by correspondence. They keep me fully informed of all that is taking place, and I give them such advice and assistance as I can by letter.

"In addition to this, I have had other important work which has kept me very fully occupied while here. Among the things looted in Ching Chou Fu was the MS. of a new hymn book in Chinese, just completed and ready for the press. This hymn book had been compiled by Mrs. Couling, Mr. Drake, and myself at the request of the Local Committee ; it has cost us between two and three years of almost unremittent labour, and was only waiting for the formal adoption by the Local Committee to be sent to the printers. Fortunately I had taken with me to the coast a copy which, though very imperfect and unreliable, has had to serve as a basis for preparing a fresh MS., and the work of revising and correcting this and preparing it for the press has taken up the greater proportion of my time here since the visit of the native pastors. I am thankful to say that we have now very nearly completed this task."

Mr. Greening has already taken two examinations in the Chinese language with very considerable distinction, there only remaining the third year's examination to pass through.

He writes :—

"After God's great goodness in thoroughly restoring my health I was married, and reached my station at the end of March last. The committee here had already appointed me to assist Mr. Bruce in the church work during the time he was in charge of the Institute for Mr. Whitewright. As soon as I returned I commenced going out each week for the Sabbath services at some one of the outstations of our Ching Chou Fu district, always taking some part in the service, and seeking to help and cheer the Christians. It was my privilege also to be present at, and take part in, the baptismal services this year, at which one hundred Chinese publicly confessed their faith in Christ. The outbreak of the Boxer troubles disarranged all our plans. But our faith is in the Eternal God. We know His purposes must be accomplished in spite of all men can do. We look forward with faith and hope to a more glorious future for the Gospel in this great empire. Whilst at Chefoo I have given my main attention to the study of the language, and have passed my second year's examination."

The Rev. C. Spurgeon Medhurst writes with regard to evangelistic work as follows :—

"The contrast between the beginning of 1900 and the end is bewildering. Right up to the commencement of the summer evangelistic work had never been so hopeful ; although knowing the serious turn events were taking in Peking, I confess that I did not undertake my last preaching tour without some self-questionings as to my duty I went to meet a number of enquirers of whom I had been hearing for several months, but whom I had been unable to visit ; they were but beginning to look for the light, and I feared that, as no foreigner had been before to that district, if the worst came to the worst, they might be involved in trouble which perhaps they might avoid if I did not go ; on the other hand, my native helpers might be needlessly alarmed and discouraged if I remained away, as the threatened storm might not burst.

"Whatever doubts I had, however, before starting, they soon vanished when I met those I had gone to see. Seldom have I seen more promising openings, and, with great thankfulness, I marked the locality on my map as the first place I would visit in the autumn, when the completion of the harvest again brought leisure to the people, little thinking that the autumn would see us all scattered, and that instead of having the supreme joy of watching the new seekers after truth gradually enter the light, I should be in England. I have, of course, heard nothing of these people, but the remembrance of the general and earnest spirit of enquiry which I met with on that trip has been a source of strength during the terrible months that have followed, as well as a cause of painful anxiety, lest any in whose houses I was then so heartily received subsequently suffered on my account.

"Last year for the first time I had a band of well-trained native evangelists, whom it was my joy to lead and direct in evangelistic work. I made it my special care that the constant contact with the heathen, and isolation from Christian fellowship, which their work entailed, should not impair their spiritual life, and to prevent this, gathered them together once every month for study, prayer, and a free discussion of the work.

"It will be many years before I forget my last meeting with these beloved brethren ; three years had elapsed without a holiday, and I was about leaving for a necessary rest.

"As to the future there are no two opinions among missionaries. The prospects for Christian work will, once peace is made, be brighter than ever ; but until matters have quieted in Peking there will not be much opening for evangelistic work. All that has happened will but turn the hearts of the people towards us. If, however, there is to be lasting peace, and similar troubles are to be avoided in the future, we shall have to give more attention to the scholars and officials of the Empire, for only through them will China be conciliated to the new order of things."

THE GOTCH-ROBINSON NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION.

The Principal of this Institution, the Rev. J. S. Whitewright, supplies the following report :—

"In February, 1900, the charge of the Gotch-Robinson Training Institution was handed over to the Rev. J. P. Bruce, B.A., and though at that time there were symptoms of unrest, still in our own immediate neighbourhood our relations with the people were very satisfactory. During the spring and early summer work was carried on as usual. Evangelistic work was vigorously carried on by the students during the holidays of the Chinese new year, and good results were reported. In June all the missionaries were compelled to leave their stations for the coast by order of the Governor.

"From letters to hand from brethren at Chefoo, it appears that work had been going on without hindrance of any kind until the Government of China openly adopted the programme of the anti-foreign party and sought to destroy the members of the Legations and all foreigners on whom they could lay their hands. It is probably now clearly understood that the missions were not attacked as such but only as being part, in the eyes of the Government, of the 'foreign' element which they wished to drive out. Mission property was destroyed at the same time and for the same reason that railways and mining plant were torn up. If any further proof were needed, a Proclamation published by Prince Tuan (then acting practically as Prime Minister), and circulated throughout China during last August, proves this out of their own mouths. The Proclamation is translated by Dr. Griffith John, and is printed in part in the North China Herald, one of the ablest and best-known of the papers published in the Far East. The great bulk of the Proclamation is taken up with the attitude of China to foreigners generally—ambassadors from foreign countries, merchants and others, while mission-work comes in at the end of a number of articles as one more 'foreign' element which had to be excluded. This is a very instructive document, and it may be well to quote a few sentences. It states that 'foreign ambassadors are not to be allowed to enter Peking, but must go back to the restrictions of over a century ago.' This means that foreign ambassadors are to have, in the eyes of the Chinese, the status of envoys of tributary States. Further on this is explicitly stated with regard to Japan. 'Japan must again pay tribute to China.' As to the proper attitude of all Europeans and Americans, it states: 'When foreigners meet Chinese officials they must kneel down and knock their heads on the ground to them.' With regard to ideas of progress generally, one other quotation is explicit: 'Railways constructed on the sacred soil of China must be taken up and destroyed.'

"Commenting on the above, the North China Herald says: 'This shows that the Boxer movement is not primarily anti-missionary, but anti-foreign. Nothing is more terrible, says Goethe, than active ignorance. It is this active ignorance which has animated the whole of the outrages in China this year. There are still some who hold that the missionaries are at the bottom of all the opposition to foreigners in China, but is it not the fact that the missionaries have done more than anyone else to dispel the ignorance of the Chinese—ignorance which we can only lament while it remains passive, but which we have to use strenuous efforts to combat when it becomes active?'

"It has to be remembered that there is a Reform party even in China—that some of the officials have succoured foreigners in their distress, and by such action have saved their lives. In the enlightenment of such men our own Mission has had an honourable share, especially through the work of the Rev. Timothy Richard. So far, then, from 'missionaries being the cause of all the troubles,' it would appear that but for them and their work the troubles in China and the loss of life would have been far greater than they have been. Though probably no one believed that the Chinese Government would be so insane as to openly make war on all the great Powers of the world, as it finally did, still, it was from missionaries that the Legations received early and repeated warnings that serious trouble was imminent. Months before the Legations were attacked a report was sent to Sir Claude Macdonald informing him of the unrest known to us, though not in our own immediate neighbourhood. After the rescue, Mr. Conger, the U.S. Ambassador at Peking, wrote as follows to the American missionaries: 'I beg in this hour of our deliverance to express what I know to be the universal sentiment of our Diplomatic Corps, the sincere appreciation of, and profound gratitude for the inestimable help which you and the native Christians under you have rendered towards our preservation. Without your intelligent and successful planning, and the uncomplaining execution of the Chinese, I believe our salvation would have been impossible.' Sir Claude Macdonald, the British Ambassador, has recently stated: 'Of the conduct of the missionaries during the siege I can only speak in the highest terms. They were courageous, patient, self-sacrificing, and I can only say that their capacity for organising and their power over their converts which was then displayed came as a revelation to me. In fact, had they not been with us our hardships would have been materially increased.

"It is thus evident that the efforts of missionaries have done much to mitigate the horrors of the anti-foreign uprising in China in that, largely through their efforts, there existed a reform—a pro-foreign element in the country whose influence was directed towards saving the lives and property of foreigners; second, by information given as to dangers threatening; third, by active assistance rendered during the siege of Peking (so generously recognised by the American and British Ambassadors); and, fourth, by the gathering together of large numbers of native converts within the Legation lines just before the siege began. It will be remembered that it was while rendering efficient assistance in this latter work that Mr. James, formerly a missionary of our Society, lost his life."

The Rev. Alfred G. Jones reports :—

"When I last reported I was preparing and delivering to my student class a series of lectures on salvation, regarded both from the Biblical, dogmatic, and historic aspects, as well as treating it formally under the two divisions of objective and subjective, the Christian mind in China inclining solely to the consideration of the objective side.

"The time and labour involved in this work, so far from proving easier, lighter or more familiar than heretofore, seemed to run beyond any limits I had thought of, and instead of one term, as in the case of the other sections, a whole session—from October to June—was devoted to this, the main burden of the Christian message. It will give some idea of what was involved in it when I mention that the result of that session in Chinese MSS. is a volume of 240 folios, i.e.—480 pages, in all, over 40,000 characters. I need not say that such work is intended to place men in a position equal to dealing with any of the difficulties or oppositions they may encounter within or without the Church, and to leave them in a position hardly inferior to their foreign teachers in point of information.

"I should not like anyone, however, to jump to the conclusion that it is ordinarily possible, by any process of education, to turn out men equal to foreign missionaries, for the more one has to do with such matters the more one sees and feels how much more is needed than education, as commonly understood, and how much that education should comprise, and how deep it should penetrate and be made to take hold of the man. These problems are enough to engage the thoughtful consideration of all concerned.

"In this connection I may say that the examinations held at the end of the session were satisfactory as such, but I look towards attaining in the future much higher results than an examination can show.

"The session had been concluded before the Boxer disturbances threatened the work in our province. I already had begun the revision of my lectures for future use. As soon as we were ordered by the authorities to leave I removed to Japan taking a young assistant with me to help me to carry on the revision. Since I landed in Japan in the middle of July I have carried on the work unremittingly, and hope to finish towards the end of December. So far I have only lost about a month of my time in consequence of the Chinese crisis.

"My present work is only a preliminary, and by no means a final, revision. I shall probably have, sooner or later, to spend an equal amount of time on going over it again, as all experience shows the natives cannot be trusted alone with such work, not seeing the underlying reasons for the special use of certain expressions, &c.

"It may seem that an undue amount of time and pains is bestowed on this matter of the intellectual and formal presentation of Christian truth; but that judgment would probably not be made if it was realised how meagre and unsatisfactory are the provisions heretofore existing in this department all over China.

"Nor would such a judgment be held if it was realised how exceedingly liable one is to imagine that general statements convey to others the fulness of the information that we ourselves have—have as our Christian heritage naturally. Close contact with native minds alone shows that the building going on within is a mere framework. When, further, it is realised that the language in which the preacher is to preach is the only, and alone can be the proper, medium in which and by which to educate him, then no trouble can be deemed too great to achieve this end. It is never to be forgotten that we draw our men—our students—from an exceedingly illiterate and rough class—a class that usually have a very limited range of ideas and express themselves in homely and inexact ways; in fact, a class which is ignorant of how to put its ideas and its faith into proper and appropriate language. This being so, it must be apparent that, while they are being instructed in the truths of the Christian religion, they must also be practised in and accustomed to expressing what they have learned. I do not mean as elocutionists or rhetoricians, but their instructions given in that form and way which will furnish the material and the expressions without which no effective presentation of truth can be made, and so remove them from the ban that otherwise must ever rest on and hinder them. To do such work as this, it is needless to say that the character of their teaching must be continually leaving the proper kind of impress on them, and their teachers must give such application to their work as will qualify them for elevating the whole tone and expression of those under them. Such teaching must be a work of great labour and difficulty, but only by such teaching can our students become acceptable to those whom they address."

THE NATIVE CHRISTIAN BOYS' NORMAL BOARDING SCHOOL AND VILLAGE DAY SCHOOLS.

The Principal of the Ching Chu Fu Normal School, the Rev. Samuel Couling, writes:—

"It is not easy to write a report of school work for 1900. Only half a year's work was done, the school being suddenly dismissed at the end of June, when we had to leave Ching Chou Fu, and the results of the previous examinations which I should now send you were left behind. It must, therefore, be sufficient to say that the school was looking better than ever, that some of the best boys were approaching the end of their school course, and that we hoped the Church would henceforth benefit each year by some earnest intelligent scholars passing out from our 'Kuang te Shu yuan.'

"This sudden break is in itself very injurious to the work; continuity is of the first importance in school work, but it is certain that many of the boys will not now be able to return; we can only hope that in their case the work already done on them may have its full effect on life and character.

"But though the temporary effect of the present troubles is disastrous, there can be no doubt that a great door is being opened, or rather the walls of Jericho are being thrown down. If anyone would go to the trouble of looking at my reports for several years past it would be seen that I have consistently prophesied a good time coming for educational work in China, even though it might come through bloodshed and turmoil; and have hoped that we might be ready to take advantage of our opportunity. The time has now come, and it remains to be seen whether we are ready for it.

"The Chinese will, in future, demand Western education—if they do not obtain it from the Church they will get it elsewhere. The American Presbyterian Church is trying to raise £50,000 to extend and endow their well-known college in Shantung; we cannot imitate them, but if we wish the education of China to be Christian education, if we wish to fit the Church to teach and lead, and if as Baptists we do not wish the Church that represents Baptist principles in China to be inferior in intelligence to the other churches, it is quite necessary that we should at once bestir ourselves to do far more educational work than we have yet attempted."

MISSIONARY MEDICAL WORK.

Dr. Russell Watson, the Medical Missionary for the Ching Chou Fu District, reports:—

"The work in the hospital and dispensary continued peacefully and uninterruptedly during the past year till the month of June, when we left to go to the coast for a short holiday.

"Soon after we left the anti-foreign movement broke out and spread like a cyclone throughout Shantung and the neighbouring provinces.

"In Ching Chou Fu the hospital was the first building attacked. The place was wrecked, and the drugs were taken from the dispensary and store-room and poured down the well. The assistants were forced to leave. Mr. Wang, the second assistant, had brought his wife into the hospital suffering from small-pox; she died from fright when the place was attacked. Mr. Yen, the hospital evangelist, was obliged to flee for his life and hid in the mountains.

"Up till the time we left there had been 4,500 patients treated in the daily out-patient department, and over 100 patients had been, with their friends, resident in the hospital.

Preaching and teaching had been carried on daily amongst these patients. By means of specially printed texts and passages of the Scriptures we have been able to get most of those who have stayed on the premises to learn and carry away with them some seeds of Divine truth.

"One special feature of the work last year was the large number of soldiers who were brought under our care. This was due to the quartering of several thousands of the new Governor's, Yuan-shih-k'ai, foreign drilled and armed troops in our near neighbourhood. It is interesting to note that Yuan-shih-k'ai, then a high-placed military official, is referred to by Lord Charles Beresford in his book, 'The Break-up of China,' after he had inspected his troops, as the most competent man he had met in China.

"The General commanding often visited the hospital, and so also did most of his officers. It was a pleasure to meet with men of their intelligence and liberal views. They showed their appreciation of the work by contributing before I left a substantial sum to the funds of the hospital.

"The Prefect of Ching Chou Fu was treated last spring in his own home for a dangerous illness, and recovered. Unfortunately he was old and suffering from senile decay, and so his influence, when the stress came, could have counted but little for good."

THE CHOU-PING DISTRICT.

From Chou-ping thirteen and a-half counties are worked by our missionaries. The Rev. E. C. Nickalls, who has charge of the work in one half of the following counties—viz., Chou-ping, Chi-tung, Po-hsing, and Ching-chéng, reports:—

"The year just closed is the most eventful and sorrowful in the history of missions in China. In Shantung, though we have much to mourn, our hearts are stirred to gratitude by untold mercies. The year 1899 closed with the calamity of the murder of Mr. Brooks, of the S.P.G. Mission. But we believed that such satisfaction of justice would be demanded that the position of converts and missionaries would be more secure than ever. The Governor, Yü-hsien, was removed; and it will be a lasting shame to the Ambassadors to the Peking Court that they permitted him to be transferred to Tái-yuan-fu, there to find opportunity to work his cruel purpose on the disciples of Christ in the Shansi province. Our new Governor, Yuan-shih-k'ai, from the first was actively hostile to the enemies of foreigners, and it is due to his energy and resourcefulness that we all escaped when the Boxer storm broke upon us.

"The first few months of the year were filled with quiet work. Two sets of classes for leaders of stations were held. Mrs. Nickalls also held classes for women. Itinerant journeys were undertaken by Mrs. Nickalls and myself. Stations were visited, inquirers were examined, and upwards of 150 were baptized. My heaviest work was the superintendence of the building of our new city chapel. A substantial building, seating 300 people, was erected. On our return I hope to send you a picture and further details of it.

"Even the spring was disturbed by Boxer preparations in some parts of our field; but missionaries generally felt secure, relying on the authority and good faith of Yuan-shih-k'ai. He did not fail us in the hour of need. He saved the lives of all foreigners in his province, and protected the lives of Christians as far as he was able. Mission property, scattered as it was in many places, he could not protect by force, as, to oppose the hordes of Boxers who sought to enter from Chih-li, he was obliged to mass his troops on the northern frontiers of his province.

"In Tscou-ping city we felt specially secure, as the local official was very friendly. He had been appointed six years previous at a critical time of the Japanese war, and he then greatly facilitated the escape of our wives and children to Tientsin. Through his whole tenure of office he has been consistently friendly. At the Boxer crisis he succeeded in sending us all away in safety. He took charge of our houses, and sealed the rooms containing our effects. As yet they are all safe, with the exception of loss by pilfering on the part of his underlings appointed caretakers. As the official was almost entirely without military support, he had to bear much humiliation at the hands of Boxers in his own city. On one occasion he was forced to prostrate himself before an ignorant mason who had become a Boxer chief. How he so mixed humility and authority as to save our property and his own life is still a mystery.

"In my own district there has been no murder of Christians. At one time they were greatly scattered, and for weeks many hid themselves in the standing crops. Had the Empress Dowager's purposes been consummated the outbreak would have occurred near the middle of September, when the fields would have been almost bare of cover. But in the precipitation of the movement, at a time when the tall millet was luxuriant, God prepared for His people a covert from the storm. At one time we feared the worst. Many Christians were missing from home for weeks, and it was generally believed by the natives that they were killed. But one by one they emerged from hiding, until the whole number of Christians in my district was complete.

"We feel this great upheaval is an epoch-marking trial. Great changes are imminent for China and the Church in China. We believe the future will be full of progress, but also of anxiety and difficulty.

"What are our needs now? When we began our work here the statistics were as follows:—Field occupied, 7½ counties; staff, 6 missionaries; membership, 1; scholars, 0. To-day they stand—Field occupied, 13½ counties; staff, 7 missionaries; membership, 2,900; scholars, 428.

"Reinforcements is the first need plainly to be read from these figures.

"The next need is a better occupation of our field by distribution of our staff. This has long been a subject of earnest prayer and discussion amongst us. The difficulties of the problem are too many to be set forth in this report.

"Another need is for such efforts as man can put forth for the deepening of spiritual life, and the increase of Christian knowledge in our membership. Little can be done in this, till through increase of staff the burden of routine work is lightened on us all, and perhaps wholly removed from some.

"A great need is special efforts for special classes. Our fifty village school teachers are inefficient through want of teaching and supervision. Our 500 scholars have little done for them by the missionary. Sabbath-schools are practically non-existent. The Sunday scholars are the week-day ones, and the teaching is a little poorer than on other days. There are very few Christian Endeavour Societies. The young of the Church should occupy the mind and heart of one man and absorb all his energies. There are special classes outside the Church to be considered—as students and literary graduates. This brings us to our last great need—evangelistic work by missionaries set apart for this work. Now no one has much time to set an example to natives in this matter. If nearly 3,000 souls are in our Church, there are at least ten millions in the Tsou-ping Mission district outside the Church; the vast majority of whom have never heard the Gospel.

"Thus within the Church and without, from the past and the future, everywhere! we hear voices calling—calling us to a forward movement, urging us to increased effort. For this our personal need is more consecration and increase of Divine power. If regarding the political prospects of China we are sometimes pessimistic, we are full of hope and assurance for the future of the Church. We believe the spirit of Christ is working mightily among the Chinese. What is your attitude to this people? The troubles of the past year have been a text for home as well as for Chinese Churches. We rejoice that in most Christian bodies of the West the fires of righteous anger against China are being transformed into the fires of love and resolve that the nation, in whose midst hundreds of Christ's disciples have witnessed by death, shall be won through the activities of love for the Saviour who died for them also."

The Rev. E. C. Smyth, who, during the furlough of the Rev. E. W. Burt, M.A., has been taking charge of his district, writes :—

“During Mr. Burt's furlough I have had charge of the county of Chang Chiu and the half county of Li Cheng—a very promising field of labour. We have about twenty village stations and one central station at Chang Chiu, where we rent a house and conduct worship regularly every Sunday. It has been my custom to visit Chang Chiu on fixed days twice every month to dispense medicine, preach, and talk with any visitors caring to look in. On Sundays I either preach in Chang Chiu, Chou-ping City Chapel, or one of the village stations. We have a few baptized Christians and a large number of inquirers waiting for baptism. I have purposely lengthened the period of their probation in order to become personally acquainted with them and satisfied with their Christian character. We need to be increasingly careful and watchful in the matter of Church membership, though God forbid that I should keep any out of the Church who ought to be in it !

“In the spring of the year we had leaders' classes. About 40 men—two from each station—came into Chou-ping City for fifteen days' instruction in Scripture, Christian evidences, geography, hygiene, and singing. Our evenings were spent in explaining 'Pilgrim's Progress' with lantern or prayer, and experience meetings. These classes are exceedingly helpful both to the Christians and missionary. We get to know one another better, and can form a better estimate of the condition of our several stations, and through the blessing of God separate with warmer hearts, raised hopes, and fresh resolves. Our whole district is affected for good by this gathering together. Last autumn and spring I visited each station, and was delighted with the steady growth of the work, and then came the sudden call to the coast. During my enforced absence from Chou-ping I have received several letters from my district, and I am glad to say—so far as I know—no lives have been sacrificed. Of course, plenty of looting, extortion, and persecution, but no loss of life. Although away from Chou-ping, I have not been idle. Soon after the taking of the Taku Forts, I offered my services to the English Navy, and was engaged by Admiral Bruce as Assistant-Surgeon on H.M.S. Barfleur. On the completion of my engagement I received a fine testimonial from Admiral Bruce and returned to Chefoo. I then engaged myself in teaching medical students (third year) the subjects of eye disease. I did this to help my friend Dr. Nash, American Presbyterian Mission. The subject was taught in Chinese, so meant work. Since November Dr. Molyneux, the Port doctor, has been very ill, so have been acting as his locum tenens.”

The Rev. W. A. Wills sends the following record of work during the year :—

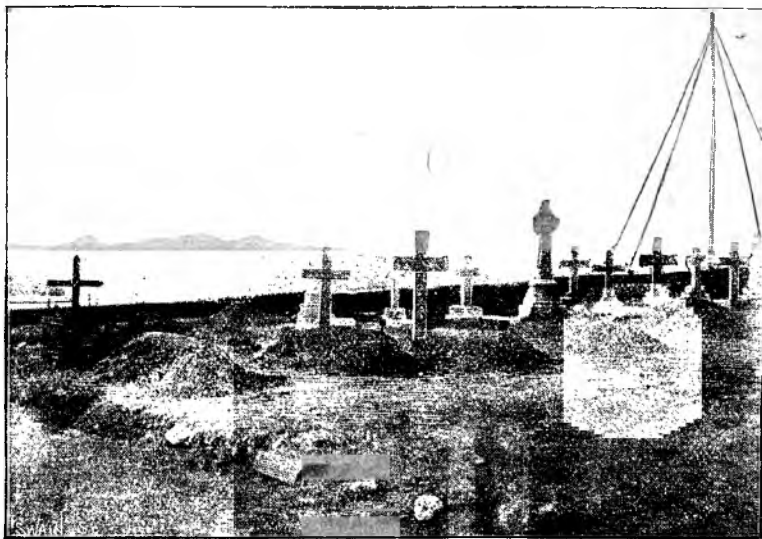

“During my twenty-four years of missionary life in China, I have passed through many strange and varied experiences, but never before have I known a year so full of trial and sadness as this has been to us all.

“The storm gathered darker and heavier day by day, and at last it broke like a thunder-clap over us, so that on the night of June 26th we were all compelled to flee for refuge, leaving behind our property and the work of so many years, and, worse than all, our dear Christians, to the dreadful uncertainty of what might befall them.

“In May I had the joy of baptizing at Po-shan thirteen, and on June 3rd eighteen were baptized at Chih-chuan. Sunday, July 1st, was fixed for baptismal service at Chou-ts'nn. Nearly thirty candidates had already been examined and accepted.

