AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

ORGANIZED MAY 9th, 1860.
INCORPORATED APRIL 13th, 1861.

The object of this Society is "to extend and build up the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, in accordance with the principles and doctrines of the Protestant Episcopal Church, as set forth in her Articles, Liturgy, and Homilies."

Membership:—$3 constitutes an Annual Member; $100 constitutes a Life Member; $500 constitutes a Patron.
Pursuant to the order of the Executive Committee, the Thirty-ninth Annual Meeting of the American Church Missionary Society was held this day, October 10th, 1898, at 8 p.m., in the Red Parlor of the Ebbitt House, Washington, D. C.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Gen. Wager Swayne, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Peterkin, Bishop of West Virginia, opened it with prayer.

The Rev. W. Dudley Powers, D.D., General Secretary of the Society, was elected Secretary.

The following gentlemen were present:

The President then addressed the meeting on the general subject of the work of the Society and its future.

The Rev. A. B. Kinsolving from the Committee on Memorials offered the following Memorial and Resolution in memory of the late Henry M. Oddie, Esq., which was passed, and ordered spread upon the minutes.
MINUTE OF RESPECT.

HENRY M. ODDIE.

Mr. Henry M. Oddie, a member of Grace Church, Orange, N. J., and for ten years a member of the Executive Committee of the American Church Missionary Society, died at his home in East Orange on the 17th of May last.

Those who have served the missionary cause with him desire to put on record their sense of his worth as a man, and fidelity as a co-laborer. Until the last year or two when there were circumstances which prevented, Mr. Oddie was rarely absent from either the Annual Meetings of the Society or those of the Executive Committee. He was an interested, intelligent partaker in all our deliberations, and warm in his sympathies with each of those called by the Holy Spirit to preach where Christ is not known.

He walked among us in the unaffected simplicity of a sincere Christian man, thoroughly evangelical in thought and spirit, and responsive to every appeal for the extension of the dominion of our Redeemer. Therefore be it

Resolved: That we call to mind his fellowship and service with thankfulness to God, and beg to tender to the members of his family assurances of our Christian sympathy.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING, Chairman.

The Rev. A. B. Kinsolving, from the same Committee, offered also the following Memorial and Resolution in memory of the late N. Pendleton Schenck, Esq.

MINUTE OF RESPECT.

N. PENDLETON SCHENCK.

Soon after their meeting in June, the members of the Executive Committee of the American Church Missionary Society learned through the press, with unspeakable shock and pain, of the sudden death of Mr. N. Pendleton Schenck.

That announcement which carried dismay to so many other circles of Church people, and so many warmly attached friends, has fallen heavily upon us as well, and we desire to place on record some expression of our regard for this courteous, capable and useful Christian gentleman.

Mr. Schenck was the son of the late Dr. Noah Hunt Schenck, one of the most honored of the clergy of our Church, and was identified actively with many lines of Christian service. Everywhere his transparent sincerity, his genial spirit, his tact and energy made him a man of singular usefulness.

He will be sadly missed, not only in his parish where he was a bulwark of strength to his rector, in the Diocese of Long Island, where he was in many relations a rarely efficient man, but his death makes a great gap here.

Since December, 1896, he has been a regular, interested and helpful fellow-counsellor in the work of this Society, and we deeply lament the early termination of his valuable life. Be it Resolved: That this minute of esteem be spread upon the records of this Society, and that a copy, with assurances of our tender Christian sympathy, be sent to Mrs. Schenck.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING, Chairman.
The Annual Report of the Executive Committee was read by the Rev. J. Thompson Cole, late Secretary of the Society, which was accepted. (See Appendix A.)

The Chair appointed the following Committee on Nominations:

Mr. Blackford moved the adoption of the following Resolution:
Resolved: That the Society hereby expresses its pleasure at having present at this meeting the Rev. John G. Meem, of the Brazil Mission, and tenders him an affectionate greeting; which was passed.

The Rev. Mr. Meem addressed the meeting in an interesting way, giving an account of the work and its need in the Brazilian field.

