CALCUTTA ORPHANAGE

At the close of the year 57 girls were in the Orphanage and one baby under its care was in the Broadwell Hospital at Fatehpur. Two children were received during the year, one girl was married in the spring, one was sent on to the Women’s Home in Fatehpur, and there were two deaths, a wee baby and a little girl of three.

In spite of a peculiarly trying year with long continued heat followed by very heavy and continuous rains, the health of the pupils has been unusually good.

Miss Evans herself suffered from a long, trying illness during the year and was obliged to be away in the hospital for a time. Miss Dass carried on the work well and Miss Evans writes that her illness seemed to have a good effect upon the girls themselves, especially the older ones, for they grew in grace and in strength of character as added responsibilities were laid upon them. All were loyal and faithful in prayer for Miss Evans’ recovery.

At the beginning of the school year the girls had a happy day on the river and again at Christmas all were made glad by a special service and gifts. In January school reopened with a special day of prayer which was helpful; in March the girls were given a happy half holiday at the Zoo.

A number of girls were ready for baptism at the close of the year, and had been waiting for some time, having been hindered first by the illness of the pastor and then by Miss Evans’ illness and absence.

Miss Evans closes her report with a tribute to the faithfulness and efficiency of Miss Sushila Dass who cared for the Orphanage and school during her absence and proved herself as always, an invaluable helper and friend.

CITY AND VILLAGE SCHOOLS, CALCUTTA

The four city schools and the village school at Sonarpur have been carried on as usual, though with increasing difficulties as regards the former. In April came the riots in the northern part of the city and this time of trouble was followed by the usual vacation period during May and until the middle of June. After this, although the staff tried again and again to open the schools, mothers would not allow their children to go out in the great heat until the good rains came. Finally the very heavy rains in the latter part of July and August often prevented the children from coming out. In October came Pujah holidays, a season when Hindu children are kept from school by their non-Christian parents for purposes of Hindu worship.

There was an enrollment of 275 pupils in the city schools and it was a privilege to give the Gospel message day by day to these little children from non-Christian homes. Nearly all of them did good work in their Bible examinations. Prize-giving day was, as always, an occasion of great joy, and it was hard to know who were the happier, the mothers or the little girls, over the simple celluloid dolls that were given the children.

The Sonarpur school has been in charge of two married women and it has been found very satisfactory to send these reliable, mature Christian women to the village. There has been a good average attendance at the school, the pupils numbering sixty. Even the riots interfered only for a very short time with the work. The children in this school are happy in their work and responsive to the Christian teaching.

THE ALLAHABAD MISSION

In her general report of the Allahabad Mission Miss Fisher quotes William Carey's parting message to the friends at home just before he set sail for India: "Yonder in India," said he, "is a gold mine. I will descend and dig, but you at home must hold the ropes." Miss Fisher adds:

"Many, many times during the past year, as we have witnessed the gracious undertaking of the Lord for us in all the work, and have felt His presence and power, we have said, 'Surely loved ones and friends at home and on the field are holding the ropes of incessant, faithful intercession for us.'"

The year brought some unexpected changes, one being the return to America of Miss Morrison in spring, owing to failure in health. Since returning to her home in Canada Miss Morrison's health has been restored and she has married and is now a pastor's wife in Nova Scotia.

The old drains had proved so unsatisfactory and dangerous that in spring a new drain was laid at the rear of the compound, which worked perfectly during the rainy season, meaning much to the health of those on the compound. During the year the wife of one of the servants died of tuberculosis. She had not been on the compound long when the missionaries sent her to the Dufferin Hospital where she died a short time later. Miss Fisher believes she died in the faith as she had learned of Christ before leaving the school and loved to hear of Him and to be prayed with, during her last days in the hospital.

ZENANA WORK, ALLAHABAD

Miss Fisher sends the following report:

The work done by our Assistant Missionaries in the zenanas during these past months has been greatly blessed of the Lord in every way. Our city is a large one—and as we realize the tremendous number of homes and the fact that we have only four workers reaching as many as they possibly can, how we do long for greater and greater things in all our daily witness for Him. The Lord has done wondrous things in the zenanas; our workers bring us encouraging accounts of their service and the doors are wide open, calls come every day asking that we enter more homes and teach additional pupils. At present our four workers reach 182 homes every week and are teaching 219 pupils; then, of course, there are hundreds of extra listeners who have heard the Message of Love. One of our workers reported 1263 extra listeners throughout the year. Our monthly business and prayer meetings have been times of encouragement, as we have eagerly listened to the reports of the various workers and have noted their love and interest in their service for Him.

