Form of Bequest

TO THE

FRIENDS' SYRIAN MISSION.

"I bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of 'The Friends' Syrian Mission,' London, the sum of £ for the use of the said Mission; and I direct the said last-mentioned Legacy to be paid free of Legacy Duty, and together with such Legacy Duty, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as may by law be bequeathed for charitable purposes, and that the receipt of such Treasurer shall be an absolute discharge for the same."

N.B.—If a Testator does not wish the Mission to receive the Legacy free of Duty, he will simply omit the words in italics.
FINANCE.

The financial condition of the Mission is such as to demand thoughtfulness. To meet current expenses we have had, this year, to draw upon our Capital account to the extent of £800, and still close the current account with a balance due to the Treasurer of not less than £232 18s. 8d. Special items of expenditure, owing to increase of our staff and furloughs of missionaries, have contributed to this state of things. The number of workers in the field has almost doubled in the last two years; we are hoping in the present year to obtain an increased number of subscribers, in order to maintain the work efficiently.

We desire to express our thankfulness to those who have so kindly contributed to the funds of the Mission, and rejoice to be able to report some increase of income from subscriptions and donations, in addition to several valuable Legacies.
TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF

In turning to review once more the work of Friends on Mount Lebanon, it is well, perhaps, to glance beyond the twelve months since the last report was written, and compare the condition of the village now, with what it was at an earlier stage of the mission. With wider ideas of education amongst the people, have come the stirring of new ambitions, improvements in the village, better houses, and the carriage road. Brumana has become a popular summer resort for people from Beyrout and Egypt. The simple peasant life is rapidly changing, and the same results may be seen as when a hamlet of fisher folk in England is invaded by the locomotive and turned into a fashionable watering place, only we may realise that the contrast is more strongly marked in this instance, if we consider what is the character of the average European when he leaves his own continent. Though on the part of the workers, there have been most valued friendships made with other missionaries, and with noble, earnest men and women who have visited the district, yet the example of other temporary residents on the mountain has often had a decidedly unfavourable influence, for the wealthier Syrians are now eager to copy the European style of dressing and living, while for want of true Christian experience, they have not sufficient discernment to see the moral dangers that such associations may involve. The introduction of strong drink, and of evil habits connected with luxurious and selfish living, arouses grave anxieties in the minds of the thoughtful, with longings, not only that the staff of true-hearted and earnest workers may be increased as need arises, but that also English Friends (needing, perhaps, a milder climate) might be found willing to reside in that beautiful spot; for it is not so much preaching that the people need, (every Syrian is a born orator), as Christ-like lives spent in their midst. Amongst these dear, warm-hearted children of the East there is a field for such quiet service, and a glad welcome for all who go among them in love.

Reports from the workers who have spent the last twelve months on the spot, give a far better idea of what is being done in the various departments of the Mission than can possibly be given by those living in England; and, therefore, the Committee need not do more than briefly refer to one or two changes that have taken place.

BOYS' TRAINING HOME.

A great loss has been sustained in the death of our dear friend Lotfallah Rizcallah, whose health had suffered seriously during the past two years from repeated attacks of fever, but whose earnest spirit and interest often kept him at his post when far from well.

During the summer holidays he went with the junior teacher Tanius Cortas to the village of Zahleh for a change, and there they contracted the fever, from which the one died, and the other has scarcely recovered. While thankfully believing that for our dear deceased friend “it is well,” our deep sympathies go out to the widow and little children who mourn his loss. We feel also that his place cannot easily be filled. An able master, qualified to teach High Arabic in all its branches, might soon be found; but the needful qualifications are far beyond this, for it is of the first importance that the head Arabic teacher should be a man of strong, true, Christian character and influence; and with some understanding and appreciation of our views as Friends.
During the past few weeks, while Tanius Cortas has been away, or only able to take a small share of his usual work, Thomas Little has reaped some reward for special labours bestowed on the pupil teacher and one or two of the older boys, who have proved useful and willing helpers both in school and in play-hours, while Francis Shamoone has continued to give lessons in Arabic as before, and Wega Little has taught French.

GIRLS’ TRAINING HOME.

The changes here have been more conspicuous. The extension of the building, (details of which are given in the reports), enables the number of girls to be increased to thirty. Caroline Cadbury’s bright cheerful welcome is missing, as she is at home by her doctor’s advice for a lengthened furlough; and Emily Wright, as Daniel Oliver’s wife, has found a new sphere of labour at Ras, in the important work there; Mary Robinson and Margaret Trusted are filling the places of these Friends for a time and the reports are very cheering of the bright active life and the earnest work. A sum of £33 has been collected to assist in furnishing the enlarged Home, and Richard and George Cadbury have kindly given £50 towards building a cistern which will be required for its use.

MEDICAL MISSION.

Dr. Beshara Manasseh returned to the work to which he is devoted, with fresh strength and energy, after a holiday of six months in England, with his wife and little son, the latter being left at an English school. The Hospital and Dispensary were soon crowded as usual. Ellen Clayton occupies her useful post as Lady Superintendent at the Hospital, while Maria Feltham still devotes herself to the out-patients at the Dispensary.

VILLAGE WORK.

A year ago we rejoiced that M. E. Stevens felt a distinct call to reside in the village of Brumana amongst the people, visiting the women in their homes as way opened, and attending to any patients recommended by the doctor to her care. She has now been nine months in her new quarters, and has found abundant work, which seems to be warmly appreciated by her neighbours of varying sects and religions, who speak of her as “Our Sitt” (Lady), thus distinguishing her from the ladies engaged in other departments of the Mission.

