His Excellency Lord Hardinge, Viceroy and Governor-General of India.
His Excellency Lord Carmichael, Governor of Bengal.

Our Countrymen in India For work on the Railway Lines, in Planting Districts, Mining Districts, and other unprovided places.
The Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society is a continuation of the Anglo-Indian Christian Union. The former name marked its catholicity, which still remains, the latter indicates its work. It also includes the Assam Mission, associated with the name of its founder, the late Colonel Foquett; and the "Winter Mission," first suggested by the late Lady Kinnaird.

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

I. The maintenance of an unsectarian itinerant evangelisation among the widely scattered groups of Anglo-Indians in India, otherwise destitute of Gospel ordinances, at Railway Stations, on Tea Estates, &c. This is the chief object of the Society.

II. The appointment of gifted Evangelists to visit the chief centres of population and influence, bringing the Gospel to bear, apart from denominational distinctions, on all the Churches and Missions, and on the Educated English-speaking Natives. This was the special object of the "Winter Mission."

The following is a form of Bequest or Legacy which may be adopted:

"Item, I give and bequeath the sum of to the Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society, and the Receipt of the Treasurer of the Society, for the time being, shall be a sufficient discharge therefor."

Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society.

REPORT FOR 1913-14.

Rev. Arthur Giles, Secretary in India.

To residents in India who are interested in the advancement of the Kingdom of God, it must be a source of joy and inspiration to note the unmistakeable onward march of Christianity in this particular land, and this joy will be shared by all God's people in the home country. Everywhere the Indians are awake to the advantages of a Christian civilisation, and are reaching out eager hands for its blessings. The Churches of the West continue to surrender some of their choicest workers, and to give liberally in order to meet such demands; all of which is matter for devout thankfulness. Those who know the blessings of Christianity, and are able to compare these by way of contrast with the many curses of heathenism, cannot but thank God for the changes which are taking place. But others who see and know the conditions of life and the lack of Christianity among many of our own countrymen out here, cannot but feel that all is not well. Hence there are not a few who think that whilst it is right for the Churches to feel their obligation to send missionaries to the heathen, they ought no less to feel the responsibility of saving their own kith and kin from becoming, except in name and form, half heathen themselves.

The Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society is probably attempting more than any other organisation in India, to do what cannot be undertaken definitely by the Churches, in saving many a lonely resident from drifting into such a condition. Members of our Churches come out here only to lose touch, in many instances, with Christian life, and to lose enthusiasm in, if not desire for spiritual things. To evangelise the heathen and at the same time neglect to preach the gospel to our own countrymen is a short-sighted policy, and, as Dr Duff once expressed it, like trying to row with one oar; and to win men to the Churches at home only to lose them to Christianity and its virtues out here is disastrous alike to the men themselves and the reputation of the Churches.

As might be amply shown such a disaster is happening in many an out of the way place where this Society would gladly minister, if only it possessed the wherewithal to extend its operations. In spite of numerous disadvantages and discouragements, our workers have maintained through another year their periodical ministrations to lonely souls on their widely scattered districts.

Away on the north west frontier, at the end of the railway world, Mr Shaw, of Quetta, although disabled for months on account of severe illness, has kept in touch with the four distant points of European life. Mr Gordon, in the south, tells of a year of living and far-reaching service at Podanur. Mr Vardon, in the east, appeals for a regular worker along the east coast route between Calcutta and Madras. Mr M'Dowall, in the the Central District of Gangapur, speaks of testimonies given directly and indirectly of blessings received through personal conversations. Mr Parker, in Bellary District, cites pathetic Macedonian appeals from places he cannot touch. Mr Taylor, on the busiest railway system probably in India, tells of seed widely scattered and some fruits gathered in. Mr Ward maintains his devoted honorary work in Wellington and other places; and Mr Slade, of Hubli, speaks of a successful and encouraging year there.

Since May the staff has been considerably weakened owing to the enforced absence in England of Mr and Mrs Arnold Thomas, from Abu Road. It was essential for the latter, after months of suffering, to leave the country. She and her husband have been and are still most keenly missed, for they had in no small degree endeared themselves, by the ties of sympathy and service, to the people of their district. It is earnestly hoped that the possibility held out of their being able to return to India may be realised. They may reckon on a very warm welcome back to their district.

One who has for a number of years given occasional service to the Society, namely, Rev. E. Palgrave Davy, has left India and settled in New Zealand. Mr Davy had been Pastor for a long time of the Union Church, Simla, of which a former Secretary of the Society, Rev. John Fordyce, was the first Pastor. Mr Davy always took the greatest interest in the work of the Society, and his tours of evangelisation under its auspices were much blessed.

In the earlier part of the year 1913, one of the Directors, Rev. David Reid, visited India in connection with Sunday School work. He took this opportunity of attending meetings of the Calcutta and Bombay Committees, and of consulting with the various workers, as well as the Indian Secretary on important matters bearing on the work.

As the result of the Secretary's deputation work, several to whom the Society was unknown have become interested, and new subscribers added to the list. Probably the most gratifying event in this direction is the recognition of the value of the Society's work by His Excellency Lord Hardinge, Viceroy and Governor General of India, who has been pleased to accord his patronage.

The need of such work as this Society is doing, and has done for these many years, is greater than can be measured. Every year larger numbers of our own countrymen are coming to India for business in many directions. Many of these, alas, drift into religious indifference and thus become a stumbling-block to their non-Christian neighbours. Others attach themselves, where possible, to some Christian society in and through which they can do immeasurable good. But for many there is not even the opportunity for the latter course, as it not unfrequently happens that a family finds itself in some lonely spot where there is no chance of a religious gathering or the visit from a Christian minister once in six months, or even a year. The great North Western system of railways, for instance, still sadly needs a regular worker, and the planters on the tea estates in Mysore and the Nilgiries in the South, and Assam in the north east would welcome in each district a man of the right stamp.

