THE ORPHANAGE

Report

By Miss Armintia M. Evans

Missionary—Miss Armintia M. Evans.

Indian Teachers and Workers, 18; Children, 76.

The year at the Orphanage has been an unusually busy one owing to the extra work and watching made necessary by the completion of the long-needed repairs, and the raising of the front wall of the compound. We are very proud of our nice clean home and very grateful for this wall as it takes away much of our concern for the safety of our girls.

Great sadness came to the nursery with the outbreak of a peculiarly virulent form of measles when seven little ones were taken away. Many of the nursery-babies, indeed nearly all of them, are brought to the Orphanage in bad condition, some of them even ill and dying, others with such a heritage of illness, weakness and neglect, that it is often impossible to save them. God, who knew how much we missed our babies, has filled our empty nursery again, and now in eight small beds lie nine new little ones, eight of them ranging in age from 4 days to 5 months, while the ninth child was 10 months old when she came to us. The two in one bed are month-old twins. The mother who had been an orphan girl died; the father, a Mohammedan convert, had no one to look after his babies and we took them in. We have received 18 children in all during the year.

This year four of our girls followed their Lord in baptism while many others are waiting to take this step. Three of the older girls have been married and gone out, as we trust, to make true Christian homes. May I tell you of just two of our new girls? One is nine-year-old Riju, whose life has been so sad that it shows in her eyes and face and in her tears. When a very small child she was betrothed to a man and sent to his home, only to be returned to her parents with the message, “Not wanted.” And why? Only because of her too dark skin. She was brought to a missionary and handed over with these words: “Take her, we do not want her.” Yet she is a dear little girl, doing well in school, good and bright. Her starved heart craves love. She looks so sad when other children receive post-cards or letters from their supporters. She feels that she is just a little “not wanted,” that there is no one in the world to love her or want her, and she is only nine years old. I wonder if there is not someone, somewhere, who wants Riju, with her brown skin, to support and pray for and love?

The other girl of whom I would tell you is a Brahmin child whose pretty name means “Delight of the heart.” This ten-year-old child, motherless, followed a band of singing women about her village, only to be kidnapped and brought to Calcutta. The police found her and rescued her, and later when the father came to Calcutta in search of her, she was found by him in a safe place. But what could a poor Brahmin do? His little girl had been away from her village home over night and never now could he find a husband for her or was there any hope for her future. She was disgraced in the eyes of all the people. The father gave her to the missionaries and left her. We believe and can see that “God meant it for good," for we have a little Brahmin to lead to Jesus Christ and train up for His service, but poor little Heart's Delight is homesick for her father and cannot understand why she has been taken from home when she had a home, and from her father, the only person she loves. Please pray for Heart's Delight, and for every one of our 76 girls, each with her own background of sadness or tragedy, but each now in a place of safety where she can learn to know the Lover of little children.

CITY AND VILLAGE SCHOOLS

The city school work has been attended with difficulties. Hindu schools for girls in increasing number have opposed our Christian schools and drawn away the children through influencing the parents against us; we have not had enough dolls to go around, and dolls and prize-giving are an important factor in work among non-Christian children; we are no longer able on account of prohibitive prices to keep garies for our teachers, and the tram-car strikes in Calcutta of which the home newspapers have told, have hindered our teachers very often from being at their posts. Difficulties of travel have also added to the trials of our country work. But our schools are still there, and we have Christian teachers ready, to tell the children of Jesus Christ and plant the good seed of the Word in their hearts, so while there is much to perplex us, we are not in despair, and we know that we are not forsaken. These difficulties that seem to be so great, challenge us to stronger effort and more persistent prayer.

Zenana Pupils—330.

Hearers (additional) in Zenanas—500.

Enrollment of Day Schools—230.

We have felt the great need of doing intensive rather than extensive work, realizing that if India is to be won, it must be through her own Christians, and that in a work like ours, the quality of the workers is of primary importance. We have therefore devoted much time to personal work with the Indian Christian helpers, and to fellowship with them in prayer and Bible study, with the result that we can see a genuine deepening of the spiritual life of these teachers. Although we are at one of the chief centres of the Nationalist and non-cooperative movement we can report that it has in no way hindered or diminished our opportunities for service or lessened the numbers of pupils in school or zenanas. Not only do our workers find open doors into the zenanas, but high-caste Indian ladies are now coming regularly to the Mission bungalow for English, music and the Bible, for neither of the first two subjects is ever given or allowed without the last. Hours have been spent in definite Bible study with the ladies of Indian official families, and the circle is constantly enlarging, so that we believe this new work is becoming established on a firm basis. We are deeply grateful for funds received, sufficient to erect three long-needed buildings in the compound which will add greatly to the safety and health of our large resident family.

