The Sixty-Second Annual Report
OF THE
JAMAICA BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

In a recent number of the English Missionary Herald, is the following: "Our interest in Missions is a mark of our Christian character. Our knowledge of Missions is the measure of our Christian attainment. Our participation in Missions is the measure of our Christian efficiency." This is the standard whereby every servant of God may discover his real attitude in relation to Christ's glorious programme of redemption. Within the limits of its fields of operation the Jamaica Baptist Missionary Society has carried out the programme with which it commenced the year, as far as possible. In some respects 1917 will long be remembered as one of the darkest in the history of the Society. War clouds have hung overhead throughout the whole year. Distance alone has kept from us the horrible sights and sounds of war. The prayer for peace expressed in the Report for 1916, has remained unanswered; and there is no sign of the dove with the olive leaf in her mouth.

There are clouds other than those of war. Once more we have been reminded by events which have happened in our own denominational household, that the last enemy is not yet destroyed. Before either of them had reached the scriptural "three score years and ten," two of our most devoted co-workers were called away to higher service. In the death of the Rev. William Pratt, M.A., which sad event occurred on Thursday, 26th July, 1917, the Society lost one of its most loyal supporters. As soon as Mr. Pratt arrived in Jamaica to become the pastor of the East Queen Street Baptist Church, he showed his deep interest in Christian Missions. Entering in his characteristically whole-hearted manner into the work of the Baptist Mission in this country, he soon became one of the leaders of the Missionary Society. In the year 1903 he was elected to the office of Treasurer and in that capacity rendered most efficient service to the Churches.
The position which he held was won by sterling qualities of head and heart. In Committee work his judgment was clear and his counsel always worthy of consideration. It was at the Committee Meeting held in April last that Mr. Pratt's brethren learnt for the first time of the poor state of his health, and that it would be necessary for him to visit England to consult a Medical Specialist. This he was permitted to do, but shortly after his arrival in London he passed away to his rest and reward. The Committee chronicles his death with much sorrow, but rejoices in the prospect of meeting him once more, in the Lord's own good time, in the "land that is fairer than day."

Before it had been possible to recover from the shock of the death of our late honoured Treasurer, came the sad news that another Missionary enthusiast and member of our Missionary Committee had been also called away. On the 2nd November, 1917, about three months after the death of Mr. Pratt, the Rev. P Williams of Bethel Town, died at his home in Westmoreland. The Jamaica Baptist Missionary Society never had a more faithful friend and advocate of its claims than our beloved brother Philip Williams. He was elected to serve on the Managing Committee of the Society on the 11th February, 1884, and he was elected to stay. For 32 years and 6 months he rendered invaluable assistance in shaping the life of the Society, and in directing its affairs. Such was his grasp of the Society's business, that, with him on the Committee, it was hardly necessary to keep official records. In his advocacy from the platform of the Society's work, Mr. Williams was a never-failing friend. With all the world of Missions before him from which to draw materials for Missionary speeches, he invariably spoke on the various branches of the Society's work. Sometimes he had very little more than a bare skeleton to deal with; but, in his masterly hands, the skeleton soon took on the appearance of a thing of life and energy; clad in armour, it stood forth as a warrior wearing the victor's crown, and, sword in hand, going forth to fight new battles and win further triumphs. It seems hard to realize that his counsel will no longer be available, and that his genial presence will never again grace our assemblies. We miss him; but in a spirit of humble submission we bow before our Lord, and say, "Thy will be done."

We would honour our departed brethren as the Report for 1885 honoured two Missionary leaders, the Revds.
J. E. Henderson and Ellis Fray, who died within five weeks of each other in that year.

"Write them large and splendid on the muster roll of fame,
   Amid the old immortals that glow like living flame
   On the broad front of the ages eternally the same."

The Rev. Wm. H. Rutty entered into rest towards the close of the year at Cayman Brac.

In the year 1886 the Rev. J. H. Sobey visited the Island of Cayman Brac and Little Cayman, and commenced a mission there to which field Mr. Rutty was appointed as the Society's Agent in 1887. He laboured for eleven years and was instrumental in establishing a most useful mission, and building up four churches in Cayman Brac, and one in Little Cayman. On his health failing he very unwillingly relinquished the work so dear to his heart and returned to Jamaica. Some time after his return his health recovered sufficiently to allow of his taking up Christian work, and on being invited, he became pastor of the Yallahs and White Horses Churches in St. Thomas, where he laboured faithfully until failing strength warned him that it was time to retire from active service. He then went back to Cayman Brac to be with his son, Mr. H. W. Rutty, and among the friends with whom he had spent so many happy years.