MOTHERS’ MEETING.

On the return to England, of Ellwood and Maria Brockbank, the work of superintending the Bible Woman and the Mothers’ Meeting, (temporarily undertaken by Maria Brockbank), was placed in the hands of M. E. Stevens by the decision of the Conference of Workers, Hannah Waldmeier being encouraged to attend, and help in the work which her dear Mother had carried on until her last illness.

A fight in the village, during which a man was killed, left much ill-feeling between the Druses, and Greeks and Maronites; M. E. Stevens had hard work in trying to promote a peaceful spirit; the ill-feeling however is toning down, and the number of women attending the meetings is again increasing, from fifty to sixty being usually present.

Mualima Behjy, the Bible Woman, having now a blind husband, four small children, and a shop to attend to, is unable to undertake her duties in visiting, and to attend to her family. The Conference unanimously came to the conclusion, that much as they appreciated her work in the past, they must now encourage her to devote herself to home duties.

BRANCH SCHOOLS.

The Schools at Beit Mary still continue their useful work, and Meetings are held in the village on First days,—Theophilus Waldmeier or one of the other Workers going over to attend.

The Branch School at Bzibdeen has been closed; but the one at Arsoon, which was given up when small-pox prevailed in that village in the summer time, has been re-opened under the care of the late teacher at Bzibdeen, while Joseph El-Khoury has taken charge of a new school at Nebay.
WILLIAM HARLEY CLARK.

W. H. Clark, who went out last winter, has been largely occupied with the extension of the Girls' Training Home, but found time to help in the village meetings, and also in a little Bible reading with the labourers at the Girls' Training Home, held by one or other of the Mission Workers day by day. These times were, we believe, appreciated by the men, and have not been without fruit. W H. Clark has recently married Charlotte J. Harvey, of Stoke Newington, the wedding taking place at the Friends' Meeting House, Ain Salaam. Our dear aged friend, Isaac Sharp, was present on the occasion.

RAS EL METN.

The schools and classes are large and satisfactory, and the meetings well attended, and there is an increasing desire, particularly among some of the adults, to know more of Friends' views, whilst the lives of some testify to the depth of their convictions. The work in this village was, from its commencement, under the care of Emma M. Bishop, who was joined later by Margaret Trusted. Emma Bishop, whose earnest work for the past nine years, (six of which were spent at Ras), has been carried on successfully, notwithstanding her indifferent health, has at last been obliged to come home for a much-needed rest. The Committee have, with regret, concluded that it would not be wise for her to return either to Ras or Brumana. The circumstances of her enforced withdrawal from the Mission field in Syria, call for the expression of much sympathy with her, as well as appreciation of her labours in the past. It was felt desirable, in the present unsettled state of the country, to have a man at this lonely out-station of the mission. At this juncture Daniel Oliver and Emily Wright, who were expecting shortly to be united in marriage, offered themselves for service in Syria. The Committee, thankfully believing that they had been guided to supply the need, appointed them to this mission station, and they are now established at Ras, and are entering heartily into the details of this promising part of the work on Lebanon. D. Oliver hopes to visit and hold meetings in several of the surrounding villages, whilst E. Oliver superintends the girls' school and works among the women.

ELLWOOD AND MARIA BROCKBANK.

Our friends, E. and M. Brockbank, of whose valuable service in our Mission, special mention was made in last year's report, returned to this country early last year. They established pleasant relationships with the natives at Brumana, (Maria Brockbank through the Mothers' Meeting), gaining their confidence and finding a very useful service in their homes.

Our friends have laid the Committee and the friends of our work under lasting obligations for their patient, painstaking, and prayerful service for their Lord in connection with the Mission. Both have become members of the Committee, and E. Brockbank has recently been appointed upon the Sub-Committee, which will thus benefit by his intimate knowledge of the conditions and needs of the work.

VISITS OF FRIENDS.

Interesting visits have been paid to the Mission during the year. In the spring L. E. and M. E. Mounsey, who were accompanied by J. T. and L. Dorland, spent some weeks in faithful labour amongst Friends there, and in the latter part of the year our aged Friend Isaac Sharp, with Dr. Dixon as companion, paid a visit to the Mission. We thankfully believe that much good has resulted from these visits—that of Isaac Sharp and Dr. Dixon came at a time of sorrow and trial, when their presence and help were much valued, and their varied ministry was remarkably helpful.

ASSISTED SCHOOLS.

We continue to make a small grant in aid of the three schools in Shimlan, Beyrout, and Jaffa, which have, since 1868, been assisted by Friends, and which have sent out useful trained teachers to the villages of Lebanon and other places. In view of the special needs of Shimlan School at present, we have this time had pleasure in making a special grant.
The help and interest shown by Friends is warmly appreciated by the lady superintendents of these schools, who have devoted their lives to female education in the East.

OUR HOME COMMITTEE.

We have to record with sorrow the removal, by death, of our venerated friend, Isaac Brown, of Kendal, who has rendered invaluable service to our Mission since the first formation of the Committee in 1874, and continued to the very end of his long life to take a close, practical interest in the work upon Mount Lebanon. Our dear friend was a man of wide knowledge, of scholarship, and of long experience, but underlying all these gifts was a depth of devotion and loyalty to his Saviour which gave his service a peculiar value. We can but feel humbly thankful for the grace bestowed upon him, and desirous that the memory of him may dwell long with us. Our friend, Charles Gillett, who was also for long a member of our Committee, and a man of wide sympathy in the cause of Missions amongst the nations of the East, passed away in the closing days of the year.