The Central Girls' School, of which Miss Powel is the Principal, presents the anomaly of a worth-while school, and a staff of Christian teachers, in the midst of an unoccupied field (for ours is the only day mission-school for non-Christians in Allahabad)—without a school building. Central School is a union of several small local city schools brought to the mission house; the missionaries' bungalow is no longer adequate in size for the school, classes in the compound under the trees are not feasible for Hindu and Mohammedan children of caste, as they are in our Christian orphanage at Cawnpore, and with the present high prices and strong non-Christian opposition to mission work, rented buildings are an impossibility. The school has existed during the year by using both missionaries' and teachers' verandas where possible, missionaries' bed-rooms, the bungalow guest-room and other odd nooks for its classes. In spite of these difficulties good work has been done, the Christian teachers under the leadership of a competent head-mistress are interested and enthusiastic, and children are going back to their Moslem and Hindu homes with the Word of God in their hearts and on their lips. The school is also opening doors to the hearts of parents and to homes that would otherwise be closed against the missionaries' influence. Friends have contributed money for the equipment of the new school-house when it comes, and we are determined that if personal effort on our part together with much prayer here and in America can give us the school, that another year will see the Central Girls' School underneath its own roof.

ZENANA WORK AND DAY SCHOOLS

Report

By Miss Clara M. Beach

Missionary—Miss Clara M. Beach.
European Assistants—3.
Zenana Workers—6.
Day Schools—9.
Sunday School Pupils—Highest Attendance—348; Average Attendance—235.

The great concern at the time of last year’s report was for a consecrated zenana worker and this need has been met. Now Mohammedan doors are opening to us and in spite of the cries ringing everywhere of non-cooperation, strikes, and revolution, we have all we can do in giving the gospel, while we find women’s hearts everywhere are eager for the message we have to give. The Beacon method of primary teaching has been introduced in one of our city schools with most encouraging results and we are about to put it into a second school, hoping the time may soon come when we shall be able to give it to all of our nine schools. The teachers of these day schools are women whose husbands are bread-winners, else they could not work for such small stipends as we can give. They are loyal, hard-working, and truly give of their very best to the little non-Christian children who come. In school and zenana work the number of pupils remains about as last year, but we have decided numerical gain in the Sunday School pupils. The one place where the Non-cooperation movement has really affected our work is in the selling of Scripture portions in the street. Here both missionaries and workers have met with hindrance and even with persecution. For this reason, though great efforts have been put forth, the workers in this department have sold only about 1,000 portions this year. Miss Webb and her helpers have also succeeded against strong odds in selling Scripture portions.

THE MARY A. MERRIMAN SCHOOL

Report

By Miss Frances Webb

Missionary—Miss Frances Webb.

Pupils—173.

Our figures show the school enrollment to be somewhat smaller than last year, the present number being 173. The reason for this is that while the number of Hindu and Mohammedan children is as large as before, we have felt that wherever possible the denominational missions should make provision for their own little ones, and have not taken in children of Christians where other provision could be made for them. Our Merriman School children are those for whom literally nothing has been prepared. We have an unusually good staff of Indian teachers, women who are consecrated, and who are giving of their best in the school. We were glad to hear from a missionary who had charge of a summer camp for Indian workers, where some of our young Cawnpore teachers took their holiday, that the influence of our Merriman School teachers was decided and strong, and meant a great deal to the spiritual life of the camp. Some girls in the school have been baptized.

During my two years absence in America, many changes took place in Jhansi. There was no resident physician, and for a part of the time it was difficult to obtain outside professional help for the hospitals, so that many of the former patients fell away, particularly the Parsees. They are an interesting group who had begun to give their patronage to the Hospital, but now some are again returning and it is hoped that all may come back, and that the door of opportunity to make Christ known among Parsees and other non-Christians can be entered. The Hospital has unlimited opportunities, and with the coming of a second doctor more can be done, both in the wards and dispensary and in responding to calls in Indian homes.

NURSES' TRAINING SCHOOL

REPORT

By Miss Ella C. Morrison

Graduate Nurses—5
Pupil Nurses—8.
Probationers—3.

During the year three graduates and one pupil nurse have left. In the first and second year examinations and in the midwifery examination taken by graduates, all our candidates passed successfully. The midwifery work in India is most important; Mrs. Ree continues to give this training and the nurses find practice in the Hospital. We wish our staff were large enough to allow them to have more practice in outside homes, but this may come. We have been pleased to see the increased spirit of giving among these young Christian nurses. Hearing in December of the famine conditions in South India they responded by giving from their own slender allowances, and that same week when a patient's relative presented money for a Christmas treat of sweets for the nurses' home, they begged that they might do without the sweets and the money might be placed in a famine or charity fund. They were able to contribute this money, together with other money that had been designed as a means of some pleasure for themselves, to China famine relief. When left alone last summer with only the medical assistant and Mrs. Ree, they all carried on faithfully in spite of the great heat;
the older ones assuming extra duties and responsibilities beyond those required of them, and even through the unusually trying and exhausting days, they worked cheerfully without one murmur or complaint. We do give thanks for these indications of growth in our nurses and ask your prayers that these girls may continue to be more and more a blessing among their own people, showing by daily example all that the love of Christ in the heart can do.

SOCIAL AND EVANGELISTIC WORK
Report
By Miss Elizabeth J. McCunn

The numbers in the day school have not increased but the teaching has improved. One teacher whose domestic duties interfered with her work was given work more suited to her circumstances, and her place was filled by an Indian worker who is enthusiastic in what she does, and who has been much benefited by a few weeks of attendance at a teachers' training class in Cawnpore this year.

