CALCUTTA ORPHANAGE

The average number of children in the Orphanage remains about the same as last year. Five babies were received during the year and four children have died. Three were babies, the fourth an older girl. She confessed faith in Christ before she left for the hospital where she lived twelve days. One child who died was a lovely Brahmin baby who was wilfully exposed to small-pox before being given to the Orphanage.

Miss Evans reports that the general health of the Orphanage is better than last year. It was necessary to remove the tonsils of 22 girls and this resulted in great improvement in their health. There are no infants in the nursery now, the youngest being two and a half years old; the babies have been taken to our Lily Lytle Broadwell Hospital to be built up in strength and then returned to the Orphanage. One of these babies now in the Hospital was brought in by the Police when only a few weeks old, having been found in the Port Commissioner's van. The other is a Brahmin child who was brought to Miss Evans when a week old.

Good work in school is reported and a happy Prize Distribution Day. One new teacher has been added to the staff, a girl who has grown up in the Orphanage. The interest of the girls in spiritual things is encouraging; a number of the older girls have been baptized and a class of eight are awaiting baptism. The children of their own accord have continued their group prayer meetings and a weekly meeting led by Mrs. Kehl has been a source of blessing. Miss Evans writes that her daily prayer is that they will be allowed to receive only those children who will become true Christians. The space is limited, not many can be received, and our missionaries wish to train up those who can go out as lights to their own people.

CITY AND VILLAGE SCHOOLS, CALCUTTA

For the city and village day-school work, Miss Evans reports four schools in the city. Two have had excellent attendance and one of these, located at Jhamapukar, is badly in need of a larger place. The two others have fallen off somewhat in attendance, owing no doubt to the proximity of a National School in one case, and to the loss of an excellent teacher in the other. This year, in place of the usual Prize Distribution Day in the city schools, the children were all taken to the Zoo, and this trip proved more acceptable than prizes! Miss Evans rejoices every time she examines these little Hindu children "because of the knowledge they have of God's Word." The village work at Sonarpur is encouraging for while the new National School took away some of the older girls their places have been filled by others. The little school house has been repaired, whitewashing and painting have been done and a new care-taker's house added. The teachers, though living at the Orphanage in Calcutta, were able to go out regularly, in spite of the rains. They found many opportunities for witnessing for Christ by word and song on the train as they went back and forth day by day.

ZENANA WORK, ALLAHABAD

In February Miss Ella C. Morrison arrived in Allahabad to take charge of the zenana work during Miss Haines' absence on furlough. In March Mrs. Haines of Philadelphia and her friend Miss Way visited the Mission for two weeks and their keen interest brought help and encouragement to the work. Miss Haines left India with her mother, returning to America via China and Japan.

The reports of the zenana work are encouraging, the workers telling of more calls to enter homes than they can meet. Mrs. Carr tells in her report of a Bengali widow, forty years old, who is much interested in her Bible lessons and eager to attend a Christian service, which Mrs. Carr is trying to make possible for her. Another interesting pupil was one who married and went to live in another city, but whenever she returns to visit her people in Allahabad she always sends for Mrs. Carr to come to her home; she loves her Bible and says she always carries it about with her. A young widow who has returned to Allahabad after an absence of ten years is studying under difficulties as her father says, “A widow does not need to be taught,” and she pleads that Mrs. Carr will not forsake her. A few years ago a tragedy occurred in the home of one of the pupils of our Central Girls’ School which closed the door of the home to our workers. A girl of 15 had become very morbid because up to that time she was unwanted in marriage; she poured oil on her clothing, set fire to it and was burned to death. The home was then closed to all our workers although there was another little girl there. Recently the father himself came and asked that his little girl might be taught in the home. Mrs. Wybrow, one of our most earnest Bible Women, relates many interesting experiences. A widow whom Mrs. Wybrow had taught formerly, returned to the city after an absence of ten years and looked up her old teacher who was delighted to find how well she remembered the bhajans. She is now most happily studying the Bible. A young school girl was married and went to live in another city, taking with her a Bible which was given her. She has now returned, has remembered what she was taught, and has read her Bible regularly. In one home are two young women who are reading the fourth Hindi Reader. They are very much interested in their Bible lessons and really understand what they hear. They have promised to pray to the true God and not worship idols. Another pupil is a woman of sixty who reads her Bible daily and prays, “O Lord, strengthen my faith and grant that I may go to be with Thee.”