FINANCE.

The financial condition of the Mission is such as to demand thoughtfulness. To meet current expenses we have had, this year, to draw upon our Capital account to the extent of £800, and still close the current account with a balance due to the Treasurer of not less than £232 18s. 8d. Special items of expenditure, owing to increase of our staff and furloughs of missionaries, have contributed to this state of things. The number of workers in the field has almost doubled in the last two years; we are hoping in the present year to obtain an increased number of subscribers, in order to maintain the work efficiently.

We desire to express our thankfulness to those who have so kindly contributed to the funds of the Mission, and rejoice to be able to report some increase of income from subscriptions and donations, in addition to several valuable Legacies.
We are glad again to have the opportunity of expressing our warm appreciation of the help rendered to our Mission by those branches of the Missionary Helpers' Union, which have so kindly sent us contributions in money or gifts of useful articles. The latter were sent out to Brumana in the autumn, and arrived in good time for Christmas.

REPORT OF THEOPHILUS WALDMEIER,
For the Year 1895.

In making a retrospect I feel that the ploughshare of trial has cut deeply into my heart. In 1893 I lost my dear life's companion, with whom I lived and worked for thirty-four years in Abyssinia and in Syria, and my life has since been full of trial. In the past year we lost dear Lotfallah Rizcallah, who stood closer to me than a brother, and whose faithful service is missed in every branch of the Mission.

I will now try to give a little report of the work. I shall begin at our First Day Meeting for Worship in the meeting-house of Ain Salaam. This is always regularly held, and the house is generally well filled. We have often during the summer a number of strangers of various nationalities and denominations, some of whom find it very singular to see that women sit together with men in the ministers' gallery, the Europeans being more astonished at this than the natives. However, when the women ministers convey the message from the Lord, the people like to hear them. Our late friend Lotfallah was often engaged in the ministry in this meeting, in the power of the Holy Spirit and the love of Christ.

The Dispensary Meeting is held every afternoon on First Days. In the summer holidays it is held in English, on account of the strangers, but the other part of the year in Arabic. The patients of the Hospital and the girls of the Home come to this meeting, as well as some other people. The girls sing hymns, which are liked by the patients. This meeting proves a blessing and edification to the attenders.

The First Day School at Ain Salaam in the meeting-house was conducted by our dear Lotfallah Rizcallah for some years, but now it is taken up by Dr. Manasseh. It is in a flourishing condition: about 100 children are present in the afternoon.
Brumana village First Day Meeting is held in the afternoon. Men, women, and children come to the boys' schoolroom. Francis Shamoon, Risk Shbeeb, Eleanor Stevens, and others take part in this meeting. The attendance varies from thirty to forty.

Brumana Fourth Day Evening Meeting is held by turns in different native houses. This meeting is not large, but on special occasions and in special houses many people come and listen with attention.

The Teachers' Conference is held on the last Saturday in each month just before the Monthly Meeting, and is a very profitable and useful gathering. Reports from the different branch schools are brought in, and consideration is given to different subjects, especially as to the best methods of teaching the children without beating them. We have often to follow the suggestion of the Apostle Paul—"Admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, and be long suffering towards all." We have boys' and girls' schools both in Brumana, Beit Mary, and Ras-el-Metn, and a mixed school in Arsoon. One has also been lately opened in Nebay. In these eight schools we have about 450 children under daily instruction.

The Sixth Day Meeting, held in English in the Girls' Training Home, is well attended. During the summer some strangers were also present and took part in it. At this time it was held at the Dispensary, as the enlargement of the Building for the Girls' Training Home was going on.

The Monthly Meeting of Friends, at Brumana, has been regularly held the last First Day in each month. During the past year we have received Spiridon Manasseh into membership; there were other applicants also, but we thought best to let them wait till they were better prepared. We were thankful to receive nice epistles from London, and from Dublin, encouraging us in our work, and comforting us in our difficulties and discouragements.

The meeting for Ministry and Oversight has been held every three months, and has always proved a blessing and spiritual refreshment. The queries and advices have been regularly read.
A Bible Class is held on First Day Evening at 7 o'clock, in the Boys' Training Home, by Thomas Little, in English, for the boys and grown up people. This meeting is much appreciated, for it teaches the Gospel truth simply and to the point, and it is often attended by outsiders and strangers.

The Out-stations for religious meetings are generally cared for by Francis Shamoon, Risk Shbeeb, and myself, who go on First Days by turns to Beit Mary, Mansourieh, Marah Ganem, and Nebay. I had also meetings at Beyrout at Miss Taylor's School, which were very well attended.

At Beit Mary we were much pleased to see that there are some people in the Meeting who are really interested in the salvation of their souls, and show that there is a change in them for good. The Meeting is largely attended, Dr. Lotfallah Haddad—who is a native of the village, and was educated in our Training Home at Ain Salaam, after which he studied medicine at the American College at Beyrout—usually attended our meeting at Beit Mary last summer while he was practising in the village, and has taken part in it. He said before he left, "I know that the people say that while we have our priests and churches, why should we go to the Friends' Meeting? But I must tell you from my own experience that these Meetings only, and not the priests or churches, have brought me to my Saviour Jesus Christ, because here they explain the simple Gospel truth, and show the way clearer, to Jesus Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life; and now, as I am going away, I want to tell you to come to these meetings and hear, and learn, and do, and give your hearts to God." Dr. Haddad has now gone as Medical Missionary to Gaza (the ancient city of the Philistines, in the plain, one day's journey south of Jaffa) in connection with the Church Missionary Society.