Each week our Bible Woman teaches 18 Hindu, 23 Mohammedan and one Christian woman, while I myself have visited as often as possible a number of homes not reached by her. I have also spent more time than formerly at the village of Hansari. We can hardly as yet call the collection of children there a school, yet a number are learning to read and there are about 50 who attend Sunday School regularly. The total average attendance in our five Sunday Schools has been 200. Since our last report was written God has taken to Himself our blind Bhinda, who was such a faithful witness, distributing Gospels at the Hospital gate.

On one occasion only has our message been openly rejected. When selling Gospels at the annual fair at the Fort a man purchased one and then slowly and deliberately set a match to it. But even those whom he expected to join in his cry, "Victory to Gandhi," scoffed at him and our sales went on unhindered. Trusting in God we sow the seed; His word must prevail.

THE LILY LYTLE BROADWELL HOSPITAL

Report

By Miss Tena McLean

Missionaries—Dr. Mina MacKenzie (on furlough), Miss Tena McLean, Superintendent of Nurses.

Indian Christian Helpers—Medical assistant, 7 nurses, compounder, 11 months, matron.

In-patients : 600
Days attendance of in-patients : 7,970
Dispensary attendance : 6,762
New patients in dispensary : 5,441
Visits to homes : 162

Money received in India:
Donations from foreign and Indian friends : 180–8–0
From ward patients : 338–2–0
From office patients : 106–0–0
From Memorial dispensary : 317–0–0
From out-practice : 590–0–0
For sale of cattle : 48–4–0

Total : 1579–14–0

The Hospital was kept open throughout the year; even during the hot season, which was an unusually long and trying one, the entire staff was kept in health. After Dr. MacKenzie left us in February, as we looked at the task in front of us, it seemed almost more than we could undertake, but believing that we were in the place of God's choosing, we realized that it was only another opportunity of proving His sufficiency. He was true to His promise and did not fail us, and what would otherwise have proved difficult was changed to a real delight. For a time the number of non-Christian patients decreased, but at the same time the number of Christians increased, so there was no falling off in our numbers. I was a little troubled at losing the non-Christians until Miss Todd thus gently chided me, "Do not the poor Christians need help?" Now, however, we have the usual number of non-Christians as well, and they show a spirit of appreciation and gratitude for what is being done for them.

The dispensary attendance has had no decrease in numbers. The surgical side of the work suffered most seriously, there having been very little major surgery possible since Dr. MacKenzie left. We might, however, classify very difficult confinement cases under the surgical head, and in her obstetrical work, Miss Crewe, our medical assistant, is very efficient. She is also good in her minor surgery and medical work. The civil surgeon, an Indian Christian, has been very kind and always ready to come to our help in times of need. With the exception of some bad tubercular and infectious cases, we did not have to turn away any medical cases that came to us, and were also able to respond to out-calls except in cases of such great distance from the Hospital that it could not be left.

Our Bible Woman and Matron, Mrs. Luke, has been a great help to us, not only in relieving us of many details of the work, but in doing the work of a Bible Woman in dispensary and hospital wards. The missionary, together with the nurses, conducts evening prayers, but Mrs. Luke takes prayers daily with the non-Christians in the hospital. The attention with which the patients listen to the messages and their eagerness to learn our hymns are both encouraging.

In our Nurses' Training School we now have six nurses in training and one graduate, from our Jhansi Hospital. She has had a course in obstetrics since her graduation from the Jhansi School and is quite efficient. She acts as head nurse in the hospital, does the compounding, and spends as much time as she can in the dispensary. Four of our first year nurses took their examinations in October, although none of them had been in the hospital a year. Olive had been with us ten months, another eight, another seven, and another but six, yet all passed well in their practical work.
Fatehpur

The result of their written work has not yet been received, but judging from their papers I feel sure they have done well.

On Sundays I have held Sunday School with the nurses and Christian patients, always closing with a time of prayer, when all can take part and these have proved to be times of real blessing. Many a prayer has gone up showing how God’s Word has touched their hearts and moved them to greater desire for a work of deeper grace in their lives. Our nurses also attend church services on Sunday and Wednesday evenings, and all are members of the church missionary society in Fatehpur. Their daily work begins with a half hour of prayer and Bible study in the hospital office. This is attended not only by our nurses and helpers but by Christian patients, who are well enough to be up and about.

We go forth into another year trusting that at its close, if our Lord tarries, He may see in us, and in those working with us, more of the travail of His soul, and be satisfied.

THE WOMAN’S HOME

Report

By Miss Amelia J. Durrant

"O magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together": this verse expresses the feelings of praise and thanksgiving in my heart for all God’s goodness manifested during the past year. It has been full of testings and trials, but through all God has been working to bring souls to Himself.

I was taken ill twice, the first time with double pneumonia, and late in the season with another severe illness, but God had mercy on me. The great testing was the sudden and unexpected home-going of Miss Todd. It was then that our Lord spoke to my heart, and said: "They need not go away; give ye them to eat."

During my second illness, when Miss Moore was still at her language study in the hills, the work was left without a head, yet God wonderfully undertook for our family and helped teachers and matron to control the girls and carry on the work.
The year began with a family of 70 in Home and schools and during the year 116 different individual cases have come under our care. Sixty-five have passed out of the Home; there has been one death, a very old woman who came in with her grand-daughter; one baby girl born; one baptism and several have joined the church. Of those who have gone out from us some have returned to relatives; some after receiving help from us have been able to pass on to schools or to other homes; some have gone out to work; some have married, and some have returned to their husbands. One is in a sanatorium for tubercular victims. I will tell of two or three individuals, as illustrating our problems, and the triumphs of His grace.