Miss Eda Roderick and Mrs. Dutt have carried on the work faithfully in Darraganj. Men, women and children come to Miss Eda’s little home for help, comfort and teaching. Lately a Sadhu (Indian Holy Man) has come to her seeking to know more about Christianity. He quaintly remarked to her, “It is not for food that I come but for faith.” Miss Eda has put him in touch with the Hindustani pastor.

In the Mission at 6 South Road, special Bible classes have been held for the servants who are divided into two classes, men and boys in one, women in the other. Meetings are also held with the Zenana workers for prayer and conference.

CENTRAL GIRLS' SCHOOL

During the past year the school included a staff of two missionaries, ten Indian teachers, and an enrollment of 159 children. The Principal, Miss Fisher, writes of her gratitude for, and appreciation of, the work of the faithful Christian teachers who are so greatly loved by the children. She has been encouraged by the way in which the secular instruction has been kept up to Government curriculum and requirements, and is happier still to see how the Christian teaching is changing the hearts and lives of the children.

Nearly all the children come from Hindu or Mohammedan homes, making it necessary for the school to grant holidays on the great festival days of the people. Instead of welcoming holidays with glee these little ones are openly disappointed when festival days necessitate their remaining at home. At these times the testimony of the children in their homes has been impressive. The children tell their people of their faith in God, often refuse to worship idols, and witness very faithfully of Jesus Christ as Saviour. In one home a little girl spoke out very strongly against idol worship and at the conclusion of her testimony broke all the family idols! At other times when there has been fever or other illness children have prayed in simple faith and have rejoiced in the recovery of their dear ones. Through this witness in the homes brothers, parents and other relatives have become greatly interested in Christianity and have asked for Bibles. To many of these children the personality and temptations of Satan are very real as was evidenced in the words of one of the little pupils who said that one day while playing in his grandfather's office where a number of valuable papers were spread out on the desk, Satan told him to go up and destroy all the papers, "but realizing how badly his grandfather would feel, he told the devil he would not listen to him and so gained the victory." It was this same dear little Bengali boy who prayed, "Oh, God, I am a great sinner. When Satan allures me and tries to make me do his will, and draw me in his power, then save me and may I be drawn close to Thee. I am the naughtiest boy. Forgive me. Give me Thy Holy Spirit."

"Prize Distribution Day in May was marked by the graduation of one of the Sixth Standard girls in the Bengali Department. As Hindus and Mohammedans are taken from us and married very young it was a joy to have this lovely fourteen-year-old girl complete her course. She comes from a very wealthy and orthodox Hindu family, yet we believe she loves the Lord Jesus Christ, and her Bible, and we covet prayer for her that the witness of her life in her non-Christian home may be a great testimony to the power and love of the Saviour."

The report of the work closes with these words:

"So as we commit to the Father's sure keeping all those Whom He has been able to touch and reach through our humble service, we would roll up the record of His doings in our midst during the past year and seal it with golden seals bearing these words: 'Abundant Prayer,' 'Abundant Praise.'"

ZENANA WORK AND CITY SCHOOLS, CAWNPORE

Miss Beach and Miss Moore, together with Miss Nina Harris and Miss Shaw, have carried on the city evangelistic work and the eight day-schools of our Cawnpore Mission. Miss Beach rejoices in the faithfulness of the loyal helpers—nine teachers, a substitute teacher to help out where needed, and five Bible Women. She reports more pupils both in homes and in the schools, better average attendances in both day and Sunday Schools, and increasing interest in the Gospel message as it is given in these places.

