DAILY BIBLE STUDY

A system proved easy of adoption, interesting, and instructive by its world-wide success during the last 41 years, is that of the

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE READING A S S O C I A T I O N

It provides series of specially-selected readings to illustrate and enforce the teaching of which is the same as the "International" and as the "Intermediate" and "Junior" Graded Lessons to be taught in the School on the following Sunday.

By this means the mind of the Scholar is being prepared DAY BY DAY for the reception of the teaching in class.

IT INFLUENCES THE SCHOLAR.

A Scholar writes, October 26, 1922 :-

"The I.B.R.A. has had a tremendous influence on my life since I joined it when ten years of age, at the invitation of my Sunday School Teacher."

A Teacher says:-

"I find it a great help to the children in enabling them to better understand their lesson for Sunday. It makes our talks pleasant and interesting.

IT HELPS THE TEACHERS.

A Superintendent Writes, Oct. 29, 1922 :-

"I have found that the introduction of the I.B.R.A. system of Bible Reading has added a measure of interest and efficiency to the teaching in our School."

IT LINKS UP THE HOME WITH THE SCHOOL.

Rev. J. W. EWING, M.A., D.D., Secretary London Baptist Association, writes:—

"I gladly pay my tribute to the great value of the work of the International Bible Reading Association. In encouraging hundreds of thousands of readers to the study of the Scriptures, it is rendering a precious contribution to the life of our day.

"The carefully selected portions prepare week by week for the Sunday School Lesson of the next Lord's Day, and constitute a living link between home and school."

WHITE FIELDS.

A SURVEY OF THE YEAR 1922.

HE year 1922 was one of deep searching of heart, and of considerable readjustment owing to the new demands made on missionary forces and finances. At its end, as in review of many a previous year, our hearts are filled with praise. The seal of God has been on His work, and even the rough places of the way are eloquent of His faithfulness and grace.

Two notes are dominant. There were 3,596 baptisms during the year, and there was no financial deficit at its close. In times of such mental unrest and such commercial depression, both of these statements are very significant. We thank God, and thank the churches.

At the outset of the year there was a mathematical warning that there might be a deficit of £39,000. If receipts and expenditure had continued on the level of the previous year that was indeed inevitable. A Committee of Survey and Scrutiny was at once appointed to review expenditure at home and abroad, an action which caused considerable anxiety amongst the missionary ranks and amongst home supporters. But it has been justified by its results. Not that much money has been saved, but true economy has been promoted by the renewed emphasis on essential things, the enlargement of self-support amongst the Mission churches, and the call to wider evangelisation. Previous expenditure has also been in large measure justified by the inquiry.

The difficulties of the year were not lessened by the demand made by certain persons to impose new conditions on missionary candidates, "to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour." The Society continues in its old faith, bounded on one side by evangelical fidelity and on the other by evangelical liberty. A considered statement has since been issued by the Committee which should set that matter at rest once for all.

But while, in the sight of men, much water has been poured on the fire, One unseen has been pouring on oil; the flame has not been quenched. The Society has never in any one year of its history received so large a sum in legacies. In cash a total sum of £53,939 was paid to the various departments of the work, in addition to a number of securities which can be subsequently realised. Some of this help came from legacies left as long as five years ago, some from legacies quickly paid from the estates of friends whose presence and sustained support we shall greatly miss in coming years, some from legacies released under expressed conditions. The remarkable thing is that so much has been focused during this particular year, when help was so sorely needed. "This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes."

If the usual procedure had been observed, equalising the legacies over five years, there would this year have been a deficit of £13,339, but the Committee, under the special circumstances, acknowledging God's special provision for special need, felt justified in taking an amount large enough to clear away all the adverse balances. So we all face the new year with a clean sheet.

The Gift and Self-Denial Week yielded £8,054 8s. 10d., as compared with £7,839 4s. 2d. previously; the Native Preachers' Fund, £2,374 4s. 0d., as against £2,948 17s. 3d.; the Communion Offering for Widows and Orphans, £3,527 12s. 1d., as against £3,128 5s. 7d.

Very grateful thanks are due to the Missionaries on furlough who devoted themselves in unstinted measure to the advocacy of the Society all the year through in all parts of the country. The secretaries of the local auxiliaries have also put the Society under a deep debt by their persistent care. Those who so graciously gave hospitality to the missionaries rendered a signal service, and their kindness is not forgotten. The Laymen's Missionary Movement has done much to render the missionary visits happy and effective, and is hereby very heartily thanked.

The B.M.S. Travelling Representative, Rev. J. R. M. Stephens, had much acceptance with the churches, and the Representative for Wales, Rev. Thomas Lewis, was much encouraged in the Principality, being greatly helped during Mrs. Lewis's serious illness by Rev. William Davies, late of Puri.

One of the most gracious acts of the year was the despatch of fifty Christmas gifts, each valued at £5, to as many missionaries. The donor, who wishes to be known only as "Barnabas," has already received many letters of appreciation not only of the generosity of the gifts, but of the nature of them, the missionaries wondering how their needs were guessed and gauged with such understanding, some being quite sure that, as in all good things, "there was a woman at the bottom of it." But that is Barnabas's secret. It may be said, however, that the letters of those who received gifts have already suggested to Barnabas that others may be similarly enriched next Christmas.

During the year the Rev. E. Anstie Bompas, who was for six years Dr. Moorshead's right hand in the Medical Missionary Auxiliary, accepted the oversight of the church at West Ealing, which is to be heartily congratulated on securing him as its Pastor. The Women's Missionary Association was for six months without the services of Miss E. J. Lockhart while she was on deputation to India; Miss M. E. Bowser meanwhile assuming the burden of the women's work, assisted by Mrs. Wenham, late of China, whom everybody was glad to see at the Mission House. Mr. D. S. Wells came from the Calcutta office, and hopefully entered upon the accountancy at home, while Mr. C. H. Chapman, accompanied by his daughter, paid a visit to India. The Carey Press has made steady progress, and was never in a more flourishing state than at present, and the same may be said of the Lectures and Loans Department, which organised a considerable number of successful Missionary Exhibitions during the year.

The London Baptist Missionary Union, under the Presidency of Mr. W. E. Lord, who has succeeded Rev. H. M. Greenwood, has done much to deepen missionary interest in the Metropolis, while the London Monthly Conference held in the Mission House under the chairmanship of Mr. H. Carey Oakley, M.A., is perhaps the best sustained regular missionary gathering in the country.

Four special campaigns were undertaken under the title of "Three Days Thinking," when practically the whole Secretarial Staff of the Mission House, including Dr. Charles Brown, who, as Chairman of the Committee, is an official this year, visited Sheffield, Bradford, Nottingham and Northampton with the object of more thoroughly interesting the membership of the churches in the missionary enterprise, and were much encouraged by the result.

The Kettering Furlough Home has, since the memorable opening days last October, been successfully maintained by the wardens, Rev. John Howell and Mrs. Howell, and the Indian Students' Hostel in London, under the wardenship of Rev. W. and Mrs. Sutton Page, has now been opened. These two things alone make the year memorable, and establish the Laymen's Movement in the very life of the denomination. They are more fully described on page 112.

THE STORY OF THE FIELDS.

I—INDIA.

HE visit of Miss Lockhart and of Mr. and Miss Chapman to most of the B.M.S. Stations in India has been an event of great interest and value, the full effect of which will be realised in coming months as the Home Committee are able fully to consider the recommendations which have been received from the Missionary Conferences which the deputation attended.

The retirement of the Rev. Herbert Anderson from the office of B.M.S. Secretary in India has been followed by the appointment, as his successor, of the Rev. John Reid, of the Bengal Mission. Mr. and Mrs. Reid have taken up their new duties at the Baptist Mission House in Ripon Street, Calcutta, under the happiest auspices, having the full confidence and esteem of all their missionary colleagues as well as of the Officers and Committee at home. It is not necessary to write here of Mr. Anderson's great services to the B.M.S. and to the whole missionary enterprise in India. He has made for himself a place of honour and remembrance in the record of Indian Missions.

The B.M.S. has a large share of interest and actual partnership in the co-operative missionary movements of India. Mr. J. H. Oldham, of London, has been attending a series of important conferences preliminary to the National Council Meeting at Ranchi. These Conferences dealt with union in higher education in the Punjab, Village Education and the Indian Christian Community, Higher Theological Education in connection with Serampore College, and Devolution to the Indian Church. Plans for reorganisation of the National Council of Missions in India, in the form of a National Christian Council, have now been drawn up and are being submitted to all the churches and missions working in India for financial support.

The year 1922 was a time of brightening prospects for Christian missions in India. In the political world non-co-operation had lost its sting, and there was a cessation of the disorder which it had brought into many spheres of missionary work. At the same time a spirit of increased mutual respect characterised the relations of the Mission and those Indian Christian leaders most anxious for independence, and a determination to "work together" which gives reassurance in face of the problems of the future.

In writing his last report as Indian Secretary, Mr. Anderson gives a review of the progress of the Mission during the twenty-five years of his tenure of office. At the beginning of that period our staff in India numbered 46; now it has a roll of 130, and 50 wives. The annual record of baptisms was under 200; it is now, on an average, over 2,000. The Indian Baptist community in 50 stations and sub-stations numbered less than 1,500; now there are 150 stations and substations, with 45,000 adherents; and there is a well-graded and efficient educational system touching 13,000 young people. The membership of our scattered, weak and isolated churches was then about 1,400, and to-day we have a dozen Church Unions, with 200 churches and 15,000 members.

"We face the future," writes Mr. Anderson, "with growing faith and interest. The proposals for closer co-operation between all Baptists in India, and especially with Australian and New Zealand Baptists, have our sympathy and will have our hearty support. Indian Baptist church leaders will be greatly benefited if the Baptist community throughout India, Burma and Ceylon—nearly 300,000 strong—are more closely co-ordinated and related in their church and community life."

The number of baptisms in India for the year was 1,352, and it is notable that three out of four of the candidates were from the non-Christian community, the fourth being from among the families and adherents of the Indian Church.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

THE progress of Serampore College in the realisation of its ideals has recently been hampered by financial stringency, and it has been necessary to limit the European staff to four—the number now being supported by the B.M.S. In these difficulties, however, Serampore does not stand alone; and it is easy to understand that the present is a difficult time to induce any missionary organisation to make any new financial commitment for the support of the College on an inter-denominational basis. But Dr. Howells and his staff have unabated faith in its future, and the work of 1922 was carried on without intermission and with remarkable success.

In the Higher Theological Department there were 21 students in residence, including 6 Baptists, 4 Congregationalists and 7 Syrians; and in the Arts Department there were 265, of whom 62 were Christians, including 17 Baptists. The successes in the University examinations were quite up to the standard, 72 passing the Intermediate and 24 the B.A. examination. The United Theological College, Bangalore, the Union Theological Seminary, Pasumalai, Bishop's College, Calcutta, and Divinity College, Ahmednagar, are now affiliated to Serampore, and have the privilege of preparing as internal students for its diploma and degrees. Such entries, so far, number six.

"A new departure within the last few months has been the introduction of the Serampore Matriculation Examination, to enable students who have not taken the usual University course to enter upon our courses. At the theological examinations held in 1922, the candidates numbered 73 and examinations were held in 16 different centres located in all parts of India, while one candidate sat at the more remote centre of Seychelles in the Indian Ocean.

"Up to the present time the number of diplomas and degrees for which candidates have qualified at Serampore Examinations is as follows:—

"These distinctions have been gained by members of the Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian and Syrian communions. Serampore has thus established a relation of an important and far-reaching character with Christian bodies and Indian Christian students throughout India. Some months ago the Principal paid an interesting visit to one of our affiliated colleges—Pasumalai, S. India—on the invitation of Principal Banninga. The occasion was a Conference of Indian pastors and Christian workers of various denominations meeting together for discussion and fellowship. It was a revelation and deep encouragement to him to realise what a large place Serampore and all that it stands for has in the hearts of the leaders of the Christian Church in South India.

"The number of students in the Vernacular Theological Department at the end of 1921 was nine. Early in 1922, two new students were admitted. Of the students leaving during the year one was appointed by the Indian B.M.S. and another located at Rangpur as an evangelist of the B.M.S.

"There were 135 boys in the Collegiate School as compared with 153 last year. Of these 48 were Christians, 45 being Baptists. Twenty-four boys were sent up for the Matriculation Examination and 15 passed—12 in the First Division and 3 in the Second. Of these 6 are Baptist. In our last year's report we indicated that serious problems of a fundamental character in connection with the future of the school were likely to receive consideration of the B.M.S. Conference. The whole question of the future of the school has received prolonged consideration this year on the part of the missionaries on the field and the Committee in England. After more than one careful review of the whole situation, the men on the field were practically of one mind in recommending the transfer of the school to Bishtupur, in the South Villages, and at the time of writing, this recommendation is still awaiting the final sanction of the Home authorities. In the meantime, as already reported, Mr. Carpenter, the Headmaster of the school for the past seven years, has been transferred to Delhi."

The numbers in the Khulna Boarding School are much the same as last year. The year opened with 51 boarders and it closes with 49. Seven boys took the Serampore examination last November. They all passed, taking seven places out of the first eight.

At Cuttack the long-wished-for and long-needed new College is at last being built, in the Students' quarter of the town, Mr. Pike supervising the work and rejoicing in the approaching fulfilment of many "May God fulfil the dream and reward those in the Homeland—the churches and the Committee—who have desired to do this service for Orissa." Mr. Wilkins has been Acting Principal for the Theological Training College recently, with ten B.M.S. Students, two from the Canadian Baptist Mission, and two in training for the Orissa Church Union.

Mr. Biggs reports, with regard to the Stewart School, that the past year's experience gives cause for continued happy thanksgiving, and still makes heavy calls on faith. In point of numbers there has been a further increase, bringing the average to 80. The greatest number in the hostel has been 52. A gratifying feature has been the raising of the status once again to that of secondary, and reports since that step have been quite satisfactory.

"The two senior boys confessed Christ during the year. They have proved real evangelists in the school, and one of them, an orphan, has gone out now into the world a true disciple, and in this lad's case it means ' bear-

"Two difficulties are always with us-constant changes among the scholars, due to frequent transfers among the Anglo-Indian community the school serves, and the fact that a part of the staff is only nominally Christian.

"The great keenness and interest with which Miss Wilkins has managed the Kindergarten Department during Miss Cracknell's furlough have been very encouraging and her help most valuable."

"In the Boys' High School, Mr. Millman reports, the average number of students on the roll during the year was 200, 87 being Christian youths. During the year 14 boys passed the Matriculation examination. Seven of these also took the School Leaving Certificate; all passed, and the distinctions won place the school in a very high position in the province.

Though we have gained no trophies on the football field, yet the game is very popular, and during the rainy season we had four teams going. Badminton and tennis are in favour in the cooler seasons of the year. The three hostels have 48 boarders in them, 37 Hindus and 11 Christians. Some of these youths are from the Cuttack District and some from the interior Feudatory States. The influence of the corporate life is of very high value. and we greatly desire to extend these buildings."

At Barisal the work of the Schools progressed satisfactorily. Of 6 boys who passed out of the Boarding School last year 3 are reading at Serampore, 2 are teaching in village schools, and 1 is still seeking work. This year out of 19 in this class 13 are expected to pass, several of whom may go on to the High School. The staff of the school has undergone some changes. In the early part of the year the headmastership was handed over to Mr. French, but was resumed again by Mr. Angus, consequent on Mr. French's appointment to Bishnupur. We are fortunate in having as Head Pandit, Babu Gopal Chandra Khan, late of Khulna.

"The contributions from the Bow Boys' Brigade have continued splendidly and afford various entertainment for the boys, besides supplementing the boys' own games' contributions. The Christian Endeavour and Sunday School have gone on steadily, the boys themselves running the former, and our senior housemaster superintending the latter. We want to see more baptisms, and are earnestly hoping for the bigger boys to come out.

"Fifty-three Primary Schools were at work during the year, with an average attendance of 16 scholars—10 Christians and 6 non-Christians—a further improvement on last year.

"Ten boys and four girls from this district passed the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University this year."

At Bishnupur the Middle English School continues its steady progress. There are now 202 boys on the roll, of whom 40 are Christian boarders, 8 Christian day-boys, and the remainder non-Christians. Mr. B. D. Roy, B.A., appointed headmaster, is a man of this district, being the son of our evangelist Babu Debendranath Roy, and took his degree from Serampore. Weaving and spinning have been introduced into the curriculum, and so, with gardening and the cultivation of a small rice plot, the practical side of education is well to the fore.

"During the year the inhabitants of Bishnupur brought a largely-signed petition to the missionary, asking that the Middle School should be raised to High School standard. The landlords of the property to the south of the Mission compound promised ten bighas (three and a third acres) of land for the necessary extension, and the local people promised to raise Rs.3,000 by January, 1923. Rs.624 of this has already been deposited with the missionary. The steady growth in the number of day boys assures us that the school will be adequately supported. The special committee appointed by Conference to consider the matter has suggested the transfer of the Serampore High School to Bishnupur so as to form one strong school here, and we have hopes that the other Missions working in this area will co-operate with us. We hope that our next report will record the starting of a strong High School which shall be a power house for the district.