The Rev. Dr. Duncan offered the following Preamble and Resolution, which was passed.

Whereas, the distance of the mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in Brazil, from the United States makes it difficult for a Bishop in this country to have a sufficient oversight of said mission; and

Whereas, the large number of the clergymen and laymen in this field, with the rapid increase in numbers which is going on, makes it important that there should be a Bishop on the grounds; and

Whereas, the Church in Brazil has expressed a desire to have a Bishop appointed, and has designated one of its number as its choice; and

Whereas, the American Church Missionary Society assembled in annual council, sympathize with its missionaries in their desire for a chief pastor, approving of the clergyman they have designated as their choice; therefore

Resolved: That this desire and choice meet with our hearty approval, and that the Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, D.D., be requested to communicate the same to the House of Bishops if in his judgment it shall seem desirable so to do.

On motion of Mr. Whitney the following Committee was appointed to draft a memorial of Hon. Felix R. Brunot: Rev. J. Thompson Cole and Mr. Whitney.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.
HON. FELIX R. BRUNOT.

The principles of our Society live while time runs its course; they are founded on the everlasting Gospel—the Society itself depends for its existence, in the providence of God, upon the virtues of those who love it.

Such an one was Mr. Brunot. In 1870 he became a member of the Executive Committee and, until his lamented death this year, his connection with it in some official capacity never ceased.

He had with it a still closer bond, that of prayers and alms. He always remembered its work, his gifts were the largest, long continued that it has ever received from annual contributors. The last codicil to his will gave to the Society's latest work, that in Brazil, a large legacy. Of the men who were gathered in its councils in early years and continued their connection with it, he was the last survivor. His love for the Society never chilled, his devotion to it never swerved, his care for it never failed.

It was one of the many Christian enterprises that found home in his heart and help from his hand. The same virtues that marked his distinguished services to his country were the pride of the community where he dwelt, exemplified themselves in all his relations to this Society.

A man of noble intellect, of splendid ability, of winning disposition, he placed all these at the service of his Master and consecrated unto Him all he had.

His home was ever open to missionaries, he loved to see them, to talk with them, and to care for them. Many a worker, courteously entreated, went on his way rejoicing for the consolation received in that dear Christian home. Of what he was to country and State we cannot here speak. Over and again the high respect and esteem of all who knew him has been expressed.

The American Church Missionary Society can only be one of many to mourn his loss and to none was that loss greater.

To her who was all of what we have said of him, his own dear other self, we bring this simple tribute of devotion, and with deep sympathy and tender affection we greet her, and thank God that to us he gave so long a friend and fellow-helper,

One whom Jesus loved.

The Rev. Mr. Cole offered the following resolutions: First,

Resolved: That the thanks of this Society be returned the Bishop White Prayer Book Society for their generous publication of the first Book of Common Prayer in the Portuguese language. Second,

Resolved: That the thanks of this Society be returned the New York Prayer Book Society for their kind publication of the edition of the Book of Common Prayer now about to be issued. Carried.

The President called the Rt. Rev. George W. Peterkin, D.D., to the chair.

Mr. Blackford from the Committee on Nominations then put in nomination the following gentlemen for their respective offices:

APPENDIX A.

Thirty-ninth Annual Report of the Executive Committee to the American Church Missionary Society.

The following annual report which was on motion duly approved September 21st, 1898, by the Executive Committee of the American Church Missionary Society, is presented to the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America in conformity with Section 4 of the Articles of Agreement between the Society and the Board.

W. Dudley Powers,
General Secretary of the American Church Missionary Society.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The Executive Committee presents to the Society the following report of work, at home and abroad during the Society's thirty-ninth year ending August 31st, 1898. The usual tables of receipts and expenditures accompany this report. They show that the Society received during the year the sum of $34,032.50, and expended $29,917.11. Of these sums the receipts for the missionary working of the Society were $27,714.76, the expenditures for the same objects $29,917.11. Of the balance cash on hand, $14,199.41, the sum of $4,984.10 is available for the work of the Society.

LEGACIES.