One girl when sent to us had a very naughty character, lied, stole, deceived and was quarrelsome. We gradually saw that God was working in her; she changed from all that to become one of our best and most reliable girls. I was really sorry when the time came that seemed suitable for her to marry and leave us. In answer to our prayer a suitable man came forward, a preacher; we felt she was just the one for him as she not only knew her Bible but could teach it, and was also able to sing Indian hymns and bha-jans. They were happily married, but there was much weeping in our family when she went away and to this day, one of the little ones keeps asking when she is coming back, for all love her. We hear that she has started a Sunday School and teaches the village women in her own neighborhood of Christ.

Another girl who, after the death of her husband, had fallen into grievous sin, was sent to us to be tested before being allowed to go out into service again. She wanted to go into Christian work; through the death of her two daughters she had repented and said she wished to live a good life. She proved to be a difficult woman, but after six months stay, we felt she should be given another trial in work, so I was able to obtain through prayer a position for her. She is now doing matron's and zenana work. It has meant much to God's kingdom to have this woman rescued. M———, who left us this year, was called to help a missionary care for a school for small children. We were sorry to lose this girl as she had become useful and faithful. Since she has gone we have heard from the missionary, who is full of gratitude for the training that has made this girl a real comfort and help to her.

Another, F———, who came here with a cloud of suspicion on her character, left to be married and is now doing dispensary work with a Christian mission. The missionary sends back thanks for the training given her. D——— was a most difficult girl to provide for, but a Christian Indian lady received her and her baby boy into her home where she acts as companion and helper. This year a number of non-Christians have come to us so steeped in heathenism and ignorance that it seemed impossible to enlighten them, but God has been working and some of these are now asking for baptism.

So His work goes forward, and I close as I began, with praise to God, who is the same, yesterday, today, and forever, and who, though He has received Miss Todd to Himself, is able to carry on the work of this Home as He has in the past. It is for us to be His channels, by helping with money, prayer and service.
CHINA—SHANGHAI
BRIDGMAN MEMORIAL SCHOOL

Work Opened 1881

Report

By Miss Ruby E. Higgins

Missionaries—Miss Ruth C. Savage, Miss Ruby E. Higgins, Miss Henrietta McKeen.

Chinese Teachers—13.

Students—Day Pupils, 99; Boarders, 68; Total, 167.

The year 1921 at Bridgman School was one filled with interesting difficulties and, we hope, a degree of success in our Lord's work. The difficulties arose chiefly because we three American teachers had had but little chance to study the Chinese language and had been in Bridgman School barely one year.

Fortunately we were aided by an unusually fine staff of Chinese teachers, who cooperated in every way. One had just graduated from Ginling College and her education in foreign ways of thinking proved very valuable.

The organization of the religious work of the school received first attention; the Y. W. C. A. holds a very important place in it. The students have had a chance to do practical work, teaching in three Sunday Schools: one at the Margaret Williamson Hospital, another at the home of Mrs. Dzau a former student, and last but not least here in our own Primary Sunday School. A weekly prayer meeting for teachers was instituted, and special training classes were organized at different periods for those who contemplated joining the church.

Our school session had hardly begun when the Chinese teacher of the Kindergarten and the first grade became seriously ill. The other teachers and the Christian students gathered in groups for special prayer, but the Father coveted her for His own, and in less than a month's time called her Home. The whole school mourned.
for they loved her. The mourning was quiet and restrained, in utter contrast to the Chinese custom of wild wailing, showing that the blessed fact of Christian hope had penetrated many hearts not yet confessed Christian.

In November Miss Ruth Paxon and Miss Edith Davis held classes to train the Christian girls in "soul-winning." Although these were not so-called revival meetings, two girls and one teacher were led to give their hearts to Christ.

The actual number (6) of those who joined the church during the year was small. But in several cases, girls who had made their decision and were showing by their daily lives that they were really His, were forbidden by their parents to take the final step. We can only hope and pray that the parents may be brought to see the light.

In the winter we were filled with horror at the reports from the famine district in North China. The whole school became very busy making new garments, collecting old ones, and raising money. The result was that we had 11 padded garments, 10 bundles of partly worn garments and new cloth, and $100 in money to send to the sufferers.

Not only a national, but an international consciousness is developing in the students of China. This was shown by our student body in their response to the appeal of the European students for help. For this purpose they contributed what was known as "the World's Penny" to the National Y. W. C. A., not a large sum, but a real sacrifice in view of China's own famine-crisis at that time.

In April Miss Savage was taken ill and ordered to Nanking for a month's rest. Fortunately Mrs. Davis, of the Seventh Day Baptist Mission, was able to take some of her classes, and Miss McKeen and Miss Higgins took over the executive work and other classes.

In April also news came to us from Chengtu of the death of Mrs. Oscar Starrett—our beloved Anne Hall—who had worked with and inspired us for eight years. The loss is very great but her spirit lives on in this school.

In May the students of piano gave their first piano recital in the school. It was a fine beginning. The educational and spiritual value of music was shown to America during the war, but it has not come into its own in China. And we are trying to make it a vital factor in our school.