"The village schools have been steadily maintained."

The report from Dacca shows that the difficulties caused last year by the political non-co-operation movement have largely subsided, permitting of a session of happily uninterrupted activity in student work. The popularity of our College Students' Hostel is indicated by the fact that there were well over a hundred applications for the 48 rooms. Bible classes have been regularly conducted for students and schoolboys, and have been better attended than at any previous time within memory. At three of such classes, held on Sunday mornings, there was an average attendance of over 50 students.

"Early in the year Government signified its appreciation of the work the Mission has been doing for many years among Dacca students by nominating Mr. Bridges as a member of the Board of Governors of the Jugannath Intermediate College, and the college authorities subsequently endorsed this by appointing him as honorary lecturer in the college. These appointments have undoubtedly increased the interest of students in our work and have given us many fresh points of contact and influence.

"Political agitation led us to feel the advisability of suspending our open-air religious lectures for students, but lectures given weekly in Regent's Park Hall have had crowded audiences throughout the session. One new and remarkable feature—marking the astonishing social advance of modern India—has been the regular attendance at these public lectures of some thirty young women students from a neighbouring Government High School.

"Owing to diminishing numbers it has been found necessary to amalgamate the two hostels formerly conducted for Namasudra schoolboys, but the united hostel, under the superintendence of Babu Kanai Lal Baroi, has afforded a valuable opportunity of doing intensive work among the budding leaders of that outcaste community."

At Dinajpur the year marked the opening of our long anticipated Boys' Boarding School for Christian boys of the aboriginal tribes of North Bengal. There are at present 28 boys in the hostel and 2 day scholars, from Jalpaiguri, Rangpur and Dinajpur. These boys do all their own work—keeping the hostel and grounds in order, cooking their food and washing their clothes; they are also making a school vegetable garden. The school has filled a long-felt need of the Christian community, and will go far to strengthen and consolidate our church life amongst the tribes represented.

The report from Rangpur shows that our schools have also been doing good work in this centre. The non-co-operation movement, which discouraged the present system of education, if not education itself, has resulted in a decrease in the number of pupils, a condition common to nearly all other schools in the district. Nearly all Mohammedan students have been withdrawn, and sent to strictly Mohammedan schools, which are on the whole badly organised and inefficiently staffed.

"The recent report of a large private school in this town showed that out of some 400 students only 37 were Mohammedans. The previous year the number of Mohammedan students was 128, and this in a district where the population is large and three-fifths Mohammedan. This fact, if general throughout Bengal, is significant and will have a far-reaching effect.

"Including one Night School and one Girls' School, we now have eleven schools in the town and district, five of which are specially for aboriginal tribes. We have also Santali and Oraon boys in training for preachers and teachers, and once we get them really established in the work we are very hopeful of good results. One preacher and one teacher complete their course during the next few months."

Writing from the Balangir, Padampur and Bargarh field, Mr. Jarry reports the satisfactory condition of the school work. There were 70 boys and 30 girls in the Boarding Schools; and the Village Schools were well attended; a new school opened at Phatkara early in January has outgrown the accommodation provided, and he is asking for the enlargement of the school building. The schools at Loisingha and Monera and Sirico made good progress.

"We also for the first time sent up three for the Middle Vernacular Examination, and are glad to say they all passed. In January three of our lads were allowed to join the classes in the State Normal School, just established, to be trained as teachers. That was a big forward movement for us; and although the other students in that school have not yet removed the ban of "Untouchability" that rests upon our community, they have nevertheless treated our students with courtesy, and all have taken their classes together."

Mr. Collins writes from Puri that two Elementary Schools were opened in the Munda villages of Barmunda and Bhalupali, and that the pupils have made very satisfactory progress. The teachers of the schools have made these villages not only centres of education, but also of evangelistic effort to the surrounding villages. Mr. Collins adds:—

"For several years past the Munda Christians of the Telanpali District have sent appeals to the Conference for help to educate their children and to improve their condition. There are three churches in this area with a total membership of 143 and a Christian community of 326. Their villages are situated for the most part in dense jungle, making it dangerous to send their children from one village to another to attend school. Conference therefore was requested to help establish a hostel. Conference, though sympathetic, felt that the present financial stringency made the possibility of help from the Mission very remote. We, however, felt the matter too important to be dropped, so set about raising funds for a small building. This we did and the building is now ready for occupancy. The Munda people have most generously contributed to the cost of the building, and have also promised to help with its maintenance. We have strong hopes, therefore, of running this hostel without cost to the Mission for a year or two at any rate."

The Agra Report shows that in spite of various changes of staff, the year showed progress in the educational work of the centre.

"We gained the highest percentage of passes in the School Leaving Certificate Examination in the history of the school, though it must be said that our entries were small. One can detect an increasing interest in athletic activities, and there is every prospect of great developments taking place in that direction before the year is out. The school demands the whole time of the Principal; but this Mr. Reynolds has been unable to give on account of his language study taking up so much of his time. He has, however, done excellent work and his efforts have been ably seconded by

Mr. S. Isaac, our fellow missionary and head master. In the hands of these two able and devoted workers, the future of the school cannot but be marked by fine achievement.

"When the new school year began in July a seventh class was opened in our Nai-Ki-Mandi School, and this, together with other causes, succeeded in raising the number of scholars from 110 to 157. This school is carried on apart from B.M.S. funds. Bible instruction is given daily and a very good spirit prevails. Our fervent hope is that the lives of these boys, which, humanly speaking, would otherwise be untouched by Christian influences, may come under the direct and personal sway of Jesus Christ."

Kharar also reports increased prosperity with the decline of the non-co-operation movement. The discipline of the High School is improving, and the numbers are increasing once again—there are now 207 on the rolls. Despite the fact that of recent years there has been very considerable religious and nationalistic opposition to the school, yet there has been no diminution of interest in the Christian teaching given in it.

An interesting note in the Simla Report describes the initiation of the Boy Scout movement in this successful school:—

"For the formation of character based on Christian ideals, we have introduced the Boy Scout movement and, in spite of prejudice on the part of some parents, have formed a troop of about 20 lads. The head master, Mr. Dhan Singh, and one of the staff, Mr. Naurata Ram, have striven most strenuously to make this a success, and Mrs. Hasler has given instruction in First Aid. The chief credit is due, however, to Mr. Arthur Smith, of Adnitt Road Church, Northampton, who has given freely of his experience and scanty leisure to training both boys and leaders, and so acted as a voluntary and valuable Assistant Missionary. He runs a similar movement in connection with the local Union Church, and each week some of our Indian non-Christian lads have joined with the European boys there in drill and games—a fellowship which cannot but help in mitigating racial animosity. The Inspector of Schools-a Hindu-has heartily approved of this new endeavour, as he regards the Boy Scout movement as one of the best parts of Christianity. Sir Claud Jacob, Chief of the General Staff in India, has taken a kindly interest in this work, and has twice visited the school on a club evening.

"Some members of the Arya Somaj—a Hindu sect opposed to Christianity—have sent their sons to the Mission School, because of its high standard of discipline. As regards funds we are thankful to be able to report a considerable increase both in Government grants and in loca subscriptions."

MISSIONS TO THE HILL PEOPLE.

THE Report from the Chittagong Hill Tracts contains several notes of great interest, quite apart from the vital and central work of the Hospital, which is described elsewhere. There are now eight teachers from the mission training class working in "The Chakma Circle," forming a chain of schools a hundred miles long, under the supervision of a Circle Inspector. In September all the village teachers came to Chandraghona for twelve days' special classes; and both these new features, the inspector and the summer school, have proved so successful that they will now be permanent institutions.

The Report contains this delightful note on the Sunday School

Union Scripture Examination:-

"This is one of the great days in the school year. It entails months of strenuous work for the teachers, but it is the real work we are here to do, and the labour is amply rewarded when the examination day comes round. This year the lower classes of both the girls and boys' schools were instructed in the vernacular Moga, with very much better results than could have been obtained with Bengali. In the Oral department it was a delight to listen to stories from all parts of the Bible told with such fluency and wealth of detail that a single scholar took half an hour to go through the paper. In time, however, it became simply overwhelming. The Oral examination began at six o'clock in the morning and went on till six in the evening, although the original two examiners were increased to three, and finally to four, to get through."

The first women to be trained as teachers in this mission are in training. The Girls' Boarding School is now being taught in a most efficient manner by Acho Khyang, a hill girl belonging to one of the lowest tribes, trained at the United Training College, Calcutta.

A fact of great interest is the mission among the Kukis, carried on by Baptist boys from Lushai, introduced to the Kukis by the Chittagong Hills Mission, and working with Chandraghona as their base. They have already two candidates for baptism.

The return of Mr. George Hughes with his two new colleagues from Wales, Messrs. Davies and Hughes, has given a fresh impetus to the Chittagong Hills Mission.

During the year one leper has been baptized, and the Chandraghona Church has erected a small chapel for the lepers.

The Kond Hills Mission claims the distinction of possessing the only Girls' School in the whole of the Government area, and it is of equal interest that the teacher is Subarani, a girl of the Kond people, trained by the Mission. This year the Government has granted recognition to this school, as also to the sixth and seventh standards in the higher Elementary School. At Udayagiri the first church has been completed, to be opened by Miss Lockhart during her Deputation visit; and the bell presented by the Young Men's Class at Friar Lane, Leicester, now calls to the worship of the one true God. A small church council from among the members has been formed to deal with cases of discipline and procedure.

Phulbani, which with Udayagiri has been in the care of Mr. Grimes during part of 1922, is also engaged in the building of its first church, the foundation stone having been laid in May by the oldest member of the Christian community, Babu Samo Misser. It will accommodate 200, and there was every hope of an opening at Christmas. There were four baptisms during the year.

In the South Lushai Hills the year was one of steady progress, and the Christian community increased by 2,237 names. Of these, 799 were reclaimed backsliders. The Christian community now numbers 7,820, scattered over the hills in 109 villages and hamlets; and the latest returns show that 1,975 of these are able to read. The baptisms numbered 550; and there are 2,059 church members in full fellowship. There are 91 Sunday Schools with 3,720 pupils, all but 8 of whom are reported Christians. Not many years ago thirty-five per cent. of the pupils were non-Christians, but now almost all have been won for Christ. The gifts for the year amounted in value to 7,661 rupees, including the free labour given by Christians in building and repairing their 70 bamboo churches.

"At the Mission Boys' Boarding School at Lungleh there are 126 pupils. They were gladdened one day by the grant of a special holiday in honour of the success of two former pupils, Buchhawna and Hrangbuanga, who both passed the Matriculation Examination in the First Division, Buchhawna is the son of one of the honoured travelling pastors of the Mission, and after reading in the Mission School here he went to Shillong. He also gained distinction in Mathematics and was granted a Government Scholarship, which will enable him to continue his study at Gauhati College. Hrangbuanga, after reading here, went to the Mission High School at Serampore. These are the first boys to pass the Matriculation Examination directly from South Lushai. Ten boys also passed the Middle English, 7 the Upper Primary, and 39 the Lower Primary Examinations. Two boys were granted scholarships for the Shillong High School."

The revision of the Lushai New Testament was completed by Mr. Lorrain and his special helper, Zathanga, with the assistance of pastors Chuautera and Haudala, after about five years of patient labour. Arrangements are now being made for the printing and publication of this volume.

"There has been a feeling among some of the Lushai leaders that it would be wise to have some meeting in which the young Christians could gain experience and so add to their future usefulness. Miss Chapman and Mr. Wenger, both having had experience of the Christian Endeavour Movement, recommended this. The pledge having been translated into Lushai, a start has been made on these lines, a number of the boys and girls from the schools have already joined, and the meetings are proving helpful."

NOTES FROM THE STATIONS.

BENGAL.

In the Barisal district there were 103 baptisms; and much effort is being used in building new brick chapels at various centres. Ten boys and four girls passed the Matriculation Examination of Calcutta University. The "Bandhu" (Friend), the new motor-boat presented by the Laymen's Movement, has already made 21 trips, and covered nearly 2,000 miles.

In November the representatives of the churches in Bengal gathered at Barisal to form the new Bengal Baptist Union.

"It was an event destined to have important results in the development of Baptist Church organisation in the future. With 200 churches of a membership of 7,000, and a Christian community of 20,000 in connection with our Mission alone, and other Baptist Missions at work in the province, there is a wide scope for such a union. Seventy-three delegates met in this first General Assembly and adopted the Constitution. The business-like air of the proceedings, the keenness of the debates, and the evident consciousness of the Divine presence were hopeful signs for the permanence and influence of the union."

Bishnupur shows an increase of 75 in the Christian community. A feature of the year's work has been the placing on a firm footing of a fund for the support of village pastors, to which about Rs. 90 has already been contributed.

Preaching has been steadily maintained in the bazaars and markets of the districts. The masters of the Boarding School and one or two of the village teachers have rendered valuable help in this work from time to time. The staff made a tour through the southern part of the district into the Sundarbans, which afforded abundant opportunities for open-air preaching, and also enabled them to visit the small, scattered churches in that direction. The Biblewomen have continued with their usual faithfulness their visits to the homes of the people.

"The Annual Camp of the Bengal Student Christian Movement was held here from September 23rd-28th. Students from the Calcutta colleges, representing a good many of the races of India, made a 'joyful noise' in the compound in spite of over twenty inches of rain which fell during the meetings. It was a great privilege for us to entertain these students and their fine leaders."

At Calcutta a series of public lectures for students, given twice a week by the Rev. B. A. Nag, has proved very successful, over 140 attending each meeting. Mr. Nag's Bible Class also had to take a lecture form, as there was an attendance of 60-80 each week. The Bengali Church at Entally has opened a small hostel for Christians coming into the city to look for work.

"The majority of our church members and Christians of other denominations of the Entally side are poor, and consequently they live in bustees and in congested areas. As a result, when epidemic prevails in the city it plays have among these poor Christians, and, as they live from hand to mouth, it is absolutely impossible for them to get proper medical treatment from private medical practitioners. To serve these afflicted people in various ways, the Entally Bengali Church has appointed a paid worker who is doing the work most faithfully and effectively. The worker has also taken some of the non-Christians and got them admitted into hospitals, trying to inculcate the spirit of service among them also.

"The preaching of the Gospel has been carried on day after day in different parts of the city. We go to Wellesley Square on Mondays, and stand at the gate of St. Saviour's Church, and speak to people who are mostly Mohammedans. On Tuesdays and Thursdays we are at Karaya, on Wednesdays at Napit Bazar, and on Fridays at Phool Bagan. At all these places we have mixed gatherings of Hindus and Mohammedans, who listen to our message attentively. In the morning we visit the people in their homes, and have quiet talks with them about the salvation of their souls. There is a growing desire on the part of the people to know the truth."

The decline of the non-co-operation movement has permitted the renewal of evangelistic work in Chittagong, and the sales of Gospels in 1922 exceeded every previous record:—

"One interesting experience is worth recording. Over a year ago our preachers were badly hustled in Feringee Bazar, books were snatched from their hands and burnt; but there was a young Hindu in the crowd who wondered what the books were and why they were being burnt, so he followed the preachers, and at night time called at the house of one of them and bought a book, which he took home and read in secret. It was the Gospel of Mark. Becoming more interested he came occasionally to the house at night to have the book explained to him. Finally he was led to see the truth of the Gospel, and after some time confessed his faith in Jesus Christ, and last month applied to the church for baptism. The church sent two representatives to interview him, and they were assured as to the reality of the man's faith and the genuineness of his desire to be baptized. In answer to the question, 'What made you first become interested in the Gospel?' he told us the above story."

Dacca Church has made considerable progress in the direction of self-control. Mr. and Mrs. Bevan Jones have taken up their residence in a house of Moslem design in the Moslem quarter, in order to be in closer touch with the people for whom they work—a new and interesting development which is full of promise.

"My wife and I have been residing for nearly a year in a house of Moslem design in the Moslem quarter of Dacca, at a distance of over a mile from our colleagues in the Mission compound. Some of our new experiences have been valuable, others interesting, and a few disagreeable. The quarter is none too clean, and the manner of life of some of our neighbours is better imagined than described; nevertheless things have improved somewhat since we first came. The whole move is a venture in the interests of the work, and in view of this we have much cause for gratitude to God that our health has been so well maintained.

"There are, on the other hand, some real advantages in thus residing amongst the people. We are on the spot; people of all classes at once understand the arrangement of the house, and feel free to come in to see us; and we ourselves have found it more possible to enter into their lives. While the menfolk readily come to us, the women for the most part need to be visited in their homes, and for this work my wife feels the need of a Biblewoman with a knowledge of the Moslems. She has already gained entrance into a number of homes through her work as secretary of the Dacca Maternity and Child Welfare Centre."