From the estate of Wealthy Ann Hunt the sum of $3,315.10 was received, from that of the late John W. Andrews, once President of the Society and ever greatly esteemed, the sum of $1,081.83.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

The regular contributions to the Society exceed those of last year by the sum of $8,000, in this is included the net proceeds ($985.27) of the sale of a small farm in Virginia given by Mrs. A. H. Jackson, the widow of a clergyman once of that diocese. The receipts from specials have been about $3,500 less than last year, and from legacies $4,300 less than last year.

The contributions to Brazil have been about $12,700, but part of this was in specials, so that the actual amount for regular expenses, while $1,100 more than that of last year, still falls short of the sum needed by over $3,000. It is hoped that with the end of the war which for a time diverted gifts that usually reach our treasury toward the close of the fiscal year, and with an increasing knowledge of the mission in Brazil, the response on the part of our Church will fully meet the needs of that mission field. At this point we might well call attention to the fact that while in communicants and contributions toward self-support, and in every other particular the mission has increased seven-fold in the last few years, the sum available each year for its work is practically the same, about $12,000.

We do not feel that any mission work in our Church ever before thus multiplied while the expense to the home supporters remained stationary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

A slight reduction was made in the amount of stipends for the coming fiscal year, and two stipends were discontinued.

The receipts for this work were larger than last year by $300, which included Mrs. Jackson's gift already mentioned. Advantage was taken of this to change the time of quarterly payments so that the end of the last quarter coincides with the end of the fiscal year (August 31st) instead of on June 30th as heretofore. It will be seen therefore that stipends for fourteen months were paid in this fiscal year.

The following changes are noted: The Rev. J. W. Keeble, of Arkansas, and the Rev. J. S. Lightbourn, of West Virginia, and the Rev. W. H. Stewart, of Nevada, have removed to other dioceses. The Rev. W. K. Marshall, of Wellsburg, West Virginia, as was also the Rev. Arnoldus Miller, of Nevada, have been added to the Society’s roll of missionaries.

ARKANSAS.

The Rev. R. S. James, D.D., at Eureka Springs, has been for the past year our representative in this diocese. It has become necessary, for reasons already stated, to discontinue this stipend.

EAST CAROLINA.

The Rev. Edward Wootten, Evangelist, has ministered to many and travelled far and wide. In his report there is an echo of the war troubles, for his son, an officer, stricken with the dread typhoid, has been at the point of death. How much to such a missionary our help means, only those who have faced the cares of an Evangelist’s life can tell.

IDAHO.

The Rev. J. M. Johnston, Archdeacon, stationed at Montpelier, has been our worthy representative in this truly missionary ground.

MONTANA.

The Rev. Thomas E. Dickey, formerly at Kalispell, has removed to Virginia City for the sake of change of climate.

INDIANA.

The Rev. T. B. Kemp, the Nestor of our forces, for thirty-five years connected with our Society, is still active. His report, full and strong, tells of the trials of work among a shifting population and a people of limited means. Age does not restrain him from continued and efficient work in the Gospel Ministry.

NEVADA.

The Rev. R. Mercer, at Austin, and the Rev. Arnoldus Miller, at Elko, with Miss Marian Taylor, constitute our representatives in this far Western state.

We have spoken before of Miss Taylor’s work; it is a privilege to tell of it again. There was a wilderness of sin and shame, when in the desert she came as a messenger of the truth in Christ Jesus. That was three years ago. Now in that Indian tribe there is a church, thirty Indian adults baptized this year, 125 in the Sunday-school, and one Christian marriage, the beginning, it is hoped, of many like it. The school, the church, and now the Christian home are where once there was only vice and squalor. We have read no more interesting story of success than this of a consecrated and devoted woman.

NEW YORK.

The Rev. E. C. Saunders, rector of the Church of the Messiah at Rhinebeck, officiates as a missionary of this Society at the Chapel of the Ascension, Rhinecliff, where chapel, school-house, and other property are held in trust by this Society.

OKLAHOMA.