Graduation took place on the 24th of June. Eleven pupils were graduated from the Primary fourth year, six from the Intermediate, and two special certificates were granted to two of the older pupils who had completed three years of High School work.

Before separating for the summer vacation seven of the Christian girls met to make plans for Daily Vacation Bible Schools, inspired by Dr. Boville and with Miss Savage's hearty cooperation. They decided to open four schools three hours a day for six weeks: one at Woosung, another at Quinsan, a third in the Chinese city in Shanghai, and the fourth here at Bridgman School—the first daily Vacation Bible School ever held here. A total average of 80 children, from 6-13 years of age were taught every day. The results of these schools can never be estimated in figures. Judging by the strengthening and deepening of the lives of the little pupil-teachers, we may be sure that the children benefited in like proportion. One little boy was inspired to study further, and actually earned three of the six dollars necessary to come here to Bridgman School. Three dollars is not easy to earn if one is a very little boy and lives in China!

Immediately after the close of school, two of the Chinese teachers and nine of the students went with me to attend the Y. W C. A. conference held on the beautiful campus of the Shanghai College at Yangtszeepoo. Ten days of beauty and inspiration were spent there, the results of which will show chiefly in the spiritual life of the school next year.

In the summer Miss Savage married Mr. Gardner Tewksbury of the Presbyterian Mission. We, as a mission, were very sorry to lose her for our work, but we could not but be happy in her new joy and in this opportunity to show the Chinese what a real Christian home can mean.

A little later, one of our fourth year Primary teachers was married in the Van Santvoord Chapel to a Christian business man, and we rejoiced again at the setting up of another Christian home. In September we welcomed Miss Amy Holway and Miss Muriel Wood to the staff of Bridgman School. Miss Holway has returned to us after an absence of two years in America, during which time she has been fitting herself for special work.

The climax of the year came when we received a cablegram from the Board in New York authorizing us to erect a new Primary Building so greatly needed. This was the answer to many prayers both in America and here on the field. The increase of our work will mean added blessing to many Chinese children and added glory to His Kingdom.

THE MARGARET WILLIAMSON HOSPITAL

Work Opened 1884

Report

Our Representatives—Dr. Clara B. Whitmore, Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock.

This department of our work in Shanghai, the Margaret Williamson Hospital, has become a thoroughly union work, the Woman's Missionary Council of the Southern Methodist Foreign Board and the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society having at present physicians and trained nurses working in the Margaret Williamson Hospital. Dr. Clara B. Whitmore and Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock are our representatives.

Miss Hood, Superintendent of the Union Nurses' Training School, writes: "The School opened with 23 pupil nurses, 16 registering for the three years' course. The School has been registered under the 'Nurses' Association of China.' Applications have been received from all parts of China, but many had to be refused on account of lack of accommodations. Miss Hood says that our great need is for a Nurses' Home. We feel that the outlook is very bright for a first-class Union Nurses' Training School."
Dr. Harriet Love, head of staff at the Margaret Williamson Hospital, in her report for the first five months, tells of the needed repairs and preparations for the enlarged work which they have been obliged to make. They are providing each bed in the Maternity with a separate baby bed; "Fifteen babies are already enjoying their exclusiveness and the remaining ones are jealous."

The Hospital evangelistic work was under the direction of Miss Mary J. Irvine until she went on furlough. Since then, Miss Elizabeth Irvine, in addition to her Bible School work, and Bible classes at the Nurses' Training School, has had the oversight of the Bible Woman's work in the Hospital. These Bible Women are faithful and are seen daily teaching and talking to patients in clinic and hospital. The foreign and Chinese workers take turns in leading the morning chapel prayers. Twice a month the foreign and Chinese staff meet with the Bible Women for reports of the evangelistic work in the Hospital, and in the follow-up work in the homes, and for prayer together. We bespeak the prayers of the friends at home that this institution may be a spiritual power-house, a soul-winning station, and that all the workers may be united in this one aim.

The usual activities of this branch of the work have been carried on throughout the year; the direct preaching of the Word in the hospital by the bedside and in the dispensary, with the follow-up work in the homes of interested patients. The regular visiting of inquirers and church members is an important part of our ministry, to conserve results towards a self-propagating church in China. Much instruction is necessary after the first step has been taken, that the Word so gladly received may take root, and become a power in the transformation of lives. The demands made upon the Bible Women's time is varied, and pathetic indeed are the stories of broken hearts, often poured into their ears, of wayward sons and opium smoking husbands, with the sad refrain, "and we have no one to whom we may tell it all out." How helpless would these workers be were they not prepared to lead these weary and sin-laden ones to Him who has called such to come unto Him and find rest.

Country trips to out-of-the-way places, to keep in touch with isolated Christians were made during the early part of the year, but later had to be given up, owing to the return of Miss Mary J. Irvine to the homeland on a short furlough. Her return is eagerly looked for as this part of the work must be left undone until her return. We have to regret the loss of a valued worker, who spent eight years with us.

Twenty-one persons united with the church on profession of faith, and quite a number of inquirers are receiving regular instruction. In each of the branches of the mission there are those who are genuinely interested in the gospel, but for various reasons are kept back from receiving baptism, because of conditions existing in their homes.