During the year two members of the staff were honoured by Government—Mr. Noble by the presentation of the gold Kaisar-i-Hind medal in recognition of his work in the interests of Social Service, and Mrs. L. Bevan Jones, who was awarded the silver medal of the same order for her services in connection with the Child Welfare Movement.

Dinajpur reports 50 baptisms and the appointment or two Santal workers to meet the ever-growing needs of the large aboriginal Christian community. There are eight untrained pastor-evangelists and three untrained lay helpers. These men are brought from their villages into the central station each month for a three or four days' course of instruction in simple Bible History and Exegesis, also for classes in Preaching and Church Discipline.

"These classes are conducted in the Santali language by two trained Santal workers. We are hoping to have a special vacation course for our 13 aboriginal teachers next year. At a result of these classes we are beginning to see distinct signs of all-round improvement in the religious life of the community. Regular services are held in 18 centres by our lay-workers, school-teachers, partially supported village pastors and wholly supported preachers. Our standards are naturally somewhat primitive at present, but the seeds of development are in the movement, and we look forward to an ever-increasing standard of usefulness and efficiency in our Christian leaders along these lines."

Our energetic colporteur has sold many Gospels in the Bengali, Hindi, Mundari and Santali languages. Altogether 9,852 Scripture-portions have been distributed throughout the district.

The baptisms include a Santal school-teacher, five of the senior boys of the new Boarding School, and a young Hindu student from a respectable high caste family, who has passed his Matriculation examination.

Howrah has reopened its open-air work, suspended through political unrest, and there were many instances of brotherly cooperation between the B.M.S. and C.M.S. workers in this centre.

In Jalpaiguri a number of Uraon and Munda Christians, teagarden workers, were restored to fellowship. A group of Munda Christians who were on Shikarpur Tea Estate have now removed to Danguajhar Tea Estate, where, being much nearer to us, they can be more efficiently shepherded. They have made very gratifying progress. Services are now held weekly at Jagadispur, Danguajhar and Mundaridhura.

The Jessore workers have commenced work at the town of Magura, where a house has been erected on Mission land for the resident evangelist.

"A small party of three were baptized at the Jessore Church early in August—all converts from Islam. One of them, a young man, was induced to visit his home shortly before his baptism by a report that his brother was ill. He returned to us looking a physical wreck, his explanation being that his own relatives had given him poison and he had nearly died. This illustrates what many around us must face if they decide to follow Christ. At Jhenidah there are now two other Mohammedans asking for baptism."

Mr. T. D. Williams, of Narayanganj, reports instances of intolerance due to the non-co-operation movement, but gives notable proofs of the recent change in feeling:

"The animosity of the non-co-operators was evident in their sending a deputation to the Minister of Education requesting him to remove from the Narayanganj High School Committee the missionary who had served them for twelve years. How quickly the reaction set in may be gathered when in less than three months, on the formation of the new Committee, these very persecutors reappointed the missionary as their secretary. They have since reinstated him on the Hospital Committee from which he had been deposed and appointed him secretary there also.

"I was out the other day in company with a leading pleader who had been a prominent non-co-operator, soliciting subscriptions for the Victoria Hospital, an institution which is doing a splendid work for the town and neighbourhood. Among others we went to a large cloth merchant, who received us with a very deliberate air. 'Come in,' he said. 'Do not stay on the veranda. Come right inside. I want to show you something. I want you to inspect my books. You will see that two years ago I had a flourishing business, and now I am practically bankrupt.' Addressing my companion he said, 'If you had preached your Swaraj' (and I have never known a Bengali use a word with such loathing), 'a few months longer, you would have ruined the whole country. What we want is the co-operation and goodwill the padre preaches. No, I am sorry I cannot give you a subscription.' Nevertheless, I obtained Rs.12 a year from him."

Purnea reports 24 baptisms, and many candidates waiting in eight new villages. One of the interesting features of this work is the baptism of two Santals from the west of Purnea. Rangpur Church rejoices in its new building, in real spiritual growth which has shown fruit in self-sacrifice and evangelistic effort on the part of the members, and in the happy progress of the little cause among the Garos. There were 20 baptisms.

"Most happy of all has been our little cause amongst the Garos. Beautiful indeed is the simplicity and genuineness of these people, and God is using them. After my return one of the families who had left the district during my absence on furlough came back and settled down.

"Very soon they collected a little group of Christians, three families in all, and from them has gone an influence which has resulted in the conversion of a whole village a few miles off. In that village we recently had the joy of baptizing some sixteen people,"

ORISSA.

The work at Angul had a satisfactory year with Mr. and Mrs. Guest in charge, and the report gives special note to the work of Karim Khan, a Mohammedan who gives all his time to evangelisation. He and three other families have settled down at a village three miles from Angul, a regular Sunday service has been maintained for them, and on March 12th five of their number were baptized. At the Communion service which followed "they must have a collection, to be sent direct to London as a small token of their gratitude and love to the Mission."

"Evangelist John Parida and Colporteur Achyut Behera have rendered faithful service during the year, despite much sickness in their homes. They have been busy at the various festivals, and in many villages have witnessed for Christ. Book sales have been good. In many and various ways the good seed has been sown. Only two Native States have been entered during the year. The travelling allowance, being so small, does not enable us to do extensive work. There are nine Native States accessible from Angul could we but reach them. Something different from a bullock cart is needed if work is to be commenced in these backward districts. I use my cycle freely and wish I had one available for the evangelist.

"At Dhenkanal—forty miles from Angul—there is a small Christian community which calls for constant help. On four occasions I have visited the Christians there and have had the joy of ministering to them. We try to visit Dhenkanal once a month, but even this is not always possible.

"There is also a smaller community of Christians thirty miles away in another direction, and they too have been far too much neglected. If only we had a car and ample means to use it, these distant places could be brought to our very doors."

In Balangir there were 15 baptisms, and at Bargarh 94. Three new church buildings were opened and dedicated in the district, and a new school, at Phatkara, which has already outgrown its accommodation.

"Our Indian colleagues have worked most loyally throughout the year. It is an increasing joy to be associated with such men and women in trying to help this growing church, gathered from the most degraded, to realise its privileges as well as its responsibilities, and to become true witnesses of God's grace and power among the non-Christians by whom they are surrounded. The evangelists in their work among the churches, the teachers in the schools, have all given themselves whole-heartedly to the work they have in hand.

"During the year 150 were baptized in Patna, and 9 in Bargarh. No baptisms were held in Padampur; but as the year closes inquirers are enrolled from all parts of the field and are receiving regular instruction. Five more boys from the school were baptized this year, and now five of the girls have just asked for baptism."

The Oriya church at Cuttack has called a new pastor, and continued success is reported in the important school work of this centre. On February 12th Mr. Gordon Wilkins was privileged to preach the centenary sermon, and pointed out that just a hundred years before, the pioneers, Messrs. Bampton and Peggs, with their wives, had arrived in Cuttack and began the great task of winning Orissa for Christ. The centenary celebrations were inspiring.

With regard to the work at the Leper Asylum, Mr. Grundy has a good report to give:

"The work has gone on steadily in all departments. Those who have been undergoing the most recent treatments for leprosy have shown very considerable improvement. Up to the present we cannot report any cures, but we hope, in the near future, to be able to report that some have so far progressed as to be allowed to leave the institution.

"Our religious services have been held regularly and the interest shown in the Gospel message is exceedingly encouraging. There are several inquirers receiving special instruction, and we hope to baptize nine or ten about Christmas time."

Mr. Collins, succeeding Mr. Davies in the sacred city of Puri, states that the work of preaching to the pilgrims has been well maintained, that an Oriya church has been formed, and that a reading-room has been opened for the schoolboy element in the town. Here, within a radius of thirty miles, six Christian communities have their needs, and scarcely a week passes without a call from one at least. Each community save one has been visited several times. "The need of this most sacred shrine and its district is beyond telling—and that is the challenge!"

Mr. Horsburgh writes of the cordial welcome given to himself and his wife on their return to Sambalpur after furlough, and gives an encouraging report of the evangelistic work:

"In January we spent three interesting weeks touring in the Bargarh District. One of our first camping places was right away from the road in the jungle. In such a place we get a glimpse of the true, or at any rate of the old, India. Here both men and women gather round us, evincing the curiosity and interest characteristic of jungly people. While my wife visited the homes of the people, the preachers and I preached in the street. Although free from the hostility found elsewhere there were signs of the prevailing unrest, and we fear that the political agitator has, in not a few places, succeeded in undermining the authority of the British Raj. Our chief aim throughout the tour was to visit villages where our Christians resided. As the villages are so scattered this was no easy matter, but we succeeded in visiting about a score. We were heartily and joyfully welcomed."

"Throughout the hot weather and rains, regular and systematic visits have been paid to villages around Sambalpur, and the town itself, although a stronghold of Hinduism, has also received considerable attention."

NORTH INDIA.

The Agra report shows that there were three baptisms from the Christian community at Achnera, and fourteen at Agra, in the Indian church.

"In June Mr. Kanaiyah Lal, a member of our evangelistic staff, was released from other work and appointed whole time pastor of the church. We ask you to join us in prayer for our brethren of the Indian Church that their communal life may become strong and vigorous and, under love's compulsion, may issue in determined effort to bring those so near at hand, who 'sit in darkness and in the region and shadow of death,' into the light and joy of the Gospel.

"When the new school year began in July a Seventh class was opened in our Nai-Ki-Mandi School, and this, together with other causes, succeeded in raising the number of scholars from 110 to 157. This school is carried on apart from B.M.S. funds. Bible instruction is given daily and a very good spirit prevails. Our fervent hope is that the lives of these boys, which, humanly speaking, would otherwise be untouched by Christian influences, may come under the direct and personal sway of Jesus Christ."

Excellent work was done by the schools at Baraut, which have 500 pupils of both sexes. The Co-operative credit banks now number 263, and are supervised by a United Committee of Missionaries of three Societies. The additions to the church number 63, and the subscriptions for church and Mission work amount to Rs.652-11-0.

"Effort to improve the attendance at the different places of meeting has not met with the success it deserved, but in the out-stations the profound interest in the message of the visitor and the rapt attention paid to his sermon are remarkable. It is not yet time for the European worker to be withdrawn from this area, I fear, nor have the Christians confidence in the Indian workers yet. The day is, however, coming when such arrangements should be possible for this field."

Mr. Hale's report from Delhi describes the handing over of direct control to responsible Indian Mission agents—a scheme of devolution in preparation for years. There were 91 baptisms, and definite progress was shown in all the city and suburban areas save one.

"Our greatest advance in this city area has, however, been in the Bagichi centre. There we have crowded congregations every Sunday, frequent baptisms, largely increased school attendances, the institution of a co-operative bank, and a feeling of movement and enthusiasm on all hands. All these centres are under the immediate charge of Mr. Lall Muhammad, and their success speaks well for his earnestness and administrative ability. The baptisms in these centres number just fifty.

"The brightest spot in the suburban area is Shahdara, where Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Dass are doing sterling work. The school there is doing well, and like those at Kalan Mahal and Bagichi, in the city area, shows an ever-increasing proportion of Christian boys, the sons of the converts who, by the grace of God, are continually being added to our number. In this field we are pushing out into the villages adjoining. Of the 41 men and women baptized in Shahdara during the year, 26 were from the villages."

At Dinapore the work among the British troops was very encouraging. There were 12 baptisms, including some specially interesting cases.

"A Mohammedan youth after some months of inquiry asked for baptism. He told of persecution endured but insisted that he felt it was his duty to follow Christ. After immersion he was refused food and bed by his own people and disowned. We procured work for him, and now he is able to support himself as an engineer's apprentice, while he bears

Christian witness among his non-Christian fellow-workers.

"By reason of the limitations of his life, the Christian soldier has many temptations, but he also has a claim on us, for he is as needy as most of spiritual ministrations, and he responds to the right approach. Strength given to troop work is well spent if along evangelistic lines, as the following two incidents show. One soldier baptized here in 1920 writes that he has become a teacher in the High School of the American Baptist Mission, Taunggy, S.S. States, Burma, while another soldier, on an emigrant ship en route for Australia, writes of revived memories, when passing Colombo, of refreshing times in the little church here, confesses to a deplorable moral lapse, but tells of repentance and fresh determination to keep up active Christian life started again on the ship.

"For another year of happy labour, splendid health, and untold mercies, great praise be given to God."

At Gaya the work among the lepers, who now number 220, had encouraging results, with 8 baptisms and 8 candidates awaiting baptism. Mr. Hicks writes:

"Babu J. Isaacs does the spade work, and does it well. A more faithful worker I cannot wish. My wife watches over the women and children and holds classes for both. Undoubtedly our happiest hours are at the Asylum. Building this year has not absorbed so much time. A different story will, I fear, have to be told next year, for in the immediate future the new buildings and settlement for the untainted children, as well as new quarters for a nurse—for which Government has found the money—have to be erected.

"It should be particularly noted that five of the slightly tainted children, who have been undergoing the latest special treatment, have been pronounced free from all trace of the disease and, to their great delight, sent away to school."

A new out-station, Hasra Village, has been opened, and the work is full of promise; also the first of the Dom boys sent to Siwan have returned as trained carpenters, with a very good effect upon their own people.

Kasauli reports an increase in the number of its Sunday schools, which give Christian instruction to 285 boys and girls. A number of women are being prepared for baptism by the five Biblewomen of the Mission. Twelve baptisms took place, and many inquirers are receiving instruction. Work for and among the children has made considerable progress.

"Colportage work has shown a steady increase in sales and income. Last year the number of Gospels and tracts circulated were 5,266, and their value Rs.532-10-9; in the year under review the number has increased to 6,570, and the value to Rs.741-0-9, which is a record for our district. Gospels and tracts are now circulated from Kasauli in seven languages, and are taken away to places in all parts of India by Pasteur Institute patients and others. A pathetic incident this season happened in the death of a young lad who had been taught in our day and Sunday School here. In the early morning on which he died he told his father and brothers that he would be going 'Home' that day. Then, asking his brothers to forgive him if he had wronged them in any way, he urged them to grow up to be good men. There was a coloured picture of Christ the Good Shepherd on the wall of the simple Christian home, and asking that the picture be given him he placed it upon his breast, saying in Hindustani, 'The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want,' and shortly afterwards passed peacefully away. The old father was comforted even in his sorrow, and a wonderful seal was given to the children's work carried on in the schools here."

In the Kharar district, churches have been established in 24 villages; and the High School, with 207 on its roll, is doing steady good work after a time of much difficulty. In Monghyr work among students was perhaps the most encouraging feature; but the work of the two English churches has continued successfully. Two have been added to the communicants of the Jamalpur Church, one of these being baptized in December.

A pleasing feature of the Church life at Patna was the response of two special appeals made on behalf of the Society. The first was in February, when contributions amounting to Rs.104 were received for B.M.S. work in North India, the second in July, for the General Funds of the Society. A statement of the serious financial crisis through which the Society was passing was made, and special collections taken both at the services in Patna and at the out-stations. This resulted in Rs.144 being received. There were four baptisms, all the candidates being boys who had passed through the school.

In the missionary history of Patna, this year has witnessed the end of the period when the B.M.S. were the sole representatives of the missionary movement working amongst men in the town. The Y.M.C.A. started work chiefly amongst the student population early in the year, and it is understood that the S.P.G. are formulating plans for their society to be represented shortly.

The progress of the School work at Simla is reported elsewhere, but we must quote from Mr. Hasler's descriptions of the general work of the Mission:

"There has been an increase in our literature sales this year, notably in the number of Testaments, which has risen from 36 to 64, and more distinctively Christian books have found their way into the hands of English-speaking Indians. The total sales have been 6 Bibles, 64 Testaments, 528 Scripture portions and 1,372 miscellaneous books, for which Rs.189-15-0 have been received.

"There have been obstacles—interruptions in bazaar preaching, indifference to our message and prejudice against Christianity begotten of its apparent failure in the West or of the inconsistencies noticed in professing Christians. On the other hand one's heart has often been cheered by the attention paid to our preaching or by the interest manifested in Christian literature. One or two men have purchased books again and again. A cultured Indian gentleman asked me to get him a copy of the Bible, and he has since been reading it with care. Mohammedans to whom have been lent books in the vernacular have had their confidence shaken in the correctness of some of their current beliefs.

"What has been the result of it all? Nothing that can be tabulated. But the Kingdom of Heaven is not only like a drag-net that enmeshes individuals: it is also like the leaven that works silently and secretly fermenting the mass, and it is this latter parable which we feel is specially applicable to Christian work in India."

II—CEYLON.