Miss Ida Roff, at Anadarko, is lace teacher to a number of Indian women. She notes with pleasure the improvement in these women. The tepees are being given up and they begin to live in houses. Religious instruction is given on week-days and Sundays in her visits to their camps and homes.

OLYMPIA.

This is “far West” ground. Here the Rev. H. L. Badger and the Rev. W. J. Dickson, at Orcas Sound, are engaged. They see fresh signs of hope, but yet need our aid.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA.

We part with regret from the Rev. B. B. Sams, our missionary for the past year on the islands off the coast of this state.

The field is an old one, in an old diocese, and Mr. Sams is faithfully serving the churches. The reduction we so greatly regretted, discontinued his stipend.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA.

Here the Rev. Martin Johnson is our missionary. The small stipend we give enables him to cover an amount of territory that is very large. He holds services at eight places many miles apart. The communities are scattered and the missionary with untiring zeal ministers to them far and near.

SPOKANE.

The Rev. Robert Perine is stationed at Olympia. He looks forward to a year of increased missionary activity. The past year has been devoted largely to the charge of the cathedral.
VIRGINIA.

The Rev. D. C. T. Davis and the Rev. J. H. Hundley, D.D., in Essex and Middlesex counties respectively, are yet faithfully laboring in the Master’s cause. No wonderful opening up of territory in these old parishes, but there is constant need of Gospel preaching and teaching, and with that need the necessity of our aid in supplying it.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons, Romney; the Rev. J. F. Woods, Moundsville; the Rev. A. J. Willis, Middleway; the Rev. F. A. Meade, Hinton; and the Rev. W. K. Marshall, Wellsburg, are all worthy representatives of this society, which was originally organized to carry this Church in all the simplicity of Gospel teaching to those who need it. We have not the space to particularize, but the work of these six brethren is part and parcel of a work for the Living Christ in this live and interesting diocese, as noble and true as any ever done.

They have preached at forty-four stations, baptized eighty-six persons, presented forty-one for Confirmation; they minister to 529 communicants in a population of 25,000. Here we can see the great good of our Domestic work. Our stipends enable these brethren to keep up their work, to meet their appointments, to minister to souls; but they do as much for those who give them; they enable the givers to share in publishing glad tidings and in the blessing of faithful servants.

This summary of our Domestic missionary reports, though incomplete, shows that our twenty-four missionaries minister at seventy-five stations to 1,400 communicants and 2,945 persons. They have held 2,001 services, administered the Holy Communion 384 times, presented 115 persons for Confirmation, and baptized 198. For this work we need help. We believe that the stipends do the largest amount of good, and invite all who love the old paths in our Church to share these blessings with us.

BRAZIL.

This mission increases in interest, and surely, steadily presses to the front of attractive mission fields. The statistics show 946 communicants, an increase of 27; the contributions are $3,409.64 United States gold, an increase of $1,015.24. The Rev. William Cabell Brown spent the year in this country, speaking in our churches most acceptably of the work, and supervising the preparation of the plates for the Book of Common Prayer. He returned to Porto Alegre in July. The Rev. L. L. Kinsolving has been active as rector in Rio Grande. The report shows that in that city we have a church, indeed. Of the rector, we need but say that his brethren in the mission have designated him as their choice for Bishop of Brazil, and wait the favorable action of our House of Bishops on their request for his consecration. The Rev. J. G. Meem has come home on furlough after seven years of service in the field. He will tell again in our homeland the story of how great things God has done for the Brazil Mission.

The Rev. James W. Morris has taken charge of the church in Pelotas during Mr. Meem’s absence, and also of the work at Areal near by, whether Boa Vista Chapel has been removed.

The Rev. A. V. Cabral has taken charge as rector of the congregations in Porto Alegre, leaving the church at Viamao in charge of a lay-reader, but visiting it from time to time. The Rev. A. M. Fraga is still at Contracto. The Rev. V. Brande has gone to the city of Jaguarao, on the south-west border of Brazil, to begin a new work.

There is yet much land to be possessed. There are several large towns in the state where the promise of success is as great as the proof of it has been in the cities occupied.