He continued there, together with the faithful partner of his long life for a few more years, of which many pleasant memories are retained of the cheerful and timely help rendered in the churches by our brother. In the month of July, Mrs. Rutty was called to her rest and reward, and three months later the call came to our aged brother, and he too "fell on sleep". Their graves may be seen in the little cemetery close to the sea, and the result of their labours in the lives of many, who, through their loving efforts were led to accept Christ as their Saviour. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

Home Missions.

This section of the Society's operations has been steadily sustained during the year.

ST. MARGARET'S BAY CIRCUIT.—The quarterly reports from this Circuit contain many evidences of a year of honest toil. The material side of the work has claimed much of the Missionary's attention. The roof of the St. Margaret's Bay Chapel, which was wrecked in 1916, has been replaced. A few instances of self denial in connection with this work form pleasant reading. One "member, in poor circumstances sold a pig for £2 12s. and gave the whole amount to the church". The chief carpenter of the work who receives 8/- per day" in his ordinary employment "gave his services" for 6/- per week." Other carpenters acted in the same liberal spirit. This work is now complete.

The hurricane of September 23rd, did some damage to the buildings throughout the circuit. The Chapel and Minister's house at St. Margaret's Bay were slightly damaged. At Beulah the Mission Cottage, Teacher's House and schoolroom were badly damaged, and, worst of all, the roof of the Chapel "wrecked." For another year Mr. Reid must again devote much of his time to building work. These annual hurricanes have the effect of crippling the resources of the people, and tend to depress them in every way.

ROSEWELL CIRCUIT —The Rev. B. M. Tharpe has on the whole had another year of happy service for the Master. The members of the four churches have shown, for the most part, a deep interest in the work. The services have invariably been well attended. The Cause at Shiloh is lying heavily on the Missionary's heart and he is labouring earnestly to lead the people into a deeper spiritual experience. But for the fact that the Circuit lost 14 members by death, it would have shown a numerical increase; as it is, there is a decrease of 10. Notwithstanding financial depression the contributions of the people for the support of the Missionary, show a slight improvement on 1916. The Chapel at Ludford Mount which was badly damaged by the hurricane of 1916, has been replaced "entirely by free labour." Mr. Tharpe enters on his work in 1918 in a spirit of hopefulness.

WARSOP CIRCUIT.—The Rev. E. B. Heighington resigned the pastorate of Mandeville early in the year, and, at a meeting of the members held on the 23rd April last, conducted by a deputation from the Missionary Society, the Rev. A. Miller was invited to take the temporary oversight of the Church, which he consented to do. Mandeville, therefore, no longer forms a part of the Warsop sphere. The work at Warsop, Tyre and Litchfield Mount has given the Missionary much concern. His own poor state of health, illness amongst the members, poverty arising from a variety of causes, the departure of some young male members for the "front" and continuous rains during a part of the year, greatly interrupted the ordinary work of the Circuit. Still, a faithful few at each church have kept together and bravely faced all adverse circumstances, and by their prayers and loving gifts frequently cheered the Missionary’s heart as he has laboured on.

Building Operations.

Under this head eight churches were assisted in their building work and the sum of £183 was voted for that purpose, all of which was paid as soon as the Society’s income available for 1917, was ascertained.

Calabar College.

The work of the College proceeded during the year in its regular course though with sadly depleted numbers. There were only three students and the Methodists, with whom we still work jointly, had but two. Good work, however, was done, and the reports to hand from the Examiners in England praised the work of our students highly. One student, Mr. J. R. Rodney, concluded his course in July and entered upon the pastorate at Santa Cruz in succession to the late esteemed Minister, the Rev. S. I. Marson. When the session opened in September last, a new student entered, Mr. D. E. Dixon, whose work promises to give satisfaction. The paucity of numbers in the College is largely due to the unsettled condition of things caused by the war, though there are doubtless other causes. It is pleasing to note that the President at the last meeting of the Committee reported that he had before him a larger number of applications for entrance to the College than he had ever had at one time before.

Though there are so few students the students life is very happy and the ministry of the students in the various pulpits they occupy very helpful; and in anticipation of the time when there will be a larger number a room has been prepared for serving as a common room for the students—this they have never possessed before and it is expected to be of great service to them.

The work of the High School for boys though in no sense a part of the Missionary Society’s operations, is so closely allied with the work of the College that it is fitting that its work should be named here, and it is a pleasure to state that the school has been very successful in all its.
work, that the number of boys in attendance is as large as ever, and that the demand for places is much larger than the number that can be offered. It is worthy of note that of the Government Scholarships offered to children in Elementary Schools four were in the past year given to boys, and the parents of everyone of the boys chose Calabar School as the one in which they should hold their Scholarship.

The generous gift of £1,000 by Miss Pursecll has enabled other Scholarships to be offered to the boys of Jamaica.

Cayman Islands.