We have visited the zenanas as frequently as possible, especially those where Mrs. Wybrow is teaching. She is surely a saint—such a true, Spirit-filled worker. In one of these homes there is a young girl of about 14 years of age who has been suffering for some time from "knock-knee." When calling in that home it was always a joy to us to see little Shanti's sweet smile and to hear her bright, true testimony for she is one of the Lord's own. A short time ago we made an arrangement with Dr. Mukerji of the Colvin Hospital whereby she might be taken in the Hospital and cared for there. She was operated upon a few weeks ago and has been improving day by day. As we have gone to the home and to the hospital from time to time, we have prayed with her and talked to the other members of the family. The whole family, except the father, have expressed their acceptance of Christ as Saviour and we have been earnest in prayer that this experience and illness may be used of the Lord in bringing them to an open confession of Him. Pray for us as we come in constant contact with the non-Christian families, that our witness may count for God and that souls may be brought close to Him.

Out in Darragunj Miss Eda Roderick and Mrs. Dutt are faithfully carrying on their labour of love among their Hindu and Mohammedan neighbours. Miss Berry and I have often gone out there to see the work and it has been gratifying to see the devotion and love which the simple villagers have towards these two workers in the bigoted Darragunj field. Miss Eda is never too tired to share the burdens of others, to perform countless little acts of kindness and she loves to give out the Gospel story to hungering hearts. During the big mela in the spring Miss Eda and Mrs. Dutt distributed 3000 tracts and many Gospels and Miss Berry and I were thankful to have had a part in the evangelistic work there also.

CENTRAL GIRLS' SCHOOL

September 1st, 1925, the Central Girls' School Staff numbered 10 teachers, while the enrollment numbered 167 children— the Bengali Department exceeding the Hindustani Department numerically. At the beginning of the summer term last year two new teachers joined our staff and their work has proved very satisfactory and they have been seeing definite results in their classes. The work of one of our older teachers fell short of the standard we wish to maintain in the school—she was also a married woman and a non-resident teacher—so in May she was dismissed and her class was given to one of our new teachers who is now taking two classes. Some of our teachers have more than one class and in spite of this fact manage very well. Miss Berry has been taking two English classes daily in the school and until May, Miss Fisher took an upper Bible Class period.

This year it was our joy to have a graduating class of five girls, one being a Christian and the other four coming from Hindu homes. The Commencement exercises were held the morning of the sixth of May when the whole school gathered in the Assembly Room. Mrs. Wybrow gave a short but splendid message which we hope and pray reached the heart of each little child. After the presentation of the diplomas the members of the graduating class were presented each with a beautiful Bible in their own vernacular and a hymn-book, which they appreciated very much and of which they were very proud. They were earnest, promising young girls and our daily prayer is that the Lord will guard and keep the Seed of His Word which has been sown in their hearts.

Nearly every month the work of the school is more or less interrupted by the Hindu and Mohammedan festival days and subsequent disturbances in the City. From September 11th to the 22nd, school was closed because of the very serious rioting in the native part of the city. September 16th we arranged with the Superintendent of Police to have a policeman accompany every school conveyance in order to see whether the parents would allow the children to come if we reopened school. The conveyances were sent out with a policeman accompanying each one but out of our 170 girls only 64 were allowed to come, so the school remained closed until the 22nd. We always regret delays and interruptions of this sort in the work because it means that the daily classwork is so broken up, and still in cases of rioting and communal disturbances we cannot run risks in endangering the lives of the little ones.

From time to time we have taken our teachers on moonlight boat rides on the Jumna River, and on Saturday picnics here and there. The picnic days have been especially delightful, for not only have they been times of recreation and pleasure but in the afternoon we have always done evangelistic work in some neighbouring village—holding a little service, doing personal work and distributing Gospels and tracts. The teachers are all keenly interested in evangelistic work and we are encouraged to see their real evangelistic spirit manifested in their witness and personal work for the Master.

The last time we went on a picnic we visited a little village where a former pupil of one of our city schools lived; how our hearts did rejoice to see her and listen to her testimony. She said: "Oh, I can't read or write—I've forgotten all that, for I was just a little girl when I studied in the Mission School, and now I am getting old, but I have never forgotten the things I heard and learned about Jesus and I have the witness in my heart that I belong to Him." We had a wonderful talk with this little woman and our prayers have been ascending before the Father's Throne that she may be greatly used in that village for Him and that she may win many for Christ.

Countless are the instances of definite answers to prayer and the working of God's Spirit in our midst. The Bible classes are a joy and the little children are so responsive to the Gospel message and how they do look forward to and enjoy their Bible period!

In conclusion, I will give one definite instance of the Lord's working—it is about two little girls from a home for which we have been praying ever since I came to India. In the next compound to the right of us there is a big furniture shop and the home of an exceedingly wealthy and orthodox Hindu who observes all the rules and ceremonies of Hinduism most religiously. In former years the children from his home used to come to our school, but because of the Bible teaching and the growing interest of the little girls in the things of God he withdrew the girls from school. Since then we have tried again and again to get them back, but with no avail. But a wonderful thing has happened— for nine months now two little girls, the gentleman’s granddaughters, have been attending the school. This past month another little girl has been coming with them and they are all interested and love their Bible period. One of them has taken a very special interest and has asked for a Gospel and is reading and studying at home a great deal.

