Fifth Annual Report

OF THE

LEAGUE IN AID OF THE

Mexican Branch of the Church.

ORGANIZED MARCH 22d, 1870.

Auxiliary to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society

OF THE

Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

1880-1881.
Constitution

As Amended March 26, 1879.

Article I. This Association shall be called the "League in Aid of the Mexican Branch of the Church," and its object shall be to obtain contributions in behalf of the work of the Church in Mexico.

Art. II. The Central Board shall be in New York City; but any parishes elsewhere may associate themselves as branches, and will in that case send to the Central Board a yearly report, and from time to time such sums as may be given. A contribution each year shall admit any one as a member of the League.

Art. III. At an Annual Meeting of this Society to be holden on Tuesday in Easter-week at 2.30 P.M., there shall be chosen a President, two Vice- Presidents, a Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and General Secretary. A report of the yearly work of the Society shall be read by the Corresponding Secretary.

Art. IV. There shall be an Executive Committee composed of delegates from each contributing Parish, who shall be named by the Rector of the same, and of this Committee the officers of the Society shall be ex-officio members. Each Parish may have as many as four delegates. The Executive Committee shall meet once a month at such time and place as they appoint; and in the absence of the presiding officers any member may be chosen to act in their stead. Seven shall constitute a quorum. The Secretaries and Treasurer shall give their correspondence and reports; and the Committee shall have power to accept Delegates from newly associated Parishes, and to transact any business of the League. The Diocesan Secretaries appointed by Bishops of our Church shall also be considered as members of the Executive Committee.

Art. V. There shall be a Business Sub-Committee appointed by the Executive Committee with full authority to transact all business of the Society between meetings of the Executive Committee. It shall be composed of the officers of the Society and three other members. It shall meet at least once a month, and in case of a vacancy in any of the offices, shall have power to call a meeting of the Society to fill such vacancy by election. Five shall constitute a quorum; and in the absence of its chosen presiding officer, any member may be called to act in her stead.

Art. VI. The officers of the Society shall be chosen by ballot and elected by the votes of the officers and delegates present at the Annual Meeting, or at any Special Meeting called for the purpose under the provision of Article V.

The Corresponding Secretary respectfully presents the Fifth Annual Report of the League in Aid of the Mexican Branch of the Church.

The year just closed has not been free from anxieties; but, under the guidance of the Almighty, the cause in which we take so deep an interest stands now upon a firmer basis, and is more rich in promise than at any former period.

The stated meetings of the League were, as usual, suspended during the summer months, but a constant correspondence was carried on with the laborers in Mexico and with our friends at home; while the General Secretary, the Rev. Abbott Brown, availed himself of every opportunity to present the cause to the Church.

It had been hoped that the Right Rev. the Bishop of the Valley of Mexico would have been present at the meeting of the General Convention in October last, but his engagements in England, with special reference to the organization of National Episcopal Churches in Spain and Portugal, unavoidably prevented it. His absence was, however, overruled for good; the Right Rev. the Bishop of Delaware making an able statement of the condition and needs of the Church in Mexico before both houses of the General Convention; refuting some idle calumnies and dispelling some misty doubts.

Bishop Riley reached here in November, and during his brief sojourn made several addresses and preached in the Church of the Holy Trinity. He told us of the cordial Christian welcome he had received in England and Ireland, and of his deeply interesting and important visitations to the Churches in Spain and Portugal. He was present, and presided at the first Synod held in Seville, and materially helped, by his advice, in the organization of the Spanish Episcopal Church, which was then formally constituted; Señor Juan B. Cabrera being nominated as Bishop-elect of Madrid. Bishop Riley subsequently visited Portugal, and under his presidency... the Lusitanian Church was also fully organized. The Episcopal supervision of these Churches having been committed to him, until their respective Bishops should be consecrated, Bishop Riley held a confirmation and an ordination service in both countries.