Strange to say, on that day, instead of being at Chou-ts'un baptizing those converts, I was on board a Japanese cargo boat with my colleagues, fleeing to Chefoo for safety. Thus: 'Man proposes, God disposes.' 'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.'

"To each candidate for baptism I endeavoured faithfully to tell that for him and his family to confess Christ might even mean death. Still, they did not hesitate to join the Church to share in the persecution. How it may now fare with them and those associated with them who shall say? It is written: 'Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you. But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings: that when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.' In life, in death, and for evermore, these children of God are in the Lord's safe keeping.

CEMETERY, WEI-HAI-WEI.—(From a Photograph.)

"I cannot help feeling specially anxious for our large number of church leaders, school teachers, assistants, and the personal servants left inland. These poor fellows will be the first to suffer, and we are utterly helpless so far as rendering them any assistance is concerned. There is 'a noble army of martyrs' among the Chinese Christians.

"Some few of my people have found their way to me at Wei-hai-wei. I am doing my best to help them. I dare not desert them at this crisis. As to myself, I have great cause for praise and thankfulness. Although obliged to leave my own home and work, God has provided both a home and work for me here at Liu-kung-tao, Wei-hai-wei. I arrived here as a refugee July 6th, and at once offered my services as a voluntary nurse for the sick and wounded. On the 19th my services were accepted, and I have since then been daily helping at the Royal Navy Hospital.

"Since Sept. 10th I have also had a small Chinese hospital, the Government have provided the building and furniture, and friends have helped me purchase drugs, bandages, &c. I have had 16 in-door patients and attended 1,664 out-door cases—an average of 28 patients daily. These have to be attended during my 'off duty' hours, so with the double medical work my hands are very full. I count it a great joy thus to be able to carry on a medical missionary work among the Chinese, and thus have opportunities of telling them about Jesus the Great Physician for their sin-sick but never-dying souls. I have enjoyed most excellent health, and the work of caring for others has helped me in part to forget my own troubles.

"Not having saved my books or papers, I am unable this year to send the usual full statistics of my work. I give as many as I can, as follows: Total membership of the Churches under my care in Chou-ts'un, Chih-chuan, and Po-shan, end of last year, 225; baptized during the year, 31; making a membership of 256. Of deaths, &c., I am, without the register, unable to report.

"The museum was opened up to the very day we left, and 32,177 visitors had been there during the year. The dispensary was also continued to the last, and patients came for treatment. During the year (i.e. up to June 26th) I saw 840 men, 424 women, and 233 children; total, 1,497. There were 14 cases of suicides treated, 12 of whose lives were saved. Some dozen or more received treatment to help them break off the opium-smoking curse.

"The blood of those who this year in China has been shed seems to me to cry aloud to those in the home land, 'Come over and reap the harvest.' I pray a multitude of Christian stalwarts may hear the appeal, and in glad response say, 'Here am I, send me—send me.'"

The Rev. S. B. Drake reports:—

"We continued our work in the usual manner until the end of May, when, owing to the anti-foreign rising in North China, we were compelled to desist. Up to the time mentioned the country stations were visited, and general gatherings for Christians and classes for both men and women were held.

"In April Mrs. Drake had two sets of women in class for ten days each. I held a class for those men who had been accepted for baptism. Besides this, I visited the principal stations in the county. In Kao Yuan there is one Evangelist, Mr. Jin, and one Bible-woman, Mrs. Chang.

"Hsin Cheng County.—Mr. Wang Fu Lin is the Evangelist of Hsin Cheng, and he has continued to labour faithfully during the past year. Up to May last the work in this county was promising both as regards quantity and quality.

"Baptisms.—In April and May many converts received baptism. I cannot give the exact figures, as the registers were left for safe keeping in the Mission safe. The number was not so large as on previous occasions, though after deducting deaths, secessions, and removals there was an increase.

"The Bible-class for women has been regularly held every Sunday in the city of Chou-ping. Mrs. Tsui, the Bible-woman, made several trips into the country, and did some useful work.

"It gives me deep pain to report the martyrdom of devoted native Christians in my district during the recent Boxer ascendancy. In Chang Shan four, and in Kao Yuan five or six, Christians fell under Boxer knives. Among the Chang Shan martyrs were the elder and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Li. This worthy couple were about seventy-five years old, and were highly respected in their native village. Their conduct agreed with their professions, and among the Christians they shone as lights,

They were earnest in Christian work, hospitable to all, and dedicated their home and substance to the cause of Christ.

"Mr. Li had, for some years, been engaged by the Chang Shan Church as elder, which office he filled to the satisfaction of everyone. The remuneration he received from Church funds was generally divided into three parts. With one part he purchased Christian books for free distribution. The second part he gave to the funds of the Chou-ping Hospital. The third part only he retained for his own use. Mr. Li was a credit both to his country and to the Church. By his death the Church has sustained an irreparable loss.

"It is too early to say what effect the Boxer Movement will have upon missionary work. The Church has certainly sustained damage, but we believe that in the providence of God we as missionaries shall have cause to thank Him for this anti-foreign crusade."

MISSIONARY MEDICAL WORK.

Dr. T. C. Paterson, of Chouping, who superintends the Medical Mission work in that city, reports :—

"Though I have no statistics by me of the Chouping Medical Mission work for the past year, or that part of it during which the work was carried on, the number attending, as compared with previous years, was fully maintained until the troubles began, when in certain districts, especially those to the North and North-west, the people objected to their neighbours visiting the foreigners' hospital, preventing those from returning who had been for advice and who had gone home to arrange for coming back for treatment; while several coming from various distances were threatened on the way should they persist in continuing their journey; and others, again, were told, quite a time before we did leave, that they needn't go further, as all the foreigners had either been killed or driven back into the sea. Some patients who were with us were sent for, and though they themselves objected to being taken away so hurriedly, the messengers said they dare not return without them, so strong was the feeling and so alarming were the reports in their towns and villages regarding the foreigners, with their drugs and doctrines.

"The one thing that impresses me most forcibly in connection with the Medical Mission work is the increasing confidence of the people, and this is shown in the following ways :—Some years ago there were many who would submit to surgical treatment, but on the condition that they should not take 'the foreign sleeping medicine' (chloroform or ether). This objection was sometimes that of the patient, but more frequently that of relatives, the belief being that, while under the one influence of 'the sleeping medicine,' another was exercised by us which induces the person to adopt the foreign doctrine or religion during convalescence or afterwards. This antipathy to anæsthesia is markedly diminishing, and now it is not regarded so much as something 'uncanny.' Again, whereas in the past many from a distance came for treatment, but would not stay on our premises, preferring to rent a room at an inn or adjoining building, we observe a greater readiness to avail themselves of the accommodation we put at their disposal.

"During the spring and early summer our time was much taken up with the erection of a new hospital, and but for the recent upheaval in North China we should by July have entered the new buildings.

"There has been the joy of learning from my colleagues of those who during the previous year or years were patients with us being desirous this year of associating themselves with the Christian Church, and so He who commanded 'Heal the sick, and say unto them the Kingdom of Heaven is come nigh unto you,' blesses His own work notwithstanding all the shortcoming and imperfection associated with it.

"Mr. Yuan, the hospital evangelist, together with Messrs. Ngan and Chu, the assistants, have attended to their duties with exemplary faithfulness and devotion."

THE PROVINCE OF SHANSI.

TAI-YUEN-FU AND HSIN-CHOU.

The following report of the Shansi Mission for the past year, written by the sole survivor, the Rev. Arthur Sowerby (formerly of Tai-Yuen-Fu, and more recently of Hsin Chou), tells the tragic and never-to-be-forgotten story of the terrible massacres in that province :—

"The tragic events of the past year make the present report the saddest ever presented to the Baptist Missionary Society, or perhaps any Missionary Society. Yet are there rays of glory shining through the dark and awful cloud, and from our smitten hearts we praise God for the victorious faith of so many that has won for them through death the deathless crown of the martyrs.

"In February of 1900 the Annual Conference of Chinese Christians took place as usual at Tai-Yuen-Fu. It was a time of much spiritual blessing. Many missionaries were there, and Miss Renaut and Mr. Ennals accompanied me from Hsin Chou. The Rev. G. B. Farthing took a leading part in the meetings, giving an admirable survey of the prophetic teaching of the Scriptures. The Rev. J. I. Underwood conducted one of the early morning prayer-meetings, when he delivered an address full of much spiritual power. At this Conference it was a great joy to meet with many earnest Christians from the out-stations connected with our Tai-Yuen-Fu Church; brethren from Chiao Ch'eng and Liu Pu, from Shih Tieh, Hsiao Tien Tzu, and P'ing T'ou. At every place the evangelistic work was being carried on with vigour, while the opium refuges and the schools were in full swing. Mr. Farthing had rented premises next door to those occupied by our Mission in Tai-Yuen-Fu for Miss Foord's work amongst the women; but our sister's severe illness during the winter necessitated her speedy return to England, much to her own disappointment and that of all her fellow-workers. Miss Foord had done so well at the language, and promised to render such useful service, that her breakdown in health was felt to be a keen blow.

"Mr. Underwood had by this time passed his final examinations very satisfactorily, and Mr. Farthing was quite bappy in leaving the work in his hands while he proceeded to the coast to meet Mrs. Farthing and the three children who were on their way from England to China.

"Shortly before the Conference I spent some days in visiting the three out-stations to the north of Hsin Chou, namely, Kuo Hsien, Tai Chou, and Fan Shih. At each of these places I was much encouraged by the numbers that met for worship, and by their evident sincerity. At Fan Shih the enquirers had multiplied rapidly, and I had a delightful service, specially with the women. In all other respects the work at Hsin Chou was exceedingly prosperous.

"Mr. Dixon had been busy during the past months in obtaining material, drawing plans, and commencing the erection of the new Mission premises at Hsin-Chou. This work has gone on famously—beyond our expectations. Some of the buildings were already built, wells had been dug, and much of the timber had been prepared for the larger houses. Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. McCurrach were occupied with meetings for the women. Mrs. Dixon had also a girls' school, under her special supervision. Mr. McCurrach had passed his final examination well, which was all the more creditable as both he and his wife had gone through dangerous illnesses during the year. Mr. and Mrs. McCurrach were also rendering valuable help in the Sunday-school. At the request of my colleagues I left Shansi at the end of February, in order to accompany Miss Foord on the journey to England, as Dr. Arnold Lovitt felt her health demanded the care of someone acquainted with some knowledge of medicine. At both stations, then, Tai-Yuen-Fu and Hsin Chou, all was peaceful and prosperous at the commencement of the spring, and the missionaries continued happily in their work for a few weeks longer. About this period Mr. McCurrach writes under date April 20th :—'After taking the oral (examination) I visited all the Mission stations between Tai Yuen and Huo Chou. When I returned home Mrs. Simpson was still here, so I suggested a visit north, to which all agreed. Accordingly Mr. Ennals, Mr. Simpson, my wife and I all started for Fan Shih. We had a splendid time. I let myself go and preach everywhere. Mr. Ennals took every opportunity of using his knowledge (of Chinese) and selling books. Mrs. Simpson and my wife had most successful meetings with the women. My wife made her maiden speech in Chinese at Fan Shih. We took the baby organ with us, so that when we were not eating, sleeping, or preaching, we were teaching the people hymns. It was a very busy but a most helpful and profitable time, both to natives and foreigners.' That is the last word we have of the Shansi Mission before the sudden blow fell that has almost wiped it out of existence.

"During the summer months, while our hearts were torn with grief and anxiety at home, the most fearful crimes were being enacted in Shansi. Mr. and Mrs. Farthing and their party had reached Tai-Yuen-Fu in safety in May, being preceded a few weeks by the Rev. S. F. and Mrs. Whitehouse, the latest and most welcome additions to our Mission staff. From this time rumours of trouble must have become rife in Shansi, and the anxiety of our friends would have been increased by the notorious character of Yü Hsien, the newly-appointed Governor. Early in June letters from the Rev. B. Bagnall, who was subsequently murdered, reached Tai-Yuen-Fu, giving account of the disturbances there; but the missionaries remained unmolested until a secret edict from the Empress, ordering their destruction, had been received by the Governor. A friendly telegraph clerk gave Mr. Farthing word of this on June 21st (or 22nd), and he immediately communicated with Mr. Dixon, his letter containing the noble words for which now we are so thankful, 'If such be God's will, I can even rejoice to die.' A week later, June 27th, the cruel Governor made this edict known to the people, with the result that the Boxers and the ruffraff of the city wrecked the premises of the Schofield Memorial Hospital, the property of Dr. and Mrs. Edwards. On this occasion our loved and honoured friend, Miss Edith Coombs, was slain, the other missionaries finding refuge in the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Farthing. Here they remained for two days in a state of siege, but on the third day (June 30th), on the specious and false promises of Yü Hsien, they were induced to surrender themselves into his hands. For nine days they were imprisoned, while Mr. and Mrs. Pigott and the missionaries at the neighbouring station of Shou Yang were arrested and brought into the city. Then on July 9th they were all conveyed to the Governor's Yamen, stripped to the waist, and beheaded. From the latest news it seems that torture was inflicted, although undoubtedly the Governor did some of the fiendish work with his own hands, "At Hsin Chou the brethren and sisters who were there were enabled, owing to the warning contained in Mr. Farthing's letter, to flee to the hills. They left Hsin Chou soon after sunrise on July 9th, and for a time obtained shelter at Liu Chia Shan, with a Christian man, An Wan Niu, a most loving and faithful friend. The place of their flight could not be long concealed, and on July 21st the Boxers came to seize them, but, as the missionaries were armed, were forced to retire. A few days later (July 25th) the Hsin Chou magistrate sent an officer and a troop of soldiers, who, by means of the false promise of an escort, secured the whole party. The missionaries, owing to lack of supplies, were compelled to surrender. Our beloved friends were imprisoned in a loathsome gaol for a fortnight, being confined in one room, where were also some condemned criminals. On August 9th the release came. They were on that day taken in carts to the City Gate, where the whole party were brutally murdered by a band of Boxers.

"A cruel persecution of the Chinese Christians followed the massacre of the European missionaries. Many in Tai-Yuen-Fu and district were slain by the sword, boldly refusing to recant. At Hsin Chou some were burnt alive, others were beheaded, and one man, Ho Ts'un Kuei, was beaten to death with thirteen hundred blows. Among those who perished were Wu, the shop evangelist in Tai-Yuen-Fu, dear old Hu Tung Teh, of Shih T'ieh, and others with him, Chang Lao Ho Ts'un I, evangelists of the Hsin Chou Church, and many of our leading men, and most faithful Christians. Ho Ts'un Kuei, who was beaten to death, was our earliest convert at Hsin Chow, a man of very loving spirit and a most faithful servant of Christ. At all the out-stations connected with the Hsin Chou work the losses have been very heavy, also at Tai-Yuen-Fu, and the district to the east of the city; but in the important centre of Chiao Ch'eng, most, if not all the Christians, seemed to have escaped with their lives.

"Thus have our beloved friends in Shansi all perished, and many of their dear converts with them; but who can measure the greatness of their victory or the blessings that their deaths have purchased for the Church? Their removal leaves the sense of irreparable loss, but their memories will never die. They will ever retain the strongest place in our affections, while, with bowed heads and bleeding hearts, we humbly thank God for the beauty of their lives, for their faithful and successful service, and for the strength given them to endure to the uttermost for Christ's sake. Their names will hold the foremost place of honour in the records of the Chinese Church, and in the days to come the memory of their endurance, their fidelity, and their suffering will have a stimulating and purifying power over the hearts of the Christians that cannot fail to quicken them in all the energies of patient faith and consecrated love. 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; they rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.'

"THE TIME TO COME

"For the future, what is there of hope? In the first place we have a few tried and valued helpers left to us. Chao, the brave Shantung evangelist, still lives; so does Tsui, our Ting Hsiang evangelist, and also Liu, Mr. Farthing's trustworthy assistant at Tai-Yuen-Fu. These men will be all the stronger and more devoted in their Christian life for the great fire of affliction through which they have passed. Then there is a remnant of the Church in Shansi left, and their sufferings will have deepened their attachment to Christ. Further, the death of our friends has been deplored by many, and we may hope that when the Gospel is once more proclaimed the consciences of large numbers will be smitten, and their hearts deeply touched.

What the Christian religion truly is, and what the discipleship of Christ involves, has now been made abundantly clear. We shall not be troubled with self-seekers for many years to come.

"Finally, the attack on the foreigner has signally failed, and only resulted in humiliating disaster for those who organised it. Some of the leading men have been executed, others are condemned to severe punishment. The Boxer villages have been burnt, and many thousands of these fanatics have been slain. The atrocities committed by the mandarins who organised the movement upon many of their own countrymen who were not Christians will have awakened undying resentment in many hearts, while the injuries inflicted upon trade are apparent to all. We may well hope that the Chinese rulers and people alike will be convinced of their folly and may entirely change their policy. It would not be surprising if in a little while all the help that foreigners can give will be eagerly welcomed, and when once mutual confidence is restored missionaries will be able to render invaluable assistance to the Chinese. We may hope that many of the people will be ashamed of their cruel and murderous folly, and will realise that the missionaries are, after all, their most disinterested and most useful friends. On the rising tide of public opinion we shall advance, and there will come the most abundant opportunity for the fullest and freest proclamation of the Gospel of Christ. The patience, the forgiveness, the love of Christ and of His servants will be more apparent, and in the charity which beareth all things we shall conquer.

"My most valued and dear colleague in the past, our esteemed brother the Rev. J. J. Turner, has volunteered to return to China, and a band will speedily be formed of those who are prepared to go to the front again. For a time it will be heart-breaking work, as we once more find ourselves where these dreadful tragedies have occurred. There will be difficulties, hardships, and dangers, but the memory of the sufferings of our late dear friends will help us to patient endurance and courage. The Lord of Hosts will be with us, the God of Jacob will be our refuge, and we shall be upborne by the increasing and earnest prayers and the loving sympathy of the Church at home."

THE PROVINCE OF SHENSI.

The Rev. Evan Morgan, at present in England on furlough, has written the following report of the work in the province of Shensi:—

"Here in peaceful and prosperous England it is no difficult task to review the work partly done, and the fair promise of things the little church in Shensi hoped to complete in the past and eventful year of 1900. A year ago we were in Shensi, little dreaming of coming events which were to break up institutions and churches, and scatter the workers, native and foreign, in every direction; to-day in England, looking back in astonishment on the great and terrible things that have taken place in that distant and mystic land of China. When last report was written Mr. Shorrocks was leaving for Shanghai, and had not long returned with Mrs. Shorrocks and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan before the disturbances began which necessitated a return journey to Shanghai. Owing to an accident to our little girl my wife also unfortunately had to leave early in the year for England. With the absence of so many good workers the work could not but suffer. It was an impossibility to efficiently superintend each station.

"Early in 1899 clouds no bigger than a man's hand began to appear on the horizon. These shadows occasioned no little anxiety and gloom. They forebode trouble and sorrow. The continued absence of rain filled the people with the dread of famine; the fables and rumours wildly circulated by the people, attributing the drought to the presence of the foreigner and existence of the Christian Church, produced much excitement. The 'Elder Brother Society' sharpened its swords, and the Boxers were beginning to be felt. However, we were not hindered in our work, which in its various departments, continued as usual. Sunday services were held; the schools were carried on, in spite of the fact that a few families withdrew their children from some of the elementary schools from fear. Without entering into details of the work in any department or district, let me state a few outstanding facts that were impressed on my mind.

"First and foremost I am inclined to mention the colporteurs' work. Owing to the drought many men were willing to go out for the British and Foreign Bible Society. There were about twenty church members thus employed. They worked many districts, and penetrated all towns and many large villages in about ten counties. Every fair was visited, and preaching done at many theatrical gatherings. Many thousand portions of Scripture were disposed of. Much preaching of the Gospel was done, and many were enlightened and interested in the truth. Colporteur Sun reports that one day after conversing with a man, he was invited to his home. The host called his neighbours together and told them that if the colporteur's words were true then the idols must go, and sooner the better. This is only a sample of a common experience. Strange that in the year which witnessed the most determined attempt to exterminate a foreign religion, we should also have seen a great demand for Scriptures and a spirit of enquiry.

"Early in the year the Evangelistic Association rented a house in Yen-an Fu for evangelistic purposes. This town is eight days' journey north of San Yuan. In the mountains near are many mineral oil springs. In the new China this will be a busy centre. The Church proposed to have a resident evangelist there for preaching and opium work. The expenses of house-rent, wages, &c., they hoped to cover by contributions and profits from the sale of opium medicine. Much may be hoped from a little community of weak churches which has the spirit of venture and spiritual enterprise in this marked degree.

"The third point I would mention is the success of our efforts in Yao Chou and Tung Kuan to help applicants to be cured of opium. We were looking forward to a great development of work on this line. But for the present this is not to be. We must be grateful for what has been done, and await better times. The last letter received from the evangelist there speaks highly of the fidelity of the converts in the trying days that followed.

"Soon after the return of the friends from England and Shanghai we had a conference, when plans of future work were decided upon. These were not to be carried out! The storm burst over China. Schools were dispersed and foreigners fled. Later on the Church was scattered by the great famine. Thus the work of years was destroyed in a few days. Church and schools on which much thought and no little devotion had been spent have been swept before the storm. As far as we can see Nature has not aided grace in the work of redemption.

"We may meet again. We hope we shall soon. But when we do many faces will be absent. Many spiritual wounds will be manifest. The present trial will help many; it will assuredly hinder others. When we meet again we shall find much usefulness crippled and many characters weakened. But in looking at the remnant may we there see the nucleus of a Church which in the hands of God will become a great power in desolate Shensi. May no one withhold his sympathy in this hour of need, remembering that Where pity is there dwells the peace of God.' ”

The Rev. A. G. Shorrock, B.A., supplies the following report as to the experiences of the past year in Shensi :—

“The record of this year's experiences seems to indicate retrogression and defeat. Mission work has received a serious set-back. We are driven from our stations, and the converts are scattered. Famine is raging terribly. What will be the end of it all? We need to look up and remember that God reigns. After all, no strange thing has happened unto us. The past history of the Christian Church forbids despair, or even discouragement. It is through tribulation that the Church has been purified and enabled to give to the world her most effective witness. Precious lives have not been laid down in vain. They will not abide alone, but will bear much fruit in calling forth prayer and consecration in multitudes of others.

“These things remind us that opposition is to be expected still in the proclamation of Christ's truth. Well for us missionaries and the whole Church if we are driven to examine more closely into, and rely more firmly upon, our resources in Christ. For though the causes of this movement are most complete, and have largely to do with political and commercial ambitions of foreign Powers, yet the religious factor in the disturbances must not be ignored. Natural antagonism to Christianity, misconceptions of its Founder and His teaching, and fear of its aggressive and subversive power, have tended to deepen anti-foreign feeling. On the other hand, it must be maintained that missionaries have broken down strong prejudices against foreigners in multitudes of cases by their justice and benevolence and message of goodwill. The policy of Roman Catholicism is responsible for intensifying anti-foreign hatred. Officials and people have been angered by its arrogant assumptions, by its demand for a political status, by unjust interference in law-suits, by the claiming of excessive indemnities, and by the secrecy of its methods. This is a serious indictment, but it can be amply sustained. In several cases during the late troubles the lives of Protestant missionaries were spared when they proved they were not Roman Catholics. But the reaping will be according to the sowing. The policy of the Roman Catholic Church has little to commend it to the seeker after truth, and its converts are usually animated by unworthy motives.

“The work of our Mission was carried on as usual up to the middle of June. During my absence at the coast in the early part of the year a double portion of the work fell on Mr. Morgan, and to his cheerful and efficient help I am much indebted. Work was continued in and around three large city centres, including the provincial capital Hsi-au-fu (or Si-ngan-fu), where the Chinese Court has now taken refuge. This great city, with its vast population, offers unlimited opportunities of Christian service, and calls for whole-hearted consecrated effort. Work done in this centre will affect the whole province. Daily preaching was systematically carried on by myself and two evangelists, and occasional voluntary helpers. We opened a house for opium-smoking patients, and were able to effect a cure in a large number of cases. As the patients usually stay half a month, and daily attend morning and evening exposition of Scripture and prayer, they become acquainted with Gospel facts, and in some cases become inquirers and Christians, while in all they remain our friends. Dr. Smith gave valuable help in this work. On the welcome return of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan we planned for the continuous occupation of this city and extended operations therein, and although these plans are in abeyance at present, we look forward with confidence to a vigorous resumption of work there in the near future.

"The native church in Shensi continued the support of their pastor in spite of a desperately poor spring harvest. It was almost a surprise to me that they were able to do it, for their experience has been one of 'pain and poverty and want.'

"The Evangelistic Association which visibly grew in spiritual tone and power appointed an evangelist of their own, and out of their deep poverty gave him sufficient for six months' support. He was sent to a city, six days' journey north, and was there when the outbreaks occurred. A voluntary band of workers from the students in our school took up evangelistic work in a town six miles away. They went regularly every Sunday in bands of four, took up their position in some prominent place, and sang and preached most of the day.