At Mansourieh we have, on the first First Day in the month, a religious Meeting, in order to follow up and gather the results of our former work there. Years ago Philadelphia Friends supported a school at that place, which we transferred to Ras-el-Metn. Our meeting is largely attended, and the people are mostly scholars of our former school, and their parents like to hear the Gospel.

At Nebay I had a meeting lately, and many people came to it, mostly men. While I was reading and speaking to the people, some ill-disposed young men went and rang the bells of the church, which is quite close to the room where I had the meeting, so that my voice was quite drowned, so that I could not hear it. But this was soon stopped, and we could go on with our meeting. Is it not a matter of surprise to see how ignorant and wild the people at Nebay are, considering that Nebay is so near Brumana? However, it pleased me that they are asking so eagerly for religious meetings, and for a school, which will be opened very soon.

At Marah Ganem, a hamlet between Beit Mary and Brumana, we often have religious meetings on First Day evening with the poor people, about fifteen to twenty in number, and though this meeting is small it has been helpful.

The Girls’ Training Home Building Extension has occupied a great deal of time, and W. Harley Clark and myself were closely engaged in it, because it was difficult and dangerous to build the upper storey so high, especially on the western side. We all feel thankful to the Lord, who watches over all, that no accident or damage took place; and the building proves a success. We are only sorry that it exceeded the original estimate so much. We are now looking forward with longing desire to the return of our dear friend, Caroline Cadbury, to take the permanent charge of this important and enlarged Home for the elevation of the neglected women of this country.

The Mount Lebanon Mission Conference has been regularly held every fortnight, and it proves an excellent agency for consultation and for conducting the affairs of the Mission. Reference must not be omitted to Ellen Clayton’s meetings for the children of Friends, in whom she manifests great interest.

In conclusion, I have to say that this report is perhaps the last one I write in this Mission, because I feel a great concern for the establishing of an Asylum or Home for poor sufferers from nervous and mental disease in this country, and I hope that Friends will follow me with their prayerful interest and Christian sympathy. I thank them all for having helped so faithfully to establish this Mission. May the blessing of the Almighty be with us all. Amen.

TH. WALDMEIER.

REPORT OF THE BOYS' TRAINING HOME FOR 1895.

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth." Sorrow, affliction, bereavement—these have been our portion, as they have also been the portion of so many throughout the world in these most eventful months. To this institution the most severe trial has been the removal by death of Lotfallah Rizcallah. In little over a fortnight, he who had for more than sixteen years directed the affairs of the Boys' Training Home, and earned the loving respect of so many, who regarded him as a father, was stricken down and taken. For him it is well. But those who are left have lost a friend, a counsellor, a helper whom they could ill spare. The funeral was the most impressive I have witnessed. The coffin was borne by the teachers and elder scholars. In the Friends' Meeting House, as the remembrance arose of the last address which he gave to the school while yet in health, when he recommended as a motto for the year, the words, "If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son, cleanseth us from all sin,"—the passionate weeping became universal throughout the crowded house, especially amongst his boys.

Our hearts' sympathy goes out to a degree that we cannot express, towards the stricken widow and the fatherless children. But "a father to the fatherless and a judge of the widows, is God in His holy habitation."

Exactly timed by God, did the visit, so long expected, of Isaac Sharp and Dr. Dixon appear. Postponed for four long years, they could not have come at a more acceptable time, and their ministrations were truly welcome for the whole of the five weeks they spent with us—mostly weeks of sorrow and perplexity. In the Boys’ Home, Isaac Sharp gave at least three addresses. On two of these occasions he astonished us by standing for more than two hours each time, till the lecture was finished, an unrivalled feat in this country for a man in his ninetieth year; the interest of the boys, moreover, was sustained the whole time. We feel privileged in his legacy of the large wall-map, which has accompanied him in his missionary journeys round the world.

We have 30 boarders and 10 day scholars. Two of these walk for more than half an hour to reach the school every day, being our first day-scholars from Beit Mary. The boys are a very nice set, and easily managed. But the school is much younger than for some years previous. Still the interest and standard of the Recitation Meetings and those for Essay and Debate have been fully kept up.

The Total Abstinence Association, formed last year, has had some important additions to its membership. Two of the members of the Monthly Meeting here, previously both hard smokers, and one of them a teacher in a Branch School, have signed, and have ever since spoken of their gratitude. They look upon themselves as having been delivered from a slavery. The boys also remain firm.

All the self-government agencies, spoken of in my last, are still in active operation amongst the boys, to their great profit and to the furtherance of education.

The self-imposed rules to regulate conversation at table, direct that on the 1st day of the week it should be carried on in Arabic, on the 5th day in French for two tables, and the rest of the week in English.

The First Day School has been reorganised by Dr. Beshara J. Manasseh. He has been able to secure the help of eight teachers, and has given a distinctive name to each class, such as Cedar of Lebanon, Love, Good Hope, etc. In this manner he has brought much increase of energy into the school; the interest is great, and the attendance has risen to upwards of one hundred.

It will be well understood that Christmas was not celebrated as usual. We had no tree; the boys had their gifts arranged at their places in the dining room. Quiet contentment reigned.