The year has not been without its trials for many efforts have been made by those who oppose, to close the little schools. Municipal Schools are springing up all over the city and bidding for all the children who will come. The Arya Samaj people have also opposed the work. Only a few pupils have been withdrawn and of these some have returned after a few weeks while others have come to fill the vacancies.

The health of both staff and pupils has been good; there have been no serious epidemics as in other years.

The zenana work is encouraging. Recently one man sent four times to Miss Moore to beg her to come and teach in his home, showing his eagerness to have his women and girls taught. Many ask for Christian books, which is encouraging.

MARY A. MERRIMAN SCHOOL AND ORPHANAGE

There are now 160 children in the school, many of whom are quite small. Miss Long wishes they could take in more but finds it necessary continually to turn them away. Among those who have entered during the year is a little girl who was a Hindu; she was found by one of our workers in the Allahabad district, rescued by her, and sent to one of our Mission Hospitals. There she was ill for months but it now well and happy in the school. It shows how three of our Missions, in three different cities, cooperated in helping this one child to her chance for life and happiness.

The staff consists of nine Indian teachers. The school has a kindergarten class of sixteen little ones, all under six years of age, and it is interesting to watch them develop under their kind and capable teacher. Three girls passed the Government Examinations. Two were sent to the Ackerman-Hoyt Hospital at Jhansi for nurses' training, the other went to take teacher training. Three other girls under our care, who were in High School, also went to Jhansi for the nurses' training while two returned to High School. One girl was married and is happy. The children have been unusually well; during the fever season it was necessary to use a great deal of quinine but it paid in the good health of the girls. A gift of a pair of scales has been a wonderful help in watching over the girls' health.
The report of the school ends in a note of praise for the privilege of helping to train up these lives for Christ and for the support of prayer and gifts from the home-land which helps to make the work possible.

MARY C. ACKERMANN-HOYT AND MARIA ACKERMANN-HOYT HOSPITALS, JHANSI

The report of the Hospital for the past year is as follows:

New ward patients. 543
Days’ attendance in wards. 11,061
New patients in dispensaries. 5,211
Days’ attendance in dispensaries. 10,921
Visits in homes. 220
Operations performed ... 630
Midwifery cases ... 62

Money received in India:
Out practice R1,415— 0— 0
Ward patients 1,705— 3— 0
Confinement and operation fees. 667— 0— 0
Dispensary fees and sale of medicines. 1,177—14— 6
Donations from foreign and Indian friends. 3,011— 5— 6
Interest on bank deposits, sale of grass, etc., special nursing 937— 4— 0

Total 8913—11— 0

At the beginning of 1925 Dr. Elizabeth H. Thurrott arrived to join the Jhansi Mission and Miss Elizabeth J. McCunn returned from furlough toward the close of the year.

All departments of the work have been continued and some have made decided progress. New patients coming to the dispensaries numbered nearly a thousand more than those of the previous year and the numbers of out-calls and operations show an encouraging increase. Work has been carried on among all classes from the wives and daughters of the ruling princes of India to friendless beggars by the wayside. To all the hospital ministered physically and spiritually as opportunity was given.

A number of motherless babies have been brought to the hospital to be cared for during their first year, showing the growth in confidence in the hospital in the community. Dr. Ernst writes that again and again the hearts of the missionaries have been saddened by patients coming to them too late, after time, ignorance and superstition had done their worst.

The little day school on the hospital compound has been continued with gratifying results. The children love their studies and carry their books about with them. The two biggest pupils are both married, though still little girls. They are eager to read all the Christian literature in Hindi that can be supplied.

Seven Sunday Schools have been kept open during most of the year with an average attendance of 274.

The zenana work has been carried on as well as one Bible Woman could do it and with the arrival of Miss McCunn it is hoped that many new doors which stand open can be entered with the Gospel message. The city contains over 60,000 persons and the opportunities for work are great.