The Rev. J. J. Griffiths is still labouring amongst the people of Cayman Brac and Little Cayman with signal devotion. The distress following the hurricane of 1915 caused many of the Missionary’s best supporters to leave the islands altogether. With commendable zeal those who remained put their shoulders to the wheel and commenced to rebuild their destroyed Chapels. Unfortunately, however, the hurricane of September last damaged the new unfinished building at West End. The Missionary says, “Our West End people, however, had the beginnings of another Church partially wrecked.” Still, notwithstanding this fresh trouble, and many other discouragements, the Missionary bravely plods on hoping for better times.

Africa.

As stated in the last report the Society’s representative, the Rev. Geo. Thomas, was in England owing to an attack of Blackwater Fever. He was then hoping to return to the Congo in May, 1917. From information received, however, he is still in England owing to the difficulty of obtaining Passports. He has been busily engaged in deputation work, and has assisted in the work of the Y.M.C.A., at various camps in England.

At present there is great need for reinforcements on the Congo, as none of the older workers on furlough have been able to return, and several new workers who have been accepted cannot leave England at present.

Then the long continuance of the war has increased the difficulty of obtaining supplies of food. All supplies from England are cut off for the present and the Missionaries on the field are passing through deep waters.
It is nevertheless pleasing to report that the work on the Congo has not suffered any serious interruption during the past year. The new station in the Makuta district has been occupied and some of the materials from the abandoned Mabaya station, utilized for new buildings. The Missionary Herald speaks of many baptisms taking place and on all hands there is a spirit of cheerful outlook into the future.

We praise God that none of the workers have been removed by death, and several who are prevented from returning to the field are now busily engaged; in England, in a work which will soon be completed, namely, the revision of the whole Bible in the language of the Ki-Kongo speaking people.

Haiti.

ST. MARC.—This Mission is no longer connected with the Society. In October 1916, the Rev. P. Delattre resigned his position as Missionary at St. Marc, and his resignation took effect on the 30th April last.

For some time past the Lott-Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention and the Jamaica Baptist Missionary Society had been in correspondence in regard to Haiti. In the month of June the Convention intimated that it proposed to appoint a Superintendent of Missions to Haiti, and that it would be glad if St. Marc could be made his headquarters. Having viewed the proposal in all its bearings, the Committee decided that it would be greatly to the benefit of the Mission if the Lott-Carey Convention could take it over altogether. As a result of further correspondence the Convention has entered upon this work, and on the 24th December last, sent a Missionary from the States, “who is to pastor St. Marc’s Church and be General Superintendent of Missions on the Island.” In thus severing its connection with the St. Marc Mission the Committee prays that the blessing of God may rest upon the work, and also the Lott-Carey Mission Board under whose direction it will henceforth be carried on.

JACMEL.—This field grows in interest continually. The Missionary, the Rev. P. N. L’herisson, has an irrepressible desire to claim and conquer all the country around the town of Jacmel for Christ. He says, “I am glad to inform you that two more evangelistic spots have been found—They are connected with Cayes-Jacmel outstation. They are situate on the North-east of Jacmels at a distance of 7 hours riding for the farthest one and very near 'Morne a Selle,' the highest mountain here. These two outstations are promising." Strenuous efforts are being made by the enemies of the Cross of Christ to prevent the spread of the pure religion of Jesus. Unknown to the Missionary reports of the doings of the enemy reached the ears of the President of the Republic who immediately instituted enquiries in relation thereto, and in a despatch to the Commissaire of the Jacmel District, expressed his determination to maintain the Haitien Constitution which, to use the President's own words, "recognizes liberty of conscience, and protects all the creeds which have for aim to raise the moral level of man." In the end the President, through the Commissaire, sent to our Missionary his "sincere felicitations for his evangelical work of which his letter," which the Commissaire had sent him, had permitted him to have a just idea. The reports which had reached the President were not without foundation, for, some time previously, Mr. L'herisson had received an anonymous letter with threatenings against the Church and his life. Other happenings had convinced the Missionary of the existence of deep hatred and hostility against the cause of God, but the evident blessing of God on the work and the thirsting for the word of life on all hands, enabled the Missionary to dismiss all such things with a smile. From Grand Gosier, a country town at least 150 miles from Jacmel," so says Mr. L'herisson, "three believers came to be immersed upon an open confession of their faith in Jesus. One of them, a widow, is a prominent lady, formerly a very zealous Roman Catholic. She had to meet much opposition from her dissatisfied friends, and chiefly from the Priest, her Confessor, who had given her a New Testament arranged according to Romish doctrine. Being converted to Christ the Priest sent her word to return the Testament to him, so she did, of course without regret, having now in her possession the real treasure.—The New Testament of Jesus. She had also with a courageous faith, to make sacrifice of a lucrative part of her commerce, which consists of a large speculation in coffee, for, as in the place where she lives the largest market day in the week for buying coffee is the Sunday. She, on that day, closes her shop and holds a religious meeting with a few friends, preferring, above all the earthly treasures, 'the spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.'"