Tanius Cortas, who has not yet regained full strength since his late serious illness, takes the highest classes in Arabic with considerable interest and spirit. He also carries on a good deal of M.
Lotfallah's other work with much ability. The Scripture lessons in the first class are taken by M. Francis Shamoon. Mitri Machoul has now become a teacher in the Boys' Training Home, and is doing very nicely. I am grateful to those Friends who so liberally provided for his three years' continued education, to fit him for his duties here.

Early in the year we had the pleasure of welcoming W. Harley Clark, of London, who came out with the hope of including in his missionary labours, some scheme of Industrial School Training for our boys, but up to the present the building at the Girls' Training Home has quite prevented this from being realised. In the meantime it will be necessary to prepare for the work, by running up a simple shed in which they could receive their lessons from him.
W. Harley Clark resided in the Boys' Training Home for the first seven or eight months, and he proved himself very helpful to the boys in their moral and religious difficulties; some of them used to come to him for his advice, so much had he gained their confidence. He also, during the absence of the Doctor in England, nursed me through five weeks of fever with great skill and tenderness, to the relief of my wife, who had a young infant to care for.
On the 22nd of 10th month he was united in marriage with Charlotte J. Harvey, who has received from us all a real welcome to her adopted Syrian home.

A few years ago Cheshire Monthly Meeting made a grant to help in fitting out apprentices, who had been in the school. I was much interested in Beyrout during the summer vacation, when an old scholar showed me, with much satisfaction, the planes and bench which he had obtained as his share of the grant. He had progressed so far as to have a carpenter's shop of his own, and there were some very creditable specimens of his work on view.

We are the recipients this year of a very powerful Magic Lantern, with about 300 slides. Our sincere thanks are due to Ellwood Brockbank for having gathered together these valuable tokens of his love, and to those kind friends who helped him by their subscriptions and in other ways. The apparatus has already been much used, both to profit and to pleasure. Dr. Beshara J. Manasseh is enabled thereby to give a series of fortnightly lessons on Physiology, to both Homes, which are highly appreciated.

In the spring we had a visit from J. T. and L. Dorland, and L. and M. Mounsey. They held several meetings in Brumana of a very helpful and searching character. J. T. Dorland had special meetings with the boys, and the F.C.F.U. Branch here was much stirred up by an address of his on "One Thing."

May the lessons of the past teach us more entirely to be possessed of the one thing needful, and may the uncertainties of the future move us to "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Thomas Little.

REPORT OF GIRLS' TRAINING HOME, 1895.

In reading over last year's Report of the Girls' Home, I find an eager looking forward to increased space and accommodation, and now, owing to the prolonged absence of Caroline Cadbury in England, it falls to me to report how very satisfactory the alterations in the house are. The additional storey provides ample sleeping room, while the ground floor admits of comfortable school-rooms and class-rooms, without encroaching on the reception-rooms.

During the late severe storms, we have had every opportunity of testing the strength and stability of the new building, and I am glad to say it is quite weather-proof, and does not seem at all damp, reflecting great credit upon those who spent so much time and effort in over-seeing the work during the summer.
One great convenience which we have gained is a very large room, where the girls can play in wet weather, and where singing and drilling exercises are carried on daily. This room will also be very useful for lectures or meetings, and, being in the house, will save the inconvenience of taking the girls out on dark nights, or in bad weather, always a source of discomfort, as they are not accustomed to being out much at night. The Doctor has already given us one lecture in this room, on Physiology, and we trust the course may be continued fortnightly during the winter. The subject was illustrated by diagrams of the heart, etc., shown through the beautiful new magic lantern.

Our girls re-assembled on 26th November, after a long holiday of eight months, and we had a busy day receiving them and the friends who brought them, as all were curious to see the new building, and expressed much interest and admiration. We expected 30 girls, but, owing to various reasons, only 27 came, and we have thought it wiser not to take more at present; but, the house being so large and commodious, it will be possible to increase the number considerably next year. This will make it easier to divide the housework, which is done entirely by the girls. We find the present number hardly equal to the task of keeping so large a house tidy, as some of them are very small. We have also two day-scholars.

So far, the health of the girls has been good, and I trust it may continue so. It is a pleasant sight to see the rows of bright faces as we gather for meals in the long dining-room, and the healthy appetites witness to the benefit derived from the daily drilling.

The conduct of the girls is satisfactory, and I am thankful to say that one or two who caused trouble and much anxiety last year are showing an earnest desire to do better. Poor children! They need much prayer and loving sympathy, for they have so little help and encouragement in their own homes, one cannot wonder if the struggle against evil is a hard one.

Isaac Sharp and Dr. Dixon were with us at the time the School was re-opened, and joined us with others one First Day afternoon in the large room, where, with prayer and earnest desire for blessing, the building was afresh dedicated to the Lord’s service.

I feel I cannot close without a few words in reference to our friend Lotfallah Rizcallah, whom the Lord has so lately called from amongst us. His kind interest in all connected with the School will be greatly missed, as he was always willing and glad to help in any way, and his advice and judgment in the selection of girls to be admitted was invaluable. We can only trust that the Lord will supply the need felt, in His own time and way.

It has been a great disappointment that Caroline Cadbury has been unable as yet to resume the charge of the Home, but we hope she will soon return with renewed health and strength.

The girls speak much of her, and a warm and loving welcome from all awaits her.

MARY ROBINSON, JR.

REPORT OF MEDICAL MISSION, 1895.