Dr. Ernst writes that it is most gratifying and a cause for thanksgiving to see the eagerness and interest shown by the ward patients in the Christian teaching they get while in the hospital. Those who can read are frequently seen reading the Christian books that are loaned to the patients, and after patients return to their homes many come back again on Sundays just to get the teaching.

NURSES' TRAINING SCHOOL, JHANSI

Miss McLean, in charge of this department, rejoices greatly over the hearty and united cooperation of the Bible women and nurses in the work. Many times the nurses worked overtime, and were often called, after a busy day, to serve at night, yet there never was a complaint from them. Instead, many times, they came asking if there were not something more they could do to help.
The staff of head nurses remains the same as last year in spite of the fact that several applications have come from other hospitals offering larger pay than they were receiving. The increased amount of salary did not seem to tempt them for when such offers were made known to them they would simply say, "We do not want to go anywhere else."

Of the class that graduated in March several left, as there were no positions to offer them in the hospital. One is now the only graduate in a hospital in the Central Provinces, another is school nurse in a Girls' School of the Methodist Mission, and a third has just returned to the Friends' Mission at Nowgong where she is the only graduate nurse in a small hospital just opened. Three of the class are still with the hospital and are taking a course in midwifery, in the meantime rendering excellent service.

There have been no changes among the first and second year classes, and of the seven in the new class that entered in 1925 five are our own girls from the Merriman School. All are entering into the work with good spirit. Miss McLean writes that it has been necessary to refuse more applicants for the Nurses' Training School than in any previous year. Some of those who applied were very well prepared and were highly recommended by the missionaries who wished to send them. It was with regret that Miss McLean told them there were no places and that she could only offer to put their names on a waiting list.

The older nurses continue to help in the evangelistic work in the hospital and in the outside Sunday Schools. Keen interest has been shown in the Sunday morning services which have been attended not alone by ward patients but by former patients who return each week that they may attend. The little folding organ, a recent gift of the late Dr. Coles, has been used at the services and been much appreciated.

The weekly meetings have shown a deeper spirit of consecration and Miss McLean writes with joy of the real prayer life among the nurses. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Training School has continued the support of the child in school undertaken by them two years ago and their regular contributions to church, Book and Tract Society and the National Missionary Society have all been maintained.

The nurses have had good picnic outings by motor car and trailer, through the kindness of neighboring mission friends.
They have also enjoyed a social evening each week with the young teachers, Bible Women and assistants from the Presbyterian compound near their own.

The year of work has been one of privilege and blessing.

LILY LYTLE BROADWELL HOSPITAL, FATEHPUR

The Hospital report for the year is as follows:

| In-patients | ... | 616 |
| Days' attendance of in-patients | | 8251 |
| Out calls | ... | 184 |
| Dispensary patients | ... | 7458 |

Money received in India:

| From in-patients | R1632—12— 6 |
| From out-patients | 1177— 0— 0 |
| From dispensary | 442—11— 2 |
| Other money received in India | 86—15— 2 |

Total R3339— 6—10

Dr. Minthorn and Dr. McEwen report that the medical work has been greatly facilitated by increased efficiency on the part of staff and helpers. The standard of the nurses' work has improved and one pupil nurse especially who was most unpromising at first has become a faithful, efficient helper.

One compounder has been trained and has gone out; another has taken her place. Six nurses were in training at the close of the year and there were two staff nurses.

The Bible Woman, Mrs. Dass, continues faithfully to give the Christian message. A marked change has been seen in the attitude of some of the patients, especially of Mohammedan patients who at first did not wish to hear but later became willing and even eager to listen to the Bible teaching.
During the cool season weekly visits were made to the Jahanabad Dispensary. The new car has given excellent service and made possible more district work.