The brief reports from the various workers deserve careful reading, and it should be borne in mind that many details often of tragic or pathetic interests have to be omitted. Sufficient, however, is given to tell of steady and persistent devotion in what is probably the most wearying kind of Christian work in India. Further, it might be borne in mind that the wives also of our workers share heroically in the work, and besides this have to spend many lonely days and nights while their husbands are away on their respective districts. We do not always remember how much these women need our prayers.

INDIAN SECRETARY’S DEPUTATION WORK.

During the year I have visited, and in most instances preached for the Society, in places as far apart as Madras and Simla, Bombay and Mussoorie, Bangalore and Calcutta, besides other large and influential centres.

A Tour in the South.—The month of April was devoted to a visit to the various centres of our work in the Madras Presidency. First a day was spent at the large Arkonam Junction on the Madras and Southern Maharatta Railway, and enquiries were made as to the needs of the district. The Scotch Church Missionary of Arkonam holds a service on Sunday evenings for the railway people, but is unable to give any pastoral work, though this is sadly needed.

Madras.—Here a week was spent as the guest of the Rev. John Stewart. During this time I visited the great railway works of the M.S.M. Railway, and interviewed a few of the heads of departments. I conducted meetings at Washermanpet, where Mr Chance and his wife are doing a quiet but good work in their bungalow, and on the Sunday preached in the Christian College Church. Before leaving Madras I had the honour of visiting at their residence their Excellencies Lord and Lady Pentland, both of whom showed a very sympathetic interest in the work of the Society.

Podanur.—At this station I had a short time with Mr and Mrs Gordon, and also conducted a service in the Union Church. With the co-operation of friends in the district and the earnest devotion of our workers just named, a vigorous work goes on here in which, on the whole, the railway folk show a real interest.

Coimbatore.—Here I had a day with Mr Robert Stanes and his son, both of whom have been among the best friends of the Society for many years. It was Mr Stanes, in company with Rev. J. Stewart, of Madras, who went at their own expense to visit the planters of the district in Mysore and Coorg lately worked by Rev. J. Redmond of this Society, and by so doing established such cordial and sympathetic conditions as made Mr Redmond's work both a success and a delight. Hence it is not surprising that Mr Stanes feels keenly disappointed that since Mr Redmond left more than a year has passed and the district has had no regular minister.

Coonoor.—In this beautiful spot I received hospitality for a few days with Rev. R. J. and Mrs Ward, and during that time conducted meetings, in company with Pastor Hercus, at the Union Church, the Railway Institute, and the Cordite Factory Hall at Wellington.

Ootacamund.—Here it was my pleasure to preach in the Union Church, of which Mr C. T. Studd was at one time Pastor, under the auspices of this Society. I also called on several who are interested in our work. Both here and at Coonoor emphasis was laid on the need of a Minister among the planters of the Nilgiris, and another for the Wynaad District, which is reached from this point. The Rev. Mr Moorhouse, of the C.M.S., who is in charge of the mission work among the coolies of Wynaad, urged me to promise a return visit to Ooty later in the year, and, while he worked among the natives, I might visit the planters and where possible have services in their bungalows. This, however, I have not been able to carry out.

Bangalore.—At this large centre of European life, I was the guest of Mr Callan, the genial and energetic Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. During my stay I called on many whom I wished to interest in our work. I also preached in the Scotch Kirk at the parade service of the Cameron Highlanders, and again at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Richmond Town. At the latter, a collection for the Society was received, and a voluntary collector gave me his name and has since sent regular monthly contributions. I also conducted a meeting at the Soldiers' Home, under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Before leaving Bangalore I was joined by our worker, Rev. Joseph Parker, who was my companion in travel and work for the next week.

Hubli.—At this large railway centre several days were spent. A very healthy and vigorous religious work is being done here by Mr and Mrs Slade and their colleagues, Mr and Mrs Watson; and a visit is paid the station once a month by Mr Parker. It is with regret that I learn of Mr Slade's impending departure from Hubli, for: he will be much missed in many ways, but especially in Christian work.

Castle Rock.—This is a delightful spot on the summit of the Ghats and on the edge of Goanese territory. There are eight or nine families resident here, and they all esteem very highly Mr Parker's visits, and much appreciate his services among them.

Tour in the North.—The last few days of May and part of June were given to a visit to places of importance in the north.

Gangapur City.—Several days, including a Sunday, were spent en route in this station of the B.B. & C.I. Railway, with Mr and Mrs M'Dowall. The heat was fierce and scorching, yet the regular meetings and services were held. I had the pleasure of conducting two of these and also of meeting several of the residents in their homes, some of whom I had first become acquainted with when visiting the station in December 1911.

Mussoorie.—From Gangapur City I travelled through to this hill station, but broke my journey at Laksar, and made enquiries of the religious needs of this district, which Mr Davy of Simla had visited on one or two occasions under the auspices of the Society. Both the station-master of Laksar and another official from Roorkie referred to the sad lack of opportunity for services in these and other places in the district. At Laksar, for instance, there are six families, but no minister ever visits it, and to get to a service means a long railway journey either to Roorkee or Dehra Dun.