Last month they were having some special “puja” (worship) in the home; every evening countless bells were rung, cymbals clanged and heathen music was played, followed by certain warnings and exhortations by the family priest. One day in class little Rama’s teacher was asking her the reason for all this special “puja” and she said that a little boy had been born in the household and that this was for him. But she said, “You know, teacher, I don’t believe in all that worship because it is all so useless. Since being in your class and since I have been studying in this school you have told me about Jesus and I love Him and have given my heart to Him. Our idols and gods are nothing, but I trust the living God.” What a beautiful testimony from a little girl from this Hindu home! This is just one of the many tokens of God’s blessing and His working in the midst of our 176 little children. (From Miss Fisher’s Report.)

ZENANA WORK AND CITY SCHOOLS, CAWNPORE

Miss Beach, Miss Moore and Miss Shaw, with the assistance of the Bible Women and day school teachers, have carried on work in the zenanas, eight-day schools and Sunday Schools.

Our faithful worker, Miss Nina Harris, has been ill throughout the year and will never be able to resume active work again. She has labored faithfully for many years, taking charge of the city schools and helping Miss Beach in countless ways. Many have come to a knowledge of Jesus Christ through her teaching and influence.

In spite of increasing opposition, and the rivalry of Hindu day schools, now making a strong bid for the children, our schools have had a good year. In the zenanas our workers find more work than they can do and new doors of opportunity are opening constantly. Many women in the zenanas are, our missionaries believe, secret believers, though it is very difficult for a Hindu or a Mohammedan woman to take a stand for Christ. It means the breaking up of a home and the despised believer becomes an outcast. Yet the workers sow the seed faithfully and have assurance that much of it falls into good ground. The Indian teachers and workers have been very faithful in proclaiming the gospel of Christ.

MARY A. MERRIMAN SCHOOL AND ORPHANAGE

The following cheering items are from the report of Miss Long:

During the past year we have had an average of 165 girls. One of our little girls died just after the Summer holidays but the rest of the children have been unusually well. The doctor who comes each week says that of the four schools she visits, the children of our school have the least illness and look the most robust. Three of our girls passed their Government examinations. Two of these are in High School and one is training for a nurse in our Jhansi Hospital.

We are most thankful to God for all the blessings and the privileges that have been ours this year. One of the things which has made us happy is the real desire in the hearts of so many of our girls to want to follow Jesus Christ and their deep interest in spiritual things.

A Hindu widow recently brought her two little girls to us. She works for a mason and carries bricks and mortar. Her girls followed her and the men were so cruel to them she wanted us to take them. Both are very happy in school and the other day when the mother came, the older girl said, "Mother, I am a Chris-tion and will never go back to the Hindus. You must become one too and be baptized." So as we sow the seed, which is the Word of God, in the hearts of these little ones, we pray that it may all bring forth fruit for eternity.

We have had some very real testings but we have always found that God does supply our needs. The faith of the little ones is wonderful. One day when I was very much worried, one of about eight said to me, "We have asked the Lord to send us money and all that we need and He will." So as we work day by day among these children we gain encouragement as well as inspiration and blessing. Surely "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

Dr. Ernst was with the Mission for five months before going on furlough, at which time Dr. Thurrott took over the charge of the medical work.

The yearly report shows increase in numbers both in ward and dispensary patients, as well as in out-calls, surgical operations and obstetrical cases, over the previous year.

At times the hospital has been very full and Dr. Thurrott writes of their special gratification in the large number of patients who came from distant villages. The number of midwifery cases is increasing and a cause for thankfulness is that the Municipal midwife is now cooperating, either sending patients into the hospital or calling upon the staff to visit all the abnormal cases she finds in her practice.

The dispensary work in the village of Hazari is being carried on as usual and several other villages have been visited from time to time but Dr. Thurrott regrets that they have not yet been able to arrange for regular visits to these needy places.

At present six motherless babies are in the hospital—an additional care but "a great blessing, cheering patients, nurses and doctors alike."

Dr. Thurrott expresses gratitude for the kind advice and aid given, not once, but many times, by the various members of the medical board of the British Military Hospital in Jhansi, who strongly approve of the work of our Mission Hospital and stand ready to help in any way possible. She adds,

"The year has gone and we can truly say, 'Hitherto hath the Lord helped us,' and we are confident that,

'His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.'"

NURSES' TRAINING SCHOOL, JHANSI

Miss McLean, reviewing the work of the year, writes:

We are deeply conscious of the many ways in which our loving Heavenly Father has undertaken for us, in teaching us deeper lessons of faith and trust as we have been called upon to meet the different problems.

There have been very few changes among the nurses. With one exception the staff of head nurses remains the same as last year. In March a class of six was graduated, four of whom are now studying midwifery. One of the six has taken a position as school nurse in a mission school in Bijnor, another, one of the brightest of our girls, developed tuberculosis and had to leave us.

In October a class of seven took their first year examinations and all passed with high averages while two graduates of the previous year took their midwifery examinations and passed with good marks. This class has been trained by Miss Gideon, our Indian Medical Assistant, and their success is due to her thoroughness in teaching them. Out of the sixteen who took their examinations during the year there was not one failure.