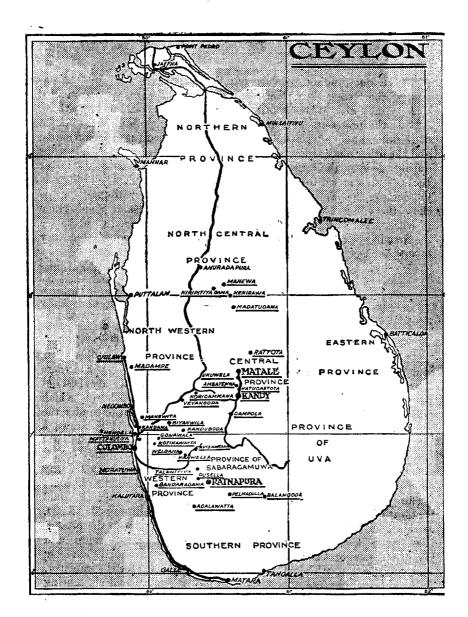

HE outstanding event in our Ceylon Mission during 1922 was the Evangelistic Campaign to which the Churches were called in 1921. When it began at Kotikawatta on January 9th all the prospects were favourable, and this promise was fulfilled at 18 different centres. At Madampe over 80 signed the Decision cards, and the other places showed an average of 30. There were 116 baptisms during the year, the largest number recorded for many years, and over Rs.1,000 was raised for the Gift and Self-Denial Fund.

"Some of the baptismal services were intensely interesting. Madampe chose the village 'wewa' or lake, and about a thousand people came to witness the baptism of 13 converts. Several hundred came to see the first baptism ever held in the district of Mirigama, in the territory taken over this year from the Friends' Mission.

"Our coast has been enlarged, placing upon us greater responsibilities as Baptists, but the Baptist witness is sorely needed in a land where for over 400 years ritual and coercion have played such a large part in Christian propaganda. Most of the leaders of Buddhist opposition to Christianity have been educated in Christian colleges, and we believe somehow that beneath the present Buddhist revival and lending it its force is that noble discontent which can only find its true rest and best expression in Jesus Christ."

At Beligo-dapitiya 5 were baptized by Mr. Pearce on October 15th, and there are 10 candidates under instruction; at Kotikawatta there were 14 baptisms, and at Grand Pass 12. In the Kandy District there were 13, twelve of them at Matale; and Kandy Church, which added 6 to its membership, is in a very healthy condition under the dual pastorate of Mr. Dant and Mr. K. D. Joseph. At Kikirawa a number of elder scholars in the School (all from Buddhist homes) accepted Christ as their Saviour and are now being carefully taught.

Mr. Dant's report shows that Kandy Church is in a very healthy condition despite the loss by death of two "pillars of the church." "The co-ordination of English and Sinhalese work under the dual pastorate has worked smoothly and harmoniously during Mr. K. D. Joseph's six months with us as Sinhalese co-pastor; up to the present there have been six new admissions into church membership, and one of our new brethren (baptized last September) is shortly entering on a year's course at Colombo preliminary to training for the ministry. There are several more applications to join the baptismal class being formed, and one young Sinhalese Buddhist is making earnest inquiries. It is obvious from his grasp of the Christian Scriptures, and his keen attendance at the services, that he is "not far from the Kingdom."

Sketch Map showing Stations and Out-Stations of the Baptist Mission in Ceylon.

Writing of work in the Sabaragamuwa District, Mr. Radley states that a number of tours have been undertaken to various unevangelized portions of this province, where it was a great delight to proclaim the Message to those who probably had never before heard it. "In September I was able, with two other workers, to penetrate the innermost recesses of the Kolonne Korale to Panamure, and to spend a week visiting the villages and speaking with the poor, ignorant, superstitious people living there. From time to time we shall endeavour to 'follow up' the work done on these tours, and seek to bring more knowledge to those whom we met and who showed a desire to know more.

CEYLON.

Since we returned it has been possible to commence a little social service in this town. Mrs. Radley is organizing Child Welfare work, wherein she hopes to care for some of the poor neglected children of whom there are so many in our midst. A Local Option campaign is in progress by means of which we are hopeful that we may be able to close the five taverns in the town."

The proposal to establish a Sustentation Fund for our Ceylon churches was first put forward at Matale, during the gatherings of the Baptist Union, when several also decided to separate a tenth of their income for the Lord.

Mr. Harold Spooner reports a satisfactory year's work at the Boys' High School and Hostel, despite the fact that the opening of the school year saw an unusual number of pupils leave, owing largly to the attempt made in Buddhist and Mohammedan circles to get their people to use their own schools and avoid the Christian schools. The vacancies were soon filled. "The offer of a thoroughly efficient education best meets that opposition." There was an increase in the Government Grant, and five pupils passed the English School Leaving Examination.

"The Education Department requires the establishment of an Infants' Department within three years. As a first step a class of beginners in English has been commenced, which numbered nineteen within a few weeks. No grant can be earned for this class until the Kindergarten is approved. For this purpose building will be necessary, as our premises are already fully occupied and the new class has to be accommodated in the hostel. A Government grant-in-aid would probably be given when we are able to submit definite plans.

"It is difficult to trace the direct religious results of work in a day school. The staff has, however, carefully maintained the Scripture teaching; our Christian meeting is steadily attended by all the boys; for the first time one class took up the Self-Denial week and made a contribution to Mission Funds. We record with gratitude to God that two of our day boys were baptized and joined our churches during the year—one of whom was a Buddhist."

In the Hostel, of the 32 boys in residence, 23 attend the Mission school. There are several inquirers, and Christian influence is greatly helped by some of the senior residents, who show an earnest desire to win their juniors; and Self-Denial Week was earnestly observed.

The Names of B.M.S Centres are Underlined.

III—OUR WORK IN CHINA.

HE year was one of great political unrest in China, unrest which was felt by our missionaries in the province of Shensi and in northern Shantung. The removal of the Christian Chinese General Feng and his army made a very marked difference in the general order and stability of things in Shensi.

Complete returns have not yet reached the Mission House from all our stations, but, so far as can be gathered from reports received, it is remarkably encouraging that, amid so much disquiet, the progress of the Gospel has been so great.

As the outcome of the great Conference held in Shanghai in May, 1922, a new National Christian Council for China was constituted, consisting of 50 Chinese and 50 foreign missionaries. Miss Coombs, of Taiyuanfu, and the Rev. Chang Ssu Ching, one of the leading Baptist pastors of Shantung, are members of this Council, representing the B.M.S., and Dr. Harold Balme represents the Shantung Christian University. All the churches and missions working in China are being appealed to for financial support for the great co-operative missionary movements which are being arranged by this Council.

The Report of the Special Commission appointed to visit and examine all the Missionary College and School work in China has been issued during the year, and the result is beginning to appear. Both in the Shantung Christian University and in all the B.M.S. provincial Conferences, a survey of all our own mission educational work has been undertaken, with a view to making this part of our enterprise more efficient, more Chinese and more Christian.

SHANTUNG.

TSINAN AND THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Payne's general report, covering work in the Western Association area and the city of Tsinanin, is full of interesting detail, but it shows that mission work in China is carried on under almost incredibly difficult conditions.

"They should help us to understand life in the days of the 'Judges,' when there was no king in Israel. Here, too, every man with any pretensions to power does that which is right in his own eyes. Leaders, both good and bad, rise and fall almost as rapidly as the moon changes.

"With the exception of one or two 'Red Cross' roads made under foreign supervision with the help of relief funds, travelling is still as bad as ever, and in many parts unsafe. Disbanded soldiers, returning home penniless, organise companies of local bandits, who prey on merchant travellers and on the unfortunate farmers who happen to possess more than the average amount of wealth. These robbers attack the farmsteads and carry off by force members of the family to hold for ransom. Several cases have occurred in this district. The poor victims have no means of redress. The 'officials' declare that they are powerless to repress this lawlessness, and they sometimes advise the unhappy relatives to make terms with the brigands, or else give up their captured sons or brothers to the mercies of the robbers. In one case a farmer's son in Tsow Ping was shot for refusing to go into captivity. In Chang Ch'iu district a capture was made within a mile of where we were holding a class. The family appealed to us to help them to recover a young lad who had been carried off. His captors were demanding a thousand dollars in ready money (over £100). The official said, 'Give the boy up; it will then discourage the robbers.' In the end the money was found, but it meant parting with half the family's holding in land."

But the Church continues a-building upon a sound basis. In the village centres of the Western District there are 60 groups of worshippers, with 30 primary schools. This is a church with the missionary spirit, giving healthy support to forward work, and with groups of members who give a number of days definitely to evangelistic work in their own neighbourhood. One or two small chapels were erected in country stations, the offerings exceeded those of any previous year, and there were 70 baptisms.

In Tsinan, 49 men and women joined the South Suburb Church, which now has its own Chinese pastor; and in the West Suburb the work of the Preaching Hall was carried on vigorously under Pastor J. D. Chang. It is interesting to note that nearly half of the candidates for membership ultimately accepted by the Church in the South Suburb begin to study Christian teaching at this Preaching Hall. The ten days' Summer School held in the University Buildings in July was attended by 250 evangelists, pastors and other leaders (men and women) from the chief missions in Shantung.

Mr. Payne's report gives this touching story:

"The Pastor in a country district was asked to examine a candidate for baptism. Although the candidate—a young married woman—was a regular attender at Church services, she was illiterate and had but scant knowledge of Christian truth. The Pastor recommended delay in order to enable the woman to study the Scriptures. When next the Pastor examined the candidate he was surprised to find that she had learnt to read a Gospel and could repeat several hymns and the catechism. 'How has this come about?' he asked. The woman replied that she had learnt to read with the help of her husband. He, it appeared, had joined the Church in Tsinan, where his place of business is. On hearing that his wife had been delayed membership until she understood more about the Scriptures he had set to work to teach her himself. Each time he came home he spent some of the time in this self-imposed task, with the result that his wife-pupil was easily able to pass the tests and was gladly accepted for full membership."

THE SHANTUNG CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY.

The reports of the work of the University are written by the Rev. E. W. Burt, M.A., in charge of the Theological School, and the Rev. R. S. McHardy, who is at work in the same department of labour; and both are full of the spirit of progress and achievement. Of the 35 theological students in the University, the great majority belong to our own missions. At the graduation ceremony 22 students received their diplomas, six being Baptists; and all the six will devote themselves to Christian work, an object-lesson of the place and power of the University in Chinese church life. A Baptist Art graduate is now studying theology in Knox College, Toronto, and one of the six Baptist graduates of the year hopes to come to England for further study later.

"The conduct of the men as a whole has been good, and they have worked diligently, though I hardly think their average quality is equal to that of the students of eight or ten years ago. One cause of this is undoubtedly the number of attractive posts now open to Arts Graduates in the teaching and other professions, and in the Y.M.C.A. With the present scale of very meagre remuneration obtaining in the Chinese Church, it is doubtful if we can expect many of the ablest students to give themselves to the work of the ministry. The economic position of a pastor in China leaves very much to be desired, and, until conditions are materially improved, it is vain to look for an adequate supply of the best men; yet it is for these very men that the Church is waiting, if it is ever to lead the nation to Christ and become truly indigenous and independent of the foreigner."

One of the most interesting developments of the year was the opening in September of a new Centre for Social Service in the South Suburb, under the Rev. Chang Ssu Ching. The students of all departments have enthusiastically taken up the various activities of the settlement, and are sustaining them well.

The union of the Shantung and Peking Universities, which was one of the proposals of the recent Education Commission to China, has not matured, but it has been decided to develop in Tsinanfu a College of Teachers trained up to University grade. The Rev. F. S. Drake, B.A., B.D., now in England, is designated for work in this department, and is taking a course of special studies in England with that in view.

Mr. McHardy has been at work on the production of much-needed Commentaries.

"With the faithful help of my Chinese literary assistant I have produced and lithographed Notes on Isaiah xl.-lv., to the extent of 25,000 characters. This, extended to include Isaiah lvi.-lxvi., and amplified and revised, will, I trust, one day in the distant future be committed to a Chinese colleague, who will then rewrite the whole in the new popular literary style. I have also prepared some material in Deuteronomy, which I hope one day to treat similarly. In this work I have constantly felt the help and stimulus of my furlough year at Oxford. George Buchanan Gray, under whose direction I there worked, has since passed to the Higher Service. I cannot but express the deep, personal loss I feel in his death. My debt to him is incalculable.

"I have been much encouraged by the work of my students. Their work has certainly been the best I have so far met with here. My best student comes from Mukden. Another excellent student is a man already in the ministry, who has come to us for the full course, although his eldest son is about to enter the middle school.

"As regards the University as a whole, I see real progress in the students' corporate life. That the students are beginning to develop a University esprit de corps is happily illustrated in the formation of the University Athletic Association. Whereas athletics were formerly considered a matter for each constituent school of the University, now they are organised on a University basis. The Executive of the Association consists of students and staff in equal numbers, with the Athletic Director. As one who has a seat on this body I am able to testify to the fine way the students are shaping in this not inconsiderable work of organisation and administration."

The Arthington Institute.

Under its new description, "The Extension Department of the Shantung Christian University," the Arthington Institute and Museum had another successful year in 1922, reporting figures which fully justify Dr. Speer's statement that this was the "most effective piece of University Extension work to be found in Asia, if not in the world." The total number of visitors was 434,539, including many distinguished foreigners. The attendance on "Women's Days" was specially satisfactory.

Several additions were made to the exhibits, and special lectures were given by Mr. C. T. Wang, Dr. Mott, Dr. Fletcher Brockman, and Dr. W. W. Pater.

"Social, educational and evangelistic work was carried on as in former years. Under the head of evangelistic efforts six men who attended a catechumen class applied for Church membership; four of these were baptized. The addresses given in the Central Hall during those parts of the day when there are many visitors were well attended, and the addresses attentively listened to. Students of the University gave valuable assistance during the year in all departments of the work."

Over 1,500 visits were paid by men and over 2,000 by women of the official classes; and 1,849 evangelistic addresses were given in the central hall. At the Soldiers' Institute 264 evangelistic addresses were given to groups of soldiers and civilians; and a circulating library was a new development.

"This was done through the assistance of the Christian Literature Society. A number of places of business were visited and books left with the employees. A small library of a score or so of books was placed in the Railway Works under the charge of a Christian who is the head of one of the departments. Visits as a rule are well received, and encouraging accounts reach us as to the use made of the books lent."

TSING-CHOWFU AND THE EASTERN ASSOCIATION.

Tsing-chowfu was the scene of the interesting forward movement initiated a couple of years ago by the Rev. F. S. Drake, and including in its scope the merchant community, the retired officials, factory workers, and the hundreds of students in the Government schools. Mr. Drake left the city for Tsinan at the beginning of the year, but the forward movement continued under the charge of Mr. Borst Smith, and the year was one of much encouragement. Students of all classes have thronged the Institute; and a series of special gatherings to which officials, gentry, students and merchants were invited proved an overwhelming success. Three of them were held in the church, which holds 1,300, but more were turned away than could be admitted; the fourth was held on the Recreation Ground, and there were fully 3,000 in the gathering.

"In addition to work among students, meetings for factory boys have been continued. About a hundred of these youths come to us every Sunday morning for religious instruction, after which they are taken for a walk into the country, which culminates in an open-air service. When the evenings are light they come three days a week for sports, while in the shorter days a lantern lecture is given at the factory once a week."

Church work showed a real advance by the appointment of the Rev. L. S. Meng as Superintending Pastor of the Association, with its 10 circuits, 137 churches and 2,543 members.

"This change has come about not by a revolution, but as the result of mutual good feeling and understanding on the part of both missionaries and Chinese Christian leaders. Our own part in the future will be confined to such neighbourly actions as the Christians may desire.

"And there is still further cause for encouragement. While the Chinese Christians know that the Mission still accepts responsibility for evangelism in the cities of the district, they must themselves undertake responsibility for rural Evangelism. And they have already made extensive plans for a series of Evangelistic Missions in the spring of 1923, when Pastors and voluntary workers of one Circuit will combine to help another, and in due course receive similar help in return."

The Museum was visited by 49,000 persons during the year.

CHOUTSUN AND THE SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION,

The protracted illness of Mr. E. J. Ellison has called forth the sympathy of his many friends in China and at home. The work of the station and district has been encouraging. The Preaching Hall on the main street of the city is ideally situated for evangelistic work among business men and apprentices. Week-night addresses command fine audiences, and on market days the country people are always attracted. The Chinese Church is assuming larger responsibility for the finance of the Church and the Y.M.C.A. institute, as well as for building new class-rooms in the Boys' School.

PEICHEN AND THE NORTHERN ASSOCIATION,

The story of Peichen and the Northern Association for 1922 is largely one of famine relief work, for even when the flood had passed and the direct relief work had been closed, the missionary had to take his share in the reconstruction of community and church life in the area. There are to-day unique openings for preaching in the Northern District, and the present staff of country evangelists is too small to meet the need.

In August Mr. Greening and Mr. Pailing had 50 men, most of them recent converts, at a class for the instruction of inquirers; and a week's special tent meetings in Peichen had most encouraging results. The time is ripe for advance also at Lichin, Pohsing and Tsingcheng, neighbouring cities in which the flood and the famine have prepared the way for the Gospel.