Having been a friend of the lamented Carrasco, who lost his life in the ill-fated Ville de Havre, on his homeward voyage, after the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, in this city, in 1873, the Bishop was received with the most affecting enthusiasm on his arrival in Madrid; and it was a thrilling incident to preach the pure Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to a crowded congregation in the city of Seville; with the tomb of an officer of the Inquisition not far from the pulpit; and with an open Bible before him; for the reading of which, Matamoras, Carrasco, and Cabrera had, a few years previous, suffered imprisonment and exile.

Señor Cabrera, the Bishop-elect of Madrid, a former Roman Catholic priest, is a man of fine genius; and is said to have learned the first word of Protestant doctrine through a Spanish Catechism for children, published in this city.

Before entering upon the details of our work, it seems fitting to express our deep sense of the loss the Association has sustained in the death of the beloved rector of this parish, the Rev. Dr. Edward A. Washburn; to whom we are indebted for wise counsels, patient guidance, and many words of sympathy and encouragement. The extension of the Master’s Kingdom was the desire and aim of his life, and we can best honor his memory by like devotion to the service of our Saviour.

A resolution of profound regret was entered upon our minutes and transmitted to his bereaved family.

The League is now represented in nineteen dioceses of the United States, and in the neighboring diocese of Huron. The reports from the Branches and Associations are highly encouraging, and testify to the untiring zeal and energy of their officers and members. The meetings of the Central Board have been well attended, and the interest greatly enhanced by addresses from the Bishop of the Valley of Mexico, the Rev. Dr.
John Cotton Smith, the Rev. Joshua Kimber, and Mr. Betancourt of Mexico. The Bishops of Delaware, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, and many of the Rev. Clergy have favored in like manner the meetings of the Branch Leagues.

The absence of the General Secretary during the past three months was in a measure supplied by his graphic and interesting communications from Mexico, which with those of a lady of his party are invaluable, as the testimony of competent witnesses to the importance of the work, and the admirable manner in which it is being conducted.

The support of Scholarships in the Theological Seminaries and Orphanages in Mexico, appeals strongly to the sympathy of our members; and we are happy to announce a large increase in their number. Five are maintained in the Theological Seminary; for four of which we are indebted to the suggestion and valued efforts of our chief officer, Mrs. Fordyce Barker. These are the Bishop Alfred Lee Scholarship, supported in the Diocese of Connecticut; the Bishop Stevens, by the Branch League of Philadelphia; one yet unnamed, by the Kentucky Branch; and the Rev. E. A. Washburn Memorial, by the Woman’s Foreign Missionary Association of Calvary Church, New York. The Bishop Riley Scholarship is supported by the Ladies’ Church Aid Society of Christ Church, Springfield, Ohio.

In the Orphanages, we now record seventy-two Scholarships; eleven of which have been raised this year. The ever-vigorous and generous Pittsburgh Branch has added seven to its list; one of them being endowed, as a memorial to the Rev. Abel A. Kerfoot. The Young Ladies’ Missionary Society, of St. Thomas’ Church, New York, has likewise been most efficient, and has increased the number to ten.

The Bishop of the Valley of Mexico deems the Christian training and education of the young,—the laborers of a future day,—a matter of paramount importance; and we convey his thanks to all the youthful members of the League; to the band of “Willing Workers,” in Elizabeth, New Jersey; to the band of “Guild of the Golden Cross,” in Baltimore; and to the Sunday-school Classes, for their loving efforts in behalf of the little ones in Mexico.
We have now to record, as a special blessing, the acceptance, by the Rev. Carlos Enrique Butler, of an invitation from Bishop Riley to take charge of educational work in his diocese.

For the consummation of this long-desired object, we are indebted to the Right Rev. the Bishop of Pennsylvania; to the Rev. R. C. Matlack; and to the members of the Philadelphia Branch; whose Secretary, with the co-operation of a few friends, has provided the outfit, and secured the funds for the journey of the Rev. C. E. Butler and family to Mexico.

The Rev. Mr. Butler has the highest testimonials, and being a native of Cuba, is peculiarly fitted for this new field of duty where his counsel and aid will be most valuable; and where his arrival will be hailed with joy by the faithful and zealous workers.

His salary for the year is secured; and we should be greatly lacking in faith, if we did not count upon it with confidence for many years to come. Rev. Mr. Butler leaves for Mexico on Thursday next; and will take with him the assurance that many earnest hearts at home, will pray that he may be abundantly blessed; and so far as in them lies, will aid him in his Christian efforts.