We have been cheered by the gratitude and appreciation of the patients who have been with us. Their hearty cooperation in the evangelistic part of the work has been a great encouragement also.
The early morning prayers have been taken by the nurses and on Sunday mornings as many as could be spared from ward service have gone to the outside Sunday Schools with the Bible Women and helpers. The nurses’ personal work in the wards as well has been a joy to us. They have continued the work of their Christian Endeavor Society with its weekly meeting and various interest.

Once a week our teachers and nurses have met with women workers from the Presbyterian Mission for a social evening; this is due to the kindness of Miss Lawton of that Mission. Our nurses have thoroughly enjoyed these evenings.

We are grateful for many tokens of our Father’s love and care and for every opportunity for service which the year has brought.
LILY LYTLE BROADWELL HOSPITAL, FATEHPUR

The Hospital report for the year is as follows:

In-patients . . . 530
Days' attendance of in-patients 8,090
Out calls . . . 142
Dispensary patients 7,364

Money received in India:

From in-patients . . . R1,492—12—6
From out-patients 752—9—0
From dispensary 316—1—6

Total . . . R2,561—7—0

The hospital work has been carried on by Dr. Minthorn and Dr. McEwen with the assistance of a staff of Indian nurses and helpers. Owing to Dr. McEwen's illness in summer and Dr. Minthorn's need of rest, after carrying the burden alone, it was found necessary to close the hospital for a few weeks.

Dr. McEwen, in her yearly report, mentions their encouragement in that patients each year are a little more ready to follow advice and to trust the physicians. Their confidence grows through acquaintance. This has also been true in the out-practice work in the villages. Dr. McEwen writes, "The confidence of an Indian village and country district is not easy to gain, but once gained it is fixed."

The hospital has had in-patients to the number of 530, each one an opportunity for the giving of the Christian message. The Bible woman has carried on her work in hospital, dispensary and among the servants and their families on the compound.

With no missionary nurse it has been difficult to train properly the pupil nurses, yet the doctors have tried to do this work in addition to their other duties. All who took the examinations passed in all subjects save one second year pupil who was obliged to repeat one written paper. The doctors report that the nurses have been loyal and faithful and have done good work.
THE WOMEN'S HOME, FATEHPUR

Miss Durrant was on furlough in America during the year, returning to Fatehpur at its close. Miss Colson was in charge of the Home and Miss Cook, who joined her at the time of Miss Durrant’s departure, remained until the latter’s return, rendering valuable assistance in countless ways.

At the beginning of the year 33 women and three children were registered; at its close there were 69 women and nine children in the Home. In her interesting annual report Miss Colson writes as follows:

The girls and women admitted during the year represent needs which are so varied that it is difficult to classify them. Each girl was in difficulty, morally, spiritually, or temporarily, and in many cases, all three combined. A little eleven-year-old girl had not known what a home, loving care or a clean, moral life had meant for the past two or three years until one day, surely by the guidance of our Heavenly Father, she strayed into our Mission Hospital. Her wearing apparel consisted of a small strip of dirty cloth which served as a loin cloth. Her head was covered with sores and altogether she made a pathetic picture. That is just about a year ago. If we were to take you to our Cawnpore School which she entered recently and asked you to pick out this little waif, I am sure you would say, “It is impossible.” Now she is dressed in bright colored frocks, her hair is carefully combed and her face is clean and smiling. She remained in our Home for some months and during that time manifested a desire to learn, and it was a happy day for her when she boarded the train for Cawnpore to attend the school as a regular pupil. Prior to going to Cawnpore, one day at the weekly prayer meeting in the Presbyterian Church at Fatehpur, the Pastor asked any who felt led, to take part in prayer. This little girl, only having spent one year in a Christian Home, voiced a most earnest, intelligent prayer.

A number of unmarried mothers have come to us and many have truly repented of their sin. Their sipirual eyes have been opened to recognize their weakness and their need of the power of Christ in their lives. They have tenderly cared for their little babies and have been so thankful for any little piece of material from which they have made little garments and we feel sure stitches of love have been put into them, regardless of the sad circumstances under which the little ones have come into this world. During the year two of these mothers were married to Christian men, and each was able to take her baby to her new home, the husband promising to care for the child as his own.

Naughty, restless school girls have been sent to the Home; very often we find the root of the trouble is their inability to study; working with the hands seems more along their line than with the brain. A number of these girls have taken a real interest in the lace making, and manifest a keen desire to learn new patterns.

A little over a year ago, a Mohammedan girl who had been living in sin for a number of years, came to the Home. During this time she has learned of Christ and we had the joy of witnessing her public confession of her Saviour in baptism.

The Women’s Home has been a place of refuge to a number of girls and women from the cruel treatment of their husbands or mothers-in-law. One young Hindu girl ran away from her home because of the merciless treatment she had had to endure from her mother-in-law. Our Heavenly Father arranged that a Christian school teacher should meet this young, needy girl along the road, and she was brought to a nearby Mission station. Later she was sent to our Home for teaching. In heart, she is no longer a Hindu, but a happy little Christian, at home in our Christian family circle and expecting to be baptized shortly.

