THE ORPHANAGE
Report
By Miss Elizabeth J. McCunn

Missionaries—Miss A. M. Evans (on furlough 7 months); Miss E. J. McCunn (7 months).

Indian Teachers and Workers, 6; children, 78.

During the year we have received 19 children of whom six, who were tiny babies and were almost in a dying condition when brought to us, have died. We also lost by death a girl who came to us in 1910. She had confessed her Saviour in baptism last year and during her illness was a very patient sufferer.

Little Riju, mentioned in last year’s report as being “so sad” is no longer so, as a number of “Honoured and dear friends in America” have sent her gifts, cards and letters. Little “Delight of the Heart” is not yet living up to her name but she seems happier and a little less inclined to be naughty. We believe prayer is being answered for her and for one or two other particularly troublesome ones.
In the absence of the regular missionary we have not urged baptism for the older girls but we believe a few of them are ready for this step as they not only confess their love for Christ but are really seeking to please Him. A few have been baptized since the last report was written.

My lack of knowledge of Bengali has been a great drawback to the workers and to myself, but all have been patient with me and have been faithful in the Lord's service.

In the nursery we are overcrowded but God has been very gracious to us and we have had no serious illness there or in the school.

Dr. Minthorn kindly took four of our babies and one older girl to the Lily Lytle Broadwell Hospital in Fatehpur in the spring. Much love and care have been lavished upon them and they are reported much benefited. The older girl has returned looking and feeling much better for the change and we expect the little ones back soon. I can only praise God for His goodness to us all during the past months, and we again ask all who read this for earnest prayer, knowing that where there is prayer, every need will be supplied.

CITY AND VILLAGE SCHOOLS

Assistant Missionary—Mrs. Renton. Indian Teachers, 12.

Owing to the unusually heavy rains this year the work at Sonarpur and in the four Hindu day schools has been carried on with great difficulty. The city work has been almost entirely in Mrs. Renton's care, while Sushila, our headmistress in the Orphanage, has paid visits to Sonarpur whenever she could be spared.

Some of these children after leaving school write to their teachers asking for hymnals and books, so we trust that the good seed of the word sown in these little hearts is bearing fruit.

We greatly need donations of dolls and Sunday School cards for this branch of the work and most of all we covet prayer for the teachers and their little Hindu pupils, that many of these children may find in Him a true Saviour and Friend.

REPORT

By Miss Alice E. Wishart

Missionaries—Miss Powel, Miss Haines, Miss Wishart.

Assistant Missionaries—Miss Roderick, Miss Eda Roderick, Miss Pickard, Miss Ahmed Shah, Mrs. Carr.

Bible Readers—Mrs. Wybrow, Mrs. Dutt, Mrs. Emerson (retired).

“We are hard pressed, yet never in absolute distress; perplexed, yet never utterly baffled; pursued, yet never left unsuccored; struck to the ground, yet never slain,” is an epitome of our experience the past year.

Praise fills our hearts not only for what God has wrought in our midst but for what He has revealed of Himself in the doing of it. While our hearts are full of thanksgiving for the material blessings He has showered upon our station this year we are even more grateful for the manifest working of His spirit in lives and the making of old things new.

The mission compound has been in a state of upheaval the whole year, yet the work went on among our women and children in a spirit of peace and power. As the zenana workers went out of the gates to carry the gospel to hundreds of women imprisoned, through those same gates streamed in crowds of children daily to hear of a Saviour and to return to their zenana homes to tell the message in hymn and story. Thus the Glad Tidings have been spread.

No appreciable difference is noticeable in zenanas. Doors and hearts are open as wide as ever to the mission teachers and the demand for such far exceeds the supply. So far as we can judge the number of secret disciples increases, although the iron chains of Caste and Fear still bind those who would be free.
There are not a few houses where women are willing to have the Bible lesson alone, and especially if their time is limited they will gladly forego fancy-work or other things to read the Bible. One zenana pupil said to her teacher, "Come and teach me only the Bible. It is the Truth that I want." This same pupil is in the habit of telling the Bible stories which she reads with her teacher to her little children as bed-time stories at night.

It was a pleasure to our zenana pupils to meet Mrs. Bronson, when a Pardah Party was given in her honor last winter with nearly 100 present. She is remembered by them and they ask when she will return.

The special classes for English and Bible at the Mission House for Indian ladies were interrupted by the rains but were reopened in October and will continue this winter.

We are delighted to welcome Miss Haines as a member of our staff at the close of her first year of language study. In addition to further study of the languages she is taking her share in the different phases of the work in preparation for the responsibilities which will come to her when we leave for America in the spring. She shares also our hopes and prayers that this Mission Compound may be indeed a garden from which will flow "streams of living water" and which will bear fruit that will abide forever.

THE CENTRAL GIRLS' SCHOOL

Report

By Miss Lucy Powel

Staff—7 Teachers. Needs—2 Teachers.

"Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." These words of the Master are our watchword as we seek to fulfil His command through this Central Girls' School, the only school of its kind in this large city.
Working under extreme difficulties, such as the keen competition of non-Christian schools, the establishing of many new municipal schools, the inadequacy both of staff and school accommodation, we still press forward. We had at most throughout the late winter and spring only 125 on the roll and the average attendance was 80 daily except during several winter months when it went above the hundred mark.

Miss McReddie, the Inspectress of Schools, came for her yearly visit on the 12th of April. I quote a few of her remarks bearing on the scholastic standards of the school:

"The Principal has devoted much attention to the work of the little ones with the result that provision has been made for a suitable and necessary variety of work."

"In the case of the older girls also special efforts are made to widen their outlook as much as can be done during the short period of their school lives."

"I was much pleased with the clean and neat appearance of the girls."

While we want efficiency in our secular work, the important question to be answered is: "Is the Central Girls' School an evangelizing agency?" Let our pupils answer.

In reply to the question as to what the class would wish for most, one child said: "I would ask for the Holy Spirit in my life." This answer was given by a twelve-year-old child from a non-Christian home.