We must renew the grateful acknowledgments of past years to the Editors of the Churchman, Episcopal Register, Standard of the Cross, Southern Churchman, and Evangelical Churchman of Canada, and to all others who have published communications relating to the Church work in Mexico.

We also tender our thanks to Mr. Warburton for his shorthand copy of Bishop Riley's sermon in October last.

To Messrs. Brown Bros. & Co. we are under special obligations for their kindness in having attended to the banking business of the League for the last five years, at their own charges, and we present them our cordial thanks.

The receipts for the year ending April 19th, 1881, have been $20,257.87.

The expenditures have been as moderate as was consistent with the furtherance of the work; being limited to publications, advertisements, and a few other items.

The publications during the year have been as follows:
Annual Reports, Triennial Reports, Bishop Lee's Address, Leaflets, and Envoy—9,750 in all; in pages, 128,000.

The Envoy, our occasional paper, has been gratuitously circulated and well received.

We are much indebted to the Rev. Dr. John Cotton Smith for the leading article in the last issue.

We are sincerely grateful to all who have aided this movement for the extension of "the faith, once delivered to the Saints," by the establishment in Mexico of a National Branch of the Historic Church; and we tender our respectful thanks to Bishop Bedell, of Ohio, for his kind expressions of confidence in, and commendation of, the efforts of our Society, in his sermon delivered at the closing of the General Convention.

We regret to announce the retirement of two of our valued officers. Mrs. Heman Dyer, Recording Secretary, after serving most efficiently for over four years, was compelled by pressing duties to relinquish the position in January last. Mrs. Fordyce Barker, our President, has recently tendered her resignation and expressed her regret that she is obliged to decline the request of the Executive Committee to reconsider her decision. From the formation of the League, Mrs. Barker has taken an earnest interest in the cause; and sought to promote its welfare by her personal influence and her liberal gifts. The sundering of the tie is a source of sincere regret; and we present her, in the name of the League, the most cordial thanks for the wisdom, efficiency, and fidelity with which she has discharged the duties of her office.

The Church in Mexico has prospered in all its departments of work during the past year; and the return of its beloved Bishop has inspired it with increased life and interest. The most affectionate greetings reached him from the country congregations; and many of their members hastened to welcome him.

The Diocesan Synod was convened shortly after his arrival; and the resignation of the Rev. Tomas Valdespino, as Bishop-elect, which had been tendered some months before, was accepted. It will be remembered that Señor Valdespino came to this country two years since for medical advice; and that his malady was pronounced incurable. It has since increased, rendering him unable to discharge his ministerial duties.

Bishop Riley was urged to take charge of the vacant See; and the field is now divided between him and Bishop-elect Hernandez. Bishop Riley has the supervision of the congregations in the City of Mexico; and of the eighteen others in the towns and villages scattered through the Valley, which has a circumference of over two hundred miles.

The jurisdiction of the Bishop-elect comprises 15 congregations in and about Cuernavaca, 6 in the neighborhood of Nopalal, and about a dozen others in the States of Puebla and Vera Cruz; besides many others, yet unformed, in various localities.

Bishop Riley has already accomplished much necessary organization of the Church work; and, on the 16th of February, ordained five candidates as deacons, and advanced them to the order of Presbyters on the 22d. Their names are Señores Pioquinto Orihuela, Luis Canal, Jacinto Hernandez, Joaquin Hernandez, and Juan Ramirez Arellano. Señor Orihuela is 73 years of age, and was among the first to confess Christ openly, years ago, when the Gospel was first preached in Mexico. He resides in Joquicingo; and will be able to administer the Communion in that distant district, where there has hitherto been no clergyman.

Señor Canal has been prominent in the history of the Mexican Church, having had charge of it after the death of Manuel Aguas, during the absence of Bishop Riley: he is a man of talent and an able preacher.

Señor Ramirez Arellano is a man of great faith, and has been laboring for years in the congregation of Xochitengo.