"The girls' school has continued to be a spiritual, mental, and physical blessing to Chinese girls. Some of them have been trained sufficiently to become teachers in small day schools in the surrounding villages. Others, if spared, will become efficient Bible-women, while all, we trust, will be a power for good in their own houses and villages. Mrs. Morgan left for home early in the year, and the entire superintendence of the school devolved for a time on Miss Beckingsale, who rendered invaluable service. The girls are now scattered and are passing through a time of terrible trial. The special funds contributed to the school will be needed more than ever. The school buildings, if not destroyed, will have fallen into disrepair. The teachers and girls are utterly penniless, and money grants are being sent up to Shensi to help them over their great distress.

"Our troubles in Shensi began in June. There had been little or no sign of impending disturbance. The general policy of the Empress-Dowager had been for some time strongly anti-progressive. All over China she had been replacing high Chinese officials by men of her own race—i.e., Manchus, who were in many cases bigoted and ignorant. But in our province a man had been appointed as Acting-Governor—i.e., head of the whole province, governing nearly ten millions of people—who was exceptionally well-informed and most friendly to missionaries. His appointment was made at a most providential time. The previous Governor might have been influenced to carry out the commands of the Empress-Dowager, which were to put to death all foreigners. But the new Governor, Tuan Fang, actually imperilled his own life to protect the foreign missionaries. The Province of Shensi is extremely difficult of access from the south, and as the northern and eastern roads were held by 'Boxers' we could only go southward. But through the efficient and trusty men appointed as our escort by the Governor we were able to make our way safely, though through many perils, to the coast. It is impossible to say how much we are indebted to Governor Tuan. We can only pray that God may richly reward him, for owing to his vigorous action more than one hundred missionaries were enabled to get safely away from the north-west.

"Before we left our station, on July 6th, some of the wealthier residents offered us a friendly refuge in their own homes, but as it seemed wrong to involve them in trouble we declined, with grateful thanks, their generous and kindly offer. One of these men had just purchased a printing-press for the purpose of publishing a periodical for the enlightenment of his countrymen. Though not professedly Christian, he had asked us to write articles—on distinctively Christian topics, if we wished—for his paper.

"The parting with the Christians was most painful. But it seemed best for us all, in view of the rapidly spreading disturbances, that we should all scatter. We could only commit them to the care of the Great Shepherd of the sheep, and exhort them to steadfast reliance on the unchanging, ever-present Lord. With prayers and tears we parted. We have since heard that our people have been mercifully spared the cruelties of persecution, but that the famine is even more terrible than was feared. In some of its features it is worse than the great famine of 1878. Some of our people have suffered terribly already. One family, comprising four generations, and numbering nearly twenty members, two of whom have served the mission with great fidelity, sold everything they could and went northward, seeking a place of refuge. Their resources were soon exhausted, and they came back. The district magistrate gave them generous help, but with so many mouths to feed supplies soon failed again, and they are in greatest destitution. I am hoping that help sent will reach them in time.

"This is just one example of hundreds of other families in the same sad plight. Many have pulled down their houses and sold the woodwork to buy food, and are now going about begging. This resource cannot last long, for the district is getting poorer and poorer. It will be autumn at soonest before a harvest can be gathered, and already food is nearly ten times the ordinary price.

"What the conditions of futura work will be it is quite impossible to say. The need for prayer and persistent waiting upon God was never greater than now. The future will bring wider opportunities of service than ever before. Let us prepare in Christ's name and strength to meet them."

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE FOR CHINA.

THE REV. TIMOTHY RICHARD, D.D., OF SHANGHAI.

Our readers are well aware that during many years past the Rev. Timothy Richard has done a noble and far-reaching work in connection with "The Society for the Diffusion of Christian Knowledge Among the Chinese."

"The works published by this organisation have been remarkably operative amongst the literati. In China to-day there are hundreds, if not thousands, of officials who, for the first time in their lives, have read of Jesus Christ, and many of whom have ultimately been brought to accept Him as their Saviour by the publications of this society.

"The publications of this society have had an immense influence in bringing about the great Reform movement which has so strangely stirred the mind of young and progressive China, and which appears to be so very distinctly in favour of the religion of Jesus Christ."

Reporting on the special work of the Diffusion Society, in view of the present crisis in China, the Rev. Timothy Richard writes:—

"The highest moral power known in the world is that of the Christian religion. By communion with God, by partaking of the mind which was in Christ Jesus our Lord, and by the constant indwelling of the Spirit of God, men whose hearts were hard as stone and cruel as death are having them changed into hearts of flesh, with the love of God shed abroad in them, in tender compassion for the sufferings of all men in all lands. This is the story of the ages, and it is a story repeated to-day in China as in all lands. It is a new birth, a new life, and a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth, which are brought in by Jesus Christ wherever He is received in all His fulness. It is more wonderful than all the other wonderful forces of God, for it transmutes mortal men into the immortal children of God! China requires the application of this cure for the sin of her soul.

"It is in this way the Diffusion Society seeks to contribute its mite to make the superhuman bear on the present universal crisis; for it seems clear that it is only as men imbibe the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ, who came to the world not for His own gain, but to save us from all blind and selfish passions, will the 'golden age'—of eternal peace and goodwill among men—be brought to pass. On following Him, more than anything else, depend the life and peace of all the world.

"We in our literature point out these fundamental principles of regeneration and progress in the hope of seeing a reformed and regenerated China which may yet prove one of the greatest forces for good in the world."

As to the outlook for the future, Mr. Richard, like all his missionary colleagues on the field, is full of abounding hope. He writes:—

"We must not forget that it is not the best or even the average side of Chinese character which has been exhibited during the past year, but the very worst side, and that the best people of China to-day mourn over what has been done with unspeakable shame and horror. We must not forget, either, that the best side of Chinese character nearly triumphed two years ago. There still remains in China the noblest qualities longing to be set at liberty to work for the regeneration of the land and for the good of all the world. It now needs only firmness on the part of the Allies and Count von Waldersee to secure liberty for the Reformers. The best of these Reformers have pledged themselves and have already secured the sanction of the Emperor to obtain the best foreign advisers that can be found. With that, all the machinery for the progress of China in all departments will at once be set in motion, and it will not be long ere the world will ring once more with the glory of China instead of the shame that has been tolled forth in all lands this year.

"Believing, as we do, in this and in the providence of God, which overrules all things, even massacres and wars, for the promotion of the highest interests of mankind, we must take courage and continue our work of enlightenment with greater vigour than ever, as the dawn of New China is at hand. We have already seen some bright rays of the coming day startling the sleeping empire. If our fathers before the Renaissance in Europe had faith to work on in the dark night, how much more ought we in China to have a strong faith now that the watchmen have repeatedly cried, 'The dawn cometh, the day is breaking!'"

In all his literary labours, Mr. Richard has been assisted and inspired by his singularly gifted and devoted wife. During the past year Mrs. Richard has herself translated into Chinese seven volumes of short Christian biographies from the earliest times until now, including in all one hundred and fifty lives.

PALESTINE.

Missionaries.—The REV. YOUHANNAH EL KAREY and MRS. EL KAREY, Chief Station.—NABLOUS.

Sub-Stations.—SAMARIA, BEIT-MREEN, RAFIDIA, and NUS JEBEEN.

Early in last year the Committee had before them a very interesting report on the Palestine Mission, drawn up by their colleague the Rev. J. W. Ewing, M.A., B.D., of Peckham, who, in connection with his tour in the East, and in compliance with the earnest request of the Committee, visited Nablous and the various out-stations connected with the Palestine Mission.

In concluding his report Mr. Ewing writes :—

"In reviewing the operations of our Palestine Mission I feel that a good work is going on. The Gospel is being preached in several places, and children are being trained in Christian principle. If but little progress is being made among Mohammedans, this is true of all missions throughout the Turkish empire. The government of the Sultan, while willing that Christian sects should proselytise from one another, thwarts every effort to convert Moslems. Indeed the proselytising of a Moslem is a crime punishable by death ; and although the Porte would scarcely dare to inflict the extreme penalty upon a missionary supported by an English society, it does all it can to make his work abortive. For example, opposite Mr. El Karey's house a police-station has been established, from which every person entering or leaving the house is watched. Thus an atmosphere of suspicion is generated about the missionary's life, and the people are frightened from resorting to him.

"In spite of all this, the Christian flag is being upheld, the believing community is being fostered, a few members of the Greek and Latin Churches are being drawn to the clearer light of the Reformed Faith, and influences are being sent forth which are not without their effect even in dispelling Moslem prejudice and preparing for the wider acceptance of Christ.

"Finally, I would respectfully urge upon the Committee that neither the difficulties of the work nor the comparative slowness of its progress should lead them to consider the possibility of its abandonment. I believe that our Palestine Mission represents an opportunity, and an opportunity which will become yet fuller and richer. Nablous has a population of 24,000, and is surrounded by villages easily accessible. For many years its importance has grown, until now it has resumed the prominence it once possessed as the ancient Shechem. It is, indeed, the natural centre of Palestine, a fact which the Turks have recognised by making it the seat of the government of the province, and modern civilisation has scaled in constituting it 'the connecting link of the telegraphic systems of the east and west of Jordan.' From Nablous a vigorous propaganda might make itself felt throughout the Holy Land."

The statistics of the Mission, as supplied by Mr. El Karey, are as follows :—6 day-school teachers, with 75 children in regular attendance ; 5 Sunday-school teachers, and 90 scholars. There have been 2 baptisms during the past year, and the membership now stands at 112.

Both Mr. and Mrs. El Karey have been bitterly persecuted during the past year by the Turkish Authorities, these being bigoted Moslems.

For allowing Mrs. El Karey to conduct a mothers' meeting, at which a few Moslem women attended, Mr. El Karey was brought before the Moslem Judge, who sentenced him to be burnt alive, and he only escaped by the Secretary in England securing the intervention of the British Foreign Office.

The record of the Congo Mission for the past year is one of remarkable progress. The report from Wathen gives a most encouraging account of the aggressive evangelistic efforts of the native Christian Church; while from all the other stations on the Upper, as well as the Lower River, the accounts indicate gratifying growth.

The losses by death and other causes have, however, been very severe during the year just closed.

The names of Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Kirkland, Mr. Beedham, and Mr. Jeffery will long live in the grateful remembrance of the peoples of the Congo land, for whose highest good they gladly consecrated their lives and labours.

The telegraphic announcement of a further heavy loss reaches the Committee just as these pages are passing through the press. The message reads : "J. L. ROGER died at Stanley Pool on February 25th."

This sad intelligence was despatched from Matadi by the Rev. H. Ross Phillips, being sent on from Matadi to the telegraph office at Teneriffe by mail steamer.

Only so recently as December 28th last Mr. and Mrs. Roger left England on their return to the Congo, in re-invigorated health, and in the joyful anticipation of a long term of further service at Stanley Pool. Mr. Roger, writing to the Secretary, saying :—

"I go back to the Congo with my dear wife thankfully and joyfully. My heart is in Congo work, and my earnest prayer is that we both may be permitted to labour there for the dear Master for many years to come."

"God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform."

What we know not now, we shall know hereafter. "Well done good and faithful servant."

While Heaven the richer grows."

May the God of all consolation sustain and comfort the sorely bereaved widow and the two orphaned boys.

THE LOWER CONGO RIVER.

MATADI STATION.

The Rev. Lawson Forfeitt, the Secretary of the Congo Mission, writes from the new base station at Matadi :—

"Among the most important events in connection with the Congo Mission during the past year has been the progress made in founding the new Comber Memorial Station, at Kibokolo, in the populous Zombo district, by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Pinnock. This is a great pioneer movement, and I hear from Mr. Lewis of promising fields beyond their present location, which he hopes in time to thoroughly explore. The Zombo staff has been strengthened by the welcome addition of Mr. Hooper, of Bristol College, in August last. In order to open up and establish direct transport between Matadi and Zombo, Mr. Pinnock came down and personally conducted the caravan which came to fetch Mr. Hooper, from the coast.

"From many of the Congo districts encouraging reports come of successful work and increased blessing during the past year, and we are looking hopefully and prayerfully for large results during the coming year—the first year of the new century. May God grant it, for His own glory.

“Two of our brethren have been called to their rest and reward during the year—Mr. Beedham, my own colleague here at Matadi, and Mr. Jeffery, in England, after a short period of service on the Upper Congo. It is a comfort to know that new brethren have come forward to fill the vacant places, in Mr. Kempton for the Upper River, and Mr. Jennings for Matadi.

“The general health of our missionaries this year, both on the Upper and Lower river, has been on the whole better than usual, for which we devoutly thank God. On December 31st there were forty-two workers on the field, while thirteen were away on furlough. Among the latter is our esteemed Chairman of the Congo Executive Committee, Mr. Grenfell, who, with Mrs. Grenfell, left for England in April. When I told the Director of the Congo Railway Company of Mr. Grenfell's intended journey from Stanley Pool, he generously gave free passes to Mr. and Mrs. Grenfell, and showed them every consideration and courtesy, thus testifying in a practical way to the respect and esteem in which Mr. Grenfell is held.

“In the month of March I went to St. Paul de Loanda, where I had a very satisfactory interview with the Portuguese Governor-General concerning the title-deeds of our Mission property at San Salvador, and the application for the new concession at Kibokolo, Zombo. Mr. A. Nightingale, the British Consul at Loanda, was extremely kind, and rendered me great assistance in the matter.

“Soon after the death of our brother Beedham, in June, Mrs. Beedham returned to England.

“In September Mrs. Forfeitt and I took up our residence at our new site at Matadi, and the work of building and laying out the place has gone on as rapidly as circumstances would permit. We have now an excellent position on the river, very suitable for the work of the base station, and we hope soon to have the place in full working order. It is worthy of record that in the work of building several young men from San Salvador, who were trained by Mr. Lewis when the new chapel was built there, are rendering good service as masons, carpenters, &c. They have worked with intelligence and diligence, and their conduct and bearing reflect credit upon the church at San Salvador.

“I must here acknowledge the kindness of our friend, Mr. Harvey, of the A.B.M.U., in allowing us to rent their premises in Matadi while the question of our future base station was under consideration.

“With the New Year we take over the San Salvador and Zombo transport from our friends of the S.M.S., who have so kindly undertaken this work for us since we had our temporary base station at Tumba.

“In the town itself, as apart from the new base station, transport, and secretariat, the work has gone forward during the past year with tokens of blessing and encouragement. It has suffered much through the death of Mr. Beedham, Mr. Domenjoz (C.B.M.), and several leading members of the congregation. The attendances have been very good on Sundays, and many have sought help and counsel from time to time during the week. Much more could be done if there were more missionaries here, or if we ourselves were free to devote more time to the work amongst the townspeople, both natives and those from the coast. There are now over 4,000 coloured people in the town and 150 whites, while the numerous steamers coming to the port add considerably to the population within our reach and influence. Sometimes we have four large ocean steamers discharging cargo at the same time.

"The chapel erected by the coast people has been considerably enlarged and improved, and new seats have been ordered from England. None of the money for these improvements comes out of the Mission funds, but has been provided by the ordinary collections, and a special fund which has been well supported by the people themselves. Our Consul and old friend, Mr. R. Casement, was present at a recent service, and generously subscribed £5 towards the Enlargement Fund; while Mr. A. J. Underwood, chief agent of the firm of Hatton & Cookson, and recently Acting Vice-Consul, kindly handed over to the fund the sum of 104 francs (£1 3s. 2d.), which had been placed with him to be used, at his discretion, for a missionary object. A new departure has been inaugurated during the year. The Congo services on Sunday mornings are now held in the chapel, which is kindly lent by the coast people. This service has been in the charge of Mr. Sjöholm, of the S.M.S. There are many young men working in the town who have come from the districts inland, where there are mission stations, such as Wathen and San Salvador (B.M.S.), Palabala, Banza, Manteke, and Lukunga (A.B.M.U.), and the several stations of the Swedish Mission and the Christian Missionary Alliance. These need all the help they can receive in a place like Matadi, where temptations are so great. The same may be said of the many young men from the English Colonies on the coast; and the English service is highly appreciated. Since the death of Mr. Domenjoz (C.B.M.) Mr. Wilkes, who has taken his place, has shared in this work, and his presence and help are greatly valued by all. I was very pleased to receive, some time ago, from a Christian coast man working for the railway company about sixty or seventy miles up the line, an application for some Congo school books, as he wished to commence a school for Congo boys who worked with him and his companions at his station. This same friend regularly conducts services in English at his post, where there is no missionary within reach. These facts are very gratifying and encouraging.

"We receive frequent requests for Bibles and Testaments (English and French), Sankey's Hymn Books, &c., and also for Congo New Testaments, school books and other translations, all of which are paid for by the applicants. We have also a lending library in connection with the work among the coast people.

"School work has unfortunately been considerably interrupted, owing to the changes and special circumstances of the year, but as soon as the alterations in the building are completed Mrs. Forfeitt hopes to hold the school, both for the native and coast children, in the chapel.

"Medical work has greatly increased, and we have had numerous patients during the year.

"The great Sunday market used to be the only market of the week, as being the time when most of the people were free to exchange their rations or buy with money the native produce brought in by the natives from the towns around. A few months ago Mr. Harvey and I had an interview with the Congo State District Commissioner, and represented to him that there were many Christians in the towns and villages round Matadi, and they could not bring their produce and engage in trade on Sundays; and also there were many Christians in Matadi who were debarred from getting the much-desired native food for the same reason. At our suggestion the Commissioner readily agreed to establish an extra market on Thursdays, and it is being well supported, and is a great boon to many."

SAN SALVADOR STATION.

The Rev. R. H. Carson Graham sends the following report from San Salvador for the past year :—

"I must begin with a word of apology and explanation concerning the statistics furnished with the last report, which gave no account of the teachers and scholars belonging to several of our voluntary schools, nor did it include three of our out-stations where faithful work has been, and is still being, carried on by unpaid helpers. The statistical table herewith includes these items, and we have made it as complete as possible, although there are still a few smaller voluntary schools carried on spasmodically by non-church members, of which we do not send returns. Nevertheless, we have reason to know that even such work may bear fruit.

"We thought the death-rate for 1899 terribly high, but 1900 has been still worse, no less than twenty church members having been transferred from the sorrow and turmoil of earth to 'the rest that remaineth' for 'the people of God.' Several of these gave promise of becoming useful teachers and evangelists, and we felt that they could ill be spared by our struggling church, but we know that the work as well as the workers shall still have the care of Him who is ever 'mindful of His own.'

"On May 15th the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Wooding and all of us were gladdened by the arrival of a little white stranger—Roger Keith Wooding. He was only lent for a little while, however, for 'God took him' on July 7th; and now a tiny grave, between that of Mrs. T. J. Comber and Mr. A. Cowe, reminds our people of what it costs to bring the Gospel to them.

"The regular services, Bible classes, Y.P.S.C.E., Sunday schools, day schools, industrial training, medical work, &c., have been kept up as usual. In regard to medical statistics, I should say that the numbers given do not include cases attended out of dispensary hours nor the hundreds attended on every itineration trip.

"As to journeys from San Salvador as a centre, besides visiting the surrounding towns when free on Sundays, we have each been able to do a considerable amount of itineration in various directions. On one of his trips Mr. Wooding re-opened our Ukoko sub-station, reinstating Manwana and Usukula in their work there, greatly to the joy of the people, who agreed that the charges against Manwana, which had interrupted the work, were utterly false. Mr. Wooding also reached Malonga—quite a new district beyond Ukoko—and made friends with the people, who have since sent two boys to be taught at the station, that they may ultimately return to teach their own people.

"Mr. Bowskill's last trip was very trying. He returned in high fever in the middle of the night; but he shook off the ill-effects much more quickly than we had dared to hope.

"The work at our sub-stations is being much blessed. From Ukoko have come the first fruits of Ulekai and Bwingidi's work, and on Saturday, June 30th, Mr. Bowskill had the joy of baptizing, amongst others, four men and four women from that town, in the baptistery of our new chapel. On the following day Mr. Wooding welcomed them into church fellowship. Vita and his wife have often complained of the uphill nature of their work at Mwingu, but lately they report that things are running more smoothly, and the results are encouraging. We have had the joy of welcoming into the church three young men—Mansangu, Makuma, and Maleya—who have for a considerable time professed faith in Christ, and in their respective districts of Kimbamba, Mbwela, and Mayanda have taught school and been a real power for righteousness; indeed, their voluntary labour has been so blessed that the church intends placing trained teachers in those districts as soon as possible.

"The church contributions towards support of native teachers, and for current expenses in 1900, amounted to 56,284 strings of beads, and the New Year's collection towards the Chapel Building Fund was 10,989 strings. The comparative smallness of this sum was owing to the great effort made so shortly before at the opening services. The Native Church, however, had a balance in hand from 1899 of 17,310 strings, which they transferred to the credit of the Building Fund Account. As there now only remains a deficit of some 20,400 strings, we have no doubt that this New Year's contributions, with a little help from the church funds, will leave the chapel quite free of debt.

"The work of the Printing Press has gone on as usual. The issue of translations of 'Holy War' and 'Follow Jesus,' in our monthly magazine, having been completed, we have begun notes on the 'Book of Ruth,' by Nekaka; 'Extracts from the Circle of Knowledge,' by Mrs. Graham; 'Lessons from the Lives of the Kings of Judah and Israel,' by Mr. Wooding; and translations of Rev. T. H. White's 'Types and Shadows'; and 'The Free Church Catechism,' by myself.

"The chief matter of interest here during the year has been the bitter and latterly open opposition of the king and his counsellors to us and our work, on account of our definite stand against slavery and oppression; and the Roman Catholic Mission, true to its instincts, has sided with the king, in the hope of turning the circumstances to its own advantage.

"Some months ago we succeeded in preventing the king from enslaving several persons, so he made a proclamation against our Mission, threatening vengeance on us and all who adhered to us, forbidding them to visit him under any pretext whatever, and saying that all who wanted his friendship and protection must turn Roman Catholics. He has only made himself a laughing-stock, however, for our congregations are larger than ever; while he himself is suffering from a disease brought on by his excesses.

"SAN SALVADOR STATION STATISTICS FOR 1900.

"Missionaries—3 on the field, and 1 on furlough; missionaries' wives—2; evangelists—4 paid by native churches, and many honorary workers; day school teachers—4 paid teachers, besides the above-noted 4 evangelists and their wives, and about 14 honorary teachers; stations and sub-stations—9; baptized during the year—45; restored to fellowship—2; decrease during the year by death, &c.—27; total number of Church members, December 31st—151 natives; day girls (all schools included)—357; day boys (all schools included)—381; Sunday schools (San Salvador town only), girls and women—161; Sunday schools (San Salvador town only), boys and men—132; teachers in San Salvador Sunday schools only—18.

"Medical Statistics, 1900.—Out-patients, 203; dispensaries, 2; cases at Women's Dispensary, 4,096; cases at Men's Dispensary, 4,405; besides many cases attended on itineration."

THE COMBER MEMORIAL STATION, KIBOKOLO. ZOMBO COUNTRY.

The Rev. Thomas Lewis sends the following report of the second year's work at Kibokolo :—

"We are not yet able to report any definite conversions to God in connection with this new work in the Zombo country, still we are satisfied that many of the people hear the message of the Gospel gladly and are very pleased when we visit them in their towns and preach to them about Jesus Christ. The attendance at our station services has not increased as we should desire, but this is not to be wondered at when we know the influence that the witch-doctors have over the people. The majority of the natives still believe in the oft-repeated tales that we have come to take their spirits away and in some mysterious manner send them to Europe, where, they suppose, is a great demand and a ready market for black people. It is to the advantage of the native doctors to cultivate these beliefs, else they lose a lucrative living. However, we are steadily gaining ground and many are casting away their fear and coming boldly to our station.

"In visiting the people in their towns we find no great difficulty in gathering the people together to hear the Gospel. The Sunday service is fast becoming the regular thing in several towns in our district. A great acquisition to this work is the violin which Mr. Hooper skilfully plays. On arrival he has only to begin to play, and the people gather together, and squatting on the ground, some smoking, others sewing or shelling beans, we speak to them about God and the Saviour of all men.

"In the month of August we were cheered by his arrival. Mr. Geo. Hooper comes from Bristol College. He has now settled down to the usual work of the station with much energy and hopefulness. His time has greatly been taken up with the language, in which he has made rapid and satisfactory progress, and was able in the month of November to take over from my wife the entire charge of the boys' school. He is particularly fond of children and the boys are greatly attached to him.

"In the early part of the year we passed through a time of considerable anxiety on account of a general rising of the Zombos against the Europeans. Although we had nothing to do with the cause of this unrest, we had to suffer the inconvenience of it. The natives closed all trade routes, and no native was allowed to trade with white men at Makela, carry goods for them, or to supply them with food. Our Kibokolo friends, in spite of much intimidation, kept to us and supplied us with native food as before, but we could not get any carriers to go to fetch loads from Matadi. We were indebted to our San Salvador friends for sending us some provisions which we were quite out of. However, after a few weeks in a state of siege, the natives found that they themselves were the greater sufferers, and once more opened the roads. At the commencement of this trouble Mr. Pinnock went to hold a service in a neighbouring town and was mobbed by a party of young men; his boys were beaten and they had to escape for their lives. A party of Kongoes while coming with loads to us were fired at and threw our goods to the ground and ran away. Our Kibokolo friends went and got the goods later on, and nothing was lost.