At Mussoorie I was the guest of Rev. Mr Hallowes, minister of Union Church. Through him and others I was introduced to many whom I visited, and from whom, with two exceptions, I received donations to our funds. Here it was my pleasure to meet Rev. J. Pengwern Jones and Bishop Warne, both of whom were present as speakers at the Mussoorie Convention. Each had known our work and assisted in it for a number of years, and testified emphatically to its value and need. A widow lady also spoke of what she had seen and known of the Society’s work for the past thirty years. Of late, however, she had lost sight of our agent who used to call on her. She cordially renewed her interest, and has since sent a substantial donation.

Simla.—Here I had the pleasure of meeting the local Committee, as well as preaching twice in the Scotch Kirk, and twice in Union Church. One of the most important and gratifying events of this visit, and of the whole year was an interview kindly granted by Sir James DuBoulay, the Private Secretary to H.E. the Viceroy, with the result that His Excellency expressed his pleasure of giving his patronage to the Society, in view of the moral and social value of its influence. I had interviews with other prominent gentlemen, several of whom have since sent subscriptions. I met also Rev. Mr Revnell, the Superintendent Wesleyan chaplain, and with him and Rev. Mr Davy discussed the possibilities of a worker being supported for the great N.W. Railway system. Both in this conversation and in Committee, the desirability was expressed of my returning to the north in order to organise work on the district named.

Abu Road.—Here my wife and I and a friend, Miss Goody from England, spent the month of July, and endeavoured to pick up the threads of the work laid down by Rev. Arnold Thomas when he and his wife went home. Almost every family in the station was visited. We conducted also various services and meetings both on Sundays and week-days. It was a pleasure to meet the Committee of the Church and to talk over the work with them. Two Sundays of the month were given to Ahmedabad for services and visitation. During the month I was twice prostrated with rather severe attacks of fever, so was quite unfitted for much that I had hoped to do.
Calcutta.—Early in August I received a request from Wellesley Square United Free Church of Scotland to take charge of the pastoral work of the congregation until such time as a minister from Scotland could be sent out. This I regarded as an opportunity of coming into contact with our work and workers on the Calcutta side of India. Hence, after consulting with the members of the Bombay Committee, and having satisfied myself that my secretarial work would not suffer, I replied in the affirmative. Thus for nearly six months I have been gradually able to make the acquaintance of friends of the Society in this great city and district, to meet occasionally Mr Taylor and talk over the work, and where possible make public references to it. By a pleasing coincidence one of the members of my audience at a recent service at Wellesley Square was the gentleman who presided at my farewell meeting at Caxton Hall over two years ago. I refer to Sir Daniel Hamilton who, with Lady Hamilton, was visiting scenes quite familiar, and worshipping in the church of which they were members till a year ago. On a recent Sunday I preached on the subject of the religious needs of our countrymen in India, and a few unsolicited donations have been the result.

Farewell Meeting.

A farewell meeting was held in Calcutta when Mr and Mrs Giles were leaving, at which Rev. J. D. Sinclair, B.D., the newly appointed minister of the Wellesley Square Church, presided. Mr Alex. Mair, the Session Clerk, in making a presentation to Mr and Mrs Giles, said:—

Mr Sinclair and Friends—The duty which it now falls to me to perform is one which I approach with very mixed feelings. India, as you all know, is often called the land of regrets, and to-night is an occasion on which this comes forcibly home to us, for although we are met now more especially to give a very hearty welcome to our new pastor, Mr Sinclair, still I feel sure that in many a heart there is a feeling of regret at having to say good-bye to our good friends, Mr and Mrs Giles. They have been with us only about six months, but I know that to all of us, with whom they have come into contact, they have greatly endeared themselves, and I do not think they should be allowed to go without being told how much they have been appreciated.

You all know the difficulties we had in making arrangements for the efficient carrying on of the pastoral work of the congregation when Mr MacRae left last year. Mr Mauchline had scarcely begun his work when he had to leave for home almost at a moment’s notice. Our good friends the missionaries, as usual, came to our rescue, but, though they are always extremely willing to assist us, we all know they have enough to do to attend to their own work. You can, therefore, imagine how thankful we felt when we heard of Mr Giles, and the relief it gave us at having a settled minister among us—even if only temporarily.

You have all heard, I dare say, of the Society which Mr Giles represents in India, The Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society, for which he does good work amongst those who are not so well situated as we are as regards a place of worship; many of whom, but for this Society, would never have an opportunity of worshipping together at all. We are very grateful to his Directors for having lent him to us all these months, and, if I may be allowed to make a suggestion, I think it would be a graceful act on the part of the Kirk-Session if they arranged for a special collection being taken at an early date in aid of the funds of this Society.
Well, I think I am voicing the feelings of the entire members of the congregation, when I say that those of us who have had the privilege of "sitting under" Mr Giles, as they say in Scotland, will always look back on these past few months with feelings of gratefulness for all he has done for us.

Considering that he originally came to us with the idea of being here for not more than perhaps two or three months, we could hardly have been surpriised if he had not attempted to make the acquaintance by personal visits of all the members of the congregation—no small matter, I need hardly remind you, especially in the months of August and September, when the Calcutta climate is at anything but its best. But Mr Giles seems to have come here with no end of superfluous energy, and in the course of a very short time, I fancy there were very few members whose personal acquaintance he had not made. And for this, Sir, I can assure you, we are very grateful; for, as Mr Goldie reminded us on Sunday evening, the more close, personal contact there is between the minister and this congregation, the more likely are his ministrations to be helpful to each one individually. And in all the work and activities of our Church Mr Giles has taken a keen personal interest, which has done much to help and encourage those taking an active part in them. Special mention might, perhaps, be made of the Sunday School and the Saturday night meeting.