A Missionary Society, consisting of church members and those interested, has been organized to work for the Yunnan Home Missionary Society. About 30 members have been registered who contribute regularly, and contributions have been forwarded during the year. Two appeals for famine relief were responded to by liberal contributions from the congregation of the Alfred Van Santvoord Memorial Chapel. Appeals, too, come to us for help for local institutions, such as a school for the blind and orphanages.

The large amount of literature distributed in the work carries a message into places far removed from the ordinary routes of travel of the evangelist or Bible Women. Echoes come to us occasionally of those who have received their first light of the gospel from reading the printed page. We are much in need of funds for this important branch of the work. "Cast your bread upon the waters and ye shall find it after many days."

In summing up the work of the year no statistical report can represent the far-reaching influence of the work, which extends to the remotest corners of the eighteen provinces, to which some of our church members have gone, and to fill positions of responsibility.

Goodness and mercy have followed us during the year, and we ascribe all praise to our Heavenly Father who has watched over us and kept us in peace.

BIBLE SCHOOL

In the Bible School which, during my sister's absence on furlough, was under my care, our experiences during the year have been varied. Some have brought us pain, others have strengthened our faith in our Heavenly Father, whose care is ever over His children to supply their need, through new avenues, because of the faithful band at the home base, who meet together to pray. We thank Him for the new touches of His grace, in bringing to us just the necessary gifts to help us in the work.

On my return to take up the work after ten months in the homeland, many changes had taken place. We are enabled to face the ever present difficulties of our situation, because of the abiding character of our work, and our trust in God who changeth not. Where God works none can hinder. We have seen the grace of God singularly manifested in the lives of some of the pupils this year. Our hearts, too, have rejoiced in the fidelity of the workers who are entering into the joy of soul winning.

We come into very vital relationship with the social conditions from which our women come, and we ask ourselves again and again, "Who is sufficient for these things?" The conviction is forced upon us anew, that a regeneration of Chinese society and of the home can only come about as Christ is known and worshipped.

Eighteen pupils have been in attendance during the year, each individual with her own peculiar problem to be met. The class work has been excellent, and good progress has been made. All grades of society are represented.

The pupils have assisted the Bible Women in conducting a Sunday School on the Matilda Douw Foundation as part of their training. Some have done preaching in the dispensary of the Margaret Williamson Hospital, always accompanying an experienced worker, and one did substitute work during vacation.

The days are very full, and one's strength too limited to do all that we are called upon to do. That "there is a wide and effectual door opened unto us, and there are many adversaries," is as true as when uttered by Paul two thousand years ago.

With the search light of God's Word in our hands, and in the assurance of the power of the Risen Christ we go forth, as we enter upon a new year, to conquer in His Name.

By Miss Mary E. Tracy

Missionaries—Miss Mary E. Tracy, Superintendent; Miss Clara D. Loomis, Principal; Miss Claire Chapman (from Sept., 1921); Miss Margaret Rogers (from Sept., 1921).

Assistant Teachers—Miss Nellie Winther (from Sept., 1920-April, 1921); Mrs. Schnare (from April-July, 1921).

Japanese Teachers—7 (giving full time). 6 (giving part time).

Number of pupils—215.

Baptisms—6.

When we consider the blessings of the past year we can surely thank God and take courage. With the help of our many friends we have been able to raise the money for enlarging the school building and had the enlarged chapel, three new class rooms and a gymnasium ready for the opening of the fall term. We have a beautiful new piano for the chapel, given in memory of Mrs. Henry Loomis, who for forty-eight years was a warm friend of the school. Furthermore, we now have on our staff Miss Claire Chapman, who for a number of years has served as recording secretary of the Board in New York, and Miss Margaret Rogers, both of whom by their enthusiastic devotion to the work are proving invaluable.

There have been a number of changes in the Japanese teaching staff, and we grieve for the loss of Mr. Khono, and two of our graduates, who have accepted calls elsewhere. After a great deal of difficulty we were able to fill their places. A graduate of the class of 1920 returned in the spring after taking a course of physical training at the Y. W C. A. in Tokyo, and is now doing good work with her classes in Bible, physiology, and calis-thenics. In spite of opposition at home she united with the Presbyterian church early in June.

In April we took in sixty-five new girls, and were obliged to turn away some who wished to enter. Among those entering were four Koreans. Our girls seem to have grown steadily in both their mental and spiritual life. The members of the three upper classes attended a Healing Mission held by Mr. J. M. Hickson at Christ Church early in October, and all who attended were impressed by the spirit of reverence and the wonderful spiritual powers that were manifested at these meetings.

The school Y W C. A. has had weekly meetings, while Miss Tracy and one of the Japanese have carried on an interesting work with the girls who are not yet eligible to membership. The last Tree Day exercises were held November 3, 1920, it being decided then to discontinue the observance of Tree Day as the grounds were well supplied with trees. For Thanksgiving the cause of the famine sufferers in China was presented by Miss Loomis, who had just returned from a trip to Peking, and seventy yen were contributed and sent to Miss Wood of the London Mission for distribution. A bazaar, held in November, made new friends for the school, and brought in 1,342 yen for the building fund; and nearly the same amount was realized from two concerts given in the spring, one being given by our music teacher, Mrs. Matsubara (Shio Tanaka). The teachers, students, and graduates have contributed most generously. An open meeting of the Literary Society was held in February and served to show parents the work which the school is trying to do. Rev. Mr. Tajima of Tokyo held a series of meetings at the school early in March. Easter Sunday the last four of our twenty Seniors received baptism. Commencement exercises were held the end of March.