About a year ago, a missionary sent an urgent request that we should open our doors to a girl who called herself a Christian because her parents were Christians, but she had wandered deep into sin, had thrown away opportunities of earning a respectable livelihood and her parents had no control over her and were disgraced by her life. She was truly a lost sheep, but the tender Shepherd found her, and she is now a respectable Christian girl, desirous of working in order that she may be self-supporting.

A number of the girls, after being in the Home a certain length of time during which they have become established in Christ, have gone out to work in Mission Hospitals, homes, etc.

During the year, a very earnest prayer which had been ascending from the hearts of the Christians in Fatehpur, was answered by the coming of an Indian Pastor to minister in the Church here. He has manifested a real interest in helping the Christians and also in winning non-Christians to the Lord. There has been an increase in the Sunday School and Church attendance, and in the spring of the year the Lord graciously blessed during special meetings held in the Church when Dr. Ely from America gave helpful, deeply spiritual messages.

Our missionaries, Miss May, Miss Beach and Miss Mudge have willingly helped in the work whenever there has been a need, and their visits have been a spiritual blessing to all.

BRIDGMAN MEMORIAL SCHOOL
The school has carried on in the midst of change. At the close of the summer Miss Wood’s physician ordered her home for health reasons; this left Miss Ada Nelson as the only missionary representative of our Society at Bridgman. Miss Nelson was able to enlist the help of two other missionaries on the field, Miss Mabel West who had charge of the normal classes in the school two years ago, and whose Board kindly allowed her to give part time to our Work, and Miss Katherine Green of Amoy, a missionary of the Reformed Church in America, who found it necessary on account of the climate to leave Southern China.

In the autumn, at the time of Miss Wood’s return to America, the first Chinese principal was appointed—Mrs. C. C. Chen, a Bridgman School alumna who had studied in this country after graduation. This appointment was made at the request of the Bridgman School missionaries. Mrs. Chen took the principalship at a difficult time and has carried on the work faithfully and with great efficiency.

During the summer a three-story building was erected on the Bridgman property in order to provide extra dormitory space. This building was the gift of Chinese pupils and teachers.

The school enrollment has been over 270, and of this number 120 were boarders. There were forty students in the senior high school. The girls have shown a loyal spirit and have co-operated in many ways in order that the school might go on, in spite of civil war, strikes, and other distressing conditions prevailing in China.

In one of her first letters to the Board the new Principal, Mrs. Chen wrote:

“You will remember us in your prayers that we may not merely work for the showy part; but may really be able to share the richness of Christ with all those with whom we come in contact here.”

THE WOMAN’S CHRISTIAN MEDICAL COLLEGE

The Woman’s Christian Medical College at the Margaret Williamson Hospital has entered upon its third year.

It has given the College great satisfaction to appoint upon its faculty several Chinese women physicians. One of these is Dr. Zok Tsung Wang, who went from America in 1926 as a regularly appointed missionary, having the same status in every way as the foreign missionary. She is Professor of Gynecology in the Medical School. Dr. Wang returned to China loaded with honors. At the University of Chicago she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and to Sigma Xi. She received her M.D. degree from Johns Hopkins University Medical School, and after serving her internship on the Boston Floating Hospital, became resident house officer in Gynecology at Johns Hopkins Hospital and assistant at the Howard A. Kelly Hospital, Baltimore. Dr. Wang is a Christian as are the six other Chinese physicians on the Faculty of the College and the staff of the Margaret Williamson Hospital.

All the medical students are Christians. All have come up through Mission Schools where they have had Bible instruction since the first grade. The freshman class which entered in the autumn of 1926 are four in number and all four are the daughters of ministers. Two are daughters of missionary pastors.

One new building has been added to the college during 1926—the dormitory for medical students on the Stevenside Compound. It is the gift of the Woman's Board of the Southern Methodist Church, one of the four Boards cooperating in this work.

THE MARGARET WILLIAMSON HOSPITAL

The Margaret Williamson Hospital has issued a full report for 1926 entitled "Religious Activities of the Margaret Williamson Hospital," copies of which may be had upon application at the Office of this Society, Room 315, Bible House, New York.

There are eighteen physicians (including two interns), one dental surgeon, thirteen registered nurses, a laboratory technician, laboratory assistant, a treasurer, business manager, record clerk, an evangelist and three Bible Women on the staff of the hospital.

The number of in-patients during the year was 3,197; the out-patients, 29,588; operations in the operating room, 267. Of the in-patients over 1,000 were maternity cases.

The report of the Christian activities at the hospital include daily chapel which nurses, doctors, students, and all employees are expected to attend; a twilight prayer meeting which is led by the student nurses; a street Sunday School conducted and taught by the nurses; Bible classes which are required of all students, both in the medical school and school of nursing; special evangelistic work of Miss Irvine and the Bible Women in the wards and clinic waiting rooms; evangelistic work among men attendants and relatives of patients who come to the waiting-room; evangelistic work in homes where there are out-calls, and follow-up work in the city and village homes of the patients.