In order to assist the Missionary in his work, the Committee have placed him in a position to engage the services of some of the devoted native Christians who are scattered throughout his extensive field, to go forth as preachers of the Word to their own people.

The Committee would urge the churches to pray that dark Haiti, where so many of the people are thirsting for the water of life, may soon yield a great harvest of precious souls.

Central America.

BOCAS-DEL-TORO.—This Mission made steady progress during the year. Baptismal services were held at all the stations, and the year’s work shows that the attachment of the people to the cause and their leader is as great as ever. The erection of a Mission House at Almirante was begun on May 7th and is now in use. It is a spacious two-storey building, 40 x 28 feet, and on the ground floor is a large Mission Hall. It was estimated to cost £400, and the generosity of the people will soon relieve the Missionary’s mind of all anxiety in connection with building obligations.

The Churches under Mr. Duncanson’s leadership raised £111 18s. 6d. in contributions for the Missionary Society’s funds, according to the last Annual Report. As the membership is only 267 this works out at £4 1/2d. per member.

Cuba.

The Rev. George Stone, late of Falmouth, who had been accepted by the Committee for work in Cuba, left Jamaica for Banes early in December and arrived there on Wednesday, December 7th. The people were delighted to see him. In his first letter from Banes, Mr. Stone says, “I am favourably impressed with all I have seen, I am convinced the Lord’s hand is in my coming here.” Mr. Stone has lost no time in laying plans for the future and is evidently most enthusiastic. The genial Manager of the United Fruit Company has rendered the Missionary valuable assistance since his arrival. A residence has been erected on the Society’s land given by the Company for Mission purposes, and the Missionary is now housed in his own home.

Thus, after long waiting, the Cuban Mission is a reality, and the Committee would urge the churches to pray that much blessing may rest upon their Agent and this new field of Missionary enterprise.
Re-arrangement of Churches.

It was hoped in the early part of 1917 that under this scheme it would soon be possible to re-arrange certain spheres in the Homeland. For various reasons this has not been done. An essential part of the scheme is such an increase of Missionary contributions as would enable the Committee to carry out the proposal. As soon as this is done the Committee will be in a position to begin this necessary and desirable work.

Conclusion.

The Missionary Committee would earnestly thank all those who contributed, or raised funds for, the Society’s work, as shown in the last printed Report. The amount in the aggregate was £1,553 14s. 5d. the largest income for several years past, and represented much self-denial on the part of many Ministers and churches. In the raising of Missionary money boxes are now in constant demand and found to be very useful adjuncts to home life. It is regrettable that a few churches and many Sunday Schools have not taken their place in the ranks of those who go forth to battle. There are those who appear to think that some churches are in too weak a condition to give for Mission work. Specialists in Missionary service teach that “the best remedy for a sick church is to put it on a Missionary diet.” Some churches are “cisterns”; others are “fountains”. The “cistern” Church keeps within its own limits all that flows into it. The “fountain” Church is the Church that gives to others whatever it has itself received. Upon the Minister, more than on anyone else, rests the responsibility of deciding whether the Church over which he presides shall be a “cistern” or a “fountain”.

But if a deeper interest is to be shown in the Society’s work, it is of paramount importance that steps should be taken to increase its Missionary operations. Home work must not by any means be neglected—and there is much to be done here. Foreigners, especially the Chinese, should not be allowed to come to our country and leave again without hearing of Jesus and His love. Determined efforts should be made to strengthen our work in the Jacmel Mission. Africa should be more generously assisted; in many ways, both at home and abroad, our Society could do excellent work if it had the means of doing it. It might be well to note, that keenness of observation and the critical faculty are developing in many of the younger members of our churches; and it will be a mistake to expend more on old established churches at home at the expense of Missionary work abroad. Nothing but failure would result from such a false policy. Already comparisons are being made by some of the members of our churches between the large amount spent on the various home agencies and the comparatively small sum spent on work abroad. The Society in its objects embraces both forms of work, and each should receive its due share of consideration.

The Committee would lovingly urge upon the churches the need of still greater devotion to the glorious cause of Missions. It is the Church redeemed by blood that stands between Christ and humanity. The hush of God's presence, and a vision of the cross, are needed in order that the church might realize its duty to both. But when it is realized more than is the case to-day, the church will go forth to its God given service of saving men with the inspiring song upon its lips:—

"We've a story to tell to the nations,
That shall turn their hearts to the right:
A story of truth and sweetness
A story of peace and light.
For the darkness shall turn to dawning,
And the dawning to noonday bright,
And Christ's great kingdom shall come on earth,
"The Kingdom of Love and Light."