The aim of the Medical Mission has been this year, as ever before, to seek to follow the Saviour’s command—to preach the Gospel and to heal the sick—and the Lord has blessed the means which have been used to these ends, though I must say that in some cases we did not see all we could have wished for them, fulfilled, yet in many the outward means used were a visible symbol of the invisible power of the Great Physician in answer to prayer for cure and healing, the aim of each member of our department being to win souls for Christ, as well as to alleviate bodily suffering. Our Morning and Evening Readings with the in-patients, as well as our little gatherings for prayer on 4th day mornings, have been times of help and refreshing. All these meetings were pretty regularly held while the Hospital was open. In the 4th day meeting often has a voice or two been heard, “Here am I, Lord, use me for Thy glory.” The readings with the out-patients were continued by my brother Spiridon pretty much through the summer, as well as at other times. Since my return from England, M. E. Stevens has been in attendance in the waiting-room twice a week, reading and talking with the patients while they wait their turn for admittance. In this way she gets a more individual hold, and comes in closer touch with them than can be done in the more general readings. But I feel more and more, how powerless we are in ourselves to change the heart, and I sometimes fear we may be even stumbling blocks in the way of the people by our many infirmities and shortcomings; but it is a comfort to believe that He who can make even the wrath of man to praise Him, can over-rule our mistakes and weakness for our good and His glory.

One principal event of this year to me has been my visit to England with my wife and son. We left Beyrout in company with C. Cadbury and E. Wright. In going we passed through Rome, spending four days among the old ruins, reaching London about the middle of 5th mo. On the 16th of 5th mo. we had the privilege of being at a breakfast gathering of medical missionaries, then in England. Among others, Dr. Torrance, of Nazareth and Dr. Whitney, of Japan, gave accounts of their mission work. Before entering on the attendance of Yearly Meeting we were thankful to have been recommended to a suitable school for our dear boy.* I shall not attempt to give any account of a gathering already so fully reported, but in the Yearly Meeting what struck me most as a stranger, was to note how the Spirit of the Lord works among Friends, and to see their deep interest in Mission work increased, it seemed, since I was in England before.

But, oh! how much I missed the faces of many Friends I had seen and known in past years, especially our beloved friend, George Satterthwaite.

One evening there was a gathering of Friend Missionaries and those connected with them, held during the Yearly Meeting, at Wheeler's Hotel. I hope this meeting may be held annually, and more time allowed for mutual advice and fellowship.

At Ackworth, a visit to the grave of George Satterthwaite, in company with his dear wife, was a time of deep feeling, for his memory is still fragrant in my heart. At John Whiting's, at Leeds, it was a great pleasure to meet again my brother Tanius, and to visit with him some of the hospitals, etc., where he has been working. Before leaving England I had the privilege of paying a farewell visit to our beloved and valued friend, Isaac Brown, even then dwelling as in "The Land of Beulah." Soon afterwards came the Farewell Meeting at Dr. H. Fox's, when about twenty were present. We had hoped to visit Scotland, but hastened our leaving that we might travel with Isaac Sharp and Dr. Dixon, as Isaac Sharp was then going to Brumana to pay his long-promised, long-delayed visit, but proving to be at the right and very acceptable time. In bidding our dear friends of the Committee farewell, I deeply felt how much under the present condition of this country and the enlargement of the Mission, do they need more prayerful help and sympathy from friends in England under their many responsibilities.

We had scarcely set foot on the ground at Brumana, before we had to face cases of serious sickness, and I may say, to greet hundreds of visitors, who, according to the custom of the East, came to salute us. I had to begin work the evening I arrived. I was consoled to have Dr. Dixon to consult with, for I found a Missionary from Jerusalem very ill with fever, who died within two or three days; also our dear friend, M. Lotfallah Rizcallah, was ill with the same sickness, and he died in about ten days. It was the Lord's will to call him home. It is our loss but his gain, to go to be with Him whom he has so faithfully served and loved. (I may just say that in neither case was the fever contracted in this village.) To carry out one of M. Lotfallah's wishes, I have taken up the care of the Sunday School, which he has carried on for so many years.

As I have been absent so long, there does not seem much that is fresh to say about the Medical Mission this year. The general health on the Lebanon is pretty good this season; though the Hospital, which was closed while I was away, quickly filled up as soon as it was opened. Ellen Clayton is again in charge, having returned in the spring much invigorated by her long visit to England, and she has resumed her work with her usual energy and zeal. It was kindly cared for by M. Robinson during Ellen Clayton's absence. Ellen Clayton's niece, M. S. Marriage, who came out with us, is for the present staying at the Hospital. She gives much valuable help to her aunt in the domestic department; and Arthur Newsom, who also travelled with us, takes a class in the First Day School, and has been helpful in many other ways.

In the Dispensary, the work has gone on through the summer, my brother Spiridon doing what he could to help the people that came, whether for wounds, dentistry, or medicine; and indeed, from what I hear, he had a very busy time. Now we have resumed work as usual, and I feel I must once again express my sense of the great help Maria Feltham still gives in the Dispensary with the out-patients, as well as in many other ways, for which I feel very thankful. I should also have said, in speaking of the Hospital, how faithfully Scander Ferach and Leila, who have been with us now many years, continue their useful work, and I feel that Scander's religious interest in the patients is particularly valuable.

My visits to out-patients are, of course, less in number than usual owing to my absence.