Weekly Bible classes are held for all the servants, groups meeting in three different places—the hospital, the Mary Black Home and Stevenside. The evangelistic workers spend each morning from eight to nine in prayer together. During the year four servants became Christians and three had already united with the church when the report was written; the fourth was receiving preparation for the step. One of the women servants who became a Christian has been a servant in the hospital thirty-two years.

Miss Wang Ba Tsung, a young Chinese evangelist of unusual power, conducted a series of meetings at the hospital from September 1st to 12th. She spoke each night in the chapel and had informal group meetings in the nurses’ rooms at different hours. As a result of her work fourteen nurses were baptized and joined the church. At present all graduate nurses and all juniors and seniors in the School of Nursing are Christians. Of the twenty freshman nurses only one is not a Christian; of the twelve probationers seven are not Christians.

Miss Mary J. Irvine is in charge of the evangelistic work in the hospital wards, clinics and private rooms; she is assisted by three Bible Women and by Mr. Peter Chen, the latter working only among men relatives and attendants who appear in the waiting room of the hospital.

MATILDA DOUW FOUNDATION

The Matilda Douw Foundation is the center of the evangelistic work of our Society. Miss Elizabeth Irvine was on furlough from the spring of 1926; Miss Mary Irvine was the evangelist for the hospital, looked after the interests of Van Santvoord Chapel, and finding time for city and village evangelistic work as well. In Miss Elizabeth Irvine's absence Miss Clara Nelson took charge of the Bible School at the Douw Foundation.

The above represents the work of one foreign missionary and four Chinese workers. It speaks for itself.

The following description of a service at Doremus Hall is taken from the Annual Report of the Margaret Williamson Hospital and is typical of the work which is being carried on there:

"From this service we went to another at Doremus Hall, where a number of adults were to be baptized and taken into the church. Among them were two of our servants and another man who had been interested while waiting in our clinic for a relative who was being treated. One servant baptized was Wang Sho Shun, a house boy for four years at Stevenside and now in charge of all the servants in the Bennett Memorial Building (Medical School and clinic building). The other servant baptized was an amah who has been in our maternity department for 32 years. She has gone through the stages of antagonism, indifference, and finally acceptance of the Christian faith. At this service seven men and two women were baptized and all had been instructed in the Christian faith for one year and were intelligently and happily entering upon this new life of conscious effort to do God’s will as revealed by Christ and to get others to do likewise. At this same service a man and his wife brought their three children to be baptized and another woman brought her baby. At the close of the baptismal service we all had the Lord’s Supper together. This church is near the hospital and differs from the Van Santvoord Chapel in that it is a Mandarin-speaking church. The Shanghai dialect is used at Van Santvoord Chapel. Many who come to our cosmopolitan Shanghai do not know the local dialect but do know Mandarin so this church fills a real need. It is a part of the work of the Woman’s Union Missionary Society and is under the direction of Miss Mary J. Irvine.”

BIBLE SCHOOL AND DAY SCHOOL WORK, MATILDA DOUW FOUNDATION

The following items are from the report of Miss Clara A. Nelson:

The first term in the Bible School opened with an enrollment of 17 women and girls, all but three of whom were new students. Miss Wu, a Chinese evangelist, held meetings here for three days, speaking three times each day. The seven students who were still non-Christians at this time took their stand for Christ.

Miss Koo, who has been our matron for many years, was married in May but stayed on in school until the close of the spring term when Mrs. Wang, a Bible School graduate, came to us as matron and helper in the teaching.

The fall term opened with fewer students than we had hoped for and expected, but war had again come so near to Shanghai that many who had intended to come were prevented from doing so. The spirit in the school has been wonderful. During a week of special meetings conducted in the school by a Chinese lady from a neighboring mission, the students all received great blessing. Their progress in the Christian life has been noticeable and also their great interest in and love for Bible study. One class came to me asking if they could not take more Bible next term than they are taking this term. As each student has two Bible classes daily and all want more, we think it a reason for praising God.

The day school has been full all the year and more have applied for entrance than we could accommodate. Very good work has been done as was proved by the result of the examinations, and the children's knowledge of the Word of God would delight any listener.

The Sunday School held each week on the compound has grown almost beyond our ability to care for properly. There were 268 children on the roll last year and all the Bible School students who were able to teach, took part in the work.

BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL

The Japan Mission rejoiced in 1926 over the gift of needed funds for the building of a double dormitory for the use of the two schools respectively, to take the place of the buildings destroyed by the great earthquake in 1923. The Bible School portion of the building was completed first and the students were able to occupy it at the beginning of the fall term. The Doremus School dormitory was finished by the close of the year.

Miss Pratt’s report of the work of the Bible School and evangelistic department includes the following items:

It was a great joy to welcome Mrs. Lynn in early October and she has taken up her work with enthusiasm.