Miss Mary Packard, who for seven years has served faithfully, efficiently, and admirably as a missionary teacher in Brazil, has returned to this country for a year’s furlough.

The progress of the Brazil Mission keeps pace with every hope that its lovers have framed. It is no longer a venture or an experiment; it is a planting and a reaping; an assured proof that the preaching of the Gospel, the ordering of this Church, the service of this society, are winning the day for the Kingdom of Christ in the Republic of Brazil.

THE PORTUGUESE PRAYER BOOK.

The plates, their cost generously provided for by the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, have been finished and a special edition of 190 copies published as part of the gift.

The plates have been kindly loaned to the New York Prayer Book Society, who, at their own cost, are printing an edition of 1,500 copies, and deserve our hearty thanks.

We congratulate the Society on the fact that this great missionary tract for the times, the Book of Common Prayer, is now given to the Brazilian people in their own tongue.

It marks an epoch in aggressive missionary work.

CUBA.

How many eyes have been turned thither, how the thoughts and prayers, the love and devotion of thousands have followed our boys to the Queen of the Antilles.

The war is over, the door is opened, the way to evangelize that island is clear.

The Rev. Pedro Duarte has ministered to the congregation of Cuban exiles in West Tampa. He reports seventy-seven infants baptized, twelve adults confirmed, twenty-six communicants added, twenty-nine marriages, seven funerals, and an average attendance of fifty to seventy-five. He stands ready to re-enter his home land, to re-establish work in Matanzas, to help win Cuba for Christ.

But in the island itself we have kept the light aflame.

In Havana, poor beleaguered Havana, our lay-reader, Jose R. Pena, kept a little congregation "faithful to Jesus." They met for weekly worship. They waited for the light. One day off Havana came the warships of our navy and then the cloud shut down.

Mr. Pena, who earns his own living, and only receives from us the rent of the house where the services are held, lost his place—there was no more work. Our letters could not reach him. In July destitution had come close to his door, but he prayed, believing God would answer.

And one day a cable message brought him from us $100.

The blockade did not stop it, and it came like water from a desert rock.

With that he managed to live till the happy day when Havana was again free to go in and come out.

And now the Society waits the pleasure of God's people in our Church. Will they commission us to take up, carry on, a great work for Christ in Cuba?

For years we have waited for an opportunity, and now opportunities, great and golden, wait for us.

The Rev. J. Thompson Cole, General Secretary of the Society, has resigned, and the Rev. W. Dudley Powers, D.D., has been elected in his stead.

It is well to remember what this Society has done in the past. It has vindicated the great voluntary principle in giving to missions. It has demonstrated the single strength of the evangelical principle.

It has trained in missionary work and kindled the zeal of many who have been able members of the Board of Missions, among them the lamented Langford. It began the mission in Haiti and in Mexico. It originated many of the plans of missionary work to-day so potent, the Woman's Auxiliary, a Children's Offering, a Church Building Fund, a City Mission Society; all these were developed from the plans of this Society.

We believe that, always voluntary, and always evangelical, it has always had its acknowledged and rightful place in the mission work of our Church, and has now, in the providence of God, a larger opportunity to serve in the fellowship of our Church the Master whom we adore.

J. THOMPSON COLE,
General Secretary for the Executive Committee.

CERTIFICATE OF AUDIT.

(A copy.)

DEAR SIRS:

We have made an audit of the books and accounts of your Society for the year ending September 1st 1898.

We have examined and compared the receipts for the year, including donations and interest on securities owned or held in trust, with the items as shown by the cash book and cheque-book of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, and find the same to agree. We have checked the securities and deeds to real estate at the National Safe Deposit Company, and find them to agree with the Society's books. We have compared the items of disbursements for the year with the vouchers containing the written authority therefor, and certify the same to be correct.

Yours truly,

THE AUDIT COMPANY OF NEW YORK.

(Signed) Thomas L. Greene, Manager.

New York, October 28th 1898.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT

BETWEEN THE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND THE AMERICAN CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, MADE BY THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE, TOGETHER WITH THEIR RESOLUTIONS TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS CONVENED AT THE GENERAL CONVENTION, OCTOBER 15TH, 1877.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT.