Another little girl one day brought a pice (small coin) from a friend, her playmate, because the friend wanted "a little Jesus book" too.

We hear that the first question often asked in the homes, on the return of the children from school is, "What new hymn or story did you learn about Jesus today?"

We see children when they enter the school in the morning put their books on their desks, fold their hands and offer a prayer before they go out to play.

On the first day after vacation I asked what children had prayed in Jesus' name during the holidays, and was surprised to learn that more than half of the school had done so of their own volition.

In spring one of our servants was stricken with the plague; we were ordered by the authorities to open the roofs of the servants’ quarters as rats were discovered there, and to take other precautions. Every servant was sent off the compound, the place was extensively fumigated, and finally we were ordered to tear the old buildings down. The Municipal physicians kept strict watch and we thank God that He worked mightily to destroy the insidious plague.

At the beginning of this trouble we closed school, and when we reopened it was in our own bungalow rooms and verandahs. Before leaving for our summer holiday we had the joy of seeing foundations laid for the new school building. By October third we were in three rooms and gradually occupying the whole building. During July and August we had an attendance of 30 to 40 children daily; during September the average went above 90, and every day new children are coming so that we now have an enrollment of over 150 and are still growing.

A school motor-bus, the gift of friends, will greatly help in the work during the coming year.

We have seven young teachers, girls who will some day be leaders in the Church in India, and your missionaries have one aim—to teach these girls their great responsibility. To this end we have in our morning and evening prayers with them begun a regular Bible training course, besides giving them a part in the missionary activities, that they may be trained for future leadership. Their practice work is in the Central Girls’ School. Not only do we wish to have the finest school that is possible, but also to make it a missionary training school for those in our midst.

Since Miss Beach left for America the city work has been entirely in the hands of Miss Harris and Miss Shaw. They have gone out faithfully day after day and we feel sure are keeping the work up to the best of their ability. They report conditions unchanged and are welcomed in as many homes as they can find time to visit. In fact many women desire teaching to whom our workers cannot go for lack of time.

MARY A. MERRIMAN SCHOOL

This has been a good year for us. We have had the usual number but a better grade of teachers, and in general they have been very faithful and have done excellent work. Every girl in the graduating class not only passed the Government examinations but had high marks. These girls were taught entirely by Indian teachers.

Our hearts have been gladdened because girls for whom we have long been praying and for whom the friends at home have prayed, have given their hearts to Jesus Christ, and we have seen a real change in their lives.

Many of our prayers have been answered. For years we have felt the need of two missionaries in the Mary A. Merriman School. We have tried to wait patiently until the Father's choice should be sent us. In March our hopes were realized and Miss Long came to us. She has been in the Language School all summer and is learning Hindustani rapidly. We feel that her earnest life, so wholly consecrated to her Lord, will be a great inspiration to all the girls. She already loves them and they return her affection many fold.

Still another good thing has come to us in the coming of Miss Moore. We needed a holiday but did not think it best to leave the school without a missionary in charge. Miss Moore kindly came to our relief and took charge while we were away in the hills.

(Note: Miss Moore remains with the Cawnpore Mission to assist with the city evangelistic work).

We are happy and are grateful for answered prayer for this work, and grateful to the members and friends of the Woman's Union Missionary Society who have thus helped us.

In reviewing the past year, while many things have been trying, there has been much cause for gratitude and thanksgiving. We were without an Indian medical assistant for nearly three months, but in the end of December, Mrs. Thomas, a widowed sister of Miss James, a former helper, came to us. Mrs. Thomas has been out of medical work during the fourteen years of her married life, and at first found it hard to adjust herself and get familiar with the newer methods of treatment, but she is now a reliable helper and her Christian influence is of the best. In January Dr. Annabel McEwen joined our work to our great joy and thankfulness. At the end of February Miss McCunn was transferred to our Calcutta Orphanage to enable Miss Evans to go on furlough, since which time her work has been divided among us.

We were much gratified to have Mrs. Bronson with us for the first part of her visit in India during which time our yearly Conference was held here. She brought cheer and inspiration to us and her sympathetic attitude towards the solution of our problems greatly lightened our burdens.

At the beginning of the year it looked for a time as though the unrest and the non-cooperation movement in India might seriously affect our work, but by comparing this year's statistics with those of last year it will be seen that there has been an increase in our ward and dispensary patients, also in the total money received locally. Opposition seems to be much less and we are hoping and planning for an extension of the work along various lines in the coming months.

Our midwifery work though not what we wish it to be shows an encouraging increase above that of any previous year. We have now four graduate nurses who have also completed their midwifery course and stand ready to be called to the homes in the city as well as to attend normal cases in our hospital. They are particularly keen on this branch of the work and in their free time go to the homes looking for patients. In the past two months they have thus visited more than 60 homes.

colder months and Sunday School was held there regularly. We intend to do the same this year, starting the middle of November.

Mrs. Martin, formerly Mrs. Stephens, who had done Bible Woman's work for some years, left our employment last June, her work not having been satisfactory since her second marriage. Miss Morrison took up the work of visiting the zenanas and found a hearty welcome from many of her old pupils. A new Bible Woman, Mrs. Jacob, will come to us at the beginning of next month.

Our Sunday Schools, five in number, have been kept open practically the whole year, with an average attendance of 200.

The Gospel message both by the written and spoken word has been given regularly in the hospitals and dispensaries, also in the homes visited, and the women gave an attentive hearing and many seemed particularly interested, and more teaching in the homes is asked for than we can give with our present staff.

The school in our hospital compound is doing well under Adeline's efficient management, aided by Reli, the wife of our Christian chaprasi (messenger).