May 22nd, a Communion service to which our graduates in Yokohama were invited, was held, and the following day work was begun to tear down one side of the old chapel and to reconstruct foundations for the gymnasium. Our opening exercises, until school closed for the summer in July were held either on the lawn or in two divisions, one in the science room and one in the big Japanese sewing room. The neighborhood Sunday School was kept up through the hot weather and eight of the older girls carried on work in five Daily Vacation Bible Schools. Thirteen of the girls received Bibles or Hymnbooks for memory work. Seven attended the Y W C. A. Conference at Gotemba.

Fresh hope and courage have come with the opening of the new term and the arrival of Miss Chapman and Miss Rogers at Doremus School, and Mrs. Lynn at the Bible School. Plans are nearly completed, and nearly 1,000 invitations have been sent out for the Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the Mission. A Pageant written for the occasion by Miss Chapman and Mrs. Bronson will be given. As we look back over the past years and realize what has been done in fifty years for the women of Japan, we trust that He, Who has led us hitherto, will still be our guide until the nations of the world are united under one banner—the banner of Jesus Christ.

The Sixtieth Anniversary of our Society, the Fiftieth Anniversary of our Japan Mission, and the coming of our three new workers have made the year 1921 a memorable one.
We welcome Mrs. Hazel B. Lynn with great thankfulness, feeling that she has been specially prepared for the work. At present she is studying the language, and helping us with the music. Mr. Akaboshi, who has given faithful service for eighteen years, has been obliged to resign, but we have been able to engage the Rev. T Miniata, a pastor and translator, for part time, and also the Rev. Y. Sasakura, pastor of the oldest church in Yokohama. Mrs. Miyo Suzuki, for eight years an evangelist in Kasukabe, and for four years matron in the school, was called to higher service in June, and Miss Hasegawa has come to help us in her place. The impressive funeral service for Mrs. Suzuki was held in Pierson Chapel, and there were many who bore tribute to her life and character. Miss Machu, a graduate of the School, has returned to help in Sunday School and general evangelistic work, because, as the work grows, there is need of another evangelist.

The new Catalogues of the School were printed in February. In order to meet the need of those who are not able to remain for the full course of three years we have planned a Sunday School and Personal Worker's Course to cover two years. The Faculty meetings have been held regularly, and the spirit of union and helpfulness have been marked. The students have held class prayer meetings and frequent temperance and missionary meetings, besides the Literary Society once a month.

Our Christmas exercises were held in a number of places where Sunday School work is carried on. On Christmas Day the children from nine schools came to the Bible School for union services. The collection, amounting to nearly five dollars, was sent to the China famine sufferers. As usual, Christmas gifts were sent to the Orphanage in the North carried on by two graduates of the Training School. In May a concert was given under the auspices of the school, a leading musician of Yokohama taking full charge of the program. The concert was held in Memorial Hall, and the proceeds were used for Sunday School work.

In order to have a closer connection with the Church of Christ in Japan, the Bible School has asked for formal recognition from this body. We have felt for many years that it would be of real benefit to the school, and especially to the graduates in Christian work, could such recognition be received. Miss Pratt and Miss Kido attended the meetings of this body at Kobe.

Commencement was held in June, and seven young women graduated. Later, they were sent out to work; one as a teacher in a Deaf-Oral School, two to our preaching places, three to help missionaries in Tokyo and the country, and one who married a Japanese in Seattle, to do Christian work among the Japanese women of that city. A number of the workers were with us for Commencement Week to attend conferences. On Sunday, just before the sermon and Communion Service, Hana Hashmioto, from the D. M. Stearns’ Chapel in Iwamoto was baptized. Later on, she entered the school as a regular student.

During the summer part of the regular Yokohama work was kept up, and six Vacation Bible Schools were carried on for a month. Two of these were held in the country, and four in Yokohama; two of these latter were held in churches, one in the Bible Training School, and one in a large Buddhist Orphanage. This year boys were in the majority. Much satisfaction with the work was expressed by parents, teachers, and by the children themselves. A small amount of money was raised and sent to New York to help carry on the Bible School work.

The evangelistic work of the students has been kept up during the year. Much interest has been shown by the Nurses’ Class in house-to-house visitation, in the several Bible classes, and in the Woman’s Meetings.

COUNTRY WORK

The preaching places have been visited regularly by both the teachers of the school and by the pastors, and we feel that there are great possibilities for work everywhere. The workers have carried on house-to-house visitation and have held Bible Classes and Sunday Schools in each Chapel and nearby village. The Christians in Tsurumi are helping in the work which is directed twice a week by an earnest pastor. We believe we are getting into the homes of the people; new work is being opened. A conference for the deepening of spiritual life was held in our Chapel in Kasukake during the summer. This was attended by 118 people; several gave their hearts to Christ, while a number of Christians were inspired to greater service. In Kuki and Iwamoto very successful Daily Vacation Bible Schools were held and these served as an introduction into new homes. The Christmas services were very impressive, attended by crowds of non-Christians; real evangelistic work was done at this time.