Mr. Greening sends this illuminating note upon the extent of the relief work:

"The total amount of grain distributed in connection with the relief schemes directed from the Peichen centre is 2,200 tons. Over 50,000 families, or 150,000 persons, have been helped. Many would have starved but for the help given through the Relief Committees.

"The protecting dyke round the city of Putai has been repaired. Another protecting dyke has been built round a group of twenty villages that for years have been exposed to flooding by the Yellow River and for years have never been certain of the autumn harvest.

"These schemes found work tor nearly 6,000 men and have brought permanent benefit to the people. In part payment for the work on these various roads and dykes 640 tons of grain have been paid out.

"The city of Lichin was right in the way of the flood stream, and doomed to be washed away by the summer floods. A protecting dyke erected in connection with the relief work has saved the city from destruction, much to the joy of the people. The dyke is about three miles in extent. A stone tablet records the fact that the dyke was made with the assistance of the Christian Church, and the names of foreign and Chinese pastors are inscribed thereon."

SHANSI.

TAI YUAN FU.

The baptisms for the year numbered 34, of whom only four were women; and the varied evangelistic work was well maintained, including the preaching at the Model Prison.

"Once per week a band of workers, usually eight in number, journey to the prison to preach to the prisoners. They are received by the officers in a most friendly manner, the officers themselves often-times going with them to the work-rooms and listening while the Message is delivered. The interested look upon the faces of some of the prisoners is a sufficient index of the fact that these visits are not unwelcome, and it may be that the very fact of their captivity may make them more receptive to Him Who in a different sense came to declare liberty to the captive, and the opening of prisons to them that were bound.

"Our work among students is chiefly done through the agency of the local Y.M.C.A. In this way some sixty students have been brought into touch with direct Christian teaching. About one half of these at the close of other classes gather together on two separate occasions for a brief Bible talk. Altogether there are more than 6,000 students of all grades, of whom more than 800 are girls, receiving education in this city.

"The Boys' School has this year celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of its foundation. It has 160 students of all grades. We are greatly looking forward to the putting up of the new buildings which have been promised for next year; they will give much better class room accommodation than we have at present, and will make it possible for 200 boys to be in residence at the school.

"At the recent special meetings conducted by Mr. Brewer Eddy a large number of students enrolled for special Bible study, while some have enrolled as inquirers for Church membership."

The out-stations of Wenshui and Chiao Cheng have been transferred to the American Mission.

SINCHOW.

Mr. Percy Smith tells the story of the curious result of the addition of a stuffed tiger to his Mission Museum—a tiger originally from India, but lately from Taiyuanfu. In five months over 21,000 persons came to see this novelty, presenting a remarkable and unique opportunity of Gospel preaching. Other opportunities were procured by the holding of Sunday services in villages within walking distance of the city; and at the same time the Sunday services at Sinchow were well maintained. There were 45 baptisms, and the membership in the city and district is now 331.

"One great feature of the year is the Harvest Festival, and this during the time of Mr. Henderson Smith, at Sinchow, assumed a new form, which has since been retained and developed. The vegetables and fruit offerings were spread on a stall in the courtyard of the Street Chapel premises; texts and pictures adorned the walls; forms were arranged for visitors, and flags at the entrance proclaimed the event to the passers by. Then for three or four days preaching services were held, and large numbers attended, especially in the evenings, when lamps and lanterns threw a radiance on the scene. Thirty different speakers, all from among our own people, gave addresses. On the last morning the goods were publicly sold by auction, the missionaries wielding the hammer. The sum of 62,000 cash was realised, half of which was dispensed to the poor and half used for local Church expenses."

With regard to the work at the out-stations, Tung Yeh makes steady progress, with five candidates baptized during the year; and Chwang Mo Chen shows the best record with twelve baptisms. The work in the two mountain villages of Shang Ssu and Wang Hsian Kou also showed features of great interest and promise.

"The former is about 40 li from Choutsun, and has a small but zealous band of Christians. The Church has twelve members, all baptized in 1921, and another ten are waiting to be baptized next year.

They are showing considerable independence of spirit, especially in financial matters, asking nothing of the Mission. They have recently held their Harvest Thanksgiving services, at which they raised the sum of about 20 dollars, and they have decided that part of this shall go to the support of Chang Cheng Kung, one of their number who is now a student in the Theological School at Taiyuanfu. The other place, Wang Hsian Kou, is a tiny hamlet in the mountains 15 li from Chwang Mo Chen; and here a small band of members and inquirers have opened a building for meetings, and are showing signs of a vigorous life."

The two Sinchow colporteurs disposed of 8,650 Scripture portions during the year.

TAICHOW.

Arthington Station.

In March, 1922, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Smith took up their residence in Taichow, and in the autumn Mr. and Mrs. Stonelake returned from furlough. The absence of the missionaries has interrupted the development of the work, especially in the Boarding School in Kuohsien, and in the country districts where many of the members and inquirers live. During the year 18 men and five women were baptized, and there are many waiting for baptism.

The death of the most capable evangelist, Mr. Ko Chün-Yang, has seriously weakened the Chinese staff. His witness for Christ among them was clear, and claimed their interest. We have no one to take Mr. Ko's place in this important work.

Few will appreciate the vast districts that are covered by the name "Taichow Arthington Station." Such a district, with its hundreds of villages, including as it does three large counties, every kind of country—mountainous, plain, wooded, dry, and rivers and lakes—with all kinds of people living in the large cities and countless large and small villages—such a district would have appealed strongly to the imagination of Robert Arthington himself.

"The best centre of the work is at Kuohsien, and we rejoice to report that already we have Christians in 29 villages surrounding the city. In many of these villages it is already possible to hold regular meetings in the houses of the members for the purposes of worship and of preaching and teaching the truth of God in Jesus Christ. In the Kuohsien Church we have the largest proportion of members who can read, and their general character and readiness to help in every way gives us great hope for the future. The true elements of a vigorous, self-supporting, self-propagating Church are here. Our work as teachers of the Truth, and leaders in aggressive evangelism (though we remain as strangers amongst them) is of paramount importance. The membership in this city and immediate district of Kuohsien—quite apart from other more distant parts of the district—is almost 100 at the present time. It is ours to see that this congregation of baptized believers is loyal to Christ, grows in the knowledge of Him, and under the Divine blessing reveals to the world that bold, clear character upon which His Church is founded."

SHENSI.

SIANFU.

The year began in Shensi with a wave of anti-foreign feeling due to popular misconceptions with regard to the Washington Conference, and a hostile atmosphere was created which has not yet passed away entirely. But new opportunities have been provided even under these difficulties. Mr. Shorrock writes:

"Our Preaching Centre in the heart of the city has been kept open and well supplied with preachers all through the year. Our Mission has also united with the three other Missions working in Sianfu in supplying preachers for the Hall built by General Feng, and used for public meetings of all kinds, but reserved always on Sundays for Christian preaching. This is a great concession to the Missions here, and provides us with a unique opportunity of reaching men and students from all parts. While the departure of the 'Christian General' and his model army from Shensi, on the outbreak of civil war last April, was of course a great disappointment to us all, yet the example which he and his splendid men have left behind, and the contrast between them and the usual undisciplined and rapacious soldiery of China, will not soon be forgotten, but will undoubtedly commend the Gospel wherever they go.

"We have again to mourn the paucity of baptisms. This great city ought to yield 1,000 converts yearly, instead of only 100, and considering the preaching done by a number of faithful men and women—our Chinese co-workers—we wonder at the lack of confessed followers of the Saviour. But we dare not say or think that those who have been baptized this year are all who have believed, or are even the best of them. Men and women come and go quietly among us, whose hearts are touched, and who are pondering over the great issues involved in discipleship. At our last united Church gatherings, held a few days ago, the Vice-Chairman of the City Chamber of Commerce, who lives close by our place, came purposely to see our Church meetings and Communion Service, and to learn more of our organisation and inner Church life. He has been to our services many times before, but he came near to the very heart of things this time, and went away deeply moved. Many are like this man, very near to the Kingdom!

"Among those baptized was a student in a Government College, who has been through the various phases of Buddhist superstition and agnosticism, and has ended by most gladly confessing Christ. We have had fewer scholars in our city school this year, but we were gladdened by eight baptisms from among them."

In the district around Sianfu we have 15 stations or churches, linked up in four district divisions. In one of these divisions alone there were 25 baptisms; and two of the four preparatory schools held during the year were eminently successful. The attendance of women at the services was much larger than in previous years; and permanent church premises were acquired in three stations. In the new year all four divisional pastors will be at least partially supported by the churches.

"The more one sees of the chronic heart disease of this people and nation, the more is one convinced that only the Gospel of Christ can effect her cure."

SAN YUAN.

In the city of San Yuan the congregations were most encouraging throughout the year; and, indeed, the whole story of the station and district is one of steady progress. Here is a charming note on the school work:

"A new head teacher was secured for the San Yuan Higher Primary School—Mr. Wang Wen Yuan, a native of the district, who had for some time been out of the area in Y.M.C.A. and teaching work. By his energy the school more than doubled its numbers, and the maximum number—fixed more as a matter of course and hardly expected to operate—was reached in the early days. Then came the problem. The maximum was really too high for the accommodation. The offer of a set of buildings opposite to the Compound seemed providential. Conference backed the request, and the matter was referred home. At the end of the year we are occupying premises which, from the point of view of hygiene and class-room accommodation, give us what was needed. There is still need for dormitories and a drill ground.

"The number of the students has been sustained and good work is being done. Several boys have been baptized. A Y.M.C.A. is vigorously active. Sunday morning school is conducted by the boys in turn. The presence of 60 students in the worship services conduces to hearty praise. The great need is for personal contact with the boys. One's whole time could be profitably spent in such work."

There was an increase in the number of Primary schools, and the work of the thirteen evangelistic centres was well maintained. An increase of staff made it possible to improve the work of the Women's Preaching centre, and a Bible-woman was set apart for district work. The total number of congregations in the area is now 86, several new villages having been "opened" during the year; and by a happy coincidence, the number of baptisms was also 86. The offerings and local contributions amounted to a sum larger than the allocation from the Mission.

The Baptist Union held two sessions, when it appointed delegates to the Christian Conference in Shanghai, elected Educational and Evangelistic Boards, and drew up certain rules regarding church membership. It is still impotent to take control of the pastoral charge of the church, through lack of a common fund. "We live in hope, however, that when this Province gets into the main current of Chinese life—by the advent of the railway—the Union will be a really effective organisation."

YENANFU.

Mr. Donald Smith writes that a new station was opened at Ansai, 17 miles north of Yenanfu, and a worker appointed whose cost will be defrayed locally. During the year over 70 candidates were carefully examined for church membership, and 27 men and 12 women were accepted and baptized. The weekly prayer-meeting for workers, which has been carried on at Yenan for two years, has now been established at other stations; and the schools in the city showed a decided improvement in quality of work as well as in the numbers attending.

There are some interesting notes on methods:

"I have visited all the shops in all the towns in which we have stations, and most of them several times. Countless conversations, many of them of a hopeful character, have been held. Of all the many hundreds of visits thus paid to public places, I should say a welcome was given in at least 99 per cent. of them. Christian tracts and booklets have been given away in great numbers; in fact, one might say the district has been 'sown down with Christian literature.'"

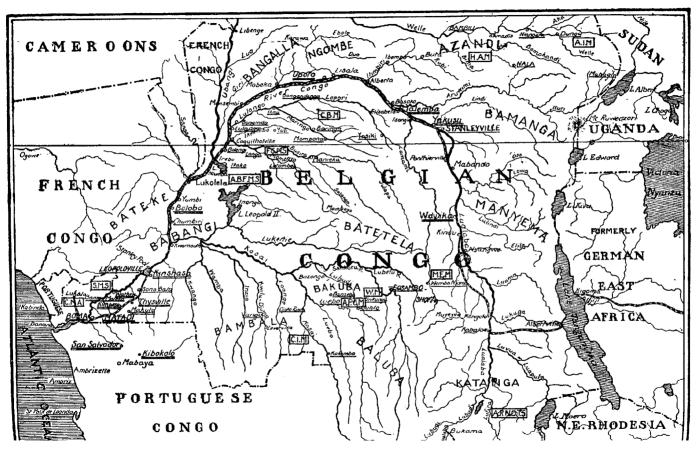

The Church contributed the 500 dollars promised for the new buildings in Yenchang. All the churches have now undertaken to provide the expenses of their maintenance, and will probably, next year, support their own pastor.

As to the newly received members:

"I have a distinct impression that the average quality is above that of previous years. In any case, the examinations have been more satisfactory, and I attribute this to the men in charge of stations giving more attention to the instruction of converts."

A Boys' Boarding School was opened with a number of promising pupils, five of whom are church members. In the Girls' School the number of pupils increased, and a small Higher Primary Class was held in both schools.

"There are still 'many adversaries,'" writes Mr. Smith, "yet I think that this has been the best year of the Mission."

IV—OUR WORK IN AFRICA.

HE reports from our Congo stations are on the whole of a very satisfactory character, and we are able to rejoice once more in a story of progress. The Prophet Movement has now almost spent its influence of disorder, and the lost ground is being regained. The shadows on the story are almost solely due to certain Government enactments in Portuguese Congo, with regard to taxation and education, the latter affecting a large number of our schools and teachers. In Belgian Congo the relations between the Mission and the Government have been good.

His Excellency the Governor-General, Monsieur Lippens, visited London early in the year and had an important and interesting interview with Missionary leaders in the Baptist Mission House. Audiences were also graciously given in Brussels by the Queen of the Belgians to Mrs. A. B. Palmer, of Yalemba, and by His Majesty King Albert to Messrs. Lawson Forfeitt and Parker Gray. Accounts of these incidents have already appeared in our Herald.

A veteran of the Congo Mission has just come home from his last period of service in Africa—the Rev. William Forfeitt, of Upoto, whose distinguished record was referred to in the April issue of the Herald. Mr. and Mrs. Forfeitt have received a cordial greeting at their homecoming, and we feel sure that wherever they go with their great story of work accomplished, that welcome will be repeated. Another veteran of many honours, Mr. Graham of San Salvador, is also in England at the time of writing, with Mrs. Graham, after a difficult but successful term of service.

The Union Mission House which is to be maintained by six British and American Missionary Societies has now been erected on the B.M.S. land at Kinshasa. The first Superintendents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stonelake, of the B.M.S. Mr. Stonelake is also the Secretary of the United Conference of Congo Missions, which is promoting much co-operative work in various directions.

PORTUGUESE CONGO. SAN SALVADOR.

The highest branches of the work at San Salvador have steadily prospered during the year, despite the difficulties arising from Government enactments with regard to taxation and education. The new education decree in particular is of serious import, for it prohibits the vernacular, and refuses official recognition to teachers who are not proficient in Portuguese. There was no revival of the "Prophet" Movement, and no further molestation of those who had taken part in it; and the Mission was able to assist its elder boys and girls on the station to meet the poll tax demand which now falls on all boys over sixteen and all girls over eighteen years of age. The Annual Meetings were well attended, as were the preparatory classes for evangelists and helpers during April and May. There were 177 baptisms, with a net increase of 142, so that the church roll now stands at 1,147 members in full communion. Three native chapels and one large brick chapel were completed during the year at our outposts, and the gifts of the church were very generous. The various outposts were visited in five itineration journeys.

"The regular Sunday Schools, services and classes have been well attended throughout the year, as have the Monday evening class for men and boys, and the forenoon women's classes held on Saturdays for candidates for baptism, and on Tuesday for women members in neighbouring towns, of whom there are about 100 on the roll, and on Thursday for women inquirers of this and the surrounding towns, with 226 on the roll. It is wonderful how well these classes have kept up. Unfortunately the male members and inquirers from neighbouring towns are still afraid to come here for classes, lest they should be caught by police for service, so they go to the nearest native teacher's inquiry or members' class instead.

"We are grateful to have been free from bad epidemics during the year; but the need for medical service is ever with us, and its efficient supply by the workers of the M.M.A. is probably the only part of our service highly valued by the Portuguese. In the second week in December we were very glad that Dr. Gilmore's motor-cycle enabled him to visit Mr. Hooper in Zombo even through the rains; and the Doctor's arrival here in the afternoon of the day he left Kibokolo constitutes a record for this part of the world.

"During the year we have had 177 baptisms, and although we have lost a considerable number by death, we have a net increase of 142, showing 1,147 members in full communion. Three native Chapels and one large brick Chapel have been completed during the year at our outposts. The local contributions for all kinds of Church Work were 3,041/54 or £76 0s. 9d. At pre-war rates this would have been £608 6s. 2d. 'Surely,' writes Mr. Graham, 'we may enter upon the New Year with renewed hope!'"

KIBOKOLO.

The new conditions which affected the work at San Salvador were also present at Kibokolo, and hundreds of young men, including many church members, teachers and adherents, migrated from the district. Whole towns were scattered, the people seeking refuge in forest and bush. School and other work in the district suffered in consequence, yet the baptism roll shows a better record than in any previous year, and there were more voluntary teachers at work in the villages. But Mr. Hooper, after relating the difficulties of the work, closes with a cheering list of "encouragements":

"The largest addition we have ever had in one year to membership of our Church, 47 having been baptized.