THE WOMEN'S HOME, FATEHPUR

In the early spring Miss Durrant left for America and Miss Colson has been in charge of the Home with Miss Cook as her co-worker. During the year thirty women have entered the Home, each with a sad story. Of these women and girls some had known Christ but had wandered from Him; to others the story of Jesus was new. It has been a joy to the workers to see the light coming into these broken lives and into the faces, and to see what a change in a life can be brought about through knowledge of Christ and acceptance of His salvation.

Some of those who have entered have been not women but young girls or children sent from Mission Schools. Often such children are received into school and it is then found that their morals and language are so bad that they cannot be kept, for the sake of the other pupils. It is such special cases that we have often been privileged to help.

Some of the girls, after learning of Christ and learning to put their trust in Him, have gone out from the Home to live useful and happy lives. Three such girls have gone to work as assistants in a Baby Fold. Two of these were mothers and could take their own children with them. Another girl was sent to one of our Hospitals for nurses' training. Still others have been married to Christian men. In many cases a Christian husband has been willing to take the little illegitimate child belonging to his wife, as his own.

Many of the girls have been most truly converted and have shown evidence of the great change in their lives. Others have insisted upon going their own way and have left us, but even these are followed by much prayer and will one day, perhaps, return to the Heavenly Father whose way they seem to have lost.

BRIDGMAN MEMORIAL SCHOOL

The year proved to be a trying one for mission schools in and near Shanghai owing to disturbing war conditions. Three attempts were made to open the school in autumn; the first time only a few pupils came and it seemed wise to postpone opening until a more auspicious day. The second time one hundred children came and their numbers increased daily until the end of the week when fresh disturbances threatened and it became necessary to send the girls back to their homes again. The third attempt was successful and class work was continuous until a fortnight before China New Year when a retreating army crowded back into Shanghai, looting as it came, and it was again necessary to send the girls to their homes or places of safety. A night of looting and shooting followed this closing but although shops and homes adjacent to the school were robbed no attempt was made by the soldiers to enter the school property.

In spite of these troubles the enrollment of the school was from 180 to 200, although the number of boarding pupils was greatly reduced. Nine girls confessed Christ and were baptized in Van Santvoord Chapel during the year. During the summer Bridgman School students carried on a Daily Vacation Bible School at the school entirely by themselves with an average attendance of sixty children. Thus in spite of the general restlessness and the set-backs occasioned by war and other outside conditions, our missionaries were enabled to see in some measure the results they longed for—the acknowledgment of Christ as Saviour by some and the undertaking of Christian service in His name by others.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN MEDICAL COLLEGE

The college opened its doors early in October, 1924, and although civil war was being waged near Shanghai a promising freshman class entered and has done excellent work throughout the year. The college is at present the only Woman’s Medical School of A Grade in China. It has received provisional registration by the China Medical Missionary Association; of the seven schools receiving such registration the Peking Union Medical School was the only one registered unconditionally. Our school has every prospect of being able to remove the provision during the two years allowed until the time of the next meeting of the Association.

At the end of the college year Dr. Lawney, Dean of the school, returned to America on furlough and our Woman’s Union Missionary Society representative, Dr. Frances W King, was chosen as Acting Dean. A new class was registered during the summer and prospects were bright for the beginning of a second year of work.
THE MARGARET WILLIAMSON HOSPITAL

The work at the Hospital was carried on as usual with Dr. Janet Miller as Superintendent. Our nurse, Miss Elizabeth Pollock, was in charge of the Stevens Maternity where one thousand or more future citizens of China entered life through its wards and private rooms. Our Hospital has been called, because of its record of the previous year, "The House of a Thousand Babies." When Miss Hood left for her well-earned furlough in July, Miss Pollock took charge of the School of Nursing. Over forty young nurses are now in training and there is a waiting list as the school has room for no more.

Although the hospital has a capacity of 170 beds, the wards and private rooms have been overflowing throughout the year. Dr. Miller reports improvising beds for emergency cases by putting boards and mattresses on two of the bath tubs, that needy sufferers might not be denied entrance.