1st. The American Church Missionary Society retains its Organization, and its Charter, and also the Administration and appropriation of the funds intrusted to it.

2d. The American Church Missionary Society becomes a recognized auxiliary to the Board of Missions, in accordance with Article XIII. of the Constitution of said Board.

3d. The American Church Missionary Society will, in consultation with the Domestic and Foreign Committees, occupy such fields and stations and do such missionary work at home or abroad as may be arranged by mutual consent.

4th. The American Church Missionary Society shall make annual reports to the Board.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved: That the Board of Missions, for its own part, assents to the Articles of Agreement between itself and the American Church Missionary Society as reported to it by the Committee appointed to confer with that Society; and that the whole matter be and is hereby referred to the Domestic and Foreign Committees, with power to arrange the details and to perfect all necessary arrangements.

Resolved: That the Board, reverently and devoutly recognizing in the conferences had thus far the gracious influences of Him who maketh men to be of one mind in a house, desires on this occasion to make loving mention of the late Bishop Burgess, who first of all suggested such an arrangement, and of the late Bishop Armitage, who six years ago renewed with much earnestness the same suggestion, thanking God for the good examples and wise counsels of our lamented brethren.

BASIS OF ADJUSTMENT OF THE DOMESTIC WORK

BETWEEN THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE MISSIONS OF THE CHURCH AND THE AMERICAN CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY. ADOPTED JANUARY 8TH, 1878.

1st. That the Board of Managers recognize the Domestic Missionary work of the American Church Missionary Society as part of the general mission work of the Church.

2d. That, inasmuch as the American Church Missionary Society retains its Charter and Constitution, the first section of said Charter shall be regarded as sufficiently defining the fields of labor open to the Society.

3d. That, in accordance with the terms upon which the American Church Missionary Society became an Auxiliary of the Board of Missions, the administration of its work, and the appropriation of its funds, shall reside, as heretofore, with the Executive Committee of said Society.

4th. That in arranging the details of said work it shall be understood that no mis­sionary shall be eligible to appointment under both organizations, except by mutual consent.

5th. That the Domestic Committee of the Board and the Executive Committee of the American Church Missionary Society shall furnish, each to the other, a list of mis­sionaries now under appointment, and of such additions and changes as shall from time to time be made.
BASIS OF ADJUSTMENT OF THE FOREIGN WORK

Resolved: That the Board of Managers hereby agrees that the American Church Missionary Society may undertake work in any portion of the Foreign Mission Field, excepting China, Japan, and Africa, and that to these countries the Board will send, with the approval of the Bishop in each case, any missionaries who shall be nominated, who shall possess the qualifications required by the rules of the Board and whose support shall be provided by the American Church Missionary Society.

Respectfully submitted,
J o h n  S c a r b o r o u g h , Chairman.
E . A .  H o f f m a n .
J. H. S c h o e n b e r g e r .

EXTRACT FROM AN ADDRESS

"The American Church Missionary Society enunciated the voluntary principle in conducting missions, and won recognition for that principle, besides communicating an impulse to Domestic Missions. The sacred right of the contributor to designate how his money should be applied is settled in our policy, and the American Church Missionary Society is now, and has been for years, an auxiliary of the Board.

"We do nothing to prevent the formation of societies or to suppress independent movements; but we seek to have all missionary impulses harmonize with the Board and work with and through it. This liberal spirit, this spirit of freedom, this fearless acceptance of the voluntary principle, is a source of unity and strength."
CONTRIBUTIONS TO DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS THROUGH THE AMERICAN CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Treasurer acknowledges the receipt of the following sums from September 1st, 1897, to September 1st, 1898.

LIST OF PATRONS AND LIFE MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Note.—This list is made up from that published in 1877. After the lapse of more than twenty years it is difficult to make it correct. It is here published with a desire to gain information and to increase the number of life members.

*Dead.

The asterisk has been affixed only where positive information was given: in many cases, no information was available.