A class of eight entered the school in April, two others joining the class in fall. One of this class, the daughter of a pastor, came to us from a mission school in Osaka, two are Koreans, and all are young women of promise.
On June 24th Commencement was held when three were graduated from the regular course and six from the Christian Social Workers' course. These three graduates were the only ones left of the large class that entered the school in the spring before the earthquake. One has gone to work in Korea, one is helping in a large city church and the third is working in our country station at Iwamoto.

During the summer five students remained in the school, keeping up a number of the Yokohama Sunday Schools; calling in homes and carrying on other work. Our students conducted seven Daily Vacation Bible Schools in various places, one of them being in the house of one of our Korean students who spent her holiday in her Korean home. Another was held in a Buddhist Orphanage—a fine opportunity for real Christian work!

The various Christmas exercises included a union service of eleven Sunday Schools in the Bible School chapel and a celebration for the women who come to the milk station. At the latter a large number of women listened to a stirring evangelistic talk. In the country the Christmas gatherings were made occasions for direct evangelistic work. In one place a baptismal service was held. The students of the Bible School have helped in two evangelistic campaigns carried on in Yokohama and have shown real interest in the work of personal evangelism.

The new station in the village of Kawawa shows steady growth. Weekly services, six Sunday Schools, a night class and a Daily Vacation Bible School were carried on there. A mother's meeting in connection with the milk station was also carried on. There have been earnest inquirers and the teachers have been regular in their visits there for special personal talks. Three have been baptized.

In Iwamoto a woman's meeting has been reopened which has been attended by both Christians and inquirers. Nine have been baptized during the year. Iwamoto and Kasukabe are both asking for resident pastors in the near future.

At Futsu, another of our country stations, Mr. Tajima, a Tokyo pastor, has held meetings in the town hall with good results. The country workers are faithful and earnest and slowly but surely the light is breaking in the towns and villages in our little circuit.

DOREMUS SCHOOL

Miss Tracy returned from furlough November 17th, 1925, and Miss Rogers sailed for home at the end of December.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to those whose gifts have made the new dormitories possible. The assembly room in the school-house has been widened a few feet and more windows put in for light and ventilation. The kitchenette has also been enlarged and is now used for a science laboratory, for classes in both foreign and Japanese cooking and for preparing hot tea and cocoa for school lunches.

Our prayers for a head teacher were answered when we heard through the pastor of Shiloh Church of Mr. Eiji Yokoyama, an elder in his church and a Christian gentleman. He has classes in ethics, physics and chemistry, attends to much of the school business and by his quiet dignity and loyalty has won the respect and loyalty of all.

One of the events of the year was the Thanksgiving service when the contributions brought in by students and teachers were divided and used for European Orphan relief, the Leper Hospital, the Yokohama Christian Blind School, the woman with wooden hands and a few connected with the school who were ill. Flowers were sent to a neighboring hospital.

March 30th a class of ten graduated. One is helping with the secretarial work at the school, one is studying music and one physical training in Tokyo. Sixty were present at the Alumnae luncheon and Miss Kido was elected president of the Alumnae Association.

During the spring term a meeting was held for parents.

Miss Tracy and Miss Loomis attended the fall gathering of the Tokyo alumnae and were delighted with the spirit of Christian fellowship and loyalty to the school.
November 3rd was observed as Tree Day and the history and work of our Mission in Japan were presented by Miss Tracy. The sixth year class and the fifth year girls who, under the new regime, will graduate in 1927, each planted a tree.

The work of the school has shown steady and normal growth. Five teachers have been attending Miss Tracy’s Bible class. A member of the senior class was baptized in summer and several classes are now being held for inquirers. The record kept for the Prayer Room for seven months shows that it has been used 96 times for teachers’ prayer-meetings, the Christian Service League, Bible Study classes and Y. W. C. A. committee meetings.

Five girls went as delegates to the Y. W. C. A. summer conference, three taught Daily Vacation Bible Schools and many of the older girls are carrying on Sunday School work. Fourteen girls were given prizes for memorizing one hundred assigned Bible verses during the summer holiday. In autumn a series of meetings were held in the school by Miss Gillespy of the Japan Evangelistic Band which were very helpful to teachers and students.

Miss Tracy, Miss Loomis and Miss Sato, the school evangelist, have made calls in the homes as opportunity offered, finding everywhere a welcome and opportunities for carrying help. (From Miss Loomis’ report.)

THE HOME BASE

In December we were called upon to part with an honored Vice-President and member of our Board of Managers, Mrs. William De Camp Johnson, who left us to “enter into Life.” Mrs. S. H. Gillespie was elected at the Annual Meeting, which begins our new year, as Vice-President from Morristown. At the close of the year our honored President, Mrs. Samuel J. Broadwell, who has led the Society for twenty-one years, felt obliged to tender her resignation. It was with great regret that this was accepted. At its meeting held just before the Anniversary gathering the Board created by unanimous vote the office of Honorary President, and this Mrs. Broadwell has consented to fill. A new President has been elected—Miss Elizabeth B. Stone, whose close association with the Society as Assistant Treasurer and member of the Executive Board has fitted her in a peculiar way for the office. Other new officers of the Society for the forthcoming year are: Miss Clara E. Masters, who was chosen as a Vice-President; four new Managers, Mrs. Albert H. Riblet of Fanwood, Mrs. F. V Pitney of Morristown, Miss Mary C. S. May of New York, and Miss Ella T. Marston of Brooklyn. A new-old friend was welcomed to active membership on our Board, Mrs. Minot C. Morgan, who has come to live in New York.