We are thankful to God for His many mercies during the past year, for when burdens seemed heavier than we could carry, He either lightened or removed them or gave extra strength to carry on. To mention one instance—most of our buildings in the bungalow compound were in such a state of disrepair that they were not safe to live in during the rains. One contractor after another was tried only to find that he was a little worse than the one before him. Then suddenly a friend sent us an Anglo-Indian contractor and we think he knows his work thoroughly and will be honest. Thus a load has been lifted from our shoulders for which we thank God.

We wish to thank those in the homeland who are upholding us by their prayers and their gifts. May He guide and strengthen you and us the coming year to do still more to make known His love and wonderful salvation to those who "sit in darkness and the shadow of death."
NURSES' TRAINING SCHOOL
Report
By Miss Ella C. Morrison

Graduate Nurses—4
Pupil Nurses—10.
Probationers—2.

In October, 1921, three nurses took their third (final) year examinations, two their first year, and two of the graduates, their midwifery examinations. All passed and also three who took their second year examinations in March.

There have been changes during the year and the three who graduated in October have all left us. One of these we were especially sorry to lose as she was a good nurse and trustworthy girl and we had hoped to keep her on for further training in compounding and in giving anaesthetic; but she was needed so sorely at the school that sent her to us that we felt we must send her back, especially as that school has given us six more promising girls to train. Another of the three graduates is giving acceptable service in a mission hospital in Cawnpore. One pupil who had taken her first year examinations and seemed promising had to be dismissed on account of dishonesty.

We have been grateful that at a time when most mission hospitals have been finding it almost impossible to get pupil nurses we have been able to secure all we needed and have a larger number preparing for examinations in March than we have had at any one time before. They all seem to be fine, promising girls.

With the exception of malaria during the rains, and a few minor ailments, the health of the girls has been good and on the whole a good spirit has prevailed among them. Our graduate nurses, who have also graduated in the Midwifery course, on their visits to homes do evangelistic work and in each home they visit have at least singing and prayer. They also distribute literature.

The Christian Endeavor Society meets regularly each week and its various committees report at regular intervals. On Sunday mornings all nurses who are not on duty go out to near-by places for evangelistic work and in addition to the regular Sunday School work usually visit some of the homes. We covet for our girls a larger vision, a greater love for souls, and a closer walk with Jesus Christ, and for this we ask your continued prayers. We praise Him for all His goodness to us during the past year and for every opportunity for service which He has sent.

At the close of our hospital year we like to look back to see what God hath wrought, and what victories have been won, and our hearts are truly filled with love and gratitude at every remembrance of His love and faithfulness.

During November, December, January and February we felt some of the opposition of the Non-cooperators in the decreased attendance at both hospital and dispensary. We learned from the patients who did come that the Non-cooperationists were making a house-to-house visitation in the city, urging the people to have nothing to do with the foreign medicines. In March we had our usual numbers again and since then we have not been conscious of any spirit of non-cooperation. On the contrary the people have been most friendly. Even at the time of the greatest disaffection we were encouraged by the call of two men who came to ask if we could not arrange to send some one to their homes to teach their wives and daughters. (This represents a need we hope to be able to meet in the future.)

We were greatly privileged in having Mrs. Bronson in Fatehpur for Christmas week and the real interest which she took in our Indian people will not soon be forgotten by them.

Early in January our hearts were again rejoiced by the arrival of Dr. Minthorn whom we welcomed on the eleventh. The people in Fatehpur were just beginning to know her and she was having a number of out-calls as well as office patients when she became ill early in May. This severe illness, diphtheria, necessitated a change in our plans which had been to keep the Hospital open throughout the summer.

It seemed best at the reopening of the work to give up our former medical assistant but God wonderfully provided for us in sending Miss Janki Nath who came to us loaned by the American Presbyterian Mission and was able to be with us until Dr. Minthorn’s return.

The Dispensary was kept open throughout the year, Miss Janki Nath taking the responsibility. The months of August and September were busy ones as the Hospital was quite full a great part of the time.

We are greatly indebted to the Civil Surgeon and to Mrs. Jacobs of the Dufferin Hospital both of whom came to our assistance when we needed medical advice.

(Dictated by Dr. Minthorn): “The district work has had very little attention during the past year and cannot be carried on in a satisfactory manner until a second physician is stationed here. The report of the work at the Ann Murray Dispensary as conducted by J. Kim MacKenzie is given separately from our Hospital report.”
We have held three Sunday Schools throughout the year, one for the patients, one for nurses, and one for the servants, and we have much to encourage us in their response to the Gospel message. Special mention should be made of our servants who have manifested a helpful spirit toward us and a spirit of harmony among themselves which we feel that nothing but the power of the Word of God could bring about.

Mrs. Luke in addition to her work as Matron has done the work of a Bible Woman in the dispensary and hospital wards.

"God is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think," is a promise we have claimed definitely for our Training School this year, and He has not disappointed us.

We have at present in the Training School one graduate and six pupil nurses, one probationer and two ward helpers. Olive Massey, the nurse who had been doing our compounding, left us to take a regular compounding's training; two others have left us and have been married; one graduate nurse, Miss Chapman, was married in June to our Kindar and both seem happy. Five new ones have come to us this summer of whom one is a graduate, the other four pupil nurses. We have also been able to fill a long-felt want in securing two ward helpers, both Christian girls and helpful in many ways.

The spirit among the nurses is good and their helpfulness is a real joy to us. We do not, however, forget that they are young and need much careful teaching in spiritual things as well as in their work as nurses. We so desire for them a real vision of the One who came "not to be ministered unto but to minister," that He may be the inspiration for all their service.

Morning prayer and Bible study with the nurses has been a time of mutual helpfulness and the girls respond to the teaching of God's Word and show its results in their lives. An increasing interest is shown in their study of the Sunday School lessons.

As we look back over the year we see there have been some disappointments but the blessings have far outnumbered them.

THE WOMAN'S HOME

Report

By Miss Amelia H. Durrant

These three words, "God is Faithful" (I Cor. 1:9) are what come to me as I seek to tell a little about the work in the Woman's Home during the past year.