"In consequence of this general unrest it was impossible to get up the building materials which had been lying at Matadi for many months, and we could do very little in the erection of our permanent houses. To secure carriers for this purpose Mr. Pinnock succeeded in getting a caravan to go with him, for they would not think of going alone to a place that they did not know. In order to open up direct communication with our base station at Matadi it was considered wise that Mr. Pinnock should go to meet Mr. Hooper there, and bring him to Zombo direct. This was done, and since then the men go readily by themselves, and we consider that now our one-stage transport direct from Matadi is firmly established.

"Mr. Pinnock is at present in charge of the general work, and is progressing quickly with the construction of his own house, while at the same time a quantity of timber has been felled in readiness for the homes of Mr. Hooper and ourselves. With such practical men as Mr. Pinnock and Mr. Hooper the building of the station will proceed quickly.

"When the building work is well over we shall be free to do more work in places to the south and east of Kibokolo, where there are several tribes of people in total ignorance of God, but are anxious to receive visits from us. Even at this early stage of the work we have been to several districts, and have been greatly encouraged by the kind reception we had. In the dry season my wife and I stayed a week at Wkusu, a district some twenty miles to the south-west of Kibokolo, and we had grand times in speaking to the people, who came in large groups to hear us. This was our second visit to this part.

"In the month of December a tribal war broke out between them and a neighbouring clan, and messengers were despatched to Kibokolo asking us to go and mediate between the parties. Mr. Hooper went, taking with him a San Salvador young man who was there at the time as an interpreter, and was able to bring the parties interested to terms. They settled their differences, and thus much trouble was saved and perhaps many lives. What we thank God for is that already in this dark land the natives have learned to look to the missionaries as men of peace, and begun to appeal to them for help. On returning from my second visit to this district I brought back with me a lad—nephew of the chief—to our school at Kibokolo; and now again a second was sent with Mr. Hooper to be trained by us.

"Thus marvellously has God opened the way for the truth to enter into these long-neglected regions of darkness. Not only have we been led into the Zombo country, but already the neighbouring clan of Wkusu district is looking to us for light and help. As yet we have only been across the borders, and we are told that further south this family is very numerous, and we have been many times invited to go there. We must go.

"Then, again, to the south-east there is a vast country known as Wdamba, where as yet no European has been. They speak a dialect similar to our Congo language—indeed in most districts they understand our speech—and when the time arrives for a forward move we shall find no difficulty in our preliminary work among them.

"There is one fact which we are anxious that the churches shall bear in mind.—all this part of Congo land is left entirely to the missionaries of our Society. For many hundreds of miles there is no other mission station, and no other Society is working in this direction at all. It behoves us, therefore, to be up and doing. We have had 'abundant entrance' into the Zombo country, and now we are confronted with several important tribes who have not heard of the Gospel of Christ. Dare we hold back the light of our blessed Gospel from these people who are in utter darkness? Surely they have been too long neglected, and our responsibility is indeed great.

'Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of Life deny?'

"This we cannot—dare not do."

WATHEN, OR NGOMBE LUTETE STATION.

The Rev. W. Holman Bentley sends the following deeply interesting record of the past year's work at Wathen station :—

“The work at Wathen Station, and in the whole district around, has developed in a very remarkable manner during 1900. The church has received large accessions; the centres of evangelistic and school work have nearly doubled; the number in attendance at the station and outpost schools have more than trebled.

“THE STAFF.

“Furloughs have caused considerable changes in the staff. Mr. and Mrs. Bell returned from England just a month before the beginning of the year; my wife and I returned in February, and Mr. Frame in September. Mr. Cameron left on furlough in February, and Miss Brindal in September. So there has been a general change all round.

“THE NATIVE CHURCH.

“The Wathen Church and its work are spread over a wide district of 3,000 square miles, stretching to the south for 60 miles, and east and west for 50 miles. To the north of us, in the French Congo, lies an immense district, scarcely touched beyond our horizon. For 2,600 miles, from here to Cairo, or to Algeria, the country intervening has never yet been visited by a Christian missionary.

“The Church scattered over the 3,000 square miles has not been sub-divided; it is still one Church. Its membership at the commencement of the year was 213; at the close it numbered 280. There have been 82 received by baptism, 3 by transfer from other churches, and 1 by restoration; 1 has been transferred to another church, and 18 have been removed from the earthly fellowship by death. There has therefore been a net gain of 67. A large proportion of the members have engaged in direct and systematic evangelistic work. All are expected to do what they can to that end. Many have shown considerable earnestness, perseverance, and intelligence in this work, and the accessions to the Church are due largely to the blessing of God upon native Christian work. It is a joy to mark the evidences of a deepening of spirituality in some, a widening of intelligence in many, a general awakening to new and higher views of life, and emancipation from the bondage of country custom. The Church is leavening the native life; the chiefs of whole districts have met and framed laws, new and far-reaching in their social effects. There has been the repression of violence due to the influence of the State; but reformation and real uplifting have only occurred where Christian influence has made itself felt. There has been much reading and study of the Scriptures, but we have often been surprised at the lack of true understanding of what many might consider to be fairly simple.

“Death has been very busy among the ranks of the native Christians. Eighteen out of 280 have died. Sleeping sickness has been the chief cause. Indeed the first month of 1901 has not passed, yet four more of our members have died of it, three in one small town.

“The Church has paid its way this year; the cloth, brass, wire, &c., contributed would have realised 1,200 francs on the local market; about one-fifth of this (254 francs) was given by the nine white missionaries and ladies of the staff. The year closed with a balance in hand of 17 francs 50 cents. The Church has not required to touch its reserve fund of £40. Nine native evangelists were being supported at the close of the year. A tenth left Wathen the last day of the year to commence new work, which brought up the number of evangelistic and school outposts to thirty-six, besides the station itself. Ten of these only are supported by the native church; none are supported by the Mission; the twenty-five remaining are voluntary native work, or locally supported. The more that we expect the natives to do the more do they rise to the occasion, and do what is required. This is perhaps the most remarkable characteristic of the work.

“EVANGELISTIC AND SCHOOL WORK.

“The evangelistic work in this wide district has been pushed as far as possible. The work on the station itself—with its 170 to 200 young people—taxes heavily our strength; but we have nevertheless managed that one of our number should always be away itinerating among the villages. When one returned another went out into his district, and when I was able to get away for two months in the dry season, two of us were away at one time. We find that there is so much to be done in our districts, that we could spend nearly all our time away among the people; that, however, is impossible for the other men because of the station duties, or for me because of the translation work. The evangelistic outposts and schools are so numerous that we can only give each the minimum of superintendence. So many towns, which were at one time opposed to the Gospel, have now come under our influence, and are being visited by the native Christians and by us. At the close of last year twenty evangelistic and school centres were reported; now they number thirty-six. Wherever there is a Church member, such work is being carried on. At Makuta there is not only a large voluntary school, with 165 scholars on the books, but two voluntary outpost schools, at twenty minutes and one hour distant, each of twenty-five scholars, are supplied and managed from that town; so that their school registers number 215 scholars. Besides this they raised 140 francs for church work.

“At Tumba a young man in the service of a storekeeper has been carrying on evangelistic work and a school of fifty lads, who are also in service there. His services have been well attended. In two towns teachers are supported at the sole expense of the chiefs of the towns. Beside the schools, at all but one or two of the centres there is a daily service held in the early morning as soon as the women return from fetching water. Sunday services are held, and at eight places there are properly organised Sunday schools with some 806 scholars.

“We have been pushing out in all directions. Mr. Bell, in his district, has opened three new centres, where teachers have been gladly received, in the place of three centres which have been closed through the opposition and indifference of the people. Mr. Stephens, carrying on Mr. Cameron's work, has opened two others. Mr. Frame has not yet had time to make more than one iteration, but he has opened one centre in a district which has been until recently very strongly opposed to the Gospel. They turned Mr. Cameron out of the town only about a year ago. At one other point in his district a member of the Church holds a small school among timid, superstitious people. At Ewombe, two hours from Wathen (N.E.), a member of the Church at Stanley Pool is building in his own town. Some thirty gather at his Sunday services, but he has not yet commenced school.

“In my own district, to the south, seven new centres have been established, six being voluntary work. Four others had commenced so close to the end of the previous year that they had not been reckoned. Thus we have our increase of sixteen new centres.

“One of the latest of our outposts has been opened at Vila, right down on the southern frontier of the State. Our San Salvador brethren have opened up two other places on the frontier, a few hours on either side of Vila, so we feel that now our work has been brought to be coterminous with theirs, and the country from Wathen to San Salvador is now well in hand. We are hoping that by the end of this year, or early in 1902, two of our Christian young men will settle among their relations, three days only distant from Comber Station, Zombo. We shall then have reached our limits in that direction and joined up with the Zombo work. Of the young men in question, one is nineteen years of age, the other twenty-one, but they need further pushing on in school themselves before they start teaching. Their relations are very anxious for them to commence. One belongs to a very large town.

"Wherever there are groups of Church members the district round their centre is planned out among them for evangelistic work, and these districts, whenever possible, are pushed out to make them coterminous with work from other centres. In this way we seek to parcel out the wide district among our Church members, and we ourselves do our best to stir them up. At five of the most important centres this work is especially in charge of eight local deacons, who see to its regularity and proper organisation. Some of our members are working very earnestly and well; others need some reminding and urging.

"The table given at the foot of this report will present the statistics of the centres of work. From them it will be seen that we have 1,425 scholars in our day-schools.

"Our station school at Wathen has grown very fast. We have now 162 boys and 42 girls boarding on the station; 130 to 140 of these are being supported by Sunday-schools, Christian Endeavour societies, or by friends, but there are a good number still to be allotted if supporters can be found for them. Many find that to have such a protégé on the Mission field adds much to their interest in the work, and we hope that those who are not thus supported will soon be taken up by friends at home. Five pounds a year will keep a boy or girl in our Wathen School.

"To render our Wathen School still more effective, we have just commenced to hold school in the morning for all who can read, as well as in the afternoon. Mr. Stephens has taken charge of this morning school; that in the afternoon is conducted by my wife, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Stephens, with native assistants.

"We have had a good number of young men come to Wathen, some of them married, who have learned to read their New Testaments or have made such progress on the outpost schools that they have come in to us to complete their studies and to fit themselves for evangelistic and teaching work. Others who were in the service of the State railway company, or traders of Tumba, who have attended the school there, have acquired a desire for education and have come to us.

"If the station staff sufficed we would gladly give further theological and advanced instruction to our Christian young men, but for the present we have reached the limits of our possibilities of work. The only thing which we can do is to gather our evangelists and active Church members together at Wathen every quarter for a week of special study and teaching. Classes are held in theology, Homiletics, Church history, Exegesis, and singing. My last class numbered seventy. Each time there have been some interesting conferences on native customs, and needed reforms, social and domestic, which have called for thought and action. The importance of industry, regular business habits, and activities, has been strongly impressed, and many men have taken to use their hoes 'as if they were women.'

"TEMPERANCE WORK.

"We have affiliated our Temperance work with the Belgian Section of the International Society of the Blue Cross, which has its centre at Geneva. This step has given much pleasure to many friends in Belgium. On our station at Wathen, and at eighteen outposts, temperance societies have been formed, having their own pledge-books, and managing their own business. At our great Christmas anniversary gatherings we had our first annual temperance meeting. The books were made up for the purpose, deceased members deducted from the figures, and the book of the Kimbanda Society was the only one out. Our figures had reached 938, and we had no idea as to the numbers on the book which remained. It came in two hours before the meeting, registering 61 members, so that the books closed with 999 members, without any premeditation or working up. Mr. Bell presided at the meeting when the figures were announced, and as he had not signed until then, he signed as No. 1,000. Mr. Frame then signed the first of the new thousand amid great excitement and delight. It was very strange that the figures should so come out. At nine centres the evangelistic work is so new that we have not yet organised temperance societies at these places. The fact that 1,000 natives have signed the pledge, and are keeping it too, shows how our work is telling, and gives hopes of a large ingathering into the Church at no remote date. What we seek, however, is not numbers to figure in reports, but souls won to Christ, 'soundly converted,' genuine solid work that will stand in the Great Day.

"TRANSLATION OF THE SCRIPTURES.

"My own special work is the translation of the Old Testament. I am sorry to say that building, itineration, and a variety of work and duties have crowded my time and prevented me from doing the work which is so urgently needed. Happily of late I have been able to give myself to it a little more, and am now well on with the Book of Genesis. I must go out again directly, however, down to the frontier to inspect the 22 schools and centres of work in my own district. Twice a year is the minimum of superintendence which I can venture to give. But for the Good Shepherd, who does not expect impossible things of His servants, I do not know what would become of the remoter work. The Divine Spirit imparts the needed gifts and graces, and is leading and working in the Church out here. It is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. After Genesis, I hope to do the Psalms, and have good reason to look forward to quieter times for steady constant work this year. We are not so shorthanded now that Mr. Frame has come.

"MINOR DETAILS.

"A Christian Endeavour Society has been carried on on the station, and there are seldom less than 100 present. They are very interesting meetings and are adapted to our needs, life, and hopes. Mrs. Stephens continues her weekly meetings for native women.

"Prayer-meetings and the daily services on the Station are carried on as usual.

"The Wathen Press has not done much this year beyond binding our hymn-book, and my wife's Conversation Guide in Congo, French, Portuguese and Dutch, which will soon have to be reprinted. We have plenty of press work in prospect for the year.

"The Congo Government has recently given us a bull and eight cows to break in for ploughing and draught work, on the condition that if we have success we share equally the animals. The appliances have only recently come to hand; the plough is still on the way. But we have had such success in breaking them in that we are fully expecting to be able to train them all. Our young men have learned to manage them, and this evening the bull and the cow have been dragging a heavy iron cart (once used by the State for steamer transport) as though they had never done anything else all their lives. I rode round the station on the bull's back the second day that he ever wore a yoke. There is much good fodder round the station now, and the cattle are in splendid condition, sleek and thriving. We hope to start ploughing in a week or two, and feel sure that if we have good success, as we have every reason to hope, some of our more intelligent and well-to-do church members will take it up. It will be a great thing for this country."

"The health record of the station has, on the whole, been good this year, both among missionaries and natives, though in outside towns there has been a great deal of sickness and death. For the natives the cold, dry season is, as a rule, the most trying. At one time in the little village close by us, out of about fifty adults, fourteen were laid up with a very bad touch of pneumonia, but, thank God, through use of medicine and careful nursing only one case proved fatal. In the towns, on account of the carelessness and superstition of the natives, the death-rate from pneumonia is simply appalling. Indeed, in some centres, of late years, it has proved almost, if not quite, as fatal as sleep sickness. There is however, in many towns, a marked improvement, especially where they have found out the true value of medicine and nursing. A large proportion of those who daily came to the dispensary, have come to buy simple medicines for their sick friends, or to keep at home as a preventive. To such an extent has this grown that during the year the money thus received all but cleared the outlay. The number of patients treated altogether was about 10,000. Many serious cases had to be brought to the station, almost all of whom recovered. We had no serious surgical operation this year, I am glad to say.

"The success in our work and the abundant blessing given, have made it imperative that we should erect further buildings on the station. When Sir Charles Wathen generously gave us our combined school and dormitory building we thought that it was an act of faith to ask for accommodation for twice the number of boys which we then had. Accordingly we provided for 120 boys. We have now 162 boys, 'and still they come.' With the work increasing and widening, and the expectation of extending our itinerations to the French Congo, just over the river, this overcrowding is becoming very serious. The boys have no proper shelter in wet or hot weather for their meals, for we cannot allow them to eat in the schoolroom or dormitory. We shall shortly be asking for means to provide fresh accommodation for sleeping 240 boys. The present dormitory must be thrown into the schoolroom chapel, for we can only manage our quarterly gatherings by taking away the iron sheets on both sides of the chapel and packing the people outside and in. The said sheets will not stand that operation many more times, neither can we muddle along as we are now doing. We shall have to ask for £1,000 at least to erect a dormitory for 240 boys, a suitable room in which they can take their meals, and a cooking shed. We reckon that the work out here, the iron sheets, &c., for the roof, the windows and material, which must come from England, together with the freight by steamer, and the very high Congo railway-rates will bring the cost of a plain building up to £1,000. Our plans are not quite ready as I write now in January, but we trust that a friend, or friends, will supply what is needed to that end. The

THE NORTH-WEST DISTRICT OF WATHEN.

The Rev. J. R. M. Stephens sends the following report of the North-West Wathen District work of the past year. Mr. Stephens writes :—

" I have to report for the district which lies north-west from the station, and which Mr. Cameron has had the charge of for so many years, but which I have taken over whilst he is in England on furlough. Our station is only about two hours south of the Congo River, which forms the boundary here between the Congo State and French Congo. On this side of the river the district is not a very large one some six hours taking one to the Mpioka River, which is the boundary agreed between us and the American Baptist Missionary Union. But in this area must be one hundred villages to be won for Christ, and north of the river the district stretches away indefinitely, as far as we are able to work it ; and if we can only get the formal permission of the authorities of the French Congo to start village schools and itinerate there, on the same lines as we do in the Congo State, a great door will be opened wide.

"At the beginning of 1900 there were only ten boys and two girls on the station from this district; now there are thirty-two boys and sixteen girls, and we trust when the time comes for them to leave school and the station they will be a great influence in their towns for good.

"Two new village schools have been opened during the year at Masangi and Kimbonza, and this makes six schools in the district, with an attendance of about 180 scholars. In each of these six towns daily services are also held, which are attended by even greater numbers than come to school. These two new schools are being taught by two boys who have been trained on the station, and having become Christians are anxious to help on the Lord's work, and volunteered to go and teach, as the people had begged for teachers. One of the two is a very little fellow, although about fifteen years old, and I should have preferred someone older and more advanced, but he volunteered, and was so eager and anxious that I let him go. He is doing well, and has some forty daily, to whom he is teaching the alphabet, and leading them on to read. There are now two other towns inquiring for teachers, and I am anxious to supply their need, but, alas! suitable teachers are not plentiful. It is not every one of our Christians who wish to leave their own villages and go to another town to do the drudgery of school work and daily itineration, often amidst much discouragement and opposition.

"Of the Christians in this district, most are at a town called Kimbanda, not far from the station, which Mr. Cameron visited persistently in bygone days. Some thirty church members live there, and are very faithful in visiting other towns and preaching the Gospel.

"In the other five towns at the beginning of the year there was not a single convert except the teachers; but during the year in three of these there have been baptisms—at one place two, and the others one each.

"So the work has begun, and there are a number of enquirers in these places, especially Vunda, and we have good hopes for this year that many will show they are true Christians. Many towns still do not want 'God's palaver,' some actively in opposition, others indifferent; but we are encouraged, and are sure our brother, Mr. Cameron, will be, when we remember that these towns, where now the signs are so hopeful, were amongst those which not long since opposed God's message. Mr. Cameron has faithfully itinerated through this north-western district for many years, and we realise that the blessings of this year are the result of his past labours.

"A steady progress has been made in this, as in all our districts. There is no need for any depression, but rather for thankfulness and praise. God is faithful, and we shall see, I am confident, in the days to come, a turning to God and a desire to do His will, which shall far exceed the results of these still early days."

STATIONS ON THE UPPER CONGO RIVER.

STANLEY POOL, OR ARTHINGTON STATION, KINSHASHA.

The Rev. George Grenfell has most kindly supplied the following report:—

"The work at this place has encountered many vicissitudes during the past year. At its commencement, Mr. and Mrs. Roger, so long identified with this place, were already on their way to England, the health of the latter having so completely broken down as to necessitate the taking of this step. So ill, indeed, was Mrs. Roger, and so critical her health, that it was seriously feared her strength might not prove equal to the voyage. Of God's mercy, the fears entertained proved to be groundless, and the visit to the home country resulted in the hoped for restoration.

"The return of Mr. and Mrs. Roger left Mr. and Mrs. Gordon without the help they had been so long looking for, the necessities of the work at Yakusu having called the Rogers to that place till just before Mrs. Roger's health compelled the voyage to England.

"Mr. Gordon commenced the year with more or less recurrent spells of sickness, till at the close of April it was found to be imperative for him to take a furlough. The visit to England soon resulted in such improvement as allowed of Mr. Gordon visiting some of our churches—Mrs. Gordon in the meanwhile going on a visit to her home in Atlanta, Ga., U.S.A. Unhappily, Mrs. Gordon took with her from the Congo the germs of future trouble—germs that were not at all apparent, but, for all that, so potently present that by the end of the year they had developed an illness that terminated fatally a little later.

"In the absence of the missionaries from the station the work of maintaining the school and the services has fallen upon Mansende Richards, the young man who for some years has been the foremost helper of Mr. Roger and Mr. Gordon. He is a very devout Christian, and a good preacher both in Kishi-Congo and Lo-Bobangi, and is also a very capable teacher of the young people in our 'Arthington' School. The school, however, in consequence of the continued ravages of the 'sleeping sickness,' has suffered a still further reduction in the numbers of those in attendance.

"'Arthington,' situated at the terminus of Congo railway, and at the point where the steamers commence their voyages on the Upper River, is very largely a transport station, and involves for its proper administration, and in the interests of all the Upper River stations for which it is the base of supplies, a good deal more than the maintenance of services and school work. All the business connected with this station, the details of railway transport, of Custom House clearing, and of shipping to the various stations beyond, have been undertaken since the time of Mr. Gordon's return by Mr. Hope Morgan of the Congo Balolo Mission. This work he has done on our behalf in the most efficient manner, and, withal, with that brotherly readiness and sympathy that has added very greatly to our indebtedness for services rendered so generously in our time of difficulty.

"Before closing the report of this station it is only fitting that reference should be made to the death of that generous friend of our mission after whom this station was named. The year had but little more than run half its course when Mr. Arthington was 'called home,' but not before he had made provision for even greater things for Missions than he had essayed during his life.

"The year has indeed been a dark one for this station, but, though our hearts are bowed down, and are very heavy, our eyes are up unto Him from whom our help cometh, and who never fails us."

BOLOBO STATION.

The following report is from the Rev. James A. Clark, both the Revs. George Grenfell and A. E. Scrivener being at present in England on furlough. Mr. Clark writes:—

"In the absence of Mr. Grenfell and Mr. Scrivener, it falls to my lot to send you some account of the work of the year at this place, although I dare say you will have received from Mr. Scrivener some information as to how things were proceeding up to the time he left us in August.

"A very cheering feature in the year's work has been the awakened interest in the preaching of the Gospel on the part of the natives living near us. Some of the more earnest of our Christian youths have been indefatigable in going every Sunday morning to the villages and inviting the people to the service. And their zeal has been rewarded by a large number responding to the call and coming to listen. We have often had as many as 150 present, and most of them show marked attention and interest. Owing, however, to the unfortunate outbreak of small-pox a few months since, we felt it safer not to endeavour to get the people here while the sickness was so prevalent among them, as we should thus be exposing our station children to possible infection. For the same reason we had to discontinue our Sunday afternoon evangelistic meetings in the villages. As the sickness seemed to be dying down we resumed our invitations to the people last Sunday, and had a goodly number present, though not so many before the break. I am sorry to have to add that there have been three fresh cases of small-pox this week, so we are not out of the wood yet.

"Our desire, expressed in last year's Report, to station an evangelist in an outlying district has not yet been realised. But I hope that we shall soon be able to make a step in this direction. Several of the young men, members of our church, have been at different times on short itinerations, sometimes being away a fortnight, visiting a number of villages and preaching the Gospel. This work will, I trust, be continued until we see our way to open an out-station at one of the more populous places.

"As none of our church members are as yet regularly employed as evangelists, I have not entered any in the table of statistics. But, all the same, a number of our young men go out constantly preaching when they have opportunity, especially on Sundays. At the Sunday afternoon meeting held at one or other of the nearer villages two or three of them almost always are called upon to speak. And I am glad to be able to add that some are becoming really efficient speakers. Several of them are finding the class for preachers which I conduct on Friday evening increasingly useful. The written questions they bring me to be answered in class show that they are thinking more deeply and intelligently on the great truths they hear and read, and are becoming more anxious to acquire knowledge that they may be able to impart more to others.

"Six lads and one girl have been baptized during the year, and we have now quite a number of inquirers, some of whom we hope to baptize before long.

"SCHOOL WORK.

"The Sunday-school is well maintained, and both teachers and scholars seem much to enjoy the hour spent in teaching and being taught.

"A very promising work is going on among the young women and girls. A kind of Christian Endeavour or 'Help One Another' Society has been formed, and a meeting is held every week conducted by the ladies on the station.