Evangelistic work in hospital wards and clinics, and among the nurses, has been carried on. A few of the pupil nurses were not Christians upon entering the school but were led to a knowledge of Christ and confessed Him by baptism.

As the evangelistic work of the hospital has been in charge of Miss Irvine, and the Bible Classes for Nurses in charge of Miss Elizabeth Irvine, mention of them will be found in the reports of the Douw Foundation.

MATILDA DOUW FOUNDATION

The Douw Foundation, situated near the borders of the French Concession and of the International Settlement, but governed by the Chinese Municipality, found itself in proximity to nearly every upheaval to which Shanghai was subjected during the tempestuous years of 1924-25.

Thousands of new-comers drifted into Shanghai, the chief causes being the distresses of war, famine and flood. A drifting and shifting industrial population surrounded the walls of the mission compound, bringing with it increasing opportunities for evangelistic service. Meetings and evening Bible classes were held in Doremus Hall, and there have been conversions and baptisms. Miss Irvine reports great interest among inquirers and new Christians in the study of the Bible.

Personal evangelism has also been carried on in city and village homes. Christians have been visited also, especially Christian women who have been unable because of illness, infirmities of age, or for family reasons, to attend the services of the church.

The work in wards and clinics of the hospital has been carried on daily with most encouraging results. Many women have learned to know Christ through the messages given by evangelists and Bible Women and have gone back to their homes, often in villages, or hamlets, to witness for Christ and bring others to Him. In addition to the daily personal work, Miss Elizabeth Irvine held regular Bible classes for the nurses and pupil nurses. Chapel prayers have been held daily at the hospital, the various workers, Chinese and American, taking turns in leading them. Special evangelistic meetings were also held when both patients and nurses decided for Christ while many of the weaker Christians were strengthened.

At the Douw Foundation so many men come in the evening for the evangelistic messages and Bible teaching that Miss Irvine is convinced that a crying need is for a Chinese man evangelist to give his whole time to this work. A partial summary of the work of Miss Irvine, Miss Elizabeth Irvine and Miss Clara Nelson, (the latter gave the larger part of her time to language study), and four Bible Women follows:

BIBLE SCHOOL REPORT, MATILDA DOUW FOUNDATION

Fifteen women were in attendance at the Bible School during the year. From time to time conditions in Shanghai became so unfavorable because of the war and the close proximity of the fighting, that the school had to be closed for longer or shorter periods. Two of the resident students were from the fighting zone where they had tasted the horrors of war and lost their all.

Miss Elizabeth Irvine writes:

"Near the close of the spring term came the tragic incident of May 30th which has so stirred the sympathies of the world. A deep sense of God's presence was about us and all through the trying weeks that followed doors of opportunity seemed to open wider for the preaching and teaching of the Gospel. To counteract the spirit of hatred that was growing apace we decided to make a special effort and hold some evangelistic meetings. The students and workers entered into the spirit of the plan and all helped toward the success of the meetings by doing preliminary neighborhood work, with the result that several times Doremus Hall was more than two-thirds full of interested listeners. The hymns were an important feature of the work for the power of the gospel in song is felt here as at home. Our opportunity was only limited by our lack of workers. It was with real regret that we closed the school at the end of the term for the pupils had been a great help to us in this special effort.

"The day school at the Matilda Douw Foundation is nearing the close of its second year and we can report growth in interest as well as in numbers. Parents also have shown their interest, seeming to appreciate what is being done for their children. During the weeks when the Bible School had to be closed the day school was a real link between the community and ourselves. Who can estimate what the harvest will be as a result of filling the hearts and thoughts of these children with God's Word? To the poor the Gospel is being preached."

DOREMUS SCHOOL

The year was a hard one in many ways; Miss Tracy's return was delayed by an accident, Miss Rogers was ill and obliged to be in hospital, and it was difficult to provide for the Bible and English classes. However, through the timely help of Mrs. Topping and a friend who was visiting Yokohama, all the work was carried on.