"Large numbers have come from the far-flung districts. We record this with profound thankfulness.

"More voluntary teachers working in their own towns and villages with fair success. This means a widening of our influence.

"Medical work well sustained and appreciated,

"Greater interest in women's work.

"Increased numbers in all Inquiry Classes.

"Good Thanksgiving Meetings in September and at Christmas, when a large number of our adherents and followers came up for special services.

"More itineration has been undertaken and a better grip obtained of sub-station work.

"Increased numbers at Sunday services."

"He shall yet see of the travail of His soul in Zomboland and be satisfied."

BELGIAN CONGO.

THYSVILLE.

Mr. Jennings reports that there are now 20 more organised congregations in the Thysville district than there were before the "Prophet" Movement, though 14 persons are still in exile, and about 150 others still estranged from the Mission. Moreover, the Christmas meetings were packed—a cheering contrast to 1921—and the baptism roll showed 86 candidates and 52 restorations to membership. There are 50 inquirers attending station classes every week, and scores of others in remote villages under the instruction of teachers and evangelists. The station schools were exceptionally well attended, and there were also 1,156 on the rolls of the village schools. An interesting departure during the year was a "knitting class," inaugurated by Mrs. Jennings, and very largely attended.

"We have had crowded meetings before at Thysville, but not quite so big as those at Christmas. At the services, seats and floor were packed. The present spirit manifested by the people seems to indicate that all the recent untoward happenings among them will turn out for the furtherance of the Gospel.

"If our people who are still estranged return to us soon, it will give a great impetus to the church, and the year 1923 should be in every way a record year of blessing and ingathering.

KIBENTELE.

The story of this station for 1922 is a very cheering one, for it records the addition of 701 members, a doubling of outposts and a trebling of the number of native evangelists. The church closed this year with 1,268 members—a net increase of 258—and there were 268 baptisms and 32 restorations to fellowship. The gifts totalled 7,137 francs, over one thousand being brought in at the Christmas gatherings. Twenty of the brighter lads have proceeded to the Wathen Boarding School, and six teachers have applied for training at the Kimpese Institute.

"Our building and industrial work has made considerable progress, and we are under more comfortable conditions than we were twelve months ago. In the dry season we made and burned 75,000 bricks. Our first bungalow has been completed, and after the cramped quarters of the last two years we find it commodious, cool and comfortable. It promises to repay all the labour put into it. To meet our present need a large grass thatched shed has been erected to serve as Church and schoolroom. It measures 52 feet by 24 feet, and has served us well, especially at the time of our big gatherings, when the open sides allowed the overflow to see and hear. We are grateful to all the friends who have shown special interest in our new station. The organ from Barnstaple, Communion cups from Erdington, and the special effort of our Sudbury friends to meet the full cost of the Dispensary, all cheer us. Above all we bless God for another happy year at Kibentele, and may our service contribute something towards the Evangelisation of Congo and the coming of His Kingdom.

"The arrival of Mrs. Frame in June has allowed considerable development in our station work. A day school, with an average attendance of 60, a Sunday Service for women and a regular inquirers' class, together with the work at the Dispensary, are in her care. She and our little one were warmly welcomed by the people, and their presence here gives us the necessary link with the women and girls in the district. Twenty of our brighter lads have proceeded to our Wathen Boarding School, and six of our Christian workers have applied for training in our Institution at

WATHEN.

Wather repeats the cheering story told by Kibentele and Thysville. During the year 213 candidates were baptized and 97 received back into fellowship. At the beginning of the year there were only about two dozen boarders in the station school, but at the end of the year there were 106; and this number could have been doubled but for the urgent need of economy in view of conditions at home.

"Our hope is that funds may come in so plentifully, we may be able to use to the full our splendid teaching organisation here; for it is pitiful that we should be limited to such a small number, when we have to supply the needs of three big areas.

"One very satisfactory sign of the return to sanity of the people is the progress of the Medical work. For many months no one would come to our Dispensaries. Folk believed that a curse would be on anyone who touched "white men's medicine." Now Mr. Thompson and my wife are quite busy there every day. People are getting back their confidence in us, and we are thankful.

"Miss James has done splendidly in the school; by lending Miss Milledge to Thysville we greatly increased the burden on Miss James' shoulders; of late, however, Mr. Thompson has been assisting her whenever possible."

"To sum up," writes Mr. Bowskill, "we are devoutly thankful to God for the marked change we have seen during the last year. He has been with us in a very manifest way, and bit by bit we are gaining ground. But we have passed through the blackest experience I have ever had in Congo."

KINSHASA.

The Kinshasa report describes a year of great blessing, with a record number of baptisms and a constant stream of inquirers, and very successful services for people speaking a great variety of tongues in this growing commercial centre.

"In this town of Kinshasa there is a gathering together of men and women from nearly every tribe and lingo of Congo Belge, and on top of this there are a goodly number from other tribes of Congo Français. This great mixture of people speak more or less a common language, 'Lingala.' Services are held regularly for this mixed people, on the station and in the town. The great majority of these people are Catholic and attend the services at their own place of worship, but our services are fairly well attended, and some of the young lads have responded to the Gospel call, and have given their hearts to the Saviour; they have been baptized, and are united with us in Church fellowship.

"School work must be given second place in our work for the Master, and here again we report a flowing tide, but as yet we are a long way from the high-water mark. Day by day a lively crowd of about 100 youngsters make their way up from the native town, a walk of half an hour and more for some of them, to the station school. They are full of life and go, and they manifest their joy in the healthy noise they make as they pass along the road on their way up to school and back home again. Some of them are keen on their studies and make good progress. There is a real interest in the lessons, and some of the bigger boys are trying hard. It is a great joy to see so many lads and lasses getting into the way of reading the Word of God and other good books."

Quite a number of the young people from the school entered the inquirers' classes, and presented themselves for baptism. The women's work also showed very satisfactory progress, and is a very necessary activity of the mission. "Life is very hard for young women in this great centre, and we are always sorry when we hear of girls coming to live here." There was a good sale for Christian literature, and the missionaries have continued their useful "social" work by opening their homes to young men for happy and healthy fellowship. The itinerations of the year brought the missionaries such a welcome as they had never received before.

"They have been joyful marches from one village to another, and everywhere the missionaries have been welcomed as never before. Precious souls have been won for Christ, and added to our Church, and still there are many inquirers waiting for examination."

BOLOBO.

The record of a happy and busy year at Bolobo shows that 263 candidates were baptized, so that the total church membership is now 1882. Early in the year Mr. and Mrs. Stonelake went to Lukolela to develop the very promising work there, and the people were greatly disappointed by their transfer to Kinshasa a few months later. Lukolela, however, contributed 37 to the baptism roll of the year, and the people have erected a new meeting-house, much larger than the old one.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark's annual itineration to the Lake Leopold District included a month's stay at Ngongo, our chief centre, where 18 converts came forward for baptism; and it also included a visit to Lukolela. The Industrial work at Bolobo had another successful year under Mr. Allen's care, and the old boys' houses have been pulled down to make room for the new industrial buildings. The work of the printing-press included a large new edition of the Congo Hymn Book.

UPOTO.

On the departure of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Forfeitt, mentioned in another place, Mr. Marker took charge of the work at Upoto, and the first paragraphs of his report are devoted to the record of the work done during the past twelve years. The membership has grown from 35 to 800, village schools have increased from 12 to 116, and the area of "our parish" has been multiplied by 12. But the European staff has been weakened, thus limiting the ability of the missionaries to keep in close touch with out-station work.

There were 101 baptisms during the year 1922, and many "unoccupied" villages which had asked for teachers were supplied. Owing to the difficulty of arranging itinerations with so small a staff, the village teachers were invited "to send their most hopeful candidates to the station for a month or two's residence, in the hope that they might then be found ready for baptism and Church membership. Class meetings and personal interviews followed, and we were much cheered by the intelligence and general conduct of these visitors.

"Every month from January to October gave witness of God's presence and blessing in baptisms and entry into the fellowship of the Church."

YAKUSU.

Shortness of staff made 1922 a difficult year—"the year with least to say for itself" in Yakusu's history. "The coming of two new white men, and the promise of another in 1923, make things much more hopeful;" writes Mr. Millman, "though new unevangelised tribes are coming into our circle of vision"; and the situation at the close of the year is one of challenge as well as of promise. All the work among the women and girls falls upon Mrs. Millman. "It is, of course, in the women's work that we find the citadel of custom and superstition holding out longest. In the forest region the women number only one per cent. of the church members."

"In the Boys' School Philip Basuli is the head teacher, and some of the lads are making quite creditable scholars, for this country. While Mr. Ennals and Mr. Parris are acquiring a knowledge of the language they also work in the school and superintend the industrial training of the boys. It is difficult to conjecture what will be the future of these lads. They will soon want, and be worth, higher wages than we can pay, and return to native conditions of life will be impossible for some of them. Dr. Spear and Mr. Ennals have been devising a modified Boy Scout scheme for their good, and some day that may be put into practice. On Sundays they take the Boys' Sunday School on the station, while Mr. Parris generally takes a dozen of the boys away for an open-air meeting in one of the neighbouring villages."

The number of outposts continues to grow, but the native workers, so poorly equipped, need to be kept in constant touch. The inquirers' classes were as well attended as ever, and the baptisms numbered 252; but for the first time the gains were equalled by the losses. The church offerings more than sufficed to pay the native workers employed.

YALEMBA.

In spite of shortness of staff, which hindered considerably the school work in the more distant villages, the year at Yalemba gave much cause for gratitude. There are now 237 members on the roll, and little by little the influence of the new element is spreading far and wide. The medical work was well maintained, as is proved by the 10,095 attendances at the dispensary and the 835 visits paid to native homes; and the Sunday services were exceedingly well attended. The gifts of the church amounted to £57.

"I think that with these results we may well feel grateful," writes Mr. Palmer, "even if we are not satisfied; but the big thing to us is the spirit of welcome among the people. Even old men whom we had quite looked upon as hostile have openly stated their desire that our Message may be known and accepted in their villages, while the crowds—easily a record—who gathered to the Christmas services show that little by little we are establishing our hold on the young folk.

"There have been many disappointments, and especially we are sorry that our band of teachers is not much stronger than it is, but, having looked back upon the past year, we are able to face the coming months and know that He who has helped will help even more abundantly."

WAYIKA.

"The soil and its produce at Wayika is a parable of the spiritual state of the people. Despite all efforts in cultivation, it delights in the production of the long elephant grass, and declines to be coaxed into yielding good crops of things desirable." Thus the story of the year 1922 is a story of much effort and much frustration, school and itineration work being exceptionally difficult. The dispensary work, however, was exceedingly useful, and there were 6,519 attendances, the State Government contributing a quantity of medical necessaries, including expensive drugs; and the printing office had a busy year, there being a great call on every hand for its products.

"School books and other work have been got through for Yakusu. Editions in Kingwana have been completed and bound up. Two editions of the primer have been printed. A grammatical and lexical index to the Gospel of Mark, for the Bible Society, has been compiled and printed, and will be widely distributed, it is hoped, with good results in the future translation of the New Testament into African tongues. A small grammar and vocabulary of the Kingwana language in French and English has been begun, and it is hoped to have it ready for sale in the New Year. Missions in the north in Ituri, at Lake Kivu and Tanganyika, in and between our river and that lake, and at various points south as far as Elizabethville, have found out that our literary efforts and printed books are good for them. And they have exhausted our stock of Primers, Hymn Books, Catechisms, Readers, and Life and Teachings of Jesus Christ; and a great call is made on every hand for all that it is in our power to produce."

And there are other bright aspects. "We were able to baptize five on the last day of the year. We had hoped to have baptized one other, but he was called into the Master's presence about a fortnight before. He had been with us ten years, struggling with a body riddled with inherited disease. He was the weakest in body, but the strongest in faith and practice of all the inquirers. One of those baptized was the daughter of our headman, who came from Yakusu to help us to found Wayika. He was one of those baptized by Mr. Stapleton. Now his daughter hopes to be married to a fine young Christian man at Yalemba, the son of Disasi, one of Mr. Grenfell's engineer boys. How the sacred past links up with the restless present to form the hope of the future!"

"The witch doctors, the Moslem, the priest are urgent in bottle stoppering; we spend a great deal of time and energy in pouring water into or on to these stoppered bottles. The priest tells the people that if they listen to our teaching they will go into the fire. Do any of you know how to take the stoppers out of these bottles? Is there not only one way? We are looking for the Spirit of the Living God!"

CAMEROONS.

IN our last report it was anticipated that the B.M.S. might reopen work on part of its old field in West Africa owing to the withdrawal of German missionaries as the result of the war. This proposal has not matured, however, and it is now hoped that our American Baptist brethren may be able to take up this enterprise.

JAMAICA.

THE appointment of the Rev. T. I. Stockley as Superintendent has given the greatest joy and satisfaction to all who are interested in the new Sustentation Scheme for the Baptist Churches of Jamaica. Mr. and Mrs. Stockley have entered upon their new work with enthusiasm and splendid promise.

The Calabar College and High School have had a very successful year and, with the increased resources put at their disposal by the generous help of the American Baptist Home Mission, they are taking a larger place than ever in the development of the Baptist work of the island. The appointment of the Rev. C. Seymour King opens the way for the establishment of the new Bible Training Class for catechists and lay preachers in connection with the College.

THE LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

THE outstanding features in a year of continuous activity in the Laymen's Movement include action taken at the Leicester Assembly last spring towards the liquidation of the B.M.S. deficit, the purchase and equipment of the historic Mission House in Kettering as a furlough residence for missionaries, and the acquirement of a large house in London for use as a hostel for Indian students. The Baptist Layman, the monthly periodical of the movement, has been considerably enlarged and improved, special pamphlet literature has been widely circulated, new centres have been established, and meetings organised throughout the country. Monthly luncheons for men have been held in the Baptist Mission House and elsewhere. The Annual Conference which took place at Swanwick last March was the largest in numbers and the greatest in value.

V—OUR WORK IN EUROPE.

HERE was unusual blessing in the Italy Mission during 1922, and a record of 56 baptisms. The Rev. W. K. Landels reports that there are signs of revival in all the three churches in Rome. There have been larger evening meetings of people representing a wider range of social status. The union of the two congregations at Florence into one has, under the ministry of Signor Rivera, been quite successful.

At Civita Vecchia there were some striking cases of conversion and public baptism. In Turin and in the Northern Valleys also the progress was most encouraging.

As our readers are aware, the care of the Baptist Mission in Italy has now been taken over by the Baptists of the Southern Convention of the United States, the provisional arrangement of two years, which has worked so happily and successfully, being the basis of Baptist effort in Italy for the future.

A brief review of the past may well form a feature of this last Report of our work in Italy. The B.M.S. work in that country began with the entry into Rome of the Rev. James Wall, in 1870, when the Italian troops took the city, and brought to an end the temporal power of the Papacy.

The General Baptists began work in Rome in 1878, the Rev. N. H. Shaw working side by side with the B.M.S. till the fusion in 1892; and since that time the Mission has continued its work under great difficulties, but always with the same faith and the same resolute perseverance. Rev. W. K. Landels has been the guiding spirit for many years past, and the work of James Wall has been carried on faithfully by his son, Rev. James Campbell Wall.

Our readers will also remember the interesting work whose progress has been reported from time to time in these pages, the Mission to the Poor in Rome, carried on for many years by Miss Wall, in succession to her devoted mother. It is a work rich in pathetic stories and experiences, and illuminated in every page by the compassion of Christ.

The City centres of the Mission have been Rome, Turin, Genoa, and Florence. In Rome we have five halls and chapels, and in Florence a good chapel, once a theatre, with commodious classrooms; in Turin the premises include a handsome church, a book depot, and a printing and publishing office, with a very considerable output. But equal interest attaches to our "country work" in the Susa Valley and among the hills of North Italy under the control of the Turin missionaries. An excellent work has been done in many scattered villages, beginning in cottages and barns, and gradually growing into evangelical churches which represent a new stirring of religious life in remote places, among a people who hitherto had had little opportunity of hearing the truth of God.

This difficult work is rich in sacred associations. Our prayers will be for the success of our American cousins in their extended responsibilities, for our honoured friends, Mr. and Mrs. Landels, Mr. and Mrs. Wall and Miss Wall, who still continue their faithful ministry in Italy under the new auspices, and also for those of the Italian Baptist community whose loyalty and devotion we have proved during many years of difficult but fruitful labour together.

* * * * * *

The Rev. C. H. Jenkins reports a quiet year in the Brittany Mission, his own absence in England and Wales on mission business being one of the chief causes. During that absence, however, the work was well maintained, not one of the regular meetings being dropped. The brightest spots in the report of this quiet year are found in the work at Lanneanou, where a Young People's Meeting has proved a popular innovation; in the School at The Guilly, which has now 120 pupils under Madame Rousseau; in the progress of the work at Plougrescant, under Monsieur Omnes; and in the success of "pioneer" meetings in two new places.