"The day-school has about the same number of children as at the beginning of the year. More than 200 names are on the books, and we have an attendance of nearly 180. A few days ago the prizes for the year were distributed, the prizes consisting of belts, mirrors, spoons, &c., which were much appreciated by the recipients.

"The senior classes have made good progress this year. One task, generally set them on Monday, is to write out all they remember of the previous day's address at the morning service, and many give an admirable report. They are also set examination papers from time to time on one of the gospels that they have been reading in school, and in these also some do remarkably well. Some Belgian and French gentlemen who have visited the station and have looked at the copy-books and French exercises of the more advanced scholars have expressed unbounded astonishment at the proficiency they have shown. Mrs. Howell has again rendered efficient help in the school when she has been on the station, and of late Mrs. Alfred Stonelake has taken part in the work of teaching, for which assistance I am very thankful. My wife also daily takes part in the work of the school, and has a Sunday afternoon class for girls from the villages."

At Bolobo there has been a terrible epidemic of small-pox. Miss L. de Hailes writes :—

"We have had, indeed, a most terrible time with small-pox; for a fortnight it seemed lessening, but it is now raging again.

"Mr. Howell will, I hope, bring up the materials for my 'Melbourne Hall' in about a fortnight.

"I am thankful to say I am much better now than when I first arrived, and my hands are very full of work."

THE HANNAH WADE PRINTING PRESS.—BOLOBO STATION.

The Rev. A. E. Scrivener supplies the following particulars as to the work of the Hannah Wade Printing Press during the past year :—

"As I was obliged to leave Bolobo very hurriedly, I am without the actual data necessary to the proper compilation of a report of all the work done by the Bolobo Printing Press during the past year.

"Our friends, however, will be glad to know that throughout the year the young compositors and bookbinders were kept fully employed in the production of reading books and general school literature. All our own stations on the Upper River—Bolobo, Lukolela, Monsembe, Bopoto, and Yakusu—as well as the stations of the Congo Balolo Mission, the American Baptist Missionary Union, and the Foreign Christian Missionary Association (another American Society), were thus supplied with reading matter. This involved printing in seven different native languages. When it is remembered that the territory thus covered is almost as large as Europe, a still better idea of the great importance of the work accomplished by the press can be formed. Much work was also done in the French language for the Free State and French Congo Governments, that for the latter including an important booklet on 'The Maintenance of Health in the Congo Region' (the work of an eminent French doctor), somewhat similar to a little work we printed in English from the pen of our friend and brother, Dr. Sims. This French book was brought to us by the Governor-General of the French Congo himself, after he had carefully inspected our printing office.

"For our own mission, perhaps, the most imposing work was the new Bobangi hymn-book (Nzembo li Bonyambe), comprising some 320 hymns. These are sung at Bolobo, Lukolela, New Irebo, Ikoko, and Lulanga. In the production of this book it is generally conceded our lads surpassed all their previous productions. A much smaller but very interesting work in Bobangi was a translation of the Free Church Catechism.

"As the number of those able to read round and about our stations increases, so the size of the editions needed grows, and our hand presses have at times been sorely taxed to cope with the work. The old press from the Cameroons is doing good service, but it will soon be necessary either to increase the number of the hand presses or to introduce a cylinder printing machine. This latter would necessitate more oversight on the part of the missionary in charge of the press, but already the work has so greatly grown as to demand his almost constant attendance; and as the cylinder machine would be a great advance in speed, &c., we hope before long to be able to add this to our already valuable plant. Our knowledge of the various languages spoken in the vast Congo basin is steadily increasing, and to cope with the increase of literature which this is sure to entail, our press must increase its output. We hope it will not be long before we have at Bolobo (as at Calcutta and Cuttack) a missionary printer who will be able to give his undivided attention to this work, and thus foster what is, next to the preaching of the Gospel and translation of the Scriptures, our most important department of missionary work.

"If there are friends who are specially interested in the dissemination of God's Word, and who are desirous of helping on what we all agree in considering a very practical form of missionary enterprise, may I suggest that special contributions towards the expense of a cylinder printing machine would be a very practical and acceptable manner of showing sympathy and interest."

BOLOBO HARBOUR AND MISSION STEAMERS "PEACE" AND "GOODWILL."

The Rev. John Howell writes :—

"The early part of the year was saddened by Mr. Grenfell's serious illness and subsequent departure for England. His ripe experience in all matters relating to steamers and steamer work, and unlimited knowledge thereon, made his loss peculiarly acute to us at that time, or, in fact, at any time. We are very glad to know that he is now convalescent.

"Mr. and Mrs. Stonelake's arrival at the beginning of the year was exceedingly opportune, enabling us to go on with steamer work without a break. He was able to undertake repairs to engines which needed a craftsman's hand, work from which an amateur shrank. These were carried by him to a successful issue, and placed our steamers in the front rank again as to speed. Mr. Stonelake has entered most enthusiastically into all departments of work; being an engineer by profession, he has naturally excelled therein. He has been able to be of no little service to our young men, and I am sure I may safely say that our industrial work has made distinct progress as a result. Now that Mr. Williams has arrived the prospects are cheery and our hopes run high.

"I am glad that we are able to report our two steamers and three boats in first rate condition. All have been overhauled during the year, and are ready for the work before them, which will be heavier this next year, because of the transport of the materials for the Bolobo Hospital for Miss de Hailes.

"Between Stanley Pool and Stanley Falls lies a thousand miles of mountains and swamps, quite half the latter sandwiched between the mountains of the lower part of the river and the edge of the inland plateau which fringes the upper hundred and fifty miles or rather more. Upon this thousand miles lies our sphere of work. Six times this year have we travelled over the whole of this distance, which means three trips as far as the Falls ; in addition, once as far as Monsembe. Twice has the Peace been from Bolobo to the Pool and back, and once the Goodwill, on an errand of mercy to take down a sick brother of the American Society. The total mileage covered by these runs amounts to 8,400 miles.

“ We have carried on our steamers and boats during the year, for our own Society, 1,773 loads, weighing approximately 52 tons ; for other societies, 362 loads. From Europe to their respective stations we have done our share in carrying Mr. and Mrs. Kenred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stonelake, Mrs. H. Stonelake, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and Mr. Kempton ; also Mr. Nye, for the Congo-Balolo Mission ; also Misses Suman and Johansen, for the American Baptist Missionary Union. On their way to England as voyagers we have had Mr. and Mrs. Grenfell ; Messrs. Adams, Scrivener, and Millman ; also Mr. Ellis, for the Congo-Balolo Mission. For itinerating purposes Mr. Weeks and Mr. Scrivener have voyaged with us. Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Dodds, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephens have made trips to the Falls for change and rest.

“ We might say our steamers serve a double purpose—first, the carrying of the missionaries and their supplies to our stations ; secondly, the educational aspect, which divides itself naturally into spiritual and industrial. Of course, our first thought is to keep up communications between our base and stations, so that the work may go on smoothly ; but we also strive to become acquainted with the language, and thus be able to preach the crucified Christ while on the station, on the steamer when running, and elsewhere where our language is understood. Although steamer life is a bit rough, and sometimes one wishes for the more regular life of station work, yet there are pleasures connected with it which those regularly engaged in station work infrequently get—we see our different stations and brethren, we hear about and share their joys, and, I trust, their disappointments also. The other day we met with the Monsembe brethren at the Lord’s Table ; there were seven communicants, coming from seven different tribes. Three different languages were used during the service. When one looked on their faces and remembered that the two extreme points from which they came were situated 1,500 miles apart, could one help but rejoice and be heartened ?

“ There are in steamer work anxious moments ; along the river there are dangers not a few—rocks, snags, and frightful tornadoes, with now and then a midnight scare thrown in. This last trip, just after leaving Monsembe, as we turned a headland, we saw rushing across the sky a huge, black mass of clouds—sure precursor of coming wind, squalls, and pouring torrents. In five minutes the raging wind was roaring around us, sufficiently strong to turn us over with the greatest of ease had we not steered our steamer into the teeth of the storm. After an hour, on reaching a haven of refuge, I was wet to the skin, and tired as though I had worked a whole day ; but through all such our God is with us to protect and help us, and so we go on, trustful and hopeful.

“ The future looks somewhat beclouded—labour difficulties are before us. Without men our boats and work cannot go on. We do not wish to return to coast men if it can be helped, but it is well-nigh impossible at the present moment to engage any ordinary labourers from certain districts in which we formerly engaged most of our men, owing to the action of the State interdicting the hire of labour in those places, for the labour problems in these districts made it almost compulsory that such steps should be taken.”

EARLY EXPERIENCES.

The Rev. Alfred Stonelake writes of his twelve months' experience of actual contact with the practical work at Bolobo in connection with the steamer-running :—

"It is just twelve months since we left England, and the time has passed rapidly and pleasantly. The consciousness that we have obeyed the call of God has made these months unspeakably precious.

"In our steamer trips we have always had some brethren able and willing to help us in our language difficulties, whilst the unvarying kindnesses received at all our stations have made the trips very enjoyable. Steamer life, at any rate, is by no means monotonous. The comical, sentimental, impressive, quiet, and exciting sides of life have all been in evidence, with quite enough worry thrown in to prevent its being a bed of roses. We very soon discovered our ignorance of life out here. We expected to see teeming multitudes lining the river banks, and imagined what glorious opportunities were given to a steamer missionary to preach the Gospel. But the people do not 'line' the river's banks as we imagined, whilst the languages spoken are so varied the scope is more restricted than when on a station.

"There has been already inserted in the MISSIONARY HERALD an account of our first experiences in steamer-running. That trip taught us many lessons which we have endeavoured to profit by. My wife and I have taken six trips with the steamer this year, and covered considerably over 5,000 miles on the Congo. Besides the steamer-running, a considerable amount of work has been accomplished in our shops. Of course, no one expects, as yet, native workmen to compare with English mechanics, and their lack of system causes them an unnecessary amount of work and a great deal of supervision. But most of them are anxious to learn, and their progress gives us much encouragement.

"We have carried out extensive repairs to our steel boats, the Bristol, the old Plymouth, the Carrie, and the Bopoto boat, whilst the Monsembi boat is still under repairs. Of course, the Goodwill and Peace frequently need seeing to, and we are persuaded it is the most economical, and certainly the most comfortable, course to put 'a stitch in time.'

"We sadly missed at first the means of grace enjoyed at home in entering into the spirit of worship with God's people. But that feeling is gradually disappearing, and our earnest desire is that soon we may be able to tell the 'Old, Old Story' out here, just as we loved to do in the Homeland. It was a great comfort and joy to us, when steamer-running, that we were always able to have the Gospel preached. If no other missionary was present, one of our engineers proved a very acceptable substitute. It is a very pleasing feature of the work here that those who follow the Lord Jesus are the best mechanics, live the cleanest life, and exercise the greatest influence. My wife was able, partly, to take the place of Mrs. Howell in the day-school when Mr. Howell took the up-river trip. We have been blessed with splendid health during this twelve months, for which we desire to express our devout gratitude."

LUKOLELA STATION.

The Rev. John Whitehead sends the following report from Lukolela Station :—

"We were able this year to receive one of our wanderers back to fellowship. Would to God we had been able to have them all back again. Two such wanderers have died during the year, but we believe that the Saviour found His own, and so we laid them to rest in hope. In the many deaths which have taken place this year some have given us reason to look beyond to a meeting in the better home. Another of our wanderers is slowly nearing the brink of the river by the tedious path of sleep-sickness; his mind is not very clear just now, but he rests in Jesus, and his mind can think of the hope of meeting his wife in the place where this sickness may not come; she died recently of the same malady, but in a moment of rational perception she assured him of her faith in the Lord Jesus. Poor lad! many of his waywardnesses are now explained; his heart was good, but the mental calibre was gradually being undermined by this fell disease, and thus he yielded to many sinful thoughts and desires. But the Shepherd has His sheep, and we bless His name. Few could match poor Mokolobilengwa in preaching the way of salvation; he could speak well once, but now his speech is heavy. Last year one of my trained assistants in the study of the language went to the better land; and this year the other one, Monkako, the Lord has taken to Himself. I have yet no others to take their places, but we wait the Master's will.

"We have had the privilege of baptizing two young men of promise in the Master's service this year after carefully putting them to the test. And this brings our number of church members to eight.

"The health of the male members of the church has not been very good during the year, and their testimony in the village which they would gladly have given each evening has been much interrupted.

"Lusala has not been much with us during the year, most of his time was spent at Bolobo previous to his departure with Mr. Scrivener for England in August last.

"When it was decided that Mr. Scrivener should take his furlough home, it was thought best for the interests of work at the various stations that I should leave Lukolela and take up Mr. Scrivener's printing work at Bolobo in his absence, so accordingly Mrs. Whitehead and myself are not now at Lukolela. We left the place in charge of Bikango in August last, and visited it again at the close of the year, and were very pleased with the way in which they had maintained the work.

"Mrs. Whitehead rendered medical assistance before we left at an average to twelve persons per day, and maintained the school work. She also largely maintained the work in station and town, while I was compelled to lie down and be quiet for some weeks."

MONSEMBI STATION.

The Rev. J. H. Weeks sends the following report from Monsembi station :—

"I must try and bring before our friends as briefly as possible some of the encouragements and discouragements of the year which is closing. The encouragements are few but cheering; the discouragements are many and continuous, but only nerve us to renewed efforts and increased zeal and prayer.

"For various reasons, chiefly political, this district has decreased considerably in population; sickness has been very rife, and Death has taken more than his due from a decreasing people. These evils are laid at our door by a majority of the folk about us, consequently they will not come to hear the Gospel, and when it is taken to them they treat it with indifference, and in some instances with mild opposition.

"In our itineration work in the distant and near towns we meet the same feeling to which the bolder give expression by saying: 'We do not want to hear this

"palaver of God," for see, since it has been preached, how fast the Monsembe people, are dying.' So we have to bear, and bear patiently, too, charges that should be laid at other doors than ours. On the other hand, we are told by some: 'We did not know that many of the things we did were bad; but now we know they are sinful in God's sight, and as we continue to do them God is angry with us, and is punishing us in this way.' So we are gradually, by the Spirit's help, creating a conscience in these poor benighted folk.

"Two long itinerations have been made through the year, and almost every week the towns, within a few miles of the station, have been visited. In these itinerations we have freely used the magic-lantern in our evening addresses, and at such times we have not lacked a good audience of attentive listeners. At the nearer towns, because of the 'feeling' of which I have spoken about, an audience is difficult to gather, and the work is not at all encouraging, but we do not intend to stop for that reason. Our duty is to preach as lovingly and faithfully as Christ did, and leave the results with Him who has said, 'My Word shall not return unto Me void.'

"Yet amid so many discouragements, the Lord, mindful of our frailty, has not left us without some encouragement. Many of those who were lads when the mission here was commenced have grown into young men; some of these lately have taken a decided stand for Christ and are not ashamed to testify for Him among their own people. In the lives of four of these there is such a marked change that we are constrained to baptize them on the first Sunday of the coming month, and we are very hopeful that there will be others to follow very soon. The Lord keep them faithful to their pledge and help them to shine clearly amid this heathen darkness

"The Acts of the Apostles have been translated by Mr. H. T. Stonelake,

"A small book on Arithmetic has been prepared by Mr. Dodds.

"A new edition of a Second Reading Book, also a revised reprint of an Advanced Reading Book, and a translation of the Parables and Miracles of Jesus (with illustrations) have been prepared by myself.

"Our Hymn Book has been revised, enlarged, and reprinted, and was received with much enthusiasm by all our lads and young men, who bought them eagerly and sung them lustily, commencing at No. 1 and going through the book.

"During the year we have had the pleasure of welcoming to our station a new colleague in the wife of our Brother Stonelake. We pray that she may be spared to work here for many years with increasing joy as she sees from time to time her labour for the Lord prospering.

"Our sister Mrs. Dodds has continued the girls' school through the year, and has by her patience and gentleness won an influence over many of the girls and young women that we pray may result in their eternal salvation.

"Experience shows that the girls here are not so amenable as the boys, consequently greater praise is due to those who, amid many disappointments, labour so unflaggingly among them.

"During the last three or four months there has been such a desire for secular and religious teaching among some of our young men that two nights per week are devoted to teaching those who are working through the day, and also two nights for expounding a gospel consecutively to those who meet for more advanced Bible study than we can give at our ordinary services.

"It is worthy of remark that those who have been under our influence for years are building for themselves at their own expense larger, more decent, and more comfortable houses ; and in their furnishing of them they have shown both skill and ingenuity.

"These are among some of the things that make for our encouragement, but what we desire is to be able to report a large number taking a decided stand for Christ. Many are living better lives because of the teaching they have received, many we believe are striving to follow Jesus, and we hope that soon they will put on Christ in baptism.

"We are sure of the ultimate triumph of the Gospel, but we need the prayers of the churches that we faint not while waiting and labouring for that triumph. We know that Christ has many jewels among these quondam cannibals. May we be guided to discover them for the Master's crown.

"The year has been filled with light and shadow, but through it all—in cloud and sunshine—the Master has been faithful to His promise, and has been with us to help, strengthen, and cheer us."

BOPOTO STATION.

The Rev. William L. Forfeitt forwards the following record of the work of the past year at Bopoto Station :—

"The year 1900, which opened so full of promise, has at its close laid upon us the necessity of bidding farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland between Christmas and New Year's Day. The serious illness of Mrs. Kirkland, for more than two months confined to her bed, has filled us with anxiety which is scarcely less keen now that she is on her way down river in a State steamer. Two days after their departure the steamer Henry Reed, of the American Baptist Mission, under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Billington, who having heard of Mrs. Kirkland's condition kindly placed their steamer at the disposal of our brethren, arrived here, much to our surprise and gratitude, bringing to our help temporarily, Mr. and Mrs. Dodds, of Monsembe Station. But I am beginning my report at the close of the year, so will at once revert to the beginning.

"In the month of March an event happened which is not likely to be soon forgotten by us. Our front town was raided by a band of soldiers one evening at dusk, the half of it burned to the ground, several persons wounded, and a little child murdered. The excitement was intense for an hour or two, until the fire having been observed from the camp two officers came at once to see what was the trouble. By their energy the area of the fire was restricted, some of the soldiers were arrested and taken to the camp, while the rest scattered and fled. The people naturally fled to the islands, and many had to remain there in rough shelters, being homeless for several months. The raid, meanwhile, was investigated, and the instigators duly punished. The town has now resumed its normal appearance, and that particular band of brigand soldiers has been removed from the district, so peace reigns once more. It is a great mercy that the whole town was not destroyed, and with it our mission premises ; and it was only by the timely arrival of officers from the camp that such a calamity was averted.

"The whole year has been one of rumours of wars ; the large district lying to the north and east of us has been the scene of much strife owing to the troubles arising out of the Lothaire Rubber Palavers, to which European papers have of late been giving publicity.

"Notwithstanding these disquieting experiences, our work on the whole has maintained its hopeful character throughout the year, and at times our services have been much more numerously attended than formerly, although there is room for improvement in this respect. It seems to be the general experience at most of our stations—a kind of ebb and flow of the tide. Nor can we record any additions to our baptized band, though we are not without the conviction that several are striving earnestly to follow the Saviour, and might we trust with advantage to them and to us be received into fellowship. I sometimes am inclined to fear that we are apt to move too slowly, and yet it is very difficult to know what course is the best to follow. We have had during the year a sore disappointment in having to administer discipline upon two of our members, but we hope that it may prove to be a blessing to them and to others by enlarging their conception of what a Christian ought to be and must be if he is to share the fellowship of Christ's disciples. It is impossible to conceive of the subtle dangers and temptations to which these young lives are exposed, and though we dare not countenance any low standard of discipleship, yet our hearts yearn toward them with a tender pity which needs I think to be made manifest to them as well as felt within.

"The usual week-night services have been kept up throughout and been well attended—prayer meeting, preaching service, Bible-class. Sunday-school attendance has been good, six classes of boys with from ten to fifteen in each, and at the close of school frequently two bands of lads have gone out in different directions to conduct open-air services in the neighbouring villages. On alternate Sundays when practicable we have visited distant villages by water and have always had hearty gatherings, but before this important work can be regularly and satisfactorily carried out we need our full staff on the station. We were very sorry to have to give up Mr. and Mrs. Kenred Smith to Yakusu, but are beginning now to hope that they will soon return to us.

"We have had a good year of school work, the numbers have been quite up to the average, and very satisfactory progress has been the result of the regular attendance of a large number of boys. We get more little children now—a very hopeful sign. Their smiling faces and confidence in us, and their delight to show their accomplishments with slate and pencil, are an ample reward in themselves for all the trouble expended.

"We have received from the Bolobo Mission Press my translation of the Gospel of John and Stories from the Acts; also the second part of 'Line upon Line,' translated by my wife. We are expecting shortly to receive our Hymn Book, with upwards of eighty hymns, many of which have been contributed during the year. Matthew's Gospel I have finished, and it goes to the printers almost at once.

"The study of the language of the large Ngombe tribe has occupied part of my time. I have been going through our late brother White's vocabulary, verifying and adding to his most useful work, besides translating the Commandments, Lord's Prayer, and a few of our Bopoto hymns into that language, for use in our meetings in the villages of the interior.

"All things considered, we feel there is reason for much gratitude to our Heavenly Father for what He has enabled us to do, and especially for the health and strength which has been bestowed upon us throughout the year."

WORK AMONGST WOMEN AND GIRLS.

Mrs. W. L. Forfeitt has written the following as to work amongst women and girls :—

"I should like to add a few lines to the report my husband is sending, that you may know something of the work here among the women and girls. For the past year we have had a very steady attendance at school, and a much greater interest and desire shown for the knowledge to be obtained there. As by twos and threes the girls struggle out of the alphabet class into the proud position of being able to read in a book, those whom they leave behind are encouraged by their success to persevere with the hope of following them as speedily as possible.

"A very encouraging feature has been the increasing desire of the girls to learn to sew and make garments for themselves. They have always been willing to sew, if we would provide the material, and present them with the dresses when made; but we have not found it wise to do too much of that. Now they are bringing their own material, which we cut out for them, and they, with a little help, manage to make very useful dresses. Friends who have seen photographs of Bopoto and its most uncivilised-looking people, will understand that this is really a big step towards better things.

"The work with the girls is much more encouraging than anything we have been able to do for the older women, though they have more confidence in us than they had, and do not hesitate to come and ask our help in times of sickness. Some of the medical work that has been done this year has been so successful that I am sure it has been the means of lessening the number of the Witch Doctor's patients.

"Mrs. Kirkland and I have worked together in the school for the past twelve months with much happiness and a good share of success, and it is a great and sad disappointment to us and to them that on account of her continued serious illness they have been obliged to leave here."

The following letter is from the Rev. R. H. Kirkland, written only a few days after the death, at Bolobo Station, of his beloved wife:—

"I had expected to send a bright report of our work at Bopoto, as seen by us during the year that is gone. Everything seemed to be going so well with us, and we were so happy in the good work, and it was pleasing to see the progress we were making all along the line. But the two closing months of the last year were to us a time of trouble and sorrow, and since then heavy clouds have darkened my sky, and meantime the future for me does not look over bright. I can scarcely tell you how I feel, as the sore experiences of the past few weeks are like a sad dream to me, and I do not realise my altered condition of life yet. It is indeed a heavy stroke that has fallen upon me, but it comes from a loving hand. I cannot help wondering why God has taken my 'loved one' from me, and the reason is not at all clear to me; but it is His doing, and He has done it in love to her and to myself. The great comfort is that He has taken her to Himself, and as I hope to go that way some day, I shall see her again, and then together we shall be 'for ever with the Lord.' I feel very lonely, and my heart at times is so heavy with sorrow; but our loving Father has been good to me in my trouble, and His grace has been, and still is, sufficient for all my need, and I know He will continue to help me over this rough bit of my pilgrim journey.

"I long to get back to Bopoto and settled at my work again, and then with my heart full of the joy of service I will be lifted above the clouds of pain and sorrow which seem to cling to me in this present state of rest and idleness. I am very well, but rather weary after the hard time of nursing and anxiety. The change to Bolobo has done me much good, and the run up on the Goodwill should put me in good trim for future work at Bopoto, and I will strive more earnestly to win our poor people for the Saviour, as I think of my dear wife having laid down her life for their sakes. The work is very hopeful, and in spite of failures we are able to reckon up and find good cause for praise to God for all He has done by us. We look for brighter and fuller results during the year now begun, and the end of this new century will see marvellous things accomplished by the Saviour and His servants in these dark parts.

"I have enjoyed my visit to Bolobo, and glad to see the work there looks so promising, and my heart is encouraged and helped to hope for good things to come in our dark corner of Bopoto. The friends at Bolobo have all been so kind, and the love and sympathy manifested with me in my sorrow have comforted my heart and helped me in the dark hours. Some Christians really 'love one another,' and also 'bear one another's burdens,' as the Master expected. Possibly Mr. Forfeitt has written telling you of my dear wife's sickness, and I know Mr. Clark has told you of her 'passing away'; but I hope to write you soon and tell you of some of the cheering words she uttered as she walked in the 'Valley of the Shadow.' Her faith and joy were wonderful to see, and she seemed to be full of a holy calm—'The peace of God which passeth all understanding.' It helped my own faith, and the messages she gave from time to time are a real source of comfort and joy, and can never be forgotten."