Señores Jacinto and Joaquin Hernandez are the sons of the Bishop-elect; young married men of education and ability, and very eloquent preachers. Bishop Riley feels that these newly ordained brethren are thoroughly qualified for their high office; and it is hoped that many souls, now wandering in "slippery places," may be gathered into Christ's fold, through their faithful ministry.

The students in the Theological Seminaries in the City of Mexico and in Cuernavaca are being carefully instructed; and of the Boys' School and Orphanage a correspondent writes: "We have now thirty-one boys in our Orphanage; Mr. Poncé de Leon with his wife and daughter have charge of these little ones; there are also two good teachers, Señor Julio Trujillo, and Señor Francisco Candenosa. Including the day-scholars, the number of boys being educated by them is seventy. The future hope and prospect of the Church must depend on the education of a native ministry; and this we expect to find in our Boys' Orphanage; hence, the great necessity of taking care of these little lambs of Christ's flock."

There are, at present, between 70 and 80 girls in the Girls' Orphanage; and a member of the League has written: "Mrs. Hooker's Orphanage, as well as the Boys' School, I consider the most important branch of the work. The children are the ones to begin with; and when I see the neatly clad, modest, happy-looking, intelligent girls under Mrs. Hooker's care, and think of the antecedents of most of them, and what a change her motherly teaching has made in their very being, I think, if the Orphanage alone were the object of the entire work, it would be sufficient to repay the interest taken in it. Mrs. Hooker is, evidently, very fond of her children; and they appear to appreciate her attachment."

The Society for the "Protection of Children," and that of the "Fraternal Alliance," are very useful adjuncts of the work.

The services in the Cathedral of San Francisco and in the Church of San José de Gracia are most interesting; the large and devout congregations, the sweet singing of the children, and the forcible preaching of the Gospel, are evidences of the value of the movement.

In the Cathedral, the congregation numbers, on Sunday mornings, between three and four hundred; and the daily services are well attended. The Sunday-school is composed, not only of children, but of many adults, who assemble, with eager desire, for Christian instruction.

Very encouraging and deeply touching reports reach us from the country congregations; many of them self-supporting; all of them fighting "the good fight of faith," under obstacles, difficult for us to conceive of. Opposition comes from all sides; the Archbishop's Vicar, in the town of Morelia, Michoacan, issued an edict recently, to the effect that Roman Catholics must have no dealings with Protestants, under penalty of the highest excommunication. This is but one instance of intolerance.

The brief statistics of the Mexican Branch of the Church will show how firm a hold she has taken upon the people. There are over 50 organized congregations; 30 mission stations; 9 clergymen; nearly 70 lay workers; 3,500 communicants; over 7,000 worshippers; and 8 schools for the young. Surely, her claim is great upon all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. We most gratefully acknowledge that our efforts have been wonderfully blest. Yet, the magnitude and the promise of the work call for large liberality; funds are needed for the general work, and also for the special objects. Bishop Riley writes: "I earnestly ask friends to forward funds designated for building purposes to the Treasurer of the League, as fast as possible, as the need is very urgent." The fine old Church of San José requires extensive repairs; it has been examined by an architect, who says that "an earthquake shock, which is liable to occur at any moment, would entail serious damages."

In closing this Report, it is fitting to acknowledge the generous interest shown by our Mother Church in England and Ireland, for the little martyr Church in Mexico. This mutual sympathy in faith and works, binds us more closely together; and is an earnest of the fulfilment of the prophecy that "there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

CHARLOTTE A. HAMILTON,
Corresponding Secretary.

April 19th, 1881.
MINUTE.

At a meeting of the League in Aid of the Mexican Branch of the Church, held in Calvary Chapel, Fourth Avenue, New York, February 23d, the following minute was submitted by Mrs. Fordyce Barker, and adopted:

"In this chapel, where his cordial co-operation encouraged the movement to organize a League, which should unite the whole Church in the support of the work for the Mexican Church, it is fitting that some expression of our gratitude to the late Rev. Edward A. Washburn, D.D., should find utterance.