During 1926 the following missionaries arrived in America on furlough—Dr. Alice L. Ernst of Jhansi, Miss Elizabeth Irvine, Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock and Miss Muriel Wood of Shanghai, and Miss Margaret S. Rogers of Yokohama. The following missionaries returned to their fields: Miss Durrant of Fatehpur, Miss Haines of Allahabad, and Mrs. Lynn of Yokohama, also Dr. Lawney, Dean of the Medical College in Shanghai. Miss Hood of the School of Nursing at the Margaret Williamson Hospital returned to Shanghai and four recruits were sent to the Hospital and Medical College, Dr. Grace K. Martin, Dr. Wang, a Chinese member of our appointed staff, Dr. Susanne Parsons and Miss Helen Biermann. We had the joy of sending two recruits to India—Miss Margaret B. Quick and Miss Mabel Schoonmaker.

For another year of privilege as co-workers with God in bringing a needy world to the knowledge of His Son, we thank our Heavenly Father.

Woman's Union Missionary Society

"Another year has gone, leaving a deep sense of God's goodness and mercy, and with thankfulness we encourage ourselves in Him, and now enter a new year of service."

With this beautiful introduction we have the report of the year's work in the Ackerman-Hoyt Memorial Hospital, Jhansi, India. It continues: "The various departments of the work were maintained, and encouraging progress seen. It has been our prayerful endeavor to give the spoken and the written word to as many persons as possible. This was done in our hospital, two dispensaries, seven Sunday schools, the day school in our hospital compound, and in the homes of the people, whether in the one-room dwellings of the poor, or in the palaces of the Indian Rulers; and many private conversations gave opportunities to present the claims of Christ as the only Saviour of mankind.

"The interest of the people in things spiritual is certainly increasing. They like to come to our Christian services, and join in the singing of the hymns, many of which they have learned by heart. When we make our professional rounds in the wards, it is no unusual sight to see the women reading our Christian books, or listening to one of their number reading aloud, and many patients after leaving the hospital come back to attend the Sunday services in the wards.

"The people as a whole are showing increased confidence in us, and our maternity work has so far increased that it would seem that the time has now come for a separate building for such cases. Women, at this time, need all the help that can be given in a good hospital, for when confined in their homes, at the hands of ignorant midwives, the mortality of the mothers is appalling. It is put as high as seventy per cent. Many of the motherless infants thus left would survive if proper care were given them in their homes; but this is not available, and so these infants are being brought to us in greater numbers, often from very distant places. We receive as many as we can accommodate, but here, too, we need more room, and separate quarters, away from the sick children who come and go, are highly desirable.

“As time and opportunity permit, we visit former patients in the near and more distant villages, ministering to the spiritual and physical needs of the people. In fact, there are few closed doors now, and the only limit to our work is lack of numbers. Shall we not pray more earnestly to the Lord of the harvest, that He send laborers into the harvest?”

Miss Ellen Colson writes from the Women’s Home, Fatehpur, India, where they now have sixty-nine women and nine children: “At the close of the year we turn to the Lord with hearts full of praise and thanksgiving for His many blessings, His abundant provision for every need, and His working in the hearts of the girls and women in our Home.

“The family has been unusually large during the past year, but each case seemed so needy that we could not turn it off, but instead were thankful that we could take all into the family circle, that they might be helped spiritually and physically.

“The primary aim of the Home being to help those who have fallen into sin, we try to take such cases first. Some of them are unmarried mothers, some young school girls in trouble, and there are those who come simply because they want to learn of Christ. Hindu and Mohammedan girls who have heard the Gospel while receiving treatment at a mission hospital, sometimes come to our home, and we now have three awaiting baptism.
"When not in Bible or reading classes, they make lace, or embroidery, or garments for the family, while all take turns in preparing the daily meal and keeping the compound in order.

"We thank the Lord for the faithful friends at home who are praying and giving, and making this work possible."

Miss Long, a teacher in one of our Mission Schools in Cawnpore, writes: "We wish we had more time to keep in touch with you, but we appreciate you, and thank God for you, for it is only through your help and prayers that our work is made possible. Recently, a wealthy Hindu invited our girls to his fine home for a treat, because in this way he might obtain merit from his gods. The children greatly enjoyed the flowers, many orange trees laden with the ripe fruit, which they were allowed to eat, after which they sang hymns and the missionary gave a message of Christ to the family. We hope it reached their hearts. In all our work we seek to lead the girls to know Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour, and long to have them love Him more as the days go by."

We sent our annual gift of one hundred dollars each to Jhansi, Fatehpur and Allahabad, for their Christmas gifts.