"Through the interest of old Morvan we were able to have a service at a coast village, in a part so far untouched by evangelistic effort. The meeting was held in a fisherman's house, and we had some sixty men. They begged us to come back, and now that they see that our meetings are respectable, their wives will come next time. I hope to return to this village in a week or two.

in the next county, we are going to start monthly meetings in his shop. Benches have been sent there, and in about two or three weeks we will have our first service."

"We are conscious of God's goodness to us," writes Mr. Jenkins, "and we are thankful that in a Catholic country like Brittany we get so many to come to our meetings. There is greater freedom than in the past. We firmly believe that the day of harvest will come, and we pray God to prepare us to be good harvesters as well as faithful sowers in this land."

BIBLE TRANSLATION AND LITERATURE.

HE Presses at Calcutta and Cuttack, under the able and devoted management of Mr. C. H. Harvey and Mr. R. J. Grundy, have produced 523,300 Scripture Portions, Books and Tracts, 449,260 Magazines, and 169,000 Educational Books. They have also carried on a large general business, and have been able very materially to relieve the Society's financial burdens thereby.

For the Bible Translation Auxiliary there were printed 136,000 portions and 1,000 New Testaments in Bengali; and in Oriya 460

Bibles and Testaments and 6,000 portions of Scripture.

India.—Mr. Goldsack completed the Mus-Bengali Gospels and saw them through the press. He has given some time to the translation of a book of 300 pages of Selections from Mohammedan Traditions, designed principally for the use of missionaries amongst Moslems. He has seen his Bengali-English Dictionary through the press.

Mr. Jewson has issued a booklet entitled "Jesus and His Credentials."

Owing to pressure of other work and ill-health, Mr. Pike has been unable to carry forward his translation of the Oriya New Testament. The first Oriya Bible Commentary is nearly completed. Two of last year's books have been well received and widely distributed.

Mr. Winfield has completed his Grammar of the Kui language.

China.—In China, Mr. Evan Morgan has continued his great work on the Dictionary of Religion and Ethics, and interim publication has been made of some parts, e.g., "Jesus Christ," by Dr. Douglas MacKenzie, a book of 136 pages—2,000 copies. Dr. Percy Bruce has undertaken to prepare a Commentary on St. John's Gospel.

Africa.—For Africa, Mr. Millman's book on Tropical Agriculture and Manual Work has been printed in English and is shortly appearing in di-glot editions. The Book on School Management, having been recast, is now on the way to Congo for di-glot publication. Mr. Whitehead has published a Lexical and Grammatical Index of St. Mark's Gospel, and in the Kingwana tongue a Primer, a First Reader and three Bilingual tracts.

From the Colportage returns we are encouraged by increase of sales in many stations. Some very stirring incidents have been reported by the Colporteurs, and will appear in detail in the Annual Report of the Auxiliary.

OUR WOMEN'S WORK.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

URING the year the Committee have suffered the loss by death of their honoured friend, Mrs. J. J. Gurney, of Newcastle-on-Tyne. She had long been a faithful friend of the Association, and will be missed not only in committee but in the Northern Association and the Newcastle district.

At the first meeting of the year a letter was received from Mrs. Edward Robinson, the President, placing her resignation before the Committee, as she was advised by her doctors that her health would not permit of the strain entailed by the chairmanship of business meetings. The Officers and Committee are glad to be able to report that after due consideration Mrs. Robinson has very kindly consented to offer herself for re-election as President on condition that a vice-chairman be elected to help her. The Committee are grateful to God for the measure of health and strength which has been given to their well-loved President, and hope that with the new arrangement proposed Mrs. Robinson may yet have many years of service to render to the Association. Miss Kemp, F.R.G.S., has acted as Vice-Chairman during the year, and has given much valuable time not only to committees themselves, but as adviser and helper to the Officers and Secretaries.

Deputation engagements have been fulfilled in all parts of the country, and some churches have for the first time heard definitely of the share being taken by our Association in bringing the women of the world to the feet of Christ.

The W.M.A. has shared in the experiment tried by the parent Society and its auxiliaries in the consecutive days' conferences known as "Three Days' Thinking," which have been held during the winter months in Sheffield, Bradford, Nottingham and Northampton.

A meeting for women was arranged in connection with the 130th anniversary celebrations of the B.M.S. at Kettering on October 2nd, 1922, when Miss Lockhart and Miss Lusty addressed a large and enthusiastic gathering.

During her visit to India the Foreign Secretary, Miss E. J. Lockhart, visited practically every station and saw as much as possible of the workers and the work. The story she has to tell of what God is doing through the missionaries of the Association is eagerly awaited by the Committee and the churches. In her absence Mrs. H. V. Wenham came to the help of the Home Secretary, and to her, and to the staff in the office, the heartfelt thanks and appreciation of those who are their greatest debtors are accorded.

FINANCE.

The year opened with an adverse balance of £3,993 14s. 2d. after using the remainder of the Baptist United Fund—£4,911 7s. 3d., but by the goodness of God the deficit was wiped out by the end of June. This was largely the result of special donations in response to the Treasurer's appeal. Several special gifts have been received, including £500 from the women of Scotland and part of a payment of a grant of £500 from the Trustees of the Arthington Trust No. 3. The outstanding feature of the financial year has been the very large amount of money received in legacies; £8,063 has been paid into the Legacy Fund in cash, and securities are held for a further amount realisable The contributions from the churches reach a total of £23,284 9s. 5d., a small increase on last year's amount, and the total expenditure, home and foreign, is £36,011 10s. 6d. This leaves the Association with a deficit of £10,767. It should be pointed out that this is the first year in which the W.M.A. has been responsible for all single women missionaries. In view of the large balance in the Legacy Fund, the Committee felt that it would not be right to make an appeal for this amount, and accordingly the deficit was met from legacies hitherto reserved for buildings.

CANDIDATES.

Scarcely a day passes but the secretaries hear from one or another in the churches who desires to offer her life for the definite work of the foreign field. Many of these are too young to make application yet awhile, others have to be helped to see that their best service for the Kingdom can be rendered here at home, others are put into the ranks of students of the Home Preparation Union; but quite a large number have applied to the Candidate Board during the year. Of 22 who applied, 10 had to be rejected on medical and other grounds, 12 were accepted for training, one sailed, and 7 are already preparing in the missionary colleges.

THE FIELDS.

INDIA.

The visit of the Foreign Secretary, Miss Lockhart, to the Indian stations was the great event of the cold season. Her trip extended from Ceylon right through Bengal, Orissa and the North-West, the only W.M.A. station unvisited being the distant outpost of Lushai. There have been some changes in staffs and stations, and more are likely to come as a result of Miss Lockhart's tour. The United Conference, postponed since 1916, met in Calcutta in 1922, and the decisions arrived at during its meetings will affect the work of the Mission in the future.

The work among women goes on steadily, the need and opportunity presenting a challenge and encouragement to our missionaries at the present time.

In Bengal the staff at Barisal are rejoicing in the large accession to the Church from the ranks of the Girls' School, and this happy result of their efforts they acknowledge to be due, partly at least, to the prayerful interest and support of the Girls' Auxiliary of Great Britain. It has not yet been possible to start the industrial work outlined in the last report, but it is hoped to do something before long to help the girls and women of the district to become partially self-supporting, and thus enable them to help their own churches.

In Calcutta there have been changes in staff, and one who has returned to the city after several years' absence is impressed by the improvement and progress of the women's work in that period. This testimony is the best kind of witness that can be given to the value and effectiveness of the work. At the Entally Girls' School 11 girls have been baptized, and the school has done well in class and examination work. Miss Ewing has returned again to lead the Bible Women's Training Institute. There have been several losses by death among the students, and the attendance during the year has been small.

Proposals have been before the Committee for removing the Converts' Home from Jessore to Khulna, and probably when the next report is written this removal will have been accomplished. The missionaries report that a great interest is shown by the village folks in the message, and a keen desire to learn the way of salvation.

The work at Lungleh, Lushai, continues to progress. Miss Marjorie Clark, of Croydon, has joined Miss Chapman, and they are looking forward eagerly to the development of their plans. Four Lushai women are in training as evangelists.

Three new recruits have been sent to Bengal during the year—Miss Baron to Calcutta, Miss Potts to Barisal, and Miss Clark to Lushai.

Orissa.—It has been a great disappointment to all concerned that the health of Miss Little, sent to Bolangir in 1921, has proved so unsatisfactory that she has had to come home. In view of the fact that Miss Thatcher will be retiring in 1923, the prospect for W.M.A. work in Bolangir is somewhat gloomy. However, other plans will be made for carrying on that which has been so splendidly begun under Miss Thatcher.

In Cuttack five from the Girls' School have been baptized. In Berhampur there are evidences of keen interest and attention, and it is hoped to hand over a larger share of the evangelistic work to the Indians themselves.

Miss Cracknell is the new recruit to Orissa this year.

In North-West India the quieter political atmosphere has made for a steady maintenance and growth of existing work. As a result of a mission held in the Girls' School, Patna, a large number of the scholars presented themselves for baptism and church membership.

The staff at Agra has suffered a serious loss in the marriage of Miss Marnham in December, 1922, but has gained through the addition of Miss K. S. Walker, of Glasgow, as well as Miss Slater, from Bhiwani.

The Delhi staff is again complete and all the varied activities of the Mission are in full swing. In Bhiwani Miss Theobald is kept fully occupied, and in Dholpur there have been unexpected evidences of the high value placed by the Indians, Christian and non-Christian, on the work of Miss Hampton and her colleagues. The Salamatpur settlement is still closed, but the experiments made by Miss Young and Miss Budden at Mohena have not been without fruit. Miss Walker, of Glasgow, and Miss Loosley, of High Wycombe, have joined the staff in the North-West.

In Ceylon the Mission has lost through the marriage of Miss Joyce Collier, M.A., in December, but at Matale they have gained through the acceptance of Miss Clara Krause, of Czecho-Slovakia, for service. Miss Krause had previously been associated with the work in Ceylon, and therefore comes back as a tried helper and friend. Miss Elsie Evans, of Colombo, has been home on furlough, and her place was taken by Miss Collier until Christmas.

Miss Allsop has been transferred to Ratnapura, where she is in charge of the school. Good progress is reported, and more girls would come if funds and accommodation allowed. The work of training Biblewomen proceeds steadily under Miss Ethel Evans' guidance. The village evangelistic classes and visits give cause for thankfulness and prayer. From Matale Miss Thomson reports a year of happy, useful service. The visit of the Evangelistic Mission was much appreciated by all, and there were encouraging results in lives dedicated to God. Before leaving for Ratnapura Miss Allsop started a Girl Guide Company, which is proving useful in many directions.

CHINA.

Miss Pentelow, B.Sc., has been the one new recruit for the China Mission during the year. In view of the urgent need for workers, this fact gives food for thought. The W.M.A. staff in Shantung is still the largest they have had in that province. Owing to the generosity of a friend at home, Miss Sifton has been enabled to open a school for Biblewomen in Peichen. The fate of the Middle School in Shantung still hangs in the balance, and a fuller report is awaited from the Field. News comes from Peichen: "We have obtained an entrance into the Yamen and have called twice on the officer's wife. We were given a friendly reception, the call has since been returned, and our visitors have promised to go to some special evangelistic services." The schools in Chowtsun and Tsing-chow-fu are making good progress and are besieged by applications for entrance.

Shansi.—In Tai Yuan Fu the absence of Miss Beckingsale on furlough has created many difficult problems for the small staff left to cope with a situation full of hope and promise. Miss Pearson took over the charge of the Women's School from Miss Beckingsale. Miss Coombs has the oversight of the Girls' School, and countless other duties and responsibilities have fallen to her also. The Edwards' Memorial Institute, the gift of the Misses Kemp, talked of for so long, has now become a reality, and a very beautiful building has been erected for the women of Tai Yuan Fu. The Committee of management is to be largely Chinese, and the Home Board have appointed Miss Ada Sowerby, of Shensi, as Warden. The W.M.A. Committee desire to place on record their deep indebtedness to the donors for this handsome gift, fraught with so many possibilities for good for the extension of the Kingdom of God.

In Sinchow Mrs. John Lewis has carried on single-handed during the year, and the Committee are not unmindful of the strain and stress this has meant for her. Eighteen women were baptized during the year, and while the Annual City Fair was held in June, over 3,000 women attended the Mission services in one week. Two station classes have been held, with an average attendance of 60 at each. Nine women have since given in their names for church membership.

In distant Shensi Miss Franklin has been responsible for the city women's work in Sianfu, and Miss Lois Watson, M.A., has had charge of the Girls' School. Miss Shekleton has been on furlough, but has returned to do yet further service for God in China. She has already spent over thirty years in that land. In San Yuan Miss Curtis and Miss Marion Watson have kept work going, and are encouraged by results.

No report of the work in China would be complete without the record of the fact that Miss Coombs, of Tai Yuan Fu, who was one of those representing the Baptists at the Shanghai Conference, has been elected to represent the English Baptist Mission on the new Council of One Hundred. The Committee desire to express their cordial pleasure at this appointment and their sense of the honour done, not only to Miss Coombs, but to the Women's Work as a whole.

CONGO.

On the Congo work has proceeded with more or less interruption. The staff are glad to be able to report a happier state of affairs at Wathen, but as there was not enough work for two single women, Miss Dorothy James has been there alone and Miss Milledge has been helping Mrs. Jennings at Thysville. Miss Lambourne's return to San Salvador has relieved Miss Coppin of some of the heavy responsibilities resting on her, and they report satisfactory progress. The poverty of the people hinders regular attendance at Church and school, and the heavy taxation imposed upon them makes for hopelessness and despair.

With the return of Miss Bull on furlough the W.M.A. work at Upoto has been suspended. The future of the women's staff at the station is still to be determined. In Bolobo Miss de Hailes continues her wonderful exploits, and is encouraged by the results of her visits in the district. Miss Wilson has been alone in school work during the absence of Miss Birrell on furlough.

It has been a great grief that the settlement of a W.M.A. worker at Yakusu in 1921 came to such a sad ending in April last, when Miss-Scruton was invalided home after only four months in Africa. She is at present recruiting in this country, but the doctors will not yet give any promise of an immediate return to Congo. It is earnestly hoped, however, that another worker may be found to sail in the early autumn for this far distant but promising centre.

During the year Miss Hannah Hughes, of Wathen, has left the staff because of her marriage to the Rev. A. W. Hillard, of Wathen. To them both the Committee extend all good wishes for their future happiness and service in Congo.

The members of the W.M.A. rejoice in the happenings of the year, tracing as they do, through all, the good hand of God resting upon them, guiding, directing and blessing the work. They are convinced that the only path for them to take at the present time is the road leading forward, for to go back in the face of the opportunity, the need, and the favour God has shown during the year that is closed, would seem to them to be nothing short of disloyalty.

It is still true that where the cross of Christ is lifted up the Lord draws men and women to Himself, and in the Power of that Cross which some would call the sign of defeat, but which His followers know to be the sign of victory, the Association goes forward to meet the new days.

THE GIRLS' AUXILIARY.

DURING the year various churches and towns have been visited by the Secretary, with a view to arousing interest in the Girls' Auxiliary. As a result of these visits, six new branches have been formed. In addition to these, nine new branches have been started in other parts of the country and three in London.

During August a special session for the G.A. was again held in connection with the Summer School at Seaford.

The Annual Day of Prayer was this year observed on any day most suitable to the individual Branch during the week March 10th-17th. This is a time set aside by all Branches as a time for rededication and of preparation for the Council meetings.

The total number of branches in Great Britain and Ireland now stands at 164, with an approximate membership of 3,000.

A new departure is the register for "personal members," i.e., for girls attending churches where no Branch has been formed. Several have already been enrolled.

Entering on another year, the G.A. welcomes a new and energetic Secretary in Miss Nora Silvey, of Liverpool, who will carry on the task of rallying willing servants for the work of the Kingdom of God.

THE HOME PREPARATION UNION.

THE Home Preparation Union has now 334 members, an increase of 34 on last year's total. Of these, 94 are young men. There are 78 tutors—46 ladies and 32 men.

Eight past students are now working as missionaries of the Society, and 17 are continuing their studies in college, after provisional acceptance by the Candidate Board.

A special H.P.U. Summer School was held last summer at Seaford, and the experiment was so successful that another is being arranged at Rhyl in August.

A separate section of the H.P.U. has been formed for the help of Lay Preachers, whose examination, arranged by the Baptist Union each spring, is henceforth to be based upon the H.P.U. scheme of study, with a few slight modifications.

OUR MEDICAL WORK.

THE REPORT OF THE MEDICAL MISSION AUXILIARY.