We all were greatly cheered and helped by a visit from Mrs. F. S. Bronson who came to us just at Christmas and helped in all that was going on at that time, much to the joy of our family. In the beginning of February we had the joy of welcoming Miss May and Miss Haines into our midst. Miss May having helped start this work, naturally was able to step in at once and help in many ways. Miss Haines gave much pleasure to our girls in joining with them in singing their Indian hymns, going for walks and entering into the details of their lives. We were sorry when she had to leave us after only a few weeks' stay and go to Allahabad, on account of not being able to procure a good teacher for the language here in Fatehpur. During the winter months Miss Moore took charge of our sick girls but most of her time was given to learning the language. She is now helping in our Cawnpore station while Miss Webb is away for a rest.

We have had very little illness in our family. We missionaries have been kept well this year, for which I am most thankful. Our girls, too, have had good health. One death occurred of a girl who, though depressed in her body, having only one leg and hump-backed, was a true, bright Christian. She had been thrown out by her own people and was brought to us some years ago, and became a real help in our family life. She was so bright and cheerful that when she was called away, we missed her greatly. Praise God she is no longer depressed in body.

About two months ago Miss May had the joy of seeing fruit from the work in Allahabad. A woman who had been with us some time went to learn nursing last October, and this summer she had vacation for a day and naturally "came home" to enjoy it. When she saw Miss May she said, "I know you,—you were in Allahabad when I went to your school as a child; then when I became a widow and was thrown out from my own people, I went to the Mission and they sent me here." She was quite young when she came to us and only wanted help; having no desire to become a Christian. After being here several months God worked in her and then she took baptism and her stand as a Christian. When her child was able to be put into an orphanage for the time being, she went to learn nursing and the Superintendent of Nurses says she shows a real Christian character in all her work and is much appreciated. So we see how God works when we are apt to think our labor has been in vain.

Many women and girls have passed through our Home during this year. I will select a few cases which are typical of many more. In October two Hindu widows, mother and daughter, with three small children, came to us from a village nearby. On New Year's Day they were baptized and confessed their faith in Jesus Christ. On the same day a Mohammedan girl, who came a few months before, also received baptism, thus owning Jesus Christ as her Saviour. Since then she has been married and we receive accounts of her married life and witness for God.
I think also of M———, a Christian widow who came to us. She had fallen into sin after the death of her husband. We found her deceitful and untruthful and a very difficult character. It took many months of prayer and patience before we saw any improvement in her, but at last God had his way in her life and she really changed so that we felt she was ready for a home of her own. She was married to a Methodist preacher, and since then we have received word that she is doing well in her new life.

A child, Victoria, came to us several years ago; she was about nine years old, but was unable to learn. She was not a normal child as she had been fed with opium ever since her birth. She could not apply herself or concentrate her mind on anything. At first it was very difficult for her, but now she has so completely changed in spirit, soul and body that she has been able to go to a regular school and is doing well in her studies, giving satisfaction to her teachers.

We have also had under our care several young Christian girls who had been sinned against by their own relatives. One, a bright child of thirteen years of age—just a school girl, became a mother a few months ago. She was completely broken in spirit and we could see it had not been her fault. Her little baby has just died and we are now looking to God to show His plan for her future.

Another girl who was sent here was S——— who, under great provocation, ran away from her husband. The girl, though Christian in name, had never had a real chance in her life—being an orphan and married very young to a worthless man. At first she was very difficult—bad tempered, lazy and in every way hard to manage. God held her here until he got His way in her life and we often remarked how S——— had completely changed, her face having such a different expression and her whole character becoming steadfast and true. She became quite a good influence amongst our family and we found her most helpful. Later, her husband wrote that he wished her to come back to him; all the past would be forgiven and forgotten—she is now much better fitted to be a true wife.
I might tell you more of the wonderful way God has worked in our midst, saving and blessing souls, and sending them forth to witness for Himself; but this is sufficient to show all who help this work by prayer and funds that God is answering your prayers and using your money for the extension of His Kingdom in this land of India.

We have just had the pleasure of welcoming Miss Ellen Colson to the work of the Women's Home. We thank God for her and that He provides for all our needs, and so we enter this new year with joy and praise.
CHINA—SHANGHAI
BRIDGMAN MEMORIAL SCHOOL

Work Opened 1881
Report
By Miss Amy R. Holway

Missionaries—Miss Ruby Higgins (until September), Miss Henrietta McKeen (until September), Miss Muriel Wood, Miss Amy Holway.

Chinese Teachers—Full time, 13. Part time, 3.
Students—Boarders, 105. Day pupils, 122.
Baptisms—7

The year has been full of evidences of God’s constant goodness in caring for Bridgman School. Our new primary building was ready for use this autumn and now accommodates 110 representatives of China’s new day. The generous gift for furnishing made it possible to have all necessary equipment. We were glad of this additional space for even as things were we were obliged to turn away as many applicants as we took in.

Mrs. Bronson’s visit filled us with joy, new courage and inspiration. She helped us with our many problems and gave us a new feeling of closeness to the Board.

We have a splendid staff of Chinese teachers who are full of the true missionary spirit of service and love.

Seven of our girls took a stand for Christ and were baptized in Van Santvoord Chapel.

There have been difficulties and changes as well. Miss Wood was called back from Language School, a step necessary because of the impossibility of securing temporary teachers. Miss Higgins became ill in January and felt obliged to give up the responsibility of the principalship of the school. Miss Nyi, our head teacher for several years, was married in the spring to a Christian Y M. C. A. leader who had just returned from America. In the summer Miss McKeen left for her furlough and Miss Higgins resigned before school closed, feeling she was not well enough to take the necessary responsibilities. She will return to America this year. Miss Crofoot, the daughter of a neighboring missionary, will take her work for the year. Miss West, also a neighbor, is giving her time to carry on our normal course.