YAKUSU STATION.

The Committee deeply sympathise with Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton in their bitter disappointment at being compelled to defer their departure for Yakusu in consequence of their continued ill-health. During the whole of the past year the condition of both these devoted workers has caused serious anxiety. The latest accounts are, however, much more encouraging, and the hope may be entertained of their being able to leave for the Congo in June next.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenred Smith have generously remained at Yakusu for the whole of the past year, notwithstanding their earnest desire to return to their special work at Bopoto. It is to be hoped that the arrival of Mr. Kempton may set them free to relinquish work at Yakusu and resume their labours at Bopoto. Mr. Sutton Smith and Mr. Kempton will constitute the Yakusu staff until the return of Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton, Mr. W. Millman having just reached England on his first furlough term.

The Rev. Kenred Smith, referring to the great advances made at this station, writes :—

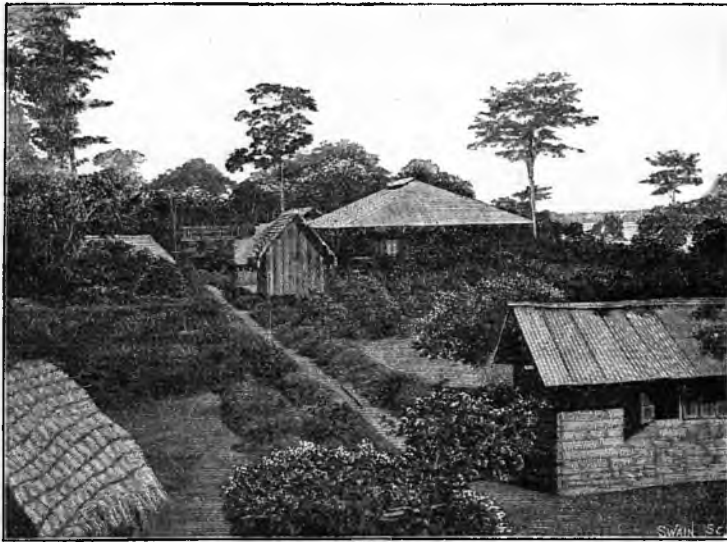

"Two years ago I first saw this station. Since then considerable progress has been made. The forest has been cleared; wide paths have been laid out; timber has been prepared; thousands of bricks made and burnt; dwelling-houses, stores and workmen's dwellings erected; the number of scholars in the school has more than doubled; many boys and girls have been taught to read and write; much of the Lokele language has been reduced to writing; school-books have been compiled; hymns, the Free Church Catechism, and portions of the Gospel of Mark have been translated ; religious services have been regularly held ; towns in the district have been visited, and friendly relations with the people have been established ; but this not without thought, and toil, and prayerful effort on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Roger, Mr. Millman, and Mr. H. Sutton Smith, who have not spared themselves in the attempt to establish the Church of Christ in this populous and interesting district.

“Of these workers at Yakusu during the past two years only Mr. Sutton Smith is at the present time here with me and my beloved wife, Mr. Millman leaving us for his much-needed furlough on November 21st of this year, and ill-health having necessitated the return to England of Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton and Mr. and Mrs. Roger.

“Mr. Sutton Smith, whose work has been principally amongst the young men and boys, has won the hearts of his charges, the school prospering under his care. The bricks made and burnt for Mr. Millman’s house have been made by the schoolboys after school hours, under the supervision of Mr. Sutton Smith, which has meant for him much time and labour. Among the young men a spirit of enquiry has become manifest, and some twenty have expressed a desire to keep the commandments of God.

“The Sunday services have been well attended, and the addresses delivered by Mr. Millman from time to time have been listened to with quiet and evident interest.

It has been no unusual thing to see some of the principal chiefs of the town sitting quietly with the others, hearing the word of God.

pletion, together with his literary labours, are sufficient proof of the zeal and energy with which he has devoted himself to his work.

"The people of the town and district are friendly and well-disposed to us and the Gospel message, and there are not wanting signs that the thick darkness is being dispelled by Him who is the Light of the World."

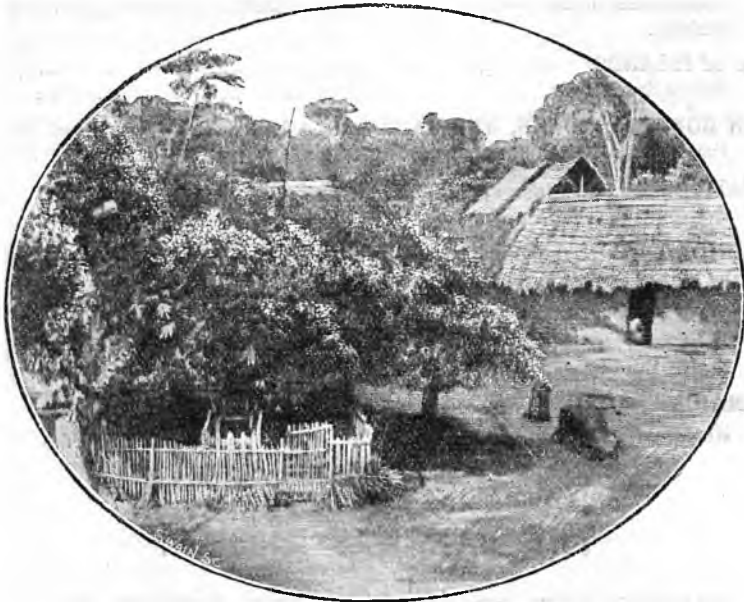

The Rev. H. Sutton Smith writes :—

"No report of mine could impress so much as a visit to our school would suffice to do. It is a most unpretentious-looking building (as a glance at the enclosed photograph will assure you), but it assumes the most interesting features as we stand on the platform and look into the faces of some 110 or 120 boys and girls. It is happily no full house for a special occasion that we see, but what is of daily occurrence. We have certainly benefited all round this year. Owing to the timely arrival of Rev. Kenred Smith and his wife, we were able to extend our curriculum, and start with his help a special arithmetic class for a dozen or more of the most advanced boys, and latterly for the next class. In less than six months several of the boys have shown marked ability in this branch of study. Then, too, the girls were at once taken over by Mrs. Kenred Smith, and in spite of their six months of comparative liberty—i.e., without the teaching of a white lady—they soon began to work in earnest. They meet in the school with the boys at nine o'clock, when we spend three-quarters of an hour in the opening exercises, after which they file out and walk to the house, on the verandah of which Mrs. Kenred Smith teaches them.

"This time last year we could count the hymns we knew on our fingers; to-day the children know the tunes and can repeat the words of thirty-five hymns. When the Goodwill came up a month ago, it was a very real pleasure to many to bring me a shoka for a copy of the new hymn-books that had just arrived. But another book that arrived in July last, and whose production was due to the energy and zeal of Mr. Millman, has proved a great help to us. It is made up of twenty stories and parables from the Gospel of Mark, with the parallel readings from the Swahili Testament on the opposite page, prefaced by a short introductory account of the creation of the world and of man, of the Fall, and of the advent and sacrifice of Christ. This has proved a great help to us.

"But I have said nothing about the translation of the Free Church Catechism, which was also part of Mr. Millman's work during the months of May and June last. It is, I feel sure, destined to be of great service to us. I aim at giving it to each boy and girl as a legacy to treasure in the mind. They may be called upon to use it far earlier and more frequently than the modern Scotch lad. Since I told them what use they can make of it when they go to their towns, many have taken an appreciably keener interest in the oftentimes monotonous work of learning by heart.

"It is just a year since we began our Sunday-school, and I am happy to report that it has been maintained and the numbers latterly have steadily increased. The boys meet in my house, and although no compulsion is exercised, it is usual for 30 or 35 to gather with us. The leaven is present and is working. It is manifest in the opposition on the part of some of the townsfolk; it is manifest also in the signs of grace in the hearts and lives of the boys. The day is coming and I know all will rejoice with us at the tokens of its advent."

THE BAHAMAS MISSION.

NASSAU, NEW PROVIDENCE, AND OUT ISLANDS.

The churches in the Bahamas Group are now self-supporting and independent of pecuniary aid from the Society in England.

The Rev. C. A. Dann, of Nassau, supplies the following report for the past year:—

“The condition of the mother church in Nassau is cheering. The ground lost during my stay in England in 1899 has been more than made up, though this is not very apparent because a severe revision of the church roll leaves us with only a net increase of one. I have baptized 25 during the year. My sister-in-law, Miss Higgs, whom I had the joy of baptizing last September, has been elected to the superintendency of the newly-formed Primary Department in the Sunday-school—a position for which she is admirably fitted. Our Friday night cottage meetings have been a distinct success throughout the year. They have stimulated our members and done great good to outsiders. We have lost heavily by death since my last report was sent in; the decease of my beloved friend and brother, John Panza, is a severe blow to us.

"My work on the out-islands has heavily taxed my mental and physical energies but its results have much gratified me. I have presided at the election to the pastoral office of Joseph J. Pinder for the Grand Bahama churches; of John A. Burrows and Jeremiah Russell, for the churches at Moose Island, Little Abaco, and Great Abaco; and of Nathaniel Roach, for the Exuma churches. In each case it has given me real satisfaction to set these good and earnest men apart for their work. I have visited during the year the following islands:—Andros Island, Ragged Island, Exuma, Bimini, Grand Bahama, Moose Island, Little Abaco, and Great Abaco. Chapel-building has been vigorously carried on during the year. The highest praise of all on this account must be given to the Ragged Island Church, which, in six months, replaced their storm-wrecked edifice with what is one of our best chapels. The Eight-Mile-Rock Church at Grand Bahama also very quickly repaired, and re-opened their sadly damaged structure. The people at Stevenston, on Exuma, have secured increased accommodation by erecting a choir gallery. I have opened a good building put up by the large and increasing church at Stanyard Creek (Andros Island); also smaller chapels at Moose Island and Pelican Point (Grand Bahama), the latter being a new out-station. Over the whole field the baptisms this year (233) are somewhat above the average. The net increase for all the churches combined is 154, the total membership now standing at 3,681.

"In Mr. Cooke's district a new station has been formed and a new chapel built at Stephen's (Long Island), and the little church at Burnt Ground Settlement, on Long Island, which revolted in 1892, has returned to its old allegiance. As Long Island is hard to reach and work from Inagua I may be compelled to include it in my district.

"My colleague, Rev. A. Cooke, reports as follows for the Southern District:

"The work, on the whole, in the Southern District during the year has been marked by an advance. The motto is 'Forward.' In nearly every church that I have had the joy of visiting their faith seems to be stronger and the outlook brighter.

"In every church, save one, we have had baptisms. It was a cheering sight to see the procession, headed by the white flag (emblem of peace), followed by the candidates in white marching at early dawn to the sea, to put on Christ by immersion.

"Our brethren on Ackhus have taken an aggressive step. They have built a place of worship at Binnacle Hill, where two of the brethren and one sister form the nucleus of the new church.

"The church at Inagua has reached a very critical stage in its history. We greatly need the guiding hand of our God at this time."

TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS, AND SAN DOMINGO.

The churches in these Islands are also self-supporting and independent of any assistance from the Baptist Missionary Society.

The Rev. J. H. Pusey, the pastor of the Grand Turk Baptist Church, writes :—

“The year 1900 is under review. As a union of churches we have had four baptisms of thirty-one souls, all of whom are from our Sunday-schools, and notwithstanding serious drawbacks in loss of crops in the Caicos Islands, the decline of the salt trade in Turks Islands, political depression in the Republic of San Domingo, creating great distress among the people, we rejoice to be able to report progressive Christian work, and signs of revival throughout.

“The new chapel at East Harbour is near completion.

“I visited San Domingo in July, and experienced a growing interest in the work of the Puerto Plata Station. Two are awaiting baptism.

“Death has uniquely invaded our ranks, and removed by drowning and otherwise twenty-six Christian workers to their rest and reward!

“On a summary of the year's work—the close of the century—amid pressing difficulties, we ‘thank God and take courage’ in His assurance: ‘Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.’”

TRINIDAD.

In this island also, the Committee have practically withdrawn from pecuniary aid, throwing the maintenance of Christian worship and work upon the friends associated in church fellowship.

The Rev. R. E. Gammon, of Port of Spain, reports :—

PORT OF SPAIN.

“With regard to my own work for 1900, the year has been comparatively a broken one, as on Easter Monday I was taken down with a severe attack of malarial fever, which resulted in my having to take a short change to England in June, and I resumed my labours at the beginning of October. During my enforced absence the Rev. Edgar S. Kilpatrick, a Baptist minister from the United States, kindly took charge of the Port of Spain Church, and his services were much appreciated.

“I am sorry to say, however, that the Port of Spain Church shows a total decrease of thirteen in membership, and there were no additions by baptism. Still, we are hoping and praying for better times during 1901. At Chaguanas I baptized one candidate since my return.

“The women's meeting has been conducted every Monday, under the superintendence of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. A. T. Hamlyn, and Mrs. Gammon, at the Belmont Hall, and the Sunday-school there is under the efficient charge of Miss Darwent.

“The Christian Endeavour Society connected with the Port of Spain Church is still going on satisfactorily, although we suffered a severe loss by the departure from the island of Mr. M. D. Forsyth, who was the leading spirit among the Endeavourers and an excellent teacher in the Sunday-school. Evangelistic work is still carried on in the Belmont Hall, chiefly by the Port of Spain members. Members, 153; marriages, 15.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT CHURCHES.

“These churches show a total increase for the year of thirty-seven, and forty-one candidates were baptized. During my absence in England Mr. Charles Webb, the much-respected pastor of Fourth Company Church, presided over the Union Meetings for me, and baptized the candidates at the various churches. Speaking generally, I believe the pastors have worked hard, and with some measure of success, but 1900 was certainly not so prosperous as some previous years. Twelve of the churches show an increase, four (including Port of Spain) a decrease, and four remain numerically as before. We are earnestly hoping for better things during this first year of the new century. This week united meetings are being held in the Port of Spain churches each night; they are well attended, and we are hoping for great spiritual results from them. Members, 971; baptized, 41; marriages, 10.”

JAMAICA.

THE CALABAR COLLEGE, KINGSTON.

President.—The Rev. ARTHUR JAMES, B.A. Tutor.—Vacant.

“CALABAR COLLEGE.

“It is with mingled feelings of thankfulness and regret, of sadness and of hopes that we review the past year's work. We are glad to report that in both Theological and Normal Departments the work has been steadily carried on without interruption, and that the students have kept in excellent health, have ‘obtained a good report’ as to character, and made good progress in their studies. But the fact that this was to be the closing year of our Normal Department has cast its shadow upon us, and so the pleasure we have had has been largely mingled with sadness. Indeed, that old question of the Hebrew Prophet has, in substance, if not in form, at times arisen in our minds: ‘Watchman, what of the night?’ But the answer of calm Faith has ever been, reversing that given to the Prophet's question:—‘The night cometh, BUT ALSO THE MORNING.’ And so though the night may seem to us to have overtaken our Normal Department, yet we know that “Night with Him is never night,

Where He is there all is light.

“For the future of our College and its work, therefore, we have neither need nor right to be dismayed. An Institution that can show such a record—which has, in one department of its work, received for training during the forty-five years of its existence upwards of 200 young men, a good proportion of whom are now serving the cause of Education in this island and elsewhere—ought not to fear the future.

“God has set before us an open door. Our College will continue to train candidates for the Christian Ministry of the Baptist Churches of Jamaica. This much is guaranteed to us by the generous aid of the Baptist Missionary Society in England—guaranteed, at least for the present. It is now the part of our Churches to do two things: (1) Furnish Men—well and carefully-selected men—for this sacred office; and (2) To help to provide a suitable Building in which the work may be carried on. What developments may be possible in the future we cannot yet foresee; but this is plainly the duty of the present moment.

“The past year has been one of earnest work, although the minds of both tutors and students have been more or less influenced by the knowledge that for one-half of the work of the College this would be the closing year. Our numbers have been smaller than, perhaps, in any year since the Normal Department was commenced. Two new Theological Students—Mr. Beverley and Mr. Coore—were received at the beginning of the Session, making a total of seven in this department; while the number of Normal Students, six, remained the same as last year—no new ones having been admitted. Two of the latter—Mr. Stewart and Mr. Russell—passed the final examination of the City and Guilds of London Institute in Manual Training and Wood-work.

“The other Normal Students have during the year received instruction in Agricultural subjects from the Government Lecturer, and have also attended classes in Manual Training. I am glad to report that the three second-year men will have the opportunity of a third year course of study at the Mico Training College. Two Theological Students—Mr. Jones and Mr. Livingston—have completed their term of study this year.”

Referring to the movement on foot to establish a new College building for the future work of the Institution the Baptist Reporter, of Jamaica, for April, contains the following:—

“THE NEW CALABAR.

“It should be a matter of general interest to all our readers, and especially to the members of our Baptist Churches, to know that the first step towards the erection of a new Calabar College has been taken in the purchase of a site for the new buildings. A property called ‘Chetolah Park,’ of about 11 acres, has been secured, though a portion of this will probably be resold, as the College will not require the whole. The new site is situated on the West of the City, far enough removed to be free from the noise and disturbance that surrounds the present buildings, but connected with all the advantages of the city by the car line, the electric-light, and the system of sewerage.

“The plans for the new buildings will be submitted to the Managing Committee at their next meeting, and in them accommodation will be provided not only for the Theological Students, but for a limited number of boys, who may thus secure the advantages of a higher education at a moderate cost. In taking this bold step the Committee feels it is simply moving in the direction that God is leading. A new College has become a necessity if the Baptist Churches are to maintain their influence, and to continue with any hope of success the work in which they are engaged in Jamaica and the lands around us; and we hope all our members will try to take some part in the erection of the new buildings and in the maintenance of such a College as shall be worthy of the sacred objects we have in view.”

THE JAMAICA CHURCHES.

The Fifty-first Annual Report of the Jamaica Baptist Union does not supply very encouraging accounts of the churches. It states :—

“Speaking generally of the reports that have come to hand from the churches of the Union, they tell a painful story of struggle with difficulties of a gigantic kind. To make a comparison with former recent years seems useless ; but, judging from the reports, it is abundantly evident that the circumstances of the mass of the people in Jamaica are becoming worse and worse, and that therefore the difficulties with which the churches have to cope in carrying on their work are seriously increasing. Not a few reports speak of the past year as having been by far the worst which the churches have experienced.

“Some reports are, however, happily of a more hopeful and gratifying character of which a few samples are given : (1) ‘We rejoice to be able to report that our work has made good and substantial progress. The Lord has been with us, and we thankfully acknowledge that we have not laboured in vain.’ (2) ‘There are evidences of a work of grace going on among us, and many forms of Christian work are engaged in.’ (3) ‘We thankfully report 1900 has been our best year of work since our existence as a church’; and the marked features of that work are reported to have been ‘attention to prayer meetings, activity in visiting the sick and careless, and helping the Sunday school.’ (4) ‘Services uninterrupted ; congregations fairly well maintained. God’s blessing received, and brotherly love continued, tell the story of the year.’ (5) ‘There has been quite an awakening among us, and our congregation has been larger than could be comfortably seated in the school chapel.’ (6) ‘Here the work is bright and prosperous, especially among the young people.’ (7) ‘This is a year of good things with us. The Spirit of the Lord is working wonderfully in the church. This special work began in June, and has gone on increasingly to this moment. Every department of the church is made brighter.’

“Reports have been received from 180 churches in Jamaica, the only one not heard from being Fletcher’s Grove. From these reports we gather that 79 churches only have been blest with a net increase, the aggregate increase being 878, the highest in any church being 38. There are ten churches, the membership of which is the same as in the previous year. There are therefore 91 churches that have fewer members than they had twelve months ago, the falling off amounting to 1,132. In connection with 21 churches, no backsliders were restored. On the other hand, there were 20 churches from which no members were excluded, and the sum total of the exclusions is 140 below the figure reached in the preceding year.

“Our annual summary gives the following totals :—Baptized, 1,590 ; restored, 1,127 ; received, 278 ; total, 2,995. Died, 759 ; excluded, 1,152 ; dismissed, 208 ; withdrawn, 134 ; erased, 996 ; total, 3,249. These figures show a net decrease of 254. Compared with the year 1899, the baptisms are fewer by 181, and the restorations more by 19. The aggregate membership is given as 33,462 ; and the inquirers under instruction are returned as 4,372. From 150 churches there are returns of the attendance at the Lord’s Supper. These churches contain 27,784 members, and the average number at the Lord's Table was 12,149, which gives a percentage practically the same as that shown in the last report.

"CHURCHES BEYOND THE SEA.

"There are now 14 churches situated beyond the shores of Jamaica included in this Union. Reports have been received from 11 of these; and these reports show that 50 have been baptized, 16 restored, and 41 received. Losses have been sustained to the extent of 80. The net increase, therefore, is 28, the membership 1,091, and the number of inquirers 143. There is a discrepancy, unaccounted for, of 29 in the membership as compared with the last returns. Adding these figures to those relating to the churches in Jamaica, the total number of members connected with the Union is 34,653."

BRITTANY AND ITALY.

BRITTANY.

PRINCIPAL STATION AND MISSIONARY

BRITTANY.—Morlaix.—Rev. A. L. JENKINS.

STATIONS	12
Native Evangelists	5

Reviewing the experiences of the past year, the Rev. Alfred L. Jenkins, of Morlaix, writes :—

"With regard to the work in general, I am glad to be able to speak more hopefully than I did two or three years ago. We were, at that time, in the full swing of a clerical reaction that threatened to sweep away the Republican Government with its free institutions. The political atmosphere is clearer to-day. Through the mists of the Dreyfus affair the Government saw at length the breakers ahead, and began in right earnest, but none too soon, to steer in the opposite direction. The first step was to dissolve the assumptionists who had covered the country with the net of their powerful organisation, and it is now passing a law which may have far-reaching consequences to check and place under control the growth of these religious societies. The consequence of this strong-handed policy is that the clerical and military party are cowed down, and that the country is returning to a sense of security. The defeat of the clerical party has naturally brought about the abatement of the anglophobia fever, so that we are once more sailing in smoother waters.

"In taking a survey of the work in connection with our Mission, I shall give you a summary of each worker's report, as much as possible in his own words.

"THE GUILLY.

"Beginning with this station, which is at the furthest end of our field, Mr. Chopin, who has the charge of the school and of the work in that district, says the past year has proved a successful one for the school, and, judging from outward appearances, there has also been improvement in the other departments of the work. The number of our regular day scholars has been 66—24 girls and 42 boys. Twenty-three of these come from the Guilly itself, and 43 from the neighbouring villages. The progress has in every way been satisfactory. The evening classes have been followed by 28 adults, some of these being over 33 years of age. The first prize for this class was carried off by a man 43 years old, who had learned to read.

"The number of Sunday-school pupils has been 38, 34 of these having been most regular in their attendance. Their text-book is the New Testament, which is committed to memory, and Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress,' which is read and explained. In connection with the Sunday-school we have a Temperance Society and Christian Union. One hundred and fifty boys and girls have now passed through the school since it was opened. It can be safely affirmed that, had it not been for the school, these children would not only have remained illiterate, but ignorant of what Christianity means. The spiritual fruits of this teaching in some of these children is evident and encouraging.

"From Lanneanou our friend Collober writes that he also, despite the continued attacks of the clergy in his district, has been encouraged in his work, and has extended it to parts which had not been visited before. The meetings in the Mission Hall of Lanneanou have been carried on as usual, and attended by some thirty-five or forty persons. On some special occasions the hall has been very full. That such should be the case in a village under the very shadow of the Roman Catholic Church, under the very eyes of the pariah priest, is an encouraging fact to one who knows the peculiar difficulties of the work. The medical part of the work has been carried on as heretofore, and upwards of 800 patients have applied for medical advice and help. Valuable opportunities have thus been given of saying a word of comfort in cases of sickness and suffering, and friendships have been formed which have materially helped on our special work. Our preaching operations have extended over a radius of nine miles round Lanneanou, and in about a dozen different hamlets meetings have been held more or less regularly. Cottage meetings could in this manner be considerably increased in number, but experience has shown us that the quality of the work rather than its extent is the object to be aimed at. With regard to spiritual results it is difficult to speak in a definite manner, as they are not easily gauged. One would like to see people who have long listened to the preaching of God's Word take a decisive step, but it must be remembered that most of the grown-up portion of our population cannot read, that by nature they are slow and most conservative, and that, besides, they are clanish, slaves to family ties, unused to act alone and from conscientious motives. If this be kept in mind it will not be difficult to understand why our progress is apparently so slow. The wonder to people who know the country is that we should have been able to establish ourselves in the very heart of the country, and that we should have met with any good results.

"ROSCOFF.

"Our friend David, who removed to Roscoff in the latter part of the year to take charge of the Sailors' Rest in that seaport town and of the work in the surrounding district, writes as follows: 'I came to Roscoff with considerable apprehension expecting great difficulties from what I had heard and knew of the population along our seaboard. I have been to a certain extent happily disappointed, and now look more cheerfully and hopefully at the prospect of the work I have undertaken.'