HE year that has just closed will always remain associated with the coming of age of the Medical Mission Auxiliary. It has been a period when faith has been tested by trial, but also inspired afresh by the record of what has been achieved through God during the past twenty-one years. The challenge of present and future possibilities has sent forth a call to the M.M.A., in the strength of its young manhood, to press forward, with unremitting ardour, its mission for Christ and human need. And the call will not be denied!

THE STAFF.

It is with much regret that the Committee have to record the loss by death of one doctor—the beloved Dr. Andrew Young, of San Yuan—and the resignation of two others—Dr. E. C. Girling, of Bolobo, and Dr. R. K. Ford, of Taiyuanfu, both of whom have had to retire from the Field because of compulsory family considerations. In addition, Dr. Russell Watson, of Chowtsun, after nearly forty years of service, has retired from the active list, but is still living in China. One nurse, Miss W. F. Barter, of Yakusu, has also resigned, an adverse medical report having been received upon her health fitness for continued service in Central Africa. Another nurse, Miss Smith, of Wathen, has resigned owing to her marriage to a missionary of a sister Mission on the Congo. Miss Frances Harper, M.D., who had gone to Bolobo for temporary service, had to leave the Congo in the autumn owing to serious attacks of fever.

But if there have been losses, the year has seen some additions to the staff, for which the Committee give hearty thanks. Three new doctors have been accepted—Miss Hilda Bowser, M.B., B.S. (Lond.), M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., who has already proceeded to the Palwal Women's Hospital; Miss Gladys Rutherford, M.B., Ch.B., D.T.M. (Liverpool), who will be proceeding to India in the coming autumn; and Handley Stockley, M.B., Ch.B. (Edin.), D.T.M. (Lond.), who will be sailing for China during the next year. One new nurse has been accepted—Miss Owen of Benfleet, who will leave for Congo in the late autumn.

The return to the Field, after furlough, of a number of the M.M.A. Staff has been welcomed by their colleagues. Dr. and Mrs. Fleming resumed active service at Chowtsun in October, and Dr. Ellen Farrer arrived in Bhiwani in November. Dr. and Mrs. John Jones have recently returned to Sianfu, and Nurse Jaques to Taiyuanfu. Amongst the new missionaries accepted in the previous year, it is thankfully reported that Dr. and Mrs. Joy and Nurse Petrie arrived at Bolobo in August, Dr. Gordon Spear at Yakusu in September (temporary service), Dr. and Mrs. Matthewson at Palwal in October, Dr. and Mrs. Evans at Tsinan in February (now studying at the Peking Language School), Nurse Oliver at Lungleh in December, and Nurse Ede at Berhampore in the same month.

The Committee report with much sorrow that Nurse Roach, of Berhampore, is still lying weak and ill in this country, and keen sympathy will be felt for her and her parents.* Nurse Pollard has improved in health, and it is hoped that this improvement will be maintained, and permit of her return to Tsinan in the early future. Nurse Smith, of Chowtsun, has had varying health during the year, but is now happily better, and Nurse Walker, also of Chowtsun, was ill in December. Nurse Head, of Yakusu, has had somewhat indifferent health, but is now stronger. Nurse Soper, of Bolangir, suffered badly from fever in the summer, but hopes to maintain better health this year. In all these cases how much occasion can be discerned for earnest prayer!

Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler arrived on furlough from Tsinan in June, Dr. and Mrs. Chesterman from Yakusu in December, and Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore from San Salvador in March. Mrs. Andrew Young, with her three children, arrived from San Yuan in September.

Summarising the whole position of the M.M.A. Staff, it is found that there has been a net loss of one doctor during the past year, and that the present list of doctors gives a total of 27 (including two recently accepted candidates who have not yet sailed). The nursing staff remains as last year, at a total of 28.

Yet—so true is the fact that the hospitals are understaffed—there are to-day seven hospitals in which, through there being only one doctor apiece, there is absolutely no provision for the recurring exigencies of furlough and sickness, and no adequate help in bearing the heavy strain which is constantly resting upon our medical staff.

THE FIELDS. I.—INDIA.

(1) North India.—The men's hospital at Palwal has been the scene of considerable activity. The coming of Dr. Mathewson has made possible a new development in the direction of eye surgery, which is so greatly needed. Dr. Moore, who has been doing a lot of Medical Mission itinerating with his motor ambulance, writes that ^{*} Nurse Roach was called to the Higher Service on Saturday, June 9th.

"he has seen twenty or thirty eye patients in a village. Some have cataracts and can be operated upon in the hospital." "Patients come many miles for treatment in spite of the provision of Government hospitals. We frequently get patients from 50 to 60 miles away!" No fewer than 18,655 individual out-patients were treated in 1922, and 1,497 operations performed. Dr. Moore reports that they "are beginning in Palwal to reap the seed that has so faithfully and long been sown by others. Three villages in the district have expressed their desire to become Christian. We recently had a week of evangelistic campaigning, and we found everywhere men ready and willing to listen. . . . We very badly need an evangelistic missionary to shepherd this flock, and we need a European nurse. Pray ye therefore!"

The Rahmatpur Women's Hospital at Palwal has rejoiced lately in the coming of Dr. Hilda Bowser, and the Lady Hardinge Women's Hospital at Dholpur has shown how closely the Medical and Zenana work is interwoven. A new interest has been shown by a number of influential Hindu men, and the missionaries feel that they "must go ahead at all costs."

The event of the year in the M.M.A. work in North India has been the opening of the new Farrer Women's Hospital at Bhiwani, concerning which a full account was given in the April Herald. The doctors paid a special tribute to Mr. Hale for his splendid help in bringing the building to a happy consummation. "The friendly tone of the patients has also been a great joy and encouragement to the Hospital staff."

(2) Bengal.—The hospital at Chandraghona, which ministers to the needy, poor, and scattered people of the Chittagong Hill Tracts, has been growing in usefulness. The great advances in tropical medicine in the treatment of malaria, kalaazar, hook-worm, and leprosy have been brought into service. The leper ward has had ten patients, and one of these was baptized during the year. An interesting fact is that the local Indian Christian Church have erected a small chapel for the lepers. A new cholera ward has been opened. Dr. Teichmann urges the need for a nurse, and asks for special intercession for his evangelistic work among the in-patients.

At Lunglet, in the Lushai Hills, Nurse Dicks has rejoiced in the coming of Nurse Oliver and in the erection of the small dispensary ward, which will go far to meet a long-felt need.

(3) Orissa.—The work of the Berhampore Women's Hospital has grown in volume, and the need for a medical colleague for Dr. Daintree has become very urgent. The new out-patient department and other improvements to the hospital are being added this year, and will be of the utmost help to the medical and nursing staff, the latter of which has been reinforced by the arrival of Nurse Ede. The W.M.A. and M.M.A. missionaries have co-operated in the evangelistic work, and definite signs have been given of fruit to this effort, some of the in-patients having definitely accepted Christ before returning to their Hindu homes.

The new dispensary work for women carried on by Nurse Soper at Bolangir is chiefly among the poor Christian community. It is greatly needed in this district of at least sixty miles radius. A new building was opened, in which the patients can be attended to, during the visit of the Indian Deputation.

II.—CHINA.

(1) Shantung.—The work of the Medical School and Hospital of the Shantung Christian University at Tsinan has been carried forward with great energy during the past year. A Hospital Board has been formed, composed of prominent Chinese and representatives of the Medical Missionary staff. This, it is believed, will do much to strengthen local interest and support. The decision has been made to amalgamate the Women's Mandarin Medical School in Peking with the school at Tsinan, and from the coming autumn there will therefore be women as well as men students. It is believed that this will prove a union which will make for the strength of Medical Missionary education in China. Dr. Balme writes most hopefully about the hospital work, and says that "every year sees a definite advance in the standard of our graduates, our house surgeons and physicians, and our Chinese nurses." Last autumn the fourth graduation of nurses trained in the hospital took place, bringing the total of those graduated in the past few years up to 19. At present there are 40 men and women nurses in training and 78 medical students.

The hospital at Tsingchowfu has marked a great increase in the number of patients, and Dr. Paterson reports some encouraging facts indicative of the earnest way in which the Chinese staff have co-operated for the good of the work. Increased local contributions have been a feature, "one Mohammedan lady giving $100 'to show her appreciation of the kindly way in which poor patients were treated by all the staff.'"

The work of the Foster Hospital at Chowtsun gives every sign of healthy progress. The in-patients show a decided increase in number, which reveals the fact that patients with more serious diseases are coming in larger numbers to stay in the Hospital, where the best work can be done in influencing them for Christ. Dr. Fleming and Dr. Bethell point out that "during 1922, 450 men, women and children have been under the daily influence of Christian teaching and practice for periods ranging from a few weeks to several months. It is doubtful whether any other branch of missionary work affords such an opportunity."

(2) Shansi.—The Schofield Memorial Men's Hospital at Taiyuanfu has sustained a heavy loss in the resignation of Dr. Ford, but the report sent in by Dr. Clement Stockley contains many illustrations of the good work which is going on in the wards and amongst the outpatients. A number of the in-patients have professed conversion, and some have joined the Church. A good work has gone on amongst the nursing staff. Miss Cropley has brought into being a definite course of training, and on the spiritual side it is recorded that nine nurses have been baptized and joined the church. A weekly Bible Class and a C.E. have been started for the staff. The latter society has shown practical Christianity in providing the cost of false limbs for poor patients as well as providing food for them. Delegates from this C.E. attended a Y.M.C.A. Conference last summer. Two Chinese medical graduates from Tsinanfu are on the staff of the hospital.

The Women's Hospital in Taiyuanfu has had a busy year, and Dr. Marjory Edwards and Nurse Rossiter have been glad to welcome back Nurse Jaques after furlough.

(3) Shensi.—The Jenkins and Robertson Memorial Hospital at Sianfu has had a most difficult and abnormal year, and one attended with anxiety and danger to the Staff. The explosion of the ammunition dump in June did almost incalculable damage to the hospital buildings, which had already suffered severely through the earthquake. In a marvellous way none of the staff sustained physical harm through the explosion, though some were exposed to grave risk at the time. The work of the hospital has necessarily been greatly dislocated, repairs and plans for reconstruction having to occupy first thought. Estimates regarding rebuilding, etc., show that a very serious outlay, amounting to about £8,000, will have to be faced, and the M.M.A. is giving earnest consideration to the matter. Funds are urgently needed.

The work of the San Yuan Hospital, which had only been re-opened in the previous December, suffered an irreparable loss in the death of its beloved physician, Dr. Andrew Young, in the month of April. His name will always remain as a precious memory of abiding inspiration.

III.-CONGO.

(1) Portuguese Congo.—The San Salvador Hospital has had a year of busy and successful work. An epidemic of whooping-cough occurred at the commencement of the year, and was followed by "a spontaneous show of gratitude on the part of the people." The sleeping sickness work has once again proved most extensive. As many as 378 cases have been under treatment during 1922, the total attendances of these patients coming to 12,632. Of the 378 individual patients, 162 were apparently cured, and only 47 showed no improvement. At the close of the year 130 were still under treatment.

The evangelistic work carried on amongst the sleeping sickness patients is most important. Twice a week a Gospel service is held, at which all attend. As the treatment extends over a period of six months, this means that for that period the patients get consecutive teaching in spiritual matters. Then subsequently many go to the inquirers' classes on the station.

It is a matter of profound regret that no doctor has been found to take Dr. Gilmore's place now that he is on furlough.

(2) Belgian Congo.—The work of the Liverpool Hospital at Bolobo has been subjected to a good deal of change in the past year. The resignation and return home of Dr. and Mrs. Girling left Miss Harper in sole medical charge—to be followed by her breakdown, and the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Joy in August. Since then Dr. Joy has found his hands over-full with sleeping sickness treatments, tours of investigation, surgical and laboratory work, to say nothing of language study and many other things! It can be understood how he has longed for a medical colleague many a time! On the nursing side the staff has welcomed the arrival of Nurse Petrie, who has filled the gap created by the furlough of Nurse Peacop.

The Stapleton Memorial Hospital at Yakusu has been the scene of much activity. The coming of Dr. Spear enabled Dr. Chesterman to leave for furlough in October without the hospital work being reduced. The patients have come from a wide area, some even travelling over 700 miles to attend the hospital. The need is the new hospital, which is eagerly anticipated. The influence of the Medical Mission in commending the message of the Gospel has become increasingly marked. Where formerly a woman was beaten to death for coming to the hospital, the doctor is now welcomed as a friend, and a greater readiness exhibited to listen to his message.

The work done by evangelistic missionaries in the out-patient dispensaries in other than hospital stations has been very considerable, and of much value.

THE HOME BASE.

The past year has witnessed a great loss in the Home organisation of the M.M.A., through the resignation of the Rev. E. Anstie Bompas upon his acceptance of a call to the pastorate of the West Ealing Baptist Church. Mr. Bompas' earnest advocacy of medical missions, and his successful efforts to advance the resources of the M.M.A., will never be forgotten. The Committee took leave of him with gratitude for his service and good wishes for his future ministry.

The work of the past autumn naturally centred very largely around the celebration of the Twenty-First Anniversary of the foundation of the M.M.A. On Sunday, November 19th, special attention was called to medical missions in hundreds of pulpits throughout the land, and the December number of the Herald was devoted to this work. An effort was made to promote the Birthday Scheme, and met with a good measure of success. Increasing attention has been given to advocacy and local organisation, and this has shown how much still remains to be done in creating an adequate interest in the M.M.A. amongst the churches.

THE M.M.A. FUND.

The Committee record with great thankfulness that the general income of the M.M.A. has reached the sum of £22,680 14s. 1d., being an advance of £969 6s. 10d. upon the similar total of the preceding year. In addition there has been received in legacies £9,437 19s. 10d., and in gifts for special objects a further amount of £2,708 9s. 5d. The expenditure of the year, aside from £4,669 10s. spent on necessary buildings and equipment, for which provision has been made from the legacy and special funds, has, however, risen to a total of £28,157 3s., thus showing a deficiency in the general contributions of £5,518 9s. 9d.

This serious shortage, in accordance with the decision of the General Committee, has been made good from the legacy fund, which course, whilst obviating the necessity for any appeal for the clearance of the deficit, lessens the ability of that fund to respond to the heavy claims in respect to urgent capital expenditure at several of the Hospitals. At the same time the Committee give praise to God that He has not only blessed the efforts of the past year by augmenting the general contributions of the M.M.A., but has provided a way, through the exceptional legacy receipts, whereby the deficit could be wiped out. They are confident that the friends and supporters of the M.M.A. will take fresh courage through this new sign of God's presence and power in the work of the Auxiliary, and go forward with renewed faith and prayer to the tasks of the coming year.

A more extended Report of the Medical Work, fully illustrated, may be obtained on application from the M.M.A. Office, 19, Furnival Street, E.C.4.

HOME AND HOSTEL.

THE past year has seen the establishment of two interesting and important home institutions in connection with the B.M.S., one of them at Kettering and the other in London. They are referred to elsewhere in this Report, but this fuller description will be welcomed.

I-THE KETTERING FURLOUGH HOME.

The old mission house at Kettering, known as the scene of the formation of the Society in 1792, is now established as a Furlough Home for missionaries, and as an interesting week-end and holiday resort for their friends. Purchased, renovated, and refurnished through the beneficent activities of the Baptist Laymen's Movement, it was formally opened in October of last year, when the deeds were handed to the Treasurer of the Society and the building of holy memories solemnly dedicated to the uses of the Society for all the days to come.

The house stands almost in the heart of the town of Kettering, within easy reach of Fuller Chapel and the shopping centre; and Kettering is in the heart of the "Carcy Country," with Moulton six miles and Northampton twelve miles away. The House is ten minutes' walk from Kettering Station, is centrally heated, and has three reception rooms and twelve bedrooms. There is a special playground for children.

Missionaries anticipating furlough should make early application, so that accommodation may be reserved for them. Rooms can also be booked for week-ends and other short periods. Enquiries should be addressed to the Warden, the Rev. John Howell, The Mission House, Kettering, or to Mr. W. Parker Gray, Rush Mills, Northampton.

II-THE ORIENTAL STUDENTS' HOSTEL.

The Oriental Students' Hostel was opened on June 27th, to be a residence for Indian students staying in London. There are some six hundred Indian students attached to London University, and their presence is a challenge and opportunity for the Christian Church.

The Hostel is situated in the Stamford Hill District (54, Amhurst Park), and has accommodation for twenty-five men. It has been purchased and fitted up by the Baptist Laymen's Movement, and the Wardens in charge are Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Page, formerly of Dacca, who have had long experience of student work in India. Under their management the guests at the Hostel will be assured of a happy and refined home life and a sympathetic atmosphere.

With the approval of the members of the family, the Hostel has been associated with the name of Sir Alfred Pearce Gould, the first President of the Baptist Laymen's Movement, and it will be known as "The A.P.G. Hostel." The undertaking is commended to the prayer and support of all friends of the Mission.

Enquiries should be made to the Warden, Rev. W. Sutton Page, B.A., B.D., O.B.E., at 54, Amhurst Park, Stamford Hill, London, N.W.