Our girls are constantly being trained in Christian work. The student Y. W. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. which they conduct themselves afford opportunities for training in leadership and service. The West Gate Sunday School for street children opened last year with about 100 children; this together with our own Primary Sunday School and a school conducted by a former pupil, Mrs. Tzau, develops the character of our Christian girls by giving them opportunities for teaching and an outlet in service. The Daily Vacation Bible Schools in which 20 of our older girls taught last summer are a real test of their willingness to serve, as in the scorching sunshine of a Shanghai summer one needs all Christian grace in order to persevere. Nine of the girls and one teacher attended the Y. W. C. A. Conference held at McTyeire School (Southern Methodist) last summer. These conferences always bring renewed help and inspiration for the year ahead.

The World Students' Christian Federation which met in Peking this year was attended by Miss Yang, our head teacher, and two of our students. One of our students was chosen as the representative of all the girls' schools in eastern China to act on the Central Committee.

We are happy over the generosity with which our girls met every call of need during the year. The famine in the Yangtze Valley; the Russian relief work; the Good Roads movement; the Shantung Railroad purchase; the Yunnan Home Mission; the Korean sufferers in Manchuria, and a new work undertaken by the W. C. T. U. by which beggars can have a chance for self-help, all met with a ready and hearty response.

In June we graduated six girls from the High School, 13 from the Intermediate, and 20 from the Primary Department. Three of the High School graduates are in college, the other three teaching, two in our own school. It is interesting to note that of our 28 graduates in the past four years, 14 are in college, eight are teachers, and three are married.

An Alumnae Association has been started by our former students. We are glad to have this way of keeping in touch with them and are happy in their continued interest in the school.

School reopened in September with sixty new pupils several of whom were already Christians or from Christian families. Each one means an added responsibility and opportunity. We trust each one will go out to be a light in China's darkness; a bearer of Christ's love to China's masses.

THE MARGARET WILLIAMSON HOSPITAL

The Margaret Williamson Hospital is now under a joint Board representing our own and three other cooperating Woman's Boards. There are at present eleven foreign missionaries and a group of fully trained Chinese women on the staff. Our own representatives during the past year were Dr. Clara B. Whitmore who returned to America early in 1922, and Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock. A good year is reported, with a great volume of work in wards and clinics. A small strip of land adjoining Stevenside, the residence of the foreign staff, was purchased by our Society; an extensive piece of land opposite the Hospital was bought by the Woman's Missionary Council of the M. E. Church, South, upon which a memorial building will be erected; a new nurses' building with accommodations for seventy, a gift of the Woman's Board of the American Baptist Church, has been erected on the Margaret Williamson property. It is hoped that the new Medical College for Women of Central China will be opened upon the Margaret Williamson Foundation during this year. Our evangelists, the Misses Irvine, continue their work in wards, dispensaries and in the Stevens Maternity.

The convening of the National Christian Council in Shanghai during the past year brought to all a vision of the immensity of our problems; it showed us as well how greatly conditions in China have already changed, giving us fresh inspiration for the greater things we are to witness in the near future.
The Margaret Williamson Hospital continues to open before us an avenue for the presentation of the Truth. The Dispensary has been reorganized with several distinct departments, giving us better opportunity for close personal touch with the people, through these smaller groups. Our Bible Women are occupied daily in teaching the Gospel among the waiting patients here. The Dispensary is also a field for the distribution of Christian literature. Many persons gladly accept what we have to offer and read eagerly as they wait their turn. Sometimes we see real joy in the faces of those who listen to the message.

Inquirers are also taught daily in the wards, and we know that some have left for their homes with genuinely changed lives. Some of these in-patients, women living even at a distance in the country, have become so earnest that they attend our Christian services on Sunday mornings with great faithfulness. Some of the patients are servants and the Gospel has sometimes taken such root in these humble hearts that they have gone away determined to confess their faith in Jesus Christ among the non-Christians whom they serve.

The Maternity attracts a large number of educated women and these too have been helped. Many who come speak of the peace and love which they see illustrated, not only in the Gospel teaching they hear but in the treatment they receive while in the Hospital. I am reminded of one woman who became a believer and stood bravely alone before a whole congregation to acknowledge her faith and receive baptism.

In addition to the hospital work we have visited regularly in city homes and our workers have conducted Sunday Schools each week. We have seen real transformations in some of these children.

Following up the work begun in wards and Maternity has taken us out to the needy country fields. Tracts and Christian books and portions of the Scripture help us greatly in the country work.

Twenty adults have been baptized and added to our church membership; we know that many others have truly received Christ as their Saviour.

REPORT

By Miss Elizabeth Irvine

The usual activities of the school have been carried on without special interruption throughout the year just closed. The class work has been good, and the pupils have shown interest in their work, and good progress has been the result.

Several of the more advanced pupils have assisted in the two Sunday Schools conducted by the Bible Women, one on the Douw Foundation, and one at the Margaret Williamson Hospital. Two have given two afternoons a week in preaching to the patients in the clinic of the Margaret Williamson Hospital. The spirit in which they have assisted in various ways gives promise of fitness for the work. One pupil who finished the six years' course in four, was the happy recipient of a diploma from the hands of Mrs. Bronson, who was visiting us at the time. It was a unique experience to have a representative of the Board with us on such an occasion. For Miss Zung the greater happiness lay in the fact that it was a day of victory for her, and her greater reward has come in the breaking down of prejudice and superstition against her stand as a Christian. Her fidelity to her Christian faith has won for her the respect of her father and brother from whom she has suffered much persecution. Her persistent answer to their continued opposition was, "Without education I am no better than a brute beast."

Miss Zung's desire for education was fostered, if not brought into being, while she was a patient in the Margaret Williamson Hospital, through the faithful teaching of our Bible Women, and in the many visits to her home after leaving the hospital.

Nineteen pupils were registered during the year. The average attendance has been fourteen. Towards tuition and board $500.00 has been received. Ten were church members, four were inquirers, and all were interested in learning more about the Gospel.