We have been able to organize our Country Work this past year. Three earnest pastors, greatly interested in evangelistic work, have promised to serve on an Advisory Committee, and Miss Kido is to be released from school duties in order to give more time to the country stations. We have been very grateful for the prayers of God’s people during the year, and would ask specially for further interest. Will you pray that a larger number of young people may give themselves to God for His work? “The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few.”
THE HOME BASE

In spite of changes, and of acute political and social unrest in the mission fields, our work has been prospered; and, as the missionaries' reports show, while problems and difficulties are not lacking, their efforts have been blessed with success. But at home and on the field we have had losses which have been heavy and hard to bear. Strong, faithful workers have left us for larger service in the Heavenly home: Miss Ellen Todd, from Fâtehpur; Mrs. Anne Hall Starrett, from China; and Mrs. Justin E. Abbott, for many years a devoted member of our Board.

At the close of this year we are glad to have a word of greeting from our only living charter member, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, who was one of the six to sign the Articles of Incorporation.

There have been some changes in the personnel on the field. Dr. MacKenzie, of Fâtehpur, and Miss Bertsch, of Allahabad, are in this country on furlough, also Dr. Whitmore, of the Margaret Williamson Hospital, Shanghai, and Miss Loomis, of Doremus School, Yokohama. Miss Ruth Savage, of Bridgman School, Shanghai, resigned and was married in July; Miss Mary J. Irvine returned from a short furlough in America, arriving in Shanghai in November. In October, Mrs. Frederick S. Bronson sailed, expecting to be gone about a year, visiting our stations in India, China, and Japan.

We are grateful that we have been permitted to send reinforcements to our over-burdened missionaries; to Japan, Miss Claire Chapman, and Miss Margaret Rogers, for Doremus School; Mrs. Hazel B. Lynn for the Bible School in Yokohama; to China, Miss Amy Holway and Miss Muriel Wood, for Bridgman School, Shanghai; to India, Dr. Minthorn, for the Lily Lytle Broadwell Hospital, Fâtehpur; Dr. McEwen, for the Ackerman-Hoyt Hospitals, Jhansi; and Miss Edith May, and Miss Margaret Haines, for the Woman's Home, Fâtehpur.

One year ago we met, as a Society, to look back over sixty years of service and blessing; and to look forward with humility, and with expectation, to another year of work in the Master's vineyard. We stood at the threshold of a new decade, not knowing what the months and the year would bring. They have brought to us sorrow and joy, loss and gain, hopes fulfilled, and "the patience of unanswered prayer"; in all these varied experiences we have had the assurance of our Father's unfailing guidance and care. So we go forward into another year, trusting that He who has guided us in the past will continue to direct and bless us in the days that are ahead.

THE PHILADELPHIA BRANCH

OF THE

Woman's Union Missionary Society

of America

Was Organized in Philadelphia, May 20, 1861

THE PHILADELPHIA BRANCH was incorporated by the Court of Common Pleas of the City of Philadelphia, March 10, 1869. It was empowered to take and hold real and personal estate to the yearly value of five thousand dollars.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to the "Philadelphia Branch" of the Woman's Union Missionary Society of America, the sum of to be applied to the Missionary purposes of said Society.

"Deeds, not words," would be a good, practical motto for a Beneficent Society, but once a year it is but right to give an account to those interested in our work who cannot attend our monthly or perhaps even our annual meetings.

In mid-year passed away one who for many years had labored to the very limit of her endurance—Miss Ellen H. Todd, of Fâtehpur, India. The two months' rest in the mountains, passing from a temperature of 115° to 68°, had not sufficed to re-invigorate the worn-out body, and shortly after her return her release came so suddenly that it was like a translation.

Miss Wishart, of Allahabad, praising others, not herself, describes her Eurasian assistant, Miss Roderick, as taking a vacation after about twelve years' service, and spending it at an Art School in Bombay, that she might be the better able to teach her pupils upon her return.

Dr. Ernst, upon returning from America to her work at Jhansi, India, of course, found some difficulty in "picking up the thread," as the staff of the hospital had not been adequate during her absence. However, the hospital and dispensary were kept open during the year. Treatment was given to 375 patients in the wards, who put in a daily attendance in all of 6,170. In the Dispensary, 3,645 near patients were seen, and those gave a total attendance of 10,358. Visits to women in their homes, 136. Surgical operations, 744, including 19 major. About $1,600 in gold received. She writes: "If the Christian women doctors and nurses of America could realize the situation, I do not see how they could remain indifferent and not hasten to our help."

Miss Pratt writes encouragingly of the progress at Iwasi, Japan; and Miss Webb of the work at Cawnpore. We frequently hear good reports from the little girls supported by members of this Society.

We had the pleasure of welcoming to the homeland Miss Mary Irvine, and hearing personal incidents in connection with her evangelistic work in Shanghai. The Margaret Williamson Hospital is prospering financially, with active co-operation of Methodist, Baptist and Reformed Board committees in conjunction with our own Society. It is prospering also on the medical side, owing to the enlarged staff. We join earnestly in the prayers that the good work founded by our beloved Dr. Reifsnyder may prosper also in its main purpose—which is bringing Christ to the people.

Thus reviewing the work of the past and present, we give fervent, hearty thanks to Him who has enabled us to do even this much in forwarding His kingdom; and pray that through His strength and guidance we may be enabled to do still more in the years to come. As yet the harvest is great and the laborers few.