Now, perhaps, I have said enough about Mr Giles; but, before I sit down, I want to get in a word or two about Mrs Giles. Certainly we are all very grateful to him for having brought such a charming lady and ideal minister's wife among us, and I am certain that her short reign in the manse will be long remembered by all of us. I have had the privilege of knowing Mr and Mrs Giles rather intimately during their stay here, and, in parting with them, I feel that I am parting with two of the best of friends. These feelings, I am certain, are warmly shared by all of you.

Mr Giles' work takes him all over India, and we will live in the hope that in the course of his wanderings, he may again strike Calcutta, and I need hardly assure Mr and Mrs Giles that whenever they do visit us, they will always be certain of a very hearty welcome from all of us.

And now, Mr and Mrs Giles, before we part, we would like to give you something to carry away as a memento of your brief stay among us, and, in the name of the members of Wellesley Square Congregation, it is now my privilege to ask you to accept this silver rose bowl, and a small purse of sovereigns, which, as Mrs Giles is going home at an early date, she may be relied on to spend to good advantage.

INDIAN RAILWAY COMPANIES.

The Directors are again indebted to the Indian Railway Companies for granting passes to the Society's agents on their respective districts.
Such assistance is invaluable to our work, and without it this could not be continued. The value of this work is appreciated, and the officials of the Railway Companies have testified to this. It would be a very great boon if a special pass could be granted to the Indian Secretary for purely Society work, which is so very largely for and among the railway communities. This has been done this year in the case of the B.B. & C.I. Railway, and also the M.S.M. Railway, for which the Directorate is specially indebted.
GLIMPSES OF WORK FROM THE FIELD.

Mr A. P. TAYLOR, East Indian Railway District, writes:—"During the year our work in Bengal has given cause for much thankfulness. There have been signs of growth and interest in the midst of much sin and worldliness.

"Railway Services.—During the year regular services have been held at Bandel Junction, Burdwan and Jhajha. These have been fairly well attended, but are, as usual, very fluctuating, owing to the numerous transfers of the staff. They have been felt to be times of blessing, and several have testified to conversion. These have thrown themselves into the work, and have done much good by their changed lives and Christian testimonies. Besides the regular services held in railway institutes, gatherings have been held in private homes, where we have had smaller numbers, but nevertheless have been times of blessing.

"Sunday Schools.—Our Sunday Schools have been well attended, and superintendents and teachers have taken much interest in the work. The schools have suffered at times owing to the transfer of teachers, and there has been great difficulty in getting others to take up the work.

"Visiting.—Much visiting has been done on this section of the East Indian Railway. As a rule one is warmly received, and much kindness is shown. In some homes it is difficult to introduce spiritual matters, but in the majority one finds great sympathy and willing ears to take in the Word of Life. This branch of the work has given cause for thankfulness.

"Distribution of Scriptures and Christian Literature—About 2000 Scriptures and, periodicals have been distributed during the year, and it is believed much good has been done in this way. We owe our thanks and gratitude to those who have so kindly supplied them.

"Help Received.—Several young business men in Calcutta have helped us in our preaching, Sunday School work, and visiting. This help has been of great value to us, for without it we could not have covered so much ground. It is encouraging to know that two of these helpers have given their lives to Christian work.

"Soldiers' Work.—Regular weekly meetings have been held at Fort William for the Christian soldiers of the Black Watch Regiment. Much interest has been manifested, and a number have testified to conversion, amongst whom was a champion boxer, who, from the time of his conversion, gave up boxing, and became one of our best helpers, and quite a reformed character.

"Other Services.—Services and lectures have also been given at the Y.M.C.A., the Medical College Hospital, Welland Hall, and several churches and chapels in Calcutta. Some time was given to the working of the three weeks' united mission in Calcutta, at which Messrs Cameron and Hawkins were the speakers, and as a result of which about a hundred testified to conversion.

"We are greatly indebted to the members of the Calcutta Committee, who have shown so much interest and sympathy in our work.

"Personal.—During the year my wife and family have arrived in India, and are now settled in Darjeeling, where my wife is able to interest herself in the work of the Y.W.C.A., amongst the Christian soldiers stationed there, and in other ways."

Mr JOHN M'DOWALL, Gangapur District, B.B. & C.I. Railway, writes:—"The district, although a new one, has undergone little alteration as regards numbers and opportunities from last year. At Gangapur the services have been well maintained, and in the Sunday School we have the attendance of every available child. In the Y.W.C.A. my wife has had a large degree of success, the meetings being held weekly, taking the form of a Bible Class and Dorcas Meeting alternately. The proceeds from their Sale of Work, held recently, were given to the Society.

"Visitation and personal dealing have played an important part in the past year's work. At outstations the main effort has been of this nature, and from some I have had personal testimony given to the pleasure and blessing derived. Some of these reports have come to me through other people, and have been a source of real encouragement from what I had often been tempted to consider depressing spheres. Conversation entered into, at first with a great deal of reserve, has proved the beginning of friendship and of a changed attitude to the things of Christ.

"In a land where religion and morality are not necessarily synonymous, the European starts with an abhorrence of such an estrangement, but often finishes up by unconsciously copying it—the result of the continued lack of Christian fellowship and high example. In the large united gatherings at home, some share in the inspiration and encouragement which the presence of others bring, but here our gatherings are necessarily small, and blessing has to be more direct and individual. Even simple attendance has to be backed by no small amount of personal desire.

"While I have met with some veiled indifference, I have also found in my visitation many better inclined, and some of whom it might be truly said that they had 'faith to be saved,' but being minus the word of exhortation had been gradually drifting. From some of these I have received the most cordial of invitations back again. Some of those incidents I recall with no little satisfaction when I remember the subject of converse and its fruit.