"The Sailors' Rest has been opened four times a week, and the Roscoff sailors, who used to come formerly, have availed themselves freely of the opportunity of spending a quiet hour in reading or in conversation. I was delighted to find that they knew and sang very well MacAll's hymns; of these, in fact, they are never tired. The singing has often led to religious conversations and discussions, which they prefer to a set address.

"Apart from Roscoff I have visited S'Pol de Leon, Santee, and the Isle of Batz in company with our colporteur Morvan. In the Isle of Batz the people seemed more approachable. We had several conversations with the people in their houses and in the fields.

"MORLAIX.

"The supervision of the above fields of labour, together with my pastoral work in Morlaix, the Madeleine, and Primel, has been my share in the work. With regard to our town, and the French part of the work, I can only say that the services have been regularly held, and attended very faithfully by the Christian friends resident in the town. Twice, once at Easter and the second time at Christmas, we have had our annual meetings in town, when all the friends in communion with us and residents in the country met round the Lord's Table and for mutual conference. These have been times of refreshing, of happy intercourse, when the brethren comfort and strengthen each other by telling of what the Lord is doing in their several fields.

"Our meetings at the Madeleine have been also carried on with regularity and with better attendance than for some time past; but, as in former years, it is towards the rural districts where the population is unquestionably more accessible that our attention and efforts have more particularly been directed.

"At this moment this fishing hamlet, where our friend Lohon and myself hold alternately the Sunday services, presents some interesting and hopeful features. The meetings are well attended, and this is caused by an increasing interest in religious truth. In some homes the Scriptures are read with some earnestness and spiritual profit. To a certain extent this has been brought about by a woman who in the neighbouring village, though once a most devout and pious person, according to the Church of Rome, has been led to take a peculiar attitude towards her own church. She was some time ago so impressed by a vision, in which the corruption of the church was, she says, revealed to her so clearly, that she felt it her mission to call upon the priests to bring back religion to its early purity, and upon the people to reform their ways. The consequence of her attitude was her being refused absolution and communion, and practically branded as a heretic by the clergy of her own parish. In the meantime she came to Primel, and found that what I preached was in accordance with her own thoughts. She has continued since to attend our meetings, and has addressed the people several times, urging upon all to turn to God if they would flee from judgments which cannot fail ere long to fall on an unfaithful generation. The attitude and words of this woman, who belongs to one of the most respectable families in the neighbourhood, is naturally the talk of the whole parish, and I do not know yet what will come out of it, but it may prove the beginning of an awakening at Primel.

to us in connection with new work taken over from the American Society. The total membership for the district is now 295, a net increase on last year of thirty-seven. The amount raised in connection with the churches has been £119 18s. 9d. ; in Turin, £65 6s. ; in Meana and district, £11 19s. 10½d. ; in Susa, £8 11s. 0½d. ; and in Genoa, £34 1s. 10d.

“The following have been the principal events of the year :—

“In Turin a property has been purchased in an excellent position for the erection of permanent mission premises, at a cost of £1,600. There is on the property a two-storied building, which, at comparatively small cost, will be adapted to the purposes of the Mission, providing a chapel, schoolroom, vestries, class-rooms, and residence for the caretaker. Building operations will be undertaken when the necessary funds are forthcoming. In the meantime a temporary hall will be opened for public worship and for evangelistic services.

“In Meana the new chapel has been completed and opened. During the year the debt on the building has been reduced by about £82, and of this sum £70 has been raised in the country.

“Our mountain work has been extended in two new directions ; four new stations having been occupied, and a good chapel having been taken possession of in Torre Pellice.

“In Genoa, through the intrigues of the clerical party, we were turned out of the hall, which we had occupied for twenty-three years, and where my late brother began his work. By the grace of God, however, we have been able to secure other premises, which promise to become an equally good centre for evangelistic effort.”

THE TURIN MISSION.

The Rev. Robert Walker, the colleague of Mr. Landels, writes relative to the work in Turin :—

“The remarkable watchnight service with which the last year of the century was ushered in, and which Mr. Landels described in the Report for last year, along with other indications, gave us good reason to hope that it would be a year of success and progress for our Mission, and with grateful hearts we acknowledge that on the whole it has proved to be so. Difficulties and disappointments there have been, but on the whole, as we look back on the year's work, we see great reason to thank God and take courage. Showers of blessing such as we eagerly hoped for have not fallen on us, but all through the year the Lord has been pleased to manifest His presence in our midst in numberless ways. There has been decided growth in many of our members, and the meetings have been well sustained in both locali. In the especially the opportunities for getting at the people have been most encouraging. The Sunday evening meeting has generally been crowded. Indeed, with the exception of the three hottest months of summer, it has been uniformly full, and frequently numbers have had to turn away for lack even of standing room. The week-night meetings, of which we held ninety-six in the same hall, had an average attendance of seventy. Figures do not always mean much, but such congregations as we get and the close attention they always pay to the whole service, make it reasonable to hope that the results of which we know nothing are much greater than those which come to our knowledge, and that by and bye the seed sown will produce a harvest which will glorify the Saviour. In order to give further opportunity to any who wish to avail themselves of it we have completely changed the nature of the Sunday evening meeting in and turned it into a familiar gathering for testimony, prayer, experience and appeal. The change is likely to produce excellent results, both in the church members and among the outsiders. Besides this, and with the same object, we have begun a public Bible class in the Galleria Hall, and hope thereby to get into closer contact with some of our regular hearers, and lead them to decision.

“In the month of September, when Mr. Landels and his family returned from England, we held a special meeting to congratulate him on the attainment of his twenty-fifth year in the Mission in Italy, and to say good-bye to Signor Cesano, who was about to leave Turin to take charge of the work at Torre Pellice.

“Of the nine candidates for membership referred to in the last report only five remained steadfast, and were baptized. The other four were evidently not prepared to take up their cross and follow Christ, although convinced that it was their duty to do so. But in the course of the year others came forward, and the total number of baptisms reached was fourteen, of whom, however, only eleven were added to the membership of the church.

“We have held several meetings for the purpose of making a special appeal to those whom we had reason to believe were ‘not far from the kingdom.’ Several of them responded as we hoped they would, and on the last night of the year, when we again had a watch-night service, we were greatly cheered by seeing several more rise up and declare their decision to follow the Saviour, while many of our members expressed a desire for a more intimate and faithful life of consecration. The presence of the Holy Spirit was felt very powerfully in the meeting, and at the close of it a man whom worldly considerations had a short time previously kept back from joining his wife in baptism, asked if we could not baptize him right off! That was not possible, but on the second evening of the new year we had the pleasure of immersing him.

“At present we have again nine candidates for membership: of these at least four will be baptized very soon, and we trust that several others, who are being specially prayed for, will soon come forward.

“The last event to which I shall refer is one which is destined to exercise a great influence on the future of the mission, and for which we are profoundly thankful. I mean the purchase of a site on which to erect mission premises. As our friends know, this has been an object of anxious search and earnest prayer for years, so that it was with feelings of thankful hopefulness that we took possession of the site on the first day of the new century. The site is now secured and paid for, but the chapel and schoolrooms, which we are most anxious to have, cannot be erected until the needed funds are forthcoming. We trust the friends of our mission will come to our aid now, and supply the money required for this object. With a very small outlay we shall be able to arrange a temporary hall, but as we leave our central hall in Via Maria Vittoria this year, we shall labour under serious inconvenience until the new premises are available for our work.”

The Rev. W. K. Landels sends the following reports :—

MOUNTAIN WORK.

“The field of our operations among the Alps has during the past year been considerably extended. Formerly that work was restricted to the valley of the Dora, with stations in Susa, Meana, Gravera and Mattie. We have now commenced work in the valleys of the Pellice and the Chisone, with stations in Torre Pellice and San Germano, and in the valley of the Stura, with centres of work in Cuneo and Castelletto. Our mountain stations have therefore increased in number from four to eight.

SUSA.

"For the last two or three years we have not been satisfied with the condition of the work in Susa. We have felt that our evangelist stationed there has not been adapted for the place. I am sure that the Committee has done wisely in deciding to send Signor Barretti to Viterbo. The past year has not, however, been without blessing, three persons having been added to the church by baptism. In the future the work will be carried on more economically and we trust more effectively. The station will be placed under the immediate care of the Meana evangelist, and we shall send up a lay evangelist once a fortnight from Turin to assist him.

MEANA.

"The last year of the century will be a memorable one in the history of the work of the Gospel in this parish. In the first place the work has gone on steadily and well; and there has been a net increase of eleven in the Church membership, all the additions having been by baptism. Then there is marked progress in the spiritual life of many of the brethren.

"On March 19th, on the sixth anniversary of our first visit to Meana, the new chapel was opened for public worship amidst the rejoicings of the people. As a letter from our good friend, Mrs. W. P. Lockhart, appeared in the July number of the MISSIONARY HERALD, giving a graphic account of the opening services, it is needless for me to say anything further here. In the same number of the MISSIONARY HERALD I appealed to our friends at home for a bell and a clock for the tower of the church. The response was most generous. The bell, which with its mountings and wheels weighs nearly seven hundredweight, was given by a lady in Scotland, and is already in its place. The clock, the gift of a number of friends, is now being erected and will soon be completed. To all these friends our most hearty thanks are due. The work in Meana is now firmly established, and is looked on by the people as one of the regular institutions of the place.

"The prosperity which the church has of late enjoyed is very largely due to the untiring efforts of the evangelist, G. B. Seragber, who is now carrying on the work. A more whole-hearted and truly consecrated young man it would be difficult to find anywhere. He is now well known, and much respected over the whole district.

MATTIE.

"The work in Mattie has been carried on in the face of the greatest opposition. The meetings, in consequence of the fierce persecution, are not so well attended as at first; still, the interest of many has been aroused, the affection of not a few has been gained, and during the year four converts have confessed Christ in baptism and have been added to the church in Meana. Two of these, young men of some little education, are now among our most useful members, both being teachers in the Sunday-school.

GRAVERE.

"Of the three parishes Gravera is the one where the work gives the least satisfaction. Meetings are regularly held on the Sunday and during the week, the interest is well maintained, but we seem to make but little, if any headway. During the year only one convert has been added to the church from that district.

"In glancing at the whole work in the Valley of Susa, there are two circumstances to which I wish to call especial attention. The first is the continual emigration from which the mission so much suffers. Year after year large numbers of our people, and many of the young folk from the Sunday-school, go away into France and into Germany in search of work, and as a rule stay away for a number of years. Were all the people who, during the past six years have been gained for the Truth still in Meana, our chapel would be too small to accommodate them all, as those who have gone away may be counted by scores. The second noticeable feature of the work is that during this year the local expenses of the whole district will still be met on the spot. The only expense connected with the work for which we must seek help outside is the salary of the evangelist, and even this we hope to raise without drawing on the funds of the Baptist Missionary Society.

TORRE PELLICE.

"The work in this district has been handed over to us by another society, together with the chapel in Torre Pellice. I regret to say that the work has virtually to be begun over again, and I also regret to say that I have found the building to be in a state of bad disrepair, and that a considerable sum will have to be spent to put it into proper order. Our evangelist, Sig. Cesano, who had been working most successfully in Turin, went to settle in Torre in the month of November last, and, after carefully looking into things, he found that there were seven effective members in connection with the church. Since he began work, however, the meetings have been well attended, and he is much encouraged. There are now a number of inquirers, and before long he hopes to hold a baptismal service.

"The distance from Torre Pellice to San Germano is so great that Signor Cesano is not able to go there more than once a week. In this station there are five members, and the prospects are hopeful.

CUNEO AND CASTELETTO.

"Of the work in this valley it is too soon to say much in the way of report. It has only lately come into our hands, and the distance is too great for frequent visits from Turin. For this reason it has been decided to send Signor Tummolo to take charge of the work, and towards the end of February he will go to settle in Cuneo.

"In Cuneo itself it will be necessary to begin a new work. We have two friends there who are full of zeal for the cause, but so far there is no church. In Casteletto, a village among the mountains at some distance from Cuneo, there is a group of fourteen believers, most of whom have been baptized. These friends are full of zeal and love to Christ, and there is every hope that the work there will prosper and extend into other hamlets and villages."

GENOA.

Signor N. Nardi Greco reports upon the work in the important City of Genoa as follows :—

"Through the intrigues of the Catholic party we have been turned out of our locale in Piazza de Ferrar. That hall was too much in view and too public for the peace of those who love the darkness rather than the light; and there was great rejoicing among them when at last they succeeded in getting rid of us. But the Lord has been gracious to us in giving us another hall in a central position, which promises to be as useful as the other. During the five months we have been there we have been greatly encouraged, six new members having been added to the church.

"One case of conversion has been of special interest. It is the case of a Jew, who for many years lived on the coast of the Red Sea and was Italian Consul at Hodeida. He had often heard the Bible read and expounded on the English ships, and appears at that time to have been impressed. A short time ago he came to settle in Genoa, and whenever he came to our meetings I noticed with how much attention he listened to the preaching of the Word. When the Spirit touched his heart and opened his mind to the truth, he frankly and sincerely declared himself the follower of Jesus Christ, and placed his trust in Him as the only Saviour. In a few days he will confess his faith in baptism, and our Church will no doubt be edified thereby. I am hoping that his conversion will lead to the conversion of all his family, with whom I am on the best of terms. He himself said to me lately, 'You will see that I shall be a zealous evangelist in the midst of my family.'

"During the year we have lost eight members. Three have died, and five have gone away to America. The present number of our members is 141.

"We have collected during the year Lire 852.33. The sum is certainly nothing like what it ought to be; but it must be remembered that our Church membership is largely composed of working men with large families and small pay."

THE TUSCAN DISTRICT.

TUSCANY.

The Rev. N. H. Shaw, who has charge of the work in the Tuscan district, writes:—

"Tuscany, this very hard field, has been specially hard of late. Evangelists of every denomination have felt the work to be more difficult. The cold indifference, if not the silent contempt, and the ingrained unbelief of one class of the population continually recall the words of Macchiavelli, a typical Florentine: 'We Italians owe it to the Church and the priests that we are become bad and without religion.' Another class has been made less approachable by us, by the clerical reazione. This year in Florence, and some other cities, by the favour of the authorities, there have been pompous Church processions through the public streets, such as have not been seen for twenty years. Were I to mention all the obstacles to our work arising from the habits and customs of the people, and not unfrequently from the arrangements and decisions of municipal and educational authorities, to say nothing of the constant hindrance which we find in the chronic poverty and misery of a great part of the population, my readers would wonder how we can do any good at all. Coleridge in one of his poems says there are times when hope and love fail, and when patience with a statue's smile and a statue's strength takes up the work of both. We have been, and still are, passing through a time in which, if hope and love have not failed—and, thank God, they have not—we have had to rely very largely on patience.

FLORENCE.

"We have in Florence suffered much from sickness and death. The aged people, of whom the church was chiefly composed, have needed much visiting, and are failing us through feebleness and deaths, and their places are not filled by younger persons as we should like. We have had around us a considerable number of young people to many of whom we have been made the means of spiritual life, and some have been baptized, but they have had to leave Florence in search of work elsewhere. We are in this city very much like many village churches in England that do a most necessary work, but have not the satisfaction of retaining their members.

"One sister who has died during the year was one of the first Evangelicals in Florence at a time when the converts from Romanism in Italy were all in this city, and could be counted on the fingers of one hand. She was one day taking part in a Bible study in her own house a few steps distant from our present church, when the house was entered by the gendarmes of the reigning Duke, and she, her husband, and Count Guiceardini and another were arrested and conveyed to prison. They were afterwards exiled. She has been faithful unto death, and in the midst of sickness and poverty was always cheerful. She loved to come to the meetings, and on Sunday mornings she used to come an hour and a half before the time of service, and there sit meditating and listening to our instruction of the children. Her example and spirit were such as to make her departure a heavy loss to us all. Another sister who died in the hospital astonished the other patients, as well as the attendants, and won their hearts by her consistent testimony to the power of Christ's love, and by the calm, cheerful faith with which she awaited and triumphed over 'the last enemy.'

"My English classes have on the whole been well attended, over fifty persons being enrolled in them, to most of whom we have been able very often to preach the Gospel and to expound the Scriptures.

"The most notable experience of the year has been the opening of another mission hall, with Sunday-school, in a needy part of the city, called Via Ponte alle Mosse. The population there is a very neglected one, difficult to reach and benefit, and the work is in many ways a severe tax on our strength. But we have been able to preach to an encouraging number of people; have gathered around us a hopeful school, the children seeming to be attached to their teachers and learning willingly portions of Scripture; one man is desirous of joining the church, and other adults seem to be seriously disposed. We have baptized during the year four persons and received one who had already been baptized, but have lost six. Our present numbers are sixty-three, of whom sixteen are in various other parts of the world, away from Florence; three are in the workhouse; two have been smitten with paralysis; eight are ill, and some of them are never likely to come again to our meetings; twelve are so situated that we can only hope to have them with us on rare occasions; two are under discipline; and two others are unsatisfactory. This leaves only eighteen members of the church on whose presence we can generally rely, and several of these are often kept from us by circumstances peculiar to their occupations and surroundings. Notwithstanding extreme poverty, the church has contributed during the year Lire 658,37 (£26 6s. 8d.), much of which represents a sacrifice such as is rarely met with in England. I record with thankfulness the earnestness and zeal of my colleague, Signor Besesti, who has laboured with a faithfulness and constancy worthy of all praise.

LEGHORN.

"Signor Allegrì reports somewhat more cheerfully than he did in the past respecting the work at Leghorn. The attendance at the meetings is slightly improved, and several persons give signs of having received the truth in their hearts. It is, however, still in the country districts, which he visits on his bicycle, that he finds his chief encouragement. In some of the towns and villages which he visits he has sold a good number of Scriptures, distributed many tracts, held innumerable and interesting conversations, and been made a blessing to not a few souls. These people are delighted with his visits, and some of them give proof of having been truly, regenerated, changed in heart and life.

PRATO.

"Also at Prato we are hoping that a change for the better is taking place. The man who by his immoral conduct caused us such weakness and hindrance professed himself penitent. Two or three of the brethren are showing signs of spiritual life, and giving us reason to hope that our prayers and efforts for them have not been in vain. If only we could secure a suitable hall to which to invite the public, we might now hope for converts, but we have not yet been able to find one.

SANSEPOLCRO.

"This is a new venture, sustained by several friends independently of aid from the Society. Sansepolcro is a walled city, near the source of the Tiber, about an hour by rail from Arezzo. We have there a suitable mission hall, and an evangelist who has been highly recommended to us, Signor Spiro Lopresti, B.A., B.Sc. It is too soon to expect many or definite results. There has been active opposition on the part of the clergy.

"Signor Lopresti also visits Arezzo, which is an extremely bigoted city, San Guistino, and other places.

"Our statistics for Tuscany are the following :—Members, 93 ; baptized, 4 ; lost by deaths and otherwise, 6 ; children in Sunday-schools, 69 ; teachers, 8 ; contributions for all purposes, Lire 747,37."

THE CENTRAL, OR ROMAN DISTRICT.

The Rev. James Wall, writing upon the experiences of the past year says :—

"The last year has been one of disaster in Rome. The murder of our good King Humbert, the awful and increasing misery of the people, the wholesale emigration from some parts of the country, the floods and consequent desolation, and above all the Papal Jubilee, with its flood of insult to Italy by bigots from every part of the world, have contributed towards this result. These hundreds of thousands who came as pilgrims to Rome expected miracles of deliverance for the 'prisoner of the Vatican,' and were certain that at least the leviathan of heresy would be taken and destroyed. 'Our halls were to be closed, our congregations scattered, our names execrated, and Michael the archangel was to stamp the head of heresy down to perdition.' The pilgrim tide has come and gone, and, like the Tiber, has left nothing but its mud, in the shape of slander and libel of missionary work in Rome. The last of these pilgrimages, composed of English Roman Catholics, was headed by the Duke of Norfolk, who stated that we missionaries accomplished our work by corrupting the faith of the young and of the poor in Rome. One thing is evident, that the Jubilee leaves the Pope in mortal dread of Protestants. A few years since he ignored our presence in Rome, now he sees us everywhere. Then we were to him a few isolated fanatics, unrecognised by Protestant Churches; now he sees behind us the wealth and will of both hemispheres. Catholic rosaries were soon to dispose of us, a new order, 'De preservanda fide,' was founded to oppose us, now, with falling heart, he declares that his only hope is in the temporal power, and, like Augustus, he cries 'Give me back my legions!'

"Whatever may be said of missionary work in Rome, it is evident, from the confession of the highest Roman Catholic authority itself, that the position of the Pope is no longer tenable. The struggles of the past between the altar and the throne, between despotism and law, between custom and reason, between tradition and conscience, have found their natural result in what is taking place at the present moment in Rome. The silver trumpets of papal jubilee may never be heard again in St. Peter's. Strange cries rise in the distance, as of multitudes in tempest, Famine and fever and violence are rife in the land. Gospel and law and order are trampled under anarchical and sacerdotal feet. The power of the lie, of the idol, of the myth is gone. No control is recognised, no remedy believed in, nothing expected but that moment when every man shall be a law unto himself.

"While such a war is being waged, and such tremendous issues are at stake, it behoves every soldier of the Cross to be on the alert, waiting for his Lord's command. We regret to see how the majority of the Christians who come to Rome ignore the whole struggle and interest themselves only in the most ancient idol or the most recent discovery, and how those who remain at home seem colour-blind to the frowning signs of the times."

OUR EVANGELISTIC CENTRES.

Mr. Wall supplies the following report as to the evangelistic centres in the City of Rome worked by himself and the Italian evangelists.

The first is the house belonging to the Society in the Piazza, in Lucina, where Mr. Wall resides, and which may very suitably be termed the headquarters of the Mission. The Central Church meets in this building.

He writes:—

"The church is composed of 268 members. During the past year twenty new members have been added, seventeen by baptism. Five public meetings are held here every week throughout the year, besides which there are the Sunday-schools, the mothers' meetings, catechumen classes, daily prayers, Christian Endeavour, working classes for boys, singing classes, a class for teaching brass instruments, and frequent tract distribution.

" Station No. 2—Prati is an immense new quarter beyond the Tiber to the north of the Vatican. The following meetings are held there :—Preaching three times a week, Sunday-school, mothers' meeting, little girls' sewing class on Thursdays.

" This district is less under the influence of the priest than the old quarters, and will in time require a large and convenient place for the work which is developing fast.

" Station No. 3—Borgo.—Our hall, which is situated in the oldest part of the Leonine city and the one nearest to the Vatican, is in a secondary street and in many ways unsuitable. It has hitherto been found impossible to do better both because of the scarcity of suitable places, and also because of the reluctance of proprietors to let to Protestants.

" Now, however, that reluctance seems to have diminished, and I have been able to take a 'locale' in the principal street of the Leonine city, through which those who go to St. Peter's pass.

" The following meetings are held at Borgo :—Preaching three times a week, Sunday-school, medical mission, mothers' meeting, and little girls' sewing class on Thursdays.

" Station No. 4—Trastevere.—During the past year we have hired a 'locale' near the site where the new chapel is being erected. In this temporary hall there has been preaching twice a week, Sunday-school, a crèche, and a little girls' working class on Thursdays. In a large room, not far off, kindly lent us for the purpose, are held the meetings for the very poor and the mothers' meeting.

" The new chapel, which is nearly finished, will be well adapted to the various work carried on in that distant but very important part of Rome. It would be difficult for anyone to imagine the opposition and the persecuting spirit of the priests in that quarter of the city during the erection of the new 'locale.' Legal proceedings against us, petitions to the local authorities signed by their followers, public services in the adjoining church, individual visitation and reports of lying miracles and special intervention of the saints in Heaven, are among the many means they have used to arrest our progress.

" What strikes one most is the power for evil which the Papacy possesses. It conspires, it anathematizes, it libels, and where it can it terrorises. In some measure it possesses, like an evil spirit, a great part of the population. Realising that its time is short, it convulses its victim before being finally cast out.

" Station No. 5—Consolazione.—During the past year this station has suffered through being worked, necessarily, with less energy than formerly. At present it is very encouraging. The meetings held here are as follows :—Preaching three times a week, Sunday-school, medical mission, mothers' meeting, and a little girls' sewing class on Thursday.

" Station No. 6—Piazza Vittorio Emanuele.—This 'locale' is splendidly situated in the midst of a dense population, and requires less effort to fill than either of our others. It is a pity that we are unable to hold a meeting there every night, as it would be always full."

In connection with the Sunday-schools in Rome there are 755 children in fairly regular attendance; and Mr. Wall regards this department of mission work as most important and promising.

THE WORK IN THE ROMAN PROVINCES.

Mr. Wall reports that there have been 72 baptisms in connection with the past year's work in the Roman Provinces.

There are some seven or eight small churches, which continue from year to year, with only a minimum of help from the centre in Rome ; and there are at present several converts waiting for baptism.