Visits to Out-patients .................................. 149
Number of Patients in Hospital ....................... 77
Number of Prescriptions made up in Dispensary 5,897
Number of Out-patients at Dispensary ............. 1,936

We have again to thank the many kind friends who have sent useful and truly helpful gifts of clothing, bandages, etc., for the Medical Mission. I would also mention that the Magic Lantern, so kindly sent out by Ellwood Brockbank, has contributed more than once, not only to the pleasure and profit of the villagers, but also to that of our poor sick patients. I also thankfully remember the continued kind interest in the Medical Mission manifested by Miss Cowan, of the "Invalids' Auxiliary" to the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society.
Under some fresh sense of our many needs and shortcomings, may I conclude with the words, "Brethren, pray for us," that we may walk in the Light as He is in the Light, and thus have fellowship in Him, whose precious blood cleanseth from all sin.

REPORT OF FRIENDS' HOSPITAL FOR 1895.

During the first three months of the year, till my return from England in the latter part of March, the Hospital was quite full, and remained so till the Doctor left for England. Two or three patients, who were not well enough to be discharged then, remained with us till May, and then the Hospital was practically closed till his return in October. During the summer and autumn we had many applications from convalescents and others to be received into Hospital, but, with one or two exceptions, where there seemed no risk, we were obliged to decline, and our small staff being much reduced, as both Scander and Leila in turn took long, well-earned holidays, it was easier to refuse. The aspect of things on my return in the spring, after more than one and a half year's absence, struck me very pleasantly; the order, cleanliness, and "kil she beterteeb," as the Syrians put it, betokened careful thought and arrangement on the part of Mary Robinson, who had taken my place in the Hospital for the time being. Some of us had planned much visiting amongst old patients during the summer, but, with the exception of going a few times to Baabdat, Roomy, Beit Mary, and Brumana, my visiting was almost nil.

The rather sudden death, in July, of our black Mariam, a freed slave, who had been our faithful hard-working cook and general servant in the Hospital for more than ten years, was the first personal sorrow that came upon us. We could hardly call it sudden to her, as she had so often spoken of death, saying that it was far better to be with Christ, and we thankfully feel that with her "it is well," but we find it very difficult to supply her place.
In May, Spiridon spent a month in Jerusalem and the neighbourhood, with L. and M. Mounsey and J. and L. Dorland—a most pleasant and profitable time. After his return he was very fully occupied, till his brother came from England in October, making prescriptions for many other Doctors, who came up the mountain during the hot season, and attending to occasional simple medical and surgical cases who applied to him. His unvarying patience, and quiet consideration for rich and poor alike, betoken the true missionary spirit, having for its source "The fear of the Lord, which is the beginning of wisdom."

In the month of October, a serious case of typhoid fever at the Hotel claimed much of our care and sympathy. A young C.M.S. clergyman, who had brought his wife from Jerusalem on account of her health, himself fell ill. All that care and prayer and watching could do, on our part, was given; but God had ordered it otherwise; and two days after Dr. Manasseh returned from England, Albert Liggins was called home. Just one week after his interment in Friends' little burial ground here, the shadow of death again touched our Mission, and took our beloved friend Muallim Lotfallah from the midst of his active work amongst us, leaving a blank which seems to widen as the days go on. We remember, amongst many similar expressions, his kindly words of sympathy spoken to our black Mariam shortly before her death, and which she recounted to us with grateful pleasure. May these and other memories of his work and life on earth remind us to "scatter seeds of kindness for the reaping bye and bye."

We re-opened Hospital early in November, as many were waiting to come in; the wards were filled at once, and have continued so, many being refused admission. One old lady, from Baabdhat, came with such violent pain in the head as to cause her continuous sleepless nights, and we feared brain trouble. Many remedies were tried, and special united prayer offered on her behalf. Ultimately she recovered, meeting her husband with a beaming face when he came to visit her.
We have been much cheered during the autumn by the visit of Isaac Sharp and Dr. Dixon, whose earnest ministrations and practical sympathy have been blessed to us. Coming, as they did, on the return of our much prized Dr. and Rosa Manasseh, it doubled the welcome, and we felt that "Man’s extremity was God’s opportunity." Some of us are prepared to appreciate, more than ever before, the patient, self-denying work of a medical missionary in this country, having, during our Doctor’s absence, come into contact with practical difficulties in a way before unknown; and our prayer goes up that we may be able to strengthen his hands in the Lord, seeking to be as Aaron and Hur. We would ask the prayers of all who take a real interest in Friends' Medical Mission on Mount Lebanon, that we, too, like those of whom we have been writing, may be found "faithful unto death."

WORK IN THE VILLAGE OF BRUMANAS.

At the beginning of last year, arrangements were made for me to leave my former work in the Dispensary, as I had felt for some time how much I should like to live more amongst the people, thus getting better acquainted with them. Comfortable rooms were soon found in Brumana, from the windows of which there is a wonderful view of both mountain and sea. Ras-el-Metn stands out very clearly, especially in the evening light, and is opposite the house, though a long way off.

In making a round of some of the houses, I found it did not take long to get acquainted with the people; they are very warm-hearted and hospitable, and are ready to welcome me any time I like to call. At first they used to think that unless I stayed an hour or two with them it was not much of a visit; but they have learnt now that a much shorter time has to suffice, and are content.

One woman, a chronic invalid, I have visited a great number of times. She generally asks for a Bible story, and often the same one over and over again—the Prodigal Son, here, as in other lands, being the greatest favourite,
Many of the women cannot read, but most of them are exceedingly anxious that their children should learn; so it shows they are beginning to prize education.

I make it a practice either to leave a text card, or to speak about, or read from, a portion of the Scriptures, before leaving each house.