"In the course of long railway journeys, and long waits at stations, I have been thrown into the company of some to whom the Gospel had long been a stranger, but in whose hearts there were still chords capable of responding to its appeal."
Rev. ARNOLD THOMAS, Abu Road District, B.B. & C.I. Railway, writes:—"In spite of much anxiety and many distractions, services were maintained until our departure for England in May on account of Mrs Thomas’s illness, referred to elsewhere. Since then the district has been visited occasionally, and services held by missionaries of the U. F. Church of Scotland, and of the Irish Presbyterian Mission. During July Mr and Mrs Giles were there, and services were held at Abu Road and Ahmedabad.

"The Sunday School was also held in the former station with the assistance of Mrs M’Leod; whilst at the latter the District Engineer, Mr Bridges, conducted the School regularly after we left, until he (Mr Bridges) was transferred to another station. Dr and Mrs Taylor, at this station, have continued their interest in the work, and have assisted in it as far as possible. For two months, namely, October and November, we were fortunate in having the services of the Rev. Major Wingfield on this district. The meetings were well attended, and not a few were greatly blessed during this time."

It was most gratifying to the Secretary to find with what affection the residents of this district referred to Mrs Thomas, and how anxious all were to hear of progress in regard to her health. There is every evidence that she is much missed by the women and children, whilst Mr Thomas also is held in highest esteem.

Rev. JAMES SHAW, Quetta, Baluchistan, N.W. Railway, writes:—"There is very little to report from this district for the past year. As stated more than once before, the European community of this frontier district is very small, and is stationed at four points. A glance at the map will show how widely apart these stations are, and the infrequency of the train service demands the sacrifice of considerable time even in visiting one station. At Chaman the European railway community is limited to the stationmaster, and the official who has held that post for the last three years is a Roman Catholic. I have, therefore, not visited that place for a long time.

"During the year I was laid aside, for a time, through illness; being prostrated first by heat-stroke, from which I speedily recovered, to be soon after brought to the point of death through malaria (Malignant Tertian), and though I was able to resume my local work after a few weeks, it was considerably longer before I was fit to travel.

"Some of the services held at Mach and at Sibi were encouraging, and a good deal of Christian literature was given away. I regret to say that in the purely military community of this station it is almost impossible to obtain subscriptions toward the funds of the Society."

Rev. ARTHUR GILES, Poona - Raichur District, G.I.P Railway, writes:—"Owing to my extensive deputation work, it has been impossible to devote as much time as I would have liked to this district. In the earlier part of the year each of the stations, namely, Dhond, Barsi Road, Sholapur, Shahabad, Raichur, and Ahmednagar were visited, and services held. Thanks to the interest and devotion of one of our friends at Barri Road, the residents there have, in spite of the fact that my visits have been so few, subscribed nearly fifty rupees during the year, the officers of the Barri Light Railway taking a large share in these contributions. At Ahmednagar it has been my pleasure to stay for a night or two with Dr Hume, who, with his colleagues of the American Marathi Mission, have shown considerable interest in our work; whilst Mr Veal took no little trouble in arranging services.

“At Sholapur the Rev. Mr McBride, of the American Mission, has held a service in the Railway Institute once a month when he has been in the station. Some good Sunday School work and visitation has been done by Miss Morgan, of the Z.B.M. At Raichur and Shahabad services have been held frequently by missionaries of the American Methodist Mission.”

Rev. J. PARKER, Bellary District, M.S.M. Railway, writes:—“There is much to be thankful for in reviewing the work of the past year. The cordial welcome given at the places visited monthly is sufficient to encourage one to labour on, notwithstanding the untimely arrival of trains at some stations, necessitating the loss of a night’s rest. During the year I responded to two invitations from stations a little outside the limits of my free pass. At one of these a monthly service is held, and the people visited in their houses. At the other I can only visit, which the people much appreciate. I also received an invitation from a station, far out of the limits of my pass, to come over and spend a few days occasionally, and offering to subscribe and defray my train fare, which I could not accept, having to attend to other duties in my station.”

Mr H. T. SLADE, Hubli, M.S.M. Railway, writes:—“The Evangelistic Services have been regularly held every Sabbath morning. The attendance has at times been very encouraging, for which we have great cause to praise God. Our Sabbath School continues to flourish. The same love as in former years exists between teachers and scholars, and although we suffer greatly from loss of children, due to transfer of families from time to time, yet others are located here, so that our numbers and average attendance stand as high as ever.

“The Young People’s Christian Union, Young Men’s and Young Women’s Christian Association meetings have been held regularly during the year; likewise the weekly prayer meeting, which has proved to be a source of strength and blessing. The Rev. J. Parker has cheered us by his regular and most helpful visits month by month.

“We had the very great pleasure of making the acquaintance of our Secretary, Rev. Arthur Giles, in April, when he visited our station. We would like to see him frequently, and know more of him; but this is perhaps impossible in so large a parish as India. I wish to acknowledge the continued help of Mr J. Watson, who assists most ably and devotedly in all the work above mentioned; also the untiring efforts of my wife, who is the Honorary Treasurer of the Society here.”

Mr R. LISH GORDON, Podanur, M.S.M. Railway, writes:—
“The Sunday and Week-Night Services have been maintained, and, as usual, we are indebted to the kind friends at Coimbatore, who have been ever ready to help us at the Sunday Evening Services. The attendance has varied, but it has been very fair all through. Our thanks are specially due to Messrs E. E. Berry, W. Evington; H. C. Golden, G. S. Rogé, F. J. Stanes, and the Rev. W. J. Hatch, of the London Mission at Coimbatore, for help in the services.

“The Sunday School, too, has been carried on regularly, though we have fewer on the roll (only 50) owing to removals.