One pupil has entered Bridgman Memorial School to continue her studies, and has taken two younger sisters with her, who were too young to enter the Bible School. During the three years that this young woman has been in the Bible School, prejudice in her family has been overcome to such an extent that they are seeking education for their daughters in a Christian school, although there are numerous non-Christian schools in the neighborhood. It is worthy of note also that these girls belong to one of Shanghai’s most influential families, and have been our neighbors for years. The ages of the pupils are between eighteen and thirty years. Four are young widows; six are married to men who have proved unworthy. The motives which inspire these women to enter school are as varied as the number recorded. All need to know the power of Christ to redeem them from sin.

Coming from homes where they have been living under unhappy conditions and where exhibition of temper unrestrained was the only redress against opposing forces, it is not to be wondered at that such women should find the discipline of school life rather irksome at first. Patience and forbearance smooth out many wrinkles. Recognition of authority is one of the first lessons to be learned, and brings in its train new revelations to both pupils and those who would help them.

A wayward daughter and betimes an unruly wife, is brought to us under the cover of desire for an education. After the usual greetings are ended, the guardians take their leave with the words, “We put her in your hands, please teach her good custom. Christians are very good people.” We accept the challenge, and then the real task begins, and is carried on, if not in tears, oftentimes in much heaviness of spirit, for the Devil does not give up his victims without a severe struggle. We have had evidence of a marked change in some such women.

The party or clique spirit, not unknown in western schools, seems to be in its native soil here in this land, and is a subtle force which the Devil makes good use of, in his attempts to overthrow the work of the Spirit. We can add our testimony to that of St. Paul in his Ephesian letter. “We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." We do long and pray to see some of these who are under our care brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.

One pupil and our matron were brought very near to the gates of death during May and June. God graciously heard prayer, and restored them to health, and to His service. Two other pupils left us earlier in the year, having contracted tuberculosis. One has quite recovered, and we hope to have her back next term. The other is still in the mountains.

The thought that we are co-workers with Him has helped us over some of the hard places during the year. We ask your continued prayers for the pupils in the school, that many of them may be polished shafts, for He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, "according to the power that worketh in us." "He knoweth." "He careth."
JAPAN—YOKOHAMA
DOREMUS SCHOOL

Work Opened 1871

Report

Missionaries—Miss Mary E. Tracy, Miss Clara D. Loomis
(on furlough), Miss Claire Chapman, Miss Margaret Rogers.

Special Teacher—Mrs. C. Akana (half time from April).

Japanese Teachers—5 (giving full time), 8 (giving part time).

Number of students—212.

Miss Loomis left Japan in November, 1921, for her furlough, and Miss Tracy has held the position of principal during her absence. Miss Rogers, who came out for one year, became sufficiently interested in the work to apply for an appointment as a regular term missionary, and has been accepted as such. Miss Chapman also is prolonging her stay. As it seemed necessary to have more help with the English teaching we were fortunate to secure Mrs. Akana, formerly a missionary under the American Episcopal Mission, to give us her services as a part time teacher.

There have been several changes in the Japanese faculty, as in July Katagiri San, who is a graduate of Doremus School, and has taught in the school for nearly forty years, tendered her resignation. As she still lives in Yokohama she keeps in touch with the school and, we hope, will always help us with her interest and advice. There have been some other changes, but we have been able to secure the necessary teachers. In April a matron was engaged for the dormitory, and she has been able to oversee the girls more carefully than has been done formerly.

The great event of the year was the celebration by the Mission of the completion of fifty years of work in Japan. The Anniversary meetings were held on November 3 and 4, many of the Alumnae and friends of the school, as well as Government officials joining in the celebration. 'While the formal exercises were held on November 3rd and the history of the Mission was rehearsed, November 4th was made memorable by the Pageant of "The Builders," arranged for the occasion by Mrs. F S. Bronson and Miss Chapman, and given by the students of both schools.

Other special gatherings during the year have been our Christmas exercises, when scenes of the Nativity were represented, and special Christmas carols given; the annual public exercises held in February, when an unusually interesting program of song, dialogue, recitation and composition showed the work of the students to a large number of guests; and the music recital in June, when pupils were able to show their progress in music. It has been a great pleasure to have the enlarged chapel, and so not to be limited as to invitations.

In Japan, as all over the world, there is a spirit of unrest, a desire for freedom and liberty among the young people, and a casting off of all restraint. This has been felt in Doremus School, and has seemed to make the spiritual side of the work especially difficult. Nevertheless there have been several girls who have taken a decided stand for Christ, even in the face of persecution from family and associates. During the year there have been five baptisms and a number of others have signified a desire to take this step.

The Sunday School taught by teachers and several of the older dormitory girls is still kept up. During the summer two Vacation Bible Schools were carried on by pupils. The School Y W. C. A. has carried on its usual activities, and the girls showed a desire to help others by contributing yen 65.00 for Armenian Relief in July, and are now collecting money to help the suffering Russians.

In March a class of nineteen graduated from the regular six years' course of study. Two of the graduates stayed for advanced study for one term, but could not continue longer. Two of those who graduated last March are working with a missionary in Ogaki, a strong Buddhist centre, one helping in a kindergarten and the other doing evangelistic work. Another of the graduates is in one of the Islands of Hawaii, helping her father, a pastor for Japanese there, while another has gone to America to study.
During the summer twenty of the pupils memorized specially assigned chapters amounting to over 100 verses. For this work a prize of a Bible or a hymnal has been given each one.

One great privilege of this year has been the visit of Mrs. Bronson, who spent two school months as well as part of the summer in Japan. She gave help in teaching, inspired us to greater endeavor by her words, and coming to us from our other mission fields, she brought the work in China and India vividly before us, making us feel as never before the greatness of the work of which ours is a small part.

During the year we have had special problems to meet, but as we looked above, wisdom and strength to meet them were always given; and so we look forward to the New Year, "Leaving those things which are behind, we press forward to the mark for the prize of the high calling of God."

BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL AND EVANGELISTIC WORK

Report

By Miss Susan A. Pratt

Missionaries—Miss Susan A. Pratt, Superintendent and Principal. Mrs. Hazel B. Lynn, Language Study.

Japanese Teachers—Regular, 5; special, 5.

Students—42 to June; 34 from September.

Out-stations—6.

Sunday Schools—47 (city, 22; country, 25).

Factories where work is carried on—3.

With thankful hearts we review the work of the year, both in the School and in the country stations. The regular work of the School has been kept up, and in the spring we welcomed an entering class of 16, these promising young women coming from all parts of Japan as well as from Formosa, Korea and Manchuria.

One cause for gratitude was the coming of Mrs. Bronson, who, while here, renewed her interest in the school with which she had been connected for so many years. She taught some Bible classes in Japanese besides helping with the Chapel services.

The students, with the outside workers, took an active part in the celebration of our fiftieth anniversary. All the exercises were greatly enjoyed, while the work of our Society was understood and appreciated as never before.

The anniversary was followed by our Workers' Conference. Very helpful and inspiring were the devotional periods, addresses and personal talks.

In January our active matron was obliged to give up her post, but in May Fujinami San, the new matron, came to us. She is thoroughly capable and suited to her work, as for eight years she has been doing similar work in St. Luke's Hospital in Tokyo. She was anxious to be where she could do more definite Christian work.

Baba San, for ten years a faithful teacher and evangelistic worker, was married to Mr. Mitsuhashi in the Chapel of the Training School in January, before a large company of friends. Mrs. Mitsuhashi continues her work in the School.

Because of several years of overwork, Kido San has been obliged to take a real rest and has gone to Shanghai for a change. We have been very fortunate to get Rev. Mr. Matsuno to help us once a week, and the other teachers are taking extra work while she is away.

On the 26th of December a union Christmas service was held as usual by 300 children from our Sunday Schools. The collection was given to the Russian famine relief fund and to an orphanage. The other Sunday Schools held appropriate exercises in the various places where they are conducted.

In April a Flower Service was held in our chapel, the children coming from ten of our Sunday Schools. On account of heavy rain there were not as many present as we had hoped, but the 300 children who came out carried off their own parts well and thoroughly enjoyed the service. The offering of yen 7 was given to Armenian relief.
We also held a special meeting for the mothers of the Sunday School children, inquirers and church ladies in May, when a splendid address was given by Miss Hamada, Secretary of the Japanese Woman’s Missionary Society.

Our annual Commencement took place in June. The Rev. T. Matsuno preached the Baccalaureate sermon, and Mrs. Bronson gave the Commencement address in Japanese. The work of the students was on exhibition at this time and was remarkably good. The following day the Alumnae held a memorial service for our former matron, Mrs. Suzuki, and for another graduate who died in the spring.

The six graduates were appointed as follows: One to Baiko Girls’ School (Presbyterian and Reformed Church Missions) as Bible teacher and worker; two to our own country stations; one to assist a missionary of the Southern Presbyterian Mission; one to the Deaf-Oral School in Tokyo, while the sixth went to Kobe to work in the slums under the direction of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Kagawa, so widely known for their service among the poor and outcast.

During the summer 12 students remained in the school to keep up some of the Sunday schools and evangelistic work. Nine Daily Vacation Bible Schools were carried on in different parts of Yokohama and in other places. Mrs. Lynn was in charge of this work. The first Daily Vacation Bible School in Korea was opened by one of our undergraduates.

The students have done good work in their Sunday schools and house to house visitation. One new Sunday school was opened by request near the Hodogaya factory. Seventy children came the first Sunday, and 100 the second, and the interest is still sustained.

A new Bible class for Japanese women has been started near the seashore.

In October the Bible Training School in conjunction with the Japanese Woman’s Missionary Society held a very successful Workers’ Conference in the Training School. For four days the students by invitation attended the meetings of the General Assembly, which this year met in Yokohama. Our Bible Training School is the only school connected with this body and we appreciate the interest shown by the pastors in the School.

COUNTRY WORK

The workers all came to the School to be present at the 50th Anniversary of our Society, and to attend the Annual Workers' Conference. Miss Kido with other workers visited each preaching place, holding special anniversary meetings. Much interest was manifested during these meetings, a number of inquirers coming forward and one man and two women were baptized.

New work was started in Tsurumi, Mrs. Lynn agreeing to teach a cooking class twice a month in connection with the regular Woman's meeting. These meetings have increased in interest and numbers.

During the summer a request came to the School asking that a worker be sent to Oyama, a factory village, to teach the girls during their free time. We sent a student and after the first month five baptisms and six inquiries were reported.

Our two faithful teachers, Rev. Mr. Segawa and Rev. Mr. Minata, have visited the preaching places regularly, especially Kuki, Kasukabe and Iwamoto.

There are women's meetings, Bible classes and a good number of Sunday schools carried on in each one of our preaching places besides the Sunday services.

As a result of the faithful work in Iwamoto, one of our oldest preaching places, much interest is being shown in the neighboring village of Fujioki. Twelve to eighteen adults attend the weekly meeting while a large Sunday school is carried on.

The earnest country workers are laying good foundations and there is much to encourage, especially in Iwase, where we have most interesting Bible classes among young girls, besides one for fishermen.

We give thanks to God for His good hand, which has been upon us, and we pray for an even greater number of consecrated young people, who may hear His call and follow in obedience.
OUTSTANDING EVENTS ON THE FIELD
FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Japan.—The celebration in Yokohama, in November, 1921, of fifty years of mission work in Japan by our Society, we being the first to establish a boarding-school for girls in that country. Alumnæ, friends and Government officials took part in this anniversary gathering. Crosby Chapel, a gift of the alumnæ of Doremus School in loving memory of one of the founders of the school, was dedicated during the celebration.

China.—In Shanghai a new primary building was erected at Bridgman School and opened in September, 1922. Part of the funds for this building were given in memory of Anne Hall and Marguerite Dodds, who labored so faithfully at Bridgman and who greatly desired this new school-house for the little ones.