There has been no boarding department since the earthquake, but in spring a teacher's house was built for the use of both schools and one Doremus School teacher and four students, nucleus for a new boarding department as soon as a dormitory can be provided, were in residence. An addition was also made to one of the portable houses, providing small living and dining rooms and two additional bed-rooms for the missionary household. A prayer room has been added to the school-house, a gift of a friend in America, which will be known as the Anna J. McFarlane Prayer Room. This meets a great need and is appreciated by teachers and students. Gifts from teachers, friends and alumnae have furnished the prayer room, provided an organ for the chapel, furnished a cedar to be used as a permanent community Christmas tree and relaid the tennis court.

A gift from the President of our Board of a beautiful crayon portrait of Mrs. T. C. Doremus for whom our school was named, to take the place of the one destroyed by the earthquake, was greatly appreciated.

The enrollment was 130 and fourteen girls were graduated in spring. Miss Loomis reports a keen interest among the students in Christian activities, and real development in the taking of various responsibilities, such as the carrying on of the two meetings held each Monday morning of the class prayer meetings, the weekly gatherings of the Christian Service League and the closing chapel service on Friday afternoons. The students also planned and carried through a dedication service for the new prayer room.

Graduates of the school are holding responsible positions in schools, homes and offices. Six have been serving in St. Luke's Hospital in Tokyo and one is National Student Secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

During the year two teachers and sixteen girls have confessed Christ in baptism; the missionaries earnestly desire the prayers of those at home for these new Christians that they may grow in grace and become shining lights for Jesus Christ among their own people.

BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL AND EVANGELISTIC WORK

In order to provide for more thorough training the course of study has been lengthened six months with satisfactory results. The regular class room work has been carried on and there have been many outside activities. The Japanese teachers have not only fulfilled their duties in the school but have done much evangelistic work both in the city and in villages.

The students have carried on regular Sunday School and visitation work. The Korean students have been happy to find opportunities for personal work in Korean homes and in a factory where Korean workers are employed. Students and workers have conducted Sunday Schools in various localities to the number of forty-two.

As there has been a growing need in many lines of work for trained Christian leadership the Bible Training School was asked to offer an evening course. Such a course has been added to the regular work of the school, and several earnest Christian young women are now in training.

The Bible School continues to provide a centre for milk distribution, a work undertaken by the city after the earthquake, and there have been many opportunities for Christian work among mothers.

Four young women were graduated and each is filling a responsible post—one in a country station, another in a Tokyo church as church worker, a third in a Blind School and a fourth in an industrial school in the south where she is in charge of the Bible class work.

Miss Pratt reports more encouragement in the country work than for some time. In the village of Iwamoto thirteen persons were baptized and a like number in Kasukabe. These are the oldest two of our outstations. It is interesting to know that practically all the 26 above mentioned are products of the Sunday Schools carried on by the Bible Women; they have grown up in the schools.

The work in Fuji, an offshoot of the Iwamoto work, developed so rapidly that it was thought wise to place resident workers there, so two Bible Women are now living in that village and carrying on the work.

In still another chapel there are 13 inquirers, while in Futsu great interest is manifested by the adult population of the village. Work has been reopened in Kozukuye with promising results. The two workers in charge carry on six Sunday Schools, a woman’s meeting and house to house visitation.

THE PHILADELPHIA BRANCH

OF THE

Woman's Union Missionary Society

of America

Was Organized in Philadelphia, May 20, 1861

The Philadelphia Branch was incorporated by the Court of Common Pleas of the City of Philadelphia, March 10, 1869. It was empowered to take and hold real and personal estate to the yearly value of five thousand dollars.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to the “Philadelphia Branch” of the Woman’s Union Missionary Society of America, the sum of to be applied to the Missionary purposes of said Society.