“The children, with the help of some adults, rendered a Service of Song, entitled ‘The Coming of the Angels,’ on the 17th December. Mr Golden kindly read the story. Mrs Gordon had been practising the children and instructing them for months, and when they knew their parts well, Mr C. T. Flanagan very kindly came and put them into good form. It was a great venture, but I am happy to report that the general opinion was that the Cantata was a success. It was given in aid of the Annual Sunday School Treat, which we hope to arrange for in the course of a few weeks.

“Mrs Gordon and I have kept up the visiting of the people, and have at times met with encouragement. The work here is important and interesting, but there are many drawbacks—chiefly owing to the increasing love of pleasure, even by those who are professedly Christians.

“The Y.W.C.A. Library, which was opened at the beginning of the year, now contains over 150 books, and is well used and much appreciated.

“The Y.W.C.A. had an evening on ‘Frances Ridley Havergal,’ at which Mr Golden presided; and another some weeks later on ‘Fanny Crosby,’ when Mrs Hatch read a sketch of the life of the blind poetess.

“The brethren at Coimbatore felt constrained to discontinue the Sunday Meetings at Mettupalayam, owing to lack of interest. Subsequently, the person who took the most interest in the services was transferred to Podanur, where he now, with several members of his family, attends the Chapel regularly.

“We would give thanks to the Lord for what He has already done, and look to Him for still greater blessing. Will friends and well-wishers kindly remember us in their prayers?”

Rev. A. SILVER, M.A., Arkonam, writes:—“With few exceptions, English Services have been held in Arkonam every Sunday evening during the past year. As a rule the service is taken on the first Sunday of the month by the visiting Chaplain of the Church of England. On the remaining Sundays the services are conducted by the resident Missionary of the Church of Scotland. The services are always well attended, the average congregation being forty. Special services have been held from time to time, as at Christmas and New Year, and the attendance is always most encouraging.

"During part of the year a weekly prayer-meeting was also held. By arrangement with the Church of England Chaplain, the Church of England Services are now held in the local Mission Church, so that all services are now held in the same Church instead of in two places as formerly. This is a step in the right direction. Most of the baptisms and burials, and some of the marriages, are conducted by the local Missionary, and as much pastoral visitation is done as the pressure of other work will allow."

Rev. R. J. WARD, M.A., Coonoor and District, writes:—

"During the past year I have had the privilege of helping in the services at the Union Church, Coonoor, and at the Cordite Factory. At the latter place there is a considerable community of families out from England, a number of whom attend the services held on Sundays and week-days. Some of these are earnest Christians, having been engaged in Christian service before they came out from home. A Sunday School is held for the children. An effort is also being made by the men employed in the factory to reach the native people who live in the adjacent villages, and preach the gospel to them with the aid of lantern slides. I have also taken meetings in the Soldiers' Home, Wellington, where British soldiers are fond of congregating, and where a number of them have been brought to the Lord. It is a place for helping on in the Christian life those who have begun to serve the Master. Some of them are earnest Bible students.

"One of them entered the examination by correspondence in connection with the 'Back to the Bible' course in the 'Life of Faith,' with the result that in the first examination he secured 98 per cent. marks, and in the second 99 per cent. It is interesting to know that over 15 who were converted in the Soldiers' Homes at Wellington and Bangalore are now engaged in Christian service either as Ministers, Missionaries, or Scripture Readers, and others are witnessing for Christ in secular pursuits. Very much more might be done in this important department of Christian work if more workers were forthcoming; especially if more Christian ladies would come out from England, and help to make 'a home away from home' for these men, and help also to reach the soldiers' wives."
WORK AT HOME.

A number of meetings have been held at various places throughout the country, and many visits have been paid in endeavouring to awaken interest in the work of the Society. The Directors are greatly indebted to the ladies who have granted the use of their drawing-rooms, and taken so much trouble in arranging these meetings. The Lady Collectors, Secretaries, and Treasurers have done splendid work again this year, and quite a number of collecting books have come in with more than last year, but in other cases there has been a falling off. The Directors greatly appreciate this work, which, though so difficult, is at the same time so necessary. They would urge the Collectors to do their best again this year, and especially to try and fill the places of the subscribers who give up. The loss of a 2s. 6d. or 5s. subscription does not seem much, but when hundreds of these are lost it creates a very real difficulty. If it were possible for each Collector to send in as much as last time, or better, increase the list, it would make all the difference in our financial position. Earnest prayer is needed for this trying and difficult work.

FINANCES.

During the year the losses through death, lapsed subscriptions, and other causes amounted to over £200, while in the previous year the losses were £300. This means that the sum of £500 had to be made up before any advance could be made. Those who know anything of the difficulty of collecting will realise at once what this means. It is a pleasure to report that, notwithstanding all the difficulties, the income has been larger than the previous year, and it is specially gratifying to note that the increase again this year is in India.

While there is cause for thankfulness in this, it does not relieve those at home of their responsibility in this matter, and it is hoped that all those who are interested in the best welfare of our countrymen in India, all those who have friends there, or who have business or commercial interests in that land, will do all they can to assist. The income has not been sufficient to meet the expenditure, and there has again been a deficit to face which hampers the work.

THANKS.

The Directors again desire to most cordially thank all those who have assisted in the various branches of the work either at Home or in India the Hon. Secretaries, Treasurers, Lady Collectors; the Hon. Auditors at Home and in India; the friends who have arranged meetings; and the valuable auxiliary of the Society, the Anglo-Indian Ladies' Union, of which Mrs Adolphus Orr is Secretary.

The Directors are also much indebted to Mr J. Morris for kindly preparing for their use, at considerable expense and trouble to himself, an excellent map of India, with sectional maps of the districts worked by the agents of the Society, and tabulated statements of the various districts.