The Mothers' Meeting, held twice a week, is another good channel for getting to know the women, the average attendance in the winter being about 40. Some of them look very young, and it is difficult to realise that they have taken up the responsibility of married life.

The Factory Girls' Class (begun by Caroline Cadbury) is a most interesting one. The girls are bright, noisy, and full of life; but as a rule they settle down quietly towards the end of the time, when a short Gospel address is given, closed with prayer. Many of them have been sent to work so young, that they are very ignorant; they seem glad of this opportunity to try and gain a little knowledge.

Soon after coming to the village, I felt it laid on my heart to have a Bible Class in my room, for some of the young women who had formerly been in the Training Home and knew English. We have had some most helpful and encouraging times together, and I feel sure the Lord will bless and own the work.

Two mornings a week I make my way down to the Dispensary, either to stay with the patients or to help the doctor as occasion may arise. Each one seems to think that he or she has a prior claim to enter the consulting room, and it often takes a good deal of tact and patience to calm them down and let them see they must each take their turn. The Scripture pictures on the walls often form a topic of conversation, and an explanation is usually asked for, thus giving me the opening to read the story from the Bible, and to speak about the greatness of the love of God for each one of them.

RAS-EL-METN; REPORT FOR 1895.

Though there have been hindrances of various kinds, the work at Ras-el-Metn has been carried on during the past year as steadily as possible, and we have been encouraged by seeing evidence of hearts and lives being given to the Lord.

We were greatly disappointed when E. M. Bishop was obliged to give up her work on account of her health. The people were very troubled at her leaving, and still ask frequently, "When will Sitt Emma return?"

We had to give a longer holiday than usual in the summer because of several cases of smallpox, and during that time the teacher, who lives in the village, encouraged those who would come, to join him under the mulberry-tree in the court of the Seraiah, for the usual Sunday meetings. All were very glad when we could return and resume work as before.

The decision of Friends that D. and E. Oliver should take up the work here, seemed ordered by the Lord, as in a growing Mission Station like this the men of the village need help as well as the women and children.

Although sorry to leave the work at Ras-el-Metn, and those in whom I had grown so interested, I was glad to be at liberty to help in the present emergency, and fill the vacancy in the Girls’ Training Home until some better arrangement can be made for the English teaching and oversight of the school work.

16, i., 1896. MARGARET TRUSTED.

We came to Ras-el-Metn on the 15th November, 1895, to take up the work which had been so ably carried on by our predecessors, Emma M. Bishop and Margaret Trusted. We looked forward with fear and trembling, thinking that there were many long days of weary, plodding, uphill work, before the confidence and ears of the people could be gained. We were agreeably surprised to find that a real earnest spirit of enquiry was manifested everywhere. The people flocked around us to welcome us, and in every way tried to make us feel at home amongst them. We felt it very tiring at first to have to receive crowds of visitors every day for a month or so, and to have to serve them with sweets and coffee; but we were glad of the opportunity of getting in touch with them.

The attendance at the meetings has increased considerably, and the perfect silence always maintained, and the fixed gaze upon the speaker, show how earnest they are to understand the truth. Then the hearty handshaking which follows, and the warm thanks expressed in “salaam tamkoom” (peace to your lips), show how much they appreciate the meetings.

We have begun a meeting for Druses only, at the Mission House, on Wednesday evenings. It is well attended, many of the young men come, and a number of the Sheiks, including the Sheik of the village. Our meetings, as a rule, last about two hours; the people never seem to get weary. Of course, we try to make them comfortable, and always have a good fire to keep them warm; even after the meeting is closed, they stay on for a long time, asking questions, etc. We desire the prayers of our friends on behalf of the Druses. Few in this country believe that it is possible for Druses to become Christians, but we believe that “all power in Heaven and earth has been given to our Lord,” and He also has promised “in due season ye shall reap.”

The Mothers’ Meetings are well attended, and the women show great interest, and come regularly. Our great hope is in getting at the hearts of the mothers, for when they are won for the Master, great will be the change in their homes, and great will be their influence for good on the rising generation.

The Sunday evening class of factory girls is most encouraging. Several of them are decidedly on the Lord’s side, and we believe there are others very near “crossing the line to Jesus.”

The Sunday School is very well attended—120 children. We are going through the life of our Lord at present, and that blessed life, so beautiful and holy in every detail, cannot fail to impress the young, and make them feel that a pure Christlike life is the only life worth living.

We meet the Teachers on Friday evening to have a time of prayer, and to study the Sunday School lessons together. We find this a help to the Teachers, as well as a means of blessing to our own souls.

The Boys’ School is in a flourishing condition. We have, in M. Abdelnour, an excellent Teacher, and his calm, steady, methodical, and persevering character cannot fail to make a lasting impression on those under his care. There are at present 120 boys on the roll.

The Girls’ School is also in a satisfactory condition. The attendance is good; 102 girls are on the roll.

We gave them their New Year’s Treat last week. We thank all the friends who kindly sent dolls, etc., for the children. We did not have nearly enough for both schools, so had to buy things to enable us to give something to each one. Great was the rejoicing over the sweets and oranges; it did our hearts good to look at their happy, bright faces.

Thus we go on, sowing the seed, and we believe our work is not in vain. We hope this year to extend it to other villages around, and we ask the prayers of all friends interested,—for ourselves, that we may be kept true and faithful to our Master,—for our work, that there may be a mighty outpouring of the Spirit on every branch of it.

Daniel and Emily Oliver.