ROME, VIA URBANA.

The Rev. J. Campbell Wall has under his superintendence the work carried on at Via Urbana and Via-degli-Equi.

He writes :—

“Work in Rome during the past year has been constantly opposed by clerical activities. It had been thought possible to crush all our efforts by the employment of overpowering numbers and wealth. In the neighbourhood of all evangelical churches and schools there have therefore sprung up corresponding centres of Romanist influence. The avarice of the Vatican denied itself in supreme efforts to ‘defend the faith’ against a handful of Protestants. And yet not one of our halls was closed during the ‘Holy Year of Jubilee.’ In Via Urbana and at Via Equi a total of 28,564 attendances was secured, the slight decrease upon last year’s results being due to my absence from this work during a considerable part of the year.

“Of five baptisms in Via Urbana, one was peculiarly interesting, viz., that of a Waldensian theological student who had in his study of the New Testament been convinced of this spiritual doctrine. Four members have been transferred to other churches in Italy, among these one of our best workers, a young lady who has married a minister of the Italian Free Church, an ex-priest converted and baptized under our ministry at Via Urbana some years ago.

“Sunday-school work has continued to be most encouraging, both in Urbana and at Via-degli-Equi. The Christmas treat this year was more successful than ever, showing the great interest of the scholars in their schools. We feel, however, the great need of capable teachers.

“An Infants’ day-school has been opened by an Italian young lady in Via Urbana. It is supported entirely on her own responsibility. We hope that another may be added shortly, through the generosity of a friend, in the centre of the crowded slums outside Porta S. Lorenzo. Neither of these schools will be quite gratuitous, the parents being required to contribute daily to their expenses. In the case of the very poor, tickets may be sold to charitable people and then distributed for immediate needs in the houses of the sick and out-of-work. The influence of these infant schools has been found most useful, both to the little ones and to their parents. The utilising of our halls when not otherwise occupied is a problem which is thus partially solved. It is also desirable to limit as much as possible gratuitous giving, although it would probably be well within the mark to say that for every penny given in charities by the Protestants here in Rome at least a pound is given in alms by Clerical or Roman Catholic organisations. And yet we have been lately accused of taking advantage of the economic conditions of this people in order to obtain our ends of propaganda.

“In conclusion, I would thank our workers—and especially Sig. Petocchi and his devoted wife—for their self-sacrificing efforts during a time of special difficulties and great demands. Will our friends at home remember this work in their prayers, that the work may be done while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work.”

FINANCE.

FOR the year just closed the Receipts for the General Work of the Mission (excluding all Special Funds and £4,123 0s. 6d. in liquidation of the Debt of 1899-1900),

Amounted to	£67,954	17	3
And the expenditure to	77,870	10	3
Leaving a debt of	£9,915	13	0

The total Receipts for the General work of the Society compared with those of the previous year exhibit an increase of £1,361 5s. 10d.

The Expenditure on the General work of the Society has been £77,870 10s. 3d., £4,153 18s. 4d. in excess of the Expenditure for the previous year.

This augmented Expenditure is wholly accounted for by an increase of £2,350 17s. 3d. in China and £1,861 3s. 11d. on the Congo.

The excess of Expenditure over Receipts in the previous year (1899-1900) was £7,123 0s. 6d. This sum, for the year just closed, has been further increased by £2,792 12s. 6d., making the present debt £9,915 13s.

It was clearly explained a year ago that the excess of annual expenditure over annual receipts was entirely due to the recent increase of missionary agency, by which 40 additional missionaries have been added to the staff of the Society in obedience to the mandate of the churches at the time of the Centenary celebration, the permanent maintenance of all these additional brethren, with the wives of such as have married, coming now upon the ordinary income of the Mission.

Referring to the receipts for the general work of the Society, it will be noted that the contributions from the churches for general purposes exhibit a decrease, as compared with the previous year, of £1,343 14s. 1d., but it should also be borne in mind that the Society has received—largely from the same churches—during the past year, for debt liquidation, anticipated deficiency, and Indian and China famines, a total sum of

It will also be seen that the amount received for legacies is less this year by £470 0s. 11d., and grants from the Bible Translation Society show a decrease of £500, as compared with the previous year.

The total receipts for the year just closed, including special funds, have amounted to

General Contributions	£67,954 17 3
Liquidation of last year's debt ...	4,123 0 6
Widows and Orphans' Fund	2,835 5 5

SPECIAL FUNDS—

Indian Famine Fund	11,006 18 2
China Famine Fund	798 9 7
And other funds, including £10,000 , the special gift of the late Mr. Robert Arthington, for forward work in Central Africa, under the Rev. George Grenfell ...	11,522 1 1
Making a total receipt of ...	£98,240 12 0

An increase of £20,598 9s. 5d. on the totals of the previous year, and the largest total ever received by the Society apart from the Centenary Fund.

CENTENARY FUND.

With regard to the Centenary Fund, the following is a statement of the remaining and allocated balances :—

For additional Missionaries	£20,800 0 0
For Mission Buildings	2,768 9 8
For Training Institutions and Trans- lation work	3,190 16 2
	£26,759 5 10

From the account now presented it is quite clear that, unless there can be secured from our churches a permanent increase of eight to ten thousand pounds in the annual income of the Society, there must be annually recurring debts. The only alternative is withdrawal from some of the fields of the Society's work, with a corresponding retrenchment of expenditure.

Surely the adoption of such an alternative cannot for a moment be seriously entertained by any of our churches. With open doors in all directions, with altogether unexampled opportunities for extended work, with numerous offers for mission service now before the Committee from earnest, gifted, and well-equipped young men, with the new century opening up demanding a new departure, larger consecration, more self-denial, and deeper sympathy with the Saviour in His great redemptive work, it cannot surely be that at such a time and under such circumstances our churches will for a single moment entertain such a thought.

If only half the gifts for special objects and funds contributed during the past year could be secured from the churches as permanent income of the Society, not only could an equilibrium be maintained between expenditure and receipts, but a margin would remain for reinforcements and extension.

For these reinforcements and extensions we have suitable men waiting to be sent who are absolutely kept back from the mission-field only for want of the necessary funds.

With the object of securing the requisite additional income, the Committee think that the time has now arrived for a systematic visitation of the churches throughout the United Kingdom during the forthcoming autumn, especially as they have refrained from making any such effort during the progress of the canvass of the churches on behalf of the Twentieth Century Fund.

the Committee feel there is most pressing need for its prompt extinction, so that the Society may begin the work of the first year of the new century without being hampered with such a burden.

The Committee have, therefore, decided to appropriate the balance of the Legacy Reserve Fund (£3,281 6s. 11d.) and a donation of the late Mr. Robert Arthington on behalf of the expenditure of the Congo Mission (£1,910 17s. 7d.) in reduction of the debt, leaving only a balance of which the Committee confidently believe will be speedily extinguished by the generous gifts of friends and supporters.

The record of work done and blessing received, as told in the foregoing pages by the workers themselves, cannot fail to excite feelings of devout gratitude to Almighty God, while the prospects for the future were never more encouraging and inspiring than they are to-day.

The real progress and success of Foreign Mission work must largely depend upon a widespread revival of primitive piety at home.

It has been well said, "There is too little prayer, and hence too little of the power that comes by prayer. Give us Elijah with his face between his knees, in sevenfold supplications, and we shall have the cloud like a man's hand, and then an overspread sky, and a mighty and refreshing rain."

TRIENNIAL INDIAN MISSIONARY CONFERENCE IN CALCUTTA, DECEMBER, 1900.

THE Indian Secretary, the Rev. Herbert Anderson, of Calcutta, writes :—

“I have much pleasure in sending you a photograph of a missionary group taken at our Triennial Indian Missionary Conference. I also send you an explanatory list of names which will enable friends to recognise all the assembled missionaries.

“The presence of Miss Annie Taylor, of Thibet, must add greatly to the interest of the picture—she is sitting to the right of Mrs. Rouse. The picture clearly indicates, I think, that the large proportion of our missionary staff are YOUNG MEN, and I am right glad that it is so.”

APPENDIX I.

Obituary Resolutions of Committee.

REV. RICHARD BEEDHAM, OF MATADI STATION, LOWER CONGO.
DIED, 13TH JUNE, 1900.

THE Committee report with very sincere sorrow that on the 8th July the Secretary received the following telegram from the Rev. Lawson Forfeitt, dated Las Palmas, 8th July, "Beedham died of dysentery; widow sailed for home Bruxellesville."

The Committee deeply sympathise with Mrs. Beedham in this overwhelming sorrow. They thank God for the devoted life and faithful labours of her husband. They earnestly pray for her that, in this season of sore sorrow, she may realise the all-sufficient grace and comfort of the Compassionate Saviour. For the bereaved families thrown into sudden grief by the removal of Mr. Beedham, they offer their deepest sympathies, and trust that they also may be supported by Divine grace.

REV. W. A. HOBBS, FORMERLY OF JESSORE, BENGAL.
DIED, 4TH SEPTEMBER, 1900.

The Committee learn with deep regret of the decease of the Rev. W. A. Hobbs, and place on record an expression of their regard and appreciation of him, who for many years faithfully served the Society as one of its missionaries in Bengal.

Mr. Hobbs went to India for the first time more than forty years ago, and laboured with diligence and success in the district of Jessore, and on returning to India after furlough was stationed at Soory. Throughout the whole of his missionary life he was an enthusiastic and diligent preacher of the Gospel. He was ever kind and tender in his treatment of the Native Christians, whose love and confidence he gained and held till he left the country, by whom his name is yet affectionately remembered. In dealing with the non-Christian people he was patient and earnest in setting forth the way of salvation, and in effort to win them for Christ. He was alert in body and in mind, cheerful and buoyant in temper, and devout in spirit, and loyal to the Master whom he served. He was loved and trusted by his brethren and colleagues as a generous and true-hearted brother, ever ready to sympathise with them in their work, their sorrows, and their joys.

After twenty years of good service, in consequence of his own health, and that of Mrs. Hobbs, he resigned his official connection with the Society, but retained to the end his deep interest in Mission work, and continued to render service to the Society by preaching and speaking at missionary meetings.

We pray that the widow in her loneliness may realise the Divine comfort and support the Gracious Lord can give, and that the sons may continue to rejoice in their father's God, and finally all together meet in the Eternal Home.

OUR MARTYRED CHINA MISSIONARIES.

The Committee have received with profound sorrow and horror messages from China conveying to us the sad tidings of massacres, in which the greater part of our Shansi brethren, with their wives and children, have been involved.

The suspense in which we were held by the prolonged silence of the brethren, and which, though it suggested many anxious fears, still left room for prayers and hopes, has now, alas ! been ended in a shock of pain and disappointment, and we are compelled to believe that the reports are too sadly true, and that our honoured and beloved missionaries have fallen victims to the ruthless savagery and blind hatred which so little understood their character and purpose.

The loss which our Society has sustained is too great for words, and for the time being irreparable.

The men and women who have suffered this martyrdom were richly gifted in mind and spirit, and among the bravest of the brave in the Lord's work. Some of them had been tried, proved and endeared to us by years of devoted service, and the others, whose work had more recently begun, were full of generous fervour and noble promise.

At present it is only a slight mitigation of our grief to know that they have fallen at the post of duty, bearing their witness with fidelity and heroism to the last, but we shall remember it in coming days with increasing satisfaction and thankfulness. These devoted ones have died to the Lord as they had long lived to the Lord, and we are persuaded that their final testimony will not have been given in vain. Again, as often before, it will be proved that the blood of martyrs is the seed of the Church, and the men, women, and even the children, who have been so cruelly sacrificed will be among those who, being dead, yet speak.

Our hearts are moved with deepest sympathy towards the mourning relatives and friends on whom this terrible stroke of bereavement has fallen. We send to them words of tenderest greeting and consolation, and assure them that we shall not fail to remember before the Throne of Grace the sacrifices which they have made in time past, and the anguish through which they are at present passing.

The following is a list of the Shansi staff of Missionaries who have fallen:—

Tai Yuan Fu.—Mr. and Mrs. Farthing and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Underwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse (all massacred 9th July, 1900).

Hsin Chou.—Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. McCurrach, and Mr. Ennals. Zenana Missionary: Miss Renaut (all massacred 9th August, 1901).

REV. JOHN JEFFERY, OF YAKUSU, UPPER CONGO RIVER.

DIED, 11TH NOVEMBER, 1900.

The Committee report with sincere sorrow the death of the Rev. John Jeffery, of Yakusu Station, on the Upper Congo River. The General Committee are already aware that Mr. Jeffery has been for many months in a most precarious condition of health, suffering from cerebral tumour, and weak action of the heart. Miss Briggs, of Clacton-on-Sea, the lady to whom Mr. Jeffery was engaged to be married, writes under date of 11th November, to the Secretary:—"You will not be surprised to hear that Mr. Jeffery has passed away; he entered into the presence of the King just before six o'clock this evening, not having moved or spoken since early on Wednesday. We are thankful that he felt no pain, and never experienced the bitterness of parting. My mother and I were with him to the very last."

The Committee commend very affectionately the bereaved relatives and friends to the solace and support of the compassionate Saviour. Mr.

Jeffery's sun has gone down while it is yet day, but he has left behind him the record of devoted service and a passionate love for the work of Christ on the Congo River, and his name will long live in the hearts of the peoples of the Yakusu district.

MRS. S. C. GORDON, OF STANLEY POOL.

DIED AT ATLANTA, GEORGIA, U.S.A., 26TH JANUARY, 1901.

The Committee are greatly distressed at this sad event. They request their Secretary to communicate with Mr. Gordon, and assure him of the earnest prayers of the Committee for his support and solace in this season of sore sorrow and bereavement.

MRS. R. H. KIRKLAND, OF BOPOTO, UPPER CONGO RIVER.

DIED, 12TH JANUARY, 1901.

The Committee deeply sympathise with their afflicted brother, Mr. Kirkland, and they earnestly pray that in this season of sore bereavement he may be comforted and sustained by the Gracious Presence of the Saviour. The Committee thank God for the beautiful life lived by Mrs. Kirkland, and for her intense devotion to the interests of the Congo Mission. Wherever she went she was loved and trusted, and for long years to come her name will be held in affectionate remembrance by the tribes and peoples of the Bopoto district. The Committee thank God for her abundant labours, and for the bright example she has left behind of entire devotion to the truest interests of the peoples of the Upper Congo.

REV. J. L. ROGER, OF STANLEY POOL, UPPER CONGO.

DIED, 25TH FEBRUARY, 1901.

The Committee deeply sympathise with the sorely stricken and bereaved widow and the two orphan boys in this mysterious dispensation, and they very earnestly commend them to the comfort and care of the gracious Saviour.

They thank God for the devoted life and labours of their dear brother, now called to the higher service of the Father's house, and for the bright example he has left behind of whole-hearted consecration to the great enterprise of bearing the Lamp of Life to the dark and degraded peoples of Central Africa.

MRS. W. R. RICKETT.

DIED, 29TH APRIL, 1900.

The Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society record with keen sorrow and regret the loss which the Society has sustained in the removal of Mrs. W. R. Rickett from its counsels, and from the number of its most earnest and generous supporters.

The services which she rendered were so manifold, and her gracious influence was felt in so many directions, that it is difficult to realise the full extent of the loss. Among the many Christian works to which she freely gave her sympathies and energies, there was none to which she was more enthusiastically devoted than that of our, and the sister Zenana, Society. Her presence, along with that of other ladies, at our Committee meetings helped largely to produce the atmosphere of sweetness and light and the all-pervading tone of gentleness and prayerful thought in which we have all rejoiced. We shall ever remember the bright intelligence, wise judgment and cheerful temper which she brought into all discussions. Though her words in our assemblies were few, they were always exactly in season, needed and helpful, often sparkling with genial humour, and never failing in the law of kindness. Still less can we forget the greater service which she rendered by her personal influence and presence at other gatherings, and especially in the capacity of hostess to missionary guests. She was a constant and loving friend to all our missionaries. The home—of which she shared the headship with our honoured Treasurer—was ever open to them; and the welcome which they received, and the sunny hours spent in that house, must have lingered in sweet memories for years amid the hardships and loneliness of their work in the foreign field.

There was in Mrs. Rickett a singular combination of mental and spiritual gifts. Strong and deep convictions and impassioned earnestness were united with a cultured breadth of view and a noble charity. Above all things there was a personal charm not easily defined, but growing out of her devotion to Christ, and the things of Christ, which won the purest admiration and love from all who knew her well, and made them feel that it was a high privilege to be numbered among her friends. We should be wanting in all true Christian sentiment if, in the pain of this bereavement, we failed to acknowledge our indebtedness to God for the life which has been lived, and the Divine grace which made it what it what it was. And we cannot help believing that the husband, who knew her best and feels her loss the most, will find in his stricken heart a place for gratitude of this kind. We offer to him, our honoured and beloved treasurer, the sympathies and tearful prayers of our deepest, kindest hearts. The grief which we feel helps us to measure his far greater grief, and we know that the truest words of human friends can afford but little consolation at such a time. We commend him and his family in prayer to the great Comforter, and ask that the Divine presence, on which he and his dear wife leaned and hoped when they were together, may be even more his strength and joy now that he is left alone; and we trust that, in the good providence of God, he may be preserved to continue long those labours for the Saviour's Kingdom in which she was for many years his faithful partner and helpmeet.

REV. BENJAMIN EVANS, OF GADLYS, ABERDARE.

DIED, 23RD AUGUST, 1900.

The Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society deeply mourn the loss which they, and the Society, have sustained through the death of the Rev. Benjamin Evans, of Gadlys, Aberdare. Well known throughout the Principality as one of the Secretaries of the Welsh Baptist Union, and of the Welsh Baptist Sunday School Union, he placed his great organising ability and business capacity at the disposal of our Missionary Society, and for many years rendered invaluable and ungrudging service as Mission Secretary for Wales, and compiler of the Welsh Edition of our Annual Missionary Report. We praise God for the unblemished integrity, tactful wisdom, cheerful geniality, and untiring zeal, which adorned his character; and for the success and blessing which crowned his busy life of service for God and man. We sympathise with the Church at Gadlys, where for nearly a quarter of a century he laboured with loyal devotion in the ministry of the Word, and with the widow and children, on whose behalf we implore the grace, comfort, and protection of our Triune God.

REV. WILLIAM HILL, SECRETARY OF THE BIBLE TRANSLATION SOCIETY.

DIED, 18TH OCTOBER, 1900.

By the death of the Rev. William Hill, the Baptist Missionary Society has lost a painstaking officer, and the denomination a faithful and devoted member. Mr. Hill has been known among the Churches during the last nine years as Secretary of the Bible Translation Society, and as an acceptable advocate of Mission work. But few outside the old and now, happily, almost obliterated limits of the General Baptist Association, were aware how largely his history had fitted him for both these positions. Born in 1828, Mr. Hill's interest in Missions was early evoked by the story of the devoted labours of the pioneer Missionaries in Orissa. Under the inspiring tuition of Rev. Joseph Wallis, then President of the G.B. College at Leicester, he was prepared for his work, subsequently assisting for a few months Rev. Hugh Hunter in his pastorate at Nottingham. In 1855 Mr. Hill sailed, accompanied by his young wife, to Orissa, "the focus of Hindu orthodoxy," the Holy Land of Hinduism. Here for ten years they laboured at Berhampore and Cuttack, until the serious illness of Mrs. Hill drove them home, and seemed to close the door against all return. But Mr. Hill found a congenial sphere of labour as pastor of the ancient church at Barton, and was enabled to preach the same Gospel among the villages of Leicestershire as he had found to be the power of God unto salvation among the hamlets of Orissa.

India, however, was not forgotten, and when Mrs. Hill's health had become re-established, they returned to the foreign field. It was a trying time. The chronic poverty of Orissa had been made desperate by famine, and large responsibilities for famine orphans rested upon the Missionaries. This second period of Mission work closed in 1875, when Mrs. Hill's strength again gave way. She returned to England a confirmed invalid, and passed away in 1882. Subsequently he married the widow of the Rev. J. Wilshere, Minister of St. Mary's Gate, Derby, who survives him.

From 1876 until the amalgamation of Particular and General Baptists in 1891, Mr. Hill was Secretary of the General Baptist Missionary Society. His command of detail, his intimate personal knowledge of the field of labour, his intimate acquaintance with the Churches at home, all contributed to his efficiency. When the amalgamation became an accomplished fact, these qualities enabled him to render good service to the united societies, and to help in no small degree to the adjustment of relationships between them.

For the last two or three years Mr. Hill lived at Wirksworth, and though of late his health was not so good as usual, the end came somewhat suddenly. He passed away on 18th October, 1900, at Derby.

HENRY WOOD, Esq., J.P.

DIED, 7TH OCTOBER, 1900.

With regard to the decease of Mr. Henry Wood, it was resolved to request the Secretary to convey to Mr. Ernest Wood an assurance of the deep and sincere sympathy of the Committee with him and the bereaved relatives in the heavy loss that has fallen upon them, and of the earnest prayers of the Committee for their Divine solace and support.

ROBERT ARTHINGTON, Esq., OF LEEDS.

DIED, OCTOBER, 1900.

In recording the death of Mr. Robert Arthington, of Leeds, which took place at Teignmouth, this Committee places on record its gratitude to God who implanted in him such hearty and lifelong interest in Mission work in foreign lands. In 1876, having long made the condition of Africa a special study, and encouraged by the reports of Dr. Livingstone and others, he conceived the bold idea of throwing a chain of Mission stations right across that Dark Continent. He made proposals to the London, and Baptist, and the Church Missionary Societies that they should approach the heart of Africa from the East, the West, and the South respectively, eventually joining hands; this proposal he supported by offers of money, by giving to the Baptist Missionary Society a steamer, the Peace, to navigate the Congo and its tributaries, and by subsequent gifts of money to each of these Societies. His aims have been to a large extent realised, and thousands have heard the Gospel message through his instrumentality.

Mr. Arthington's sympathies were not, however, confined to Africa. He engaged and supported two Missionaries among a tribe in Northern India, and aided others in South America. He also, shortly before his death, gave £20,000 for hospital and convalescent work in Leeds, and £9,000 (anonymously) to various Indian Famine Funds. His gifts for missionary and charitable purposes during the last twenty-five years, through one source alone, exceed £70,000, and what was given beyond this it is impossible to say.

This Committee further records its satisfaction that in the appropriation of the large sum which he had accumulated and designed for the purpose of translating and spreading God's Word in the regions beyond, he should have marked his confidence in the B. M. S. by asking it to appoint seven out of fourteen trustees to be associated with his executors in carrying out this the major part of the bequest.

REV. THOMAS BARRASS, OF PETERBORO'.

DIED, 7TH FEBRUARY, 1901.

The Committee has heard with unfeigned sorrow of the death of our brother, the Rev. Thomas Barrass, of Peterborough, who through his long ministry displayed so ardent and sincere an interest in the labour of our Society. It was the work in Orissa that inspired the zeal of his youth and won from him for many years an unflagging support in the counsels of Committees and in public advocacy; but no one welcomed with heartier zest the opportunities of service—in the wider fields of Africa and China, as well as in other parts of India—offered by the amalgamation of the two Societies, and to his latest moments the work of the Missionary held the supreme place in his affections and in his prayers. We think of him with affection as a brother beloved of God and men, gentle in spirit, gracious and winning in manners, pure and strong in character, and whole hearted in his devotion to the Saviour and His Kingdom. We glorify the Grace of God in him.

RICHARD FOULKES GRIFFITHS, ESQ., BARRISTER-AT-LAW.

DIED, 9TH APRIL, 1901.

It is with deep regret we hear of the decease of our friend and fellow worker, Richard Foulkes Griffiths. He is taken from us in the prime of his manhood ; but he has left with us gladdening memories of his Christian worth, of his trained powers, his singleness of purpose, and, above all, of his sustained devotion to the Gospel of Christ. He was unswervingly loyal to the faith and freedom, the ideas and service of our denomination, always willing and eager to give his time and ability to the promotion of the cause of humanity and of God ; and whilst he laboured more abundantly than many on behalf of temperance, national education, and righteousness, yet he always placed foremost in thought the duty of preaching the Gospel to all the nations. We thank God for his faithful work, and pray that his widow and family may be sustained and comforted of God.

(a) The population of Bankipur, Dinapur and Arrah is included under Patna; of Kharar under Kalka; of Magurah under Jessore; of Muttra under Bistapur; and of Pirojpur under Barisal.

(b) Owing to the difficulty of obtaining correct returns of our community, some of the figures in this column are approximate only.

(c) In several cases school fees are paid direct to teachers, who are allowed to retain them.

(d) Returns are not kept at all stations or this total would be largely increased.

AUXILIARY SOCIETIES IN GREAT BRITAIN.

When contributions are given for special objects, they are denoted as follows:—The letter T is placed before the sum when it is intended for Translations; N.P., for Native Preachers; W & O, for Widows and Orphans.

N.B.—It will be found that, in some instances, the connection of Churches in Auxiliary Societies interferes with the correctness of county arrangement; but this cannot be avoided without inconvenience.