A CALL TO PRAYER.

The need of prayer for the work is realised more than ever if it is to prosper. The workers in India feel this, and we earnestly urge all who are interested in the welfare of our countrymen in India to remember the work, both at Home and Abroad, at the Throne of Grace. It is God’s work, and He can and will carry it on if we wait on Him according to His will. It is hoped that many, who, perhaps, may not be able to do much otherwise, will become “helpers together by prayer,” that the work may flourish and prosper; that the needed funds may be forthcoming; and that more workers may be raised up to go to needy districts.

OBITUARY

It is with the deepest regret that we record the death of Sir John Molesworth Macpherson, C.S.I. Sir John was born in Calcutta in 1853, and was a son of the late John Macpherson, M.D., Indian Medical Service. In 1876 Sir John was appointed advocate of the High Court of Calcutta. In the following year he filled the position of Deputy-Secretary to the Government of India in the Legislative Department, and from 1896 to 1911 he held the post of Secretary. He was also an additional member of the Legislative Council of the Governor-General from 1910-1912. Deceased wrote the “Lists of British Enactments in Force in Native States,” and “Macpherson’s Law of Mortgages in British India.” Sir John took a keen interest in the work of the Society almost from its inauguration. He was a member of the Simla and Calcutta Committees, and on his return home was appointed a Director of the Society. Last year in London he presided at the Annual Meeting, and spoke with great earnestness of the need for the work which the Society is carrying on in India.

“Unto the Third Generation.”

Through the death of Lady Baden-Powell the Society has lost a devoted friend and helper. Her mother, Mrs Charles Wilson, was for many years a collector for the Society in Cheltenham. On her decease Lady Baden-Powell very kindly took up the work, and now her daughter, Miss Maud Baden-Powell, is to continue it. Lady Baden-Powell, was the widow of Sir George Baden-Powell, M.P., and sister-in-law to the defender of Mafeking. She was a daughter of the late Alderman Wilson, of Cheltenham. Her kindly sympathy and practical help will be greatly missed.
ANGLO-INDIAN LADIES’ UNION.

Hon. Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs ADOLPHUS ORR,
12 PEMBRIDGE PLACE, BAYSWATER, LONDON, W

1913-14.

During the past year there has been much encouragement. Letters from India bring gratifying news in connection with the distribution of Bibles, Testaments and books, sent by members of the Ladies’ Union. One Bible was given as a wedding present to a young girl, who had been a pupil in one of the Sunday Schools, and later on a teacher. It is hoped this branch of the work will be greatly increased, by other members of the Ladies’ Union joining in sending Bibles and books. Mrs Orr will be glad to receive and forward them to India, early in November, to be in time for distribution at Christmas.

The Sale of Work which was held at 12 Pembridge Place in June, in which the members of the Ladies’ Union so kindly helped, realised the sum of £33, 13s. 6d. Heartiest thanks are due to all those who assisted in making the Sale a success.

Contributions from the Anglo-Indian Ladies’ Union.

APPENDIX.

The Forty-Third Annual Meeting of the Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society was held on Wednesday afternoon, 6th May 1914, in the Goold Hall, 5 St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh, under the Presidency of Sir A. H. L. Fraser, K.C.S.I., LL.D.

The Chairman was accompanied to the platform by the Directors.

The Rev. David Reid, B.D., opened the Meeting with prayer.

The Chairman then called upon Mr W. Stewart Thompson, the General Secretary and Treasurer, who intimated apologies for absence from Colonel Cadell, Rev. J. Morrison, D.D., Dr and Mrs Berry, and Colonel and Mrs Sconce. He then presented the Forty-Third Annual Report for adoption, and read extracts therefrom. He also presented the Financial Statement, which unfortunately shewed a deficit of £135, 18s. 9d., and appealed for more help.

Sir Andrew Fraser moved—"That the Report, extracts of which have just been read, be adopted as the Forty-Third Annual Report of the Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society, and that it be printed and circulated, and that the Directors and Office-Bearers be re-appointed, with power to add to their numbers." He said he did not propose to make many remarks on the Report. They had heard a considerable portion of it read; and attention had been drawn to the great principle on which the Association was founded. They began their Report by stating what great encouragement there had been of recent years in mission work in India. The advance had indeed been most astonishing. Those of them who had been in India were able to tell of the marvellous results and mass movements of native Indians towards Christianity. Census figures had brought this to their minds, and shown the remarkable progress which had been achieved by missions in ten years. There had been an increase of native Christians of not less than 900,000 during that period. This was an increase of 34 per cent. as compared with 7 per cent. increase of the population. The difference represented an increase of 200 per day during the decade. These were marvellous results, and ought to be of great encouragement to them in regard to their Indian Empire. He was not one of those who believed that it was either just or reasonable to vilify their fellow countrymen in India. The character which British rule and which British men had got in India was altogether inconsistent with the statements which they sometimes heard, statements which were uninformed and inaccurate, about the character of their fellow-countrymen in India. There were, of course, men in India as elsewhere who were not what they should be; but their fellow-countrymen in India were very far from being a disgrace to the British nation. He remembered going to one place where a man came to him who had been educated at a Presbyterian College, and said—I am glad you have come here, because Presbyterians are men who keep the Sabbath. (Applause.) To the native a Presbyterian who kept the Sabbath was living like a Christian. He did not believe there was anything unintelligent about the natives of India. The native liked to have some proof: he liked to see a man acting as if he were a follower of the Lord Jesus. Many of the men who had gone out to India had gone to lonely places, and had not been followed by the gospel. It was the duty of those at home not to allow these men to lose old associations. He had met a working man at home here who had greeted him not as the former Lieut.-Governor of Bengal but as the man who used to slip round on a Sabbath morning to preach the gospel in a mile from Calcutta. (Applause.) It was a sad thing to know that there was a deficit in their finances. They could not keep down their expenses. A good work might be done by people in inducing earnest, faithful, evangelical men to enter the field in India, and send them out either under one of the churches or under this Society. He trusted that it would be possible not only to make up their deficit this year, but also to increase their staff.