Allahabad, India.—The erection on our mission compound of a modern school building, and a second building for a teachers’ residence.

Fatehpur, India.—The Woman’s Home, so long affiliated with us through our support of two of its missionaries, by the action of the Committee of the Home in India, has now become an integral part of our work.

Recruits.—In India six recruits have been added to our mission force, while in Japan Miss Rogers, who went to Yokohama as a teacher for one year, has felt the call of the work and become a full-term missionary, a member of the staff of Doremus School.

THE HOME BASE

In the spring our last remaining charter member, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, was called home. She died in Vevey, Switzerland. Mrs. Lewis H. Packard, an honored Vice-President, died in April. She had been a faithful worker on our Board for many years. Her father, the Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs, was one of the strong friends of our Society in the days of its organization. Early in the year Dr. Elizabeth Reifsnyder was released from the pain and distress of this world and we would voice again our loving appreciation of the work she accomplished in the founding of the Margaret Williamson Hospital in Shanghai, where for thirty years she labored with such power and success.

Our Needs.—Our needs for the successful carrying on of our work are: Reinforcements for the field—trained teachers for our schools, physicians and trained nurses for our hospitals, evangelistic workers.
Another need—New friends at home.

Another—Support for missionaries, teachers, pupils, nurses, Bible women, students and children in our orphanages. We earnestly desire that all our friends shall aid in the work of the Society by constantly remembering it in prayer. The plea in every report has been, “Pray for our school, our workers, our patients in the hospitals.”

Will our friends at home sustain us by these prayers?

SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
PHILADELPHIA BRANCH
OF THE
Woman’s Union Missionary Society

“These three words, ‘God is faithful,’ come to me as I try to tell about the Woman’s Home during the past year.” So writes Miss Durrant from Fatehpür, India. She is carrying on the work started and continued so wonderfully by Miss Todd, who passed to her Heavenly Home somewhat over a year ago. “Many women and girls have passed through our Home during this year, but I will select a few cases which are typical of many more. In October, two Hindoo widows, mother and daughter, with three small children, came to us from a village nearby. On New Year’s Day they were baptized and confessed their faith in Jesus Christ. On the same day a Mohammedan girl, who came a few months before, also received baptism. Since then she has been married, and we hear good accounts of her married life and witness for God.

“I think also of a Christian widow who came to us. She had fallen into sin, and we found her deceitful and untruthful, and a very difficult character. It took many months of prayer and patience before we saw any improvement in her, but at last God had His way in her life, and she changed so that we felt she was ready for a home of her own. She married a Methodist preacher, and we hear that she is doing well in her new life.

“Little Victoria, nine years old, came to us several years ago, but she seemed unable to learn, having been fed with opium from the time of her birth. At first it seemed impossible for her to apply herself, but now she has so completely changed in spirit, soul and body, that she is able to go to a regular school, and is doing well in her studies and pleasing her teachers.
"I might tell you much more of the wonderful way God has worked in our midst, saving and blessing souls, and sending them forth to witness for Himself; but this is enough to show all who help this work by prayer and funds that God is answering your prayers, and using your money for the extension of His Kingdom in this land of India."

Dr. Alice L. Ernst sends us the following report of the work in the Ackerman-Hoyt Memorial Hospital, Jhansi, India:

"Another year has gone. It seemed hard in the passing, for a trying climate and strenuous work made the days seem long, but looking back, the year was all too short for the work that pressed for performance. There was a great increase of ward patients over that of the year before, and over two hundred more patients came to the dispensaries.

"Our Nurses' Training School has shown a most satisfactory growth. We now have four graduate nurses, who have also passed in midwifery, and with these to help us, we hope to attend more midwifery cases in their own homes. They go out with our Bible Women, give the Gospel message, and get acquainted with prospective mothers, whom they invite to come to the hospital or promise to attend in their own homes. This will save the lives of many poor, ignorant women, who now are dependent upon untrained dais or midwives. They also do child welfare work, and thus minister to the women and children physically and spiritually. I am hoping much from this extension of our work. The people who can afford it pay something to our hospital for the help and medicines given them, and thus some of the heavy expense is met locally. This year we received over two thousand dollars from India.

"Much is said and written about the unrest in India, but I feel this need not hinder mission work. In fact, it should urge us on to still further activity, if possible. We can enter more homes for teaching than there are teachers, and we are getting most interesting professional calls. I believe the year ahead of us will be the best yet, but we need the earnest prayers of God's children and more missionaries. The time may be short. God grant that His people may see their opportunities and use them."

Miss Pratt, writing from Japan, says: "The work in Iwase, a village not far from Yokohama, is very encouraging. July 10th was the tenth anniversary of the founding of the church, and it was filled to overflowing. The headman of the village and the principal of the largest school were present. There was a review of the past and plans for the future, and three were baptized—two men and one woman. There is an active Bible Class of young men, much house-to-house visitation, and the Sunday schools are in fine condition, a larger number of children all the time learning of Christ, and through these we have freer access to the homes.

"You have no idea of the conditions in most country places, where the only amusements are moving pictures of the lowest type, and the temple celebrations, which result in drunkenness and sin; but you can imagine what such a preaching place as this means in a dark spot."

We have during the year assumed the support of two missionaries—Miss Tena McLean, who is Superintendent of Nurses in the Lily Lytle Broadwell Hospital at Fatehpur, India; and Miss Ellen M. Colson, who has recently gone to work in the Woman's Home in Fatehpur, of which Miss Durrant wrote us. Both of these women have proven their ability, and are greatly beloved by all with whom they come in contact.

We sent to Jhansi, Allahabad and Fatehpur, gifts of one hundred dollars each, instead of the olden-time boxes, as they are now able to buy needed articles in their own neighborhood.

And so with hope and courage we look to the future, confident that He who has helped us hitherto will continue to guide us.