"On the 22d day of March, 1876, the Constitution drafted by him, by request, was adopted here by ladies representing several Parishes in this city, as that of the Mexican League, the original being in our Book of Records. It remains substantially the same, with the addition of an article forming a sub-committee, added in 1879. The presence of our Bishop and of other Clergymen cheered him and us; and, with rare exceptions, he acted as our chaplain until the appointment of the Rev. Mr. Brown as General Secretary.

"During this time, sometimes at the request of Bishop (then Dr.) Riley, we were often guided by his wisdom and ripe judgment, until, at a meeting held at Calvary Rectory, December 26th, 1877, this Society became auxiliary to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

"And, from that time until failing health prevented, he was always ready to extend to this cause, whose importance he advocated, moral, intellectual, and financial support. In his church the only Missionary meeting attempted for this work was held.

"In the last sermon given by him for Foreign Missions, in January, 1880, he spoke to his people at some length of the Mexican Church; and it is to him that the League owes the generous gifts of his church.

"His no longer—he has entered Paradise, to dwell in the light of his Saviour's love.

"On the 2d of February, at the noontide hour, with his rich sheaf of talent, intellect, knowledge, faith, love, and humility, he vanished beyond the heavenly gate, beyond which no human vision can pierce. Gratefully we thank God for such a life and example, and, while sorrowing, rejoice for the consolation that he has entered on the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

"We would offer our deep sympathy to his household, and commend them to the same loving Lord."

The League
In Aid of the
Mexican Branch of the Church

Was organized in 1876, with the hearty approval of the following Bishops constituting the Mexican Commission:

The Bishop of Delaware, The Bishop of Pennsylvania,
The Bishop of Ohio, The Bishop of Pittsburgh,
The Bishop of Long Island, The Bishop of Western New York.

The late Bishop Whittingham, of Maryland.

The Foreign Committee of our Church has accepted the responsibility of caring for the work of the Church in Mexico "in faith that the sum " needed for that purpose "will be contributed, over and above the usual contributions for Foreign Missions."

Funds are needed:
I. To purchase and distribute Spanish Bibles.
II. To pay their small monthly salaries to nine ordained clergymen and to twenty-two lay readers, teachers, and other workers of the Church in Mexico.
III. To aid in meeting the expenses of its schools and orphanages, and to firmly establish theological seminaries.
IV. To publish Spanish Prayer-Books and Hymn-Books, a weekly Spanish Church paper, and other Christian publications.
V. To meet the necessary expenses of Church buildings.

The League is actively engaged in raising the funds needed for these objects, and earnestly solicits your gifts and co-operation.

In connection with the work now aided by the League, congregations have been gathered, in more than fifty towns and villages in the Republic of Mexico; a faithful, able, and eloquent band of native Missionaries has been raised up; Church schools have been established, where a very large number of children have been carefully taught the Bible, and have received a good secular education; young men have been prepared for the ministry; Divine services have been statedly celebrated, and the precious Gospel preached in two beautiful Church buildings in the City of Mexico; two orphanages have been started in that city; a periodical called The Truth has been regularly published, from a fine printing-press obtained for the use of the Church in Mexico, and other publications have been prepared that have influenced multitudes; many thousands of copies of the Spanish translation of the Holy Scriptures have been circulated with most blessed results; and much other Christian work has been faithfully done.

Contributions, whether large or small, in aid of the work are earnestly solicited, and can be mailed directly to the address of the treasurer of "The League," Miss M. A. Stewart Brown, care of Messrs. Brown Brothers & Co., No. 59 Wall Street, New York, U. S.

Parishes may have the subject presented by communicating with the Rev. Abbott Brown, General Secretary, 16 Waverley Place.

Information or publications concerning the work may be obtained by addressing the Corresponding Secretary, Miss C. A. Hamilton, No. 17 W. 20th St.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the meeting of the Committee for Foreign Missions held January 13th, 1880:

"Resolved, That whereas, the Rev. Abbott Brown has been appointed by the Mexican League to present to the Church the cause of the Mexican Branch of the Catholic Church, the Foreign Committee hereby cordially recommend him and the object he represents to the kind consideration of the clergy and laity, and would also extend to him such facilities for obtaining information as the office may be able to afford."