The Hon. Mr W. C. Madge, C.I.E. of Calcutta, seconded the motion, and recalled that thirty years ago six people gathered together in the vestry of the United Free Church in Calcutta, then the Free Church, on a Saturday morning, to ask God's blessing on the services of the following day. Amongst them was Rev. John Fordyce, one of the founders of the Anglo-Indian Evangelisation Society. One of the prayers in which three of them, including himself, joined was for God's blessing upon the infant Society. There are many little streams and rivulets running to meet any river, and he could think of no profounder satisfaction in Christian experience than that which came to men and women in the experience of answered prayer. He rarely thought of this Society working in India without recalling that far off morning. When he saw how the Society had flourished in later years, he felt it was a great privilege in his Christian life to have taken a small part in a large prayer movement. God had answered prayer. (Applause.) He loved India and the people of India, but there was the heathen atmosphere in India against which they had to struggle. There was no true Christian living who did not understand that his chief obligation was witness-bearing for our Lord. They had got to realise in India that people might put the Lord to open shame if they fell short of what a Christian was expected to be. In the double character of Christians needing help themselves and of Christians as witnesses-bearers needing strength, and help, and comfort, the people at home were called on to encourage agents to go out to minister to their fellow-countrymen in India. In conclusion, speaking of the workers of the Society whom he had met, he said he desired to bear testimony that the Directors had chosen loyal ambassadors of Christ. (Applause.)

The motion was unanimously adopted.

Mrs Giles, wife of the Secretary in India, moved "That as those of our countrymen in India who are removed from the ordinary means of grace had a strong claim on the sympathy and help of the people at home, and that as their number is constantly growing, the objects of this Society, which was founded to provide for the spiritual welfare of such persons, were deserving of a generous and increasing measure of support." She did not think friends at home quite realised how lonely was the work of the Evangelists of the Society in India. With other societies the missionaries had other missionaries and friends round about them to encourage them. These were able to hold meetings and conferences to discuss how to advance the work and thereby help themselves and each other. But in their Society their workers were dreadfully isolated. They practically never met each other, and they got to feel the burden of the work. It was particularly delightful to come home and be in the midst of their loyal supporters and friends who remembered them constantly in their prayers. For two and a half years her husband had made it his supreme work to make the Society, its aims and objects, more widely known. It was felt that the Society was not known sufficiently in India except in the districts where it worked. This had meant a tremendous lot of travelling, long and tedious journeys, and much preliminary arrangement, for he always was anxious to secure hospitality to save the funds of the Society, and he had been everywhere well received. Lord and Lady Pentland had welcomed him to Government House, Madras, and had shown deep interest in his work. After detailing interesting episodes in her husband's work and directing attention to the manifold temptations which assail young men going out to India, she said the influence of the women workers was principally in the home life, inviting young men to come to the house when they liked, bringing their songs and music with them. Thus they were trying in a quiet and indirect way to make these young fellows, so far from home, feel that there was a little bit of the old home away in India for them. (Applause.)

The Rev. Arnold Thomas, Abu Road, in seconding the resolution, said in India many people live far away from any church, and are rarely visited by a minister, as the distances are so great. For instance, in his district of nearly 500 miles, he had to travel on one occasion 150 miles to visit a dying man who earnestly desired to see him. He was able to get there in time to help and comfort him. On another occasion, in response to an urgent wire, he arrived too late to see the woman alive, but in time to conduct the funeral and comfort the husband. After one of the services in a small station, he was told by one of the worshippers that it was the first service in thirty years he had been able to attend, having always lived up country. Another time he was thanked by a lady who said it was twenty years since she had had the privilege of attending a church service. They held meetings just wherever convenient—in bungalows, railway institutes, or waiting-rooms.

The resolution was adopted.

Mrs Arnold Thomas, wife of the preceding speaker, who had been very seriously ill, then proposed “That the cordial thanks of the Society are due to the Hon. Secretaries, Treasurers, and to the Lady Collectors, and Mrs Orr and members of the Ladies' Union for their devoted labours during the year.” She gave a most interesting sketch of life at Abu Road, where there were about 100 European families, about one-third being from Scotland. When they first went, they started a Sunday School and a Band of Hope, but that work was now at a standstill in their absence. There was already a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, of which she was asked to become President. She had been told that a Miss Phillips (of Mount Abu) used to earnestly pray that someone would be sent to work in Abu Road, and two years after that lady's death her prayer was answered. Her husband and she hoped to go back in October.

Mrs Cumming, a former honorary worker of the Society, who went out to India for eighteen months and stayed eleven years, seconded the motion and urged help to the cause. She mentioned that she had been located in five different places in India and no one had filled her place in any of these. She longed for more people to go out as honorary workers. It was all English work and no one required to learn a native language.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. Henry Rice, M.A., asked that a very hearty vote of thanks be given to the Chairman, the Speakers; and also to Lady Russell, and the other members of the Ladies' Committee for arranging the social part of the Meeting and the Sale of Work which was being held that afternoon.

Mr Carstairs, who took the chair when Sir Andrew Fraser left, returned thanks, and the meeting was closed by the Rev. Mr Falconer pronouncing the benediction.

There was a large gathering.