This interesting report comes from Dr. Alice L. Ernst, of the Ackerman-Hoyt Memorial Hospital, Jhansi, India:

"In reviewing the year just ended, the uppermost thought is that of thankfulness to our kind Heavenly Father for all His goodness and mercy to us, and to our helpers during a strenuous year of work. The staff included two missionaries only, where often we have been four, and the medical work was heavier than in other years.

"Our seven Sunday schools were maintained, with an average attendance of nearly three hundred persons; and our day school at the Hospital, for children of patients and servants, shows satisfactory progress.

"Our hospital wards and two dispensaries were well attended. In the latter there was an increase of over one thousand patients above that of last year. Many came from distant places, and after being cured, took home with them the new knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

"A recent development of our hospital work is an increasing number of small motherless babies, who have no one to care for them, and if this continues, we shall need a separate building for them.

"Never before have the women given such close attention to religious instruction. Beside morning and evening prayers, conducted by the nurses and Bible women, missionaries and assistants, there are also noon services, and the patients show much interest in these. They are beginning to realize that their souls need treatment, too, and that by the Great Physician."
“Every opportunity is taken to distribute Gospel portions and Christian literature among our patients and their friends.

“I send my heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who have cheered and sustained us by their prayers and their generous gifts.”

From the same hospital, Miss Tena McLean, head of the Nurses’ Training School, writes:

“Our Training School, and our staff of nurses, have been a joy to us, and rich opportunities have been ours both in the hospital and in the homes of the people, for physical and spiritual service. The practical work is much the same from year to year, with classes, lectures, demonstrations, caring for and comforting the sick and weary; but our greatest happiness has been the earnestness with which the nurses entered into the evangelistic part of the work, and the deepened experiences in their own lives.

“A new class of seven entered the Training School this autumn, making in all twenty-two. Six of these are graduate nurses, and serve as head nurses in the different departments. All of them are fine girls, and true helpers. We regretted having to refuse more applicants this year than ever before, owing to lack of space and funds, for the need of trained nurses in India is acute.

“We go forth into another year expecting great things from Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think.”

Miss Colson writes from the Woman’s Home in Fatehpur, India:

“At Christmas time we had the joy of seeing the baptism of two of our girls—one a convert from Hinduism, the other from Islam. Both girls were very unhappy in their homes, one being a widow, the other married to an old man, who was cruel to her. They often pretended to be ill in order to get to a nearby mission hospital, because there they were kindly treated. They asked the missionary to send them to a Christian home, and ran away from their unkind relatives. They came to us, and at first everything was strange, but soon they were laughing with the others, and were very happy. They took great interest in the Bible classes, and after a time asked for baptism. When we think of the change in these lives, and they are only two of many, we do praise the Lord, for we realize that only His transforming power could work such a change."

From Miss Roderick in Allahabad, India, we have the following:

"I visit about thirty-four zenanas; some, as a friend, hoping that when they know me better they will read the Bible with me. Some are ex-pupils, who want occasional visits, and it is they who get new zenanas opened to me. Years ago, when baby marriages were the vogue, I taught four generations in one zenana—the grandmother and mother of the family, a son's wife, and her little daughter, so eager were young and old to learn when they had the opportunity. Now, educated Hindu young men wish for educated brides, consequently girls are allowed to attend school to a greater age than formerly. Slowly but surely Christianity is freeing the people of India from the bonds of Hinduism. My Bengali pupils now know how to read and write their own language, and some can read and speak English, too. Several are members of the Ladies' Imperial Club, organized by wives of government officials, their object being to keep in touch with wives of the leading Indians in Allahabad, and by social intercourse to understand each other better. Our mission started the first Zenana Club in Allahabad, which met in the Mission House. We had classes for the Indian ladies in English and painting, with an occasional debate; also a sale, to which they contributed fancy articles, paintings, Indian sweets, etc., for the benefit of Belgian refugees."

From Philadelphia we sent the usual gift of one hundred dollars each to Jhansi, Fatehpur, and Allahabad, for their Christmas gifts. M. L. S.
